FBI FOIPA Addendum

As referenced in our letter responding to your Freedom of Information/Privacy Acts (FOIPA) request, the FBI FOIPA Addendum provides information applicable to your request. Part 1 of the Addendum includes standard responses that apply to all requests. Part 2 includes standard responses that apply to requests for records about individuals to the extent your request seeks the listed information. Part 3 includes general information about FBI records, searches, and programs.

Part 1: The standard responses below apply to all requests:

(i) 5 U.S.C. § 552(c). Congress excluded three categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIPA [5 U.S.C. § 552(c)]. FBI responses are limited to those records subject to the requirements of the FOIPA. Additional information about the FBI and the FOIPA can be found on the www.fbi.gov/foia website.

(ii) Intelligence Records. To the extent your request seeks records of intelligence sources, methods, or activities, the FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3), and as applicable to requests for records about individuals, PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(1), (b)(3), and (j)(2)]. The mere acknowledgment of the existence or nonexistence of such records is itself a classified fact protected by FOIA exemption (b)(1) and/or would reveal intelligence sources, methods, or activities protected by exemption (b)(3) [50 USC § 3024(i)(1)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that any such records do or do not exist.

Part 2: The standard responses below apply to all requests for records on individuals:

(i) Requests for Records about any Individual—Watch Lists. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of any individual's name on a watch list pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(7)(E) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that watch list records do or do not exist.

(ii) Requests for Records about any Individual—Witness Security Program Records. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could identify any participant in the Witness Security Program pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(3), 18 U.S.C. 3521, and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.

(iii) Requests for Records for Incarcerated Individuals. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any incarcerated individual pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.

Part 3: General Information:

(i) Record Searches. The Record/Information Dissemination Section (RIDS) searches for reasonably described records by searching systems or locations where responsive records would reasonably be found. A standard search normally consists of a search for main files in the Central Records System (CRS), an extensive system of records consisting of applicant, investigative, intelligence, personnel, administrative, and general files compiled by the FBI per its law enforcement, intelligence, and administrative functions. The CRS spans the entire FBI organization, comprising records of FBI Headquarters, FBI Field Offices, and FBI Legal Attaché Offices (Legats) worldwide; Electronic Surveillance (ELSUR) records are included in the CRS. Unless specifically requested, a standard search does not include references, administrative records of previous FOIPA requests, or civil litigation files. For additional information about our record searches, visit www.fbi.gov/services/information-management/foipa/requesting-fbi-records.

(ii) FBI Records. Founded in 1908, the FBI carries out a dual law enforcement and national security mission. As part of this dual mission, the FBI creates and maintains records on various subjects; however, the FBI does not maintain records on every person, subject, or entity.

(iii) Requests for Criminal History Records or Rap Sheets. The Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division provides Identity History Summary Checks – often referred to as a criminal history record or rap sheet. These criminal history records are not the same as material in an investigative "FBI file." An Identity History Summary Check is a listing of information taken from fingerprint cards and documents submitted to the FBI in connection with arrests, federal employment, naturalization, or military service. For a fee, individuals can request a copy of their Identity History Summary Check. Forms and directions can be accessed at www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks. Additionally, requests can be submitted electronically at www.edo.cjis.gov. For additional information, please contact CJIS directly at (304) 625-5590.

(iv) National Name Check Program (NNCP). The mission of NNCP is to analyze and report information in response to name check requests received from federal agencies, for the purpose of protecting the United States from foreign and domestic threats to national security. Please be advised that this is a service provided to other federal agencies. Private Citizens cannot request a name check.

REFERENCE: Letters from the Bureau, August 14, 1942 and November 9, 1942.

DETAILS:

AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA:

The Bureau instructed that a comprehensive report be prepared indicating the Communist infiltration and possible control of the motion picture industry. It was suggested that the report cover the activities of the Communists in the field of labor organizations, showing the extent to which the Communist Party has gained control and direction of the activities of that section of the skilled, unskilled and technical workers in the Hollywood studios. It has been found in this field that there are thirty-nine separate labor organizations which operate as bargaining agencies for their individual groups, with approximately 20,000 members.

The first portion of this report deals with labor organizations and groups, while the second main portion of this report deals with the activities of the Communists among the writers, actors, actresses, executives, directors, and the so-called intellectuals in general.

While both of these groups have been subject to Communist penetration, and while the methods of penetration have not been the same, it being necessary to approach the working man from a different angle than the intellectual, nevertheless both groups form a part of a broad campaign to influence the motion picture industry as a whole, and the binding and directing force is clearly traceable to the activity of the Communist Party.

It has been found that the Communist activities in the motion picture industry are not in any sense local but on the contrary they form a part of a gigantic world-wide conspiracy of control which has its origin and direction in the Communist Party of the Soviet Union.

It has been observed that the activities, whether they be in the Communist controlled labor unions, the Communist controlled cultural groups, or the Communist front organizations under Communist control, follow every change dictated by the foreign policy of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union.

In each instance when the Communist International, which has its headquarters in Moscow, Russia, sets up a policy to be followed by the Communist Parties throughout the world, these Communist groups in Hollywood have followed "The Communist Party Line". (U)

For example, from August, 1935, when GEORGI DIMITROFF in the Seventh World Congress of the Communist International, held in Moscow, Russia, laid down the formula for what was called "The Popular Front", up to the time of the signing of the pact between HITLER and STALIN on August 23, 1939, every Communist controlled organization in Hollywood labor unions, cultural groups and front organizations followed that policy. On August 23, 1939 the non-aggressive pact between HITLER and STALIN was announced to the world, within a period of sixty days these same Hollywood organizations completely reversed their position and began advocating isolation, opposition to the lend-lease policy, and called the war an imperialist war. (U)

Again on June 22, 1941 when HITLER attacked Russia and the Communist Party line was changed, these same groups changed likewise and are now for all-out prosecution of the war and pretend to be bending every effort to defeat HITLER in accordance with the announced Communist Party line.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE, COMMUNIST PARTY, U.S.A., NEW YORK CITY, RETAINS ITS SPECIAL JURISDICTION OVER HOLLYWOOD CULTURAL GROUPS FOR PURPOSE OF PREVENTING EXPOSURE

(U)

Source A has stated that as far back as 1934 the Communist Party began to lay plans to utilize Hollywood and the motion picture industry for the Communist cause, but it was not until the fall of 1936 that a full realization of this possibility was reached. On November 13 and 14, 1936, there was held in San Francisco a conference of writers from all over the United States. It was called the Western Writers Congress. The call for this congress was issued by HARRY CARLISLE, an important functionary of the Communist Party in California at the time. He had been centering his activities in the Hollywood section. CARLISLE was a member of the National Council of the League of American Writers which was organized in the spring of 1935 in New York City. This national council was affiliated with the International Union of Revolutionary Writers whose headquarters were in Moscow, Russia. CARLISLE had also been national organizer of the JOHN REED CLUB, a Communist group which preceded the formation of the League of American Writers.

Representing the Central Committee of the Communist Party at this congress were VICTOR J. JEROME and MICHAEL GOLD. JEROME was a member of the Central Committee of the Communist Party, and GOLD is the well known Communist writer on the staff of the "Daily Worker", the official paper of the Communist Party in America, located in New York City.

Writers and personages from, or connected with, Hollywood, attended this conference as delegates, and were:

As a result of the WESTERN WRITERS CONGRESS, Source C has stated that early in 1937, VICTOR J. JEROME was sent to Hollywood to direct the activities of the Communist Party in the motion picture industry.

After his arrival here a decision was made that owing to the importance of Hollywood and the prominence of those personages, actors, actresses, writers, directors and others who were drifting over into the Communist Party and the various front organizations, it would be necessary to separate the Hollywood activities of the Party from all connection with District No. 13 of the Communist Party and place it directly under the jurisdiction and supervision of the Central Committee of the Communist Party in New York City. This arrangement applied only to those units of the Party which were composed of prominent actors, actresses, writers, directors, and executives. It did not apply to rank and file Communists who were members of labor unions. (U)

This decision was carried out and from that time on the Hollywood cultural faction was completely independent and had no official connection with the local management of the Communist Party. (U)

To further protect the Hollywood luminaries who were then flocking into the Communist orbit in such numbers, directives were issued that all party membership books were to be destroyed and all documentary evidence of every kind was also to be destroyed. (U)

In addition to the foregoing precautions, all units to which personages belonged were made "closed units". A "closed unit" is one which retains the same membership continuously, taking in no new members, thus preventing a leak. (U)

Members of these units, when paying their dues to the party, merely bought the required dues stamps and then destroyed them. (U)

Source D furnished to Agent a copy of a "strictly confidential" report dated January 22, 1934 which was prepared by a party who had been a member of the Communist Party and who may have been a member of the Communist Party at the time the report was made. This report was made for the "Association of Motion Picture Producers, Inc." and contains much valuable preliminary information as this was approximately two years before the Central Committee of the Communist Party, U.S.A. at New York City began to realize the possibilities of the motion picture industry to the Communist Party. This report is copied herein: (U)

[ "Subject: Activities of Individual Communists and Organizations in Hollywood. ] (U)

"The following information on individual Communists and Communist organizations, subsidiary and otherwise, operating in Hollywood, is furnished for your information. (U)

"The Los Angeles sub-district of District 13 of the Communist Party USA, now has a total of 105 units functioning in Los Angeles and immediate vicinity, with a total membership of approximately 1750 persons. This, however, does not include membership of several thousand in their numerous subsidiary and auxiliary organizations. (U)

"In Hollywood proper, there have been established six separate units of the Communist Party during the past five months, at the beginning of which there existed only one unit whose activities were somewhat limited, and the spreading of its influence to the extent of the formation of six units is a significant barometrical reading of the growth of the party in Hollywood. (U)

"While there are six units that are acknowledged, there is a seventh which might be termed a shadow unit, which is being kept secret until some time after February. This seventh unit is composed mainly of former Socialist Party members who have broken away from the Socialist Party and have become affiliated with the Communist Party and the existence of this unit will not be made known until after the state convention of the Socialist Party. Among the notable members of this latter unit, are Mr. and Mrs. NASH, having been identified as state secretary of the Socialist Party. (U)

"The former Socialist Party headquarters located at 1453 Vine St., Hollywood, has been taken over by the Communist Party and its subsidiaries. Among some of the organizations holding meetings there are the JOHN REED CLUB, the Pen & Hammer Club, and a recent newly organized social group of the motion picture workers. This headquarters is known as the Commonwealth House. (U)

"One of the Communist Party units held its meeting at the Commonwealth House on Thursday, January 11th, at which comprehensive reports on the activities of this unit and its members during the past and on its future work was rendered. The major concentration decided upon the building of the Motion Picture Workers Union. (U)

"A Mr. WOLF, an organizer of one of the Hollywood Units of the Communist Party, known both as HERMAN WOLF and HARVEY WOLF, is the organizer of the new revolutionary union, which is known as the "Motion Picture Workers Industrial Union." It appears that WOLF was formerly employed as a laboratory worker in a studio and has a wide acquaintance among the workers in the motion picture industry, and he is now applying himself assiduously to the building of this new union. (U)

"The Communist Party fraction of the new union is composed of WOLF, NEIL BRANT, the GOLDBLATT brothers (Young Communist League members) EDDY CLARK, BILL GHIER, HELMAR BERGMAN, LOU HEIFETZ, Mr. and Mrs. GORDON, Gardenia, and a few others. Not all the fraction members are members of the Communist Party, and though this is somewhat of an unusual situation, it is permitted in this instance because of the superlatively revolutionary psychology and ideas of the persons involved. They follow the party line and decisions unerringly. (U)

"From confidential reports, WOLF is being careful in his selection of members for the union and appears to be concentrating on the carpenters, painters and other laborers, and is shying away at this time from the writers. This is mainly because the inarticulate worker is more tractable than the intellectual and can be counted upon to follow the leaders' instructions or appeals in the case of an emergency. (u)

"The policy in building the new motion picture union is to carefully build up a solid membership of the studios employees, then when the membership is sufficiently strong enough, WOLF and the other party members will propose affiliation with the Trade Union Unity League and it is believed that the rank and file of the membership will have by this time been sufficiently impregnated with Communist Party psychology. After this move has been accomplished, the writers and other more temperamental of the workers will be solicited for membership. (u)

"As a means to an end, an association of motion picture employees has been organized. This organization bears the front of a social organization, but is in reality utilized as a recruiting field for the new motion picture employees union. (u)

"This social group meets with and listens to HELMAR BERGMAN and other smooth tongued Communists, and absorbs Communist germs without realizing it. WOLF refers to the social group as the "educational" group and is frank among the comrades in the party in Hollywood to admit that it was organized for the purpose of lining up prospects for the union. (u)

"Other brevities on Communist Party activities in Hollywood include the following: (u)

"The Hollywood section of the Communist Party commemorated the passing of NICOLAI LENIN at their own section, Sunday night, January 21st at the Commonwealth House, 1453 Vine St. (rear) at 8 p.m.; Dr. TASHJIAN was the chairman of the meeting, and NEIL BRANT was the main speaker. (u)

"Members of the Hollywood section of the Communist Party have received instructions from the sub-district headquarters in Los Angeles that the election campaign will be one of the major campaigns of the party this year. Every party member stands instructed to register "Communist". The old evasion of "decline to state", is definitely abolished and all party members must register "Communist." (u)

"The Hollywood section of the Communist Party is planning to establish the Daily Worker in Hollywood (The Daily Worker is the official organ of the Communist Party in the United States). It appears that after considerable dickering, they have made arrangements with the owner of a newsstand located at 6363 Hollywood Blvd. to stock and carry this publication and copies may be procured at this address at the present time. (u)

"One of the outstanding activities of the Hollywood section of the party is the maintenance of a propaganda group as the "Hollywood Discussion Club," which trading on the leniency of the School Board in its policy of permitting Communist subsidiaries and Communist camouflaged organizations to use the school buildings for their propaganda work, organized a committee to arrange and conduct meetings of the Hollywood Discussion Club. The committee first secured the Vine St. School for these meetings. Meetings were held in this building for a matter of several months, then it became apparent that the location was not the best so far as drawing power was concerned, and accordingly, the committee sought a more advantageous location, with the result that the school building located at the corner of Santa Monica Blvd. and Van Ness Ave. is now being utilized for dissemination of all sorts of Communist propaganda. Party members believe that larger crowds will be attracted in this location and that the party's influence will grow among those attending these meetings in the near future. (u)

"A Communist Party member named WILLIAM GHIER, who is also an actor and now employed in the studios, has conducted negotiations with the School Board for the use of the school buildings. In his applications for permits to the Board and when appearing before them, he is known as WILLIAM GREEN, and it appears from his talk or cover with members, that he wears the ultimate in the matter of facial innocence and expression, and is never suspected of being a Communist. In the past, at regular intervals, it has been necessary for him to appear before the School Board for a renewal of the permit to use the building, and at these times this mild appearing Communist used the fictitious name of Mr. WILLIAM GREEN, impressing the Board members with his integrity. (u)

"Several interesting new members have been added to the Communist Party units in Hollywood, among them being; DON GORDON, the writer, BEN PRIVAL, the artist, who has a small studio located at 6768 Hollywood Blvd., PRIVAL has been active in the John Reed Club; his wife, ZORA PRIVAL is also a party member. Another recent party member is PAUL RYAN, who conducts the Hollywood Book Store on Hollywood Blvd. RYAN is a student and a clever writer and is, incidentally also very active in the John Reed Club. His nom de plume is MICHAEL QUIN and he is on the staff of the "Partisan", the John Reed Club publication, and is now attached to Unit #4 as Agitprop director, but will only remain until such time as this unit develops sufficiently to provide an agitprop director to take his place. By territorial division he belongs to another of the Hollywood Units. X (u)

"The "Partisan" is the official publication of the John Reed Clubs of Hollywood, Carmel and San Francisco with mailing address Box 2088, Hollywood, and is termed the "revolutionary journal of art, literature and opinion." It is published in Hollywood, Cal. and made its first appearance in Volume 1, #1, December, 1933. X (u)

"The writers and artists union of the John Reed Club meets separately every Wednesday night at the Commonwealth House, 1453 Vine St., rear. X (u)

"One of the other units of the Hollywood section of the Communist Party is concentrating on agitation among the laundry workers in the Hollywood territory. Leaflets have been distributed among workers in the Hollywood Laundry at Sunset and Tujunga, and others at the Community Laundry and the Pride Hand Laundry. NEIL BRANT is the director of the laundry activities of the Hollywood section and will present a plan of action for the units in the near future. X (u)

"Other Communist subsidiaries existing in Hollywood proper include: Two branches of the International Labor Defense, namely the Ben Boloff Branch and the Karl Leibknecht branch, German speaking. Two units of the Young Communist League, and two Young Pioneer troops, and International Workers Order, adult branch and International Workers Order, youth branch; a branch of the ICOR and a unit of the Workers Ex-Servicemen's League. Also the Communist Party has fraction members in five groups of the Bellamy Clubs; one of said groups sends delegates to the "Anti War Conference" and to the "United Front Conference Against Fascism. X (u)

"There also exists in connection with the John Reed Clubs, the block of painters engaged in frescoe and mural paintings; a branch of the W.I.R. (Workers International Relief) is in process of formation. Already there is functioning a Workers Film and Photo League, under the leadership of the W.I.R.; it is composed chiefly of petty bourgeoisie elements, but it holds alluring possibilities for exploitation by the Communists; CLARK, a cameraman and member of Unit #4 Communist Party is assisting in the extension of this organization. There is also a branch of the National Students League in Hollywood, which was organized by the Young Communist League. (U)

"The "Red front", an organization of Communist members for use as defense squads and strong arm tactics when coming in conflict with the police, has been organized during the past several months. It is described by the Communists as the vanguard of the Communist Party and members from each of the 105 units are assigned to this organization. The "Red front" is already well organized in New York, Chicago and other metropolitan centers, and will always be found at the front in fights, demonstrations and other places where serious struggle is anticipated on the part of Communist Party leadership. (U)

"The Relief Workers Protective Union is a Communist organization of workers on county relief roll; has two locals located throughout Hollywood, as well as a Communist Party fraction working in one of the Hollywood Unemployed Cooperative Relief Association units. (U)

"Will endeavor to keep you advised from time to time of any outstanding progress being made by the Communists in their endeavor to penetrate into the motion picture industry, or any other activities that may interest you." (U)

Source D also on February 20, 1933 furnished to the Association of Motion Picture Producers, Inc., a report in which Source stated that the Communists "John Reed Club of Hollywood was a branch of the international Union of Revolutionary Writers and Artists," members of which are to be found amond the writers, actors, actresses, artists and scenic painters and others employed in the various motion picture studios. (U)

Source further stated that a communication from the "Workers International Relief" addressed to JOSEPH TURCHINSKY was available which made mention of the fact that SAM ORNITZ, a writer, was employed by one of the studios and that a copy of a letter of ORNITZ' addressed to the International Labor Defense in Los Angeles was also available. (U)

Source then stated "The Workers International Relief is a Communist subsidiary and auxiliary mass organization having a dual mission, that of rendering assistance and relief in strikes, and has charge of proletarian cultural activities, presenting propaganda films and entertainment, and the establishing of Communist children's summer camps." It further stated that the national chairman of the Workers International Relief, BISHOP WILLIAM MONTGOMERY BROWN, is an avowed Communist and its national secretary, ALFRED WAGENKNECHT, is a member of the Central Executive Committee of the Communist Party, U.S.A. (U)

Source stated that JOSEPH TURCHINSKY, to whom the letter was addressed, is an active and militant member of the Communist Party, in charge of Workers International Relief in this section. Source further stated that "The International Labor Defense with which SAM ORNITZ is connected, is another of the Communist subsidiary and auxiliary mass organizations, functioning for the defense of persons (particularly Communists) arrested for seditious activities against the Government, and the defense of Communists and sympathizers arrested for unlawful activities during strikes, demonstrations, riots, and other disturbances. (u)

CONTEMPORARY FILM DISTRIBUTORS

Source E in 1935 made a report to the employer of Source E relative to the above-named organization. This report is copied in full below: (u)

"RE: Aaron Brodsky

"There is, in Los Angeles, a group which calls itself the "Contemporary Film Distributors". Those comprising the group are AARON BRODSKY, KATE BRODSKY (his wife) CHANDLER WESTON and his wife. AARON BRODSKY is the general head of the group.

"AARON BRODSKY is the western representative of the Garrison Film Company, a company producing liberal and revolutionary motion pictures in the east. It is controlled and financed by Communists, although this fact is shrouded in secrecy. The production of these films is a part of the propaganda program of the Communist Party.

"Naturally, BRODSKY handles principally Garrison films but he is not restricted in this matter. A brief review of the circumstances leading up to BRODSKY'S present enterprise, is necessary to an understanding of the situation as it exists today.

"In 1935, AARON BRODSKY joined the Communist Party. He was also a member of the Film and Foto League, a left-wing group of Bohemian type persons who had aspirations to become actors and actresses.

"Later, the Film and Foto League was reorganized and the "New Film Group" supplanted it. After a brief existence, this organization was in turn dissolved in February, 1935. One half of the membership, interested in the production end of the business, is still loosely holding together, talking about making revolutionary or liberal pictures, but actually doing nothing. The other part of the membership, less interested in the "arty" phase of the business than in the more lucrative "showing" of the pictures, set itself up in business. In spite of the fact that the name they adopted (Contemporary Film Distributors) gives the impression of big business, there are only four persons in the entire organization, and they are Communists.

"BRODSKY himself, makes a salary of from $150 to $200 per month, at present, on the showings of motion pictures. This salary is based on "labor charges" he makes for showing pictures to various organizations, groups, affairs, etc. When sound pictures are shown, a larger charge is made than for a silent picture. In addition to this, BRODSKY receives a 10% commission from the Garrison Film Company, when he shows a Garrison film. However, his steady income is derived from a job which he holds, but which is not known to this writer.

"Every effort is made to delude the public as to the true character of the revolutionary films, not only by BRODSKY but by the Communist Party as well - IF - it is thought that only by such deceit can they guarantee that the pictures will be shown. For instance, it is known to a few leading Communists, that a woman known as Miss WILSON, bargained with the Public Library for the showing of certain pictures. Miss WILSON assured the Library employee that these pictures had no connection whatever with the Communist Party or with Communism. She produced a card (one of which is attached hereto) showing that these pictures were to be shown in the Hollywood Women's Club. Her listener was convinced that if the pictures were to be shown in so reputable a place, they must be above criticism! But - these cards were on display in the offices of the Communist Party, and the "Modern Film Group" which purported to be presenting the pictures was actually a small group of Communists attached to the Professional Section of the Communist Party.

"Another card accompanies this article, which lists four of this same group of pictures and showing that this group of pictures was to be shown in the Industrial Section's Headquarters. The Industrial Section is a section of the Communist Party. In comparing the two cards attached, it will be found that pictures, 2, 3, 4 and 5 are the same in both instances. It is ridiculous to assume that the so-called "Modern Film Group" would have no connection with Communism or the Communist Party, with evidence like this on hand.

"It is timely to suggest that organizations, clubs, etc., which are approached by personable men or women who make attractive offers for the showing of motion pictures, should make a thorough investigation of the persons approaching them, and of the film or films offered, before making any arrangements. These Communist agents have developed a finished technique and can make a thorn appear as attractive as a rose.

"This policy has been adopted by the Contemporary Film Distributors, as well. Mrs. AARON BRODSKY is the "front" for the organization, making contacts with various organizations and groups and attending to all business arrangements. BRODSKY attends to the technical end of showing the films. Mrs. BRODSKY is the bookkeeper for the group, as well."

The first "card" referred to in the report above is identified as follows:

"The Best of Foreign Films at the Industrial Section, 546½ S. Spring St."

The second "card" is identified as follows:

"Modern Film Group presents
Five internationally important Sound Films! . . . .
Hollywood Women's Club, 7078 Hollywood Blvd."

The five films mentioned on card No. 1 are the following:

"Thunder Over Mexico"
Mexican Film by EISENSTEIN and UPTON SINCLAIR

"Crime and Punishment",
French Film with HARRY BAUERS

"Alone" - Russian Film

"A Nous La Liberte"
French Film by Rene Clair

"The Wave"
Beautiful Film of Mexico today

The five pictures mentioned on Card No. 2 are the following:

1. "Youth of Maxim" - Russian
   Directed by KOSINTSEV & TRAUBERG

2. "Crime et Punishment" - French
   Directed by PIERRE CHENAL, with music by HONNEGER

3. "Alone" - Russian
   Directed by KOSINTSEV & TRAUBERG, music by SHOSTOKOVITCH

4. "A Nous la Liberte" - French
   Directed by RENE CLAIR

5. "The Wave" (Redes) - Mexican
   With photography by PAUL STRAND

It will be noted that four of the five pictures are listed on both cards. It is reported that all of these films are of a propaganda nature.

WORKERS' FILM AND FOTO LEAGUE

[Source F furnished to Agent a copy of a confidential report concerning the activities of the Workers Film and Foto League which held a mass meeting on February 6, 1935 at the Commonwealth House, 1453 Vine Street, Hollywood, California. Several of the Communist Party members who were most active at that time are still active in the affairs of the Communist Party in Los Angeles at the present time. SAM ORNITZ, the featured speaker on that occasion, is one of the staunchest Communists in California today. This report is as follows:

"Preliminary activities are in progress in Hollywood, for the organization of a bona fide Workers' Film and Photo League. These activities include the holding of meetings to which the public and persons interested in the production of motion pictures, are invited. Interesting talks, as well as the showing of motion pictures, are provided for entertainment. The talks are designed to inform the people of the aspirations and plans of the new organization.

"In the past, there has been in existence a small group which called itself the Workers' Film and Photo League, but this small group was handicapped for lack of funds, for want of support from technicians and was in reality a one-man organization. J. SIMINOFF owns the camera and some of the paraphernalia, and he has done most of the photographing and other work alone. Now, however, it is planned by certain of the Communist Party members, to make a real organization out of the remnants of the old, with a Party fraction guiding the organization. Among those Party members who are active in forming the new group, are BETTY SMITH, recently arrived from New York, Mr. SALTER, also from New York, EDDIE O'TOOLE, BILL MILLER, BILL GHIER and the WALLACES.

"On Tuesday, February 6th, SAM ORNITZ was the featured speaker at one of these meetings. The meeting was held in Commonwealth House, 1453 Vine Street. Approximately 65 people were present. An admission charge of 15¢ was made.

"ORNITZ said that the purpose of the League was to eventually produce motion pictures, depicting events in the class struggle, etc. In order to produce pictures which may be put on a paying basis, it is necessary to draw into the League film technicians, camera men, grips, cutters, electricians, etc. ORNITZ warned his listeners that they must not come into the Workers' Film and Photo League with the expectation of winning personal glory or fame. They must not come in for "art's" sake. They must come into the League with the full understanding that association with the organization will place upon them the stigma of being called a Red; They must come into the organization understanding that they will have to face HYNES and his murderous Red Squad; they can expect that when they go out to photograph scenes at a demonstration, they will probably be thrown into jail and get their heads bashed in, as well. However, ORNITZ added, the members of this League will have the compensation of a conscience which rests assured in its conviction that the owner of said conscience, has done his best for the revolutionary cause. "Personally", said ORNITZ, "I don't see any fun in living unless you can take these chances. I don't know what justification there is for your living unless you are willing to be beaten up or jailed for the cause of the revolution."

"ORNITZ sneered at the type of motion pictures which is being produced. He said that the actors are tired of love scenes and "all that rubbish". They want to make revolutionary pictures, which actually deal with the class struggle. He declared that it was a revelation to him when he found that so many of the actors and extras are Red.

"ORNITZ spoke of having been in Kentucky and of seeing the hunger, misery and want of the poor people there. He said it would have been invaluable if he could have made pictures of the children with their bodies emaciated from hunger, and their little legs that looked like sticks. He added that he is under indictment in Kentucky and that he was exiled from there.

"He declared that the major studios are now considering making some Russian pictures. He told of the gradual radicalization of some of the greater lights in the picture business. He referred to "Red Square", the picture which Columbia was preparing to make. He said, in connection with this, that LAWRENCE STALLINGS was assigned to write the script for "Red Square". STALLINGS had always been viciously opposed to the Soviet Union. In fact, he became furious when the revolutionary country was mentioned in his presence. In order to gather the proper information for his assignment, he went to Russia in the company of MILESTONE, the director, who is a Russian by birth.

"After spending a little time in Russia, MILESTONE and STALLINGS returned to America. STALLINGS' sentiments towards the Soviet Union appeared to have undergone a complete change. He is now quite sympathetic towards Russia, and the script which he wrote for "Red Square" proved to be exceedingly sympathetic towards the Red Government.

"At this point, LOU HEIFETZ, who was sitting in the audience, asked ORNITZ for permission to make a statement. ORNITZ begged that he do so, and HEIFETZ said, "Comrades, I have bad news for you. I was at Columbia today and they are not going to make "Red Square". I saw the script which STALLINGS wrote and regard it as the finest piece of literary work I have seen for some time."

"ORNITZ displayed great chagrin at this announcement. HEIFETZ added further that the publicity man at Columbia said to him, "There's no use talking - we've got to sell the Americans on Russia."

"The meeting then continued in its informal way, with questions from the floor, and either ORNITZ or O'TOOLE answering them.

"Someone in the audience asked if any technicians belonged to the Film and Photo League as yet. O'TOOLE replied that there are camera men, cutters and writers in the membership at present. It might be mentioned at this point that he announced that HARRY KOMER, formerly a member of the YCL, is a cutter at M.G.M.

"Scraps of pictures which SIMINOFF had taken, were shown, at this time, but because they were shorts and were not correctly assembled the effect was bad."

LARGE FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTORS TO THE COMMUNIST PARTY AT AN EARLY DATE (1935 - 1936)

Source G furnished the Agent a copy of a report which was prepared early in 1936 for certain picture producers. This report is as follows: (U)

"From among the fabulous-salaried executives, directors, actors, scenario writers, etc., of the motion picture industry, have come the Communist Party's most liberal financial supporters. Without the huge monthly contributions of these persons, the Communist Party would have been handicapped in maintaining the extensive headquarters at 224 S. Spring Street and at 230 S. Spring Street. (U)

"These contributors are given the utmost in protection by the Communist Party. One trusted Party member acts as collector, and once each month, visits the various contributors for the purpose of making the collections. An official receipt is given. Only a trusted few of the Party members know the names of the contributors. There is one outstanding example of exposure, and that was the case of where JAMES CAGNEY'S name was broadcast after letters had been found, identifying him as a Communist sympathizer and supporter. This experience caused a tightening of the apparatus handling collections, etc. (U)

"JAMES CAGNEY'S name is among those at the head of the list of heavy contributors. He can be counted upon to make additional contributions in emergency cases, as well as to maintain his regular monthly payments. (U)

"FRANK DAVIS, assistant producer and director, whose home is at [redacted] makes a regular monthly donation of $500.00 to the Communist Party. DAVIS recently flew his own plane to Yuma, where he was married to TESS SLESINGER. TESS SLESINGER, incidentally, divorced her former husband because he did not share her radical ideas. She is a scenario writer. She, like DAVIS, is a staunch supporter of Communism. (U) b6 b7C

"Last May, FRANK DAVIS, accompanied by Mrs. BERYL LA CAVA, wife of GREGORY LA CAVA (motion picture director), went to Russia. He declared that his purpose in visiting Russia was to determine for himself, that HEARST was printing lies about that country. DAVIS said he was going to fly over the Ukraine and convince himself that starvation was unknown there. (U)

"Before leaving for New York, on the first stage of the Russian trip, FRANK DAVIS made a gift of a Ford V-8 coupe to the Los Angeles Section of the Communist Party. The Ford had been one of his personal cars and the signing over of the certificate of ownership seemed a trifling thing to him. At the time he left for Russia, he was donating $100.00 per month to the Party. The increasing of the monthly contribution to $500.00 apparently indicates that his devotion to Communism has increased considerably since that time. (X)(W)

"It may be interesting to note here that last summer, the C.E.C. of the Communist Party sent a man known only as "LAWRENCE", from New York to Los Angeles, for the specific purpose of organizing the wealthy sympathizers into a disciplined group. These wealthy Communist sympathizers were told that the Party needed their support and would protect them. Since that time, the monthly collections have been made in an organized manner and the income of the Communist Party has been incredibly increased. A certain percentage of all collections remains in the treasury of the Los Angeles Section, some goes to the District and the balance to New York. (X)(W)

"MARION AINSLEE, scenario writer, was also among the contributors to the Party. Last summer, she was donating $50.00 per month. In September, she went to Russia to join her husband, who has been a student in the University of Moscow for about three years. He is majoring in "Organization" and upon his return to the United States, the Party will assign him to some major position in this field. MARION AINSLEE will return to America with her husband, and without a doubt, her donations will resume their regularity. (X)(W)

"SAM ORNITZ, writer, has long been identified with the revolutionary movement. His monetary contributions to the cause of revolution and the sovietization of the United States, are made through the International Labor Defense. Besides his monetary contributions, he contributes much in writing. He also speaks at various radical affairs and is mightily interested in the production of motion pictures which will act as mediums for the dissemination of revolutionary propaganda. (X)(W)

"GUY ENDORE, writer, is also listed as a sympathizer and contributor. (X)(W)

"RUTH CHATTERTON, the star, is described as being extremely sympathetic and can be counted upon to make liberal contributions when called upon. (X)(W)

"LIONEL STANDER, the comedian who is becoming so popular, is a member of the Communist Party and is probably assessed by the Party, for a considerable percentage of his large salary. (X)(W)

"FRANK TUTTLE, motion picture director, is among the devotees to the Soviet idea. The extent of his contribution to the movement, has not been learned by the writer, but it is understood that he is most liberal. His wife, TANYA, was the sponsor of a large affair held at the fashionable Trocadero, some time ago, the proceeds of which went to the Scottsboro Defense. (u)

"EDWARD G. ROBINSON, star, is an admitted Communist sympathizer. He contributes heavily. Last summer, he attended the "protest meeting" held at the Vine Street Playhouse in Hollywood, which was held for the purpose of the so-called attack upon BILL GHIER. It may be recalled that BILL GHIER, a member of the Communist Party, was assisting in the presentation of the anti-fascist play, "Till the Day I Die", at the Vine Street Theater, at that time. One night, he claimed, he was way-laid as he left the Theatre and severely beaten. Communists and sympathizers immediately arranged the protest meeting, at which GHIER, leaning heavily upon a cane and attempting to look wan, was the star. EDWARD G. ROBINSON attended this meeting, occupying a seat down front. He was among those most vociferously voicing their anger at the attack upon GHIER. (u)

"It was learned that KING VIDOR is beginning to show leftward tendencies. At a meeting of writers and press correspondents, KING VIDOR remarked that Russia is making the very best motion pictures being produced anywhere in the world today. He attributed this fact to the fact that the producers "are not hampered by having to consider box-office results", as the Soviet Union is not interested in profits.

"VICTOR SHAPIRO, publicity man at Twentieth-Century Fox, has joined the band of Communist supporters. He is willing to contribute not only money but his ability as publicity man, as well, offering all of the facilities at his command, for conversion to Communist requirements. (u)

"It has been reported that LEWIS MILESTONE is rapidly becoming a believer in the Russian precepts, and that he is willing to contribute to the cause in any way he is able to.

"It may be apropos to make some reference here to the play, "Bury the Dead." On March 29th, this play was read at the Womens' Club on Hollywood Boulevard, with FREDERIC MARCH and his wife, FLORENCE ELDREDGE, reading the major roles. Among the notables attending this reading were JAMES CAGNEY, LIONEL STANDER, ONSLOW STEVENS, DUDLEY NICHOLS (who recently refused to accept the academy award, claiming that it was not a fairly conducted procedure and that it is an empty gesture), FRANK TUTTLE and his wife and JOHN CROMWELL, the well known director who has a magnificent estate in Hidden Valley.

"Regarding: CLIFFORD ODETTS.

"The following was learned today from a reliable and extremely confidential source.

"CLIFFORD ODETTS is the author of the anti-fascist play, "Til the Day I Die" and of "Waiting for Lefty". These plays created a great furor when presented. For a long time, ODETTS, although a well known writer and playwright, had been struggling for a livelihood in New York.

"After the smash successes of his plays, the motion picture producers sat up and took notice of him. He was offered an enticing job at the salary of $2500.00 per week, in Hollywood. It appears that ODETTS did not even have to make up his own mind on the matter, for the C.E.C. of the Communist Party - upon learning of the offer - instructed

INTRODUCTION OF COMMUNIST PARTY ACTIVITIES IN HOLLYWOOD MOTION PICTURE LABOR UNIONS

Source H has stated that it was not until 1934 that the Communist International (Comintern) headquarters in Moscow, Russia discovered the tremendous possibilities of the motion picture as a means of propaganda to serve the foreign policy of the Soviet Union and spread its brand of Communism everywhere throughout the world where motion pictures are shown. (U)

Source stated that up to that time, which was the latter part of 1934, the Communist Party in the United States had had no specific instructions to concentrate on the Hollywood motion picture industry with the object of capturing the labor unions of the workers in that industry and influencing others in cultural fields in Hollywood. (U)

Source stated that this is correct is borne out by what took place at a meeting of the Communist faction of Los Angeles County held at 2500 Brooklyn Avenue, Boyle Heights, in the fall of 1933 at which time SAMUEL DARCY, then the Communist Party organizer of District 13 of the Party under which the territory of Southern California operates, severely criticized one of the comrades for mentioning the possibility of penetrating the motion picture industry. DARCY said at that time that Communists had no business wasting their efforts in "swanky Hollywood". Their place, he said, was down in the industrial districts, the shipyards and the harbor where the real Communist work was to be done. (U)

Source H stated that at about the same time, or shortly before that time, a Russian motion picture director, SERGEI EISENSTEIN, had made a picture in Mexico in cooperation with UPTON SINCLAIR, called "Thunder Over Mexico". This picture was called "an epoch of revolution" by Communists and sympathizers. It was exhibited extensively in the United States and at the Lux Theater in Hollywood.

EISENSTEIN came to Hollywood at this time and was received with much acclaim by executives, writers and actors alike. He was wined and dined and shown every consideration. He was much impressed with the industry but criticized the type of pictures made. He stated that they were not sufficiently socially conscious.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

Source stated that late in 1934 EISENSTEIN returned to Russia and has never returned to the United States so far as Source is informed. Source further stated that not long after EISENSTEIN arrived in Russia an article was published in the "Communist", the official monthly organ of the Comintern in the United States. [In this article the possibilities of Communist penetration of the Hollywood motion picture industry was stressed and propaganda possibilities of the motion pictures were enlarged upon. Source further stated that in the spring of 1935 direct orders came down in mimeographed form (these communications are called "directives") from the top structure of the Party to all units in the Los Angeles section that there must be an intense concentration on Hollywood and the motion picture industry. The article emphasized the fact that the Communists must try to capture the labor unions for, if this could be done, they could be of much service in influencing the type of pictures produced and thus serve the Soviet cause.] The article emphasized that at the same time work must be done among the cultural group, writers, artists, actors, actresses, and others, to enlist their assistance toward the Communist cause.

There is being set out below a history of activities of the Communist Party as they were applied to the labor unions in the motion picture industry in Hollywood from the year 1934 when the Communist Party decided to enter that field, until the present time.

HOLLYWOOD STUDIO UNIONS

[Source I, who has been a member of the A.F. of L. labor unions in Hollywood for many years, has stated that the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees, an autonomous group of local unions identified with the American Federation of Labor, is one of the oldest group of unions now in existence in the United States. In fact it is older than the American Federation of Labor itself.

When it affiliated with the A.F. of L. in the early nineties of the last century it was granted jurisdiction over the working crafts in the theatrical business, stage carpenters, stage electricians, property men, grips, flymen, and later when the motion pictures came into existence, the motion picture machine operators.

Source stated that when the motion picture industry came into existence it was looked upon as a branch or rather an extension of the theatrical business, differing only in principle by reason of the fact that the camera and projection machine were interposed between the actors and the audience.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

Source I further stated that by reason of this fact the I.A.T.S.E. claimed jurisdiction over all workers in the motion picture industry contending, and rightly, that their charter issued by the A.F. of L. covered this field. Shortly after the first motion picture studio was erected in Hollywood in 1911 the I.A.T.S.E. began organizing the workers in the Hollywood studios. This was about the year 1912. This jurisdiction was recognized and I.A.T.S.E. was the only union organization in Hollywood for some years.

Source I further stated that in the meantime, with the great expansion of the industry and the practice of building large outdoor sets and spectacular effects which took the place of painted backgrounds and makeshift sets, the building trade crafts, carpenters, painters, plasterers and others were casting eyes on this field and preparing to enter it.

In 1921 the I.A.T.S.E. called a strike of its workers in a dispute with the studios. Immediately the building crafts stepped in and broke the strike, and succeeded in establishing themselves as a part of the Hollywood studio union organizations where they have remained up to the present time. The I.A.T.S.E. was left with a smaller group of locals which they have succeeded in retaining.

Source I further stated that in 1933 in a dispute with the Hollywood producers, the I.A.T.S.E. called a strike. Again the building trades, especially the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, broke the strike by taking the place of the members of the I.A.T.S.E. This strike was purely a jurisdictional one, as was the one in 1921.

Source I further stated that as a result of this fight over jurisdiction, the workers in the motion picture industry in Hollywood became very much disgusted and began deserting the unions. Membership of all groups dropped until they could be numbered in a few hundreds instead of thousands. The result was that a very chaotic condition existed in 1933 as many of the workers had lost confidence in the A.F. of L.

He stated that up until this time the Communist Party had ignored the motion picture unions, not considering them worth bothering about. It was concentrating on factories, shipping and large industrial concerns. This was the Communist Party line at that time.

Source I further stated that suddenly awaking to the situation and taking advantage of the disorganized condition of the studio unions, the group of Communists and fellow travellers in Hollywood held a series of meetings in the fall of 1933, the result of which was a decision to enter the motion picture field, and in January of 1934 they created an organization for the purpose of entering the field. This organization was the MOTION PICTURE WORKERS INDUSTRIAL UNION. It was an independent group completely under the control of the Communist elements, taking orders from the local functionary of the Communist Party. (u)

MOTION PICTURE WORKERS INDUSTRIAL UNION

(u)

Source J has informed the Los Angeles Bureau Office that the Motion Picture Workers Industrial Union was formed on or about January 1, 1934. He has stated that this union was formed for the purpose of taking over and organizing all workers of all classifications in the motion picture industry into one organization. Prior to that time, in 1933, he stated there was a strike in the motion picture industry called by the I.A.T.S.E. which had a foothold in the motion picture industry since about 1912. He stated that this strike failed and due to the failure the I.A.T.S.E. structure practically fell apart and there were left only about 160 members which gave an opportunity for a new group to step in. The result was that the M.P.W.I.U. was set up and began to function.

This union was independent - was not affiliated with the A.F. of L. (The C.I.O. at that time had not come into existence). Source J stated that although the M.P.W.I.U. was under the control and domination of the Communist Party, working through the Communist Party fraction of the union, it never affiliated with the Trade Union Unity League. Demands were made on the organizer of this union, H. G. WOLFE by LAWRENCE ROSS (the correct name of LAWRENCE ROSS was LAWRENCE ROSENFELD), the section secretary of the Communist Party, ELMER HANOFF, organizer for the Communist Party, MAYER BAYLIN, a functionary of the Communist Party, and JAMES ALLEN, organizational secretary of the Communist Party, made demands on WOLFE that the M.P.W.I.U. affiliate with the T.U.U.L. Source stated that WOLFE emphatically declined to affiliate and the union continued to function as an independent union. (u)

The officers of this union were the following persons:

HELMER BERGMAN, President, January 1, 1934 to April 1, 1934.
WILFRED W. LYON, President, April 1, 1934 to February 1, 1935.

LOUIS GOLDBLATT. [Source Z has further advised that LOUIS GOLDBLATT, a brother of SAM and son of BORIS, has not been active in the motion picture field, but that he has been the secretary of the State C.I.O. Industrial Union Council at San Francisco for several years and very active in Communist affairs throughout the state, and that he left Los Angeles in March, 1942 and the reason is that he is now in Chicago, Illinois, carrying on C.I.O. organizational work.

LINE NOW CHANGES (1935)

Source 2-A has informed the Los Angeles Bureau Office that [in April, 1935, instructions were sent out by the Central Committee of the Communist Party that the Party line had changed and that all independent unions were to be liquidated and their members sent into the A.F. of L. unions with the object of capturing the A.F. of L. This policy was followed by the M.P.W.I.U. In a short time this union took in a large number of members and was well on the way to becoming the leading union in Hollywood. In a short time the Communists in the union and their fellow travellers began to desert and go over into the various locals of the A.F. of L.] All of these A.F. of L. locals were mere shells.

In order to bring about the dissolution of the M.P.W.I.U. the Communists used every trick of sabotage known, such as circulating rumors that it was a company union and advising all workers to stay away from it, although they themselves had built it.

[Source stated that as a result of this the M.P.W.I.U. gradually went out of existence and in February, 1936 it was officially dissolved.]

Source further stated that this union was the forerunner and prepared the way which has enabled the Communist Party to gain control over six A.F. of L. labor unions in the Hollywood motion picture field, the number of workers in which was approximately 8,000. In addition to these six A.F. of L. labor unions, the Communist Party has gained control over six independent labor unions which were called guilds and which had approximately 2,000 members. Source stated that in addition to the A.F. of L. labor unions and the independent guilds referred to herein, there were approximately 25 other labor organizations in the motion picture industry in Hollywood with an approximate membership of 18,000 to 20,000. These 25 guilds and unions represented their members for the purpose of collective bargaining. The Communist Party did not completely control these groups but it was, incidentally, waging a campaign to take over these groups and force them into the Communist Party line for the benefit of the Communist Party.

CONFIDENTIAL

Source stated that this period of the life of the M.P.W.I.U. was the period during which the Communist Party of the United States advocated the changing in their program by revolutionary methods. The slogan during that period was that the American people must adopt "the revolutionary way out of the crisis."

Source stated further that this was the period of acute depression in the United States which the Communist Party was exploiting for the purpose of fomenting revolution and before the change in the Communist Party line early in 1936 which ushered in what was called:

"THE POPULAR FRONT"

At this time the position which the Communist Party took was that the New Deal was the first step toward Fascism and that President ROOSEVELT was setting himself up as a dictator, and that this was the last Presidential election we would see.

Source stated that there was a meeting held in the Hollywood Conservatory of Music about June, 1934 under the auspices of the M.P.W.I.U., at which meeting MAURICE SUGAR from Detroit, Michigan, was the principal speaker. He stated that SUGAR was brought to the Pacific Coast by the John Reed Club of Hollywood, which afterward became the League of American Writers, Hollywood Chapter, and affiliated with the International Union of Revolutionary Writers, set up in Kharkov, Russia in November 1930.

Source stated that at this meeting MAURICE SUGAR attacked the ROOSEVELT Administration and New Deal, saying:

> "This is the beginning of fascism in America; that ROOSEVELT was the coming dictator; and the N.R.A. was the 'National Run-Around'".

Source stated that the whole trend of SUGAR'S address was that no confidence could be placed in democracy and democratic principles as practiced in the United States and that the only solution was the establishment of "a workers' government".

Source further stated that the John Reed Club which brought SUGAR to Hollywood, was a Communist front organization, the dominant figure of which was HARRY CARLISLE, born in America, a member of the Communist Party and a leading Communist in Southern California at that time. He stated that other members active in the John Reed Club at that time were:

HELMER BERGMAN - Communist Party functionary
JOHN HOWARD LAWSON - Dominant Communist in Los Angeles area

NEIL BRANT - member and organizer for the U.E.R.M.W.A. (It is reported that BRANT has a Government job in Washington at the present time)

DAVIDA FRANCHIL (D. A. COREY) - A member of the Communist Party and in 1936 the organizer for the Hollywood Section of the Communist Party.

LAWRENCE ROSS (LAWRENCE ROSENFELD) - Section Secretary of the Communist Party in Los Angeles.

MELVINA GOODMAN - A member of the Communist Party.

DR. V. A. K. TASHJIAN - Chairman of the Control Commission of the Communist Party in Los Angeles.

DUDLEY NICHOLS - Fellow traveller, writer and director.

NORA HELLGREN - A high Communist Party functionary.

MAYER BAYLIN - A member of the Section Committee of the Communist Party in Los Angeles. (He was ordered deported seven or eight years ago but so far as is known he has not been deported.)

Source 2-A further stated that during the spring of 1934 CAREY McWILLIAMS spoke at a M.P.W.I.U. meeting; that McWILLIAMS is at present the Director of the Housing and Immigration in the Governor OLSON Administration, and is a sponsor for many Communist front organizations such as the American Peace Mobilization, National Federation for Civil Liberties, National Lawyers Guild, League of American Writers, National Negro Congress, Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, Hollywood League for Democratic Action, Motion Picture Democratic Committee, American Civil Liberties Union, International Labor Defense, and many others. (The first official act of Governor EARL WARREN was the removal of CAREY McWILLIAMS from office.)

The same source further stated that JACK M. WEATHERWAX spoke at a meeting sponsored by the M.P.W.I.U. at the Vine Street School. His subject was the "Breakdown of Capitalism and the Need for A Workers Government". Source stated that WEATHERWAX has been exposed by the JACK TENNEY Legislative Investigating Committee of the California State Legislature, as a member of the District Committee of the Communist Party in California.

Source further stated that in the spring of 1935 orders came down from the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the U.S.A. that all independent unions should be "liquidated" and that the Communists and their influence should be transferred over into the established A.F. of L. unions and where there were no A.F. of L. unions already established, it should be the duty of all Communists to organize such workers under the A.F. of L.

Immediately upon receipt of these instructions the Communist leadership of the M.P.W.I.U. went over into the various A.F. of L. locals in Hollywood and began to work in those unions. (It should be understood that at the time that the M.P.W.I.U. was organized there were a great many legitimate local A.F. of L. unions covering a great part of the motion picture industry in Hollywood, but due to a disastrous strike called by the I.A.T.S.E. in 1933 these unions were deserted by their membership and had become mere shells.)

EFFORTS OF C.I.O. TO INFILTRATE THE STUDIO UNIONS

Source 2-A has informed Agent that at the time of the dissolution of the M.P.W.I.U. in February, 1936, there had already started a split in the A.F. of L. JOHN L. LEWIS, who at that time was preaching the dictrine of industrial unionism, had already early in 1936 split away from the A.F. of L. and formed the Committee for Industrial Organization. The theory of industrial unionism is basic in the Communist program and its sympathies were for the C.I.O. in preference to the craft unionism of the A.F. of L. Source stated that at that time the Communists had already deserted the M.P.W.I.U. and used their influence to re-build the already existing A.F. of L. craft unions in Hollywood. They found themselves building up those craft unions when secretly they were in favor of the C.I.O., therefore the only way out of this anomalous position was to take over the craft unions of Hollywood as a body, if possible, and affiliate them with the C.I.O. (X)(4)

The same source further stated that although there are many other unions in the studios, the I.A.T.S.E. group is dominant. This alliance by no means has the majority of workers under its jurisdiction, but it does have jurisdiction over the "key" crafts, cameramen, laboratory workers, sound men, the majority of electricians, grips, property men, projectors, prop makers, etc. He stated that in addition to this it has jurisdiction over the projectors in the motion pictures everywhere and it is this latter fact that makes this alliance the strongest union structure in the industry.

Source stated that the I.A.T.S.E., being the strongest unit in the industry, the Communists began their attacks upon this group. They reasoned that if they could capture the I.A.T.S.E. the rest would be easy. (X)(4)

Source further stated that in the fall of 1937 HARRY BRIDGES, regional director of the C.I.O., on the West Coast, appointed RUDOLPH KOHL, a member of the Communist Party in Hollywood, as regional director for the Hollywood Section. At the time he was appointed KOHL was a member and had at one time been the business representative of Local 644, Studio Painters, A.F. of L. This local was not a unit in the I.A.T.S.E.

KOHL'S duties were to direct the campaign to take over the I.A.T.S.E. into the C.I.O. KOHL at the time was a member of the A.F. of L. union. (U)

COMMITTEE OF MOTION PICTURE ARTS AND CRAFTS
(C.O.M.P.A.C.)

Source 2-B has stated that about December, 1937 another organization, the Committee of Motion Picture Arts and Crafts (C.O.M.P.A.C.) was set up in the motion picture industry which was conceived and dominated in the usual Communist Party manner. The purpose of this organization was to [illegible] the workers of every type and kind in the studios, using the prevailing acute unemployment problem as a base. Although its activities were presumably directed towards solving the unemployment problem by means of division of work and the creation of jobs and other means, in reality it was a scheme to make contacts and propagandize workers along the lines of the Communist Party, particularly to create sympathy for the C.I.O. (U)

Source stated that at first meetings of the heads of this group outright opposition to the I.A.T.S.E. was expressed and plans were devised to weaken the influence of the I.A.T.S.E. This organization was working in connection with the attempt of the C.I.O. to enter Hollywood. RUDOLPH KOHL, the appointee of HARRY BRIDGES heretofore mentioned, was leader in all of its activities. JEFF KIBRE, a well known Communist leader mentioned in connection with this same attempt, was also active.

Source further stated that the controlling individuals in this organization were:

JACK HOLEN, Chairman, a member of Painters Union #644. (He is now dead)
CHARLOTTE DARLING was secretary.
ED M. GILBERT, whose Communist Party connections and activities have been set out above.
LIONEL STANDER, who in 1934 introduced himself to the M.P.W.I.U. as a member of the Communist Party and who was active in the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, American League for Peace & Democracy, and North American Aid to Spanish Democracy.
GEORGE E. BODLE, fellow traveller who is a member of the National Lawyers Guild and a follower of the Communist Party line. (at present Assistant Director of the Man Power Commission on the Pacific Coast)
LILLIAN HELLMAN, member of the League of American Writers, American Peace Mobilization who sent the call of the Fourth Writers Congress of the League of American Writers and a fanatical follower of the C.P. line

CONFIDENTIAL

HERBERT BIBERMAN, National Vice-President of the American Peace Mobilization and director of the Southern California American Peace Mobilization; member of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, League for Peace and Democracy, Motion Picture Democratic Committee who personally picketed the White House with the American Peace Mobilization two days before HITLER attacked STALIN on June 22, 1941. BIBERMAN is a member of the League of American Writers and has appeared on a very large number of programs. He has followed the Communist Party line unhesitatingly.

IRWIN P. HENTSCHEL, whose record appears supra.

HERBERT K. SORRELL, business representative of the Studio Painters Union No. 644, President of the Conference of Studio Guilds, ex-President of the California State Non-Partisan League, a member of the Communist Party as exemplified by Communist Party Membership Book for 1938 No. 60622, which gives his Communist Party name as HERBERT STEWART, and the minutes of the Section Committee; also the minutes of the Section Committee of the Communist Party for 1938 show that he was a member of the Communist Party in 1938.

Professor NORMAN T. BYRNE of Los Angeles City College, and a member of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League. BYRNE conducted the Hollywood Peace Forum, the organization which took the place of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League. Source stated that BYRNE also spoke before many forums, churches, schools, and clubs which follow the Communist Party line and his meetings were always advertised in the "New Masses" and over a period of eight or ten weeks in 1939 and 1940.

Source further stated that the C.O.M.P.A.C. remained in existence only eight or nine months, during which time it acted as a transmission belt for the Communist Party, drawing studio workers into such political setups as the Motion Picture Democratic Committee, American League for Peace and Democracy, Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, and the laying of the foundation for the organization which was to take its place, the United Studio Technicians Guild (U.S.T.G.)

Source further stated that the C.O.M.P.A.C. died a natural death about September 1, 1938.

THIRTY-FOURTH CONVENTION OF THE I.A.T.S.E., CLEVELAND, OHIO
JUNE 6 to 9, 1938

Source 2-C has stated that RUDOLPH KOHL, who had been appointed regional director of the C.I.O. for Hollywood by HARRY BRIDGES, failed in his efforts to handle the situation favorable to the Communist Party. Source stated that KOHL made no progress toward winning the studio workers over to the C.I.O.; that a few months before the C.O.M.P.A.C. went out of existence JEFF KIBRE appeared on the scene. During that time KIBRE became a member of the I.A.T.S.E. and worked about one month in the Property Department. He stated that KIBRE began to take part in union activities and made speeches to the various unions and within about thirty days he emerged as the adviser to the executive board of Local No. 37, I.A.T.S.E., which local had a membership of approximately 3500. (u)

KIBRE also became the leader and director of what was called "The I.A.T.S.E. Progressives". Source stated that the term "Progressives" is one that is used by Communists when working in trade unions to conceal their real affiliations. KIBRE then used his influence, with the support of other Communists, to work in the international convention of the I.A.T.S.E. held in Louisville, Kentucky from June 3 to 6, 1940. Photographic copies of letters which appeared in the record of the convention proceedings is attached hereto as Exhibit No. 1. These letters show the Communist activity directed by KIBRE. This exhibit also shows the connection with and instructions from ROY HUDSON, a member of the Central Executive Committee of the Communist Party, U.S.A., and directing head for all trade union work of the Communist Party in the United States. (See Exhibit No. 1, Page 8). (u)

Source stated that further evidence of KIBRE'S connections with the Central Committee of the Communist Party in New York is shown in KIBRE'S letters to BOB REED (Exhibit 1, Page 3) in which KIBRE solicited the advice of JACK SATCHEL, a member of the Central Committee of the Communist Party, U.S.A. (u)

Source stated that further connections of KIBRE with the District Committee No. 13 of the Communist Party is shown in a copy of a letter to WALTER LANTER, State Trade Union Director of the Communist Party for California. (Exhibit No. 1, Page 9). (u)

Further connections of KIBRE with the Communist Party are shown in the copy of his letter to LOUIS GOLDBLATT, a member of the District Committee of the Communist Party and State Secretary of the C.I.O. at San Francisco at that time. (Exhibit No. 1, pages 4 and 5) (u)

CONFIDENTIAL

Further connections of KIBRE with Communist Party functionaries are shown in a letter from MAC WEISS, Acting State Assistant Secretary of the Communist Party in Ohio to ROY HUDSON, above mentioned. (Exhibit No. 1, pages 7 and 8) (u)

Further evidence of such connections of KIBRE with the Communist Party, U.S.A. is shown in the affidavit of EZRA F. CHASE, a member of the Communist Party in Los Angeles at that time who stated under oath that "JEFF KIBRE has been for some years past a member of the Communist Party . . . and was assigned to "special" work in the studio unions. More specifically, the I.A.T.S.E. Local No. 37 and to the organizing of special studio units of the Communist Party of the U.S.A." (Exhibit No. 1, Page 12) (u)

Source 2-C further stated (u) that due to the exposure of the activities of KIBRE and IRWIN P. HENTSCHEL at the Cleveland Convention in 1938, when their connections with HARRY BRIDGES were exposed (Exhibit No. 2, Pages 7, 8 and 9) their efforts failed and as a result of this failure the international officers of the I.A.T.S.E., GEORGE E. BROWNE, President, and WILLIAM BIOFF, BROWNE'S West Coast representative, retained control of the Hollywood locals of the I.A.T.S.E. This control exercised by BROWNE and BIOFF over the I.A.T.S.E. locals had been established on January 2, 1936 when a closed shop agreement and full recognition of the I.A.T.S.E. was entered into by the Motion Picture Producers Association and I.A.T.S.E., which agreement is still in effect.

At this juncture it must be stated that BROWNE and BIOFF have been convicted on a charge of extortion at New York City in Federal Court in which the charges alleged that they had obtained several hundred thousand dollars from the motion picture producers under threats of calling strikes, and are now serving long sentences in Federal prison, and other charges are still pending against them.

The I.A.T.S.E. as the bargaining agency for its members and the Motion Picture Producers Association maintain the same relations as were set up in 1936.

I.A.T.S.E. LOCALS NOW IN HOLLYWOOD

Source 2-D has informed (u) Agent that immediately following the victory of the I.A.T.S.E. in the September 20, 1939 election, Local No. 37 was broken up into seven separate locals and Local 37 went out of existence.

Source has further stated that the seven locals which were formed from the former membership of Local 37 are the following, giving the approximate membership:

No. 1. Affiliated Property Machinists No. 44; membership 1,500.
No. 2. Motion Picture Studio Grips No. 80; membership 1,700.
No. 3. Studio Set Electricians 728; membership 1,100.
No. 4. Studio Projectionists No. 165; membership 500.
No. 5. Studio Laborers and Utility Workers No. 727; membership 1,000.
No. 6. Make up Artists No. 706; membership 1,000.
No. 7. Motion Picture Costumers No. 705; membership 1200.

Source further stated that separate and distinct from Local No. 37 there are the following three I.A.T.S.E. locals which had been automous since their formation in 1929 and 1930 and were never at any time a part of Local No. 37, which was the first I.A.T.S.E. local in Hollywood, going back to about 1912. They are the following:

No. 1. International Photographers Local 659; 650 members.
No. 2. Sound Technicians Local No. 695; 1,000 members.
No. 3. Laboratory Technicians Local No. 683; 1,350 members.

Source further stated that after the breaking up of Local No. 37 I.A.T.S.E. into seven units and the failure of KIBRE and the Communists to capture these unions, they switched their tactics and began setting up an independent organization which was to be a bridge over which the studio workers could cross into the C.I.O. The name of this organization was the UNITED STUDIO TECHNICIANS GUILD. (U.S.T.G.) (U)

UNITED STUDIO TECHNICIANS GUILD (U.S.T.G.)

Source 2-E has stated that due to the failure of the Communists to gain control of the Hollywood locals of the I.A.T.S.E. by action of the National Convention at Cleveland, it became necessary to change tactics. Within sixty days after the Cleveland Convention, June 6-9, 1938, the Communists began setting up an organization under the leadership of JEFF KIBRE which they called the United Studio Technicians Guild. Source stated that although JEFF KIBRE directed and practically controlled the U.S.T.G. he denied membership in this organization and throughout the life of this group he retained his membership in Local 37 of the I.A.T.S.E. (U)

Source further stated that the purpose of the U.S.T.G. was to take in all members of the I.A.T.S.E. locals in Hollywood and have the U.S.T.G. supplant the I.A.T.S.E., the ultimate object being to affiliate the U.S.T.G. with the C.I.O. under HARRY BRIDGES. Source further stated that the campaign began in September 1938. It had the support of all Communist influence in Southern California. Source stated that the investigation of BROWNE and BIOFF and the ensuing publicity made it possible for the leaders of the U.S.T.G. and those who were sympathetic to meet the members of I.A.T.S.E. locals and point out to them that they were controlled by a "bunch of racketeers and gangsters" and that the only way to get honest unionism was to join the U.S.T.G. Source stated that the organization grew with amazing rapidity and within a period of nine months the membership had reached approximately 2200. Aside from this there were thousands of others who were sympathetic but were not members of the I.A.T.S.E. He stated that at this particular time the U.S.T.G. was well on the way to taking over the Hollywood unions and would have succeeded had it not been that the I.A.T.S.E. had secured and made public the letters and communications which showed that the U.S.T.G. was a Communist directed movement, that KIBRE was a member of the Communist Party, that he was the stooge of HARRY BRIDGES, and that he was taking orders from the top structure of the Communist Party represented by ROY HUDSON of the Central Executive Committee of the Communist Party, U.S.A. (See exhibits No. 1 and 2 attached hereto.)

Source stated that further evidence of Communist control of this group was in the activities of the following individuals who were members of the executive board of U.S.T.G.:

SAM GOLDBLATT. Source 2-F stated that GOLDBLATT was a member of the Laboratory workers at Fox Studios and that he is a member of the Communist Party; that GOLDBLATT was formerly a member of the Young Communists League; that he made a trip to the Soviet Union and worked there for about a year in motion pictures; that he is a close associate of NORVAL CRUTCHER and works with CRUTCHER; that his father, BORIS GOLDBLATT, was in Russia with him; that his father was born in Russia; further that his brother LOUIS GOLDBLATT, the right hand man of HARRY BRIDGES, has a long Communist Party record under the name of TED MILLER and that LOUIS GOLDBLATT worked with JEFF KIBRE in his efforts to capture the studio unions. (W)

JOSEPH KRONEBERGER. Source 2-G has stated that KRONEBERGER is a member of the Communist Party under the name of JERRY BROWN; that he was active in the Motion Picture Democratic Committee. He was also active in the Laborers Non-Partisan League and Hollywood Anti-Nazi League and other Communist front organizations. (W)

JUNIUS NIELSON. Source 2-H has informed that he is well acquainted with NIELSON and that to his personal knowledge he knows that NIELSON was charged with Communist activity in the A.F. of L. union and that he was expelled from Local No. 724 of the Studio Utility Workers on the charge that he was active in the Communist Party. (W)

ISADOR BESBECK. Source 2-I has stated that BESBECK was well known to him personally and that he knows that BESBECK was charged with Communist activity in Local No. 37 of the I.A.T.S.E. in the latter part of September, 1939 and that he was expelled from that union on that charge. (X)(u)

J. H. MacISAACS. Source 2-J stated that to his personal knowledge he is a member of Hollywood labor unions, that MacISAACS was charged with Communist activity before Local No. 37 of the I.A.T.S.E. and that he was expelled from that union in the latter part of September, 1939 on said charge. (X)(u)

(X)(u) Source 2-K reported the following to the Los Angeles Bureau Office: that the following parties were members of the executive committee of the U.S.T.G. and so far as known were not Communists although they were active followers of JEFF KIBRE of the Communist Party line.

LOUIS KRIEGER
GEORGE H. DAVIS
CHARLES G. GUTHRIE
CHARLES W. ROSS
HERMAN LIPNEY
HOWARD J. ROBERTSON, Chairman of USTG.

Source further stated that about the first of August, 1939 ALEX SAUNDERS, who had been the secretary of the U.S.T.G. from its inception, made affidavit relative to the control of the U.S.T.G. by HARRY BRIDGES. This affidavit was filed with the National Labor Relations Board of the Los Angeles section and has to do with the election that was held on September 20, 1939 to determine the bargaining agency for the U.S.T.G. election. Source stated that it was shown that he was a Canadian and that he later returned to Canada and in June, 1940 he was reported as being in the Canadian Army. Source stated further that his picture appeared with HARRY BRIDGES in some paper at the time. The paper is not known but it probably was the "People's World".

(X)(u)

EDWARD HEIN. Source 2-L has stated that HEIN was a member of Local 37 of the I.A.T.S.E. and that he succeeded SAUNDERS and was made "office manager". Source further stated that HEIN remained in that position for a period of two weeks only, at which time he resigned and made an affidavit, the meatier part of which is as follows:

> "During the two weeks I worked there I became convinced of the fact that the U.S.T.G. was not a true democratic union organized by and for the best interests of its members, but on the contrary was dominated and controlled by CHARLES J. KATZ, an attorney, and JEFF KI both non-members of the U.S.T.G., and by SAM GOLDBLATT and a few personally interested other parties whom I do not know."

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

Source stated that the above affidavit was signed August 24, 1939 before MILTON TAYLOR, a notary public.

Source further stated that HEIN testified before the TENNEY Investigating Committee that the office was deluged with Communist propaganda such as the "People's World" and Communist inspired leaflets.

Source further stated that at a hearing of the JACK TENNEY Committee, HEIN testified that during his term as office manager of the U.S.T.G. the office was deluged with Communist pamphlets, leaflets, magazines and newspapers and in his opinion the organization was under the control of the Communists (The Communist connection of JEFF KIBRE has been set out above).

Source stated with respect to CHARLES J. KATZ that he is one of the attorneys for the Communist Party and one of the attorneys for HARRY BRIDGES; that he was formerly associated with LEO GALLAGHER, leading Communist Party attorney; that KATZ is also a member of the National Lawyers Guild, the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, the League for Peace and Democracy, the Motion Picture Cooperative Buyers Guild, the North American Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy, the Motion Picture Democratic Committee, the National Federation for Constitutional Liberties, and others. Source further stated that the exposure of the above mentioned facts turned the tide away from Communist influence and the great majority of members of the U.S.T.G. recognized it as a Communist controlled union and would have nothing further to do with it.

Source further stated that the U.S.T.G. before the communications above mentioned were published, feeling that the situation was well in hand had already called for a National Labor Relations Board election. He stated that the election was held on September 20, 1939 and undoubtedly because of the exposure of Communist influence over the U.S.T.G. it lost the election by a two to one vote. He further stated that if the U.S.T.G. had been successful in this election it would have meant that eventually the C.I.O. would have gained control of all of the labor unions in Hollywood and of the entire motion picture and theatrical business because he stated that the I.A.T.S.E. is the key union organization in this industry, that the I.A.T.S.E. is still an international group of unions within the A.F. of L. and has approximately 80,000 members in the United States and Canada.

Source further stated that JEFF KIBRE, having been exposed a second time as working in the interests of the Communist Party, resigned as adviser to the executive board of Local No. 37, I.A.T.S.E. in Hollywood and left that field. He stated that the next that he heard of KIBRE that he was the organizer of the Fishermen's Union at San Pedro, California in June, 1941. He further stated that he is informed that KIBRE at the present time is the international representative of the Fishermen's Union - C.I.O. on the Pacific Coast.

Source further stated that the Communists, having failed to capture the Hollywood local of the I.A.T.S.E. by the device of setting up the U.S.T.G. as a separate union, they went back into their own various locals apparently as good members. He stated that there were a few expulsions by the I.A.T.S.E. of some of the leaders of the U.S.T.G., but these were few. He stated that the great majority were taken back into the various unions and that the past was forgotten.

STUDIO PAINTERS LOCAL NO. 644

Source 2-M has reported that Local 644 of the Studio Painters gained a foothold in the studios in the early twenties. Source stated that this union had a precarious existence from its inception until about 1933 when as a result of a strike in that year its membership followed the other studio workers in desertion of the A.F. of L.

Source further stated that when the M.P.W.I.U. was formed in 1934, which organization as we have seen above was the first Communist controlled union in the studios, it laid the foundation for the Communist activity which followed. Source stated that the Painters came into the M.P.W.I.U. in large numbers; that RUDOLP W. KOHL who was not a member of the Communist Party at that time but who about six months later joined the Communist Party, had instituted a membership drive among the Painters and drew into the M.P.W.I.U. several hundred of the painters. Source further stated that while they were members of this union over a period of about a year, many of them became thoroughly indoctrinated with Communist ideas.

Source further stated that when the Communist Party line was changed in the spring of 1935 and the independent unions, of which the M.P.W.I.U. was one, were to be liquidated, RUDOLPH W. KOHL left the M.P.W.I.U. and influenced all painters to do likewise.

Source stated that as a consequence of this order the painters went over into Local 644 almost in a body. He further stated that about this time the following incident occurred: KOHL recruited about 120 members into the M.P.W.I.U. in a period of about ten days; that within one week after he had done this he received orders from GEORGE MAURER, in charge of the Labor Commission of the Communist Party in the Los Angeles Section, that the Party line had been changed and informed them that he had been advised that he must not recruit any more members of M.P.W.I.U. but that he must go back into the A.F. of L. and build up that union. Source stated that

KOHL by this time having become a good Communist Party member, promptly obeyed; that he went over to the Studio Painters Local No. 644, leaving the other painters behind in the M.P.W.I.U. Source stated that this caused a lot of confusion but eventually KOHL convinced them that his leaving them temporarily was for the best interests of the workers and after a short period he succeeded in justifying his action by getting them over on his side again. (U)

Source stated that KOHL, who was recognized as a sort of leader among his group, began actively working to build up Local 644; that he succeeded and shortly thereafter he was elected Business Representative of that union and held the position for several years. Source further stated that during this time due to KOHL'S influence this union became the leading Communist dominated group in the Hollywood studios. He further stated that it has continued to be controlled by the Communist elements up to the present time. Source further stated that KOHL continued to be the leader of this union until the painters strike in 1936 at which time HERBERT K. SORRELL, by taking an extremely active part in the strike, emerged as the strong figure in that union. Source further stated that in 1937 SORRELL supplanted KOHL in the leadership of this union. (U)

Source stated that KOHL in the fall of 1937 was appointed by HARRY BRIDGES as regional director for the C.I.O. in the Hollywood studios. He stated that his efforts in that capacity failed and the C.I.O. attempt failed so KOHL went back to work in the studios as a painter and KOHL was succeeded by JEFF KIBRE and the U.S.T.G. in the next attempt of the Communist Party to take over as herefore related. (U)

HERBERT K. SORRELL

Source 2-N has informed the Los Angeles Bureau Office that SORRELL having supplanted KOHL as the leader of Painters 644 and as this union was spearhead of Communist penetration, having been developed out of the M.P.W.I.U., he, SORRELL, became the leader of the Communist factions in the Hollywood unions. (U)

Source stated that while SORRELL was exercising this authority the Motion Picture Producers Association (M.P.P.A.) represented by their labor committee man, PAT CASEY, saw in SORRELL and his leadership an opportunity to develop another labor structure within the A.F. of L. which would contest the power and authority of the I.A.T.S.E. as the I.A.T.S.E. was still under the same leadership of BROWNE and BIOFF.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

Source further stated that CASEY favored SORRELL in all negotiations regarding labor to such an extent that SORRELL could get almost anything he wanted from the M.P.P.A. Source stated that in these negotiations SORRELL went outside the jurisdiction of his own union and managed to secure representations from other unions and secured with the help of CASEY wages and working conditions that the regular business representatives of those unions could not secure for themselves.

Source stated that as a result of these favors at the hands of CASEY and the combined efforts of Communist sympathizers, SORRELL soon emerged as a leader of certain unions mentioned heretofore which leaned toward the Communist position.

Source further stated that the build-up of SORRELL at one time reached the stage where CASEY proposed to E. J. MANNIX, an executive of M.P.P.A. that SORRELL be set up as the labor czar in Hollywood to handle for the unions all their affairs. Source stated that CASEY had made the statement that SORRELL "was easy to do business with and better results could be obtained under such an arrangement." However this suggested arrangement was turned down by Mr. MANNIX and LOUIS B. MAYER, executives of the M.P.P.A. This was in the spring of 1941.

Source further stated that SORRELL was working at this time in conjunction with the Communist Party is borne out by his testimony before the TENNEY investigating committee of the State Legislature in Los Angeles when SORRELL stated that JACK MOORE, Secretary of the Communist Party in Los Angeles County, was in the habit of calling upon him in the union office and giving him directions for his union activities.

Source further stated that SORRELL having developed as a leader of those locals which had strong Communist fractions in them, the next move was to set up an organization which would tie all of these locals into one body under the domination of SORRELL. In fall of 1941 the Conference of Studio Unions was formed.

CONFERENCE OF STUDIO UNIONS

Source 2-O has stated that this so-called "Conference of Studio Unions" is a small, compact group of delegates or representatives of a bloc of labor unions in the Hollywood motion picture industry which has been taken over and is now under control of the Communist Party operating through its members in those unions which have captured key positions. (U)

In reality this "Conference of Studio Unions" is the organization set up in the Hollywood studio labor groups to act as the control and steering committee to coordinate and direct Communist union activities looking toward the taking over of all studio workers and their unions into the Communist Party orbit. It is the organization upon which the Communist Party relies for eventual complete domination of motion picture workers. (U)

The unions which have already been taken over and which are under Communist influence and which are represented by this conference are:

(1) STUDIO PAINTER, LOCAL 644 of the International Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paperhnagers of America.

(2) Laboratory Technicians, Local 683, of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees.

(3) SCREEN OFFICE EMPLOYEES GUILD, an affiliate of Studio Painters, Local 644, above.

(4) SCREEN CARTOONISTS GUILD, an affiliate of Studio Painters, Local 644, above.

(5) SCREEN SET DESIGNERS GUILD, an affiliate of Studio Painters, Local 644, above.

(6) STUDIO MACHINISTS, LOCAL 1185 of the International Association of Machinists.

All of the unions above named are affiliated through their international and national bodies with the American Federation of Labor. Each affiliated union must pay a per capita tax of five cents.

The membership of above groups is approximately eight thousand (8000).

The Conference of Studio Unions was set up at a specially called meeting of the Studio Painters Union on November 2, 1941.

The organization is governed by a President, Chairman, Vice-Chairman and Secretary-Treasurer. Each union body affiliated is represented by not more than three delegates, one of whom must be the business representative.

HERBERT K. SORRELL is president of the Conference of Studio Unions. He is also business representative of Studio Painters, Local 644.

RUSSELL L. MCKNIGHT is Secretary-Treasurer. He is also President of Laboratory Technicians, Local 683 and Editor of "FLASHES", the official publication of Local 683.

Other delegates or representatives composing the Conference are:

JOHN R. MARTIN, business representative of Laboratory Technicians, Local 683.

GLENN PRATT, business representative of Screen Office Employees Guild.

WILLIAM POMERANCE, business representative of Screen Cartoonists Guild.

ED MUSSA, business representative of Screen Set Designers Guild.

BERNARD LUSHER, Secretary Screen Office Employees Guild.

BLANCHE COLE, Screen Office Employees Guild.

ED M. GILBERT, Screen Set Designers Guild.

CARL HEAD, Studio Painters, Local 644.

WILLIAM BALL, Studio Painters, Local 644.

JOSEPH STERNAD, President Screen Set Designers Guild.

GEORGE E. BODLE, was, up to a few weeks ago, the attorney for the organization. (He has been appointed to the War Manpower Commission for this district).

LOUIS R. STEIN, has taken the place of BODLE as attorney for the conference.

While the stated object of this "conference" is "To bring about joint economical action and closer unity of the unions, to conduct individual autonomy of the crafts," the real purpose is to act as a closely knit governing body secretly coordinating the activities of the member unions with the "party line" of the Communist Party. (u)

The group acts, in reality, as a "top fraction" of the Communist Party to interpret the line and guide all activities in the direction of the political position of that party. (u)

The actions, resolutions and recommendations of the organization coincide with the line of the Communist Party in detail.

It has passed resolutions and sent copies to the President of the United States demanding a second front at once.

It has passed resolutions demanding the immediate independence of India.

It has passed resolutions protesting the deportation of HARRY BRIDGES, and has sponsored and circulated pamphlets to this effect.

It has passed resoluations, and put out to the public, pamphlets on the negro question identical with the present program of the Communist Party on that issue.

It is an integral part of Labor's Unity for Victory Committee, a Communist inspired group.

It is affiliated with, and has supported financially, the United Citizens for Victory Committee, also a Communist inspired group.

It is a sponsor for the War Symphony Committee, a recent Communist front organization in Southern California.

It passed resolutions demanding the release of EARL BROWDER when he was imprisoned in Atlanta prison.

It sponsored the "Open Letter to the American People", written by DALTON TRUMBO.

This conference and the group of unions it represents are recognized by the responsible A.F. of L. leaders in Hollywood as constituting the Communist "Bloc", and as the wedge being driven by the Communist Party into all labor organizations in the motion picture industry with the ultimate objective of taking over control of all workers in the industry.

CONFIDENTIAL

HERBERT K. SORRELL, the president of the organization, and virtual dictator of the group, is a Communist of long standing, and a member of the Party. At a meeting of the TENNEY Committee of the State of California investigating subversive activities, his connections with the party were proven. When shown documentary proof of his attendance at a convention of the Los Angeles section of the Communist Party, he admitted that he had attended, but stated that "he did not know it was a Communist convention."

At the same inquiry he admitted his connections with JACK MOORE, the local Secretary of the Communist Party at that time.

SORRELL is business representative of Studio Painters, Local 644. This union is one of the first organizations in the labor field in Hollywood to go over to Communist control. The control of this union since 1935 has been by members who were active in the Motion Picture Workers Industrial Union in 1934. This latter group was completely Communist dominated. Its attempt to take over the Hollywood studio workers failed.

NORVAL D. CRUTCHER, the Secretary of Laboratory Technicians, Local 683 is a Communist Party member, and has been active in Communist circles since 1934.

D. T. WAYNE, business representative of the Studio Machinists is a close fellow traveller of the Communist Party line and a satellite of SORRELL. This union is virtually an outgrowth of the Motion Picture Workers Industrial Union.

RUSSELL L. MCKNIGHT, Secretary-Treasurer of the conference, is president of Laboratory Technicians, Local 683, and the Editor of "FLASHES", the official publication of that union. This publication follows the Communist Party line; was isolationist before Russia was attacked, and violently patriotic immediately after. It quotes extensively from "IN FACT", a Communist publication, and the magazine "FRIDAY" (now defunct). It has reprinted articles from many other Communist publications; has run articles by known Communists and fellow travellers such as LAL SINGH, CAREY MCWILLIAMS, SAM KALISH, DR. HERBERT B. ALEXANDER, GEORGE SELDES, SAM GOLDBLATT, and others.

Other delegates making up the conference who are communists and fellow travellers are;

JOHN R. MARTIN, business representative of Laboratory Technicians, Local 683.

GLENN PRATT, business representative of the Screen Office Employees Guild.

BERNARD LUSHER, Secretary Screen Office Employees Guild.

WILLIAM POMERANCE, business representative of Screen Cartoonists Guild, and ex-field representative of the local Labor Relations Board.

DAVE HILBERMAN, Vice-President of Screen Cartoonists Guild.

ED M. GILBERT, a member of the Communist Party of long standing.

ED MUSSA, business representative of the Screen Set Designers Guild.

GEORGE E. BODLE, the attorney for the conference has been involved in Communist activities for years. His position is well known.

While the Conference of Studio Unions ostensibly operates in the union field, it is part of an interlocking combination of all Communist front organizations in Hollywood, of which there are some thirty or more.

Its specific duties are, however, to work in the trade union field and act as a liaison between the Communist Party and Hollywood Studio Unions.

[Source 2-O has stated (u) that the local union from which all of this activity originally started was Studio Painters Local No. 644, the history of which has heretofore been given. As stated it received its impetus for Communist activity from the M.P.W.I.U.

[Source 2-O has stated (u) that the other unions forming this conference are the following:

LABORATORY TECHNICIANS #683. [Source 2-P has stated (u) that this union is a local and a part of the I.A.T.S.E., that it was organized and granted a charter by the I.A.T.S.E. in 1929. He further stated that it has functioned as a regular and conservative local until 1941; that its membership is composed of workers who develop and process the film for motion pictures. He further stated that the department over which this local union has jurisdiction and control of the workers is one bottleneck which could disrupt the entire industry under a given set of conditions. He stated that the tremendous expense of producing a picture is finally reduced to an image on a narrow strip of film 33 mm in width. He stated that this narrow strip of film, which represents the entire efforts of the industry, must be processed, much of it in a dark room in this department. From this department the product then spreads out fanwise throughout the world.

Source stated that it has always been the contention of the Communists that if they could succeed in getting control of the workers in this department the industry would be at their mercy. Source stated that the Communists and fellow travellers working in this union since 1936 utilizing their usual tactics of slander, false rumors and finally accusations that the regularly elected officers were secretly conniving with BROWNE and BIOFF, they finally succeeded in 1941 in causing anti-Communist officers of the union to resign in disgust and the Communist element in the union took over control which they now exercise. He further stated that this union has followed the Communist Party line from isolation to the present war; has passed all resolutions identical with those of the Communist program and is affiliated with Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense, Labor's Unity for Victory Committee and has issued pamphlets protesting the proceedings of deportation of HARRY BRIDGES; resolutions advocating a second front had been adopted; the independence of India has been urged and resolutions on the negro question ; was sponsor for the War Symphony Committee; works in connection with the League of American Writers, and supports every phase of Communist front activity. (u)

Source further stated that the officers of this union, #683, I.A.T.S.E., are the following:

RUSSELL L. McKNIGHT, President. He is editor of "Flashes", the official paper of the union.

MELVIN G. YOUNG - Vice-President.

PAUL JAFFE - Recording Secretary.

NORVAL CRUTCHER - Secretary-Treasurer.

JOHN R. MARTIN - Business Representative.

CHARLES GREENBERG - Sergeant-at-arms.

RALPH BLANCHARD - Member of the Executive Board.

FRANK REGAL - Member of the Executive Board.

ARTHUR LEVENHAGEN - Member of the Executive Board.

DOROTHY ALEXANDER - Member of the Executive Board.

GEORGE SHAW - Member of the Executive Board.

THEODORE FOGELMAN - Member of the Executive Board.

SAMUEL HORN - Member of the Executive Board.

Source 2-P has stated that everyone of the persons named above, with the exception of CHARLES GREENBERG, is either a Communist Party member of a fellow traveller. They all follow the same line in its devious changes. Source further stated that previous to this time this union announced in its official publication, "Flashes", that the war was one of imperialism, made no appeals for national defense, ridiculed the passage of the Selective Service Act, and supported the general isolationist policy of the Communist Party at that time. (U)

Source stated that "Flashes" did then as it does now quote from such Communist publications as "In Fact" and "Friday", and reprints in substance articles appearing in the "People's World", the official publication of the Communist Party on the Pacific coast. Source further stated that it has invited to speak before its membership such well known Communist Party members and fellow travellers as:

CAREY McWILLIAMS
SAM KALISH
DR. HEBERT B. ALEXANDER
DALTON TRUMBO

Source further stated that since HITLER'S attack on STALIN this union has completely reversed its political viewpoint and is now all out to win the war. Source stated that it has passed resolutions demanding a second front, independence for India, protested the deportation of HARRY BRIDGES, and issued pamphlets to that effect, and follows implicitly every detail of the Communist Party demands.

SCREEN OFFICE EMPLOYEES GUILD

[Source 2-Q has stated (U) that this union was originally organized as an independent group in about 1937. He stated that after being in existence some three or four years it came under the influence of HERBERT K. SORRELL and the Communist elements within it and in 1941 it was issued a charter by Local 644, A.F. of L. Studio Painters, and is now affiliated through Local 644 with the International Brotherhood of Painters, Paperhangers, and Decorators of America.]

[Source further stated that this union has jurisdiction over all clerical workers and secretaries in the Hollywood studios, although the A.F. of L. has a regular established office workers union in the Los Angeles area where these workers rightfully belong. This group has affiliated itself with the International Painters organization. The reason for this odd combination is the preference for the Communist leadership of SORRELL over affiliation with regular A.F. of L. Office Workers Union.]

[Source 2-Q has stated that the following are the officers of this union:

MARGARET BENNET - President

BLANCHE COLE - Recording Secretary

BERNARD LUSHER - Financial Secretary

CLAIRE HARGAN - Treasurer

JACK REID - Warden

BARBARA ALEXANDER - Conductor

GLENN PRATT - Business Representative

Source further stated that the officers named constitute the executive board. He further stated that the officers of this union and the union as a body follows the Communist Party line and in so doing has passed the same resolutions and engaged in the same activities mentioned above regarding Local 683. Source further stated that GLENN PRATT, the business agent of this union, has recently entered the Officers Training School of the Army and ED M. GILBERT of the Screen Set Designers Union has been elected to take PRATT'S place as the business agent of this union. GILBERT is a member of the Communist Party.

SCREEN CARTOONISTS GUILD LOCAL NO. 852

[Source 2-R has informed that this guild has jurisdiction over cartoonists, sketch artists, and animators engaged in making animated cartoons in the motion picture industry. [Source 2-R has stated that this guild was organized about 1939 originally as an independent group. He further stated that in 1941 the guild succumbed to the influence of SORRELL and was issued a charter by Local 644, Studio Painters, and therefore is now affiliated with the International Association of Painters, Paperhangers and Decorators of America.

Source stated that this affiliation of the cartoonists with the painters and paperhangers was brought about by the help which SORRELL rendered to this guild in getting better working conditions and wages and which help was made possible by the favoriteism shown SORRELL by PAT CASEY. was an important factor in winning the confidence of this guild by SORRELL.

Source further stated that this same process was employed by SORRELL in all the other unions and guilds which were members of the Conference of Studio Unions.

[Source 2-R stated] X(u) that the officers of this guild are the following:

JACK ZANDER - President

DAVE HILBERMAN - Vice-President

ERIC LARSEN - Treasurer

PEPE RUIZ - Financial Secretary

AL ARMATUZIO - Warden

A. C. CAMER - Conductor

WILLIAM POMERANCE - Business representative

[Source 2-R has stated] X(u) that the officers of this guild and the guild as a body follows the Communist Party line and in so doing has passed the same resolutions and engaged in the same activity mentioned above regarding Local 683.

SCREEN SET DESIGNERS GUILD

[Source 2-S has stated] X(u) that this guild has jurisdiction over set designers, draftsmen, and illustrators, that the workers composing these crafts over a period of years have had various organizations, none of which were successful. Source stated that at one time they were classed as scenic artists and formed a union on that basis but it soon went out of existence. Source further stated that further attempts were made which likewise failed. He also stated that it was not until 1939 that they formed a stable organization. Source further stated that in the fall of 1941 this organization affiliated with Painters Union Local No. 644, thus coming under the influence of HERBERT K. SORRELL and this Painters Union No. 644 which had been dominated by Communist influence since 1935 as has heretofore been shown.

Source further stated that the membership of this guild is limited, being only approximately 300 members. He stated that as a consequence this guild does not have the usual number of paid officials. He stated that the business of this guild is transacted at the office of its attorney, GEORGE E. BODLE, 608 South Hill Street, downtown Los Angeles; however since BODLE has been appointed as Assistant Director of the War Manpower Commission on the Pacific coast in charge of Southern California district, this guild is now located at 9441 Wilshire Boulevard, Beverly Hills, telephone CRestview 1-4051.

Source 2-S has stated X(u) that the present officials of this organization are the following:

JOSEPH STERNAD - President

ED MUSSA - Business representative

LESLIE THOMAS - Executive board member

LEW GOULD - Executive board member

ART LONERGAN - Executive board member

FRITZ WILLIS - Executive board member

ED M. GILBERT - Executive board member

Source further stated that the officers and executive board members above named handle all of the affairs of this guild and the general membership does not even have a vote in the affairs of the guild.

Source further stated that the officers of this guild and the guild as a whole follow the Communist Party line and in so doing have passed the same resolutions and engaged in the same activities mentioned above regarding Local 683.

Source 2-S has stated that of the officers named ED M. GILBERT is known to be a member of the Communist Party and has been to the knowledge of source a member of the party since 1933. Source has stated that in 1934 and 1935 GILBERT was a member of the executive board of the MPWIU mentioned above. He further stated that in 1935 GILBERT was made chairman of the top fraction of the Communist Party in the Hollywood studio units, being appointed to that position by GEORGE MAURER who was in charge of the Labor Commission of the Communist Party of southern California X (u)

STUDIO MACHINISTS LOCAL NO. 1185 (S.M.L.)

Source 2-T has informed (X/u) that the Studio Machinists Local No. 1185 is, as are all of the other locals that make up the Conference of Studio Unions, a unit of the international group affiliated with A.F. of L. He further stated that this local is one of the unions of the International Association of Machinists.

Source 2-T has further stated (X/u) that workers who belong to this union are highly skilled mechanics engaged mostly in building and servicing motion picture cameras and other high precision work of like character.

Source further stated that this union came into existence as an outgrowth of the M.P.W.I.U. heretofore mentioned; that in 1934 and 1935 the majority of the machinists in the Hollywood studios were members of this Communist dominated M.P.W.I.U. Source has stated that it had taken in the entire crew of machinists then engaged in the experimental plant of Technicolor Corporation; that it had also taken in all of those workers employed in the Mitchell Camera Company, the largest manufacturer of motion picture cameras in the United States. Source has further stated that while this plant was not a part of the motion picture studios proper, its products were used solely in the production of motion pictures. He has further stated that this union also had taken into its ranks a large percentage of skilled mechanics in the studios proper.

Source further stated that the Communist program and party line at that time was accepted by the machinists members of that union almost wholeheartedly. He further stated that the leaders of this group and the individual to whom the machinists group within the union looked to for leadership was WILFRED W. LYON, who is referred to above as President of the M.P.W.I.U. and who later made a trip to Soviet Russia to work in the motion picture industry there and who was selected by the delegates from the Soviet Union in 1936 to go to Russia for that purpose.

Source further stated that when the Communist Party line changed in the fall of 1935 and all Communists were instructed to join the A.F. of L. unions, this group of machinists left the M.P.W.I.U. and applied for a charter from the International Association of Machinists, an international affiliated with the A.F. of L. Source stated that a charter was granted and about 1937 this local No. 1185 was created in Hollywood.

Source 2-T further stated (X/u) that the union followed the usual procedure of new unions in building up its membership; that at the same time Communist influence was at work in the union and by the summer of 1941 this union under the leadership of its business representative, D. T. WAYNE, had gone over officially into the group called the Conference of Studio Unions, dominated as above stated by HERBERT K. SORRELL. Source further stated that the original meeting called to set up the Conference of Studio Unions was authorized officially by this Local 1185 and Local 644 of the Studio Painters. He further stated that at this meeting SORRELL and D. T. WAYNE represented their respective unions as the original base for this conference.

Source further stated that this union No. 1185 is represented in all of its transactions by this business representative, D. T. WAYNE. No other officer appears in any negotiations for the union or apparently take part in any of its political activity. He stated that WAYNE is the Vice-President of the Conference of Studio Unions.

[Source 2-T stated that this union acting through its spokesman, D. T. WAYNE, has affiliated with the same organizations and pursued the identical line as has Local 644 Studio Painters. He has stated that Mr. WAYNE is completely under the domination of HERBERT K. SORRELL.

[Source 2-T has further stated that this union has followed the same procedure as to resolutions and protests as has Local 683 Laboratory Technicians mentioned above. He has stated the union follows the Communist Party line as an integral part of the Conference of Studio Unions.

Source 2-T has stated that this Conference of Studio Unions is the group of A.F. of L. unions which has penetrated the Studio Union A.F. of L. structure and planted the Communist Party line by boring from within, which has been the tactics used for twenty years by the Communist Party and practiced in the earlier days by WILLIAM Z. FOSTER who from 1920 to 1928 was the secret agent of the Communist Party, U.S.A. in charge of organized labor activities, during which time he denied he was a Communist and posed as a legitimate labor leader.

[Source 2-T has stated that it was not to be implied that this Conference of Studio unions controls the majority of A.F. of L. workers in the studios. There are many other A.F. of L. locals not Communist controlled, but this small group composing this Conference are more or less key unions. He further stated that they have the backing of the entire Communist structure and the sympathy of the large number of fellow travellers in the cultural group, and due to this fact they possess strength out of all proportion to the number of locals and membership.

[Source 2-T has further stated that the publication in which the affairs of this Conference of Studio Unions are handled is the monthly paper "Flashes", issued by Local 683 of the Laboratory Technicians.

Source has also stated that this union uses the daily "Variety", a trade paper which is extremely partial to the activities of this conference and to HERBERT K. SORRELL. This source further stated that RALPH RODDY, who is in charge of labor dues for "Variety", apparently is a fellow traveller and follows the party line. These newspapers will be treated under separate headings.

HOLLYWOOD GUILD COUNCIL

[Source 2-U has reported that the guilds making up the Hollywood Guild Council are the bargaining agencies for what is known as "the cultural groups, writers, artists, directors, readers and publicists." These guilds although not affiliated with A.F. of L. or any other labor group are the bargaining agencies for their members. It should be noted that as in the case of writers, directors and art directors, the matter of salaries is an individual matter. Those guilds in their bargaining negotiations deal with such matters as working conditions, screen credits, etc.]

WORKS FOR THE FORMATION OF THE HOLLYWOOD GUILD COUNCIL

Source 2-U has further stated that after the defeat of the Communist controlled United Studio Technicians Guild (U.S.T.G.) at the National Labor Relations Board election held on September 20, 1939 as above related, the Communist elements not being able to function within the I.A.T.S.E. proceeded to set up another organization outside the A.F. of L. As a base for their operations they created another organization "The Hollywood Guild Council". This council was composed of representatives or delegates from what is called "the cultural groups". They are the following:

| Guild | Approximate membership in 1941 |
|---|---|
| Screen Directors Guild | 350 |
| Screen Readers Guild | 250 |
| Screen Publicists Guild | 200 |
| Screen Set Designers Guild | 350 |
| Screen Office Employees Guild | 900 |
| Screen Cartoonists Guild | 500 |
| Total | 4,000 |

Source 2-O further stated that the Hollywood Guild Council was set up in the fall of 1939, shortly after the U.S.T.G. was dissolved; that when this guild council was organized the Screen Set Designers Guild, Screen Office Employees Guild, and Screen Cartoonists Guild, were not affiliated with the A.F. of L. This affiliation was not made until the fall of 1941. The others never were affiliated with the A.F. of L.

Source further stated that the purpose of this Hollywood Guild Council was to afford a base of operations to carry on Communist propaganda and keep alive the attempt to penetrate the other unions. They attempted to draw into the council many of the A.F. of L. locals but were not successful. The activities were confined to these various guilds which had always been more or less subject to Communist infiltration.

Source further stated that the leading group and the one which practically controlled the Hollywood Guild Council was the Screen Writers Guild. All of the activities of this council had their origin in the Screen Writers Guild. The officers and leading figures in the Screen Writers Guild are almost all members of the League of American Writers. This League of American Writers has been in control of the Screen Writers Guild for many years and has succeeded during that time in having its members placed in key positions in this guild.

The political viewpoint of the League of American Writers has dominated the Screen Writers Guild completely. The other guilds mentioned never played a great part in the Hollywood Guild Council for the reason that they were not so easily organized. To a large extent they lent their names and appointed delegates to the council. It might be said that they "trailed along."

Source 2-U further stated that the activities of the Hollywood Guild Council extended from the fall of 1939 to June 22, 1941, at which time HITLER invaded Russia, which automatically ended the HITLER-STALIN pact. He stated that this period was one in which the line of the Communist Party was isolationist and anti-war and anti-preparation for defense. He further stated that the Hollywood Guild Council during this period fell into line with that position. However it accomplished very little, being overly conscientious in its activities.

Source further stated that immediately after the invasion of Russia this council had no further place as a propaganda group inasmuch as the majority of the representation of the guilds were writers, directors, artists, etc. They transferred their activities from a position of isolation to one of violent patriotism. He further stated that after the change in the Communist Party line caused by the invasion of Russia was made clear, which took approximately three to four weeks, the directing heads of the guild council began an intensive campaign in support of the war. They transferred their activities to other fields, the principal one of which became the Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense.

Source further stated that the Hollywood Guild Council did not go to other organizations as a body but the individual members went as individuals and joined and supported such organizations as the Writers Mobilization for Defense, The Citizens Unity for Victory Committee, Laborers Unity for Victory Committee, The Committee for the Care of Children in Wartime, the United Russian Relief, Committee for Medical Aid to Soviet Russia, American-Russian Council for Friendly Relations, The Hollywood Canteen, Victory Bond Drive, and many other forms of war activity.

Source stated that as a result of this transfer of activities to these other groups by the leaders of the council, it became inactive and at the present time it remains as a mere name only.

Source further stated that so far as it has been possible to ascertain the Hollywood Guild Council did not make public the names of the indivicuals who were its leaders and directors. The council never took direct action as a body but it acted as a sort of steering committee or advisory club for the various guilds that made up the council. Source stated that the following persons were the most active in the affairs of the Hollywood Guild Council:

SHERIDAN GIBNEY - President, Screen Writers Guild, 1941.

ROBERT ROSSEN - Secretary, Screen Writers Guild, 1941.

LESTER COLE - Treasurer, Screen Writers Guild, 1941.

MARY McCALL, JR. - Member Screen Writers Guild, 1941.

JOHN HOWARD LAWSON - Member of Screen Writers Guild, 1941.

JEROME CHODOROV - Member of Screen Writers Guild, 1941.

ALLEN SCOTT - Member of Screen Writers Guild, 1941.

DAVE HILBERMAN - Vice-President, Screen Cartoonists Guild, 1942.

FRANK TUTTLE - Screen Directors Guild, 1941.

DON GORDON - Screen Readers Guild, 1941.

LESLIE MASON - Screen Publicists Guild, 1941.

Source 2-U further stated that the approximate membership of the Hollywood guilds affiliated with the Hollywood Guild Council was 4,000, the majority of whom were members of the Screen Writers Guild and Screen Office Employees Guild. He further stated that the Hollywood Guild Council is now practically inoperative due to the war conditions and the further fact that since it was set up the Screen Office Employees Guild, the Set Designers Guild, and the Screen Cartoonists Guild became affiliated with the A.F. of L. in the fall of 1941 and are now a part of the Conference of Studio Unions as noted heretofore.

Source further stated that some of the guilds mentioned above were affiliated with the Hollywood Guild Council and are independent groups and have no connection with national unions.

SCREEN WRITERS GUILD
1655 No. Cherokee Avenue,
Hollywood, California

Source 2-V has reported that the Screen Writers Guild is an independent organization not affiliated with the American Federation of Labor; although it calls itself a guild it is a labor union and is the bargaining agency for writers in the Hollywood motion picture industry.

Source 2-V has stated that the Screen Writers Guild was organized in 1934, that it is the first union group in the cultural field to come under domation of the Communists and fellow travellers. In fact it was organized by a group of writers who were then members of the John Reed Club of Hollywood, a Communist front organization that afterwards became the Hollywood chapter of the League of American Writers in 1935. Source stated that prominent among this group of original organizers were:

HOWARD LAWSON
SAMUEL ORNITZ
DUDLEY NICHOLS
GUY ENDORE
HARRY CARLISLE

CONFIDENTIAL

All of the above have long records of Communist activity in the Hollywood motion picture industry.

Source further stated that the Screen Writers Guild ever since its inception has taken the leadamong the organized cultural union groups in the Hollywood motion picture industry in following the Communist Party line in all its devious changes. He further stated that this guild was mainly responsible for setting up the Hollywood Guild Council, a Communist dominated group. Although not affiliated with the Conference of Studio Unions, it has probably acted in support of that body which, as has been shown, is another Communist controlled group of A.F. of L. local Hollywood unions. Source further stated that this guild is the sponsor and moving force in the Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense; that it sponsored the publication "Communique" which was published and distributed from its headquarters. He further stated that it is one of the sponsors of the Hollywood Canteen which was recently set up for the purpose of furnishing entertainment for the armed forces. He further stated that its officials and members have been active in every form of Communist and Communist front activity in southern California for years.

Source 2-V has further stated (u) that the Communist domination of the Screen Writers Guild has been so continuously obvious that in 1936 a small group of writers revolted against this domination and attempted to oust the Communists from control. This revolt was led by a small group of writers, most active of whom were JAMES K. McGUINESS, JOHN LEE MAHIN, HOWARD EMMETT ROGERS, PATTERSON McNUTT, BESS MEREDITH, HERMAN J. MANCKIEWICZ, ROBERT RISKIN and SAMSON RAPHAELSON.

Source further stated that one of the foremost "red baiters" as he was called at the time was Mr. MANCKIEWICZ, one of the highest paid writers in Hollywood. Source stated that MANCKIEWICZ ran a full page advertisement in the Hollywood Reporter, a trade daily, which he headed as follows:

"PROPOSED CHARTER FOR LOCAL NO. 1, SONS AND DAUGHTERS OF 'I WILL ARISE' SCREEN WRITERS UNION"

He signed the communication:

"Writers of Hollywood unite!
You have nothing to lose but your brains!
HERMAN J. MANCKIEWICZ,
Grub Street, Beverly Hills, California.
In the Year of the Terror, One,"
New Theater June, 1936. P.25

CONFIDENTIAL

Source 2-V further stated that despite the fact that this small group had exposed the Screen Writers Guild as being Communist controlled, it lost the fight and the guild continued as usual. Source stated that again in 1941 another revolt against the Communists in the organization took place. Some of the same group tried again; notably Mr. ROGERS and Mr. McGUINESS were active. This time they succeeded in forcing the resignation of JOHN HOWARD LAWSON, DONALD OGDEN STEWART, and RING LARDNER, JR. from official positions. These three have long been known for their Communist activity. He further stated that the resignations of LAWSON, STEWART and LARDNER were merely concessions to a state of affairs, as at this time Communists and fellow travellers were still suffering from the effects of the HITLER-STALIN pact, but source stated that after Russia was attacked by HITLER and the Communist Party line changed and permitted Communists to pose as good, loyal American citizens and at the same time denounced anyone as "fascist" or "Nazi" who brought up the question of Communism, the Communist elements became bold and again openly took the reins of the Screen Writers Guild.

Source further stated that the close connection between the League of American Writers and the Screen Writers Guild is evidenced by the membership of many of the officials and members in both organizations. He further stated that members of the League of American Writers are in complete control of the Screen Writers Guild.

Source 2-V reported to the Los Angeles Bureau office that the following parties were elected officers of the Screen Writers Guild on November 12, 1942:

|---|---|
| MARY McCALL, JR. | President |
| LESTER COLE | Vice-President |

Source 2-V and 2-W further stated that the following officers of the guild are followers of the Communist Party line as indicated below:

MARY McCALL, JR., President of the Screen Writers Guild, is supported by the Communist elements in the organization; was elected November 12, 1942 as President; was active in the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, a Communist front organization, until the signing of the STALIN-HITLER pact; spoke under the auspices of the Hollywood League for Democratic Action, a Communist frontisolationist organization, on February 21, 1940, at the Philharmonic Auditorium, Los Angeles, in which the program was "Hollywood Accepts MARTIN DIES". She stated at this meeting "MARTIN DIES was worse than Communism". She was one of the members of the Screen Writers Guild who wired a demand to Congress on March 5, 1940 that it eliminate the DIES Committee. She sponsored the Russian anniversary celebration at the Shrine Auditorium on November 8, 1942. She was a member of the committee on arrangements. He was a co-author of the plays "Meet the People" and "Zero Hour", both of which were isolationist and were sponsored by the American Peace Mobilization. They were produced by the Hollywood Theater Alliance, a Communist front group, and directed by HERBERT BIBERMAN, a well known Hollywood Communist. GORNEY follows the Communist Party line strictly.

Source 2-V conpiled a list of the members of the Screen Writers Guild who are Communists and/or fellow travellers in the League of American Writers and who have been identified for many years as engaged in Communist activity.

SCREEN DIRECTORS GUILD

Source 2-X has reported that the Screen Directors Guild of Hollywood was organized in February, 1936 for the purpose as stated at that time to bring the directors of motion pictures into line with other labor unions in the industry. This source also furnished information relative to the various parties who are active in the affairs of this guild.

This effort was made by a small group of motion picture directors who professed the "progressive" position, and who maintained in a broad sense that the motion picture should carry a social or political message rather than being what they claimed it was at the time, merely an "escape mechanism" for the masses. In reality the term "progressive" meant sympathy for the Communist cause which was then just beginning to make headway among the intellectuals of the Hollywood motion picture industry.

The names of those composing this small group were:

|---|---|
| KING VIDOR | JOHN CROMWELL |
| LEWIS MILESTONE | WILLIAM WELLMAN |
| FRANK TUTTLE | ROUBEN MAMOULIAN |
| WILLIAM K. HOWARD | GREGORY LACAVA |
| JOHN FORD | CLARENCE BROWN |
| FRANK BORSAGE | EDWARD SUTHERLAND |
| HOWARD HAWKS | H. BRUCE HUMBERSTONE |
| WESLEY RUGGLES | |

The difficulty in organizing these directors whose salaries ran into thousands of dollars per week and reducing them to a status of trade unionists was no small one.

The position and duties of the director of motion pictures place him closer to the producer or employer than to the worker. At times his interests lead him actually into the production field where he becomes an employer of a kind.

For these reasons the Screen Directors Guild is in no sense strictly a bargaining labor union although the Communist theoretician claims that it is, but the directors as a class have not yet discovered the fact. Actually the Screen Directors Guild occupies an anomalous position among Hollywood labor organizations which plays at going through the motions of a labor union. The high salaries of the directors and their preferred position among the elite of the motion picture world contradicts any questions of "wages and working conditions".

This leaves the Screen Directors Guild with but one basic reason for existence which, to a small group within the organization, is all in all. This reason is ideological, or, as this group would express it if driven into a corner, "cultural". By "cultural" is meant production of motion pictures sympathetic to the cause of Communism and the political economy of Soviet Russia. (u)

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

This is no implication that the entire membership of the Screen Directors Guild, or even the majority, are of this viewpoint, or that the organization as a body reacts in that direction. It is the usual small group within the organization that works to steer it into this type of activity.

The Screen Directors Guild, of necessity, confined within narrow bounds as a bargaining agency. Also, any political activity it is free to adopt is circumscribed.

Yet in spite of those restrictions the Screen Directors Guild has sponsored such organizations as the Hollywood Writers Mobilization, a Communist inspired project, the Hollywood Canteen, likewise controlled by Communist elements, the War Symphony Committee, and others. It was affiliated with the Hollywood Guild Council mentioned heretofore.

There is considerable Communist activity among the individual members of the directors guild, but they function as individuals and take part in outside organizations and groups.

The Communist Party has for years made every effort to take into its folds motion picture directors. They have recognized the strategic position of the director in injecting propaganda into a picture. In this they have been somewhat successful heretofore.

But at the present time the field is wide open. The position of Soviet Russia as an ally, and the large number of pictures now being made based on the war situation, permits those directors so inclined to inject into the picture such Communist propaganda as would not have been possible heretofore. And for the making of such pictures the Hollywood producers invariably select those directors and writers who are sympathetic to the Soviet union and the Communist cause.

The officers of the Screen Directors Guild are the following:

GEORGE STEVENS - President

ERNST LUBITSCH - First Vice President

NORMAN TAUROG - Second Vice President

WILLIAM A. SEITER-Secretary

TAY GARNETT - Treasurer

J. P. McGOWAN - Executive Secretary

MABEL WALKER WILLEBRANDT - Counsel

Board of Directors: (in addition to the above)

EDWARD H. GRIFFITH
HOWARD HAWKS
A. EDWARD SUTHERLAND
WILLIAM A. WELLMAN
GEORGE CUKOR
HENRY HATHAWAY
MARK SANDRICH
RICHARD WALLACE
SAM WOOD

Alternates to the Board:

FELIX FEIST
REEVES EASON
IRVING PICHEL
LESLEY SELANDER

Of the above officials few have been openly active or have expressed publicly sympathy for Communism or its philosophy.

GEORGE STEVENS. [Source 2-X has reported (u) that GEORGE STEVENS is President of the Guild; that he has been identified with some of the Communist front organizations. He represented the guild in the United Citizens for Victory Committee, and spoke at a meeting in the Philharmonic Auditorium in September of 1942. He has had some connections with the Hollywood Theatre Alliance, a Communist inspired project, and has affiliated with various Russian Relief drives. His activities have been of a mild nature.

ERNST LUBITSCH has been looked upon as a fellow traveller but directed the picture "Ninotschka", which was anti-Communist satire. This would cancel out any Communist leanings previously held. For directing this picture he was attacked by the Communists in the industry and out.

Of NORMAN TAUROG, WILLIAM A. SEITER, TAY GARNETT, and J. P. McGOWAN, there is no record of any activities.

Of the Board of Directors the same can be said, with the exception of IRVING PICHEL, one of the alternates.

IRVING PICHEL. [Source 2-X has stated (u) that Mr. PICHEL has long been active in circles allied to the Communist Party. Sponsor and active in the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, and sponsor of the United Spanish Aid Committee, both strictly Communist front organizations. He teaches at the Hollywood Writers School, conducted by the League of American Writers. While PICHEL has been identified with the foregoing organizations he seems to know when to draw back and not go too far. However, he follows the Communist Party line, but safely.

CONFIDENTIAL

None of the rest of the officials of the Screen Directors Guild have been involved to any serious extent in Communist activities as appears at this time; however this does not mean that the Communist Party has ignored the motion picture director. On the contrary there has been an intensive campaign to influence the directors and it has been successful to quite an extent. But in doing this a different tactic was used than those which were applied to other groups and labor unions. It would not serve the purposes of the Communists nearly so well if they were to control the Screen Directors Guild from the top by electing their members and fellow travellers to the offices in the guild. It would be much better to influence the individual director and use him where he would serve their purpose by his control of the picture as it was produced. Besides there would be a danger if any of the directors became publicly known as Communists and sympathizers--their position in the industry would not allow of it, particularly if they should be in control of the Guild.

The following members of the Screen Directors Guild in Hollywood are known followers of the Communist Party line:

FRANK TUTTLE. Source has stated that TUTTLE is a member of the Communist Party (BURT-HONEYCOMBE). He has been active in almost every Communist inspired group operating in Hollywood; Sponsor of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League. He has been active in the Hollywood Peace Forum which succeeded the Anti-Nazi League and became isolationist when the Communist Party line changed. He is a member of the Hollywood League for Democratic Action, a Communist anti-war group following the Communist Party line. TUTTLE spoke at a mass meeting of a group at the Olympic Auditorium on April 6, 1940, in Los Angeles, which meeting was to "Keep America Out of the War". He is a member and active in the Motion Picture Democratic Committee, a Communist group that changed to isolation when the Communist Party line changed. He is a member of the Zukas Defense Committee-defense of Communist ZUKAS sentenced by Yorty Committee investigating subversive activites. He was a sponsor of the United Spanish Aid Committee and other Spanish civil war aid committees and it is reported that approximately $300,000 was collected for this purpose and that a great portion of it was collected for the purpose of bringing to the United States writers who were in exile and other radical factors who were in internement camps in various European countries for their radical and Communist activities. It is also reported that a large portion of this $300,000 was never accounted for to anyone. (U)

ORSON WELLES is a member of the original "Group Theatre", New York, Communist controlled theater project affiliated with the New Theatre League, a branch of the International Union of Revolutionary Theatres. He is a member of the League of American Writers. He signed the Fourth call for Writers Congress which was a support of the American Peace Mobilization. He is chairman of a committee from Hollywood demanding that deportation proceedings against HARRY BRIDGES be dropped. He is active in the Rescue Ship Mission, a Communist collection agency for funds never accounted for. WELLES is now very patriotic, having changed with the Communist Party line. He was also a sponsor of the United Spanish Aid Committee and other Spanish civil war aid committees and it is reported that approximately $300,000 was collected for this purpose and that a great portion of it was collected for the purpose of bringing to the United States writers who were in exile and other radical factors who were in internement camps in various European countries for their radical and Communist activities. It is also reported that a large portion of this $300,000 was never accounted for to anyone.

JAY LEYDA is now Technical Director on "Mission to Moscow", a picture now being made by Warner Brothers. He has a long record of Communist activity. He was director of propaganda via the theatre for International Union of Revolutionary Writers in Moscow in 1934-35. He is associate editor of "New Theatre", a publication controlled by the Communist Party, issued in New York from 1935 to 1939. He was associated with the Film Library of the Modern Museum, Rockefeller Foundation in New York in 1940. He was discharged for Communist activity in July, 1940 by IRIS BARRY, Curator, as a result of popular pressure. He has been engaged in many other activities.

HERMAN SHUMLIN is a former Broadway producer, now a Hollywood director. He has followed the Communist Party line faithfully for many years. He is a member of the "Group Theatre" in New York, and active in all of its affairs. He was sponsor for the "Theatre Committee for Defense of the Spanish Republic". He was a member of the Hollywood Citizens Committee for Federal Theatre, and a member of the Executive Board of the Theatre Arts Committee (T.A.C.). He was a supporter of the American Peace Mobilization. He has engaged in many other activities, all of which followed the Communist Party line from the Popular Front to Isolation, to violent patriotism.

JOHN FORD has shown Communist sympathies to a limited extent. He is identified as attending Communist social gatherings in Hollywood luminaries homes. (BURT) Sponsor for the Steinbeck Committee for Agricultural Workers, a Communist controlled group (met at the Philharmonic Auditorium, Los Angeles, March 21, 1940). The activities of FORD were of a mild nature, and in all probability he is an innocent. He was third Vice-Chairman of the Motion Picture Democratic Committee.

JOHN CROMWELL is one of the original organizers of the Screen Directors Guild. He is a member of Hollywood's Committee to Protect Civil Liberties, a completely dominated group. He is sponsor of the Hollywood Committee for Writers in Exile", a Communist project.

HERBERT BIBERMAN is one of the leading Communists in the Hollywood section. He is a member of the National Council of American Peace Mobilization. He picketed the White House for the American Peace Mobilization, and is local chairman of that organization, as well as of the Hollywood Peace Forum. He was involved in an attempt by the United Studio Technicians

Guild to take over Hollywood unions for the Communist Party. He is a contributor to "New Masses", New Theatre magazine. He is a member of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League and Motion Picture Democratic Committee. There are many other instances of Communist activity on his part. He is now patriotic in conformity with the Communist Party line.

LEWIS MILESTONE follows the Communist Party line. He supported the New Theatre League, which is affiliated with the International Union of Revolutionary Theatres, with headquarters in Moscow, Russia. He wrote articles for the New Theatre magazine in March, 1937. He is a member of the Executive Board of the Motion Picture Spanish Aid Committee, a Communist front organization. He signed a letter of "150" which was protest against investigation of Moscow trials. This fact is proof that MILESTONE was interested in inner workings of the Communist Party. He is a sponsor of the Hollywood Theatre Alliance, a Communist organization. He has engaged in many other activities.

E. A. DUPONT is editor of the Hollywood "Tribune", a Communist publication issued in 1939. This publication was short lived as the HITLER-STALIN pact caused its death.

WILLIAM DIETERLE is a follower of the Communist Party line. He is a member of the Hollywood Committee for Writers in Exile, a Communist front organization, and of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League. He gave interviews to the "Daily Worker", the Communist Party's official publication (1939). He was named as a member of the Communist Party by IVAN COX in December of 1937.

JORIS IVENS has long been identified with Communist activities. He is an original member and active in the New Theatre League, an affiliate of the International Union of Revolutionary Theatres. Contributor to the New Theatre magazine, and director of "Documentary" films. He is a sponsor of the Motion Picture Guild, a Communist controlled organization for the making of propaganda films (1939).

PARE LORENTZ has engaged in activities practically the same as IVENS.

DUDLEY NICHOLS was formerly a screen writer and member of the League of American Writers. He is now a producer and director. He has a long record of Communist and Communist front activities while connected with the League of American Writers.

HERBERT KLINE is one of the original group that set up the New Theatre League. He is editor of the New Theatre magazine. He is one of the original founders of the League of American Writers in conjunction with EARL BROWDER, MICHAEL GOLD, etc. He is now in Mexico making so-called "documentary" films. He has a long record of Communist activities.

GARSIN KANIN follows the Communist Party line. He is a member of the Hollywood Committee for Writers in Exile, a Communist Party front. He is a contributor to "New Masses", a Communist publication. He signed a resolution to support the "Peoples Front" in England, about April 1, 1941. The "Peoples Front" in England corresponded to the American Peace Mobilization in the United States. EARL BROWDER and other known Communists were also signers of this resolution. He sponsored the Hollywood Theatre Alliance, a Communist undertaking.

There are others among the directors of Hollywood who have evinced sympathy for the Communist cause, but it is of a milder nature and follows the same general pattern.

SCREEN PUBLICISTS GUILD - 1735½ No. Vine Street, Hollywood, California

Source 2-Y has stated in substance the following with respect to the officers and activity of certain individuals in the Screen Publicists Guild. The officers are:

LESLIE MASON - President
TEET CARLE - Vice-President
DAVID McCOIG - Secretary
TED TAYLOR - Treasurer

The Executive Board members are the four above named and the following:

|---|---|
| WILLIAM BELCHER | ROBERT JOSEPH |
| WILLIAM BLOECHER | BESSIE KAMINS |
| JERRY BRETTINGRAM | DON McELWAINE |
| JOHN CAMPBELL, JR. | CAMERON SHIPP |
| CHARLES CASHON | JOHN DEL VALLE |
| NAT JAMES | ARTHUR ZELLNER |

Source has stated that none of the above named officers have been identified as being members of the Communist Party or as having taken part as individuals in any Communist activity of the usual Hollywood variety, yet the organization as a body has affiliated itself with known Communist inspired groups.

Source has stated that this union has been represented by its President LESLIE MASON who has acted as a delegate and as a member of or as sponsoring the following: The Hollywood Guild Council; Labors Unity for Victory Committee; Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense, which was a part of the Screen Writers Guild; and the League of American Writers. He has also sponsored the Hollywood Canteen which is sponsored generally by Communist elements.

CONFIDENTIAL

Source has stated that the only other member of this guild who has at times represented the organization as a delegate is DON KING who is considered by conservative labor unions in Hollywood to be a fellow traveller but he has never engaged in any decided activities. He further stated that the number of members in the union is not large, approximately 350; that on this account it has had very little influence on the larger groups or those engaged in Communist front activities.

SCREEN READERS GUILD, 1655 North Cherokee Street, Hollywood, California

Source 2-Z has reported as follows on this guild. He has stated that the following are the officers:

JOHN WEBER - President

LILLIAN BERQUIST-Vice-President

JESSIE BURNS - Corresponding Secretary

RUTH FASKEN - Recording Secretary

BILL COLE - Treasurer

HAL LEVY - Member Executive Board
BERNARD GORDON- Member Executive Board
WESLEY HAINES - Member Executive Board
LEWIS CLAY - Member Executive Board
FRANK CLEAVER - Member Executive Board
WILLIAM SHENKER- Member Executive Board

Source has stated that the Screen Readers Guild is not a large group, perhaps not over 250 to 300 in all. He further stated that some are employed regularly at the various studios, while others do what is called free lance reading. Their duties are to read books, magazines and all forms of published material and make synopses from which stories or scenes may be adapted to the motion pictures.

Source has further stated that the readers have been to a large extent influenced and dominated by the Screen Writers Guild. The reason for this is that the readers consider themselves potential writers and their ambitions lie in that direction. For this reason the Screen Readers Guild follows the lead of the Screen Writers Guild in all matters. It is affiliated with the Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense, the Hollywood Guild Council, and is active in supporting any political activities and fronts which the Screen Writers Guild advocates.

SCREEN DIALOGUE DIRECTORS GUILD

Source 3-A has stated that this organization is an independent group not affiliated with the A.F. of L. and that it came into existence in 1936. He stated that it was an attempt to organize into a guild or union that might be termed an anomalous section of the directors guild. It was composed of a small section of this group whose activities are of a rather specialized nature, direction of the dialogue in the picture. These duties naturally develop into the domain of the director of the picture and therefore the status of the dialogue director is somewhat vague.

Source stated that as a body this guild has never affiliated with the usual Communist efforts to consolidate groups such as the Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense, the Conference of Studio Unions, or any of the other Communist inspired groups. He further stated that this guild is not at the present time taking a part as group in any of the usual undertakings for war purposes such as the Hollywood Canteen, Russian Relief, etc.

Source stated that the original organizers and those most active in the organization in the past are and have been the following:

|---|---|
| WILLIAM L. BROSSEAU | TED STANHOPE |
| STANLEY J. GRANDON | JAMES LERNER |
| ED L. DAVENPORT | MILTON SACKSON |
| LESTER SCHAFFER | RICHARD LaPAN |
| EDWARD E. KAYE | EDWARD J. CORNEL |
| EUGENE BAILEY | |

Source has stated that with the exception of RICHARD LaPAN none of the above have been identified with Communist activities. He stated that LaPAN was for some years a member of the Communist Party in Hollywood and did important work for the party among the prominent Hollywood luminaries, but he stated that LaPAN broke with the party about five years ago and since that time has become violently opposed to it. He further stated that LaPAN at the present time is not employed at the studios and so far as he knows LaPAN has abandoned all political activity.

AMERICAN GUILD OF MUSICAL ARTISTS

Source 3-B has reported that this organization is not strictly a Hollywood group but is national in its scope and is composed of prominent musicians, soloists, directors and others. He stated that it is not a Hollywood union in the sense that it acts as a bargaining agency, as all members of this organization are also members of the American Federation of Musicians, affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, wh[illegible] bargaining agency for musicians. Source further stated t[illegible] not been active in Communist circles but has supported some organizations suspected of being Communist front organizations, such as Russian War Relief; that it has furnished musicians free of charge to such organizations as the Russian War Relief. He further stated that it is one of the sponsors of the Hollywood Canteen and furnished a great deal of the music, and perhaps all of the music, that is given at the Canteen for entertainment purposes. He stated positively that it has not sponsored such organizations as the Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense.

[Source 3-C has stated (U) that Screen Actors Guild is the only labor union in Hollywood which does not function under a charter from an international group affiliated with the A.F. of L. Being the only group of its kind, that is a union of Screen Actors, it exists only in Hollywood and for this reason it functions by a direct charter from the A.F. of L. through the Actors Equity Association.

SCREEN ACTORS GUILD

[Source 3-C has stated (U) that KENNETH THOMPSON, Executive Secretary of the Screen Actors Guild, performs his duty as Executive Secretary of the Guild and does not take part in any activities outside the needs of the guild as a labor union. He does not object to the Communists functioning in the union, neither does he support them. He has never been referred to as a Communist or fellow traveller. JEFF KIBRE in 1939 stated with respect to THOMPSON: "THOMPSON is vacillating and cannot be held in line."

[Source 3-C stated (U) that the following are the officers of this guild:

KENNETH THOMPSON - Executive Secretary

JAMES CAGNEY - President

GEORGE A. MURPHY - First Vice-President

PAUL HARVEY - Second Vice-President

WALTER ABELL - Third Vice-President

LUCILLE GLEASON - Recording Secretary

PORTER HALL - Treasurer

WALTER ABELL - Member, Board of Directors
JAMES CAGNEY - Member, Board of Directors
EMMA DUNN - Member, Board of Directors
GEORGE A. MURPHY - Member, Board of Directors

LLOYD PIDGEON - Member, Board of Directors
ELIZABETH RISDON-Member, Board of Directors
FRANCHOT TONE - Member, Board of Directors
CHARLES TROWBRIDGE - Member, Board of Directors
JANE WYMAN - Member, Board of Directors.

Source 3-C has stated that the affairs of the Screen Actors Guild are conducted in a different manner from the rest of the unions in the Hollywood motion picture industry. He stated that all matters are in the hands of the elected officers and Board of Directors; that this union does not hold membership meetings regularly; that it has a called meeting when something special is called in order that the membership may vote on some specific question, but he stated that this occurs only on rare occasions and that the only regular meeting is the one which is called once per year for the purpose of electing officers.

Source further stated that due to this arrangement whereas the membership acting as a body can take no action on such affairs, Communist Party members, fellow travellers, and sympathizers among the Hollywood Actors carry on their work through other organizations such as "fronts". They act as individuals without the official sanction of the union, the Screen Actors Guild.

JAMES CAGNEY. Source 3-C stated that CAGNEY has contributed large sums of cash to the Communist Party. This feature is being treated elsewhere in this report.

GEORGE A. MURPHY. Source has stated that MURPHY is the First Vice-President, is very friendly with the C.I.O. and PHIL A. CONNALLY, President of the C.I.O. and Secretary of the L.A.I.U.C. He stated that he considers MURPHY very sympathetic to the Communist cause but that he would not be willing to call him a fellow traveller.

Source further stated that PAUL HARVEY, WALTER ABELL, LUCILLE GLEASON and PORTER HALL have not been active even in any front organizations.

FRANCHOT TONE. Source stated that FRANCHOT TONE has been very active in Communist front organizations, has contributed large sums of money to the Communist Party, and has been very active in matters in which the Communist Party has been involved.

RICHARD LaPAN. Source stated that LaPAN in about 1935 or 1936 was the collector for the Communist Party amongst the motion picture people. At that time LaPAN stated that he had collected large sums of money from JAMES CAGNEY and others in the Screen Actors Guild. He stated that in 1934 LAWRENCE ROSS was Secretary of the Communist Party in Los Angeles County and on one occasion he sent a hurried call to Hollywood insisting that LOUIS HEIFETZ see JAMES CAGNEY at once and get $200.00 as he needed it immediately. A presumption grew from this bit of information that CAGNEY might at any time be subject to call for Communist funds. (X)(u)

A. F. of L. LOCAL UNIONS NOT MENTIONED HERETOFORE

(X)(u)

Source 3-D has stated that the following sixteen unions which have not heretofore been mentioned in this report are A.F. of L. unions and should be mentioned here in order that all unions in the motion picture industry may be accounted for. He has stated that of this number nine form a part of the I.A.T.S.E. group affiliated with the A.F. of L. through the national organization of the I.A.T.S.E. They are the following:

AFFILIATED PROPERTY CRAFTSMEN LOCAL 44.

INTERNATIONAL PHOTOGRAPHERS LOCAL 659.

INTERNATIONAL SOUND TECHNICIANS LOCAL 695.

MAKEUP ARTISTS LOCAL 706.

MOTION PICTURE COSTUMERS LOCAL 705.

MOTION PICTURE SET ELECTRICIANS LOCAL 728.

MOTION PICTURE STUDIO GRIPS LOCAL 80.

MOTION PICTURE STUDIO PROJECTIONISTS NO. 165.

STUDIO LABORATORY AND UTILITY WORKERS LOCAL 727.

Source has stated that the following A.F. of L. local unions are not a part of the I.A.T.S.E. group but are affiliated with the A.F. of L. through their various international bosses:

| Local | Approx. Membership |
|---|---|
| STUDIO DRIVERS (TEAMSTERS) LOCAL 399 | 1,000 |
| STUDIO PLASTERERS LOCAL 755 | 550 |
| STUDIO CARPENTERS LOCAL 946 | 2,200 |
| STUDIO UTILITY WORKERS LOCAL 724 | 1,600 |
| AMMERICAN FEDERATION OF MUSICIANS LOCAL 47 | 500 |
| INTERNATIONAL BROTHERHOOD OF ELECTRICAL WORKERS LOCAL NO. 40 | 1,300 |
| BUILDING SERVICE WORKERS LOCAL 99 | 500 |

[Source has stated in the above-named unions it cannot be said that there is any large amount of Communist infiltration. A campaign for this purpose has been carried on for the past five or six years but has not been successful. He has further stated that in no one of these unions has any of the officers been won over to the Communists cause; however, among the membership of some of these unions Communists and their sympathizers had been active prior to June 22, 1941, the date on which HITLER attacked STALIN. Since that time, however, he states that Communist Party instructions have been that there is to be unity with the A.F. of L. and that no serious attempts should be made to capture official positions in those unions. He stated, however, that this does not mean that they have dropped their activity; in fact it has been intensified but it has been turned in numerous directions. He stated that the purpose now is to utilize the present structure of these unions and influence the membership to support such extra-union activities as aid to Russia, resolution for a second front, independence of India, support for the various projects put out by the Communists such as nurseries for the children of war workers, labor management committees and all war activities determined by the position of the Communist Party line toward the Soviet Union.]

AFFILIATED PROPERTY CRAFTSMEN NO. 44 (I.A.T.S.E. Affiliate)

Source 3-E has advised that none of the officers of this union are Communists or fellow travellers and for that reason same are not being listed.

Source 3-E, however, has stated that the following members of this union are listed as Communists: FRED HANSHELL, Communist Party name FRANK OAKES, and IRWIN P. HENTSCHELL, whose Communist Party name is JOHN F. MEYERS. It will be noted that HENTSCHELL has been mentioned heretofore in Exhibit No. 1 and Exhibit No. 2 in the correspondence between JEFF KIBRE and ROY HUDSON and other officials of the Communist Party in connection with their activities at the 34th Annual Convention of the I.A.T.S.E. held at Cleveland, Ohio, June 6-9, 1938, in which ROY HUDSON questioned the loyalty and ability of HENTSCHELL.

HUGH P. MASON. Source 3-E has stated that MASON was registered for voting purposes as a Communist in 1936. It has also appeared at the JACK TENNEY Legislative Committee testimony that MASON attended the Communist Party fraction meetings and that Communist Party meetings were held in his home.

Source 3-E has stated that the following members of Local No. 44 have been listed by the officials of the union as having carried on and supported Communist propaganda at union meetings:

|---|---|
| HARRY CHERNIN | WILLIAM M. DOUGLAS |
| WILLIAM WILFROD | ARTHUR FRIEDSON |
| LOUIS HAZEY | ROBERT AMES |
| JOHN C. PELTON | MURRY PASCH |
| ROY W. VICKEY | GEORGE HAINES |

INTERNATIONAL PHOTOGRAPHERS LOCAL NO. 659 (I.A.T.S.E. affiliated With A. F. of L.

Source 3-F has stated with respect to the possible Communist infiltration into the International Photographers that there has been no infiltration of Communists into the officials of this group. He stated the only member of this group who seems to have Communist connections is JAMES WONG HOWE, a Chinaman. He stated that HOWE was a member of the Motion Picture Cooperative Buyers Guild and that he was a member of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League and it is considered that he has been very sympathetic to the Communist cause but it is not known definitely that he has ever been a member.

INTERNATIONAL SOUND TECHNICIANS LOCAL 695 (I.A.T.S.E. affiliated With A.F. of L.

Source 3-G has informed the Los Angeles Bureau office that there is no evidence that there is any Communist infiltration into this union to such an extent as to have any influence whatever on the union's activity as a body. Source has stated, however, that HAROLD SMITH, the business agent of this union, has been identified as consorting with Communist elements in Hollywood. He further stated that SMITH was voted for office at the Labor National Convention of the I.A.T.S.E. at Columbus, Ohio in June, 1942 and was part of what was termed the Communist bloc from Hollywood. He was a delegate from his union to Labors Unity for Victory, a Communist front meeting held in the Los Angeles Central Labor Council Hall, September 14, 1942.

Source stated that SMITH is not what would be called a stable man by the Communists. He uses them and they use him for certain purposes but it can be said that the Communists do not control him.

Source further stated that the other officers of this union have not been implicated in Communist activities and union as a body has not supported Communist proposals which follow the Communist Party line.

MAKE UP ARTISTS LOCAL NO. 706 (I.A.T.S.E. Affiliated With A. F. of L.

Source 3-H has reported that the membership of this union is comparatively small and is made up of old time actors and for that reason any Communist activities have fallen on barren ground. He stated that the only member of this union who is a fellow traveller is RAYMOND LOPEZ. He stated that LOPEZ was a member of the Communist Party and active in the M.P.W.I.U. mentioned heretofore and for some seven or eight years has carried on Communist propaganda and has been identified with Communist front organizations. He further stated that LOPEZ is a man of little force and does not have the ability to influence anyone.

MOTION PICTURE COSTUMERS LOCAL NO. 705 (I.A.T.S.E. AFFILIATED WITH A.F. OF L.

Source 3-I has stated that J. C. EDWARDS is the business agent of this union. He has stated that EDWARDS is not a Communist nor a sympathizer with Communism; that this union has an approximate membership of 600, which is composed principally of persons of foreign extraction, such as can be found in the garment industry. Source has stated that while the tendency of these types is to lean toward the left, the fact that they are exceedingly well paid in the motion picture industry overrides completely any political viewpoint they might desire to adopt.

MOTION PICTURE SET ELECTRICIANS LOCAL NO. 728

[Source 3-J has informed] (u) that the officers of this union appear to have no communist connections; however he has stated that among the membership there has been some who have been active. The following individuals have been reported as having supported the U.S.T.G. and the Communist program to take over the Hollywood Studio Unions:

JERRY (J.N.) FATKIN. Source has stated that FATKIN is an electrician who is on call to the various studios when needed. He stated that FATKIN supports all proposals advanced in the interest of the Communist Party line at all meetings of the union.

ROY H. RICE. [Source 3-J has stated] (u) that RICE is a steward in the union and that he is on call as a set electrician; that it is reported that he is an associate of FATKIN in following the Communist Party line in all union meetings.

Source has stated that MIKE ELLISON, BILL GORSMAN and GEORGE KATZMAN, members of this union, have cooperated with FATKIN and RICE at all times in following the Communist Party line.

[Source 3-J further stated] (u) that within the last few months there has developed an internal situation within this union which may result in this membership group going over to the Conference of Studio Unions dominated by Communist influence under the leadership of HERBERT K. SORRELL. He further stated that PAT CASEY, the Labor Relations Man between the studios and the unions, is in favor of lining up with the Conference of Studio Unions. He stated, however, that GUY BUSHING, the secretary of this union, is opposed to any Communist infiltration, but the business agent, A. J. MORAN, seems to favor collaboration with Communist controlled unions at the studios. He stated, however, that it cannot be stated that MORAN is a Communist but at times he has been known to sympathize with Communist programs and has advocated following some activities which are a part of the Communist Party line.

[Source 3-J has stated] (u) that the following parties who are members and not officers of this union are known to have Communist sympathies:

MOTION PICTURE STUDIO GRIPS LOCAL NO. 80 (I.A.T.S.E.
Affiliated with A. F. of L.

Source 3-K has informed the Los Angeles Bureau Office that none of the officials of this union have any Communist connections. He further stated that the whole union is patriotically opposed to all Communist influence.

MOTION PICTURE PROJECTIONISTS LOCAL NO. 165 (I.A.T.S.E.
Affiliated with A. F. of L.

Source 3-L has informed Agent that this local is a small group with only about 200 to 250 members. He stated that the officers are free from Communist connections. He further stated that there is one member, EDWARD LEVEGUE, who is a member of the Communist Party under the name of HERBERT FORD. He stated that LEVEGUE was a member of the M.P.W.I.U. in 1934 and 1935 and at that time was very sympathetic to Communism and later joined the Communist Party and has informed that he retains his membership in the Communist Party.

LABORERS AND UTILITY WORKERS LOCAL NO. 723 (I.A.T.S.E.
Affiliated with A. F. of L.

Source 3-M has informed Agent that this union is one of the I.A.T.S.E. group and that at one time this union had jurisdiction over utility workers and laborers in the studios, but within the last few years another union, the Studio Utility Employees Ho. 727, affiliated with the International Hod Carriers, Building and Common Laborers Union Of America, affiliated with A. F. of L., has taken over most of this type of workers, which has left this union with only about 250 to 300 members. He stated that as a result there is no Communist activity in the union at all as it is expected that sooner or later this union will voluntarily go out of existence.

AMERICAN FEDERATION OF MUSICIANS LOCAL NO. 47

Source 3-N has reported to the Los Angeles Bureau Office that this union is an affiliate of the American Federation of Labor and represents all organized musicians in the Los Angeles section as the bargaining agency. He stated that this union is not strictly a Hollywood union but it does encompass all musicians who work in the studios in Hollywood.

Source 3-N stated that the officers of this union at the present time are the following: J. K. (SPIKE) WALLACE, is the President and business representative.

The officers are also Members of the Board of Directors.

Source 3-N stated that this union is one of the largest groups of the A.F. of L. in southern California, having a paid up membership of approximately 8,000. He further stated that although this organization has a clause in its constitution which demands expulsion from the union of any member or members who are Communists, who advocate Communism or any other subversive doctrines, or who engage in subversive propaganda, the union as a body has cooperated with known Communist groups in the Los Angeles locality.

Source further stated that the Musicians Local No. 47 from about 1937 to 1940 was conducted in a conservative manner; that JACK TENNEY was President of the union during that time. He stated that the union has a hall at 1417 Georgia Street, which is owned by the union. He further stated that TENNEY was elected to the California State Legislature in 1938 and he afterward became a member of the Sam Yorty Assembly Investigating Committee and in 1941 TENNEY succeeded YORTY in the committee which was afterwards known as the Tenney Legislative Investigating Committee and was also known as the Anti-Subversive Committee of the California State Legislature.

Source stated that TENNEY ceased to be the President of the union in 1940 and J. K. WALLACE was elected to succeed him. He further stated that after TENNEY went out of office as President, WALLACE, SAM ALBERTS, MISCHA ALTMAN, HENRY ALBERTI, and a man by the name of BAN became active in the union; that ALBERTI, ALTMAN and BAN have been identified as members of the Communist Party up until 1940. He stated that prior to that time ALBERTS was not known as a Communist Party member but was considered a fellow traveller.

Source 3-N has further stated that the Communist line activities of this union are expressed through its President, J. K. WALLACE who sits in the forefront to support the Conference of Studio Unions, which is completely Communist controlled and under the leadership of HERBERT K. SORRELL, a well known Communist. He further stated that the union passed a resolution about October 1, 1942 demanding the opening of a second front. He further stated that WALLACE as a delegate to Labors Unity for Victory

Committee, a Communist dominated group, went on record as saying that his union had gone on record as supporting the Committee for the Care of Children in Wartime, a Communist sponsored group. He further stated that as an individual WALLACE'S name appears on a pamphlet written by DALTON TRUMBO, a well known Communist writer in Hollywood, as a sponsor. He further explained that this pamphlet was a protest against the deportation of HARRY BRIDGES. He further stated that WALLACE, speaking for this union, has led the attack on the activities of the Anti-Subversive Committee and JACK TENNEY personally. (TENNEY was elected to the State Senate in the November, 1942 election.)

[Source 3-N further stated that WALLACE and this union take credit for the establishment of the Hollywood Canteen, which behind the scenes is controlled by a group of Communists and fellow travellers in Hollywood. He stated that this canteen furnished entertainment and refreshments for the armed forces without charge. He further stated that the general impression is that WALLACE is not a Communist Party member but he sponsors Communist activities and is a close associate of HERBERT K. SORRELL and has made statements for his union that it will support demands made by SORRELL and his Conference of Studio Unions in any demands that they will make on the motion picture industry.

STUDIO DRIVERS LOCAL NUMBER 399

[Source 3-O has stated that there has been an intensive campaign carried on by the Communists to penetrate and overtake this union, a campaign which was led by known Communists, fellow travellers and sympa-hizers. This local union was considered by them to be a key union in that roup of A.F. of L. locals not a part of the I.A.T.S.E. bloc. In this they ere correct for the reason that if they could succeed in capturing this group t would provide an important wedge to penetrate the teamsters group on the est coast.

The campaign reached its height in 1941. At this time theheads of the union, Mr. JOSEPH TUOHY, Business Representative, and RALPH CLARE, Secretary, who, with all other officials of the union, are opposed to radical activities, succeeded in expelling two of the Communist leaders from the union on charges of Communism. The two leaders were GENE BRADY and BEN BUDMAN, whose record appears in the files of the Los Angeles Bureau office.

These expulsions tended to stop activity and at the esent time it is of little importance, although there is a sizeable group Communists and fellow travellers in the union. However, they are strictly dercover and give little trouble.

He stated that they were active in the U.S.T.G. in 1939; that they supported the Motion Picture Democratic Committee, which was a Communist front organization. He stated that they also objected to the expulsion from the union of BEN BUDMAN and GENE BRADY because of their Communist activities. The expulsion was made by a vote in an open hearing of the union. AL CAYA acted as the spokesman at the first hearing. At the second hearing, which took place in 1941, BRADY and BUDMAN sought the advice of GEORGE SHIBLEY, an attorney at Long Beach, California who has been involved in Communist activities and is a member of the Lawyers Guild and whose practice is confined to individuals and organizations of a Communist viewpoint and the men mentioned above voted against expulsion. They did not support the American Peace Mobilization or other fronts outside their labor union.

STUDIO PLASTERERS LOCAL NUMBER 755

[Source 3-P has stated (u) that this union is one of the conservative bloc of unions. BEN HARTINEZ is the business representative of the union and has been cooperative in combating Communist activity in the Hollywood unions.

Source 3-P further stated that the only members of the union who have shown Communist tendencies are: (u)

RUDOLPH PARDUCCI
HENRY GREUTEST
HAROLD F. WILSON (u)

He further stated that their activities have been confined to conversations with their own union members. He further stated that this union's membership is composed of Italians largely and that the work which they do is ornamental plaster cast work.

STUDIO CARPENTERS LOCAL NUMBER 946

Source 3-Q informed (u) Agent that this union is apparently free of any outward Communist activities. He stated that it is an old line group, the members of which are for the most part men identified with the picture industry for many years. He further stated that the membership of this union tended to lean toward the conservative side. He also stated that it had been reported that there had been some Communist agitation in the past but at the present time it does not show. He stated that the officers of the union are in no way involved in radical activity of any kind; however their position is one of neutrality toward Communist activity.

Source 3-Q further stated (u) that at a meeting of this union in June, 1941 of various conservative heads of Hollywood unions to combat Communist activity the representatives of this group would not cooperate. Attempts were later made to get their representatives to do so but without results. He further stated that the membership of this union is approximately 2,200 and that the position which the officers took on the situation with respect to Communists was one of aloofness, contending that there was no problem within the organization they represented.

STUDIO UTILITY EMPLOYEES LOCAL NO. 724

Source 3-R informed (u) Agent that the membership of this union is approximately 1,600 and that there is no serious attempt by the Communist element to penetrate this group. Attempts have been made in the past but such attempts were entirely unsuccessful.

Source has stated that the officials of the union are in no way implicated in any radical activity; in fact it is one of the organizations in the Hollywood industry that has been aware of what has been going on and has consistently taken steps to prevent any Communist activity within the ranks of the membership.

CONFIDENTIAL

In addition to the conservative position of the union officials another factor operates to prevent Communist activity. And that is that the membership is composed of common laborers who drift in and out of the union. There is a large turnover in membership and as a consequence it is impossible for the Communist elements to concentrate on the members to build up a permanent faction.

The officials of the union, particularly LEW HEIM, Business Representative, and H. C. ROHRBACH, JR., Secretary, have cooperated with other conservative union leaders in Hollywood unions to put down, or prevent Communist activity in the unions.

HOLLYWOOD UNIONS FREE OF COMMUNIST PARTY INFLUENCE

Source 3-S has stated (U) that the following motion picture unions in Hollywood, California, have, so far as he has been able to ascertain, remained entirely free of Communist Party influence. They are the following:

INTERNATIONAL BROTHERHOOD OF ELECTRICAL WORKERS, A.F. of L. LOCAL 40, Approximately 900 members

BUILDING SERVICE WORKERS NO. 99, A.F. of L., approximately 500 members

SOCIETY OF MOTION PICTURE INTERIOR DECORATORS, INDEPENDENT - approximately 250 members

MOTION PICTURE HAIR STYLISTS GUILD - Independent approximately 250 members

ARTISTS MANAGERS GUILD - Independent - approximately 100 members

Source 3-S stated (U) that two of the above named A.F. of L. .B.E.W. Local No. 40 which has about 900 members, and the Building

CONFIDENTIAL

Service Workers No. 99 with an approximate membership of about 500, have not shown any activity along Communist lines as organizations. The officials of these unions have not been identified with any form of Communist activity to his knowledge.

(u)

Source 3-S further stated that the seven independent unions named are small groups loosely organized and have not joined with any other unions in any activity of any sort so far as communism is concerned. He stated that they function as small independent groups in efforts to better their working conditions. He further stated that these unions could not be considered key groups and it therefore appears that there has not been intensive concentration on them by the Communist Party. It has always been a contention of the Communist element in Hollywood that if they could get control of the key unions, particularly those which are a part of the Conference of Studio Unions and several other I.A.T.S.E. locals, not yet a part of the latter group, they would have the situation well in hand, and then could force the remainder of the unions to fall in line with their wishes.

GENERAL SUMMARY OF THE LABOR UNION SITUATION IN THE HOLLYWOOD MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY

(u)

Source 3-T has assisted in summing up the labor union situation as it exists in Hollywood and has pointed out the various efforts which have been made by the Communists and the Communist Party to get control of the various unions and guilds, and has gone a little farther and has shown the way in which the motion picture guilds and unions have endeavored to follow the Communist Party line which he has stated has been "without deviation". He has further pointed out that while the motion picture unions and guilds are at the present time on the surface at least for an all out war effort, that one who is familiar with their tactics can readily see that the Communist Party at the present time is losing no opportunity to further the interests of the Communist Party at the present time.

This summary is as follows:

"In its attempt to take over and control the motion picture industry in Hollywood, plans for which were laid down about twelve years ago, the Communist Party has consistently pursued policies and methods which were adjusted to different group interests and which varied in application according to the different changes in the party line of the Communist International (Comintern).

"In Hollywood there were two main lines of procedure; one for influencing the so-called cultural groups, writers, actors, artists, directors, etc., and another for penetration and the capturing control of the studio trade unions. Tactics used were not the same, although there was under cover coordination of all communist interests and controlled groups.

"As has been shown heretofore, the initial attempt to enter the trade union field in the motion picture industry was the formation of the Motion Picture Workers Industrial Union. This union, although not affiliated with the Trade Union Unity League (T.U.U.L.), was set up along the same lines of that basic communist organization and had the same object in view.

"At the time of the formation of the M.P.W.I.U. in 1934 the line of the Communist Party was to form independent unions, mould them into revolutionary unions and work for the eventual overthrow of capitalist democracy by means of violent revolution.

"This line of the Communist Party is clearly laid down in THE COMMUNIST, the official monthly organ of the Communist Party of the United States for June 1930, at Page 509, where it is stated:-

> 'We should keep in mind that the Party has also at its disposal other organizations, schools of the class struggle, schools of Communist strategy and tactics, where it can and in fact should recruit workers by the thousands who are insufficiently prepared, and in need of preliminary schooling. Such are, first of all, the revolutionary trade unions.'

Again, on page 512 it stated:

> 'The TUUL is an independent leader in the economic struggles of the working class. It is an uncompromising foe of the A.F. of L. Its task is to mobilize the masses, win them to its side, embrace them organizationally within its own folds and to destroy the A.F. of L.'

"This was the first method of penetration of the Hollywood motion picture industry by way of the Motion Picture Workers Industrial Union which was completely Communist dominated and which followed the Communist Party line implicitly.

"At the Seventh World Congress of the Communist International held in Moscow July 25th to August 20th, 1935, at which Congress EARL BROWDER was one of the delegates from the United States, a decision was made to alter the methods and tactics of the world Communist movement. What was called at that time the 'United Front', later called the 'Popular Front', was set up. All the various Communist parties throughout the world were ordered to conform and change their methods and tactics.

"In the trade union field this united front tactic called for the abandonment of revolutionary tactics, substituting therefor the boring-from-within process whereby all Communists were to join and work within the then existing trade unions, which meant in the United States the American Federation of Labor. They were to try and capture the leadership and key positions in the unions and bend the organizations over to the Communist Party line which had now become 'support of bourgeois democracy, opposition to fascism, etc.'. This change in the Communist Party line was determined by the foreign policy of the Soviet union which was then advocating 'collective security' against the tendency toward fascism.

"This line for action of Communists in trade unions was laid down by GEORGE DIMITROF, head of the Communist International, at this Congress as follows:

> 'Hence, the main task of the Communist Parties of the West at the present time is to develop the campaign for unity in the trade union movement and to bring it to its consummation; to see to it that all Communists, without exception, join the trade unions, there to work systematically and patiently to strengthen the solidarity of the working class in its fight against capital, and thus attain the conditions that will enable the Communist Parties to rely upon the trade unions.' (Report of DIMITROF to Seventh World Congress - Page 44)

"EARL BROWDER, on his return to the United States from this Congress, repeated this formula at the November (1935) Plenum of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the United States, as follows:

> 'The Seventh World Congress formulated a new tactical line because new conditions have arisen, not because the old line was wrong. The Communists are Marxists, Leninists and Stalinists. We adopt such tactics as best suit the concrete conditions. We will adopt new tactics again when changing conditions demand it. What Communists do not change, of course, is their strategic aim---the proletarian revolution and socialism. Naturally, the Seventh World Congress made no change in that at all. On the contrary, it equipped the working class vanguard with such a tactical line as will enable them to fight most effectively for this aim in the present world conditions.'

(BROWDER'S report - Page 6)

"Then, respecting the trade union situation, specifically, BROWDER had this to report:

'Our party faces a great responsibility in the present trade union situation.....in order more fully to carry through this role, we must complete the organization of the unorganized Communists, those who are eligible but have not yet joined the trade unions. All party organizations must consider it one of their tasks to bring the Communists into the organized trade union movement.'

(Pages 53-54, BROWDER Report)

"As a result of this decision of the Seventh World Congress held in Moscow, Russia, and the subsequent report of EARL BROWDER to the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the United States, the Motion Picture Workers Industrial Union of Hollywood, a revolutionary trade union, was quietly dissolved in February, 1936, and all Communist Party members, fellow travellers and sympathizers obediently went over and joined the then existing A.F. of L. unions in the Hollywood motion picture industry and began to work according to instructions based upon the Moscow decisions.

"Then followed the various maneuverings heretofore described---the formation of such groups as Conference of Motion Picture Arts and Crafts (COMPAC), United Studio Technicians Guild (USTG), Conference of Studio Unions, and a host of smaller groupings, all of which was determined by the Communist Party line.

"During this period and up to the signing of the STALIN-HITLER pact on August 23, 1939, the Communist Party made tremendous strides both in capturing unions and gaining influence all through the motion picture industry. Concealing their identity by pretending support of democracy, registering politically as members of the Democratic party, and carrying out the Trojan horse tactics of the Communist International, their influence spread among the rank and file of the trade unions.

CONFIDENTIAL

"However, with the announcement of the STALIN-HITLER pact there was a lull in the progress. For the duration of that pact, August 23, 1939 to June 22, 1941, the Communists confined their operations in the unions mainly to collective bargaining for the members, dropping the outward Communist political agitation almost completely. Politically, they were in very bad odor. But however, this bad odor affected them politically they retained their hold on the union groups because the Hollywood motion picture producers, through their labor representative, PAT CASEY, favored the Communist controlled unions. This enhanced the prestige of the Communist controlled leadership which was thereby enabled to hold on during that rough period.

"The change in the Communist Party line that came with this signing of the STALIN-HITLER pact on August 23, 1939, a change which demanded that Communists abandon support of democracy as exemplified by the Popular Front, and work for isolation, oppose national defense, conscription, Lease-Lend aid to Britain, in effect give aid and comfort as far as possible to Nazi Germany and the Axis powers, was followed by the Communist controlled Hollywood unions cautiously. They took the then Communist position that it was an imperialist war and America should have none of it. But this line was followed in a very cloudy and ambiguous manner. However, some of the unions went so far as to support the American Peace Mobilization.

"In the main, however, such support was an individual matter with some of the leaders of the Communist persuasion within the unions. But it was very limited for the reason that it is an important part of Communist strategy that Communist union leaders must always be protected from exposure. They are instructed to confine their activities mainly to their union affairs, particularly during a period when the party is under such fire as it was during the period of the HITLER-STALIN pact. The party line was carried more openly at this time by the cultural groups, and "front" organizations with which many of the Communists were working secretly.

"With HITLER'S attack on Russia on June 22, 1941, a new period was ushered in. The change in the position of Soviet Russia and its subsidiary, the Communist International, from one of collaboration with the Axis powers to one of antagonism, and the subsequent alliance of Russia with Great Britain and the United States was immediately reflected in the union activities of the Hollywood motion picture industry.

"From a position of opposition to the war in every respect, the Communist controlled groups now suddenly became violently patriotic and began shouting for all-out support of democracy, the war, national defense, second front, and in favor of everything they had condemned just a few weeks before. This is the situation as it prevails at this time.

CONFIDENTIAL

"And it is on this situation which the Communist Party relies to eventually control and dominate the Hollywood studio unions. By assuming the garb of ultra patriotism, giving all support to every project for national defense and taking part in all efforts to prosecute a successful end to the war, it is outwardly going along with the tide. But at the same time it is working feverishly undercover to build the party influence, recruit members into its ranks and to take advantage of every channel and avenue to build membership and influence.

"In this it, the Communist Party, is following out the basic principle of the Seventh World Congress of the Communist International, which EARL BROWDER clearly stated in his report on this Congress given at Madison Square Garden in New York City, on October 3rd, 1935, when he stated:

> 'If, nevertheless, war breaks out, it is their duty to work for its speedy termination, and to strive with all their might to utilize the economic and political crisis produced by the war, to rouse the political consciousness of the masses of the people and thereby hasten the downfall of capitalist class rule.'

(BROWDER'S report - Page 7)

"The tactics pursued by the Communists and fellow travellers within the Hollywood unions, and the cultural groups as well, are, at the present time, not easily distinguishable. Masking their efforts, as has been said, behind an all-out war effort, they are utilizing all their forces in work among the thousands of workers in all categories. Their activities take the form of agitation for the second front, Russian relief, sympathy for the Soviet system of government, freedom for India, negro equality, defense of HARRY BRIDGES, pressure to have Communists placed on the War Manpower Commission, Civilian Defense, Rationing Boards, and all government appointed agencies, entertainment of and propaganda among the armed forces, etc. etc. All this is part of the Communist Party line at this time.

"All attempts to capture leadership and key positions in the unions by the usual tactics of slander, innuendo and false accusations against the conservative leaders have been temporarily abandoned. In their place have been substituted the program activities mentioned above and an approach to these conservative leaders for cooperation with the Communist Party line.

CONFIDENTIAL

"In this program the Communists in the unions have the fullest support from the cultural groups, writers, actors, directors and the Hollywood "intelligentsia" generally who follow the Communist Party line. These latter have great influence and prestige. Of all groups in the Hollywood sector these cultural groups are the most susceptible to Communist influence. Having greater latitude as theoreticians and artists their necks are generally found to be much farther out than those of the Communist trade unionists who are instructed to play a much closer game.

"To summarize the present union situation in Hollywood it must be stated that while the campaign to take over the remaining unions from the top, not yet under Communist control, has now been halted, the foundations for a future coup by the Communist Party, its fellow travellers and sympathizers is now being laid. Utilizing the position and prestige of Soviet Russia in the war effort, the Communist Party is building a strong following among all departments of the motion picture industry, a feat not particularly difficult at this time due to the peculiarities of the industry, its strong racial factors and foreign ties.

"Due to the war situation the picture may appear confusing; but it will become somewhat clearer if it is borne in mind that the leaders of the Communist International have stated many times with authority, that 'support of bourgeois democracy is not a principle; on the contrary, it is only a tactic to be applied under certain conditions.' This principle is clearly set forth in the report of EARL BROWDER quoted above.

"The tremendous influence of Hollywood and the motion picture on the ways and customs of the people of the United States and the world must not be underestimated. The Communist International has understood this for many years and has been laying plans accordingly. It is fully aware of this influence and for that reason has concentrated on both the trade unions and the cultural departments.

"On the surface the increasing influence of the Communist Party and its fellow travellers is not so apparent, amalgamated as it is with the war effort. But behind the scenes this influence is growing and has now become so strong that it is able to influence the type of picture being made, or prevent anything being put into a picture which is considered contrary to the Communist Party line.

"Despite all protestations by the Communists and their fellow travellers that they now stand for complete support of democratic processes, that they are for all-out support of the war, and despite the fact that they now appear in the garb of ardent American patriots, they are working furiously behind the scenes to build the party and its influence in order that they may render service to the Soviet Union and its foreign policy, even though that policy should lead to direct antagonism to the interests of the government of the United States.

"This principle is clearly understood by all members of the Communist Party and trusted fellow travellers. It was clearly stated by EARL BROWDER in his speech in Madison Garden, New York City, on October 3rd, 1935, quoted above.

"A statement made by a Communist of some importance in the Los Angeles section, EUGENE LINDER, within the last thirty days, to the effect that they expected, within the next five years, to bring about the proletarian revolution, is indicative of the party position.

Source 3-T has stated that LINDER has been a Communist Party member since 1934, at which time he attended meetings at Unit J-6, Hollywood Sub-section. He further stated that in 1937 LINDER made a trip to Russia in company with one GIBBS, and attorney LEO GALLAGHER joined them or at least joined LINDER in Europe and toured several countries of Europe with LINDER. He stated that on LINDER'S return to the United States he delivered a series of lectures on the advantages of the Soviet union and the justice of Communism. X1 (W)

Source further stated that LINDER was the chairman of the Saturday Discussion Club, a Communist propaganda forum which holds meetings in Clifton's Cafeteria on Olive Street in Los Angeles, at the same time that he, LINDER, was employed on the Adult Educational Project of the Works Projects Administration. X1 (W)

Source 3-T stated X1 (W) that LINDER taught sociology and economics at the Belmont, Fairfax, and Hollywood high schools in Los Angeles, as well as at several so-called discussion clubs and open forums and various women's clubs.

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION AND COMMUNIST CONTROL IN THE SO-CALLED CULTURAL, POLITICAL, PROPAGANDA AND FRONT ORGANIZATIONS IN THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY IN HOLLYWOOD

The first section of this report dealt with the infiltration of Communists and Communist influence and control into the labor unions and guilds in the motion picture industry in Hollywood, California.

This, the second section of this report, [deals with the control and attempted control by the Communist Party of the U.S.A. under general directives from the Communist Party of the Soviet Union over certain groups of directors, writers, actors, actresses and highly paid technicians, the so-called intellectuals employed in the motion picture industry in Hollywood. [The purpose of this control is to utilize the motion picture as a powerful instrument of propaganda and cause the production of pictures which will serve the interests of the foreign policy of the Soviet Union throughout the world.]

COMMUNIST CULTURAL ACTIVITIES IN HOLLYWOOD

[Source 3-O, who was a member of the Communist Party in Hollywood for a number of years and who has been very active in Hollywood activities for many years, has stated that the Communist cultural entry into Hollywood was not a spontaneous movement by certain persons in the industry who were in sympathy with "social causes" and who, living in an artificial world of make-believe wished a vicarious thrill by playing at being the dreaded revolutionary in real life, on the contrary this program of Communist infiltration of the Hollywood motion picture industry with the object of taking over and influencing it in the interests of the Communist world revolution, was planned in 1934 and those plans were laid far afield from the local scene. This is not to say that some of those who later became involved in Communist activities among the cultural groups in the industry were not romantic dabblers in what has become since about 1936 a sort of fad with the intelligentsia of the film world, but that group of Communist Party wheel horses which has been working constantly in the interests of the Communist Party and Communism, is in dead earnest, and when properly understood in the light of its place and functions as part of a gigantic world conspiracy, there can be no denial that it has been extremely successful.

In an attempt to measure the progress of Communist activities and influence in the motion picture industry, it must be done by keeping in mind the role to be played, which is to influence the minds and emotions of the great masses of people of the United States and the world. It must also be remembered that here in the United States alone the motion picture reaches approximately 85,000,000 people each week, that being the average weekly attendance. [While there has been an immense program of infiltration into the studio labor unions, as has been shown, it is among the intellectuals, particularly the writers, directors, actors and artists, the so-called cultural field, where most progress has been made and where Communist sympathy and influence is the strongest and most far-reaching; and this is only natural, for, despite all claims and pretensions that Communism as propagated by the world Communist Internationale (Comintern) is a "workers' movement" and meant to free the "toiling masses" from the wage slavery of capitalism and its operations, in reality this is not true, and never was. The Communists, and all radical movements, in fact, are movements led by frustrated and satiated intellectuals who, under the guise of liberating the working classes, seek to set themselves up as a privileged class in a new society of which they will be the directing heads.

The makers of the Russian Revolution in 1917, the model for Communists everywhere, were all intellectuals--they never worked a day in their lives at manual labor. This fact is proven further when we see the Communist leaders of labor unions here in the United States as intellectuals, or striving to be such. The reason for this is that what is called Marxism, Leninism, and Stalinism--a combination of terms used by Communists everywhere--is based on theory, and that theory calls for intensive intellectual concentration. It is only from this basis of reasoning that the Communist activities of the highly paid writers, directors, actors and artists, whose salaries in many cases amount to thousands of dollars a week, can be explained. This attitude is borne out by the statement of LAURA BURT to the State District Attorney in Los Angeles in 1940 when she stated:

> "We attended a housewarming in the home of HELEN GAHAGEN and MELVYN DOUGLAS at which there were a number of screen people present. We complimented Miss GAHAGEN on their home and she said, 'I don't know why we put so much money in it because when revolution comes we will lose it all, and the revolution is bound to come because conditions in this country are so terrible it is inevitable.'"

The initial move of the Communist Internationale to get control over international artists, writers and those in the creative fields of the arts began about the year 1930. The necessity for this action had long been recognized in the Soviet Union as a policy of the state to control the minds of the people. But it was not until 1930 that the international structure, the Communist Internationale (Comintern) was delegated to make this program everywhere throughout the world. It was in this year that the international union of revolutionary writers, which has had such tremendous influence on writers in the United States, held a congress in Kharkov, Russia. The effects of this congress, attended by delegates from the United States, are apparent right now in Hollywood. Many of the writers now employed in the Hollywood motion picture industry were schooled in the organization which sprang from this congress, and those writers who were so schooled are still carrying on for the Communist Party as vigorously as ever.]

[About this same time, that is in 1930, another organization was set up in the Soviet Union. It was called the International Union of Revolutionary Theatre. The headquarters were in Moscow. It likewise was the parent of a multitude of sub-organizations in the United States called "Workers' Theaters", "Theater Groups", "Little Theater", and others. All of these projects were under the firm control of the Communist Party.]

The president of this international union of revolutionary theatre was HEINRICH DIAMENT, theater director in Russia. Others of influence were:

PEARL ATTACHEVA
ANATOLI GELEBOR
SERGEI EISENSTEIN
IRWIN PISCATOR
SERGI TRETYAKOV
CHAN IWAN
JAY LEYDA

All of the above are Russians and are internationally known in theatrical circles as being authorities on theatre and theatre business. The plans of this group were to set up in the United States schools of the theater patterned after those of MEYERBOID and STANISLAVSKY, Russian authorities on the use of the theater as a weapon for revolutionary propaganda. Such were the plans laid down in Moscow, Russia to be sponsored by the Communist Party in the United States.

Shortly after this International Union of Revolutionary Theatres was set up in Russia, there sprang up in the United States in all the major cities a multitude of so-called "theater groups". There were such organizations as:

"Theater of Action"
"ARTEF"
"Theater Collective"
"Chicago Group Theater"
"New Theater Players of Hollywood"
"Negro People Theaters of the South"
"Rebel Players"

All of the above groups were under Communist Party control and followed the pattern of the "Revolutionary Theater" as above stated. There were also set up at the same time the following:

58467

"Workers Dance League".

These two latter organizations at their inception were separated from the theater groups but they also were Communist inspired and controlled.

In April, 1932 the Communist leaders in New York called a national theater conference. It was composed of delegates from all of the aforementioned groups. At this conference there was created what was called the LEAGUE OF WORKERS THEATER. This league brought together all groups into one centrally controlled organization and was known as the American section of the International Union of Revolutionary Theatre. It published a magazine called "The Workers' Theater".

In 1934 the name of the League of Workers' Theater was changed to the NEW THEATER LEAGUE and the magazine was re-named "New Theater". The structure and Communist control remained. It was the same set up under a new name.

Previous to this change in names there had been very little attention paid to the Hollywood motion picture industry but now that sound was introduced and the talking motion picture was firmly established which was changing the technique of the motion picture to one more adaptable for propaganda purposes, the Communist Party began an intensive campaign to penetrate the industry.

The consolidation of all of these theater groups into one organization with its headquarters in New York made it possible to direct all activities more efficiently. This supervision of all of these group theater activities which were in effect schools for writer, actors, directors, artists, etc., many of whom later were employed in Hollywood was successful and as a result the initial infiltration in Hollywood was mainly from this source.

ROUBEN MAMOULIAN, director; member of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League and other fronts and a fellow traveller.

The above described activity of the Communist Party operating through the New Theater League and its offshoots is by no means the extent of its activity in the Hollywood cultural section. It will be seen in reports on separate organizations heretofore made and hereinafter given, that the persons mentioned in connection with the New Theater League appear in each and every one of the numerous front organizations and Communist controlled labor unions and groups sponsored by the cultural groups and labor unions. Instead of being a group here and a group there operating separately, it is an interlocking system with tentacles in every organization, political, cultural, front, or labor unions, all activities of which stem from the spearhead, the Communist Party.

The method of operation, the tactics for infiltration, and the general procedure as described above are basically the same in all of the work of the Communist Party, whether it be in Hollywood, labor unions, front organizations, local, state or national government, or social groups. The general line is laid down in Moscow, the national groups carry it out through the network where it eventually takes effect in every section of the world. The changes in the party line are reflected in the United States nationally and locally with an incredible efficiency.

As an example of this which we have seen the elimination of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, the program of which was one of opposition to Naziism, and support of the democratic processes, and the almost immediate substitution of the Hollywood League for Democratic Action, the program of which was just the reverse. This change from one organization to another was determined by the foreign policy of the Soviet Union which changed with the consummation of the STALIN-HITLER pact, August 23, 1939. It will also be noted from separate reports hereinafter that the same officials of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League were the same as they were for the Hollywood League for Democratic Action.

The Hollywood motion picture industry is and has been, as it will be seen, one of the outstanding barometers of change in the Communist Party line.

CONTEMPORARY THEATRE, INCORPORATED
(Communist Front Organization)

CONFIDENTIAL

(u)

Source 3-V, who is familiar with the Communist build-up in Hollywood has stated that with the setting up of the NEW THEATRE LEAGUE in 1934, and the publication of its official magazine, the "New Theatre", and the subsequent creation of the Hollywood Chapter of the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS in the spring of 1935, the real penetration of the Hollywood motion picture industry by the communist party began.

The publication of a series of sensational articles dealing with certain prominent personages in and out of the picture industry in this magazine, "New Theatre", drew the attention of all Hollywood intellectuals to Communist methods and ideology. The most sensational of these articles was one , "The Sacred Cow of Hollywood". This was a vicious, unwarranted and almost obscene attack on LOUELLA PARSONS, a Hollywood correspondent and columnist. In the article she was painted as a servile hireling of Mr. WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST who was then, and still is, the bogey man of the American Communists. This article was published in the August, 1935, number of the "New Theater". So sensational was the article that in some cases copies of the magazine sold for as much as five dollars. The author of the article which was signed "JOEL FAITH" was reported to be one CHARLES (CHUCK) DAGGETT, then a reporter on a theatrical trade paper, "Variety".

Some few months previously the first American Writers Congress was held in New York City, April 1935. Out of this congress came the Hollywood Chapter of the League of American Writers. At this first congress EARL BROWDER, MICHAEL GOLD and other top Communist functionaries were in attendance and practically guided the proceedings. The foregoing events were the initial stimuli that brought about the rush of so many of the Hollywood intelligentsia to join the ranks of the revolution, as interpreted by the Communist Party at that time. As part of the Communist Party program, and under the auspices of the New Theatre League, there was set up in Hollywood an organization called "CONTEMPORARY THEATRE, INCORPORATED". The headquarters were located at 2905 Sunset Boulevard. (u)

(u)

The aims and purposes of CONTEMPORARY THEATRE, INCORPORATED were officially stated as follows in a prospectus dated March 8, 1936:

> "The Contemporary Theatre is building the New Theatre in Los Angeles—a theatre with a progressive, artistic and social outlook. It is a non-profit cooperative enterprise of playwrights, actors, technicians and audience. We are devoted to the production of the best available plays dealing with the struggles and conflicts of our times.]

"We believe that vital drama and vital theatre must meet squarely the ideas and forces that determine human existence.

"The vigorous theatre of the past interpreted man's struggle against fate, the disasters of nature; his efforts to break through restricting moral codes. The stage interpreted these forces and involved its audience in the struggle to conquer them.

"Today the theatre faces the tumultuous drama of a whole society struggling against the chaos of the world. Today a vigorous theatre must dramatize the deep-going conflicts of our times, the economic, emotional and cultural problems that confront the majority of the people.

"The Contemporary Theatre is dedicated to such a purpose. Its plays will speak directly to this majority whose lives are usually ignored or caricatured on the stage.

"We believe that the powerful sweep of the NEW THEATRE movement which is profoundly rooted in the lives and struggles of all those who work for wages, carries along with it the seed of history in the making which is indeed of momentous interest to every theatre worker and every theatre-goer. Audiences demand rich, mature and indigenous plays of American life, and the Contemporary Theatre in its work intends to give these to them."

While the foregoing program announced publicly, taken at its face value is rather innocuous and mild, the same prospectus from which it was taken recommended such plays as:

"PEACE ON EARTH", by GEORGE SKLAR and ALBERT MALTZ, which had a run of five weeks in Los Angeles. This play is described as a powerful "anti-war drama". It was definitely revolutionary in content and followed the Communist Party line at that time.

"SAILORS OF CATTARO", by FREDERICK WOLF. This play also was revolutionary and in one scene portrayed an actual uprising.

"Waiting for Lefty", "Awake and Sing", "Paradise Lost", and "Until the Day We Die", all by CLIFFORD ODETS. All four of these plays are in the same category, that following the Communist Party line. They speak for themselves.

GEORGE SKLAR, ALBERT MALTZ and CLIFFORD ODETS are all members of and active in the League of American Writers and have followed the Communist Party line for many years. SKLAR and MALTZ signed the call for the Fourth Writers Congress, which was an endorsement of the American Peace Mobilization. FREDERICK WOLF is a foreign revolutionary writer, an Austrian, and known internationally as a supporter of Communist causes.

The Hollywood sponsors of CONTEMPORARY THEATRE, INCORPORATED were:

DOROTHY PARKER - Writer and Member of the League of American Writers, long a fellow traveller

HERMAN SHUMLIN - Now a Hollywood Director. Formerly a Broadway producer. He has long been a close follower of the Communist Party and its political line; was endorser of the American Peace Mobilization.

HERBERT BIBERMAN - A Hollywood screen director, long identified with the Communist movement; was West Coast Director of the American Peace Mobilization, and was picketing the White House almost at the time HITLER attacked Russia. He is a Communist.

JOHN FORD - Hollywood director. Identified as member of the Communist Party in Burt testimony, D.A. 1940. Follows the Communist Party line and sponsors front organizations.

DUDLEY NICHOLS - Member of the League of American Writers, signer of the Fourth Call of the Writers Congress, which was an endorsement of the American Peace Mobilization. He has been long a fellow traveller.

KING VIDOR - Hollywood director and fellow traveller.

EMANUEL EISENBERG – Chairman of Contemporary Theatre, Incorporated. He is listed as a short story writer and reviewer for various magazines, one of which was "New Theater". EISENBERG is not reported to have been connected with the Hollywood Motion Picture Industry at that time, but came into the locality from New York.

HERBERT KLINE - Director and a Communist Party line follower.

All of the above are reported to have attended a meeting of the Contemporary Theatre, held at the Hollywood Women's Club, Hollywood, California, March 29, 1936, the minutes of which meeting is reported in full in "New Theatre" magazine for May, 1936, page 5. This report contains speeches made by various individuals and reveals fully the program and purposes of Contemporary Theatre, Incorporated.

[Contemporary Theatre, Incorporated, had comparatively a short life. This was not because of lack of serious intent or concentration on the idea, but rather because it was discovered that a simpler and easier way to get Communist propaganda plays before the public was to utilize the W.P.A. Federal Theatre Project for the purpose.] The Communist Party had already, at this time, succeeded in penetrating the Federal Theatre Project to a serious extent and consequently here was an opportunity to present party line plays under the auspices and at the expense of the United States Government.

Besides, HALLIE FLANAGAN, who had been much interested in the NEW THEATRE LEAGUE previously, and who had written articles for its magazine, "New Theatre", was head of the project. Miss FLANAGAN had made several trips to Russia; once in 1926 when, on her return to the United States, she wrote in glowing terms of the value of the Russian Theatre Technique, in the book "Shifting Scenes" which was supposed to be a survey of the art of the theater in all European countries, but in which the greater part of the book dealt with the Russian theatre. She only spoke in glowing terms of the theatre but went into ecstasies over the Russian revolution and the way of life in that country at that time. Again in 1931 she made a trip to Russia to attend the Russian Theatre Festival.

As a consequence of the Communist Party tactic of concentrating on the Federal Theatre Project, Contemporary Theatre, Incorporated of Hollywood gradually passed out from lack of nourishment--the usual method of liquidating a front organization when it is no longer needed.

But the utilization of the Federal Theatre Project by the Communists for propaganda plays eventually brought about the death of the Project. An investigation by the Dies Committee brought to light Communist control of the project in certain localities, particularly New York.

At a series of hearings before this committee in the fall of 1938, and at a later hearing before a sub-committee of the House Committee on Appropriations (Chairman CLIFTON A. WOODRUM) in the spring of 1939, before which both committees Miss FLANAGAN appeared and denied any Communist influence on the Project, evidence of a conclusive nature was brought out by witnesses that the contrary was true.

Miss FLANAGAN in 1940 wrote another book, "Arena", which dealt with the history and finally the liquidation of the Project by an Act of Congress on June 30, 1939.

As a result of these hearings, and for the reason that Communist influence over the Project was apparent, the W.P.A. Federal Theatre Project was abolished by Act of Congress on June 30, 1939. [Following this elimination of the Federal Theatre Project from the Work Projects Administration, the same Hollywood group which was instrumental in creating Contemporary Theatre, Incorporated, now reverted in the fall of 1939 to the previous program of setting up their own "theatre groups". This time it was called the HOLLYWOOD THEATRE ALLIANCE.]

HOLLYWOOD THEATRE ALLIANCE
(Communist Front organization)

(U)

[Source 3-W has stated] that as part of the general campaign of the Communist Party to penetrate and influence the Hollywood scene, and to use Hollywood and its prestige as a base of operations, there was set up in April, 1939, a Communist "front" organization called the HOLLYWOOD THEATRE ALLIANCE.

[This organization followed the usual formula of a Communist front.] In its appeal to the public for support it pursued the usual policy of couching its aims and purposes in cloudy and misleading statements, of which the following, taken from the official program, are examples:

> "The world no longer eyes Hollywood as the home of movies and symphonies under the stars. On the one hand it sees the greatest concentration of literary and artistic talent, and on the other, progressive, spirited people bending their energy toward defeating bigotry and upholding the best in American tradition. Now these two groups join hands in an enterprise inevitably determined by their outlook and experience--a democratic theatre."

Again:

> "A democratic theatre is a community function. To permit it to be usurped for private profit and self-exploitation is to acquiesce to a commerical dictatorship. And to believe the theatre a reflection of the times, yet knowingly to support cowardly, stupid drama is to pretend the times were all folly and no aspiration."

It was on such vague generalized appeal that the Hollywood Theatre Alliance was set up in April 1939. The pact between STALIN and HITLER had not yet been consummated and, therefore, this Communist "front" followed the line of the party at this time, which was support of the "popular front" and "collective security" for the defeat of Naziism and Fascism.

[Within a few months after the Hollywood Theatre Alliance was created the pact between STALIN and HITLER was announced, August 23, 1939. The effect on the organization was immediately apparent. From a position of support for democracy and the "popular front" the organization changed to one of isolation, opposition to lend-lease, opposition to the Selective Service Act, in fact complete support of the Communist Party line which changed suddenly with the alliance between STALIN and HITLER.]

As a consequence [the first show, which was in the form of a "Revue", that was produced by the Hollywood Theatre Alliance and which was titled "Meet the People", followed the Communist Party line completely. All through the show was sprinkled Communist propaganda. There were sneers for our preparations for national defense, cleverly satirized propaganda aimed at preventing aid to Great Britain, and in a general sense was potent propaganda upholding the position of the Communist Party and its attitude toward the war effort at that time.]

The show was a huge success. A road company was organized and toured the country. Results were pointed to by Communists as an example of propaganda by way of the theatre.

After this play had its run, another one was produced. It was called "Zero Hour". The title had reference to the imminence of war and all its evil effects and in content slyly suggested to workers to resist, etc. This play was even more vicious than its predecessor.

At the time "Zero Hour" was running, June, 1941, the strike at the North American Aviation Plant in Inglewood, California was called. This Hollywood Theatre Alliance show and the entire coast, supported by the alliance itself, came out in open support of this strike, a strike of which President ROOSEVELT had this to say:

"Besides, the responsible leaders of labor in the United States all realized that this was not a bona fide labor dispute, but a form of alien sabotage, inspired and directed by Communist forces, interested not in the advancement of labor, but in the defeat and overthrow of the United States."

CONFIDENTIAL

The show gave special performances for the strikers, raised money and did everything possible to support the Communist position regarding that affair.

This show "Zero Hour" was running when HITLER invaded Russia, on June 22, 1941. Immediately a change took place in the attitude of the Hollywood Theatre Alliance. "Zero Hour" soon came to a close. Later another show was produced called, "They Can't Get You Down".

Now we see the Hollywood Theatre Alliance changing its attitude. This latter show was in no way similar to those which preceded it. From a position of isolation, etc., it became very patriotic just as the Communist Party had done when Russia was attacked. It subscribed to our war efforts, in toto.

In its every act and in the presentations of its shows the Hollywood Theatre Alliance subscribed to and followed the Communist Party line explicitly.

The following list of names, from sponsors to writers and directors and all the way down is indicative of the Communist coloring of the entire project:

The following members of the League of American Writers, each one of whom has been identified as having been involved in Communist activities for years, were sponsors of the Hollywood Theatre Alliance:

JOHN HOWARD LAWSON
DONALD OGDEN STEWART
LILLIAN HELLMAN
DOROTHY PARKER
GILBERT GABRIEL (Member of League of American Writers & Writers in Exile)
ARTHUR KOBER
DASHIELL HAMMETT (Member of League of American Writers; now in Signal Corps of the United States)

Other sponsors were:

WILL ROGERS, JR. - recently elected to the Congress of the United States from California; a Communist Party line follower.

CONFIDENTIAL

ELLIS E. PATTERSON- Then Lieutenant Governor of the State of California; a Communist Party line follower.

J. EDWARD BROMBERG- Actor; member of the Communist Party.

GEORGE CUKOR - Director

SIGMUND ROMBERG - Hollywood Executive.

Mrs. CHELENE ECKERSON- Local political figure; Communist Party line follower

Mrs. EDWARD G. ROBINSON- wife of actor of that name.

All of the above sponsors have been identified with activity in other front organizations inspired by the Communist Party.

It was stated officially by the Hollywood Theatre Alliance in April, 1939 that the writers who would be responsible for forthcoming plays were:

JOHN HOWARD LAWSON- Communist Party member.

RALPH BLOCK - Communist Party line follower.

JULIUS EPSTEIN - League of American Writers and Communist Party line follower

PHILLIP EPSTEIN - League of American Writers, and Communist Party line follower

[illegible] - Fellow traveller; Hollywood Anti-Nazi League member, and member of the League for Democratic Action

EDWIN JUSTIN MAYER - Member of Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, Hollywood League for Democratic Action, League of American Writers, and American Peace Mobilization.

ROBERT ROSSEN - Member of League of American Writers, Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, League for Democratic Action, American Peace Mobilization, and Fourth Call.

MILT GROSS - Member of League of American Writers and Hollywood Anti-Nazi League.

EDWARD ELISCU - Member of League of American Writers, Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, American Peace Mobilization, League of Democratic Action, and Fourth Call.

All of the above are members of the League of American Writers, teach in the Hollywood Writers School and have been identified as followers of the Communist Party line in other front organizations.

All three plays, "Meet the People", "Zero Hour", and "They Can't Get You Down", were written by:

HENRY MYERS
JAY GORNEY
EDWARD ELISCU

All three of the above are members of the League of American Writers, teach in the Hollywood Writers School and are way out in front in Communist activities in the Hollywood section.

"Zero Hour" was directed by HERBERT BIBERMAN, a motion picture director, local chairman of the American Peace Mobilization and a leading Communist in Southern California.

Others who contributed to the "artistic" efforts of the Hollywood Theatre Alliance are:

DANNY DARE - who staged "Meet the People."
MORTIMER OFFNER
IRVING WHITE
BERNARD VORHAUS - Member of Hollywood Anti-Nazi League.
LUCIEN PRIVAL - Actor, member of League of American Writers, and Communist Party.

One scene in "Meet the People" was written by MIKE QUIN, columnist of the Daily, "Peoples World", the official Communist publication on the Pacific Coast.

[At the present time the Hollywood Theatre Alliance is inactive. Most of the writers and intellectuals responsible for the organization have either become active in the Hollywood Writers Mobilization, or other front groups who are now, since Russia was attacked, very patriotic.]

The Hollywood Theatre Alliance was one of the usual Communist organizations set up to take over Hollywood and at the same time influence people toward Communism and the Soviet Union.

The pattern followed in forming and conducting this group was and is the same as is used in all other Communist fronts.

[During the active period of the alliance, for the duration of the STALIN-HITLER pact, August, 1939 to June, 1941, it was extraordinarily successful.]

HOLLYWOOD ANTI-NAZI LEAGUE
(Communist front organization)

[Source 3-X has stated (U) that this organization was one of the most outstanding in the series of Communist Front organizations set up by the Communist Party in Hollywood.]

During the period of the "Popular Front", when the foreign policy of the Soviet Union demanded that Communist Parties everywhere pretend to support democracy and work to bring about "collective security" as a bulwark against Nazilism and fascism, the Hollywood Communists created the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League. (U)

The purpose of this organization was ostensibly to "defend American democratic rights against Nazi influences". While outwardly this was the avowed purpose, secretly it was set up to build up the influence of the Communist cause and create sympathy and give aid to the policies of Soviet Russia. All propaganda put out, and meetings held, which were open to the public, were tied in with the interests of the Communist Party and Soviet Russia.

[It appealed to the large Jewish population in Southern California on the basis of fighting Hitlerism and drew great financial support from the producers of motion pictures on that program.]

It was one of the most successful Communist fronts ever created in the Hollywood area. Its membership at the peak of its influence was approximately four thousand. Its influence spread to many times that number.

The original founders of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League are the following, and these names all betray the Communist tie-up:

|---|---|
| DONALD OGDEN STEWART | - Writer, Member of the League of American Writers, and Communist Party. |
| DOROTHY PARKER | - Writer; Member of the League of American Writers and the Communist Party. |
| ALAN CAMPBELL | - Writer; member of the League of American Writers and the Communist Party. |

Ten of the above persons are members of the League of American Writers. They are: STEWART, PARKER, CAMPBELL, MAYER, BIBERMAN, SHORE, SPITZER, MEREDITH and BRACKETT. (The League of American Writers is the foremost Communist front organization in the Hollywood "cultural" division and the feeder for all Communist activities in the top structure of the motion picture industry)

GLORIA STUART, FREDERIC MARCH, FLORENCE ELDRIDGE (MARCH'S wife), GALE SONDERGAARD (BIBERMAN'S wife) and ERIN O'BRIEN MOORE are screen actors and actresses who have been identified with Communist activities in other organizations in Hollywood.

The above group set up the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League in the summer of 1936.

When the League took solid form and reached its peak of activity, 1938-39, the officers were:

DONALD OGDEN STEWART - Chairman
MARIAN SPITZER - Vice-Chairman
ALAN CAMPBELL - Secretary
BERN NEARNARD - Treasurer

The sponsors of the organization were:

HERBERT BIBERMAN - Director; member of the American Peace Mobilization; member of the Communist Party.

VIOLA BROTHERS SHORE - Writer; fellow traveller.

SYLVIA SIDNEY - Actress.

GLORIA STUART - Actress; fellow traveller.

FRANK TUTTLE - Director; member of the Communist Party. (4)

Of the foregoing list of sponsors there are several mentioned who could properly be classified as innocents, particularly EDDIE CANTOR and RUPERT HUGHES, and possibly ELIZABETH MERRELL and RICHARD IERT. All the rest have been identified more or less with other organizations under Communist domination.

The Hollywood Anti-Nazi League grew tremendously in numbers, support and influence until August, 1939, when the pact between STALIN and HITLER was made. During this period the League cooperated with every other Communist front group in the Hollywood section. According to its official publication, "Hollywood Now", it supported the following:

League of Women Shoppers
National Committee of Spanish Speaking People.
League for Public Medicine.
California Youth Legislature.
Radio Programs of "People's World", ED ROBBIN ("People's World" is the official Communist publication on the West Coast)
League of American Writers
Youth Commission of Motion Picture Democratic Committee.
Associated Film Audiences
American League for Peace and Democracy.
National Negro Congress
German-American League for Culture.
Motion Picture Artists Committee, and many others.

All the foregoing are Communist front organizations.

The official program of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League from its inception up to the announcement of the STALIN-HITLER Pact was as follows:

"To fight Fascism at home and abroad.

"To give support to the struggle against International Fascism wherever it strikes—in Germany, Italy, Spain, Austria, China, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, South America.

"To stand firmly behind the militant peace policy of President ROOSEVELT—the policy of collective security for all democratic nations, of "quarantining the aggressors".

"To expose the spies, the Bunds, the Nazi Military 'summer camps', the Brown Houses in our cities, the poisonous propaganda of obscene circulars, the anti-Semitic, anti-Catholic, anti-Labor, anti-Negro campaigns.

"To oppose the destructive anti-American activities of such racketeering organizations as the Silver Shirts, the White Guard, the KKK, the Black Legion, the Crusaders, Friends of New Germany and other Berlin-financed enemies of our country.

"To join with other progressive Americans in one united front against Fascist attacks on our democratic institutions."

The foregoing publicly announced official program of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League was right in line with the Communist Party line of the Popular Front period.

With the announcement of the alliance between STALIN and HITLER on August 23, 1939, and the change in the Communist Party line accordingly, the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League changed its program likewise.

From a position of support to President ROOSEVELT in his sympathies for England and the democratic countries, the League began to yell that it was an "imperialist" war; that the United States should keep out; that lend-lease aid to England meant war for us; that the "Yanks are not Coming."

By September 22, 1939, just thirty days after the STALIN-HITLER pact, the League issued a statement in "Hollywood Now", the official organ of the League of American Writers, dated September 22, 1939, which is as follows:

CONFIDENTIAL

58471

"A PROGRAM FOR PEACE

"With England and France fighting Germany, where does the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League fit in?

"The League will and must carry on its fight against Nazism more vigorously than ever before in the United States and abroad. Does the war now conducted by CHAMBERLAIN and DALADIER offer the possibility of the destruction of Nazism? . . . NO . . . The League affirms positively that the United States should in no way become involved in the war..."

And on October 13, 1939, "Hollywood Now", stated:

"The League faces the grave responsibility of doing its share to keep America out of war and to help to unify the American people in their demand for peace."

On November 17, 1939, "Hollywood Now", stated:

"The League will undertake an extensive educational program. . . and there will be no compromise with the enemies of the people . . . KEEP AMERICA NEUTRAL."

Within a period of a few months the League had completely reversed its position, as had the Communist Party in the United States. Gradually it dropped its fight against Naziism and at the time of the dissolution of the League it had forgotten its antagonism to the aggressors and was concentrating all its fire on "conditions" within the United States and confusing every issue possible where that issue was one of national defense and aid to the democracies.

Due to this reversal in program a large part of its following deserted, leaving the Communist core with its following of fellow travellers and sympathizers in full charge. But there was disruption within the ranks. This brought about a need for a new set of officers and a new Board of Directors.

In September, shortly after the announcement of the pact, a new slate of officers was installed. This list of names is of extreme interest, as it indicates those who were following the Communist Party line wherever it should lead.

DONALD OGDEN STEWART - Chairman; a writer.

FRANK TUTTLE - Vice-Chairman; a director.

DUDLEY NICHOLS - Secretary; writer; member of Communist Party (u)

Mrs. BEATRICE BUCHMAN- Wife of SIDNEY BUCHMAN; member of the League of American Writers.

JAY GORNEY - Writer; member of the League of American Writers and American Peace Mobilization; and a fellow traveller.

FRANK SCULLY - Writer; fellow traveller.

Mrs. JEROME SACKHEIM - Writer; member of the League of American Writers; fellow traveller.

However in spite of this formality of an election of new officers, the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League had outlived its usefulness to the Communist Party. Like many other Communist fronts of the Popular Front period, it had to be "liquidated". It dragged on a few months. On December 8th it was decided that a new name should be given to the League. It should become the Hollywood League for Democratic Action.

The League struggled feebly for a month or so after December 15th when a new group met to form a committee to protect civil liberties, and about February 1st, 1940 the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League quietly passed away and was no more.

This pattern of the birth, life and death of a Communist front, when thoroughly understood, will explain much of the confusion that apparently exists in the minds of those who try to follow the whys and wherefores of Communist tactics in the United States.

HOLLYWOOD LEAGUE FOR DEMOCRATIC ACTION
(Communist front organization)

Source 3-Y has stated that in anticipation of the demise of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, a number of persons met at the home of Mrs. FINLEY PETER DUNNE, mother of PHILLIP DUNNE of the League of American Writers, about the first week in December, 1939. The purpose of this meeting was to set up an organization to succeed the Anti-Nazi League. Those present at the meeting were:

DALTON TRUMBO - Writer; member of the League of American Writers; member of the Communist Party.

FRANK TUTTLE - Director; member of the Communist Party.

DOROTHY PARKER - Writer; member of the League of American Writers; fellow traveller.

JOHN WEXLEY - Writer; member of the League of American Writers; fellow traveller

MELVYN DOUGLAS - Actor; fellow traveller

CONFIDENTIAL

GALE SONDERGAARD (wife of HERBERT BIBERMAN) - actress; member of the Communist Party

ALAN CAMPBELL - Writer; member of the League of American Writers; fellow traveller.

IRVING REIS - Writer; member of the League of American Writers; fellow traveller.

W. L. RIVER - Writer; member of the League of American Writers; fellow traveller.

MEYER LEVIN - Writer; member of the League of American Writers; fellow traveller.

HARRY JURNITZ - Writer; member of the League of American Writers; fellow traveller.

JOHN GARFIELD - Actor; fellow traveller.

JOHN CROMWELL - Director; fellow traveller.

LOUIS BROMFIELD - Actor; member of the Communist Party.

GARSIN KANIN - Director; fellow traveller.

CYRIL HUME

J. WALTER RUBEN - Producer; fellow traveller (deceased)

HENRY KOSTER - Writer; member of the League of American Writers; fellow traveller.

LUCILLE GLEASON - Actress; fellow traveller.

WELLS ROOT - Writer; fellow traveller.

Of the above ten persons, TRUMBO, PARKER, WEXLEY, HELM, CAMPBELL, REIS, RIVER, LEVIN, JURNITZ and BROMFIELD are members of and active in the League of American Writers, the Communist "feeder" organization of cultural Hollywood.

TUTTLE, CROMWELL, KANIN, RUBEN (deceased) are motion picture directors.

DOUGLAS, SONDERGAARD, GARFIELD, GLEASON are screen actors and actresses.

As a result of the deliberations of this august body a new organization, the HOLLYWOOD COMMITTEE TO PROTECT CIVIL LIBERTIES, was born. However, the formation of the Hollywood Committee to Protect Civil Liberties by the group above mentioned was somewhat superflous because at about the same time the executive board of the expiring Hollywood Anti-Nazi League met and decided to give it a new title. This was done and on December 8, 1939, the official publication of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League announced that thereafter the League would be known as the HOLLYWOOD LEAGUE FOR DEMOCRATIC ACTION.

And thus a new Communist front was born merely by the change of a name. The same officers and executive board served for the new organization, and it went to work to do everything it could to prevent aid to democracy and advocated peace on HITLER'S terms.

The officers were:

DONALD OGDEN STEWART - Chairman--writer and Communist Party member. (w)

FRANK TUTTLE - Vice-Chairman--Director; Communist Party member (w)

DUDLEY NICHOLS - Secretary--Writer; member of the League of American Writers; and a fellow traveller.

BERN BERNARD - Treasurer--fellow traveller.

Executive Board:

HERBERT BIBERMAN - Director; member of the American Peace Mobilization and a Communist Party member.

EDWARD CHODOROV - Writer; member of the League of American Writers; fellow traveller.

H. F. KRAFT - Writer; member of the League of ~~American~~ Writers; a fellow traveller.

Mrs. JEROME SACKHEIM – Writer; member of the League of American Writers; fellow traveller.

MILTON MERLIN – Writer; member of the League of American Writers; fellow traveller.

MARIAN SPITZER – Writer; member of the League of American Writers; and a fellow traveller.

Mrs. CHARLES PAGE – Wife of CHARLES PAGE, Communist Party member. (u)

JAY GORNEY – Writer; member of the League of American Writers and American Peace Mobilization.

FRANK SCULLY – Writer; and a fellow traveller.

There are many others in addition to the above list, all of whom have been identified with Communist and Communist front activities in Hollywood.

The program of the Hollywood League for Democratic Action was just the reverse of that of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, although the same people were in control in both organizations. But the Communist Party line had changed and they, being good Communists, fellow travellers and sympathizers changed also.

Meetings were held, radio programs given and literature spread which opposed every feature of national defense, aid to England, the lend-lease act, the Selective Service Act and in general the foreign policy of the President of the United States.

It was the Communist formula in every detail. But the active life of the Hollywood League for Democratic Action was of comparatively short duration. By the fall of 1940 it had become practically lifeless.

This was not because the comrades had changed their viewpoint, or that they were becoming discouraged--it was because another organization had come into existence on a national scale. This latter organization was broader and more all-inclusive and gradually the Hollywood League for Democratic Action was absorbed.

This organization was called the AMERICAN PEACE MOBILIZATION.

HOLLYWOOD PEACE FORUM

Source 3-Z has stated that as the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League was gradually being put to death, the Communists operating within that group were busily setting up other organizations to take its place which would carry out the changed line of the party.

In January of 1940 there came into being the HOLLYWOOD PEACE FORUM. As its name indicates this group was pledged to preserve peace. It yelled loudly and often that we should stay out of the war. It opposed aid to England, national defense, conscription and right down the line in carrying out the program of the Communist Party. It was strictly for peace--on HITLER'S terms. It conducted forums, radio broadcasts, issued pamphlets and leaflets and unceasingly put out propaganda for the Communist position.

Its chief spokesman was Professor NORMAN T. BYRNE of Los Angeles City College, long identified with every form of Communist activity in Southern California. He was chairman of these forums held in every available hall and meeting place in the locality--at the Hollywood Women's Club, First Unitarian Church in Los Angeles, Embassy Auditorium, Los Angeles, Knickerbocker Hotel in Hollywood, Wilshire Ebell Club, and many others.

The sense of all meetings, forums, radio broadcasts, etc., of the Hollywood Peace Forum was defense of the Soviet Union for its pact with HITLER, attacks on Finland for its resistance to Russia's aggression, condemnation of the war as imperialism in action and advocating the immediate appeasement of Nazi Germany.

The officers of the Hollywood Peace Forum, all of whom just a few months before were members of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League and who were then supporting President ROOSEVELT and democracy, were:

CONFIDENTIAL

HERBERT BIBERMAN - Chairman
JOHN WEXLEY - Vice-Chairman
GUY ENDORE - Secretary-Treasurer
GENE SACKHEIM - Executive Secretary

All the above have been leading Communists in the Hollywood section.

BIBERMAN is a motion picture director and writer.

WEXLEY, ENDORE and SACKHEIM are members of the League of American Writers.

Others active in the Forum were SAM ORNITZ, member of the League of American Writers and a Communist, FRANK SCULLY, a fellow traveller and Hollywood Writer, Reverend FRANK M. TOOTHAKER of the First Methodist Church, Compton, California, Reverend PETER M. SAMSON, Minister First Unitarian Church, Los Angeles, Professor FRANK DAVIS of the University of Southern California at Los Angeles, SADIE ORNITZ, wife of SAM ORNITZ, EDWARD BIBERMAN, brother of HERBERT BIBERMAN, HUGH WILKINS, and many others previously with the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League.

The Hollywood Peace Forum remained in existence about six months. Another organization was coming into existence which took its place. This front was called the HOLLYWOOD LEAGUE FOR DEMOCRATIC ACTION.

AMERICAN PEACE MOBILIZATION
(Communist Front Organization)

Source 4-A has shown that the American Peace Mobilization was the successor to the American League for Peace and Democracy in the same manner as the Hollywood League for Democratic Action took the place of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League--and for the same basic reason, the change in the Communist Party line.

After the pact between STALIN and HITLER in August, 1939 it was necessary for the Communist Internationale to revamp its entire structure in the United States. From a position of support for democratic processes in the interest of bringing about a program of "collective security" (which it never really meant, by the way, and which was only used as a threat by STALIN to force HITLER into signing the subsequent pact) the Communist apparatus in the United States must now reverse itself and render all aid possible to HITLER, he now being on the best of terms with STALIN---they were virtual allies.

All Communist front organizations were now to work for peace. They were to oppose entry of the United States into the war on the side of England and France, and were to oppose aid to those countries, oppose the Lend-Lease Act, national defense, the Selective Service Act, and in general obstruct any internal policy of the United States that would, however remotely, be of benefit to the democratic nations fighting HITLER.

The American Peace Mobilization was destined to become the most potent arm of the Communist Internationale--and that means STALIN--working in the interest of the STALIN-HITLER pact.

The organization as such officially came into being at a national gathering held in Chicago, Illinois August 30 to September 2, 1940. This meeting was called by what was known as the "Emergency Peace Mobilization". At this time the name was changed to the AMERICAN PEACE MOBILIZATION and it continued to function under that title until the break between STALIN and HITLER in June, 1941 when Russia was invaded.

Previous to the official setting up of the American Peace Mobilization in September, 1940, and beginning with the dissolution of the Hollywood anti-Nazi League in December of 1939, and the official "liquidation" of the American League for Peace and Democracy on February 1, 1940, groups were hastily formed everywhere to carry out the policy of the Communist Party.

In Hollywood there was the Hollywood Peace Forum, Hollywood League for Democratic Action, Hollywood Peace Council, Hollywood Peace Crusade, etc. All of these groups were largely "paper" organizations functioning as a stop-gap until all could be knit into one national organization, and that was the AMERICAN PEACE MOBILIZATION.

It will be noticed that the names of the officers and those most active in all these groups locally in Hollywood are essentially the same. For example, HERBERT BIBERMAN, DONALD OGDEN STEWART, FRANK TUTTLE, etc., appear in every front.

In addition to the so-called "peace" groups above which laid the foundation for the establishment later of the Los Angeles Division of the Mobilization, the following were affiliated with the organization in Hollywood:

League of American Writers, Hollywood Chapter.

Motion Picture Democratic Committee.

Hollywood Theatre Alliance.

League of Woman Shoppers.

Committee to Aid Agricultural Workers.

58473

National Negro Congress.

California Youth Legislature.

Hollywood Post, Veterans Division, Labor's Non-partisan League

The national officers of the American Peace Mobilization elected in September, 1940, were:

Rev. JOHN B. THOMPSON, Chairman
THEODORE DREISER, Vice-Chairman
VITO MARCANTONIO, Vice-Chairman
JACK McMICHAEL, Vice-Chairman
REID ROBINSON, Vice-Chairman
KATHERINE TERRILL, Vice-Chairman
FREDERICK FIELD, Executive Secretary.
MARIAN BRIGGS, Administrative Secretary

Of the above, THEODORE DREISER, as a member of the League of American Writers and more or less identified with Hollywood is representative of its culture.

The officers of the local division of the Mobilization are as follows:

HERBERT BIBERMAN, Chairman, member of the American Peace Mobilization in Los Angeles, motion picture director, and Communist Party member.
TOM CULLEN, local correspondent of the "People's World", official Communist publication on the West Coast, Executive Secretary; Communist Party member.

Executive Board:

JOHN STAPP, of the League for Peace and Democracy; Communist Party member.
RICHARD OTTO, Motion Picture Democratic Committee; fellow traveller.
SAM HOUSTON ALLEN, politican; Communist Party member.
Rev. HERBERT L. HERBERTS.
Rev. CARL ALLEN; fellow traveller
EVELYN VINTON
DON R. HEALY, member of Labor's Non-Partisan League; Communist Party member
ELIZABETH SASULY

WILLIAM DOHAN, fellow traveller.
ROSENDA RIVERA, Communist Party member.
HOWARD ROSE, member of the Young Communists League.

Hollywood figures most active as chairmen at meetings, speakers and directors of propaganda were:

Prof. NORMAN T. BYRNE, Communist Party member.
SAM ORNITZ, Communist Party member, a writer, and member of the League of American Writers.
✓ JOHN HOWARD LAWSON, writer, Member of the Communist Party and League of American Writers.
✓ DONALD OGDEN STEWART, delegate to Chicago convention; a writer, member of the League of American Writers and the Communist Party.
MAURICE MURPHY, League of American Writers and Motion Picture Democratic Committee member; a writer who is member of the League of American Writers and the Communist Party.
✓ DALTON TRUMBO, Member of the League of American Writers and the Communist Party.
✓ MICHAEL BLANKFORT, member of the League of American Writers and the Communist Party.
✓ FRANK TUTTLE, motion picture director; Communist Party member.
CHARLES J. KATZ, Attorney for Communists and Communist Party member.
SADIE ORNITZ, member of the Communist Party.
JOHN HOWARD LAWSON, member of the League of American Writers and the Communist Party.
MARC BLITZSTEIN, Hollywood composer, member of League of American Writers, and a fellow traveller.
ALBERT MALTZ, President, League of American Writers, Hollywood Chapter; fellow traveller.
LUCILLE MARINER, member of League of Women Shoppers; a fellow traveller.
GUY ENDORE, member of League of American Writers and Communist Party.
Dr. HERBERT ALEXANDER, Professor of Sociology, Los Angeles City College; a fellow traveller.

In addition to the above, individual members of all Hollywood Communist front groups were supporting the American Peace Mobilization.

Mass meetings were held at the Shrine Auditorium, Embassy Auditorium, Philharmonic Auditorium, in Los Angeles, to carry the message of "Peace" to the people.

CONFIDENTIAL

At the same time as these meetings were being held the Mobilization was officially supporting every strike where that strike would hamper defense efforts. It officially, and directly, by sending its members to the picket lines, injected itself into the North American Aviation strike in Inglewood, California, Vultee Aircraft Company, Downey, California, the Columbia Recording Company strike in Hollywood, the Cannon Electrical Company strike in Los Angeles, and many others. It was working feverishly in all directions to carry out the line of the Communist Party at that time.

An example of the type of propaganda carried on by the American Peace Mobilization under the auspices of Communists in Hollywood is the meeting held at the Shrine Auditorium in Los Angeles, on February 24, 1941, the advance publicity on which stated as follows:

"DEFEAT H.R.1776 (Lend-Lease Bill) WITH THE SPIRIT OF 1776!

5. Join the A.P.M.

"The New Deal's Triple A. foreign policy, as embraced by the Lend-Lease Bill, is to plow under every fourth American boy." Sen. BURTON K. WHEELER."

The tenor of the foregoing is that of all activities of the American Peace Mobilization, the local spearhead of which in the Southern California section, was Hollywood Communist influences.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

CONFIDENTIAL

The American Peace Mobilization nationally and the Hollywood Division locally continued to function along these lines up until June 22, 1941. Right up until that date HERBERT BIBERMAN and his following, and that means the entire Hollywood Communist faction, were screaming for peace and chanting the slogan "The Yanks are Not Coming."

In fact right up to the day Mr. BIBERMAN was picketing the White House for "Peace", and showing what Hollywood could do to help prevent aid to democracy.

Then came the blow! HITLER smashed across the borders of Russia.

Again the Communist Party of the United States was taken unawares.

The American Peace Mobilization was left way out on the proverbial limb.

Within a few weeks the name of the American Peace Mobilization was changed to the AMERICAN PEOPLES MOBILIZATION.

Meetings were immediately called by the American Peoples Mobilization. Professor NORMAN T. BYRNE, HERBERT BIBERMAN, DONALD OGDEN STEWART, JOHN HOWARD LAWSON, SAM ORNITZ, GUY ENDORE and followers began screaming for war. "Smash HITLER", "All Aid to the SOVIET UNION and England," "This is a Peoples' War", etc.

The Communist Party line had changed again!

The American Peoples Mobilization continued on for some few months, but like all Communist front organizations which can no longer serve the party, it was allowed to peacefully pass away.

MOTION PICTURE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE
(Communist front organization)

Source 4-B has stated that during the period from the Seventh Congress of the Communist Internationale held in Moscow, Russia, in July and August of 1935 when GEORGE DIMITROV, head of the Communist Internationale, made the famous "Trojan Horse" speech and August 23, 1939 when the pact between STALIN and HITLER was consummated, and which is known as the "popular front" period, the Communist Party created hundreds of "front" organizations in all countries.

CONFIDENTIAL

The purpose of these organizations was to draw together on as broad a base as possible all forces to influence them to support the foreign policy of the Soviet Union which, at time, was a pretended desire for an alliance with the democratic countires to oppose Naziism and Fascism. This was called the "collective security" proposal.

Communists were, during this period, instructed to drop all revolutionary activity and pose as good democrats, or liberals, and take part in all established governmental affairs, local, state and national, wherever they should be.

In the United States they were instructed to register for voting purposes as members of the Democratic Party and carry on their activities there. They were to assume the "liberal" position and work to get themselves, fellow travellers and sympathizers, also pretending to be good democrats, into key positions in political circles. They could then use their positions and influence to create sympathy and gain support for the policies of Soviet Russia.

In line with this policy and, as usual, obeying orders implicitly, the Communists in the Hollywood motion picture industry and its periphery began setting up various front organizations.

One of the most important of these groups was the MOTION PICTURE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE. This organization was created in the early fall of 1938. At this time California had already shown tendencies to turn to the left and the time was ideal for the Communist Party to step in and steer the political forces in the direction they desired. The state was having a gubernatorial election and it was into this election the party threw all its forces.

The success of the Motion Picture Democratic Committee was phenomenal. It drew to it on a platform of democratic reform and mildly liberal slogans a large following in the Hollywood section. It acquired among its membership many famous personages in the picture industry, the majority of whom, however, were not aware that the organization was completely under control of the Communist Party.

Thousands of people were influenced by this committee which had access to publicity channels ordinarily denied to legitimate political groups of this character. The big names on its lists were attractive to the voters and it was one of the main factors in the local and state elections of the year 1938. Almost all candidates it supported were elected and the governor-elect stated later that it was Hollywood influence and this organization which elected him to office.

But at the same time the organization was seemingly taking part in a truly democratic elective process, the Communists within its ranks were spreading their propaganda in all directions. They succeeded in tying the organization in with the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, Conference of Motion Picture Arts and Crafts, Labor's Non-Partisan League, Workers Alliance, United Spanish Relief, and were supporting every front organization and Communist controlled labor union in the Los Angeles section. All front organizations just above mentioned are Communist inspired.

This should not be the least surprising, as the individuals controlling the Motion Picture Democratic Committee were the same ones controlling the other groups.

The organization as a body were enthusiastic in support of President ROOSEVELT and the democratic administration. Neither the President nor Governor OLSON and his state administration could do wrong. It held political rallies all over Southern California. It was all-out for democracy and the Constitution of the United States—it loathed Naziism and Fascism.

The world was bright and the Motion Picture Democratic Committee was enjoying an influence and prestige that brought smiles to the faces of the most case hardened comrades.

But on August 23, 1939, the bubble burst. The pact between STALIN and HITLER was announced and the Hollywood Motion Picture Democratic Committee found itself way out on a limb.

Within thirty days instructions came down from Moscow that the party line had changed. The organization must change with it. It was a bitter pill, but the comrades were loyal and they obeyed.

Within a very short time the Motion Picture Democratic Committee was calling President ROOSEVELT a "war monger"; he was dragging the United States into an imperialist war; we should mind our own business, etc. Governor OLSON too had become almost overnight a war monger, had deserted the poor, was cutting relief and in general was just driving the people to desperation with his anti-social tactics.

By the spring of 1940 the Motion Picture Democratic Committee was working hand in hand with the American Peace Crusade, afterward the American Peace Mobilization. It was mailing out thousands of "peace" pleas and insisting that "The Yanks Are Not Coming." It sponsored and took part in Communist "peace" meetings all over Southern California. An example of the position of the Hollywood Democratic Committee's in this respect is the following excerpt from one of their bulletins:

"AMERICA DECLARES PEACE" OLYMPIC STADIUM

RALLY OF SATURDAY, APRIL 6TH

"The L.A. Council of the Committee for Industrial Organization, the Maritime Federation of the Pacific, and the California Youth Legislature—each of these bodies representing thousands of Southern Californians, requested of the Hollywood Peace Council that they be allowed to co-sponsor the rally, purpose and plans of which are heartily endorsed by their memberships. The eight Hollywood organizations welcomed the joint sponsorship. The speakers' bureau set up by the M.P.D.C. to publicize the rally at meetings of all sorts—has lined up 75 speaking engagements to date... A knockout script written by MICHAEL BLANKFORT, JEROME CHODOROV, JOSEPH FIELDS, PAUL TRIVERS, CARL DREHER, CYRIL KRAMER, was okayed with hurrahs by the Council this week... The staging of the production is in the capable hands of SHEPARD TRAUBE. The original printing order for "The Yanks Call", newspaper announcement of the meeting, was 50,000 copies. These were gone in a couple of days, and a duplicate order for another 50,000 had to be filled... Ten thousand tickets have been distributed and the remaining two thousand are going fast—so call the M.P.D.C. office (Gr. 5136) immediately for blocks of 10¢, 25¢ and 40¢ tickets..."

M.P.D.C. NEWSLETTER, 3/26/40.

(The individuals named above, BLANKFORT, CHODOROV, etc., are all members of the League of American Writers, the most important Communist front group in Hollywood).

While the Motion Picture Democratic Committee was cooperating with other groups, as above, it was carrying on its own party line procedure, as follows:

"PEACE PETITIONS

250 of these were mailed to 250 M.P.D.C. members along with the last newsletter. If you received one, get as many signatures as you can and mail it back to this office as soon as you can—because time is the essence of this demand to our representatives."

MELVYN DOUGLAS, the well known screen actor, and First Vice-Chairman of the Motion Picture Democratic Committee and who had been active in almost every Communist front organization in ... wood previously, revolted at this procedure. After Russia's attack on Finland, he introduced a resolution before the committee condemning Soviet Russia for this attack.

CONFIDENTIAL

He was overwhelmingly defeated. He resigned from the Committee in February, 1940.

The following were the officers of the organization in 1939-40. All have been long identified with Communist and Communist front activities in the motion picture field:

PHILLIP DUNNE. Chairman; member of the League of American Writers, and a member of the Communist Party. He is now with the Writers War Board, New York City, the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League and the League for Industrial Democracy.

MELVYN DOUGLAS. First Vice-Chairman; active in Communist front organizations; a fellow traveller and formerly Communist Party line follower.

MIRIAM HOPKINS. Second Vice-Chairman. She is a screen actress and fellow traveller.

JOHN FORD. Third Vice-Chairman. Motion picture director, and long a fellow traveller.

MAURICE MURPHY. Formerly executive secretary of the League of American Writers. He is a member of the League of American Writers and one of the leading Communists in the Hollywood section.

GORDON RIGBY. Treasurer. He is a member of the League of American Writers and a member of the Communist Party. He is now in the Army.

Although the Motion Picture Democratic Committee managed to survive the STALIN-HITLER pact, it finally, late in 1940 became inactive as have many other Communists fronts which could not negotiate the hairpin turns of the Communist Internationale.

HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE
(Communist front organization)

Source 4-B has stated that this organization is to all intents and purposes a revival of the Motion Picture Democratic Committee, a Communist Party front organization that went out of existence shortly after the HITLER-STALIN pact was signed on August 23, 1939. This latter organization and the reasons for its liquidation are dealt with under section 1 of this report.

The Hollywood Democratic Committee is being set up at the present time to operate in the political field and this purpose was stated in a call issued for its first meeting which was held at the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel in Hollywood on January 14, 1943.

This initial meeting was for the purpose of "forming an association of voters in the motion picture community which will support victory legislation and victory candidates." This meeting was primarily an organizational one; as there have been no further open meetings, it can be said that the Hollywood Democratic Committee is still in the process of formation.

The call for this initial meeting was signed by:

WALTER ABEL
MARC CONNELLY
WALTER HUSTON

The speakers for this organization were listed as the following:

MARY McCALL, JR.
WALTER HUSTON
MARGARET BENNETT
ROBERT W. KENNY (Attorney General of the State of California)
RUSSELL GLEASON, chairman

Of the foregoing the following have been identified as cooperating with and active in other Communist fronts in Hollywood:

MARY McCALL, JR. is President of the Screen Writers Guild, the bargaining agency for the Hollywood Screen Writers. She has been active and is still active in Communist front organizations such as the Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense, Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, Hollywood League for Democratic Action, Motion Picture Democratic Committee, and she is a fellow traveller.

MARC CONNELLY is a screen writer. He is also a member of the League of American Writers and is active in the Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense. He is the chairman of the Hollywood Writers Mobilization Committee for Interchange of cultural Material with Writers in the Soviet Union. He is a fellow traveller.

WALTER HUSTON is a screen actor. He is not identified specifically with membership in the Communist front organizations, but is sympathetic toward Soviet Russia and its form of government. This information has been obtained from press releases regarding his parts in pictures from time to time.

MARGARET BENNETT is a member of the Screen Office Employees Guild, a studio labor union affiliated with the Conference of Studio Unions, a Communist front controlled group under the leadership of HERBERT K. SORRELL. Miss BENNETT follows the Communist Party line in all her union activities.

ROBERT W. KENNY was formerly state senator of California. He was elected Attorney General of the state of California during the last November election. It can be stated here that Mr. KENNY is a fellow traveller. He has consorted with known Communist groups. He has supported protests against the deportation proceedings of HARRY BRIDGES. He was also connected with the SCHNEIDERMAN-DORSEY Defense Committee. He is a close associate of Attorney LEO GALLAGHER, a known Communist in Southern California who handles most of the Communist Party's legal business. Mr. KENNY is President of the National Lawyer's Guild, a Communist controlled organization.

RUSSELL GLEASON is the son of JAMES and LUCILLE GLEASON, both of whom have been involved in Communist front activity in Hollywood. Mr. GLEASON is looked upon as an active sympathizer with Communist causes.

At the initial meeting of this group on January 14, 1943 the following well known Communists of long standing attended and participated in discussions from the floor:

J. K. (SPIKE) WALLACE, business representative of Musicians Local No. 47.

HERBERT K. SORRELL, business representative of the Studio Painters Local 644 and President of the Conference of Studio Unions.

JOHN HOWARD LAWSON, member of the League of American Writers, American Peace Mobilization and a teacher in the Writers School, and has been active in many other front organizations.

ED M. GILBERT, business representative of the Screen Office Employees Guild.

A more complete record of the Communist activities of all of these parties appears heretofore in this report.

In addition to the above the following well known fellow travellers and party line followers were in attendance or mentioned by the Chairman as supporters of this organization.

SIDNEY BUCHMAN, a writer. He is a member of the League of American Writers. He supported the American Peace Mobilization and is a teacher in the Writers School.

SHERIDAN GIBNEY is a writer and a member of the League of American Writers. He supported the American Peace Mobilization and is a writer in the Writers School. He also engages in other Communist front organizations and activities.

HAROLD SMITH is business representative of Local 695 of the I.A.T.S.E. He is a fellow traveller.

SHEPARD TRAUBE is a writer and member of the League of American Writers. He is active in the Motion Picture Democratic Committee and was active in the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, the Hollywood League of Democratic Action, and was a member of the American Peace Mobilization.

WILLIAM (BILL) MORRIS, JR. is the owner of the Morris Booking Agency in Hollywood. He is a fellow traveller who provides strong support financially to front organizations and is an ardent follower of the Communist Party line.

As stated, the Hollywood Democratic Committee is now in the process of formation and it is believed that it will very shortly emerge as a fixed organization. Up to the present time it has followed the usual pattern of a Communist front organization.

MOTION PICTURE ARTISTS COMMITTEE
(Communist Front Organization)

Source 4-C has informed that the Motion Picture Artists Committee was a group set up to work in conjunction with a larger national organization, the North American Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy. This latter Committee was the outgrowth of a series of previously created "Spanish Aid" groups, all under the control of the Communist Party. They were all set up for the purpose of aiding the Communist program in Spain during the civil war in that country.

The original organization set up by the Communist Party in 1936 was called the Medical Bureau to Aid Spanish Democracy. Shortly thereafter the North American Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy was formed. In 1938 the two were merged and called the Medical Bureau and North American Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy. Meanwhile there was the American Friends of Spanish Democracy. Later this group joined the larger one. After the Spanish civil war came to an end in April, 1939 a new organization was set up. It was called the Spanish Refugee Relief Campaign. In March 1940 there was dissension within the group, some of the members objecting to Communist domination. The Communists retained control, however, and renamed it temporarily the Emergency Conference to Save Spanish Refugees. In 1941 it was renamed North American Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy, after absorbing another group which had sprung up overnight called Dorothy Parker's Spanish Children's Relief Fund. Out of that muddled up ancestry came the Motion Picture Artists Committee.

The purposes of all the above organizations were identical, all being Communist controlled. Those purposes were the collection of funds and recruiting of young men to join the Abraham Lincoln Brigade to fight with the Loyalists in Spain. Hundreds of thousands of dollars were collected and never accounted for, and thousands of young Americans were induced to go to Spain for the glory of the Communist cause.

The officers of the Motion Picture Artists Committee were the same as those we find in many other fronts. All were members of the League of American Writers.

One of the projects sponsored by these Spanish Aid Committees was the Rescue Ship Mission. This was the proposed fitting out of a ship which was to sail from the United States and rescue Loyalist refugees interned in Southern France. It was proposed to raise $300,000 to fit out the ship, which was to be called the "Lovcen". Funds for this venture were still being collected as late as August 1941. It may be stated that the ship never sailed and no accounting was made of the funds collected.

Many innocents were inveigled in this venture. HELEN KELLER, HAROLD REIGELMAN and others resigned when they discovered it was a Communist front. Meetings were held, and money raised in Hollywood, under the direction of LION FEUCHTWANGER and SIDNEY BUCHMAN. All the Hollywood Communist intellectuals supported the drive.

HOLLYWOOD COMMITTEE FOR WRITERS IN EXILE
(Communist Front organization)

(X) (U)

[Source 4-D has reported] that while this committee was a local organization and apparently confined its activities to the Hollywood section, raising money and spreading propaganda for its purposes, it had its origin in, and cooperated with the various "Spanish Aid" committees set up by the Communist Party during the period of the Spanish civil war.

At that time many Communist writers, artists, journalists and professionals had gone to Spain to support the Communist activities among the Loyalist forces. They came from many countries. At the same time there were many intellectuals within Spain who leaned toward the Communist cause. It was in the middle of that period that the writers, artists and intellectuals had become imbued with social concepts of LENIN and STALIN. The world was all out of joint and it was up to them to fix it up and the place to start was Spain.

LUIS ARIQUISTAN, a Spanish writer had this to say about the situation:

"I am speaking now of the so-called Communist sympathizers, the fellow travellers who were so active in giving the Spanish Communists the power and influence they already had...They were astonishingly numerous among our bourgeoisie where they formed large and influential groups. Writers, journalists, artists and professionals...

New Leader, 6-3-39.

After the Spanish civil war ended in April, 1939, many of these Communists and fellow travellers were caught and interned in camps. Others escaped into France and North Africa and interned there. Some escaped and got back to the countries from which they came. Later other writers and artists escaped from Germany and occupied France and became stranded in neutral countries in Europe, especially Portugal. Others are still in concentration camps in Germany and occupied France.

It was to aid these exiled writers, artists and professional people that the Hollywood Committee for Writers in Exile was allegedly created. The purpose was to raise funds for their relief wherever needed and plans were made to get them into the United States eventually.

All of this would be most laudable if it were not that the committee was interested only in those refugees who were Communists, fellow travellers and sympathizers with the cause of communism. So true is this that the Communist Party, of which the Hollywood Committee for Writers in Exile is a front, advocated the deportation back to Spain, France or Germany of those writers and artists who did not agree with its domination of the intellectuals of those countries.

An example of this discrimination is the attempt of the Communist Party to force the Government of Mexico to deport three writers, TOR SERGE, JULIAN GORKIN and MARCEAU PIVERT. These men had escaped from and France and were in Mexico City. But because they objected to Com- domination of the Spanish Loyalist forces in the civil war and opposed munist Party in principle, the Hollywood Committee for Writers in Exile der no circumstances, aid these refugees. The main purpose of the ommittee for Writers in Exile was stated by GARSIN KANIN, fellow otion picture director in Hollywood, at a meeting of this commit- the Beverly Wilshire Hotel on November 26, 1940 to an audience of directors, actors and writers, as follows:

"Hollywood today could use the brains that HITLER oncentration camps. There are not enough brains in duce the 500 stories annually needed by the film

JOINT ANTI-FASCIST REFUGEE COMMITTEE
(Communist front organization)

Source 4-E has reported (U) that this Communist inspired and controlled organization is an outgrowth of various Communist front organizations that were set up during the Spanish civil war period when the Soviet Union and the Communist Party were engaged in capturing the Loyalist cause in Spain. There had come into existence in the United States at that time the following organizations:

MEDICAL BUREAU TO AID SPANISH DEMOCRACY
NORTH AMERICAN COMMITTEE TO AID SPANISH DEMOCRACY
MEDICAL BUREAU AND NORTH AMERICAN COMMITTEE TO AID SPANISH DEMOCRACY
SPANISH REFUGEE RELIEF CAMPAIGN
EMERGENCY CONFERENCE TO SAVE SPANISH REFUGEES SPANISH CHILDREN'S RELIEF FUND
SPANISH REFUGEE SHIP MISSION
FRIENDS OF THE ABRAHAM LINCOLN BRIGADE
HOLLYWOOD COMMITTEE FOR WRITERS IN EXILE
UNITED AMERICAN SPANISH AID COMMITTEE

The foregoing organizations were set up under the direc-on of the Communist Party, and at one time or another, all functioned in the ited States.

When Russia entered the war on the side of the United Na-ns, the Spanish Civil War episode was relegated to past history, as all rts of the Communists in the United States must now be devoted to winning war for Russia's sake.

As a result of this situation all these organizations, and their remnants have now been incorporated into one group, the JOINT ANTI-FASCIST REFUGEE COMMITTEE. It is national in scope; and has an office and branch in Hollywood, California. The purpose of the organization, as stated by the Secretary of the Hollywood branch, HELEN M. FISCHER, is to raise funds and give all aid possible in every way to those Spanish, German and French refugees now interned in concentration camps in Europe; and wherever and whenever possible bring them to the United States, or the Americas.

[This organization being completely Communist dominated, is interested only in those refugees whose political opinions coincide with those who are in control of this committee.]

At the present time the headquarters of the committee are located at 8505 Sunset Boulevard, Hollywood. The offices are sumptously equipped and the committee apparently is well equipped financially.

[A check of the personnel and those in charge and active in the organization shows the same names and control that had been observed in all the other Hollywood Communist front organizations.] They are the following:

PHILLIP MERIVALE, Honorary Chairman. Mr. MERIVALE is described as an English actor now appearing in motion pictures. Mr. MERIVALE is a fellow traveller, having been active in the New Theatre League, and various cultural organizations in Hollywood over a period of years—a fellow traveller.

Mrs. EDWARD CHODOROV, Chairman. This is the wife of EDWARD CHODOROV, a member of the League of American Writers, and a close fellow traveller with the Communist Party. He has followed the line from the Popular Front period, into the Fifth, or Pact Period, when he was connected with the American Peace Mobilization. She has done likewise.

HELEN M. FISCHER, Secretary. Miss FISCHER is a newcomer, having just suddenly "appeared". She has not been shown heretofore in the Hollywood section.

Miss FISCHER stated that the organization has no board of directors or executive board, but does have a "working committee". The "Working Committee" is composed of the following parties:

Mrs. SIDNEY BUCHMAN, wife of SIDNEY BUCHMAN, League of American Writers, and a staunch fellow traveller.

MARIAN SPITZER, League of American Writers, American Peace Mobilization, and a long record of fellow traveller.

TAMARA GEVA, formerly of the New Theatre League and other front organizations; a fellow traveller.

Miss FISCHER stated that the organization had no list of members; that the organization was the committee which called meetings, collected funds and attended to all business of the organization. She gave the following as the sponsors of the organization.

WALTER HUSTON - Screen actor, and fellow traveller.
OLIVIA DeHAVILLAND - Screen actress.
JULIEN DUVIVIER - French motion picture director, now employed in Hollywood.
HEINRICH MANN - German refugee writer, now in Hollywood.

DAME MAY WHITTY - elderly screen actress.
WILLIAM MORRIS, JR., theatrical booking agent in Hollywood and a close fellow traveller

That the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee is another Communist front organization there can be no doubt.

LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS, HOLLYWOOD CHAPTER ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
(Communist Front Organization)

[Source 4-G has reported X/(u) that the League of American Writers, since its formation in April, 1935 in New York City, has been and still is one of the most influential and far-reaching Communist front organizations ever set up in this country. Because of the fact that it has succeeded in drawing into its ranks many writers of national and international reputation, it has been able to exercise, by using organized pressure and the full strength of the Communist machine on books, magazines, periodicals and the press, an influence of serious proportions. As a propaganda instrument of the Communist Party it has rendered and is rendering outstanding service to the foreign policy of the Soviet Union.

[The Hollywood Chapter of the League of American Writers is particularly of extreme importance because, operating through its members who are firmly intrenched in the motion picture industry, it can and does exercise a most insidious influence over the type of picture produced. At the present time an examination will show that in almost every case where a picture is being made dealing with the war situation as it affects the Soviet Union, the writer or writers, and in many cases directors, are persons who have been identified as members of the League of American Writers, or as having been involved in other Communist front activities in the Hollywood section.] This is extremely important inasmuch as the motion picture is now considered necessary to national defense.

[The parentage and control of the League of American Writers by the Communist Party cannot be doubted. It is a matter of record. In November, 1930 a Congress of so-called "revolutionary writers" was held in Kharkov, Russia. At this congress a program was laid down for an International Union of Revolutionary Writers which was to operate in all countries outside the borders of the Soviet Union. The basic purpose of this Union was to organize intellectuals, particularly writers, in all countries, indoctrinate them with the philosophy of Marxian Communism and then create cultural organizations for the defense of the Soviet Union. These organizations would work in cooperation with the various sections of the Communist Internationale (Comintern) throughout the world.] X/(u)

The delegates from the United States who attended the Kharkov Congress, one of whom was MICHAEL GOLD and who was one of those chiefly instrumental in organizing the League of American Writers, made a report, and this report is published in "New Masses" for February, 1931. X/(u)

Meanwhile [there had already been set up in the larger cities of the United States groups of writers, artists and intellectuals called "John Reed Clubs". (Hollywood had its John Reed Club from 1932 to (1935). But as these John Reed Clubs were more in the nature of groups inspired by local Communist influences, they did not serve the aims of the ~~CONFI~~

Communist Party in a sufficiently disciplined manner. In January, 1935 a Congress of John Reed Clubs was held in New York City. At this congress which was composed of delegates from the clubs wherever located, a decision was made to call a Congress of American Writers to work out a plan for more efficient cooperation. The call was issued for April 1935, the Congress to be held in New York City.] On April 24 to 27, 1935 at the New School for Social Research, the congress was held. [It was called FIRST AMERICAN WRITERS CONGRESS.]

[One result of this congress was the formation of the League of American Writers, and at the same time it elected what was called a National Council. This National Council then affiliated with the International Union of Revolutionary Writers before mentioned which had its headquarters in Moscow, Russia. Thus, through the action of its National Council, the League of American Writers became an affiliate of this international revolutionary organization which has always been under the control of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union.] The members of the National Council were the following:

At the conclusion of the Congress and for some time thereafter the League of American Writers operated as a national organization. The Hollywood Chapter had not yet been formed. This group continued to function under the name of the Western Writers Congress until October, 1937 when the membership voted to go over in a body and join the League of American Writers national organization. After this action was taken the next step was the formation of the Hollywood Chapter of the League of American Writers. The purpose in forming this group was to take in those writers who were employed in the motion picture industry in order to concentrate more efficiently on the production of motion pictures. Headquarters were set up in Hollywood and the organization has functioned steadily since its formation.

The officers of the Hollywood Chapter are:

ALBERT MALTZ - President

[The Hollywood Chapter of the League of American Writers has as an organization followed the Communist Party line ever since it was first established.]

During the Popular Front period it supported all other organizations which followed the party line. It has protested officially the deportation proceedings against HARRY BRIDGES. It was officially affiliated with the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League and the Motion Picture Democratic Committee. It has sponsored mass meetings of protest against the Dies Committee.

Previous to the signing of the pact between STALIN and HITLER, it was all out for defeat of Fascism and Naziism. It published those principles to the world through the issuance of leaflets, articles and its own publication "Black and White".

When the pact between STALIN and HITLER was signed it completely reversed its official position and condemned the war as imperialist; opposed aid to Britain; opposed the selective service act; demanded isolation for the United States. And during that period of the Pact it officially endorsed the AMERICAN PEACE MOBILIZATION.

After HITLER invaded Russia the organization officially issued a proclamation, which appears in its official publication the "Clipper" for August, 1941, and demanded that the United States give all aid to Britain and her allies; went all out for the defeat of HITLER; Britain ceased to be an imperialist nation.

Reference is here made to the issue of the "Clipper" for May, 1941 in which an article appeared under the headline "In the Defense of Culture", which was the "Call of the Fourth Congress of the League of American Writers".

In substance it stated that the call was being made for the purpose of gathering together to reaffirm the aims of the three previous congresses of 1935, 1937 and 1939. It stated, "We proclaimed our unalterable conviction that reaction and its wars are the greatest enemies of a free and flourishing culture." It further stated "In 1941 the values by which we have lived are facing unprecedented attack. Half of the world is at war and the other half is endangered by attempts to draw it into war. We had warned of the consequences of "non-intervention" in Spain, of aid to the aggressor in China, of appeasement at Munich. Today these consequences are tragically apparent. We have warned that America must be defended not by involvement in this war, or by steps towards dictatorship, or by pursuing a course of imperialist expansion, but by preserving peace and expanding democracy on the economic, political and cultural levels. Today we must ask whether the present policy of the administration and the program of big business are not leading us toward war and Fascism in the name of resistance to war and fascism. . . . We know that our existence as free writers, spokesmen of a free people depends on out continued loyalty to the principles which govern the work of the League of American Writers. We therefore call our fellow writers and our associates in the related crafts to the Fourth Biennial Congress to consider the following questions.

> "How best as writers can we resist the drive toward the war and reaction which threatens our democratic culture?

CONFIDENTIAL

"What can we do to extend further help to persecuted writers of other lands?

"What can we do to restore the WPA cultural projects and to transform them into permanent Peoples Art Projects vital to the nation's strength?

"What new technical developments in the various forms of writing need to be analyzed and evaluated?

"What measures can we take to combat and surmount the growing restrictions on our work as honest craftsmen?

"How can we contribute to a genuine cultural interchange between the people of the Americas?

"How can we enrich America's imperishable democratic literature and extend its audience?"

It might well be stated that the policy of this organization in May, 1941 (while the HITLER-STALIN pact was in effect) was against America's entrance into the war and against preparations for defense.

There are 123 names appearing as signers of this call to the Fourth Congress. Nearly all of them are known in Hollywood and many are in Hollywood at the present time.

This congress was known as the "American Writers Congress" and was held in New York City June 6 to 8, 1941. The article stated "for information apply to FRANKLIN FOLSOM, National Executive Secretary, League of American Writers, Inc., 381 Fourth Avenue, New York City."

Attached hereto and marked Exhibit No. 3 - Page 1, is a photographic copy of this call to the Fourth Congress.

Reference is also being made to an article appearing in the August, 1941 issue of the "Clipper" on Page 3, the editorial page, under the heading, "A Communication to All Writers From the League of American Writers". The substance of this editorial appearing in the official organ of the League of American Writers, is that the league has urged that the welfare of the American people requires participation in every genuine anti-Fascist struggle; that when there was still peace in the world the league fought to maintain it, "but now the alliance between Great Britain and the Soviet Union provides the people of all countries with an unprecedented opportunity to rid the world of Hitlerism and a world free of Fascism is essential to the democratic institutions and culture of the United States.

Therefore the League advocates all immediate and necessary measures in support of Great Britain and the Soviet Union to insure the military defeat of the fascist aggressors. We believe such support has now become vital to the welfare and security of our country. We look forward to the release of our colleagues from the concentration camps of Europe, the return of exiled writers to their native lands, and the extirpation of the gravest threat to our existence as free writers. . . . The fight against fascism cannot and must not be conducted at the expense of civil liberties, trade unions rights, academic freedom, and living standards in the United States. . . . The League will continue with renewed vigor its opposition to censorship and its efforts to provide more extensive outlets for anti-fascist literature. The League supports the full rights of labor, including the right to strike. It is unalterably opposed to anti-Semitism and discrimination against Negroes and the foreign-born."

A photographic copy of this article is being attached to this report and is marked Exhibit No. 3, Page 2.

It should be remembered in this connection that HITLER attacked STALIN on June 22, 1941 and the League of American Writers was following the Communist Party line in May 1941 and it was also following the Communist Party line in August, 1941, although a complete "about face" had taken place in the Communist Party line.

[The entire record of the League of American Writers as a national organization, and the Hollywood Chapter as a local organization, from the beginning conclusively shows that the Communist Party completely dominates and controls both groups.]

HOLLYWOOD SCHOOL FOR WRITERS
(Communist Party front organization)

Source H has reported that the so-called [School for Writers is a device by the Hollywood Chapter of the League of American Writers to be used as a "transmission belt" whereby budding writers and those whose ambitio to become writers are developed along the political lines followed by the Le of American Writers and conditioned for eventual membership in the League ar the Communist Party.]

Attracted by the huge salaries paid by the motion pictur industry and the glamour attached, many persons will adopt any means to gain access to that favored institution. Taking advantage of this situtation, this writers [School" was established in October, 1939 by the Hollywood Chapter of the League.]

There is no doubt of the control over the school by the League of American Writers as it is plainly stated in the 1942 Prospectus of the school that:

> "The Hollywood School for Writers is a non-profit organization founded by the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS. Distinguished instructors or guest lecturers, many of whom are members of the League, volunteer their services in the interests of the School and its students."
> (Introductory Note - 1942 Prospectus)

In all printed matter the School uses the slogan:

"WORDS ARE YOUR WEAPON--YOU MUST LEARN TO USE THEM."

This is a quotation from a book written by DONALD OGDEN STEWART titled "Fighting Words."

At the present time the School is located at 1204 North Vista Street, Hollywood, California, which is also the headquarters of the Hollywood Chapter of the League of American Writers.

The courses taught are as follows:

- Screen writing
- Short story
- Playwriting
- Non-fiction writing
- Radio
- Novel
- History of American literature
- News reporting
- Labor journalism

[A careful check on all instructors and lecturers who have appeared before classes in the last two years shows that there has not been one who has not been identified either as a Communist Party member or close fellow traveller.] Each and everyone of them has followed the Communist Party line from the Popular Front period into the Period of the Pact when he or she supported the American Peace Mobilization and other isolationist organizations. Each and everyone of these instructors and lecturers have now followed the Communist Party line into the Post-Pact Period and are seemingly super zealous patriots all out for full prosecution of the war.

These directors are:

FRANK TUTTLE - a member of the Communist Party
IRVING PICHEL - long a close fellow traveller
LASZLO BENEDEK, reported to be a "European" director
JULES DASSIN - " " " " " "
FRED ZINNEMAN - " " " " " "

That the Hollywood Writers School is in reality a "School for Communism" there can be little doubt.

HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION FOR DEFENSE
(Communist front organization)

Source I has stated that the Communist Party line changed with the invasion of Russia by HITLER on June 22, 1941, and it became necessary for the party to dissolve such organizations as the Hollywood Peace Forum, Hollywood League for Democratic Action, American Peace Mobilization, Motion Picture Democratic Committee, and other groups which had been opposing the entry of the United States into the war. By February of 1942 all of these had been "liquidated" and the Communist Party declared for full participation in the war. The Hollywood section of the party fell in line and as soon as the apparatus could be turned around to face in the opposite direction, new organizations as "fronts" were set up. The first of these was the Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense. On the surface it was just a group of patriotic Hollywood screen writers falling in line for the defense of their country. In reality it was the same old League of American Writers in a new makeup. To make it look more legitimate and remove as much of the past isolationist record of the League of American Writers as possible, it drew in as sponsors the following labor groups in the Hollywood section:

SCREEN WRITERS GUILD
RADIO WRITERS GUILD
SCREEN PUBLICISTS GUILD
SCREEN READERS GUILD
INDEPENDENT PUBLICISTS GUILD
AMERICAN NEWSPAPER GUILD

While these sponsors seemed to give the Mobilization support in the labor field, each one of the foregoing labor groups was under the domination of the Communist Party, and has followed the Communist Party line for several years. In carrying out its program which was apparently all out prosecution of the war in the cultural field, the Writers Mobilization called a series of mass meetings at the Filmarte Theatre in Hollywood in the summer of 1942. The principal speakers at these meetings were:

58492

NELSON POYNTER, Hollywood representative for Government films, who spoke in his official position.

CONFIDENTIAL

DONALD OGDEN STEWART
ROBERT ROSSEN
FRANK TUTTLE
MARY McCALL, JR.

All of the four last mentioned are members of the League of American Writers and follow the Communist Party line unerringly. In addition to meetings, the Mobilization arranged for several radio broadcasts, and issued an official publication called "Communique".

The chairman of the Mobilization was ROBERT ROSSEN. Mr. ROSSEN is to all intents and purposes, a Communist. He has followed the line of the party faithfully for years. He is a member of the League of American Writers, a teacher in the Hollywood Writers School, supported the American Peace Mobilization, signed the call for the Fourth Congress of the League of American Writers, and has been sponsor and active in other Communist fronts of many kinds.

Others prominent in the Writers Mobilization for Defense were the following:

|---|---|
| DONALD OGDEN STEWART | LEO MITTLER |
| DALTON TRUMBO | ALLAN SCOTT |
| GUY ENDORE | JERRY CHODOROV |
| HENRY MYERS | JULIUS EPSTEIN |

| GORDON KAHN | IRVING REIS |
| ARTHUR KOBER | ROBERT LEES |
| H. S. (HY) KRAFT | FRED RINAIDO |
| VERA CASPARY | JOHN BRIGHT |

All of the above are the same old names that are found in previous Hollywood Communist fronts. All have for years been followers of the Communist Party line.

Early in February of 1942, the Mobilization issued its publication "COMMUNIQUE". This publication was indicative of the position of the Mobilization and conformed to the new Communist Party line.

HOLLYWOOD CANTEEN
(Possible Communist front organization)

[Source 4-J has reported that (U) the Hollywood Canteen is a project set up and operated by the various labor unions and guilds connected with the motion picture industry in Hollywood. BILLIE BURKE
FLORENCE C. CADREZ
LESTER COLE
MERVYN LeROY

GEORGE RAMSAY
CASEY ROBERTS
WILLIAM H. SIMON
DORRIS STEIN
JULES STEIN
JOHN TeGROEN

[Of the above LESTER COLE has been outstanding in Communist activities in Hollywood. He is a member of the League of American Writers, American Peace Mobilization, Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, signer of the call for the Fourth Writers Congress, Hollywood Peace Forum, etc.

There is very little doubt that the inspiration for the creation of the Hollywood Canteen originated in Communist circles. The initial meeting called by the original sponsors was held in the home of SAM ALBERTS, a member of Musicians Local #47 and a known Communist, on August 14, 1942. There is no doubt that those of that faith active in the work of the project have much to say about how it shall be conducted. But owing to the fact that so many organizations and persons not sympathetic to the Communist cause are also interested in the work of the Canteen, there has not been any definite attempt at propaganda, or other Communist activities.

The fact that thousands of soldiers and sailors pass through the headquarters of the Canteen weekly make it difficult to detect possible attempts of infiltration.

PUBLICATIONS IN HOLLYWOOD WHICH HAVE HAD A BEARING ON COMMUNIST ACTIVITIES IN THE MOTION PICTURE BUSINESS IN HOLLYWOOD

Source K has given the following estimate of the influence of official organs and other papers in Hollywood on the motion picture business and the infiltration of Communists into the motion picture business.

Hollywood Reporter

The Hollywood Reporter is a daily trade publication which has been in existence approximately twenty years. The editor and publisher of this paper is W. R. WILKERSON. This paper has always opposed Communist activity in the motion picture industry and is fully aware of Communist penetration. It has many times published editorials and articles to this effect.

Daily Variety

The Daily Variety is a trade publication which has been in existence in Hollywood for approximately eighteen years. The general manager is ARTHUR UNGER. He is in no sense a Communist or a Communist sympathizer. However, other member of this staff of reporters on this paper, RALPH RODDY who is assigned to labor activities is a fellow traveller and always slants his news in favor of those Communist labor unions and guilds that are under the leadership of HERBERT K. SORRELL.

Flashes

The monthly publication "Flashes" is the official organ of Laboratory Technicians Local No. 683, I.A.T.S.E. It has been in existence since 1933. From the beginning up until 1940 it was not in any sense sympathetic to the Communist cause. In that year the Communist elements in the union secured control and the paper since that time has reflected the Communist Party line completely. The editor is RUSSELL McKNIGHT, a staunch fellow traveller and perhaps a member of the Communist Party. Before Soviet Russia was attacked by HITLER on June 22, 1941 the editorial policy of this paper was opposed to aid to Britain, etc., but immediately after the Soviet Union was attacked it came out for "all out prosecution of the war, aid to Britain, Russia and China."

Black and White

This publication "Black and White" was originally a creation of the Young Communists League and was issued at irregular intervals during 1939 and 1940, during the Fourth or Popular Front period of the Communist Party line. The first editor of the paper was WILBUR NEEDHAM of Santa Monica, California who has been engaged in Communist cultural activities for several years. JULES KIEVETS who was exposed by the Tenney Investigating Committee as a Communist succeeded NEEDHAM as the editor of the paper shortly before it ceased publication early in 1940 with the change of the Communist Party line. It was reported that WILL ROGERS, JR., now congressman for Beverly Hills, California, and whose name as "BILL ROGERS" appeared on the masthead as an associate editor, originally financed the paper.

Clipper

The Clipper was the official publication of the Hollywood Chapter of the League of American Writers and was the successor to "Black and White" and so stated on the masthead of the first two issues. It had its existence during the Fifth Period of the Communist Party line which was that period when STALIN and HITLER were friends. This paper's policy was one of isolation, opposition to the war, which corresponded to the Communist Party line at that time. After the attack of STALIN by HITLER on June 22, 1941, the paper within a period of a few months went out of existence. Its editorial board were well known Communists and fellow travellers.

The Communique

The publication "Communique" has not been issued regularly. It has been the official organ of the Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense which was originally inspired by the League of American Writers. It made its first appearance early in February, 1942. The last issue was dated September 26, 1942. The second and third issues of this paper were mailed under official Government frank and bore a statement that it was "in cooperation with the O.E.M.". Later issues did not bear the Government frank. This paper reflected the Communist Party line in detail. The editor has been MILTON MERLIN, a member of the League of American Writers.

Hollywood Now

The publication "Hollywood Now" was the official weekly organ of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League. It came into existence on February 17, 1938. The last number was issued February 2, 1940. This paper was in existence during the Fourth or Popular Front period and followed strictly the Communist Party line at that time; but the signing of the STALIN-HITLER pact on August 23, 1939 sealed the death of this publication. It could not negotiate the sharp turn in the Communist Party line, from one of anti-Hitlerism to one of Anti-Britain and democracy. After six months of trying to explain and justify the STALIN-HITLER pact it quietly passed out of existence with the February 2, 1940 issue.

The masthead of this paper showed the names of the following persons who were responsible for its publication:

DONALD OGDEN STEWART
FRANK TUTTLE
DUDLEY NICHOLS
BERN BERNARD, treasurer

Professor NORMAN T. BYRNE, a teacher in the Los Angeles City College was one of the main contributors to the paper and had an article in every issue. He was one of the Communist front leaders in Southern California, speaking before forums, women's clubs, social organizations, labor unions, the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, the Hollywood League for Democratic Action, the League for Peace and Democracy, and the American Peace Mobilization. BYRNE has also written pamphlets interpreting the Communist Party line and one of the most ardent supporters of Communism in Southern California. He is reported as being in the armed forces at the present time.

Hollywood Tribune

The Hollywood Tribune was a Communist publication which was another Hollywood casualty of the STALIN-HITLER pact. It was issued by the "Columbia Publishing Corporation", 6715 Hollywood Boulevard, Hollywood, California. It first came into existence in April 1939. This was during the Fifth or Popular Front period.

BEST COPY AVAILABLE

The publication was a weekly and was meant to be for general circulation. It appealed to the sensational and dealt mainly with the motion picture industry and cultural affairs. It was strictly a Communist controlled publication and reflected the Communist Party line perhaps more outspokenly than any other publication in the section. The editor of the paper was E. A. DUPONT, now a motion picture director. Its contributors were the usual Communist figures in Hollywood, such as Professor NORMAN T. BYRNE, HAROLD SALEMSON, ELLA MAY WINTER, MAYER LEVIN, DONALD OGDEN STEWART, CAREY McWILLIAMS, WILBUR NEEDHAM, editor of "Black and White", and others. It was in fact another publication of the League of American Writers appearing from behind another screen.

SUMMARY OF COMMUNIST ACTIVITIES IN THE FRONT ORGANIZATIONS IN THE MOTION PICTURE BUSINESS

[Source 4-L has summed up the activities of the Communists in Hollywood insofar as its activities relate to the motion picture business as follows:

There have been six periods of change in the Communist Party line in the United States since the formation of the Communist Internationale (Comintern) in Moscow, Russia in March, 1919. These changes were in every case determined by the foreign policy of the Soviet Union at the time.

The Communist Internationale, also called the Third Internationale, of which the Communist Party of the United States is a section, is the agency set up by the Communist Party of the Soviet Union to operate in all countries of the world outside of Russia to interpret and work in the interest of the Soviet Government.

Those periods are:

FIRST PERIOD: From 1919 to 1921, Russian Revolutionary period.

SECOND PERIOD: From 1921 to 1928, Revolutionary boring from within period.

THIRD PERIOD: From 1928 to August 1935 was the Trade Union Unity League period; still revolutionary and in favor of Communist controlled labor organizations. This period ended with the Seventh World Congress of the Internationale which was held in Moscow in August 1935.

FOURTH PERIOD: From August 1935 to August 23, 1939 when the [illegible] between STALIN and HITLER was entered into. This period is known as the Popular Front or Trojan Horse period, and is referred to as such in this report.

FIFTH PERIOD: From August 23, 1939 to June 22, 1941 when HITLER attacked STALIN and began the invasion of Russia. This period has been referred to as the PERIOD OF THE PACT.

SIXTH PERIOD: From June 22, 1941 down to the present time. This has been called the POST-PACT period.

Inasmuch as references have been made to changes in the Communist Party line, and those periods of change have been referred to as the POPULAR FRONT period, and the period of the STALIN-HITLER PACT, etc., and inasmuch as certain individuals have been cited as belonging to concurrent organizations such as the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, the American Peace Mobilization, etc., it will perhaps make clearer the meanings of those changes and the significance of membership in those organizations if the same are set down in glossary form.

For the purposes of this report we are not concerned with the First, Second and Third periods, as Hollywood during those periods had not been penetrated by the Communists.

By keeping in mind the Fourth, Fifth and Sixth periods of the Communist Party line, their relation to the foreign policy of the Soviet Union and the nature of the front organizations set up during those periods, the Communist affiliations and activities of those persons mentioned in this report who adhered strictly to those changes and organizations are plainly apparent.

FOURTH (POPULAR FRONT) PERIOD: In August 1935, in Moscow, Russia, the Seventh World Congress of the Communist Third Internationale (Comintern) was held. At this Congress a new line for all branches of the Communist Party throughout the world was laid down by GEORGI DIMITROFF, the supreme head of the Comintern. (w)

The new line called a halt to all agitation for the overthrow of capitalism by revolutionary methods, and substituted therefor what was called the POPULAR FRONT tactic. This meant that Communists everywhere were to cease work as revolutionists, and pose as staunch defenders of democracy, civil rights and constitutional liberties and thus endeavor to influence their respective governments to bring about what was called a system of COLLECTIVE SECURITY. This meant that Communists must take part in all national governments and endeavor to influence those governments to form an alliance with the Soviet Union to stop the rise of Hitlerism in Europe. As a consequence of this policy the Communist Party in the United States at that time supported the ROOSEVELT Administration and the New Deal, although previously and before August 1935 when the new line was laid down in Moscow, it had condemned them as being fascist in nature. They also at this time worked arduously in pretended support of democratic processes and had a measure of success in penetrating governmental and administrative offices. This was only a tactic applicable at the time in the interest of the foreign policy of the Soviet Union. The Communist Party did not surrender its previous revolutionary theory of the overthrow of capitalism; it only put it aside for the time being. This was stated clearly by EARL BROWDER on his return from this Seventh World Congress when he made his report to the November Plenum of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the United States, quoted at Pages 91 and 92 in this report.

FIFTH PERIOD (PERIOD OF THE PACT): During this period which began with the signing of the pact between STALIN and HITLER on August 23, 1939, by which pact they became virtual allies, and which came to an end with HITLER'S attack on the Soviet Union on June 22, 1941, the Communist parties everywhere completely reversed their previous position. From a program of support for democracy and advocacy of COLLECTIVE SECURITY, the Communist Party charged that the democracies were responsible for the war which they termed strictly an imperialist one. They demanded a negotiated peace with HITLER, opposed America's entrance into the war, opposed the lend-lease act, opposed the Selective Service Act, and in every way possible gave aid and comfort to HITLER and Fascism. This policy was the reflection of the foreign policy of the Soviet Union which at that time under the terms of the pact was the support of HITLER as against the interests of England and France. The main task of the Communist Party in the United States during that period was to prevent the United States aiding England in the struggle and to so interfere with the preparation for national defense that it could not enter the war as an ally of Britain.

SIXTH PERIOD (POST-PACT PERIOD): This period began with the attack on Soviet Russia by HITLER on June 22, 1941 and is still in effect. This attack on Soviet Russia demanded that the Communist Party again do an about face. From a program of isolation and peace for the United States they began shouting that the United States must enter the war and within ninety days were demanding a SECOND FRONT against HITLER. This demand for a second front was launched as early as September, 1941 in the Communist Party press, three months before the Pearl Harbor attack, at which time the United States officially entered the war.

This position was determined by the foreign policy of the Soviet Union which had overnight become the ally of the democracies, and not by the interests of the United States which they now so vehemently profess to defend.

Thus we find the Communists in the present period right back where they were during the POPULAR FRONT period.

We again find the Communists laying aside their revolutionary aims temporarily, supporting democracy to the fullest, going all out to defeat HITLER and for the time being, at least, withholding all criticism of capitalist "bourgeois democracy".

COMMUNIST FRONT ORGANIZATIONS IN HOLLYWOOD DURING FOURTH PERIOD

AMERICAN LEAGUE FOR PEACE AND DEMOCRACY

HOLLYWOOD ANTI-NAZI LEAGUE

NEW THEATRE LEAGUE

CONTEMPORARY THEATRE, INC.

THEATRE ARTS COMMITTEE

MOTION PICTURE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE

All the foregoing organizations, under control and directed in the interests of the Communist Party line, were dissolved when the STALIN-HITLER pact was signed and the FIFTH PERIOD was ushered in.

COMMUNIST FRONT ORGANIZATIONS IN HOLLYWOOD DURING FIFTH PERIOD

HOLLYWOOD LEAGUE FOR DEMOCRATIC ACTION

HOLLYWOOD PEACE FORUM

HOLLYWOOD PEACE COUNCIL

HOLLYWOOD THEATRE ALLIANCE

All the foregoing organizations came into existence shortly after the STALIN-HITLER pact was signed. They all followed the Communist Party line of the PERIOD OF THE PACT, and were propaganda organizations for the Communist Party line which was isolation, opposition to aid to the allies, opposition to the Selective Service Act; in short they were working against the allies and aiding the Axis powers.

They were all dissolved when HITLER attacked the Soviet Union, which ushered in the next period, the SIXTH PERIOD.

COMMUNIST FRONT ORGANIZATIONS IN HOLLYWOOD DURING THE SIXTH PERIOD
(The present period)

HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION FOR DEFENSE

HOLLYWOOD CANTEEN

COMMITTEE FOR THE CARE OF CHILDREN IN WARTIME

HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE (Now in the process of formation)

The foregoing organizations have been created since Russia became an ally of the United Nations, and are for all out prosecution of the war and seemingly ultra-patriotic.

OTHER COMMUNIST FRONT CULTURAL ORGANIZATIONS IN HOLLYWOOD WHICH HAVE BEEN CONSTANT DURING ALL THREE PERIODS AND WHICH HAVE CLEARLY REFLECTED THE VARIOUS CHANGES IN THE PARTY LINE

LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS, HOLLYWOOD CHAPTER

HOLLYWOOD COMMITTEE FOR WRITERS IN EXILE

JOINT ANTI-FASCIST REFUGEE COMMITTEE (Formerly United Spanish Aid Committee)

LETTER OF 150

This "Letter of 150" was a signed and published document in defense of the mass "purges" in the Soviet Union.

The significance of a signature to this letter is that the signer was defending the position of STALIN as opposed to that of LEON TROTSKY in a highly involved political dispute. It is conclusive evidence that the signer was involved in inner Communist Party political differences.

The original committee that solicited the signatures for this letter were ROBERT COATES, one of the original members of the League of American Writers; MALCOLM COWLEY, League of American Writers; STEWART DAVIS, League of American Writers; MARK BLITZSTEIN, member of the League of American Writers; and PAUL STRAND, member of the League of American Writers.

(List published in Daily Workers, April 28, 1938)

LETTER OF 400

This "Letter of 400" also was a signed and published document. In the spring of 1939 a group of liberals and intellectuals who opposed Communist domination of American Arts and Culture issued a statement of their views, claiming that there was no basic difference between Communism, Naziism, and Fascism; that eventually STALIN and HITLER would come to terms.

To answer these charges the "Letter of 400" was gotten up by the Communist Party. This letter denied vehemently all allegations and ridiculed the charge that STALIN and HITLER ever could make an agreement. This "Letter of 400" was published just nine days before STALIN signed the pact with HITLER, which made the Communists and fellow travellers who signed the document look rather foolish.

The original committee that set up this "Letter of 400" were the following:

Professor DOROTHY BREWSTER, Columbia University

DASHIELL HAMMETT, a writer and at the present time the President of the League of American Writers

CORLISS LAMONT, one of the editors of "Soviet Russia Today" and a propagandist for the Soviet Union.

GEORGE MARSHALL, a fellow traveller of long standing

Professor WALTER RAUTENSTRAUCH, Professor of Economics, Columbia University and head of the national Association for Civil Liberties and the Committee for the Protection of Foreign born

VINCENT SHEEHAN, a journalist, war correspondent and a close fellow traveller prior to the HITLER-STALIN pact August 23, 1939.

DONALD OGDEN STEWART, Ex-national president of the League of American Writers; active in many Communist front organizations and a Communist Party member.

MAXWELL S. STEWART, writer, member of the League of American Writers and associate editor of the "Roviet Russia Today".

REBECCA JANNEY TIMBERS, writer, member of the League of American Writers, a well known fellow traveller of many years standing.

MARY VAN KLEECK, writer, member of the League of American Writers, and a fellow traveller of many years standing.

(List of signers published in the Daily Worker August 14, 1939).

SIGNIFICANCE OF MEMBERSHIP IN A COMMUNIST FRONT ORGANIZATION

Membership in a Communist front organization during the FOURTH PERIOD is not, of itself, proof that he or she is a Communist, or even a fellow traveller. Thousands of "innocents" were drawn into those organizations who were unaware of Communist control or party-line procedure.

BUT, if we find an individual who was a member of, or active in, a Communist front organization of the FIFTH PERIOD, then that is conclusive proof that he or she is either a Communist Party member or a close fellow traveller with the Party. This would mean that that person is willing to follow the party line of the Communist Party, even though it leads to a defense of Naziism or Facsism, should the foreign policy of the Soviet Union demand it.

AGAIN, if we find an individual who was a member of, or active in a Communist front organization of the FIFTH PERIOD, such as the American Peace Mobilization, etc., and that individual has now become a member of a front organization of the SIXTH PERIOD and takes a stand for all out prosecution of the war, etc., it is conclusive evidence that that person's present position was determined by the change in the Communist Party line when HITLER turned and attacked Soviet Russia. It is conclusive evidence that that person's interests lie not with the United States and democracy, but with the interests of Soviet Union and Communism. In spirit such a person is just as much a Communist as EARL BROWDER himself.

FELLOW TRAVELLER

This term was coined by NICOLAI LENIN, the father of the Russian Revolution. It first appears in his book "Socialism and War", written and published in August, 1915.

Speaking of certain socialists and sympathizers, whom he described as "vacillating elements" he said: "These elements can be our fellow travellers. It is necessary to get closer to them with the aim of fighting social-chauvinists. But we must remember that they are only fellow travellers; that as far as the main and fundamental problems are concerned. . . . those same elements will go, not with us, but against us. . . ."

But there was once when the great genius was wrong. The fellow traveller has become the most valuable instrument of all to the Communist Party. Not being technically a member of the Communist Party and able at all times to deny membership, he is free to carry the party line in a much more forceful manner than most party members who are always conscious of their party membership books.

Further, the fellow traveller not being a part of the inner circle where vicious intrigue and jockeying for personal power disillusions so many, he becomes a fanatical idealist willing to carry the party line to any extreme.

Knowing this, the Communist Party leaders, discourage this fanatically loyal fellow traveller from becoming a party member. He is many times more valuable on the outside in carrying the message.

TRANSMISSION BELT

When EARL BROWDER appeared before the Dies Committee in 1940 he used this term. He stated a Communist front organization was in the nature of a "transmission belt" between the masses and the Communist Party. He described it as a means whereby an individual might eventually become a member of the Communist Party through membership in one front organization after another, each one taking him step by step to party membership.

Will continue this investigation and will compile information showing the Communist Party connections of many of the most influential personages in the motion picture business in Hollywood. This compilation of information will set forth the numerous activities of such individuals in the Communist front organizations which indicate that the Communist Party line has been followed faithfully and ardently. Attention will also be called to a large number of books, pamphlets, scenarios, plays, newsreels, speeches, letters and other material which indicate the enormous effort that has been made and is now being made by the Communist Party to get complete control of the motion picture business and use it for propaganda purposes.

RE: MOTION PICTURE FILM ENTITLED "SECRET SERVICE IN DARKEST AFRICA"

Dear Sir:

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED DATE 1/2/96 BY SP2CLC/gaa

For the confidential information of the Bureau, I am enclosing copies of material prepared in the Hollywood office of the Office of War Information, Bureau of Motion Pictures, with reference to the film recently completed by Republic Studio entitled "Secret Service in Darkest Africa". This is a serial film which will run at the cheaper theatres in the country and it probably will be seen by millions of youngsters of the school age.

I am not at all sure that this is the type of film the Bureau would want to have anything at all to do with, but it is pointed out that insofar as the public is concerned, the Secret Service will obtain credit for the matters depicted in the story.

There are many matters considered in the Office of War Information with reference to such things as this which, if the Bureau desired, could be handled by me and possibly the Bureau's interests could at times be better represented. It is not desired that there be any misunderstanding as to my beliefs of the ability of the Agent in Charge in Los Angeles to pass on matters of policy in connection with motion pictures which the Bureau must necessarily consider, but it is believed that if the Bureau has no objection, arrangements can be made through the Office of War Information and through the Hayes Office to be immediately advised of some questions that come up which have to be decided within a matter of a few hours, and which can always be referred to one of the Bureau officials telephonically for an opinion before any statement is made by me.

The sole purpose of making this suggestion is in order that the Bureau's interests may be fully protected even in motion pictures not produced by the major studios, for in these instances I know the Bureau is ordinarily consulted by picture representatives in the East.

SYNOPSIS: Chapter One thru Fifteen -

Rex Bennett, secret service agent, after having worked with the Russians at Stalingrad and wormed his way into the headquarters of the Gestapo at Berlin, eventually arrives in North Africa to foil a Nazi plan to enlist the Arab tribes on the side of the Axis. He is aided by Janet Blake, American correspondent and Pierre LaSalle, French officer. Although Rex thinks he is dealing with the Sultan, head of the tribes, he is actually giving valuable information to von Rommler, a Nazi, who has imprisoned the real Sultan and is impersonating him. For this reason, Rex is unable to make much headway, although he does contrive, through a series of adventures, to foil a Nazi plot to destroy an important United Nations convoy and subsequently enables the U.S. Navy to sink an entire U-Boat fleet. He also manages to save the executive chiefs of the United Nations, arriving in Casablanca for a conference, from an untimely end at the hands of the Nazis; the Nazis have stolen a death-dealing device from the Americans which they are planning to use on the Allied chiefs. In the end, Rex eventually discovers the identity of the pseudo-Sultan but not before the impersonator has received Allied war plans for North Africa from a diplomatic courier in exchange for a pledge of Arab friendship. However, von Rommler and his henchman are killed and with them dies the Nazi knowledge of United Nations war strategy. The imprisoned Sultan is free to contact his peoples and receive their decision to ally themselves with the United Nations.

SECRET SERVICE IN DARKEST AFRICA (Republic)

Producer: W. J. O'Sullivan

Date and Stage of Script: Final draft - March 17, 1943

COMMENT: This serial is an action melodrama, directed primarily at juvenile audiences. For that reason, it creates special problems for the War Information Program.

At a time when we are involved in a life and death struggle for our very existence it is of paramount importance that our young people be given an understanding of the real issues of the war. It is these young people, who make up the largest part of the audience for such action serials as this one, who will be called up to meet the future problems arising from the present conflict. Melodramatic presentations of this sort, in which fact and fiction are mingled in the most irresponsible manner, can serve only to confuse and retard an understanding which is vital to the success of lasting peace for which we are fighting.

From the domestic angle, the characterization of Rex Bennett, the hero, who practically single-handed outwits the Axis in North Africa is a dangerous misrepresentation of what a fight against Fascism really entails. The portrayal of the majority of Arabs in the story as villains, collaborating with the Axis is extremely ill-advised. This is equally true of the presentation given Lascars and Eurasians who appear as minor villains.

From the overseas angle, the basic story premise that one American, with some help from a French officer and an American newspaperwoman, is able to outwit the entire Nazi espionage system is highly questionable. The presentation of Arabs, Lascars and Eurasians as villains raises further problems from the standpoint of overseas distribution. So does the fact that the Casablanca conference is used as a peg on which to hang a spy intrigue.

It should also be pointed out that the title of the serial - SECRET SERVICE IN DARKEST AFRICA has a deregatory connotation which is unfortunate from the point of view of the Government's War Information Program.

They discover the trap in time to escape after a desperate running fight on horseback. At the grotto, unsuspected by Rex, one of the Sheik's servants, Helzah, is in Von Rommler's employ. Helzah kills the Sheik before he can sign the agreement and plants the murder on Rex. In spite of his denials, the infuriated tribesmen seize Rex and condemn him to a ceremonial execution. EPISODE THIRTEEN - "FATAL LEAP" Abdul, the dead sheik's son, discovers a broken chain in his father's hand which matches a corresponding link around Helzah's neck, thus betraying him as the killer. The execution is halted in time to save Rex's life. Helzah, attempting to escape, is killed. Convinced that Helzah was merely a tool in the hands of Nazi higher-ups, Rex suspects Muller of complicity, and dispatches Janet to Casablanca, hoping she can lure Muller into a trap, if he thinks Helzah is still alive. The ruse works. Wolfe and a band of renegade Arabs attack the Sheik's Grotto, where Rex, Janet, and Pierre await them. During the fight, Wolfe enters through a secret door, abducts Janet and escapes with her in a waiting station wagon. Rex rides in pursuit on horseback, intercepts Wolfe by a short cut and transfers to the rear of the station wagon, where Janet lies helplessly bound. Wolfe, aware of his danger, pulls out the throttle and leaps from the car. Out of control, the machine plunges headlong off a towering precipice.

SECRET SERVICE IN DARKEST AFRICA (Republic)

4-15-43

Producer: W. J. O'Sullivan

Date & Stage of Script: 15 Episode Serial - Final Draft Mar. 17, 1943

This serial raises serious problems from the standpoint of the Government's War Information Program:

1. The hero, practically single-handed, saves the United Nations' cause in North Africa.

Rex Bennett undertakes to eliminate the Nazi espionage in North Africa and thus ensure United Nations safe-conduct in pursuing the war. He is helped in his plan to some extent by Pierre LaSalle, a French officer and Janet Blake, an American correspondent, but for the most part he works alone. Only in one case does he call in the law to help him (Ep.V) when he sends for the police to raid the Oasis cafe. For the most part he attacks alone and by so doing endangers the cause which he is serving.

The war in which we are engaged necessitates a cooperative, unified effort which is for the most part lacking in this serial. This is not a war which can be won by one person or group, whether on the espionage or on the battle-front. This type of presentation minimizes the magnitude of the task with which we are confronted.

Although Bennett is repeatedly bombed, blown up, etc. he is never seriously injured. At a time when thousands of American homes are being called upon to face the loss of members of their family, this unreal portrayal of what a total war involves is a great disservice to the country and is out of keeping with the War Information Program.

2. Arabs are portrayed as villains, collaborating with the Axis.

The Sultan and his Sheiks are shown to be intelligent, well-informed men who recognize the Nazis as their enemies and favor the United Nations cause; but the majority of the Arabs with whom we have any lasting contact in the story are thoroughly reprehensible characters who do the Nazis' dirty work with zest and dispatch.

The attempt to justify this presentation of Arabs (Ep.VII - p. 2) by the pseudo-Sultan, who explains that Arabs working for the Axis are in the minority, does not erase the over-all impression of Arabs as untrustworthy and treacherous. Exception is also taken to the characterization of Lascars and Eurasians as minor villains.

North Africa is one of the most important theatres of war today. It is important that Americans be given an accurate presentation of the people in this vital combat zone. The presentation given these people in this story is misleading.

3. Certain aspects of the presentation of the enemy are misleading.

The Nazis are shown to be cold-blooded ruthless foes who will stop at nothing to achieve their ends; they are shown to be fanatically devoted to their cause. But in Episode III, p. 11, the submarine commandant says that when a United Nations convoy en route to North Africa is destroyed, the Fuehrer will be master of the world. The Nazis are far too shrewd and realistic to gauge their chance of ultimate victory on the sinking of one convoy. This type of remark tends to underestimate the intelligence of the enemy we are fighting.

Producer: W. J. O'Sullivan

3. (Cont'd)

The idea that an American is able to penetrate the inner recesses of the Gestapo further minimizes the intelligence of the enemy. The use of elaborate mechanical devices such as the death ray,etc. with which the Nazis plan to destroy 250,000 American troops also serve to negate the reality of the enemy against whom we are engaged. It is vital that we understand the enemy if we are to defeat them.

4. The U-boat menace is minimized.

In Episode X an entire U-boat fleet is destroyed because Rex Bennett has been able to warn an American convoy of its presence.

The problem of supply has become increasingly crucial for this country because of the Nazi U-boat campaign. It is at present a major threat to our successful prosectuion of the war. To suggest, as this serial does, that an entire U-boat fleet can be so easily wiped out seriously minimizes the U-boat menace at a time when it is vital that we understand the full danger of this aspect of the Nazi war effort.

SECRET SERVICE IN DARKEST AFRICA (Republic) 4/13/43

Producer: W. J. O'Sullivan

Date and Stage of Script: [illegible] episode serial - final draft - March [illegible], 1943

This story raises serious problems for the overseas branch of the Office of War Information.

(1) An American appears to be winning the war single-handed.

Rex Bennett is said to have worked with the Russians in Stalingrad, penetrated the innermost recesses of the Gestapo in Berlin, then undertakes to eliminate Nazi espionage which is attempting to persuade Arab chieftains in the Axis camp; by his success, he supposedly renders the North African theatre of war a safer battle terrain for the United Nations. To achieve this, he enlists the aid of Pierre LaSalle who works in the French Diplomatic headquarters - and Janet Blake, American newspaperwoman. But both Pierre and Janet play subordinate roles and the bulk of the assignment is handled by Rex.

The idea that one American, working to a large extent alone, is able to smash an elaborat Nazi espionage set-up is ill-advised. We create real ill-will for ourselves abroad when we show Americans winning the war practically single-handed. The inadvisability of the portrayal is high-lighted by the fact that the captured Sultan, throughout the story, makes frequent references to Rex Bennett as the saviour of North Africa. It is also emphasized by the characterization of Pierre, who is used mostly to carry out Rex's orders. Loyal Frenchmen in North Africa worked long and hard before this country's entry into the war to enlist the aid of the Arabs on the side of the United Nations. To show them serving merely as henchmen to Americans minimizes the importance of their contribution.

(2) Arabs and other peoples of North Africa appear as villains and collaborationists.

Aside from the Sultan and his Sheiks, the other Arabs in the story - and they are very much in the majority - are shown to be treacherous people who do the bidding of the Nazis and sabotage Rex at every turn. The same is true of the Lascars and Eurasians who appear as minor villains.

This American interpretation of the inhabitants of North Africa can only cause antagonism among the people of that country, most of whom have been loyal to the United Nations cause. It will also be resented by Arabs in other parts of the world. The speech made by the pseudo-Sultan in Episode Six to the effect that Arabs working for the Axis are in the minority does not overcome the impression created throughout the story that Arabs are villainous and untrustworthy.

(3) The emphasis is exclusively on espionage as the chief Nazi menace in North Africa.

The implication that success in defeating Axis attempts to enlist the Arabs will assure victory in North Africa for the United Nations is extremely ill-advised. For the last three years Britain has lost thousands of men in Africa in an attempt to defeat the Axis. Currently, French, British and American forces are giving their lives to drive the Axis from this terrain. This type of presentation emphasizing Nazi espionage tactics to the exclusion of their military power, which to date has proved the chief threat in North Africa, is unfortunate.

(4) Certain aspects of the presentation of the convoy are misleading.

The Nazis are shown to be cold-blooded, ruthless foes, fanatically devoted to their cause. But the statement by the Nazi Naval commandant, to the effect that the destruction of a United Nations convoy will make the Fuehrer master of the world suggests that Americans have no real understanding of the quality of the foe they are fighting. The Nazis are far too shrewd and realistic to gauge their chance of ultimate victory on the sinking of one convoy.

The use of elaborate mechanical devices such as the death ray, with which the Nazis pla to destroy a convoy of American troops again suggests American lack of comprehension of the foe.

Today, most of the nations of the world are engaged in a struggle for survival. The threat is not an enemy which depends upon mythical death-dealing devices but clever and powerful foes who have a systematic and comprehensive plan for enslaving the world. Other peoples of the world who have learned to know the enemy through bitter experience may well resent this American conception of the foe.

(5) The use of the Casablanca conference to highlight a melodrama is ill-advised.

It may or may not be the writer's intention to suggest that the Casablanca conference with which the story deals is the same as that attended by President Roosevelt and Prim Minister Churchill. Certain discrepancies in the script such as the fact that the co ference is stated to be attended by the "executive chiefs of the United Nations" - and the implication that the conference was called to enlist the aid of the North Africa tribes - would seem to suggest that this is another Casablanca conference. Nevertheles the use of Casablanca which has come to be associated with the historic meeting of Eng lish and American government heads is indefensible. The Casablanca conference, which helped to shape future world history should not be treated as another episode in a melo drama which has no basis in fact. To do so, implies that Americans fail to understand the import of that eventful meeting.

RE: Motion Picture Film entitled "Secret Service in Darkest Africa"

Dear Mr. Hood:

Reference is made to your personal and confidential letter of June 3, 1943, concerning the above matter.

While, of course, I expect you to keep posted concerning the various matters mentioned in your letter I believe that all questions pertaining to motion pictures in which the Bureau has a legitimate interest should be passed upon here at Bureau headquarters before any action is taken. So many angles are usually involved that I feel this is the safest policy in all instances. I do want you to know, however, that I appreciate your comments in this regard.

I am returning to you at this time the memorandum which you enclosed concerning the picture entitled "Secret Service in Darkest Africa." Though I am aware of the possible confusion which might result from the title, the Bureau is not in a position to interpose any objection inasmuch as we are not engaged in the particular field of activity covered by the film.

While I desire that you attempt to cement the relationship between your office and the local office of the Office of War Information I do want to bring to your attention certain information in the Bureau's files concerning Ulric Bell. Mr. Bell is a native of Louisville, Kentucky, and has been employed most of his life by the Louisville Courier-Journal. He worked in Louisville until about 1922 and then came to Washington as Washington correspondent for this paper. He is a member and past president of the Gridiron Club and the National Press Club. He worked for the Fight for Freedom Committee from September, 1940, to December, 1941, remaining on the payroll of the Louisville Courier-Journal during this time. While with this Committee he advocated greater assistance to England.

istributed by Bell to approximately 1,000 prominent individuals all over he United States, including some in Washington. In the first paragraph he memorandum set forth that unless drastic changes were made the Federal Bureau of Investigation seemed well on the way to failure in its all-important job of protecting the nation against espionage, sabotage and subversive activities. It stated that "inadequate personnel, insufficient specialized training, and a host of routine duties have conspired together to impair the effectiveness of the FBI's machinery for dealing with the crisis unless vigorous steps are taken soon." The memorandum alleged that the total investigative personnel of the FBI numbered less than 2,000 men, a force pitifully inadequate to protect a nation of 137,000,000 people against espionage and sabotage. The memorandum pointed out that there was one Agent to every 80,000 citizens. It was further alleged that the Agents generalized in their duties and that there was practically no specialization in espionage and sabotage work.

The memorandum continued by alleging that such a situation made it impossible to investigate all cases and that numerous complaints were merely listed in a card index file. The advisability of transferring trained investigators from other governmental units was suggested and it was stated that "the all-important task of maintaining national security requires the immediate formation of a separate division within the Federal Bureau of Investigation operating under its own divisional chief, this division to be responsible solely for the enforcement of the espionage and sabotage laws and other matters related to national security."

The Bureau was unable to learn the identity of all the individuals responsible for this memorandum. One Arthur J. Goldsmith stated that it was distributed by Bell but that it represented the thought of about a dozen prominent people interested in our national defense.

In view of the wholly unwarranted allegations in the memorandum which was peddled it is suggested that you keep this matter in mind in your future contacts with this individual.

Very truly yours,

TRADE VIEWS by W.R. WILKERSON

• THERE'S no question that there are several groups in Washington — the isolationists, some agencies and individuals in the present administration and the leaders of both political parties — who are doing everything possible to discredit the picture business and the picture makers in the eyes of the public. The reasons are very obvious and have been covered here in the past few days, but principally their motives are fear of the screen and fear of any stand the film industry could make on an issue IF that industry were united. Accordingly, if this business is to continue its progress, if it desires to throw off all the tentacles that are being built to throttle it for political purposes, if it is to continue as a business of ENTERTAINMENT, then we have to fight fire with fire and the industry MUST put up a united front.

Divided as the picture business is, particularly our leadership in production and distribution among the major companies, the industry hasn't got a chance with the Washington sharpshooters. They know of that division, they know the throat-cutting that continually goes on, they know how one picture faction hates the other and how each is looking for its individual safety and not that of the entire industry. Consequently, the only way to cure our trouble, and it IS a serious trouble, is to cure ourselves and unite FOR the whole picture business.

Once united and once represented by a capable head, there need be nothing else done to stand off those in Washington who seek to control all pictures and every screen. They will immediately realize our unification and, given a capable head, it won't be trifled with, because the medium is too powerful, can swing too much influence for them to fool with.

BUT will the industry ever unite? Will it ever agree on capable leadership? Will our heads ever come to the point of appointing a leader with the authority to lead. You doubt it? So do we. But it MUST be done if the business is to remain the business it is. Otherwise we will get outside control and a control that will ruin much of the progress that has been built, because that control knows nothing about entertainment, is not interested in it.

The consolation now resting in the tremendous boxoffice is temporary UNLESS the industry unites and cures itself from within.

THE motion picture industry is caught in a cross-fire of political shooting. The Republicans say motion picture interests have played up to and with the administration 100 percent, resulting in this party shooting at the business from every direction, encouraging and fomenting every kind of an investigation in the hope of bringing some part of the great picture influence into their camp. The Democrats, feeling that our picture leaders are now on their side, are constantly worried that this cooperation may be whittled to some extent and diverted to their opponents, so they, too, are doing everything to push additional fear into that timid leadership. So, harrassed from both ends, caught in the cross-fire, our heads are frightened to move one way or the other.

It only requires a few hours in Washington to see just what's going on. The New Dealers are worried by the realization that at least 75 percent of the nation's press is lined up against them. They know they can expect no help in the coming campaign from the press and they are doing everything they can to keep the picture business, with its great news coverage in the newsreels and "suggestions" for feature picture material, on their side. And, by hook or crook, the anti-New Dealers are doing everything to win some of that coverage to their side. So there you have it and there you have most of the reasons why the things that are happening and the things that are being said about the picture business are happening and being said.

It's a wicked cross-fire. It's a bloody fight, and our innocents are in the middle, getting slapped from both sides and slapped hard. Both parties realize this industry has no leadership and, whatever it does have, is so divided that there is no strength. They know and realize the past ten years of "Hays hate," with that body afraid to move out of its office and particularly into Washington, where it has no standing with either branch of the political forces. So one shoots at us and then the other, with our leaders seemingly content to read the daily boxoffice figures for their consolation, not realizing that those figures are a day-to-day relief, and that a big force, a more powerful one, is gradually being built up against us — the contro that is now being sought by the Army. That's virtually a quiet maneuver at present, but you watch it. They've now got a strangle hold on picture-making through a censorship we never thought could exist over our pictures. Many will deny it, but just let one of our studios make a picture the Army has previously flagged, and see what happens. If that's not censorship, then give us another word for it, but, under whatever title, the Army is dictating and that's its first move for control. It's serious business and don't kid yourself otherwise.

• ANY attack on the picture business is popular in Washington. There are those who use such attacks as publicity build-ups for themselves, being certain to hit the front pages with any criticism of the industry or its people; there are others, who have a wholesome respect for the influence of the screen, who see in the constant attacks a means of ridiculing the picture makers and casting a degree of impotence on any political activity that might be generated.

Politicians of both factions, Republican and Democratic, are continually propagandizing the picture issue with their inference that our picture makers are big, fat, bloated, rich and illiterate. They can say this, knowing there will be no defense. So, with that accusation dropped, they feel they have properly slotted our industry leaders. Too, they play very heavy on the anti-Semitic keys for their music and will seemingly stop at nothing in their attempt to ridicule the most important medium of information that the world has.

Yes, those Washington people know from past experience that they can get away with anything in the attempted subjugation of our picture makers. They know, because they realize how the industry is divided within itself. They know that no two company heads will agree on anything, that their united action on the Senate investigation was a freak encouraged by the White House and other important administration leaders to humiliate and kill off the isolationists in the Senate through a publicity that could only be accumulated by a movie background, not to protect the picture business from an investigation, but to swing a club at the isolationists. Accordingly, they say and do anything they care to about the business and, other than a mild protest here or there from one quarter or another, voiced by fear-stricken, appeasing company representatives, there is nothing, ABSOLUTELY NOTHING presented in defense of the world's greatest medium of expression.

The one thing that produces the greatest laugh from politicians is lack of organization on the part of their opponents. Certainly they classify the motion picture industry as opponents, because those vote-getters realize and have great respect for the power of the screen IF it should ever be exerted, but they know, under the present divided administration of the industry, there will be no opposition and the Washington boys want to keep it that way, resulting in the deal this business is getting back at the nation's capitol.

KOLOTOSOFF LEAVES FOR HOLLYWOOD POST

Producer to Represent Soviet Film Committee in U. S.

17

By Wireless to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

MOSCOW, July 5—Mikhail Kolotosoff, Georgian-born Soviet film producer, expects to be in Hollywood soon as the representative of the Soviet Film Committee, which controls the production and distribution of all Soviet and foreign films here.

Before leaving he said that as the first official Soviet representative to take up a permanent post in Hollywood he saw his task to be principally one of extending Soviet Russia's friendship with the United States. He plans to make a study of American film technique with the object of helping the Russian industry, and has a plan to exchange knowledge by bringing American movie experts to Moscow.

Mr. Kolotosoff is keenly interested in musicals and hopes to be able to help on a film built around Dmitri Shostakovich.

Mr. Kolotosoff was once a chauffeur in Tiflis and later studied in the Georgian Academy of National Art, where he became a studio director. His first success was with a documentary film which he treated in highly romantic style. He then made a film about high-altitude flying and another concerning Valerie Shchkaloff, a famous Soviet airman. He cooperated in the production of a recent film about Leningrad screened here under the title "Invincible."

His work is distinguished by its stylishness and highly imaginative quality. He has had considerable administrative experience.

He was received by Ambassador Litvinoff before starting on his journey.

PROPAGANDA PICTURES

Due to the fact that "MISSION TO MOSCOW", a propaganda picture, has been shown and has attracted the attention of the American public and has caused widespread comment in the press and over the radio and the further fact that it is known that quite a large number of pictures have been made and are in the course of being made, this report will deal with the so-called propaganda films, which have an effect favorable to the Communist ideology, together with identifying data about the directors, writers, actors, actresses, executives and the so-called intellectuals, who are engaged in producing such pictures. Effort will be made to show the Communist connection and the Communist Party influence and participation in production of such motion pictures.

Following the production and showing of the "MISSION TO MOSCOW", a propaganda motion picture favoring the Soviet system of government and economy and thereby indirectly favoring Communism in the United States, the motion picture industry has already released a number of pictures which have in a greater or less degree created a similar effect. In addition, there are now in preparation in the picture studios in Hollywood, a large number of motion pictures which undoubtedly contain propaganda of a like nature. In fact, the one subject, RUSSIA, and its place in the world of events today, is the favorite subject for motion pictures at the present time. This fact was brought out forcibly in an article published by the dramatic editor, VIRGINIA WRIGHT, of the Los Angeles Daily News, under date of June 5, 1943.

In part, she stated:

> "Warner Brothers' quip that 'MISSION TO MOSCOW' would 'put Russia on the map' is more truth than pleasantry, as far as the rest of Hollywood is concerned.
> "Band wagons for the USSR are trumpeting from Burbank to Westwood, from Culver City to Hollywood. Refusing to jump on is like insisting that talking pictures are just a passing fancy.
> "The Trotskyite press.....may stamp with all its bias on 'MISSION TO MOSCOW' but it can't stop the march. For whether or not the American public comes to know the real Russian people from this growing cycle, it will, at least, be more sympathetically disposed toward that ally.

"First of the new releases laid against Russian backgrounds probably will be Columbia's 'BOY FROM THE STALINGRAD'. LEWIS MILESTONE is completing LILLIAN HELLMAN'S drama, 'THE NORTH STAR' for SAMUEL GOLDWYN. Out at Metro in Culver City, while there are certain unexplainable delays, they're well along with a production called simply 'RUSSIA'.

"At RKO-radio CASEY ROBINSON is getting ready to produce 'REVENGE', a story of Russia's guerrilla fighters. Twentieth-Century Fox recently paid out $30,000.00 for the Broadway play 'THE RUSSIAN PEOPLE' and Paramount has called on screen writer JOHN WEXLEY to write the screen play 'THE CITY THAT STOPPED HITLER', as a tribute to Stalingrad.

"The cycle won't stop with the pictures already in production or preparation. Agents' offices are stacked with stories about Russia written by their clients."

In order that one may better understand the methods and the nature of the Communist infiltration into the motion picture industry and the influence of the Communist Party in the making of pictures of a propaganda nature, it is deemed necessary to take into consideration the changes in the Communist Party line brought about by the political and military changes.

Source A has informed that prior to June 22, 1941, while the HITLER-STALIN Non-aggression Pact was in full force and effect, Communist influences throughout the United States and in Hollywood especially, opposed the entry of the United States into the war, and also opposed all preparations for national defense, aid to England and France, the Selective Service Act, the Lend Lease Act and other preparations then under way in the United States toward national defense.

The Communists in Hollywood and the motion picture industry opposed the making of any pictures in Hollywood, which showed sympathy for the democracies.

They label all such efforts as "war propaganda" and "warmongering" and branded all who favored preparedness as "warmongers", but when HITLER attacked STALIN on June 22, 1941, the Communist Party line immediately changed and then called for all out aid to England and the Soviet Union, aid to China and full preparation for war. The strong Communist contingent in Hollywood immediately began clamoring and demanding that the motion picture industry make propaganda pictures supporting the war in all its phases. This situation offered the Communists a splendid opportunity to pose as ardent patriots supporting the United States in its war efforts, not because of their love for the United States, but because the United States was "now an ally of the Soviet Union". The Communists seized this opportunity to inject into motion pictures, under the guise of full support of the war, propaganda glorifying the Soviet Union and JOSEPH STALIN. This tactic has been used and is now being used in an ever-increasing clamor. The Communist Party, which has a very large following among the writers, directors, actors and others in the so-called cultural and creative departments of the motion picture studios, is using these people to inject propaganda into writings and pictures to build a case for Communism in the United States by making it appear by the use of their ideology that STALIN and the Soviet Union are waging a glorious fight against HITLER.

The Communist Party line now calls for the laying aside temporarily of all revolutionary objections and the confining of its open activities to patriotic prosecution of the war. Unless one is familiar with the past activities of the individual Communist, as well as his collective activities, it is very difficult to detect those who are projecting and carrying on the work of propaganda in the pictures. Persons will be named in this report whose present activities could not be criticized. It is only by an examination of their Communist background and activities that they can be detected. It must also be borne in mind that the present party line is only temporary; that should the exigencies of the Soviet Union demand a change in its foreign policy, the Communists of the United States will immediately react to such change, even to the extent of completely reversing their present alleged position and doing everything in their power to betray the United States. It must be remembered that the first loyalty of the Communists of the United States is to the Soviet Union and JOSEPH STALIN and as has been seen in the past by the various changes in the foreign policy of the Soviet Union and the consequent changes in the activities of the Communists in the United States, they will remain faithful to the United States, only when the interests of the United States are identical with the interests of the Soviet Union.

STALIN-HITLER PACT
AUGUST 23, 1939

After HITLER had overrun Poland and STALIN had exacted one-half of Poland as his share, a pact of non-aggression was signed which was in effect until June 22, 1941. During this period, the Communists called all who advocated preparedness for war "warmongers" and were against everything which was proposed in preparation for war and preparedness.

HITLER ATTACKS STALIN
JUNE 22, 1941,
AND BREAKS THE PACT OF AUGUST 23, 1939

Source B has delineated the position and changes in the Communist Party line as reflected in the motion picture industry in Hollywood. It is as follows: Since June 22, 1941, when HITLER violated the pact between himself and JOSEPH STALIN and invaded the Soviet Union, an event which changed the "line" of the Communist Party in the United States from one of isolation and opposition to the war to one of ardent patriotism and full support of the war, the influence of the Communist Party over the motion picture industry in Hollywood, and the penetration of that industry by Communists and fellow travellers has grown at an alarming rate. This change in the line of the Communist Party demanded that it, and its followers, take full advantage of the war situation to build the party's influence in all phases of American life. After the attack on the United States at Pearl Harbor, a situation was created that was ideal for the activities of the Communists, who could now pose as loyal patriots, devoted to the cause of democracy.

The Hollywood motion picture industry had long been a concentration point due to the value of that industry to them as a means of propaganda through pictures, a soft source of financial assistance and prestige. Consequently, when this war situation developed, the Communist Party threw everything it had into the Hollywood scene. The primary purpose of the effort was to influence the making of a type of picture that would be favorable to the Soviet Union and thus, indirectly, serve to boost the cause of Communism in the United States. As this effort was to influence the making of a certain type of motion picture, it was necessary to influence those persons engaged in the industry in the "cultural" fields, directors, writers, actors and others. In carrying out this part of the program, they were already well fitted, inasmuch as the Communists had, for many years, one of their strongest and most influential "front" organizations working in the motion picture industry.

LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS
Powerful Front Organization

Source B has also stated that this organization has now reached such a position of power and influence in the industry that it can be said that it practically dominates the cultural section of the motion picture industry. The LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS, since its inception in March, 1935, when the first congres was held in New York City, at the Mecca Temple, has been completely under the domination of the Communist Party. Although the present LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS was formed in 1935, it really had its beginning in 1930, when a congress of so-called "Revolutionary Writers" was held in Kharkov, Russia. In November of the year 1930, at this congress at which three delegates, HARRY POTELKIN, MICHAEL GOLD and ISIDOR SCHNEIDER from the United States were present, a plan was laid down to enlist writers everywhere throughout the world in the cause of Communism and the defense of the Soviet Union. Between that year and 1935, these "Revolutionary Writers" set up in the United States a series of JOHN REED CLUBS, named after the Communist revolutionary, JOHN REED, to carry on the work laid down at the Kharkov congress.

In March, 1935, a call was sent out for all writers to attend a congress to be held in New York City in that month. At this congress the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS was formed to take the place of the JOHN REED CLUBS. At this first congress, such known Communists as EARL BROWDER, MICHAEL GOLD, CLARENCE HATHAWAY, ISIDOR SCHNEIDER and many others were in attendance and delivered the main addresses and, in fact, dominated the proceedings. Since that time, a congress has been held every two years. At each of these congresses, the Communist Party has been in evidence and has had complete control of the organization. From its first inception to the present time, the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS has never faltered in its allegiance to theSoviet Union and the cause of Communism. The Hollywood chapter of the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS is its strongest unit. While the Hollywood Chapter of the League does not of itself openly control the Hollywood writing fraternity, it does so indirectly through its members' control of the SCREEN WRITERS' GUILD, THE WRITERS' UNION and the HOLLYWOOD WRITERS' MOBILIZATION. In addition to its influence over the writers engaged in writing and adapting plays for the screen, it has succeeded through its control over the HOLLYWOOD WRITERS' MOBILIZATION in placing its members in the Office of War Information and other government agencies. The LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS, operating through the HOLLYWOOD WRITERS' MOBILIZATION, which in turn affiliates with the WRITERS' WAR BOARD in New York, is exercising an influence of almost unlimited possibilities, not only in the making of motion pictures favorable to the Communist cause, but in shaping the propaganda put out by governmental agencies.]

[In addition to its influence exercised in the cultural departments, the League works in conjunction with the Communist-controlled labor unions in the picture industry, with the result that there has been built up in the Hollywood motion picture industry a machine which is well-nigh impregnable under the present war situation.]

WRITERS' MOBILIZATION

The motion picture trade magazine, "VARIETY", on July 22, 1942, under the heading, "CONGRESS OF WRITERS REPORT MADE TO MOBILIZATION", stated the following:—

> "A formulated report from the committee on a National Congress of Writers was submitted by JOHN HOWARD LAWSON, (correct name JACOB LEVY), last night at a meeting of the enlarged Steering Committee of the HOLLYWOOD WRITERS' MOBILIZATION. Preliminary plans call for representatives of the government, writers, journalism and radio to cover all phases of writer cooperation in the war effort.
> "It is recommended that a delegate or delegates be sent East to discuss the plans with a New York writers' group. Suggestion was made that MARC CONNELLY or SIDNEY BUCHMAN make the trip to represent the committee and that ROBERT ROSSEN, Chairman of the Steering Committee, represent the WRITERS' MOBILIZATION.
> "SIDNEY BUCHMAN reported on the cooperative group to be formed between the producers and the Writers' Mobilization, AL LEAVITT on educational program, the first feature of which will be a lecture by ERSKINE CALDWELL at the Roosevelt Hotel on July 31, 1942.

HISTORY OF THE LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS

EUGENE LYONS, in his book "THE RED DECADE", page 145, has stated the following with respect to the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS, under the principal heading "MORE PLANETS ARE LAUNCHED":

> "Only a congenital dunce can peruse the proceedings of the first Congress of American Revolutionary Writers, which launched the League of American Writers, and doubt that the show was carefully staged by the Communists. Every slogan of the Comintern was woven into the design of the performance. Its fundamental assumption was the perfection of STALIN'S Russia, including its new literature. Messages from Soviet writers threw the audience into spasms of orgiastic enthusiasm. Every address was a direct or indirect salute to the Kremlin.
> "Held in the New School for Social Research in New York, April 24-27, 1935, the congress occurred unknowingly on the very edge of the crumbling Third Period..... Its Muscovite inspiration was not yet muted and camouflaged; the adjective 'revolutionary' was not yet outlawed; the allegiance to Russia was not disguised. Such stratagems would confuse the issue in subsequent congresses and leave muddled literary people more muddled than ever. But now the affair was boldly Communist. BROWDER was well to the fore in the organizational stages. The fat little man with the tiny, frightened eyes, ALEXANDER TRACHTENBERG, head of the International Publishers and one of the party leaders, was busy moving scenery and prompting the actors.
> "MICHAEL GOLD was greeted as 'the best-loved American revolutionary writer' and accepted the accolade without protest. He boasted of the deepening cultural influence of the Communist Party, referring specifically to the success of the Theatre Union and the Group Theatre and to the dozens of revolutionary books rolling off capitalist presses.

"'Our writers must learn', said he, 'that the working class which has created a great civilization in the Soviet Union is capable of creating a similar civilization in this country!' He called on red writers to regard themselves thereafter as 'artists in uniform'.

"But the center of the stage was held by the party functionaries--GOLD, HATHAWAY, FREEMAN, TRACHTENBERG, OLGIN, et al.--without the concealment which would later become compulsory. The resolutions voted by the congress followed the Moscow line as closely as any party manifesto. The main address, of course, was BROWDER'S. 'The Communist Party', he declared, 'greets this historic Congress of American Writers. We are all soldiers, each in our own place, in a common cause. Let our efforts be united in fraternal solidarity'. The remarkable fact is that an organization as frankly Muscovite should, within less than twelve months, dare pretend to be independent and non-partisan. Only one fact is more remarkable: that so many hundreds of writers throughout the country should have believed the outrageous lie.

"Before the memory of the League's parentage is quite obliterated, let me list the founding fathers for the coming historian of literary curiosities. The call for the congress was signed by:

EARL BROWDER
MICHAEL GOLD
GRANVILLE HICKS
THEODORE DREISER
NATHAN ASCH
LESTER COHEN
EDWARD DAHLBERG
JOHN L. SPIVAK

JOSEPH E. DAVIES
Author of the book "MISSION TO MOSCOW"

Source C reveals that JOSEPH E. DAVIES, former Ambassador to Russia and author of the book, "MISSION TO MOSCOW", was in Hollywood, California, about June 30, 1942. On this date "THE HOLLYWOOD REPORTER", under the heading "DAVIES WILL AID ON W.B.'S 'MOSCOW'" stated:

> "Most important step in the production of pictures with a Russian background has been taken by Warners in getting Ambassador JOSEPH E. DAVIES to assist in the preparation of his book 'MISSION TO MOSCOW', which Warners will bring to the screen.
> "In addition to the book, DAVIES is adding personal papers, memoranda, private information and other documents to the large store of material collected."

DAVIES stated as quoted in "THE HOLLYWOOD REPORTER":

"I am enthusiastic that this motion picture to be produced by Warner Brothers will make a complete and frank portrayal of conditions, contributing to the better mutual understanding and confidence between two great peoples at this particular time and will be of paramount service to the cause of the United Nations and to free men everywhere."

On July 1, 1942, "THE HOLLYWOOD REPORTER" stated:

"HARRY M. WARNER is to leave Wednesday from Washington to rush 'MISSION TO MOSCOW' into production at the earliest possible moment. WARNER personally negotiated the deal with JOSEPH E. DAVIES, former Ambassador to Russia, for purchase of best seller. Picture to be released September 15. A statement issued in Washington by DAVIES said Warner Brothers paid him the highest amount ever paid for a book, but would not disclose the purchase price. DAVIES, who is coming to Hollywood to serve as Technical Director on the film, said he is donating the proceeds of the film rights sale to 'a public cause'.

In order to state the impressions one gathers from seeing this picture, it is necessary to state some of the background as it is believed to exist. It should be taken into consideration that the adaptation of the play from the book "MISSION TO MOSCOW" by JOSEPH E. DAVIES, former Ambassador to Moscow, was made by ERSKINE CALDWELL, long identified with Communist Party activity, having followed the line of the Party during all of its changes from the popular front period prior to 1939 through the period of the HITLER-STALIN Pact, which was signed on August 23, 1939, when CALDWELL opposed the Lend Lease Act, the Selective Service Act and adopted and supported the general program of the American Peace Mobilization. After HITLER attacked STALIN on June 22, 1941, CALDWELL followed the Communist Party line which called for "all out aid to Britain, the Soviet Union and China".

For years CALDWELL has been a member of the League of American Writers, a recognized Communist front organization. He has made a number of trips to Russia and is an outstanding propagandist for Communism, and has been for a number of years.

CALDWELL is recorded as an associate editor of "Soviet Russia Today". He went to Russia in 1941, and wrote the book "ALL OUT ON THE ROAD TO SMOLENSK", which is a glorification of the STALIN regime.

EUGENE LYONS in his book, "THE RED DECADE", under the heading "THE RED CULTURAL RENAISSANCE", stated in part:

> "If a history of highbrow lunacies in these United States is ever written, it will be necessary to devote a large part of its space to the strange career, roughly between 1930 and 1935, of Proletarian Culture, known familiarly to its caretakers as Proletcult. The noisiest of the litter were 'proletarian criticism' and 'proletarian literature', but there were also queer pups known as proletarian theatre, cinema, painting, sculpture, music, dancing, and so on.
> ....."A lot of budding and a few overripe novel writers suddenly became interested in the plain people and got all puffed up over their new virtue, as though UPTON SINCLAIR, JACK LONDON, WILLIAM DEAN HOWELLS and a lot of others had never written. And above all Proletcult beckoned to droves of third-rate writers, singers, dancers, critics who recognized the draft as a short cut to recognition and ready-made audiences. Mediocrity for once seemed very like a special artistic merit.

....."there were men and women of talent among the migrants. The fact that they counted JOHN DOS PASSOS, EDMUND WILSON, WALDO FRANK, SHERWOOD ANDERSON, THEODORE DREISER and younger men like JAMES T. FARRELL, PHILIP RHAV, ERSKINE CALDWELL, etc. is proof of this. But the gifted were smothered by the proletarian phonies, by politicians legislating for artists, artists pretending to be "dialecticians", communist sycophants and logrollers. Despite the admixture of genuine artistic and moral values, it all added up to a noisy and nonsensical circus.

....."It was an amazing show the circus put on, year after year. The 'NEW MASSES' oracles were ruthless to outsiders and firm with their own to keep them from straying. DOS PASSOS was reprimanded because he 'had not sufficiently emphasized the strength of the working class'. CALDWELL was warned that he 'very inadvertently suggests the latent power of the Southern proletariat'. Writers were condemned for 'unconscious fascism' and conscious social fascism even when they thought they were doing all right."

LYONS on page 147 of the same book lists CALDWELL as one of the "founding fathers" of the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS, along with and other Communists and fellow travellers.

The call of the Second Congress of the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS held in New York City on June 4-6, 1937, was signed by ERSKINE CALDWELL, MALCOLM COWLEY, WALDO FRANK, LANGSTON HUGHES, JOHN HOWARD LAWSON, ROBERT M. LOVETT, ARCHIBALD MacLEISH, UPTON SINCLAIR, DONALD OGDEN STEWART, ELLA MAE WINTER (wife of DONALD OGDEN STEWART) and other well known Communists and party line followers.

The "PEOPLE'S WORLD" for August 1, 1942, stated "Writer ERSKINE CALDWELL has been going like a house afire on 'MISSION TO MOSCOW', the Warner production of the book by ex-Ambassador, JOSEPH E. DAVIES. It took CALDWELL only two days to do the rough screen treatment."

Life Magazine for September 8, 1941, carried a story by CALDWELL entitled "RUSSIA IN WAR TIME", in which he stated that since early July, 1941, he was the first American correspondent to leave Moscow after the German invasion began. The story reflects that CALDWELL is the author of "TOBACCO ROAD" and "GOD'S LITTLE ACRES".

Confidential National Defense Informant LA 10-2 has advised that "MISSION TO MOSCOW", which is being produced in picture form, is completely controlled by the Soviet Embassy at Washington, even to the naming of the actors. Informant reported that one scene of the picture would show Trotsky plotting with German agents. Informant also advised that JAY LEYDA, a known Communist, is the principal advisor on the picture.

JAY LEYDA Technical Director
on "MISSION TO MOSCOW".

Source D has reported that JAY LEYDA, who was called in as Technical Director of the picture, has a long record of Communist activity. For several years prior to 1935, LEYDA was stationed in Moscow where he was director of propaganda, which was disseminated by way of the theatre and motion pictures. He came to America about 1935 and was connected with the Modern Film Library, an organization sponsored and supported by the Rockefeller Foundation. About 1939, LEYDA was discharged by that organization on account of his Communist activity. Also during that period LEYDA was the associate editor of "NEW THEATER", a Communist-controlled magazine dealing with the theaters and motion pictures in the United States. He has been a sponsor for and supporter of a large number of alleged Communist-front organizations in the United States. At the present time he is a member of, and active in the Hollywood League of American Writers. He lectures at the Hollywood Writers School, a project sponsored by the League of American Writers and completely under the domination and control of the Communist Party.

Source E advised that the following information would throw some light on the activities of Mr. LEYDA covering a period of years:

The Motion Picture Almanac for 1939-40 on Page 391, gives the following short biography of JAY LEYDA:

"JAY LEYDA, Assistant to Curator, Museum of Modern Art Film Library. Born Detroit, Michigan. In 1933 - 1936 studied in the State Institute of Cinematography, Moscow, Russia, and in the Soviet Film Industry. 1936, Modern Art Film Library." (New York City)

The Motion Picture Almanac for 1941 adds that LEYDA was born in Detroit, Michigan, in 1910; also that he was "on the Editorial Board of the quarterly magazine 'FILMS'". It also states that he is a "lecturer and critic".

In the Los Angeles Times for November 15, 1942, PHILIP K. SCHUEUR states "LEYDA is a Russian born American citizen".

The "NEW THEATER" for June, 1936, on Page 17, states that a delegation from the United States would visit the Soviet Union to attend the Soviet Theater Festival. It further stated "The delegation will be welcomed by prominent foreign critics and leading figures of the theater and screen arts, including TRETIAKOV, EISENSTEIN, FRIEDRICH WOLF, JAY LEYDA, LEON MUSSINAC, CHEN-I-WAN, and PISCATOR....."

Although LEYDA was in Moscow and had been there for some three or four years, according to his own biography given above, his name appears on the masthead of this "NEW THEATER" magazine as one of the "Associates" of the Editorial Staff. This magazine was a well-known Communist controlled publication, devoted to the theater and allied arts.

The New Leader of New York City for November 9, 1940, stated the following which relates to JAY LEYDA:

"NELSON A. ROCKEFELLER is one of those bright young millionnaires, who wants to do something constructive with the funds his grand dad pulled out of the oil fields. Being the son of an oil magnate he should be familiar with pipe lines--like those which the caviar comrades in New York have laid out between themselves and the oil millions.

"NELSON has an important job to do.

"Then why does NELSON jeopardize his reputation and that of his division, which is close to the Defense Commission, by permitting his Museum of Modern Art Film Library--an important center--to be run by those easily identified as fellow-tourists? RICHARD GRIFFITH is the new assistant curator of the Film Library. He was appointed by MISS BARRY, we understand from sources close to the Museum, to take the place of the Soviet-trained Propaganda Commissar JAY LEYDA. LEYDA, it will be recalled, served as curator for four years, practically ever since he left Moscow, until last July, when Miss BARRY, the curator, was compelled by public opinion to relieve him of his job.

"By substituting Mr. GRIFFITH, she hires a close friend and collaborator of LEYDA. GRIFFITH is a contributor to LEYDA'S magazine 'FILMS', which closely follows what the Soviet intellectuals consider a 'line'.

"Mr. GRIFFITH is also a member, and one of the chief publicity agents of the Communist-controlled Association of Documentary Film Producers.

"Too much importance cannot be placed on the role which will be played by the documentary film in the propaganda which will necessarily be part of this nation's life during the next few years. Mr. ROCKEFELLER is privileged to hire whom he wants, but this is a vital international job, in which films will play a big part....the rest is obvious..."

The "New LEADER" for March 22, 1941, states the following, with respect to JAY LEYDA:

"Last year this column exposed Communist infiltration into the Film Library of the Modern Museum. We revealed that one of its directors was JAY LEYDA, former employee of Moscow's Bureau of International Revolutionary Literature. All of which is Mr. LEYDA'S privilege.

"But Mr. LEYDA was hired in Moscow by IRIS BARRY, curator of the film library. Which is NELSON A. ROCKEFELLER'S privilege. He owns the museum, along with JACK WHITNEY and a few others.

"But along comes news that Mr. ROCKEFELLER, who directs the DNAC division of cultural and commercial relations with South America, will launch an intensive program for the collection and production of informative and educational non-theatrical motion pictures to be shown before cultural groups in Latin-American countries. The program, undertaken with the cooperation of the State Department will be carried out by the Film Library, Inc., of the Museum of Modern Art of New York.

"We learn from SEYMOUR STERN, one of the nation's experts in movie history, that the Library is still the center of the tovarischi's documentary film crowd, top man of which is JORIS IVENS, now in Hollywood trying to get backing for a series of documentary films."

The "NEW LEADER" for October 4, 1941, states the following with respect to JAY LEYDA:

"Our theatrical agents pass on to us the fact that despite repeated warnings NELSON A. ROCKEFELLER has permitted JAY LEYDA, Moscow-trained film expert, to emerge as a producer of cultural messages for showing south of the border, yi, yi, yi, yi, or maybe oi, oi, oi, oi..... Mr. LEYDA'S first opus, now in preliminary stages, is addressed at the Rockefeller-Whitney cultural relations program for the Latin Americas. The working title is 'Better Dresses, Fifth Floor'. Fifth Avenue public relations offices have indicated that the Bonwit shop and Sak's have not been found 'available' for location work. By the way, has anyone, anywhere heard of an active anti-Communist getting a government job?"

EUGENE LYONS in his book "THE RED DECADE", states on Page 139 the following:

"The New Theatre boasted what is probably the largest group of 'contributing editors' ever published at one time. Besides the party wheel horses it included ANITA BLOCK, HALLIE FLANAGAN (subsequently head of the Federal Theatre Project), VIRGIL GEDDES, PAUL and Mrs. PAUL SIFTON, JAY LEYDA, H. W. L. DANA, LANGSTON HUGHES, ROBERT FORSYTHE, MURIEL RUKEYSER, and others."

The same book on Page 247 and 248, under the main heading "Hooray for Murder!", states the following:

"The variety of the signers of this amazing whitewash of STALIN prepared by movie actors and scientists must stand as a symbol of the Red Decade. Its insanity was surpassed only once, fifteen months later, by four hundred experts who publicly denied the possibility of any common ground between Russia and Germany--nine days before the two nations made their alliance in the Kremlin. Here, for the record, is the distinguished list, exactly as published by the Daily Worker of April 28, 1938:" (The name of JAY LEYDA appears in this list.)

Mr. LYONS on Page 348 of the same book, under the main heading "The Last Loony Scene ", states the following:

"Among the signatories of the 400-signature letter were at least 29 who had also graced the famous 150-signature letter whitewashing the Moscow trials and purges. To have given support to two such documents rates them a special listing as stooges-cum-laude, so here they are:" (The name of JAY LEYDA appears in this list of 29 names.)

ROBERT H. BUCKNER Producer of the Picture
"MISSION TO MOSCOW"

Source F advised that Mr. BUCKNER was born in Crewe, Virginia, May 28, 1906. He was educated at the University of Virginia, the University of Edinburgh, Scotland, and Ecole Polytechnique, Paris, France. He is a news reporter and writer by profession. After graduation, he was engaged in newspaper work abroad. In 1934 and 1935 he was located in Moscow, Russia, as correspondent for the London Daily Mail. In 1936, during the war by Italy on Ethiopia, he was a war correspondent in Ethiopia. At various times during his career as a writer, he has contributed various kinds of material to different magazines.

In 1938 he was brought to Hollywood by WARNER BROTHERS, where he wrote screen plays for motion pictures. About a year ago, when the "MISSION TO MOSCOW" was contemplated, he was made associate producer and was given the job of producing that picture for WARNER BROTHERS.

While there is no open record of Communist activities on his part known at this time, he did personally select JAY LEYDA to act as Technical Director for the picture. In that position he was responsible for the selection of the writers and actors for the picture.

It also appears that at the time Mr. BUCKNER was in Moscow in 1934 and 1935, JAY LEYDA was there also and was connected with the Bureau of Revolutionary Literature and the Soviet Motion Picture Industry. It is therefore very probable that Mr. BUCKNER and Mr. LEYDA were acquainted with each other at that time. Private and confidential sources reveal that Mr. BUCKNER is sympathetic to Soviet philosophy, and was during the time he was abroad before coming back to the United States. The same source stated that for this reason he was selected to oversee the production of the above-named picture.

A check has been made of the pictures on which BUCKNER was employed as a writer before he was selected as the producer of "MISSION TO MOSCOW". This check reveals that he has not worked on anything of a political nature, but that his time and talent were devoted to melodrama and light comedy.

MICHAEL CURTIZ
Listed as the Director of
"MISSION TO MOSCOW"

MICHAEL CURTIZ appears in the official statement issued to the public through the tradepapers and publicity sheets issued by WARNERS. Investigation reveals that MICHAEL CURTIZ is an Austrian by birth, who has been in the United States about five years. He claims that he is a naturalized citizen. It is reported that CURTIZ has had very little experience as a director of pictures and that "MISSION TO MOSCOW" was directed by JAY LEYDA as appears above. No subversive activities on the part of CURTIZ are known, but he goes along with the Communist line.

FRANK HEATH
Assistant Director
"MISSION TO MOSCOW"

FRANK HEATH is listed as "Assistant Director" in the publicity sheets issued by WARNER BROS. It is stated that he, as Assistant Director, had nothing to do with the nature or character of the picture, that he was merely a detail man to look after the cast. The records of possible subversive activities on his part are negative.

HOWARD KOCH
Screen Play Writer

HOWARD KOCH appears in the official statement and publicity sheets issued by WARNER BROS. as the "Screen Play" writer of the "MISSION TO MOSCOW". The information is that KOCH did not write "MISSION TO MOSCOW" and little is known about him; that the fact is that "MISSION TO MOSCOW" was written by ERSKINE CALDWELL as shown above.

WALTER HUSTON
Leading man in the Cast playing the role of JOSEPH E. DAVIES

Source G advised that WALTER HUSTON, who played the part of Ambassador DAVIES in "MISSION TO MOSCOW", attended a meeting at the Shrine Auditorium on November 8, 1942, on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Soviet Republic. The celebration was "a salute to our Russian Ally". This American Soviet Friendship Rally was attended by more than five thousand people. WALTER HUSTON served as a member of the invitation committee and also on the "program and arrangements committee".

At this meeting, many Communist circulars and booklets were distributed and sold. The meeting was declared to be a decidedly Communist meeting.

Source G has stated that WALTER HUSTON was elected a member of the Executive Board of the Hollywood Democratic Committee on March 4, 1943. This informant has also stated that this organization is "definitely a Communist front organization" and is a revival of the old Motion Picture Democratic Committee which was a Communist front organization under a changed name, that the personnel of these two organizations was practically the same.

JORIS IVENS
Friend of WALTER HUSTON and JAY LEYDA

JORIS IVENS is a close associate of WALTER HUSTON and JAY LEYDA. The "HOLLYWOOD REPORTER" for January 16, 1942, page thirteen, announced that JORIS IVENS had made a documentary film, "OUR RUSSIAN FRONT" with LEWIS MILESTONE as director and WALTER HUSTON as narrator, written by ELLIOT PAUL, an artkino (Russian), production distributed under the auspices of the Russian War Relief, Inc.

The JACK TENNEY Investigating Committee of the California State Legislature reported the following with respect to JORIS IVENS:

The report stated that the Los Angeles Daily News for December 19, 1941, states the following: "IVENS is on his way to becoming a citizen .....has his first papers." The report further stated that IVENS is leaving for Washington, D. C., where he is to interview officials of the State Department with a view to making documentary pictures on Dutch East Indies and that he is to present another idea to the Department of Agriculture. He will do defense pictures.

The report further states, "Subject is a Dutch Communist. He plied back and forth between Holland and the Soviet Union in the early 1930's. He was an instructor in Revolutionary Literature in Moscow. The report also stated he was also an instructor in Film University in Moscow and during this time made documentary films in Holland.

The New Theatre Magazine of 1935-1936 mentions him many times. This was a Communist Party publication.

The report states that IVENS did "Zeuderzee Project" (Holland's WPA), a so-called documentary picture. He was connected with Phillips Radio, a European concern, in 1933 and 1934.

He did the picture, "The New Earth", a Communist line picture, in 1934.

In 1936, and 1937, he photographed a documentary film written by ERNEST HEMINGWAY, on the Spanish War called "The Spanish Earth". This picture was distributed through the Communist Party channels and it was praised by Communist Party publications, particularly the magazine, "New Theatre".

The report further stated that IVENS made a film in China in 1938-1939, "Four Hundred Million" which also followed the Communist Party line and was praised by Communist publications and distributed through Communist Party channels. He spent considerable time at Formosa. It is not known what he did there.

He made, "The Power and the Land" depicting rural electrification in connection with the Tennessee Valley Authority in 1940. This, too, was praised by the Communist press.

The report further stated that IVENS was in the Modern Film Library of the Rockefeller Foundation in New York City and worked behind the scenes with JAY LEYDA in putting over the Communist Party program in this institution. The TENNEY report further stated that IVENS announced the formation of the "Institute of Film Technique" at City College, New York City, with JOHN GRIERSON of Canada, ALICE V. KELLIHER of Massachusetts, and WILLARD VAN DYKE.

The same source stated that the "PEOPLE'S WORLD" for October 9, 1941, page five, mentions IVENS as an "outstanding leader in the documentary film field". This source also stated that IVENS was one of the organizers of "Communist Film and Photo League" in New York City in 1933 or 1934, that he worked in the Modern Film Library, a Communist Center in New York City, for a number of years. It was also stated he made a number of Communist propaganda short subjects.

Source H stated that IVENS is a motion picture director, who specializes in the production of "documentary films", that he was born in Holland and claims to be a naturalized American citizen. Before coming to the United States early in 1936, IVENS was active as a motion picture director in Holland and the Soviet Union. It was in the latter country where he received his schooling in "collective work", according to a statement which he made in an article written by himself in the "New Theatre" magazine for October, 1936, on page nine. This magazine was a publication devoted to the stage and screen and was a distinct medium for propagation of the Communist Party line.

Source H stated that IVENS' first production to gain attention was a film called "Borimage" which dealt with a particularly vicious situation in the mines in Belgium. It was described in Communist publicity circles as a "drama of revolutionary truth".

This picture was strongly censored by the New York Board of Censors and much of the content was removed before it was shown publicly.

Source H stated that upon his arrival in Hollywood in 1936, IVENS took part in Communist front activities and he interested himself in the agricultural strikes that were then prevalent in California. He was in constant association with such well known Communists and fellow travellers as HERBERT BIBERMAN, LILLIAN HELLMAN, TESS SLESSINGER, SIDNEY BUCHMAN, IRVING REIS, VIOLA BROTHERS SHORE, DONALD OGDEN STEWART and others of that clique.

Source H stated that during the Spanish Civil War, IVENS went to Spain, and in company with ERNEST HEMINGWAY, photographed war scenes there and made the picture called "Spanish Earth", a propaganda film following the Communist Party line. Informant stated that IVENS was connected with the Modern Film Library, a project set up by the Rockefeller Foundation, New York City. He also stated that at the same time, IVENS was President of the Association of Documentary Film Producers, 1585 Broadway, New York City.

Source H stated that in addition to the above activities, IVENS also made a picture called, "The Four Hundred Million". It was made in China and was a propaganda picture following the Communist Party line.

Source H further stated that in 1940, IVENS was employed by the United States Government Rural Electrification Administration Project, under the direction of PARE LORENTZ. The picture, "The Power and the Land", was made with the object in view of "putting over" rural electrification in the United States.

The same source further stated that in 1939, IVENS was a sponsor for an organization called the Motion Picture Guild, the purpose of which was to produce pictures of a propaganda nature following the Communist Party line.

One picture particularly was considered. It was based on the book, "School for Barbarians". The book was written by ERIKA MANN, a well-known fellow traveller and a refugee from Germany.

Source H stated that the sponsors of this organization were HERBERT BIBERMAN, LILLIAN HELLMAN, TESS SLESSINGER, IRVING REIS and SIDNEY BUCHMAN. He also stated that all of the parties named are well known Communists or fellow travellers of long standing in Hollywood.

Source H further stated that IVENS has been in Hollywood since 1941, and has been active in Communist circles. He is associated with such organizations as the League of American Writers, Hollywood Writers' Mobilization and various Russian relief organizations. Informant stated that in connection with LEWIS MILESTONE, a Hollywood motion picture director and for many years a fellow traveller, IVENS made a documentary picture, "Our Russian Front". This picture was shown at the Filmarte Theatre, Hollywood, on March 4, 1942, to raise funds for the Russian War Relief Association.

Source H stated that WALTER HUSTON was the narrator and is the same WALTER HUSTON who appeared in "MISSION TO MOSCOW". He stated that ELLIOT PAUL, writer of the picture, "Our Russian Front", has long been connected with Communist activities in Hollywood, that he is a member of the League of American Writers, and was a leader in the American Peace Mobilization and was active in other organizations of this nature.

Source H stated that DIMITRI TIOMKIN, a Russian composer who has followed the Communist Party line, was associated with IVENS in this venture. Source H stated that IVENS also made the picture, "Action Stations", a convoy picture, for the Canadian Government. He further stated that IVENS is at the present time cooperating with Communist elements as he has been doing for the past several years. He also stated that IVENS is considered one of the leading propagandists in the documentary film field.

The School For Writers in Hollywood, California, issued a prospectus for the summer term for 1943, in which JORIS IVENS is listed as the instructor of "documentary films", which is a series of lectures at which selected documentary films will be shown. It stated that the class and the instructor will discuss in detail the practical problems of writing and filming the documentary films, with special emphasis on the role of the documentary film in the war. It also stated that IVENS was the producer-director of "Spanish Earth", "Four Hundred Million", "Power and the Land" and most recently, "Action Stations" for the Canadian Government. It also stated that IVENS is "a member of the faculty of the Art and Cinema Department, U.S.C.". (University of Southern California)

ROMAN BOHNEN
Actor who played the role of
NIKOLAI KRESTINSKY

Source I advised that ROMAN BOHNEN is an actor and is a member of the League of American Writers and has been connected with Communist Party activities for the past eight years or more. He was active in the New Theatre League and other theatre groups affiliated with the International Union of Revolutionary Theatres with headquarters at Moscow, Russia. He is now an instructor in the project called, "Actors' Lab", a Communist cultural school of acting in Hollywood.

OSCAR HOMOLKA
Actor who played the role of
MAXIM LITVINOV

Source J has stated that HOMOLKA is a Russian and is a well-known fellow traveller in Hollywood. He stated that HOMOLKA is a professional actor and has been for many years, that his social activities are confined to the fellow travelling activities in Hollywood.

Source J further stated that HOMOLKA has supported a number of Communist front organizations in Hollywood and his sympathies are with this group. He further stated that for the past two or three years, HOMOLKA has spent a vacation of some two or three months' duration in Washington, D. C., at which times he was a guest of the Russian Embassy.

Source J further stated that Mr. and Mrs. OSCAR HOMOLKA were sponsors of the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee Banquet which was given at the Beverly Hills Hotel for the benefit of that organization.

VLADIMIR SOKOLOFF
Actor who played the part of President KALININ of the Soviet Republic

Source K has reported that SOKOLOFF, who took the part of President KALININ of the Soviet Republic, in the picture "MISSION TO MOSCOW", is a Russian and has been an actor in Hollywood for many years. He stated that SOKOLOFF belongs to the same organizations to which HOMOLKA belongs, that they were great friends and associates. He stated that SOKOLOFF devotes a great deal of his time to arranging affairs for the Russian War Relief.

HELMUT DANTINE
Actor who played the part of
Major KAMENEV

HELMUT DANTINE is an Austrian by birth and served in the Austrian Army in the first World War. He was later connected with the German Diplomatic Service.

Source L has informed that the other persons mentioned in the "Cast and Credits" and "Cast of Characters" of "Mission to Moscow" are the general run of the motion picture industry and that very little, and in some instances nothing, is known about them and they are not people who influence the nature and character of the picture in which they appear in any way.

Newspaper Comment

The trade magazine, "VARIETY" for June 1, 1943, stated the following with respect to "MISSION TO MOSCOW":

> "The Republican National Committee issued a single sheet, larger than a newspaper page, reprinting criticisms from DOROTHY THOMPSON, WESTBROOK PEGLER, BENJAMIN DE CASSERES, Time mag and others. Over all, on the reprint page, was the banner line, 'Mission to Moscow' Denounced as Phony Propaganda. On the page also was a Republican editorial titled 'Is the New Deal Implicated?'"

The article further stated, "President Roosevelt's personal ambassador and campaign contributor, JOSEPH E. DAVIES, participated in Hollywood in the production of the film and undoubtedly aided in its final editing. Would he have done so without White House consent?"

"LOWELL MELLETT, White House intimate and Office of War Information's personal representative in Hollywood, was on the ground during the filming of 'Mission to Moscow'. He has ordered that all scripts before and during production be presented to him. Is it possible that an exception was made for this film affecting so directly America's international relations?"

"There can be little doubt that the furore over 'Mission to Moscow' was created by an American element of Communists whose purge by Russia is so effectively dramatized in the picture."

"The entire bitter attack on the picture thus becomes a bitter attack on principle, rather than on the picture as such, and boils down to the unfounded accusation that it is 'propaganda for a lie'.

The same issue of "Variety" in a different article under the headline, "Hull Okayed 'Mission'" stated the following:

"Reports here are that the State Department first viewed and approved WB 'Mission to Moscow' before it was given public showing .....which has not stopped the Congressional shot-gunning at the film which, after the initial plug in the Congressional Record, has now been the subject of three left jabs in that tone from three western Congressmen."

"Variety" for May 26, stated in part: "Warners 'Mission to Moscow' is still taking the bumps in Congress. Representative MARTIN T. BENNETT of Missouri inserted the latest slug in the appendix of today's Congressional Record under the title, 'Hollywood and Communism'.

"BENNETT wound up and let go with this: 'Hollywood, in its usual extreme style, has apparently lost its head and gone completely overboard in its attempt to make Communism look good'."

The Los Angeles Examiner for May 25, 1943, under the headline, "The American Viewpoint", quoted a letter which JACK WARNER had addressed to WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST complaining about the critical attitude of the Examiner relative to "Mission to Moscow" and requesting Mr. HEARST to "print the other side also in your valuable papers".

The Examiner carried the complete letter which WARNER addressed to HEARST and the latter's reply thereto. HEARST'S reply to WARNER is as follows:

"May 19, 1943.

"Mr. JACK WARNER
WARNER BROS. MOTION PICTURES CO.,
New York City, New York.

Dear JACK:

"I certainly do not wish anything to impair our friendship and I hope that criticism of any screen product offered for public patronage and customarily subject to public criticism will not be considered an unwarranted or an unfriendly act.

"Our papers printed the criticism by Professor DEWEY and SUZANNE LaFOLLETTE of your film, 'Mission to Moscow', because we thought that criticism presented not only a truly American viewpoint, but a factual statement of the situation, and that both an American viewpoint and a factual statement were necessary for the enlightenment of the public.

"You say our papers 'should state the other side of the case in reply to such attacks as DEWEY and LaFOLLETTE'.

"Your film, Mr. WARNER, gives 'the other side of the case' - the Communist side - quite completely.

"My contention is that it is entirely essential, not only in the interests of FAIRNESS, but in the interests of FREEDOM, for an American newspaper to print the ANTI-Communist - the DEMOCRATIC side of the case.

"I think it is quite as much the duty of the American press to defend Democracy against Bolshevism as against Fascism or Nazism or any other form of totalitarian tyranny.

"I am sorry that we disagree on the proper function of the press, - and of the moving picture.

"But I am sure that you will realize that our attitude toward your screen product (an attitude so frequently favorable, but in this case frankly critical) is guided by no personal unfriendliness, but merely by a sense of public duty.

"Sincerely,

"W. R. HEARST."

ALVAH CECIL BESSIE is referred to in the letter of reference in which it is stated that he is "a writer for the 'NEW MASSES', Communist Party organ for the 'intelligentsia', one ALVAH BESSIE is also in Hollywood".

Source H reveals that BESSIE was born in New York City on June 4, 1904; that he attended the De Witt Clinton High School, New York City, and graduated from Columbia University in 1924; that he won the GUGGENHEIM FELLOWSHIP in 1935; that he was dramatic and book editor for the Brooklyn Daily Eagle from 1936 to 1937. This source further reveals that BESSIE went to Spain on February 3, 1938, and enlisted in the Abraham Lincoln Battalion and was later made the front line correspondent for the Brigade's official organ, "VOLUNTEER FOR LIBERTY", as B. ALSTERLUND.

Source M further advised that BESSIE came to Burbank, California, and gave his address as in care of Warner Brothers Studio.

Source M stated that BESSIE was instructor at the Communist Workers School and that a booklet put out by the Workers School stated that ALVAH CECIL BESSIE will teach "Literature and the World We Live in". This source stated that this course will attempt to relate the world in which we live to some outstanding achievement of the literary art of our time.

Source M further stated that the leading dramatic writers of our period (STEINBECK, SHOLOKOV, RICHARD WRIGHT, LILLIAN HELLMAN, HEMINGWAY, ALBERT MALTZ, CLIFFORD ODETS, TIEN CHUN, FRANZ WEISKOPF and ANNA SEGHERS) will be used as a point of departure for discussions of the history of social institutions as they have been reflected by the great writers of all time.

This prospectus listed BESSIE as a "novelist, short-story writer, critic, staff writers for 'NEW MASSES', author of 'BREAD AND A STONE', 'MEN IN BATTLE' and 'DWELL IN WILDERNESS'".

Source M has further advised that BESSIE is a member of the National Board of the League of American Writers and is a teacher and lecturer in the Hollywood Writers School; that he is also on the Studio Committee of the Screen Writers Guild and at the present time is writing on a picture for the Warner Brothers Studio.

Source N revealed that on March 26, 1943, BESSIE wrote a letter to Corporal MILTON WOLFF, Station Complement, Camp Wheeler, Georgia. WOLFF was an officer in the Loyalist army in Spain during the Spanish Civil War and was the National Commander of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade in the United States in 1939.

The letter is as follows:

"2924 Montcalm Avenue
Los Angeles, California

March 26, 1943

"That'll learn you. You dirty red. Whyn't you think of all these things long ago before you went to Spain to help those dirty reds? Or whyn't you be like me--sell out to the enemy? You know what happened. The Pres. say that I was too damaging to the status quo on NM, so he called his friend Jack L. Warner (they're just like that), and said, Jack old guy, that Bessie guy is getting too much influence. Now these reds, he said, they can be bought. So Jack, here I am working for the enemy, writing a Great War Picture in which I have two characters--Marines--one modeled after Sergeant Hermann Boettcher, the other after Major Evens Carlson. How long they'll remain in the picture is anybody's guess, but I'll try. So I get elected to the studio committee of the Screen Writers Guild; and they make me a Red Cross Captain, and I collect over 2000 from 20-odd writers and everybody loves me. And you are in the brig. You can always try that chloropicrine out on yourself, if the going gets too tough. Lucky you. Me, I like my garlic in the salad bowl. Dick Rusciano has turned up in the Arizona desert, on maneuvers among the sidewinding rattlesnakes, Gila Monster, tarantulas and Black Widows (a species of spider, not a dame). His address, if you want it is [redacted] You are soaking and he is broiling. I'll let you know when a screen credit is coming up. Not for a year, anyhow, as it takes that long to release a picture once it's finished being written and goes into production. So save your pennies. But see: Airforce, The Edge of Darkness, Action in the North Atlantic. They're all good; the latter two better than you'd believe. All WB pix.

PURGE TRIALS
ACCORDING TO EUGENE LYONS

EUGENE LYONS in "THE RED DECADE" under the heading "HOORAY FOR MURDER" gives the following information relative to the purge trials and the attitude of the American Communists relative to the same.

Beginning on page 246, he states in part:

"A definitive judgment of the Moscow trials, and of the mass killings without trial behind them, calls for a profound knowledge of the Russian Revolution, its leaders, its ethics and motivations. As a minimum it presupposes a thorough study of the trial records, the literature of exposure outside Russia, an intimate familiarity with the life stories of the Old Bolsheviks actually on trial."

"But there were some 150 Americans for whom the problem was easy as pie. They saw in it neither mystery nor confusion. They knew and proclaimed their knowledge. With sweeping self-confidence that savors of higher revelation they diagnosed the Russian purges and made their findings public. Those findings were not tentative, theirs was an unqualified and unequivocal verdict, justifying JOSEPH STALIN and his overworked executioners.

The Daily Worker for April 28, 1938, related the story in the following fashion:

"Nearly 150 prominent American artists, writers, composers, editors, movie actors, college professors and Broadway figures yesterday issued a statement in support of the verdict of the recent Moscow trials of the Trotskyite-Bukharinite traitors.".....the amateur jurists gave it as their solemn and considered, nay impassioned opinion that the trials "have by sheer weight of evidence established a clear presumption of the guilt of the defendants". They even went beyond their moral and juridical verdict to warn that "the preservation of progressive democracy" in our own country makes it necessary for democrats and progressives--that is to say, themselves--to "support" STalin's policy of blood purges."

"Who were these specialists in history and Soviet law? The miracle of such certainty on perplexing matters of revolutionary facts and ethics flourishing all unsuspected on Broadway and on Hollywood lots is an American phenomenon worthy of note outside the Daily Worker and the New Masses to which the glad news was at that time confined.

"Only 123 of the 150 were named in the Communist press. The missing 27 must therefore be deprived of the immortality of these pages. Those in the published list included such famous Russian and legal authorities as Lionel STANDER, MURIEL DRAPER, DASHIELL HAMMETT, DOROTHY PARKER, PHILIP LOEB, HAROLD J. ROME---which is to say, comedians, lyricists, actors, society ladies and fiction writers. But the list also included scholars and scientists."

....."Many of those who signed this judgment have since then publicly denounced their own frivolity in thus endorsing official murder; but this is history and the record stands. A letter soliciting signatures to this whitewash was sent on April 2, 1938, by a committee of five self-identified 'liberals and progressives'. Their names should be enshrined in some museum of political curiosities: ROBERT COATES, MALCOLM COWLEY, STUART DAVIS, MARK BLITZSTEM and PAUL STRAND."

"The combination of liberalism, progress, Stalin's staged trials and executions without trial is sufficiently astonishing. But it pales before the context of the letter itself. These gentlement argued that the gory Russian doings were really brilliant maneuvers for freedom, democracy and a superior kind of justice. The logic might be roundabout and obscure, but to these five sponsors, the business was at bottom a defense of individual rights and cultural liberties. Those honored with an invitation were apprized as follows:-- 'Your voice--------will lend even greater weight to the worldwide defense of the right of the individual to speak, write, create and otherwise engage in cultural activity in complete freedom'."

STATEMENT OF HARRY M. WARNER

The "PEOPLE'S WORLD" for May 29, 1943, under the heading "H. M. WARNER: FILMS DARE NOT SHIRK JOB OF GUIDING PEOPLE", quotes H. M. WARNER as having made the following statement, in part:

"When this war is over, Warner Brothers does not want to be known as the company that made the greatest musical movie during the war.

"We will leave the fairy tale version of the world we live in to that small group of entertainment appeasers which is presently at work in this industry or being pressured by groups from the outside. It is this group which refuses to recognize that the American motion picture audience has an adult mind. .....it is the people who are fighting this war and it is the people who must be given every opportunity to examine each why and wherefore. If it has been our good fortune to be among the pilots and industry capable of presenting information and understanding in the most palatable form yet devised, then let us steer a proper course."

....."Let's pay no heed to the apologists among us. We have a vital role to play in this drama and an awaiting audience that is literally starving for brain food.

....."Remember this; ignorance never won any kind of a fight and there is little reason to believe that timidity will help it win this one.

....."And to the exhibitors of the country I want to say, don't be intimidated or coerced by persons who are not whole-heartedly behind our war effort; don't be influenced by those who are trying to keep the truth from your audiences.

"The exhibitor's responsibility to his community today is bigger than it ever has been. He is one of the most important bulwarks of the home front. Like the newspapers and the radio, he must do his part in keeping the people informed as well as entertained. Any arbitrary exclusion of war films, either to satisfy a small appeaser element or for personal reasons without regard to the general public interest is equivalent to sabotage.

"I don't believe there is an exhibitor anywhere who wants to shirk his duty. I know every single one of them wants to be right there in the front line doing his utmost to help bring an early end to the war.

"In theyears to come the contributions of our industry to the winning of the war will be tabulated and appraised. By what we are doing now we will be judged in the future."

"ACTION IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC", a Warner Brothers Production.

This picture is a Warner Brothers production. It was released about June 1, 1943. It is a melodrama and deals with the convoys in the North Atlantic on the way to Murmansk, Russia.

The play is based on a story by GUY GILPATRIC, and deals with the sailors of the Merchant Marine in transporting war munitions from the United States to Russia.

The trade magazine "Variety" listed the cast of this picture as follows:

The director of the play was LLOYD BACON. The producer was JERRY WALD. The screen play was adapted from the story by JOHN HOWARD LAWSON.

The dialog was written by A. I. BEZZERIDES, a member of the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS.

Source "O" has stated that this picture is highly melodramatic and consists of violent action such as would take place in conflict between submarines and merchant vessels and convoys. In the picture there is no Communist ideology expressed openly or directly; however, when the picture was being made, the writer, JOHN HOWARD LAWSON, who is a known Communist of long standing and fanatically active in that cause, took advantage of this opportunity to glorify the NATIONAL MARITIME UNION, a Communist controlled seaman's union. The picture gives the impression that this particular union is ardently devoted to the cause of the "United Nations and Democracy", although this union before Russia was attacked by HITLER on June 22, 1941, was most violent in its denunciation of the imperialist war and was one of the principal sponsors of the AMERICAN PEACE MOBILIZATION. It sent its members to picket the White House in Washington in protest against the Lend Lease Act. The slogan of this union during the pact period was, "No Convoys".

JOHN HOWARD LAWSON and the director, LLOYD BACON, spent much time in the headquarters of the NATIONAL MARITIME UNION at San Pedro, California, when preparing the story. At the time that the picture was being shot, LAWSON brought in JAMES DRAKE, the West Coast head of the NATIONAL MARITIME UNION at San Pedro, to act as adviser in making the picture. Much publicity about this particular union was put out by the press department of the studio glorifying the NATIONAL MARITIME UNION. This source stated that this picture has the official endorsement of many Communist controlled unions, and has been widely heralded in the Communist press, which has mentioned that JOE CURRAN's Union, the NATIONAL MARITIME UNION, and HARRY BRIDGES' Longshoremen are doing a great job for defense, and that this picture has helped to bring home that fact to the American people.

This source further stated that of the actors in the cast, RAYMOND MASSEY, HUMPHREY BOGART, and SAM LEVENE have been followers of the Communist Party line to a limited degree, but they are not known to be members of the Communist Party.

The "People's World", special Hollywood edition, for March 27, 1943, page 1, contains a lead article describing this motion picture in most glowing terms. It deals with the content of the picture as above stated, and states:

> "So Screen Writer JOHN HOWARD LAWSON, Director LLOYD BACON, and Art Director TED SMITH went down to San Pedro and visited the National Maritime Union Hall. . . . . LAWSON got acquainted with the men who were waiting to ship out and heard stories from them of the convoys to the fighting fronts, stories about themselves and their union brothers who 'keep 'em sailing'. . . .

"Later, JAMES DRAKE, the National Maritime Union representative in San Pedro, visited the studio to discuss various aspects of the picture. . . . .

"The film is an exciting action picture which RAYMOND MASSEY, who plays one of the leading roles, describes as 'the most honest war picture ever made.'"

The "People's World" for June 3, 1943, page 5, in a glowing tribute to this picture, s tates the following:

"The story itself is a thriller. Most of the actions follow the movement of a Liberty Merchant Ship, part of the United Nations convoy, en route to Murmansk, Russia, with planes, t anks, and food. The ship is stalked by Nazi subs part of the way, and blasted from the skies by German bombers. But it finally crawls into the Russian port where the crew is greeted by a dock jammed by men and women, waving and shouting: 'Tovarichi' (Comrade), and the seamen shout back: 'Comrades'.

"KEEPER OF THE FLAME",
an M-G-M Production.

This picture was an adaptation of a popular novel by I. A. R. WYLIE, and adapted to the screen by DONALD OGDEN STEWART, a known Communist andfanatically active in the Communist Party cause.

Source "P" has stated that DONALD OGDEN STEWART is the husband of ELLA MAE WINTER, a known Communist writer and Communist propagandist of long standing. This source informed that the picture was made by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studios and was released about April 1, 1943.

The director of the picture was GEORGE CUKOR, who has been identified with Communist front organizations in Hollywood. This source has stated that while the book from which the picture was made was in the nature of a mystery story, STEWART emphasized the content of the picture as anti-Fascist.

The persons in the cast of this screen play are listed as follows:

SPENCER TRACY
KATHERINE HEPBURN
RICHARD WHORF FOREST TUCKER

HORACE McNALLY
AUDREY CHRISTIE
MARGARET WYCHERLY
FRANK CRAVEN
PERCY KILBRIDE
DARRYL HICKMAN
DONALD MEEK
HOWARD DA SILVA
WILLIAM NEWELL.

Source "P" has advised that no one in this cast has been active in Communist circles. However, he stated that in the past KATHERINE HEPBURN has shown sympathy for the Communist cause in a mild way.

The "People's World" for June 29, 1943, under the headline of, "Another Good Film Smeared by the Press", stated in part the following:

"M-G-M's 'Keeper of the Flame' is a well acted, well written, and well directed intelligent movie.

"What is more important. . . . . it shows that Fascism can happen here, it attempts to ride in on a 100% American platform (LINDBERGH, HEARST, COUGHLIN, DIES, RICKENBACKER).

"It is no wonder, then, that the harlot press of America, the press that is consistently reactionery, should attack 'Keeper of the Flame', an expose of American Fascism, and an excellent film. . . . .

"According to JAY DAVIDMAN in a 'New Masses' review, hatchetmen of the New York press did their dirty work.

"The 'News' falsified the plot. The 'Sun' said, 'The picture's revelations were depressing and poisonous.'

"The 'World-Telegram' lamented that the plot did not remain a straight mystery thriller. The 'Herald-Tribune' said it was untimely because Pearl Harbor ended 'all that'.

". . . . . 'Time', omniscient as ever, portrayed 'Keeper of the Flame' as 'an expensive testimonial to Hollywood's inability to face a significant theme.' It was 'neither effective propaganda, nor good red melodrama.' 'Time' called it a significant failure.

"HANGMEN ALSO DIE",
a United Artists Production

This picture was made by United Artists Studio and was released about April 1, 1943.

"Variety", for March 23, 1943, listed the cast as follows:

"United Artists Release of Arnold Pressburger Production. Produced and directed by FRITZ LANG.

Cast: BRIAN DONLEVY, WALTER BRENNAN, ANNA LEE, GENE LOCKHART, DENNIS O'KEEFE, ALEXANDER GRANACH, MARGARET WYCHERLY, NANA BRYANT, BILLY ROY, HANS V. TWARDOWSKI, TONIO SELWART, JONOTHAN HALE, LIONEL STANDER, BYRON FOULGER, REINHOLD SCHUENZEL, VIRGINIA FARMER, LOUIS DONATH, SARAH PADDEN, EDMUND MACDONALD, ARNO FREY, LESTER SHARPE, ARTHUR LOFT, GEORGE IRVING, JAMES BUSH.

"Screenplay, JOHN WEXLEY. Adaptation and original story, BERT BRECHT and FRITZ LANG. Photography, JAMES WONG HOWE. Assistant producer, T. M. BAUMFELD. Production manager, CARLEY HARRIMAN. Art director, WILLIAM DARLING. Editor, GENE FOWLER, Jr. Music, HANS EISLER; conducted by ARTHUR GUTMAN. Previewed in Los Angeles, March 22, 1943. Running time: 135 MINS."

Source "Q" has stated that this picture is a war melodrama produced by ARNOLD PRESSBURGER and directed by FRITZ LANG and adapted from the original story by BERT BRECHT and FRITZ LANG.

Source "Q" informed that JOHN WEXLEY wrote the screen play, which deals with the present day conditions in Czechoslovakia under Nazi rule, the hangings by HEYDRICK, the hangman, and the German Gestapo.

This source stated that this picture at this time cannot be said to be Communist propaganda as it has not been seen by informant, but reviewers and critics state this to be the case.

Source further stated that the production of the picture was dominated by individuals who have been active in the Communist cause in Hollywood for many years.

[Source further stated that FRITZ LANG, director, JOHN WEXLEY - screen play writer, LIONEL STANDER - actor, and VIRGINIA FARMER - actress are the persons in this play who have been most active in Communist Party line affairs, and that JOHN WEXLEY and LIONEL STANDER are very active in furthering the program as set out by the Communist Party line.]

Source "Q" further stated that ARNOLD PRESSBURGER, the producer of this picture, is a sympathizer with the Hollywood Communist element and specializes in producing this type of picture.

This source further stated that the writer of the screen play, JOHN WEXLEY, has had trouble with the State Department on two occasions when he was employed in Hollywood, once, by the M-G-M Studio on a picture called "Malta", and again with Columbia Studio in the picture called "Trans-Sahara". This source stated that the contents of these two pictures were questioned by the State Department. He further stated that in the picture, "Trans-Sahara", WEXLEY injected the question of the imprisonment of the Spanish Loyalists in North Africa by General FRANCO, which was an outgrowth of the Spanish Civil War. This form of propaganda follows the Communist Party line at the present time which advocates release of those prisoners who are Communists and sympathizers.

"OUR RUSSIAN FRONT"

Source "R" has informed that this picture was made originally in Russia as a documentary film; that it was reassembled in Hollywood under the auspices of RUSSIAN WAR RELIEF, INC., and was adapted to American audiences by use of comment delivered by a narrator, who in this instance was WALTER HUSTON.

This source informed that this commentary was written by ELLIOT PAUL, who for years has collaborated with the Communist Party as one of their outstanding propagandists. Source further stated that PAUL is very active in the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS, and that he is a contributor to numerous Communist Party publications, and was very active in the AMERICAN PEACE MOBILIZATION; that he has made a tour of the United States in company with PAUL ROBESON in the interests of the AMERICAN PEACE MOBILIZATION prior to June 22, 1941.

Source stated that other parties credited with the production of this picture in Hollywood were LEWIS MILESTONE - director, JORIS IVENS and DIMITRI TIOMKIN, who wrote the musical score, and that they have been involved in the same Communist activities as ELLIOT PAUL.

Source stated that this picture went on the screen in the United States in the spring of 1942, and is still showing in various places. Source further stated that this picture is pushed by the Communist Party as a "must be seen" picture.

This was an assembled picture, as indicated above, made from scenes in the Soviet Union, and therefore had no American cast.

"EDGE OF DARKNESS",
a Warner Brothers Production.-

Source "S" has informed that this motion picture was produced by Warner Brothers Studio and was adapted from a novel by WILLIAM WOODS and that ROBERT ROSSEN wrote the screen play. Source stated that the play was directed by LEWIS MILESTONE and produced by HENRY BLANKE, released in April, 1943, and is now showing.

The "Variety" for November 20, 1942, listed the cast of this production as follows:

"Producer, HENRY BLANKE. Director, LEWIS MILESTONE. Asst. Directors, SHERRY SHOURDS and JAMES McMAHON.

|---|---|
| "Starting Date | August 6. |
| Shooting days | 50 |
| Extras | 1,000 |

Source "S" states that this play deals with a situation in Norway under Nazi oppression and is the usual war drama along anti-Fascist lines, depicting the rebellion of the Norwegians against the Nazi invaders. Source further informed that from reviews of the content of the picture, there is apparently no direct Communist propaganda in the picture. However, those persons responsible for making the picture have distinct records of Communist activity. Those who have engaged in Communist activity are LEWIS MILESTONE - director; ROBERT ROSSEN - writer of the screen play. Source also stated that others of the cast who have been active in Hollywood Communist circles are WALTER HUSTON, HELMUT DANTINE, MORRIS CARNOVSKY, ROMAN BOHNEN, and ART SMITH.

The "Los Angeles Evening News" for April 22, 1943, stated that the picture comes to a conclusion as the voice of President ROOSEVELT says,

"If there is anyone who still wonders why this war is being fought, let him look to Norway. If there is anyone who has any delusions that war could have been averted, let him look to Norway. And if there is anyone who has doubt of the democratic will to win, again I say, let him look to Norway."

The "People's World" for March 27, 1943, published a letter by ROBERT ROSSEN, writing as chairman of the HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION, which stated in part:

"Indicative of the industries' move toward even great contributions to t he war effort is the difference between the old routine formula, melodramas, that were the first reaction to the war, and such recent productions as "This Land Is Mine", "Action in the North Atlantic", and "Mission to Moscow."

"THIS LAND IS MINE",
a RKO-Radio Production.

Source "T" has informed that this picture, "This Land Is Mine", was released about June 10, 1943; that it was produced by RKO; that the screen play was written by DUDLEY NICHOLS; and that the picture is a war drama.

Source "T" has stated that the play deals with conditions in occupied territories under Nazi rule and deals with the reactions of different types of citizens under oppression. This source further stated that while it cannot be said that the picture has direct Communist propaganda in it, the idea is conveyed that the middle classes cannot be trusted to fight against dictatorship; that only the working classes can be relied upon to fight Fascism. In this respect, it follows the principle of class opposition as advocated by the Marxist ideology.

Source "T" stated that the co-producer of this picture, DUDLEY NICHOLS, has been active in Communist circles for many years; t hat he is a member of the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS and several other Communist front organizations. Source stated that JEAN RENOIS, co-producer with NICHOLS in this film, is a French motion picture director, who produced such pictures as "La Grande Illusion", a type of picture which was shown under Communist auspices throughout the United States. Source stated that RENOIS has been in the United States since the war started in Europe, and has moved socially and otherwise in Hollywood Communist circles.

Source "T" stated that of the cast, GEORGE SANDERS, PHILIP MERRIVALE, and WALTER SIEZAK have been identified as moving in and cooperating with persons who always follow the Communist Party line. The cast of this picture could not be secured.

Source has stated that LEWIS MILESTONE is the Director of this picture and the photography is being directed by JAMES WONG HOWE. Source further advised that MARGARET BOURKE WHITE (ex-wife of ERSKINE CALDWELL, who made the original adaptation for the "MISSION TO MOSCOW") was brought to Hollywood to act as pictorial advisor for the picture.

Source advised that BENJO SCHNEIDER (SNYDER), a New York dramatic coach and dance director has been assigned to work on the story and the picture. For some reason, the acting cast has never been announced through the trade papers, a customary procedure when the picture is being shot, which is being done at this time.

Source stated, however, that the following parties are in the cast:

|---|---|
| WALTER HUSTON | DEAN JAGGER |
| ANN HARDING | JANE WITHERS |
| WALTER BRENNAN | DANA ANDREWS |
| ANNE BAXTER | PAUL GUILFOYLE |

Source further advised that the music for the picture was written by AARON COPLAND and IRA GERSHWIN. Source further advised that it was impossible at this time to determine to what extent this picture will contain Communist propaganda as it has not been released. However, he stated there is no doubt that it is to be a propaganda picture. Almost the entire creative section of the personnel is composed of Communists and fellow travelers.

LILLIAN HELLMAN, the writer of the picture is fanatically devoted to Communism and the Soviet Union. She is active in the League Of American Writers; she supported the American Peace Mobilization and a large number of Communist Front organizations over a period of many years. She is one of the outstanding Communist propagandists in the United States among the writers.

LEWIS MILESTONE: Source states that MILESTONE was born in Russia but it is believed that he is a citizen. He is the Director of the picture, and likewise has been active in Communist Front organizations and circles for many years in Hollywood and is recognized as one of the leaders of the Communist group.

JAMES WONG HOWE: Source states that HOWE is a Chinaman who was born in America; that he is the camera man for making this picture and that he has long been involved in Communist activites in Hollywood.

MARGARET BOURKE WHITE: Source states that Miss WHITE has been a propagandist for Communism in the United States for a period of at least twelve years; that she has made several trips to the Soviet Union; has lectured in the United States on the benefits of the Soviet system and has been a consistent contributor to the official Communist publications for many years.

BENNO SCHNEIDER: Source states that SCHNEIDER has a long record of Communist activities; that he has been active in the New Theatre League; a contributor to the "New Theatre", a Communist controlled magazine devoted to the Theatre; and that he has been connected with the International Union of Revolutionary Theatres, a Communist organization operating internationally.

WALTER HUSTON: Source states that HUSTON has been identified as a staunch fellow traveler of the Communist Party Line in Hollywood; that he is a sponsor for many Communist Front organizations and has taken part in many meetings of known Communist character.

DEAN JAGGER: Source states that JAGGER is a well-known Hollywood fellow traveler and an ardent follower of the Communist Party Line.

AARON COPLAND: Source states that COPLAND was born in Russia; that he is a staunch fellow traveler; and is believed to be a member of the Communist Party.

IRA GERSHWIN: Source informs that GERSHWIN has supported a large number of Communist projects and is devoted to the Communist cause.

"The People's World", a Communist paper published at San Francisco, dated June 2, 1943, has devoted much space to commending this picture. On that date it made the statement: "It will be a wonderful follow-up to 'Mission To Moscow'".

The Los Angeles Times for April 18, 1943, in an article dealing with this picture stated: "There won't be much said about Communism in the picture, since politics isn't popular these days, it speaking of our Russian allies. It will just be there, sort of in the background."

The Los Angeles Times for March 17, 1943, quoted SAMUEL GOLDWYN, the Producer of this picture, as having stated publicly that he was not interested in making money on the picture: "I just want One Hundred Thirty Million people in America to see it — that's all."

The same source advises that LILLIAN HELLMAN is a member of the League of American Writers and a member of the American Peace Mobilization; that she sent out the call of the Fourth Writers Congress of the League of American Writers, and has been a faithful follower of the Communist Party Line. Source states that she was one of the organizers and controlling individuals of the (COMPAC) Committee of Motion Picture Arts and Crafts which was set up in the motion picture industry and was conceived and dominated in the usual Communist Party manner. Source states that the alleged object of this organization was to draw the workers of every type and kind in studios, using the prevailing acute unemployment problem as the base. However, in reality it was a scheme to make contacts and propagandize workers along the lines of the Communist Party and particularly to create sympathy for the CIO.

Source states that RUDOLPH KOHL, an appointee of HARRY BRIDGES, was the leader in all of its activities.

This same source also states that LILLIAN HELLMAN has been identified for many years as a Communist Party Line follower.

The trade magazine "Variety" for July 1, 1942, under the heading "HELLMAN, WYLER SOVIET FOR TRUTH YARN" stated the following: "LILLIAN HELLMAN and Major WILLIAM WYLER are going to Russia with the blessing of the United States Government to obtain material for a motion picture about Russian youths and war time. Plan is in line with campaign for closer Russio-American relations."

Source states that it is his information that this trip to Russia was not made.

FOR WHOM THE BELL TOLLS

PARAMOUNT PRODUCTION; not released.

Source "V" states that a motion picture based on a novel by ERNEST HEMMINGWAY dealing with the recent Spanish Civil War is being made by the Paramount Studio. Source states that the making of this picture has been the cause of much controversy since the purchase of the book by Paramount Studio in October, 1940.

Source states that HEMMINGWAY is a staunch Communist fellow traveler, a member of the League of American Writers and other Communist Front organizations.

Source states that HEMMINGWAY became disillusioned with the Communist cause due to the activities of the Comintern in Spain and wrote a novel based on the situation. Source states that this novel was to a large degree anti-Communist and as a consequence HEMMINGWAY was subjected to a campaign of abuse and vilification by the Communist Party and its press.

Source further states that the Paramount Studio started to make the picture during the period of the Pact between STALIN and HITLER when the Communist Party was in bad odor everywhere due to its activities in opposing the "Imperialist" war.

LOUIS BROMFIELD: Source states that BROMFIELD was engaged to write the screen story at that time but when HITLER attacked STALIN and Russia was first over to the side of the democracies and the Communist Party reversed its position and became ardently patriotic, Paramount Studio withdrew the BROMFIELD version and engaged DUDLEY NICHOLS to re-write the story. Source states that NICHOLS is a close follower of the Communist cause and that it has been reported that he removed all anti-Communist bias with the result that the picture will now be favorable to some degree to the Communist cause. Source states, however, that the picture has not yet reached the screen so that it cannot be determined whether or not the picture contains Communist propaganda.

The cast is composed of the following persons:

|---|---|
| GARY COOPER | VICTOR VARCONI |
| INGRID BERGMAN | LILO YARSON |
| AKIM TAMIROFF | LEONID SINEGOFF |
| KATINA PAXINOW | ALEXANDER GRANACH |

Source states that when this picture appears on the screen it will be found to be political propaganda.

The Los Angeles Times for November 25, 1942 stated: "NICHOLS, a man of strong convictions, called a spade a spade and the enemy a Fascist. And, like HEMMINGWAY, he tied up the Spanish Revolution with the World Revolution."

She was also a member of the Associated Film Audiences in 1939, the purpose of which, according to the Informant was "To utilize the Communist Movement throughout the United States; to put pressure on the box office; to influence a type of picture favorable to that cause; or to boycott those pictures which it deemed inimical to that cause." This Informant further states that according to RICHARD LaPAN, RUTHVEN was actually a member of the Communist Party; LaPAN having stated to the Informant that he sat in meetings with her, which meetings were official gatherings at which higher functionaries of the Communist Party were present and directed meetings. LaPAN, according to this Informant, was from 1933 for a number of years thereafter a functionary in the Communist Party of the Hollywood District.

Studio records reflect her salary ranging from Twenty-Five Dollars per week to approximately Two Hundred Fifty Dollars per week. Since 1937 she has been self-employed at her home, 45 Canon Drive, Beverly Hills, as a writer.

Source "2-D", a church worker who admits knowing RUTHVEN only casually, advised she had obtained a good deal of information regarding RUTHVEN'S personal life and Communist activity from ANNE AUSTIN, a girlhood friend of RUTHVEN, and mother of ELIZABETH LEACH, the organizer of the Northwest Section (movie industry section) of the Los Angeles County Communist Party. According to this Source, AUSTIN admitted to the Informant that RUTHVEN recruited ELIZABETH LEACH into the Communist Party about 1935, at which time AUSTIN described RUTHVEN as a "Communist Organizer" whose duties were to recruit new members to the Communist Party. RUTHVEN, according to this Source, also admitted to AUSTIN that she was a Lesbian and was residing with HERTA UERKVITZ in this Union. The RUTHVEN-UERKVITZ affair has been going on since at least 1935 and Informant understood that RUTHVEN had a similar affair with an unidentified woman previously, although this she was not certain. Confidential Source "2-E" has advised that RUTHVEN has been closely associated with HERBERT BIBERMAN reported leader of the Hollywood Communist Movement and former Los Angeles Chairman of the American Peace Mobilization. Under his direction she partidpated in agitation for the Second Military Front in Europe in the summer of 1942; the organization of the American Council of Soviet-American relations in the latter part of 1941; and in Russian War Relief, Inc., in 1942.

On May 7, 1942, according to Confidential Source "2-E-1" she held a meeting at her home at which the guest of honor was CARL WINTER, Executive Secretary of the Los Angeles County Communist Party. This was a very secretive affair; the blinds were drawn in the house, and WINTER parked his car over two blocks away from the RUTHVEN home. Other Hollywood Communist leaders were in attendance.

This Informant also advised that RUTHVEN was present at a Section Organizers meeting at Communist Party Headquarters, Room 501, West Sixth St., on October 12, 1942, and after the meeting drove away in her car accompanied by HELEN ALLISON WINTER, wife of CARL WINTER.

Source advised that she was believed to be in attendance at a meeting honoring MOTHER ELLA REEVE BLOOR and ANITA WHITNEY, both National Committee members CPUSA on July 18, 1942, at the IWO headquarters, 972 North Hobart, Hollywood. This information was based on the fact that her car was parked in the vicinity of the meeting during the entire reception.

This Source also advised he observed RUTHVEN at a meeting with MAX SILVER and CARL WINTER October 3, 1942, at a private home on North Boylston, Los Angeles. Source further advised he observed her at a meeting of Section Organizers on October 26, 1942 at Communist Party headquarters.

This Source further advised that RUTHVEN was present at the home of JOHN HOWARD LAWSON, [redacted] frequently from September, 1941 until June, 1942; this period being cited only because this Source had occasion to note her presence there only during this period. b6 b7C

According to Confidential Source "2-B-4" since the middle of January, 1943, MADELINE RUTHVEN, who is also known as MADELEINE SKINNER RUTHVEN, has been employed by the Office of War Information, 603 Taft Building, Hollywood, as Associate Research Analyst; her duties including the reviewing of motion pictures.

Source 2-F has informed that an American Legion Union Labor Post in the studios has been formed during the past month and that its initial membership is forty-two members.

Source furnished agent an original letter dated June 16, 1943, signed by NORVAL D. CRUTCHER, Acting Adjutant, which throws some light on the object of the founders of this American Legion Post. This letter is here copied:

Dear Sirs and Brothers:

We are attempting to set up an American Legion Union Labor Post in the Studios. The men who at present form the group feel that the anti-labor trend in the American Legion can only be changed by the participation of union men in the activities of the Legion.

The forming of a Union Labor Post is an opportunity for both trade union interest and veteran activities to be coordinated into the fight to win the war.

Anyone with an honorable discharge from any branch of the armed services of this country from either World War I or the present war is eligible to join.

We would greatly appreciate your communicating this information to your membership. Anyone who is interested in the Post should contact me either by letter or phone.

Fraternally yours,

He further stated that final action on this application will come up for disposition in August, 1943, at which time a permanent charter will be granted unless good reasons are shown for withholding same. This source further stated that he considers this action as an attempt on the part of the Communist Party to set up an American Legion Post of its own and confine its membership to employees in the motion picture industry.

SCREEN WRITERS EMPLOYED BY WARNER BROTHERS STUDIO

Source 2-J has furnished the following list of writers who were employed by Warner Brothers as of June 1, 1943:

|---|---|
| ALVAH BESSIE (CPL) | "To the Last Man" |
| A. I. BEZZERIDES (CPL) | "Country Lawyer" |
| W. R. BURNETT | "Nobody Lives Forever" |
| VERA CASPARY and THOMAS JOB (CPL) | "Danger Signal" |
| WILLIAM FAULKNER | "Battle Cry" |
| FREDERICK FAUST and ELLIOTT PAUL (CPL) | "The Conspirators" |
| FRANK GRUBER | "Three Strangers" |
| SAM HELLMAN and JAMES KERN | "Horn Blows at Midnight" |
| JAMES HILTON (CPL) | "The Time Between" |
| CHARLES HOFFMAN and KEITH WINTER | "Animal Kingdom" |
| ARTHUR FORMAN | "Conflict" |
| HOWARD KOCH (CPL) | "Rhapsody in Blue" |
| S. K. LAUREN | "Gay Nineties" |
| ALBERT MALTZ (CPL) | "Deep Valley" |
| JACK MOFFITT | "Passage to Marseilles" |
| JO PAGANO and LIONEL WIGGAM | "Young and Brave" |
| ROBERT ROSSEN (CPL) | "Treasure of Sierra Madre" |
| ELLIS ST. JOSEPH (CPL) | "In Our Time" |

|---|---|
| FRANCIS SWANN | "Paddies" |
| DWIGHT TAYLOR | "Marilyn Miller" |
| RICHARD WEIL (CPL) | "Humoresque" |

Of the twenty-six names on the above mentioned list, ten are being designated "CPL", or Communist Party line followers. All of these ten are members of or connected with the League of American Writers, the Hollywood Writers School, and the Hollywood Writers Mobilization, all of which are definitely Communist front groups. Since the United States became involved in the war and the Hollywood motion picture producers have been making war pictures, it has been an almost universal practice to employ writers on such pictures who are of the type of the Communist Party line followers.

Of the remaining sixteen persons named, none has been connected with Communist activities in Hollywood so far as is known. It is also true that these sixteen persons do not work on political or propaganda pictures, but devote their time to writing screen plays of an entirely different nature.

THE DIRECTOR

RE: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED DATE 10/2/96 BY SP2 CLC/gao

PURPOSE

The purpose of this memorandum is to set out the motion pictures recently produced and released in Hollywood which promote Communist Party ideologies.

MOTION PICTURES ALREADY RELEASED

"MISSION TO MOSCOW" (Warner Brothers). ERSKINE CALDWELL and HOWARD KOCH, writers of the screen play; J. LEDA, technical director; MICHAEL CURTIZ, director; WALTER HUSTON, OSCAR HOMOLKA, HELMUT DANTINE, RONALD COHNEN, VLADIMIR SOKOLOFF, leading actors. All individuals named are either Communists or followers of the Communist Party line.

"ACTION IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC" (Warner Brothers). This motion picture is very favorable to the Communist Party-controlled National Maritime Union of America, CIO. According to David Platt, Communist motion picture reviewer, in "The Worker," for July 4, 1943, "ACTION IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC" is being used as a training film in the Merchant Marine Training Schools of the War Shipping Administration. The writer of this play was John HOWARD LAWSON, and is a known active member of the Communist Party, reportedly active in the Communist underground." The following individuals connected with the production are Communist Party line followers: A. I. BEZZERIDES, dialogue writer; RAYMOND MASSEY, HUMPHREY BOGART, SAM LEVENE, actors.

"EDGE OF DARKNESS" (Warner Brothers). This motion picture was adapted from a popular novel of William Woods by Robert Rossen, past President of the League of American Writers, a reported Communist front organization. It was directed by LEWIS MILESTONE, who has been active in Communist Party affairs in Hollywood for many years.

INDEXED

"HANGMEN ALSO DIE" (United Artists). This war melodrama, which follows the present Communist Party lines on anti-Fascism, was produced by ARNOLD PRESSBURGER, a Communist Party fellow traveler who is contemplating other pictures of this type. The following individuals connected with the film are either Communists or followers of the Communist Party line: FRITZ LANG director; JOHN WEXLEY, writer of the screen play; LIONEL STANDER, actor; VIRGINIA FARMER, actress.

"KEEPER OF THE FLAME" (Metro-Goldyn-Mayer). This story was adapted from a popular novel and contains considerable sentiment paralleling the Communist Party line. The screen play was written by DONALD OGDEN STEWART, a known Communist, at present fanatically active in Hollywood, who is the husband of ELLA LAD WRITER, well known Communist writer and propagandist.

"THIS LAND IS MINE" (RKO). This "anti-Fascist drama" was written by DUDLEY NICHOLS, a staunch follower of the Communist Party line. It was directed by JEAN RENOIR, a fellow traveler, as are also the following actors who participated: CLARENCE SANDERS, PHILIP MERIVALE AND WALTER SLEZAK.

"OUR RUSSIAN FRONT," a documentary film produced under the auspices of Russian War Relief, was directed by LEWIS MILESTONE, active in Communist Party affairs, aforementioned. It was written by ELLIOT PAUL, identified with Communist activities in Hollywood films, as were also JORIS IVENS and DIMITRI T[illegible]N, who were connected with the production. WALTER HUSTON, mentioned heretofore in connection with "Mission to Moscow" was the narrator.

"BOY FROM STALINGRAD" (Columbia). According to DAVID PLATT, Communist motion picture reviewer, in "The Worker" for July 4, 1943, "Boy From Stalingrad" has opened in second run houses in New York without a Broadway premier. PLATT says: "It's one of the important war films and a magnificent tribute to the Soviet Union...There were no reviews except, of course, in the Daily Worker."

PROPAGANDA PICTURES NOT YET RELEASED

"GIRL FROM LENINGRAD" (United Artists); "NORTH STAR" (Goldyn); "TOVARICH" (RKO); "THE RUSSIAN PEOPLE" (Twentieth Century Fox), have been or are being made, but will not be released until later.

AMERICAN LEGION ACTIVITY

In order to counteract the general policy of the American Legion in its condemnation of such pictures as "MISSION TO MOSCOW" and to build up publicity for future Communist propaganda emanating from Hollywood, NORVAL CRUTCHER and ROBERT LESTER, Communists active in Hollywood union circles, are setting up a Post of the American Legion in the motion picture industry.

Dear Sir:

On July 1, 1943, JOHN M. HOLMES, publicity man, Warner Brothers Pictures, Inc., Burbank, California, a Special Service Contact of the Los Angeles Field Division, advised this office that he had been informed by WALTER SULLIVAN, Commander of the Los Angeles County Council of the American Legion covering one hundred and ninety-one American Legion Posts with a membership of 27,000 Legionnaires, that a temporary charter had been issued by the Los Angeles County Council of the American Legion to forty-two individuals for an American Legion Post to be called the Cinema Post. WALTER SULLIVAN is presently employed as an investigator by the District Attorney's Office in Los Angeles, California, in the "Failure to Provide" Division.

HOLMES stated that forty-two World War I veterans had signified their intention of belonging to this group, but the names of only two are known at this time; namely, ROBERT LESTER, whose real name is ROBERT WATSON LEICHESTER, 18638 Hart Street, Reseda, California, fifty-three years of age, born in Rochester, New York; and NORVAL CRUTCHER of the Studio Laboratory Technicians' Union, Local 683, A. F. of L.

HOLMES related that both of these individuals are reported to be Communists and he stated that both he and WALTER SULLIVAN believed that this is an attempt on the part of the Communist Party to set up an American Legion post of their own. The Cinema Post will be limited in its membership to employees of the movie industry and members of the studio labor unions.

JOHN M. HOLMES disclosed that ROBERT LESTER has been employed as a scenic artist at Warner Brothers since 1937, and was formerly employed by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Paramount Theatres and by theatres in Boston, Massachusetts, and San Francisco, California. It was stated that LESTER had been active in the union trouble in the motion picture industry in 1937, when the Communists were said to have attempted to take over the union from the International Association of Theatrical and Stage Employees, A. F. of L. HOLMES added that ROBERT LESTER is very close to DON KING of Warner Brothers.

With regard to NORVAL CRUTCHER, JOHN HOLMES made known that he is a good friend of HERBERT SORRELL'S, Business Representative of the Studio Painters' Union, A. F. of L., Local Number 644. CRUTCHER was described as a Communist agitator at Warner Brothers.

Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted] advised that NORVAL CRUTCHER, [redacted] had been recruited into the Communist Party by SID MARTIN on September 20, 1937, at which time he was a member of the Industrial Section, Studio Unit of the Los Angeles County Communist Party. His Communist Party record for that year reflects that he was a laboratory technician and a member of the I.A.T.S.E. In 1938, NORVAL CRUTCHER was a member of the Industrial Section, Studio Unit number 1 of the Los Angeles County Communist Party, at which time he was listed on his Communist Party record as a laboratory worker at Warner Brothers Studio. He was described as a member of the I.A.T.S.E., Local 683, and as a member of the HOLLYWOOD ANTI-NAZI LEAGUE.

Special Agent JAMES W. MASON advised that a car bearing California license [redacted] was observed at a Communist Party functionary meeting held on March 25, 1943, at the Maison Gaston Restaurant, 1219 North Vine Street, Los Angeles, California, which meeting was attended by MAX SILVER, Organizational Secretary of the Los Angeles County Communist Party. This car is registered to NORVALL D. CRUTCHER, [redacted] Special Agent MASON stated that a man and a woman, believed to be NORVALL and MIRIAM CRUTCHER, were seen to enter this automobile at the conclusion of the meeting.

b7D

HOLMES disclosed that he believed that S. CHARLES EINFELD, Vice-President in Charge of Advertising, Warner Brothers Pictures, Inc., Burbank, California, together with DON KING of Warner Brothers, probably inspired this movement to form the Cinema Post. HOLMES stated that a short time ago, DON KING showed him an article in "IN FACT" by GEORGE SELDES, which article appeared in the May, 1942, or June, 1942, issue of this paper. This article was stated to have called upon anti-Fascist groups to set up their own American Legion posts. At that time KING said he thought this was a good idea, inasmuch as he considered the American Legion to be Fascist-controlled.

The names of the forty-two members of the Cinema Post will be furnished to the Los Angeles Field Division in the immediate future by JOHN HOLMES.

RE: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE

HOLMES related that WALTER SULLIVAN has turned over the names of these two individuals to JAMES STEADMAN, an investigator for the MARTIN DIES COMMITTEE. STEADMAN promised SULLIVAN to check the names of all members of the Cinema Post through the records of the Dies Committee. On July 6, 1943, STEADMAN contacted JOHN HOLMES with regard to the formation of the Cinema Post, at which time he stated that NORVAL CRUTCHER is a member of the Communist Party under the name of HENRY NEWMAN.

SULLIVAN advised HOLMES that the charter for the Cinema Post will come up for final action at the August, 1943, convention of the American Legion, at which time it will be necessary for the American Legion to show some evidence as a reason for withholding final action on the charter for the Cinema Post. It is contemplated that JACK TENNEY, California State Senator, and some member of the Dies Committee will take the floor to present a motion to the convention refusing to grant a permanent charter to the Cinema Post.

With regard to DON KING, who is mentioned above, HOLMES said that KING had recently attempted to recruit him into the Communist Party. It was stated that KING intends to run for Congress in the 20th Congressional District in the next election and has been promised unlimited financial support by CHARLES EINFELD.

DON KING told HOLMES that ROBERT W. KENNY, Attorney-General of the State of California, recently contacted him, at which time KENNY asked KING to act as a sort of press relations advisor for the Communist Party while retaining his position at Warner Brothers. KENNY desires that KING sit in on the Democratic Party convention meetings so that he will be in a better position to act in behalf of the Communist Party in political matters. HOLMES explained this function of KING'S, by saying that the Communist Party is not strong enough to elect any member to office through its own support, but when a representative of the Communist Party can sit in on meetings of the Democratic Party as a representative of a solid minority block, arrangements can be worked out so that the Communist Party would throw its support behind certain democratic candidates in exchange for support for certain candidates of the Communist Party.

RE: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE
MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY
INTERNAL SECURITY - C
(BUREAU FILE NUMBER 100-138754)

KING was said to have no discretion as HOLMES has heard from other individuals at Warner Brothers about KING'S connection with the Communist Party. KING is a close friend of CHARLES EINFELD and spends a considerable amount of time with him.

HOLMES made known that a man by the name of VERN PARTEN was recently hired in the Publicity Department of Warner Brothers Pictures, Inc. It was stated that PARTEN is a member of the Communist Party and is active in the American Newspaper Guild. PARTEN was said to have been discharged recently by a Hearst newspaper because of his Communistic sympathies. HOLMES related that PARTEN is a close friend of DON KING'S, both of whom have done a considerable amount of propositioning of studio employees.

HOLMES added that on July 2, 1943, or July 3, 1943, he was telephonically contacted by REVELS CAYTON, Negro, Vice-President of the C.I.O. in the State of California, who is in frequent contact with members of the Communist Party. He desired to take two girls through Warner Brothers, one of whom CAYTON described as HARRY BRIDGES' daughter; however, arrangements were never perfected for this visit to the studio by CAYTON.

It is requested that if this information is made available to any person, that extreme care be taken so that it will not be possible for anyone to trace the information back to the original informant of this office. It is extremely important that he never be suspicioned of furnishing information to this office.

MEMORANDUM:

Re: MISSION TO MOSCOW
(Motion Picture Produced
By Warner Brothers)

Supplementing memorandum on this matter dated May 14, 1943, the following information is being submitted:

MICHAEL CURTIZ appears in the official statement issued to the public through the tradepapers and publicity sheets issued by WARNERS. Investigation reveals that MICHAEL CURTIZ is an Austrian by birth, who has been in the United States about five years. He claims that he is a naturalized citizen. It is reported that CURTIZ has had very little experience as a director of pictures and that "Mission to Moscow" was directed by JAY LEYDA as appears in the memorandum dated May 14, 1943. No subversive activities on the part of CURTIZ are known, but he goes along with the Communist line.

FRANK HEATH is listed as "Assistant Director" in the publicity sheets issued by WARNER BROS. It is stated that he, as Assistant Director, had nothing to do with the nature or character of the picture, that he was merely a detail man to look after the cast. The records of possible subversive activities on his part are negative.

HOWARD KOCH appears in the official statement and publicity sheets issued by WARNER BROS. as the "Screen Play" writer of the "Mission to Moscow". The information is that KOCH did not write "Mission to Moscow" and little is known about him; that the fact is that "Mission to Moscow" was written by ERSKINE CALDWELL as related in the first memorandum dated May 14, 1943, and the following is here added:

ERSKINE CALDWELL made the original adaptation and was, in fact, the real writer of the play, "Mission to Moscow". (Note: CALDWELL was not listed in the official statement issued to the public through the trade papers. In the publicity sheet issued by WARNER BROS. known as "Casts and Credits", the name of CALDWELL does not appear. CALDWELL'S name also does not appear on the printed programs for publicity releases, but the name of HOWARD KOCH appears as the only writer employed for the picture, although it is definitely known and has been published in the Hollywood trade papers, "Daily Variety" and "Reporter", that CALDWELL made the adaptation from DAVIES' book and wrote the story.)

After writing the story, CALDWELL checked off the lot and HOWARD KOCH then carried on through the making of the picture. The reason CALDWELL was not given credit through publicity channels when the picture was released remains unexplained.

The Los Angeles Times for July 20, 1942, stated the following:

> "ERSKINE CALDWELL is here to script Mission to Moscow, the diary of Washington Ambassador to Russia, JOSEPH E. DAVIES, for WARNER BROS."

The Los Angeles Times for September 25, 1942, stated the following:

> "JOSEPH E. DAVIES, author of Mission to Moscow, has given full approval of the script by ERSKINE CALDWELL which WARNER BROS. will produce."

The Los Angeles Times for November 15, 1942, stated the following:

> "Shooting will continue another two months at least. CURTIZ' technical aides include JAY LEYDA, a Russian born American citizen, and Dr. ERNEST D. F. GOLCH, a former Prussian judge. HOWARD KOCH is still working on the script from an adaptation by ERSKINE CALDWELL, the noted American correspondent."

WALTER HUSTON

WALTER HUSTON, who played the part of Ambassador DAVIES in this picture, attended a meeting held at the Shrine Auditorium on November 8, 1942, on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Soviet Republic. The celebration was "a salute to our Russian Ally". This American Soviet Friendship Rally was attended by more than five thousand people. WALTER HUSTON served as a member of the invitation committee and also on the "program and arrangements committee".

Re: MISSION TO MOSCOW

At this meeting, many Communist circulars and booklets were distributed and sold. The meeting was declared to be a decidedly Communist meeting.

Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted] has stated that WALTER HUSTON was elected a member of the Executive Board of the Hollywood Democratic Committee on March 4, 1943. This informant has also stated that this organization is "definitely a Communist front organization" and is a revival of the old Motion Picture Democratic Committee which was a Communist front organization under a changed name, that the personnel of these two organizations was practically the same. b7D

JORIS IVANS

JORIS IVANS is a close associate of WALTER HUSTON and JAY LEYDA. The Hollywood Reporter for January 16, 1942, page thirteen, announced that JORIS IVANS had made a documentary film, "Our Russian Front" with LEWIS MILESTONE as director and WALTER HUSTON as narrator, written by ELLIOT PAUL, an artkino (Russian), production distributed under the auspices of the Russian War Relief, Inc.

The JACK TENNEY Investigating Committee of the California State Legislature reported the following with respect to JORIS IVANS:

The report stated that the Los Angeles Daily News for December 19, 1941 states the following: "IVANS is on his way to becoming a citizen .....has his first papers." The report further stated that IVANS is leaving for Washington, D.C. where he is to interview officials of the State Department with a view to making documentary pictures on Dutch East Indies and that he is to present another idea to the Department of Agriculture. He will do defense pictures.

The report further states, "Subject is a Dutch Communist. He plied back and forth between Holland and the Soviet Union in the early 1930's. He was an instructor in Revolutionary Literature in Moscow. The report also stated he was also an instructor in Film University in Moscow and during this time made documentary films in Holland."

The New Theatre Magazine of 1933-1935 mentions him many times. This was a Communist Party publication.

The report states that IVANS did "Zeuderzee Project" (Holland's TVA), a so-called documentary picture. He was connected with Phillips Radio, a European concern, in 1933 and 1934.

He did the picture, "The New Earth", a Communist line picture, in 1934.

In 1936, and 1937, he photographed a documentary film written by ERNEST HEMINGWAY, on the Spanish War called "The Spanish Earth". This picture was distributed through the Communist Party channels and it was praised by Communist Party publications, particularly the magazine, "New Theatre".

The report further stated that IVANS made a film in China in 1938-1939, "Four Hundred Million" which also followed the Communist Party line and was praised by Communist publications and distributed through Communist Party channels. He spent considerable time at Formosa. It is not known what he did there.

He made, "The Power and the Land" depicting rural electrification in connection with the Tennessee Valley Authority in 1940. This, too, was praised by the Communist press.

The report further stated that IVANS was in the Modern Film Library of the Rockefeller Foundation in New York City and worked behind the scenes with JAY LEYDA in putting over the Communist Party program in this institution. The TENNEY report further stated that IVANS announced the formation of the "Institute of Film Technique" at City College, New York City, with JOHN GRIERSON of Canada, ALICE V. KELLIHER of Massachusetts, and WILLARD VAN DYKE.

The same source stated that the "Peoples World" for October 9, 1941, page five, mentions IVANS as an "outstanding leader in the documentary film field". This source also stated that IVANS was one of the organizers of "Communist Film and Photo League" in New York City in 1933 or 1934, that he worked in the Modern Film Library, a Communist Center in New York City, for a number of years. It was also stated he made a number of Communist propaganda short subjects.

b7D

Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted] who is very familiar with persons and subjects in Hollywood, prepared the following statement relative to IVANS:

Re: MISSION TO MOSCOW

Informant stated that IVANS is a motion picture director who specializes in the production of "documentary films", that he was born in Holland and claims to be a naturalized American citizen. Before coming to the United States early in 1936, IVANS was active as a motion picture director in Holland and the Soviet Union. It was in the latter country where he received his schooling in "collective work", according to a statement which he made in an article written by himself in the "New Theatre" magazine for October, 1936, on page nine. This magazine was a publication devoted to the stage and screen and was a distinct medium for propagation of the Communist Party line.

Informant stated that IVANS' first production to gain attention was a film called "Borinage" which dealt with a particularly vicious situation in the mines in Belgium. It was described in Communist publicity circles as a "drama of revolutionary truth".

Informant stated that upon his arrival in Hollywood in 1936, IVANS took part in Communist front activities and he interested himself in the agricultural strikes that were then prevalent in Hollywood. He was in constant association with such well known Communists and fellow travelers as HERBERT BIBERMAN, LILLIAN HELLMAN, TESS SLESSINGER, SIDNEY BUCHMAN, IRVING REIS, VIOLA BROTHERS SHORE, DONALD OGDEN STEWART, and others of that cliquo.

Informant stated that during the Spanish Civil War, IVANS went to Spain , and in company with ERNEST HEMINGWAY, photographed war scenes there and made the picture called "Spanish Earth", a propaganda film following the Communist Party line. Informant stated that IVANS was connected with the Modern Film Library, a project set up by the Rockefeller Foundation, New York City. He also stated that at the same time, IVANS was President of the Association of Documentary Film Producers, [redacted] b6 b7C

He stated that the officers of this last named organization were as follows:

PAUL STRAND, Vice-President
WILLARD VAN DYKE, Vice-President
OSGOOD FIELD, Treasurer

Re: MISSION TO MOSCOW

MARY LOSBY, Secretary
JAY LEYDA, Chairman of the Education Committee

He stated that of the above named parties, PAUL STRAND, WILLARD VAN DYKE, and JAY LEYDA, Technical Director on "Mission to Moscow", are all identified as having been involved in Communist activities.

Informant stated that the following Hollywood personalities were associated with IVANS and this organization in Hollywood;

ARTHUR ORNITZ
TATIANA TUTTLE, wife of FRANK TUTTLE
IRVING REIS
GUNTHER VON FRITSCH

SHIRLEY BURDEN
BLOYD CROSLEY
JAMES GOW
LEWIS JACOBS.

Informant stated that in addition to the above activities, IVANS also made a picture called, "The Four Hundred Million". It was made in China and was a propaganda picture following the Communist Party line.

Informant further stated that in 1940, IVANS was employed by the United States Government Rural Electrification Administration Project, under the direction of PARE LORENTZ. The picture, "The Power and the Land", was made with the object in view of "putting over" rural electrification in the United States.

Informant further stated that in 1939, IVANS was a sponsor for an organization called the Motion Picture Guild, the purpose of which was to produce pictures of a propaganda nature following the Communist Party line. One picture particularly was considered. It was based on the book, "School For Barbarians". The book was written by ERIKA MANN, a well known fellow traveler and a refugee from Germany.

Informant stated that the sponsors of this organization were HERBERT BIBERMAN, LILLIAN HELLMAN, TESS SLESSINGER, IRVING REIS, AND SIDNEY BUCHMAN. He also stated that all of the parties named are well known Communists or fellow travelers of long standing in Hollywood.

Re: MISSION TO MOSCOW

Informant further stated that IVANS has been in Hollywood since 1941, and has been active in Communist circles. He is associated with such organizations as the League of American Writers, Hollywood Writers' Mobilization, andvarious Russian relief organizations. He stated that in connection with LEWIS MILESTONE, a Hollywood motion picture director and for many years a fellow traveler, IVANS made a documentary picture, "Our Russian Front". This picture was shown at the Filmarte Theatre, Hollywood, on March 4, 1942, to raise funds for the Russian War Relief Association.

Informant stated that WALTER HUSTON was the narrator and is the same WALTER HUSTON who appeared in "Mission to Moscow". He stated that ELLIOT PAUL, writer of the picture, "Our Russian Front", has long been connected with Communist activities in Hollywood, that he is a member of the League of American Writers, and was a leader in the American Peace Mobilization and was active in other organizations of this nature.

He stated that DMITRI TIOMKIN, a Russian composer who has followed the Communist Party line, was associated with IVANS in this venture. Informant stated that IVANS also made the picture, "Action Stations", a convoy picture, for the Canadian Government. He further stated that IVANS is at the present time cooperating with Communist elements as he has been doing for the past several years. He also stated that IVANS is considered one of the leading propagandists in the documentary film field.

ROMAN BOHNEN is an actor and is a member of the League of American Writers and has been connected with Communist Party activities for the past eight years or more. He was active in the New Theatre League and other theatre groups affiliated with the International Union of Revolutionary Theatres with headquarters at Moscow, Russia. He is now an instructor in the project called, "Actors' Lab", a Communist cultural school of acting in Hollywood.

He stated that HOMOLKA is a professional actor and has been for many years, that his social activities are confined to the fellow travelling activities in Hollywood.

b7D

Re: MISSION TO MOSCOW

He further stated that MOLOLKA has supported a number of Communist front organizations in Hollywood and his sympathies are with this group. He further stated that for the past two or three years, MOLOLKA has spent a vacation of some two or three months' duration in Washington, D.C., at which times he was a guest of the Russian Embassy.

Informant also stated that Mr. and Mrs. OSCAR MOLOLKA were sponsors of the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee Banquet which was given at the Beverly Hills Hotel for the benefit of that organization.

VLADIMIR SOKOLOFF

SOKOLOFF took the part of President KALININ of the Soviet Republic. CNDI [redacted] has reported that SOKOLOFF is a Russian and has been an actor in Hollywood for many years. He stated that SOKOLOFF belongs to the same organizations to which MOLOLKA belongs, that they were great friends and associates. He stated that SOKOLOFF devotes a great deal of his time to arranging affairs for the Russian War Relief. b7D

HELMUT DANTINE

HELMUT DANTINE is an Austrian by birth and served in the Austrian Army in the first World War. He was later connected with the German Diplomatic Service.

CNDI [redacted] has informed that the other persons mentioned in the "Cast and Credits" and "Cast of Characters" of "Mission to Moscow" are the general run of the motion picture industry and that very little, and in some instances nothing, is known about them and they are not people who influence the nature and character of the picture in which they appear in any way. b7D

A copy of a telegram was obtained which was concocted by certain individuals and signed by certain organizations and persons in Hollywood which was addressed to "JACK L. WARNER, WARNER BROS. PICTURES, INC., [redacted] b6 b7C

This telegram was no doubt prepared for the purpose of exhibiting same and perhaps publishing same to make it appear that there was a spontaneous acclaim of the picture, "Mission to Moscow" when it was not, in fact, true. The telegram was not dated but the approximate date was May 20, 1943. It is as follows:

"The undersigned members of the War Advisory Council of the American Legion Los Angeles County Council Department of California, have seen your magnificent motion picture "Mission to Moscow."

"We unanimously feel that you should be publicly commended for your integrity, courage and patriotism in making this important historical document available, through the motion picture screen, to the American public at large.

"It is our carefully considered opinion that every American citizen should see "Mission to Moscow" at this time. Unfounded attacks and ill-considered criticisms by subversive, irresponsible or uninformed groups can in no way diminish the value of this picture in driving home to the people of America the necessity for understanding and cooperation between this nation and its Allies.

"The smashing success of our forces in the field, made possible only through perfect coordination and cooperation with the forces of our fighting allies is incontrovertible proof of the necessity for continued and increasing friendship and unity between each and all of the United Nations.

"If the world is to be secured against enslavement by agressor nations, all of the freedom loving peoples of the world must stand firmly together in harmony and face the objective resolutely together. Through all the critical years leading up to the present world conflict there has been no documentation of facts available to the public which so clearly conveys understanding of the involved international situation as does your picture "Mission to Moscow.

"No true American can see this picture without being inspired to a higher degree of patriotism, a clearer realization of the responsibilities of American citizenship and a rededication to the ideals and principles upon which our nation is founded.

Re: MISSION TO MOSCOW

"To you, Mr. WARNER, and to your entire organization, we wish to express our sincere appreciation for this, your latest and greatest contribution in a long list of motion picture productions which have stirred the people of America to a greater love of our country.

"You are at liberty to use this communication in any way you desire."

Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted] stated that the books named and other books along the same line were assembled and placed on a table in the lobby of the Los Angeles Public Libraries with a large sign calling attention to the books and suggested that they should be read in connection with "Mission to Moscow". There can be little doubt that this was a well planned scheme to broaden the field of Russian and Communist propaganda. b7D

The "WILLIAMS" referred to on the bookmark is ALBERT RHYS WILLIAMS who spent many years in Russia and has been a consistent and persistent propagandist of Communism for more than twenty years and is still engaged in that line of work. "POLIAKOV" and "MERTH" are Russian writers. "CALDWELL" is ERSKINE CALDWELL, the author of the motion picture script of "Mission to Moscow". CALDWELL is a member of the League of American Writers and has been a Russian propagandist for the past ten years or more. "HINDUS" is MAURICE HINDUS, author of "Red Bread" which was a glorification of Russia and the Russian system. He has written for many radical magazines such as "The New Masses".

"CARROLL named on the bookmark is WALLACE CARROLL, a newspaperman in Moscow, Russia, and for a time was the favorite foreign correspondent to STALIN in 1941 and 1942.

One copy of the bookmark has heretofore been sent to the Bureau and a copy of same is being retained in the Los Angeles Bureau Office.

The trade magazine, "Variety" for June 1, 1943, stated the following with respect to "Mission to Moscow":

> "The Republican National Committee issued a single sheet, larger than a newspaper page, reprinting criticisms from DOROTHY THOMPSON, WESTBROOK PEGLER, BENJAMIN DE CASSERES, Time mag and others. Over all, on the reprint page, was the banner line, 'Mission to Moscow' Denounced as Phony Propaganda. On the page also was a Republican editorial titled 'Is the New Deal Implicated?'"

The article further stated, "President Roosevelt's personal ambassador and campaign contributer, JOSEPH E. DAVIES, participated in Hollywood in the production of the film and undoubtedly aided in its final editing. Would he have done so without White House consent?"

"LOWELL MELLETT, White House intimate and Office of War Information's personal representative in Hollywood, was on the ground during the filming of 'Mission to Moscow'. He has ordered that all scripts before and during production be presented to him. Is it possible that an exception was made for this film affecting so directly America's international relations?"

"There can be little doubt that the furore over 'Mission to Moscow' was created by an American element of Communists whose purge by Russia is so effectively dramatized in the picture."

"The entire bitter attack on the picture thus becomes a bitter attack on principle, rather than on the picture as such, and boils down to the unfounded accusation that it is 'propaganda for a lie'."

The same issue of "Variety" in a different article under the headline, "Hull Okayed 'Mission'" stated the following:

"Reports here are that the State Department first viewed and approved WB 'Mission to Moscow' before it was given public showing .....which has not stopped the Congressional shot-gunning at the film which, after the initial plug in the Congressional Record, has now been the subject of three left jabs in that tome from three western Congressmen."

"Variety" for May 26, stated in part: "Warners 'Mission to Moscow' is still taking the bumps in Congress. Representative

Re: MISSION TO MOSCOW

MARTION T. BENNETT of Missouri inserted the latest slug in the appendix of today's Congressional Record under the title, 'Hollywood and Communism."

"BENNETT wound up and let go with this: 'Hollywood, in its usual extreme style, has apparently lost its head and gone completely overboard in its attempt to make Communism look good."

The Los Angeles Examiner for May 25, 1943, under the Headline, "The American Viewpoint", quoted a letter which JACK WARNER had addressed to WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST complaining about the critical attitude of the Examiner relative to "Mission to Moscow" and requesting Mr. HEARST to "print the other side also in your valuable papers".

The Examiner carried the complete letter which WARNER addressed to HEARST and the latter's reply thereto. HEARST'S reply to WARNER is as follows:

"May 19, 1943."

"Mr. JACK WARNER
WARNER BROS. MOTION PICTURE CO.,
New York City, New York.

Dear JACK:

I certainly do not wish anything to impair our friendship and I hope that criticism of any screen product offered for public patronage and customarily subject to public criticism will not be considered an unwarranted or an unfriendly act.

Our papers printed the criticism by Professor DEWEY and SUZANNE LaFOLLETTE of your film, 'Mission to Moscow', because we thought the criticism presented not only a truly American viewpoint, but a factual statement of the situation, and that both an American viewpoint and a factual statement were necessary for the enlightenment of the public.

Re: MISSION TO MOSCOW

You say our papers 'should state the other side of the case in reply to such attacks as DEWEY and LaFOLLETTE.'

Your film, Mr. WARNER, gives 'the other side of the case' - The Communist side - quite completely.

My contention is that it is entirely essential, not only in the interests of FAIRNESS, but in the interests of FREEDOM, for an American newspaper to print the ANTI-Communist - the DEMOCRATIC side of the case.

I think it is quite as much the duty of the American press to defend Democracy against Bolshevism as against Fascism or Nazism or any other form of totalitarian tyranny.

I am sorry that we disagree on the proper function of the press, - and of the moving picture.

But I am sure that you will realize that our attitude toward your screen product (an attitude so frequently favorable, but in this case frankly critical) is guided by no personal unfriendliness, but merely by a sense of public duty."

"Sincerely,
W. R. HEARST."

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Los Angeles, California
May 27, 1943

Director, FBI

Re: "MISSION TO MOSCOW"

Dear Sir:

The Bureau is, I am sure, aware of the recent attack by WESTBROOK PEGLER on Warner Brothers Studio for the production of "MISSION TO MOSCOW". Pegler has been in Los Angeles during the past week and I am advised by JACK HOLMES of the Publicity Department of that studio in confidence, that Pegler visited the studio last week and called on WHITNEY BOLTON who is in the Publicity Department of the studio and who has been a friend of Pegler for years.

Pegler was shown about the studio and witnessed a private showing of the film entitled "Action in the North Atlantic". Bolton was informed by Pegler that he considered this picture Communist propaganda and was going to attack Warner Brothers for having produced it. On Monday, May 24th, Pegler's article was directed against this motion picture, although he did not actually name it.

Pegler is reported to have advised Bolton that while he was going to criticise the Warners severely for the film based on former Ambassador DAVIES' book, the real purpose of his visit to California at this time was to obtain additional information on CHARLES CHAPLIN and, undoubtedly, Pegler will write some articles on Chaplin in the immediate future.

This information was furnished to me by the Informant well in advance of the appearance of Pegler's article, and it is, undoubtedly, accurate information.

I am forwarding with this communication three copies of a memorandum prepared for me by Special Agent James G. Findlay of the Los Angeles Office. I requested this Agent to submit his opinion of this picture, inasmuch as I believe he is as well qualified as any Special Agent to evaluate it, and that accounts for the expression of his opinion in the memorandum. Also included therein is a summary of the known information concerning ERSKINE CALDWELL, JAY LEYDA and ROBERT BUCKNER.

MEMORANDUM

Re: MISSION TO MOSCOW
(Motion Picture produced by Warner Brothers)

On May 8, 1943 the writer witnessed a preview of the above named motion picture produced by WARNER BROTHERS STUDIO in Burbank, California.

In order to state the impressions one gathers from seeing this picture, it is necessary to state some of the background as it is believed to exist. It should be taken into consideration that the adaptation of the play from the book "MISSION TO MOSCOW" by JOSEPH E. DAVIES, former Ambassador to Moscow, was made by ERSKINE CALDWELL, long identified with Communist Party activity, having followed the line of the Party during all of its changes from the popular front period prior to 1939 through the period of the HITLER-STALIN Pact, which was signed on August 23, 1939, when CALDWELL opposed the Lend Lease Act, the Selective Service Act, and adopted and supported the general program of the American Peace Mobilization. After HITLER attacked STALIN on June 22, 1941, CALDWELL followed the Communist Party line which called for "all out aid to Britain, the Soviet Union and China".

For years CALDWELL has been a member of the League of American Writers, a recognized Communist front organization. He has made a number of trips to Russia and is an outstanding propagandist for Communism, and has been for a number of years.

CALDWELL is recorded as an associate editor of "Soviet Russia Today". He went to Russia in 1941 and wrote the book "All Out on the Road to Smolensk", which is a glorification of the STALIN Regime.

EUGENE LYONS, in his book "THE RED DECADE", Page 145, has stated the following with respect to the League of American Writers under the principal heading "More Planets are Launched":

"Only a congenital dunce can peruse the proceedings of the first Congress of American Revolutionary Writers, which launched the League of American Writers, and doubt that the show was carefully stated by the communists. Every slogan of the Comintern was woven into the design of the performance. Its fundamental assumption was the perfection of STALIN's Russia, including its new literature. Messages from Soviet writers threw the audience into spasms of orgiastic enthusiasm. Every address was a direct or indirect salute to the Kremlin.

"Held in the New School for Social Research in New York, April 24-27, 1935, the congress occurred unknowingly on the very edge of the crumbling Third Period..... Its Muscovite inspiration was not yet muted and camouflaged; the adjective 'revolutionary' was not yet outlawed; the allegiance to Russia was not disguised. Such stratagems would confuse the issue in subsequent congresses and leave muddled literary people more muddled than ever. But now the affair was boldly communist. BROWDER was well to the fore in the organizational stages. The fat little man with the tiny, frightened eyes, ALEXANDER TRACHTENBERG, head of International Publishers and one of the party leaders, was busy moving scenery and prompting the actors.

"MICHAEL GOLD was greeted as 'the best-loved American revolutionary writer' and accepted the accolade without protest. He boasted of the deepening cultural influence of the Communist Party, referring specifically to the success of the Theatre Union and the Group Theatre and to the dozens of revolutionary books rolling off capitalist presses.

"'Our writers must learn,' said he, 'that the working class which has created a great civilization in the Soviet Union is capable of creating a similar civilization in this country.' He called on red writers to regard themselves thereafter as 'artists in uniform.'

"But the center of the stage was held by the party functionaries--GOLD, HATHAWAY, FREEMAN, TRACHTENBERG, OLGIN, et al.--without the concealment which would later become compulsory. The resolutions voted by the congress followed the Moscow line as closely as any party manifesto. The main address, of course, was BROWDER's. 'The Communist Party,' he declared, 'greets this historic Congress of American Writers. We are all soldiers, each in our own place, in a common cause. Let our efforts be united in fraternal solidarity.' The remarkable fact is that an organization as frankly Muscovite should, within less than twelve months, dare pretend to be independent and nonpartisan. Only one fact is more remarkable: that so many hundreds of writers throughout the country should have believed the outrageous lie.

"Before the memory of the League's parentage is quite obliterated, let me list the founding fathers for the coming historian of literary curiosities. The call for the congress was signed by:

"Earl Browder, Michael Gold, Granville Hicks, Theodore Dreiser, Nathan Asch, Lester Cohen, Edward Dahlberg, John L. Spivak, Nelson Algren, Arnold B. Armstrong, Maxwell Bodenheim, Thomas Boyd, Bob Brown, Fielding Burke, Kenneth Burke, Robert Coates, ERSKINE CALDWELL, Alan Calmer, Robert Cantwell, Jack Conroy, Malcolm Cowley, Guy Endore, James T. Farrell, Kenneth Fearing, Ben Field, Waldo Frank, Joseph Freeman, Eugene Gordon, Horace Gregory, Henry Hart, Clarence Hathaway, Josephine Herbst, Robert Herrick, Langston Hughes, Orrick Johns, Arthur Kallet, Lincoln Kirstein, Herbert Kline, Joshua Kunitz, John Howard Lawson, Tillie Lerner, Meridel Le Sueur, Melvin Levy, Robert Morss Lovett, Louis Lozowick, Grace Lumpkin, Lewis Mumford, Edward Newhouse, Joseph North, Meissaye J. Olgin, Samuel Ornitz, Myra Page, John Dos Passos, Paul Peters, Allen Porter, Harold Preece, William Rollins, Jr., Paul Romaine, Isidor Schneider, Edwin Seaver, Claire Sifton, Paul Sifton, George Sklar, Lincoln Steffens, Philip Stevenson, Genevieve Taggard, Alexander Trachtenberg, Nathaniel West, Ella Winter, and Richard Wright."

On Page 318 of this book, Mr. LYONS states:

"The initial congress which launched the league, as we have already recorded, was frankly communist in its temper. Among the signers of its call were Comrades BROWDER, ALEXANDER TRACHTENBERG, GOLD, MOISSAYE OLGIN, JOSEPH NORTH, JOSEPH FREEMAN and other undisguised communists. The call for the Second Congress, held in New York on June 4-6, 1937, omitted such names. It was garnished more discreetly with non-political names, in line with the new period. The signers now were NEWTON ARVIN, VAN WYCK BROOKS, ERSKINE CALDWELL, MALCOLM COWLEY, PAUL de KRUIF, WALDO FRANK, LANGSTON HUGHES, JAMES WELDON JOHNSON, JOHN HOWARD LAWSON, ROBERT MORSS LOVETT, ARCHIBALD MacLEISH, CLAUDE McKAY, VINCENT SHEEAN, UPTON SINCLAIR, GEORGE SOULE, DONALD OGDEN STEWART, GENEVIEVE TAGGARD, JEAN STARR UNTERMEYER, CARL VAN DOREN, ELLA WINTER and LEWIS MUMFORD."

JAY LEYDA, who was called in as Technical Director of the picture, has a long record of Communist activity. For several years prior to 1935, LEYDA was stationed in Moscow where he was director of propaganda, which was disseminated by way of the theater and motion pictures. He came to America about 1935 and was connected with the Modern Film Library, an organization sponsored and supported by the Rockefeller Foundation. About 1939 LEYDA was discharged by that organization on account of his Communist activity. Also during that period LEYDA was the associate editor of "New Theater", a Communist controlled magazine dealing with the theaters and motion pictures in the United States. He has been a sponsor for and supporter of a large number of alleged Communist front organizations in the United States. At the present time he is a member of and active in the Hollywood League of American Writers. He lectures at the Hollywood Writers School, a project sponsored by the League of American Writers and completely under the domination and control of the Communist Party.

The following information throws some light on the activities of Mr. LEYDA covering a period of years:

The Motion Picture Almanac for 1939-40 on Page 391, gives the following short biography of JAY LEYDA:

"JAY LEYDA, Assistant to Curator, Museum of Modern Art Film Library. Born Detroit, Michigan. In 1933 - 1936 studied in the State Institute of Cinematography, Moscow, Russia, and in the Soviet Film Industry. 1936, Modern Art Film Library." (New York City)

The Motion Picture Almanac for 1941 adds that LEYDA was born in Detroit, Michigan in 1910; also that he was "on the Editorial Board of the quarterly magazine 'FILMS'". It also states that he is a "lecturer and critic."

In the Los Angeles Times for November 15, 1942, PHILIP K. SCHEUER states "LEYDA is a Russian born American citizen."

The "New Theater" for June, 1936, on Page 17, states that a delegation from the United States would visit the Soviet Union to attend the Soviet Theater Festival. It further stated "The delegation will be welcomed by prominent foreign critics and leading figures of the theater and screen arts, including TRETIAKOV, EISENSTEIN, FRIEDRICH WOLF, JAY LEYDA, LEON MUSSINAC, CHEN-I-WAN, and PISCATOR....."

Although LEYDA was in Moscow and had been there for some three or four years, according to his own biography given above, his name appears on the masthead of this New Theater magazine as one of the "Associates" of the Editorial Staff. This magazine was a well known Communist controlled publication, devoted to the theater and allied arts.

The New Leader of New York City for November 9, 1940 stated the following which relates to JAY LEYDA:

"NELSON A. ROCKEFELLER is one of those bright young millionnaires, who wants to do something constructive with the funds his grand dad pulled out of the oil fields. Being the son of an oil magnate he should be familiar with pipe lines--like those which the caviar comrades in New York have laid out between themselves and the oil millions.

"NELSON has an important job to do.

"Then why does NELSON jeopardize his reputation and that of his division, which is close to the Defense Commission, by permitting his Museum of Modern Art Film Library--an important center--to be run by those easily identified as fellow-tourists? RICHARD GRIFFITH is the new assistant curator of the Film Library. He was appointed by IRIS BARRY, we understand from sources close to the Museum, to take the place of the Soviet-trained Propaganda Commissar JAY LEYDA. LEYDA, it will be recalled, served as curator for four years, practically ever since he left Moscow, until last July, when Miss BARRY, the curator, was compelled by public opinion to relieve him of his job.

"By substituting Mr. GRIFFITH, she hires a close friend and collaborator of LEYDA. GRIFFITH is a contributor to LEYDA's magazine "FILMS" which closely follows what the Soviet intellectuals consider a 'line.'

"Mr. GRIFFITH is also a member, and one of the chief publicity agents of the Communist-controlled Association of Documentary Film Producers.

"Too much importance can not be placed on the role which will be played by the documentary film in the propaganda which will necessarily be part of this nation's life during the next few years. Mr. ROCKEFELLER is privileged to hire whom he wants, but this is a vital international job, in which films will play a big part....the rest is obvious..."

The New Leader for March 22, 1941 states the following, with respect to JAY LEYDA:

"Last year this column exposed Communist infiltration into the Film Library of the Modern Museum. We revealed that one of its directors was JAY LEYDA, former employee of Moscow's Bureau of International Revolutionary Literature. All of which is Mr. LEYDA's privilege.

"But Mr. LEYDA was hired in Moscow by IRIS BARRY, curator of the film library. Which is NELSON A. ROCKEFELLER's privilege. He owns the museum, along with JACK WHITNEY and a few others.

"But along comes news that Mr. ROCKEFELLER, who directs the DNAC division of cultural and commercial relations with South America, will launch an intensive program for the collection and production of informative and educational non-theatrical motion pictures to be shown before cultural groups in Latin-American countries. The program, undertaken with the cooperation of the State Department will be carried out by the Film Library, Inc., of the Museum of Modern Art of New York.

"We learn from SEYMOUR STERN, oneof the nation's experts in movie history, that the Library is still the center of the tovarischi's documentary film crowd, top man of which is JORIS IVENS, now in Hollywood trying to get backing for a series of documentary films."

The New Leader for October 4, 1941 states the following with respect to JAY LEYDA:

"Our theatrical agents pass on to us the fact that despite repeated warnings NELSON A. ROCKEFELLER has permitted JAY LEYDA, Moscow-trained film expert, to emerge as a producer of cultural messages for showing south of the border, yi, yi, yi, yi, or maybe oi, oi, oi, oi..... Mr. LEYDA's first opus, now in preliminary stages, is addressed at the Rockefeller-Whitney cultural relations program for the Latin Americas. The working title is 'Better Dresses, Fifth Floor.' Fifth Avenue public relations offices have indicated that the Bonwit shop and Sak's have not been found 'available' for location work. By the way, has anyone, anywhere heard of an active anti-Communist getting a government job?"

EUGENE LYONS in his book "The Red Decade", states on Page 139 the following:

"The New Theatre boasted what is probably the largest group of 'contributing editors' ever published at one time. Besides the party wheel horses it included ANITA BLOCK, HALLIE FLANAGAN (subsequently head of the Federal Theatre Project), VIRGIL GEDDES, PAUL and Mrs. PAUL SIFTON, JAY LEYDA, H. W. L. DANA, LANGSTON HUGHES, ROBERT FORSYTHE, MURIEL RUKEYSER, and others."

The same book on Page 247 and 248, under the main heading "Hooray for Murder!", states the following:

"The variety of the signers of this amazing whitewash of STALIN prepared by movie actors and scientists must stand as a symbol of the Red Decade. Its insanity was surpassed only once, fifteen months later, by four hundred experts who publicly denied the possibility of any common ground between Russia and Germany—nine days before the two nations made their alliance in the Kremlin. Here, for the record, is the distinguished list, exactly as published by the Daily Worker of April 23, 1938:" (The name of JAY LEYDA appears in this list.)

Mr. LYONS on Page 348 of the same book, under the main heading "The Last Loony Scene", states the following:

"Among the signatories of the 400-signature letter were at least 29 who had also graced the famous 150-signature letter whitewashing the Moscow trials and purges. To have given support to two such documents rates them a special listing as stooges-cum-laude, so here they are:" (The name of JAY LEYDA appears in this list of 29 names.)

The picture purports to relate actual transactions which took place in the League of Nations, in Berlin, in Stalingrad and in Moscow at the time of the "purge trials". Contrary to the general belief, the film does not, in Agent's opinion, try to create friendship between the Russian and American people, but is devoted to blotting out the murderous reputation which STALIN bears and the building up of a STALIN Regime which has the appearance of being most democratic and beneficent. The assertion is made that Ambassador DAVIES went to Russia and Europe to learn the truth and report the facts. The facts as they are depicted in the picture fall far short of what has been a matter of history for a number of years. The "purge trials" court scene, in the picture, endeavors to make it appear that justice was done and that the victims voluntarily confessed to treason and other crimes which warranted placing them before a firing squad. This portrayal is so far from the heretofore accepted facts, that one wonders how it was possible for a man to conceive the idea that his unsupported word and report could completely change the meaning and understanding of twenty-five years of sordid history.

The picture contrasts the diplomacy, political acts and workings of a recognized Totalitarian Government with those of the Democratic Nations of Britain and America, the results being strongly in favor of the Russian form.

The production must be classified as a straightforward documentary propaganda picture made with the object and purpose of softening and ultimately breaking down the antagonism of the average American citizen to a form of Government which the intelligent American citizen knows has been in deadly conflict with his Government for the past twenty-five years. The picture deals with the acts of officials who followed the Communist Party line of the Communist International through periods of peace, then appeasement and finally war, and justifies and glorifies those acts which were opposed to the interests of the Democracies and which were always in the interest and benefit of the Soviet Union.

The theme throughout the picture was not one of Democracy and the individual rights of free men, but rather a glorification of that brand of diplomacy which has for its basic principle "The end justifies the means".

This picture will no doubt lend support to the activities of the Communist Party at the present time. Its membership is increasing and its undercover activities are increasing. It is conceded that the motion picture is a very powerful propaganda instrument and its ability to reach a very large percentage of the people makes it a most potent factor in molding opinion. There can be little doubt that this picture will have an effect on some classes of the American people, which will not be in the interest of the American form of Democracy, for the reason that all through the picture the Governmental processes of the United States and Britain are made to suffer by contrast with the political philosophy of JOSEPH STALIN and the Soviet Unions, which is made to appear as the finest ever conceived by man.

ROBERT H. BUCKNER, producer of the picture "MISSION TO MOSCOW" is an employee of the WARNER BROTHERS STUDIO and as such employee was in charge of one of the units of production and in that capacity had charge of that unit which made the picture.

Mr. BUCKNER was born in Crewe, Virginia, May 28, 1906. He was educated at the University of Virginia, the University of Edinburgh, Scotland, and Ecole Polytechnique, Paris, France. He is a news reporter and writer by profession. After graduation, he was engaged in newspaper work abroad. In 1934 and 1935 he was located in Moscow, Russia, as correspondent for the London Daily Mail. In 1936, during the war by Italy on Ethiopia, he was a war correspondent in Ethiopia. At various times during his career as a writer, he has contributed various kinds of material to different magazines.

In 1938 he was brought to Hollywood by WARNER BROTHERS, where he wrote screen plays for motion pictures. About a year ago, when the "Mission to Moscow" was contemplated, he was made associate producer and was given the job of producing that picture for WARNER BROTHERS.

While there is no open record of Communist activities on his part known at this time, he did personally select JAY LEYDA to act as Technical Director for the picture. In that position he was responsible for the selection of the writers and actors for the picture.

It also appears that at the time Mr. BUCKNER was in Moscow in 1934 and 1935, JAY LEYDA was there also and was connected with the Bureau of Revolutionary Literature and the Soviet Motion Picture Industry. It is therefore very probable that Mr. BUCKNER and Mr. LEYDA were acquainted with each other at that time. Private and confidential sources reveal that Mr. BUCKNER is sympathetic to Soviet philosophy, and was during the time he was abroad before coming back to the United States. The same source stated that for this reason he was selected to oversee the production of the above named picture.

A check has been made of the pictures on which BUCKNER was employed as a writer before he was selected as the producer of "MISSION TO MOSCOW". This check reveals that he has not worked on anything of a political nature, but that his time and talent were devoted to melodrama and light comedy.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

RE: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF
MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

The Los Angeles Office has advised that it is submitting a report under date of July 10, 1943, which sets forth information regarding nine motion pictures of a Communist propaganda nature. The report will set out the Communist tendencies of the directors, producers, writers and principal actors in those films. The report will also contain lists of writers who specialize in Communist propaganda.

Another item of interest which will be set forth completely in the report is the formation of the Cinema Post of the American Legion which was formed June 27, 1943, with a temporary charter. This organization is limited in membership to those persons engaged in the motion picture industry, nearly all of whom will be Communists or Communist Party line followers. The alleged purpose of this Legion Post is to counteract the general policy of the American Legion in its condemnation of such Communist Party propaganda pictures as "Mission to Moscow." This Legion Post expects to get a permanent charter in August, 1943.

ACTION: As soon as the report from Los Angeles is received, it will be digested for your information.

Respectfully,

D. M. Ladd

Dear Sir:

Confidential Informant [redacted] has supplied considerable information of value during the past week.

It was determined from informant that on July 12, 1943 arrangements were being made whereby THOMAS FITZSIMMONS of National Maritime Union will proceed to Hollywood, California in the employ of 20th Century Fox Pictures. It was also reported that FITZSIMMONS will receive a salary of $100. per week plus $10. a day expenses, plus a "screen credit". It would appear that FITZSIMMONS will act in an advisory capacity for the production of a film for the motion picture concern.

In view of the type of information being supplied by informant, it is suggested that his services be continued.

RE: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE
MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY
INTERNAL SECURITY (C)

Mr. HOLMES related that on July 13, 1943 DONALD K. KING of the Publicity Department, Warner Brothers Pictures, Incorporated, again attempted to recruit him into the Communist Party, but Mr. HOLMES advised KING that he is not a "joiner". KING also requested HOLMES to join the Cinema Post which he said was going to become "the most powerful thing in the American Legion".

HOLMES disclosed that the following individuals were either members of the Communist Party or strong supporters of the Communist Party in the movie colony:

ARNOLD ALBERT, assistant producer of short subjects at Warner Brothers.
ROBERT H. BUCKNER, producer.
JULIUS EPSTEIN, producer.
PHILIP EPSTEIN, producer.
IRVING FEIN, publicity department, Columbia Pictures Corporation, a brother-in-law of S. CHARLES EINFELD, vice-president in charge of advertising, Warner Brothers.
JOHN GARFIELD, also known as JULES GARFINKEL, actor.
BENJAMIN GLAZER, producer.
OLIVIA DeHAVILLAND, actress.
JOHN HUSTON, writer.
JULES LEVINE, a personal friend of S. CHARLES EINFELD and presently in the United States Army.
Dr. HERMAN LISSAUER, head of the research division, Warner Brothers.
LESLIE MASON, former president of the Screen Publicists Guild.
VERN PARTEN, publicity department, Warner Brothers.
ROBERT ROSSON, writer, Warner Brothers.
IRVING RUBINE, publicity department, Sol Lesser Company.
ROSE RUBINE, wife of IRVING RUBINE, who has admitted that she and her husband are members of the Communist Party.

It is requested that the name of JOHN M. HOLMES be protected so that he will never be suspected of furnishing information to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

REMARKS: 1 2
DATE OF REVIEW 7/23/98 #200,083

Dear Sir:

There are being transmitted herewith as enclosures to the Bureau three copies of a memorandum, entitled, "Northwest (Movie Industry) Section, Los Angeles County Communist Party." This memorandum is based on the records of ELIZABETH BINGOM, also known as ELIZABETH LEACH, photographic copies of which were made available to Special Agents DAVID A. MAC CULLOCH and JOHN R. VICARS on July 22, 1943, by a highly confidential source. ELIZABETH LEACH, by way of identification, is the paid Organizer of the Northwest Section, Los Angeles County Communist Party, which section is composed of movie industry personnel. (X) (U)

In reading the enclosed memorandum, the following observations may be of assistance:

1. The List of branches on pages 1 and 2 are, according to the informant, the total list of branches of this section as of March 4, 1943, and July 2, 1943, respectively. These were obtained from Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted] but are inserted in this memorandum in order to show a complete picture of the Northwest Section. The remainder of the memorandum deals exclusively with the records of ELIZABETH LEACH. (X) (U)

2. On pages 2 and 3 a memorandum entitled, "Organizational Proposal for Section," is explanatory of the many breakdowns of the various lists of names in the remainder of the memorandum. The interpretation of the various lists and categories made by Special Agents DAVID A. MAC CULLOCH and JOHN R. VICARS, based on examination of these records and the knowledge that the communist Party is reorganizing, in Los Angeles, is as follows:

A. Pages 4 to 20 contain a list of the section and branch functionaries, together with a list of the members of each branch prior to the reorganization The list of writers on transfer from these branched listed on pages 23 and 24 also must be condidered as membersof these branches prior to the reorganization. (X)

B. Pages 17 through 25 apparently deal with the reorganization of the Northwest Section, particularly the reorganization of the writers into one branch and the establishment of mixed branches. Proposals for such branches are noted in the memorandum on page 2. Pages 17 and 18 are apparently work sheets reflecting the geographical location of Communist Party members of this section who are to be members of the mixed branches. Pages 17,18, and 19 apparently are the final list of members of these mixed branches. Pages 21, 22, and 23 are apparently the work sheets on the establishment of the writers branch. It will be noted that these pages reflect the geographical location of the writers in this section. On pages 24 and 25 apparently is the list of the three groups of writers described on page 2 of the memorandum. (X) (X)(U)

It will be noted that there is no list of the branches described on page 2 of the memorandum as "Concentration Branches." It is believed that these "Concentration Branches" will include the following: (X)(U)

Branch L - Composed of Screen Reader Guild members.
Branch N - Composed of Screen Office Employee Guild Members.
Branch O - Composed of members of Local 47, American Federation of Musicians Union.
Branch Q - Composed of members of the Screen Set Designers Guild.
Branch R - Composed of members of the Screen Technicians.

The fact that these branches are not listed under the reorganization may indicate that they are the "Concentration Branches," and as such will remain essentially intact. As stated previously, the reorganization is not yet completed, and it has been reported that Branch R has recently been dissolved. (X)(U) noted from Photographic copies of same, which are being enclosed herewith to the Bureau, did not give the complete names of individuals set out in the enclosed memorandum, but generally gave only first names plus initials. Identifications listed in the Memorandum were made by Special Agents DAVID A. MAC CULLOCH and JOHN A. WIGGS from various confidential informants, records, and files of the Los Angeles Field Division, plus the descriptive material found in the records of ELIZABETH LEACH. (X) (U)

It will be noted on page 3 of the attached memorandum under the sub-title, "Public Political Activity" that the Party is attempting to establish a book store in the heart of Hollywood. The August 3, 1943, edition of the "Peoples World" contains an advertisement announcing the Lincoln Book Shop under the supervision of JACK LEED will be opened at 1721 North Highland Avenue, Hollywood, in the near future. It has been indicated by other sources that August 7, 1943, will be the opening date. (X) (U)

It is also noted under this same sub-title that the Northwest Section is attempting to establish one branch of people connected with the industry who will be in a position to function more or less openly. In this connection, it has been noted that a number of transfers had been effected, moving Party members from the 57th Assembly District Branch of the Party to the Northwest Section. That this branch has been completely organized has not come to the attention of this office as yet. (X) (U)

It is contemplated that more identification of the persons listed in the memorandum will be made in the near future as physical surveillances are being conducted regularly of various meetings in the Northwest Section. (X) (U)

It will be noted that the list of branches dated July 2, 1943, set out on pages 1 and 2 does not correspond exactly with the branches noted in the records of ELIZABETH LEACH. It is noted in particular that Branches A, A-1, A-2, and A-3 are listed. This may be the three groups of the writers branch. (Disregarding Branch A, which is listed as having only one member.) It is also noted that there is an N and an N-1 "Branch." Apparently, these are two groups of the same branch, since it has been noted from other records that certain functionaries in Branch N have been described as "Group Leaders", which term, according to the memorandum on page 2, is to be used where the branch is split up into groups. (X) U

Two copies of this memorandum are also being enclosed for

((To give a complete picture of the structural setup of the Northwest Section, the following Branches, which represent the total Branches of the Northwest Section on the two dates set out below, are listed. It is believed that the Section is still undergoing a reorganization and that the Branches listed as of July 2, 1943, will probably not all be in existence when the reorganization is completed. For example, Branch R has already been broken up. The list of Branches below was furnished this office by Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted].)) (X)

ORGANIZATIONAL PROPOSALS FOR SECTION

(U)

1. WRITERS' BRANCH

   A. Approximately 45 people, to function in three groups. Groups to meet every two weeks, with Branch as a whole meeting together every six weeks or two months.

   B. Branch executive to be composed of officers of the Branch, group Captains and leading people in various fields of writers activity.

   C. In selecting people for Writers' Branch, it is necessary to retain some writers in existing Branches where their removal would mean seriously crippling Branch leadership. This to be considered as temporary, pending development of sufficient forces within the Branch.

(U)

2. MIXED BRANCHES

   A. Basic principle: to achieve maximum geographical homogeneity, with minimum disruption of existing Branches.

B. PROPOSE: 1. HOLLYWOOD BRANCH — With Branch E as basic nucleus.

2. SUNSET BRANCH —With Branches G and H as basic nuclei.

3. BEVERLY-WESTWOOD BRANCH — With Branch C as basic nucleus.

4. FAIRFAX BRANCH - With Branch I as basic nucleus.

3. CONCENTRATION BRANCHES.

A. To move gradually toward strengthening concentration Branches by transfers in all of those who properly should be there and transfers out of those who are not able to function most effectively in concentration field.

((It is to be noted that No. 4 is not included in the original records.))

5. PUBLIC POLITICAL ACTIVITY

A. To establish at once a bookstore in heart of Hollywood as a regular Progressive Book Store, carrying in addition, certain general publications most suited for community. This bookstore to undertake forums, book reviews from time to time.

B. To establish one Branch of people connected with the industry, who are in a position to function more or less openly. This Branch will have the objective of becoming nucleus of this Branch, with the addition of approximately ten people from the 57th Assembly District, and selected individuals from other Branches in the Section.

6. TIME SCHEDULE

A. Meetings with Branch executives most affected by new organizational proposals within next ten days — to go over proposals, personnel, etc. This is to beaccomplished by May 30th. (This will involve Branches A,C,E,G,H,I,K and O.) Meeting with balance of Branch executives to be held later.)

B. General meeting of Writers to set up new Branch in first week in June.

C. All Branches to meet on new basis in June.

D. Branch elections to be held during month of June.

7. SECTION CONVENTION

Original plan for Section conventions to be held in July. Do not know yet what effect postponement of State Convention will have on this.

THE DIRECTOR

RE: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY

3-28-95

Attached is a memorandum showing the extent of the Communist infiltration in the motion picture industry as developed to date. Membership lists for the Communist Party organization within the industry have not yet been available for the greater number of branches in the Northwest Section of the Party in Hollywood.

However, you will note that the greatest strength of the Party lies in the Screen Writers Guild, to which the vast majority of all writers in Hollywood belong. The Screen Writers Guild is a trade organization and distinct from the League of American Writers, a Communist front organization, affiliated with the International of Revolutionary Writers in Moscow. The members of the latter organization are not necessarily members of the Communist Party, although in most instances Communist Party members among the screen writers are members of the League of American Writers.

Respectfully,

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

Re: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE
MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
DATE 3-28-95 BY SP1-BTC

PURPOSE

The purpose of this memorandum is to show the extent and distribution of Communist Party influence in the motion picture industry in Hollywood, California. This memorandum will treat solely those individuals who have been identified as members of the Communist Party.

HERBERT JOSEPH BIBERMAN

b7C

Herbert Joseph Biberman, [redacted] is the principal leader of the Communist Party among the "intellectuals" in the motion picture industry. He reportedly joined the Communist Party in about 1931, and since that time has been identified with the following Communist Front Organizations, in all of which he has taken an active part:

- Conference for Democratic Action
- American League Against War and Fascism
- American League for Peace and Democracy
- Hollywood Peace Forum
- American Peace Crusade
- American Peace Mobilization
- Hollywood Anti-Nazi League
- North American Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy

RECORDED

100-138754-20
F B I
29 JUL 25 1944

In 1941, information was received to the effect that Biberman had strong international Communist connections. It is known that he has been in contact with persons having Comintern connections and persons who might be referred to as members of the so-called Communist "underground" in this country. He is also known to be an associate of members of the Soviet Consulate staff in Los Angeles, California. Biberman has long been a member of the League of American Writers, which has been referred to on numerous occasions as a Communist Front organization. The Los Angeles Office of the Bureau has developed information which reflects definitely that Herbert Joseph Biberman is the chairman of Branch A of the Northwest Section of the Communist Party in Los Angeles, California. His wife, Gale Sondergaard, the actress, is the "People's World" subscription director for Branch E of the Northwest Section of the Communist Party in Hollywood, California, and Biberman's brother, Edward, an artist, is the chairman of Branch E of the Northwest Section of the Communist Party.

BORIS MORROS, with alias Boris Moroz

Boris Morros is a naturalized Russian who at the present time is a musical director in the Hollywood motion picture colony. Morros was recently contacted by Vasilli Zubilin, reportedly the head of the Soviet Secret Police for the Western Hemisphere, and was given a briefcase containing unknown documents by Zubilin. According to an unknown informant, Morros acts as an agent of Zubilin in transferring information to German espionage agents. Morros is a close contact of members of the Soviet Consulate staff in Los Angeles, California, and is believed to occupy the same status in the Soviet espionage apparatus as Herbert Biberman occupies in the Communist Party and Front group organizations.

The studio unions in Hollywood have set up the "Conference of Studio Unions." This includes the following:

1. Studio Painters, Local 644.
2. Screen Office Employees' Guild.
3. Screen Cartoonists' Guild.
4. Screen Set Designers' Guild.
5. Laboratory Technicians, Local 683, of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees.
6. Studio Machinists, Local 1185, of the International Association of Machinists.

It will be noted that thirty-one members of the Screen Office Employees' Guild are in Branches N1 and N2 of the Northwest Section of the Communist Party. It will also be noted that nine members of the Screen Set Designers' Guild are in Branch Q of the Northwest Section. Twenty-five members of the Laboratory Technicians, Local 683, are in Branch R of the Northwest Section.

The President of the Conference of Studio Unions is Herbert K. Sorrell, the business representative of Studio Painters, Local 644. He has long been a member of the Communist Party and is reported to hold a position among the labor groups in Hollywood, comparable to that held by Harry Bridges in the Maritime Unions of the CIO in the State of California.

The Chairman of the Conference of Studio Unions is Norval D. Crutcher, who is also the Secretary-Treasurer of Laboratory Technicians, Local 683. Crutcher is reported to be a very active member of the Communist Party who was recruited into the Party on September 20, 1937, as a member of the Studio Unit of the Industrial Section, which Section has since been abandoned due to reorganizational steps. The Cinema Post expected to obtain a permanent charter from the American Legion in August, 1943 but the American Legion revoked the temporary charter which had been given the post and the organization is now defunct.

The influence of Herbert Sorrell extends to the American Federation of Musicians, Local No. 47, thirty-six members of which are in Branch O of the Northwest Section of the Party.

REORGANIZATIONAL PROPOSALS FOR THE NORTHWEST SECTION

According to information developed by the Los Angeles Office, the Northwest Section of the Party proposes to put the branch organization on a geographical basis with four main branches:

These branches will for the most part function secretly. However, one branch of people connected with the motion picture industry who are in a position to function more or less openly will be organized.

The so-called "Concentration Branches" consisting of members of the various studio unions will apparently remain essentially intact because of their close operation within the unions to which their members belong.

"North Star" was produced by Samuel Goldyn, but has not been released. The story was by Lillian Hellman and deals with the subject of collective farming in the Soviet Union. Lillian Hellman is a member of the League of American writers and was a member of the American Peace Mobilization.

"Russia" will be released soon by the Metro-Goldyn Mayer studios. J. Leyda, aforementioned, is the technical director for this picture. Stock shots taken in Russia are utilized as background and were purchased from Artkino, the Soviet film agency. V. V. Pastoev, Soviet Vice Consul at Los Angeles, appeared on the MGM lot at least three times to observe the shooting of this picture.

"The Russian People," is being made by Twentieth Century Fox. The producers are Doris Morros and his business associate, Sam Spiegle, alias S. P. Eagle. The screen play was written by Clifford Odets, a member of the League of American writers, who was a member of that organization's national council when it affiliated with the International Union of Revolutionary Writers, with headquarters in Moscow.

"Song of Russia" is being made by MGM. The producer is Joe Pasternak. The original story was written by Guy Endore and adapted for the screen by Paul Jarrico and Richard Collins, both members of the Northwest Section of the Communist Party.

"The Seventh Cross" by Anna Seghers, true name: Netty Radvanyi, a European Communist now residing in Mexico, will be produced by MGM. Anna Seghers is part of the Free Germany movement in Mexico City and is reportedly a representative of the Communist International. The screen play has been adapted by Viola Brothers Shore, who is reported to be a member of the Communist Party and is known to be a lecturer at the Hollywood Writer's School, a member of the League of American Writers, an original founder of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, a Communist front organization, a supporter of the activities of the New Theater League, which was affiliated with the International Union of Revolutionary Theaters, with headquarters in Moscow.

ACTION:

The motion picture industry situation is being followed closely and you will be immediately advised of all pertinent investigative developments.

Respectfully,

D. M. Ladd

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

RE: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY

Attached is a memorandum showing the extent of the Communist infiltration in the motion picture industry as developed to date. Membership lists for the Communist Party organization within the industry have not yet been available for the greater number of branches in the Northwest Section of the Party in Hollywood.

However, you will note that the greatest strength of the Party lies in the Screen Writers Guild, to which the vast majority of all writers in Hollywood belong. The Screen Writers Guild is a trade organization and distinct from the League of American Writers, a Communist front organization, affiliated with the International of Revolutionary Writers in Moscow. The members of the latter organization are not necessarily members of the Communist Party, although in most instances Communist Party members among the screen writers are members of the League of American Writers.

Respectfully,

D. M. Ladd

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS: The Communist International, about 1933, realized the value of the motion picture as a propaganda medium, and in 1935 a directive was issued by the CP to make an intensive drive in the cultural groups, writers, artists, actors, actresses and others to enlist their assistance toward the Communist cause. The Communists, at the same time, made an intensive drive in the labor union field in the motion picture industry. The Communists made use of many Communist fronts to recruit members and extend their control in those fields and in the political field. The directors and producers have followed, and in some respects, have catered to the Communist pressure. Lists of writers at various studios obtained and set out. SERGEI EISENSTEIN, Soviet Film Director, is visiting in Los Angeles at the present time. Propaganda films and Russian films are distributed in Los Angeles by THE FILM-TAX, West Coast representative of Artkino. The film "Russia" believed to be a propaganda picture, being produced by KING, Secretary of the Cinema Post of the American Legion obtained.

GOLDSTEIN'S boss and had full charge of all Russian films in America until LEONID A. ANTONOV (ANTINOFF) arrived in this country. According to Source, ANTINOFF is a member of the Soviet Film Organization in Russia.

Source has further informed that ANTINOFF met EDWARD HANNAN at which time HANNAN was introduced as M-G-M's contact man to purchase film. HANNAN entertained ANTINOFF in the Studio at M-G-M's expense at which time the film "Mrs. Miniver" was shown. At this time four Russian cameramen and an interpreter named WALDRON, were present at the showing of "Mrs. Miniver". Source further stated that the four cameramen have returned to Russia but that WALDRON, who possibly is an American-born Russian Jew, is somewhere in Hollywood.

Source has revealed that ANTINOFF is one of the largest producers in Russia and he was sent to the United States to act as liaison agent to get Russian pictures released in this country. Source further stated that another duty of ANTINOFF'S was to read scripts of films produced in the United States to see if they are favorable to Russia and that whenever any Russian film is desired for stock shots the picture must necessarily not be anti-Communist; that it is not necessary for the picture to be Communist to obtain the films but that the picture must be at least neutral on the subject of Communism.

Source further stated that whenever M-G-M wishes any Russian film it is necessary for ED HANNAN, who is in charge of the Film Library at M-G-M, to make arrangements for the purchase of the film through BEN GOLDSTEIN, [redacted] (telephone WAlnut 0108), with whom HANNAN has had contact since December, 1942. GOLDSTEIN is American-born and works at Technicolor Laboratories in Hollywood.

On July 25th Source B informed that Vice Consul PASTOEV was contacted by a party believed to be LION FEUCHTWANGER, regarding an article appearing in recent newspapers, namely the Los Angeles Examiner and the Peoples World, about the manifesto sent to Germany from the National Confederation of Free Germans in Russia. "Russia:"

Source C has informed that the picture "Russia", which is a musicale, will be released very soon by the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studios. The leading stars of the picture will be ROBERT TAYLOR and SUSAN PETERS. GREGORY RATOFF is directing the picture. LEONID VASIAN, better known as LEO VASIAN, is the Art Director of the picture. Source has stated that V. V. PASTOEV, Russian Vice-Consul, has appeared on the M-G-M lot three times to his personal knowledge during the shooting of this picture. Stock shots taken in Russia, which will be utilized as background, have been purchased by the Studio from Artkino, whose Los Angeles representative is BEN GOLDSTEIN.

Source has further informed that on one occasion JAY LEYDA, Technical Director for the picture "Russia", appeared on this set just as LEO VASIAN had finished building a set depicting a Russian village. LEYDA offered a suggestion that this set was not modern and did not depict Russia as it is today. VASIAN countered with a statement to the effect that he was born in Russia, lived under the Czar and served as an official in the White Russian Army and as such knew Russia as it really is. VASIAN heatedly told LEYDA that he and a few others had gone to Russia for a couple of years and had built a few modern villages with steam heat which they were trying to pass off as Russia today. VASIAN said that he was going to depict Russia as it really is, and according to Source, the set remained as VASIAN built it.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN, Hollywood actor, acted as master of ceremonies at the reception and introduced KALATOZOV. be guest of honor Sunday afternoon at a reception at Mocambo, arranged by the Motion Picture Committee of the National Council of American Soviet Friendship. The reception will be followed by a screening of excerpts from KALATOZOV's films, including his latest "The Unconquerable."

[Source A has informed that KALATOZOV is the official representative of the Soviet Film Industry in Hollywood. The press has stated that his duties would be comparable to that of an ambassador in diplomatic circles, with the additional function of advising on the purchase of American films. This source further stated that his aims are to "strengthen the artistic and commercial ties between the cinema people of the United States and those of the Soviet Union." His duties will be to carry out, in conjunction with the Soviet Committee, the special representative of which is LEONID A. ANTONOV, whose headquarters are in New York City.]

This would appear from an interview given to Daily Variety, a theatrical trade paper, in New York City dated June 8, 1943, in which it was stated "world wide political policy recently announced by Stalin whereby Comintern activities in other lands are abolished, is apparently keynoting picture production plans of the Soviet."

This source further stated that [KALATOZOV is in contact with the known Communist elements in Hollywood, as evidenced by the nature of a reception given in his honor on Sunday, August 12, 1943 at the Mocambo Cafe in Hollywood. The entertainment for KALATOZOV was sponsored by the National Council of American Soviet Friendship under the direction of "Reverend" THOMAS L. HARRIS, the national secretary of the organization. 2. To confine legitimate labor union activities to routine matters and devote major activities to the political field by working with those organizations which honestly prosecute war aims, at the same time bore within them and take them over.

3. To spread propaganda within and without the unions to create sympathy for the Soviet Union and its system of government.

4. To cooperate with all other Communist dominated groups which are now a part of the national program of the Communist Party to browbeat and terrorize public officials by such tactics as demonstrations, letter-writing campaigns, slander campaigns and personal attacks.

5. To cooperate with the cultural and creative sections of the motion picture industry in attempts to force the making of motion pictures which glorify the Soviet Union and create sympathy for the Communist cause.

6. To put pressure on the producers of motion pictures to make pictures delineating the negro race in most favorable terms as part of the general line of the Communist Party which strives to win the negroes over to the Communist cause.

7. To propagandize members of the non-Communist unions in the studios, using the guise of patriotism and all-out support of the war and win them over to their cause, at the same time try to oust the regular officials by using unfounded insinuations and accusations. This latter method is to be used very cautiously to avoid exposure.

MOTION PICTURE WRITERS IN THE VARIOUS STUDIOS:

MGM

Source A has informed that writers are, as a rule, not employed on long term contracts but are employed to write some particular script and when that is done the writer checks off the lot. For this reason it is improper to state that any of them are employed by a particular studio. They work for any studio as they may be called or selected to do a particular job, depending on the character, reputation and the credits which the individual writer may have in the writing profession.

Special Agent H. BRUCE BAUMEISTER contacted MGM Studios and obtained a list of writers who were employed by that studio on August 1, 1943. This list is as follows:

AKINS, JOE
BECK, GEORGE —C
BERKELEY, MARTIN—C
BORETZ, ALLEN—C
ANDREWS, ROBERT

Source A advised that PAT CASEY is the representative of the Motion Picture Producers Association. One factor which has contributed much to increasing the influence of the Conference of Studio Union groups, more or less Communist controlled, in the Hollywood Studios, has been the fact that PAT CASEY, the labor relations representative of the motion picture producers has favored these groups in their bargaining transactions with the producers. (To indicate the importance of Mr. CASEY's position, it may be stated that his annual salary is $80,000)

SECRET

Particularly has CASEY cooperated with HERBERT K. SORRELL to a degree which has been very noticeable. SORRELL seems to be a favorite with CASEY. He has made concessions and granted conditions to this group represented by SORRELL, which have not been made to other conservative labor unions. It is a known fact in labor circles that SORRELL has entry at all times to CASEY's office, while other union representatives have quite some difficulty. The result of this favoritism shown by CASEY to the Communist influence groups has contributed much to their prestige and power among the Hollywood workers.

Mr. CASEY is by no means a Communist or a Communist sympathizer. He merely represents the wishes of the Hollywood motion picture producers as a group. The only plausible reason for these concessions to those unions would be that the makers of motion pictures in Hollywood are very susceptible to the influence of Communist pressure groups. An example of such pressure and resulting concession to such pressure may be indicated by reference to the case of the production of the picture by MGM called "Tennessee Johnson."

This picture portrayed the life of President ANDREW JOHNSON. It contained an interpretation of the Negro question, which did not meet with the approval of the political ideas of the Communist Party. When the picture was completed the Communist Party, using all of its front organizations, labor unions and sympathizers, started a campaign of pressure on the producing company, using a letter writing campaign and delegations of protest and the use of the entire Communist press and every means at its disposal to have the picture taken off the market. They did not succeed in this but they did force the studio to reshoot a large portion of the picture at a cost of many thousands of dollars before it was released for public showing.

Activities of the Communists in Hollywood at the Present Time:

Roughly, the present activities of the Hollywood Communists working in the labor unions are as follows:

1. To take advantage of the present apparent patriotic position of the party to recruite new members, and create fellow travelers and sympathizers.

Workers Order. He was, and perhaps still is, a member of the International Labor Defense and a member of the Bridges Defense Committee; the Oklahoma Anti-Syndicalism Committee. He is a member of the Screen Writers Guild and a member of the Executive Committee of that organization. He is a member of the Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense; a member of the Hollywood League for Democratic Action; a member of the League for Peace and Democracy and a teacher in the Writers School.

These organizations cooperated with other Communist controlled groups, and individuals in the formation of delegations, would call upon local Congressmen of the locality and surrounding territories in an effort to browbeat and terrorize them into voting for measures sponsored and supported by the Communist Party. They sponsor and support Russian War Relief gatherings and other efforts known to be controlled by Communists. They cooperate with "Labor Unity" groups whose programs are identical with the general program and outline of the Communist Party.

In short, the principal activity of the Hollywood Labor Unions, which are Communist controlled, is almost exclusively devoted to pressure group tactics and propaganda to enhance the build up of the Communist Party influence according to the Communist Party line at this time.

The labor unions of the Hollywood motion picture industry must be viewed as one integral part of an apparatus which operates in every department of the industry and which is coordinated in one source which is the hidden influence of the Communist Party. In turn the entire communist movement in Hollywood must be viewed as a section of a national structure, which in turn is international in scope.

Regarding the present international scope of the Communist movement there are some who will contend that the Communist Party of the United States is an independent structure, operating independent of international ties. They will contend that inasmuch as the Comintern has been dissolved by official edict in Moscow on May 22, 1943, the Communists in the United States and Hollywood will be an independent political party free from international influence.

Such is not the truth. The so-called dissolution of the Comintern was merely a "diplomatic" trick meant to protect the secret agents of the Soviet Union operating in foreign countries. Since the ostensible dissolution of the Comintern there has been no discernable variation in the line and tactics of the Communist Party in the United States; in fact it can be observed that right at this time the Communist Party of the United States has adjusted its program to conform to the creation of the German Committee of Liberation set up in Moscow within the last few weeks. The Communist Party is setting up committees and conferences to gather support for this Moscow Committee by putting forth propaganda therefor. This item of propaganda is now flooding the official Communist press, which would be fairly conclusive evidence that the Comintern is not dead.

The Screen Readers Guild, to a very great extent, is dominated by the Screen Writers Guild and follows the lead of the Screen Writers Guild in all matters. This is due to the fact that the readers consider themselves potential writers and they strive to please the writers.

SECRET

The Screen Publicists Guild and the Independent Publicists Guild are also a part of this block influenced by Communist leadership and follow the political direction of the Communist Party line. This reveals that the Hollywood Labor Union structure is composed of two parts, one of which is part of the American Federation of Labor and the other is independent. There are no CIO unions in the motion picture field in Hollywood.

The A.F. of L. unions and the independent guilds or unions mentioned cooperate politically, both being dominated by Communist influence, and they follow the line of procedure of the Communist Party. For example there has been set up in Hollywood, by the hidden hand of the Communist Party, a political organization called the Hollywood Democratic Committee. This organization was created for the purpose of operating in the political field to influence local, state and national politics according to the line of Communist tactics. It is in its activity in the Hollywood Democratic Committee that the two groups of unions come together. Both support the work of the committee, both have representatives on the board of directors and both cooperate fully in carrying out the activities of the committee. This fact must be borne in mind continuously in order to understand the workings of the Communist strategy with its octopus like tentacles reaching into every organized group and gathering.

Communist strategy now calls for a temporary abandonment of "Struggle on the Economic Field" and instead a concentration on the political field.

The Hollywood Communist controlled unions projecting their influence towards supporting the cultural groups, which are likewise Communist minded, in their efforts to influence the production of a type of picture in which it is possible to inject Communist propaganda, affiliate with and are active in support of the Hollywood Democratic Committee mentioned above. They support the activities of the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee, a Communist controlled organization engaged in activities connected with the underground political groups in Europe, the connection with it being made by way of Mexico City.

The Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee very recently held an international conference in Mexico City. The representative from the Los Angeles Joint Fascist Refugee Committee to that conference was DONALD OGDEN STEWART, who is a member of the Communist Party and a member of the League of American Writers. He is the former president of the League of American Writers. He was a member of the American Peace Mobilization and was also a member of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League and the International

The Screen Directors Guild is in no sense a bargaining labor union, although the Communist Theoreticians claim that it is, but the directors as a class have not discovered that fact. This organization plays at going through the motions of a labor union. The high salaries of the directors and their positions among the elite of the motion picture world contradicts any question of wages and working conditions. This organization has sponsored such front organizations as the Hollywood Writers Mobilization, a Communist inspired group; the Hollywood Canteen, which is controlled and directed by Communist elements.

In addition to the above there is a group of unions in the Hollywood Studios which are not affiliated with the A.F. of L or any other national or international group and are therefore independent unions. These are the unions which are the bargaining agencies of the so-called cultural workers. They are as follows:

Screen Writers Guild.
Screen Directors Guild.
Screen Readers Guild
Screen Publicists Guild
Independent Publicists Guild.

Source A stated that the Screen Writers Guild is, in effect, a front for the League of American Writers. The majority of its officials, including the members of the executive board, are members of and are very active in that Communist front organization, and in many other ways uses its influence to further the interests of the Communist Party. This organization is not affiliated with the A.F. of L. It acts as a labor union and is the bargaining agency for writers in the Hollywood motion picture industry. This organization, since its formation in 1934, has been dominated by Communists and fellow travelers. The following well known Communists and fellow travelers have been in control of this organization since its formation. J. K. (SPIKE) WALLACE is the president and business representative of this organization. The Communist line activities of this union are expressed through its President, who supports the Conference of Studio Unions, which is completely Communist controlled and is under the leadership of HERBERT K. SORRELL, the Communist leader in the labor unions in Hollywood in the motion picture industry. This union passed a resolution about October 1, 1942 demanding that a second front be opened in Western Europe.

WALLACE was a delegate to Labor Unity for Victory Committee meeting, a Communist dominated group, when that organization went on record as supporting the Committee for the Care of Children in War Time, a Communist sponsored group. WALLACE takes a great deal of credit for the establishment of the Hollywood Canteen, which is controlled from behind the scenes by a group of Communists and fellow travelers in Hollywood.

Screen Actors Guild:

Source A has further informed that all matters relating to this guild are in the hands of the elected officers and Board of Directors and the membership never has a meeting except once a year for the purpose of electing officers. This source stated that JAMES CAGNEY, GEORGE A. MURPHY, FRANCHOT TONE and RICHARD LaPAN actually control and run the affairs of this guild without the official sanction of the guild. This source further stated that CAGNEY is very sympathetic toward the Communist Party and in the past he has contributed large sums of money to the Communist Party and its activities.

GEORGE A. MURPHY is the first vice president of this union. He is very friendly with PHILIP M. CONNELLY, President of the State CIO, Secretary of the Los Angeles Industrial Union Council and a member of the American Newspaper Guild. FRANCHOT TONE has been very active in Communist front organizations and has contributed large sums of money to the Communist Party and its activities.

RICHARD LaPAN was at one time, about 1936, the collector for the Communist Party in Los Angeles and Hollywood, and in many other ways has been very active in the Communist Party and the Communist front activities.

There are also the following independent unions in Hollywood which do not have a complete official set up for negotiation purposes. They follow along with HERBERT K. SORRELL, and in a way SORRELL acts as the bargaining agent for those unions for the reason that they have very little influence when acting independently and for themselves.

reason for this was, of course, that Soviet Russia needed the assistance of the United States production of war supplies and other aid. Nothing must interfere with production and therefore strikes and workers' demands must be laid aside. Except for certain "token" demands made for the purpose of satisfying the members of the unions this was the position of the communists in the unions.

SECRET

This was clearly laid down by HARRY BRIDGES at the California State Convention of the CIO, held in Hollywood on October 11, 1942. His statement appeared in the Peoples World October 12, 1942, and is as follows:

> "We've got to get off the dollars and cents angle and on to the win-the-war angle. We've got to quit worrying about wage raises; we've got to stop worrying too much about what profits the employer is making."

Instead of the previous program based on the principle of "class struggle" the communists now agitated for a program of "political unity", the opening of a second front, child care projects, racial equality, abolition of the poll tax, etc. In other words, the unions were now to enter the political field and devote all their energies to influencing legislation; to creating so-called social agencies and participation by the communists in the trade unions in such governmental agencies as the OPA, WPB, WMC, OCD, OWF and others. This change in line was immediately reflected in those unions in the Hollywood motion picture industry which were under the domination of the communist Party.

Communist influence over the Hollywood motion picture workers in the manual and technical crafts has been one of steady growth for the past six or seven years. At the present time the dominating group of unions, all of which are affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, is called the Conference of Studio Unions. The "Conference of Studio Unions" is the organization set up in the Hollywood Studio labor groups to act as the control and steering committee to coordinate and direct Communist Union activities and planning to take over all studio workers and their unions into the Communist Party, and eventually to secure the complete domination of the motion picture workers.

The unions which have already been taken over, and which are under Communist influence and which are represented by the Conference of Studio Unions, are the following:

1. Studio Painters Local 644.

2. Screen Office Employees Guild, an affiliate of Studio Painters Local 644.

3. Screen Cartoonist Guild, an affiliate of Studio Painters Local 644.

patriots, and as such merge all their efforts with those who were honestly prosecuting the war and place the entire communist apparatus at the service of the United Nations. The attack on Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941, permitted them to more loudly proclaim their devotion to the United States which they now began to call "our country."

Recognizing this as an ideal situation in which to develop its influence by deception and patriotic subterfuge, the communist Party outwardly threw all its efforts into the war program, merging its established front organizations with all legitimate efforts, creating new fronts in the name of patriotism and, in general, so hiding the communist apparatus in the regular activities of the country that it is extremely difficult for the unsuspecting citizen to distinguish them.

Utilizing this situation to the utmost, the communist party is now working feverishly, day and night, to build its influence and party membership in anticipation of a future condition wherein it will be able to bring about its long-range objective, the overthrow of "bourgeois democracy" and the substitution of what it terms a "socialist state", which in reality is a totalitarian state termed the "dictatorship of the proletariat" as exemplified by the government of Soviet Russia, and subject to the domination of that governing bureaucracy.

[The motion picture industry of Hollywood, for the past ten years, has been considered by the communist party to be the principal medium of propaganda for those ideas, and consequently has been concentrating on a program of penetration of that industry by its members. This concentration on Hollywood has been most intense.] [Since the entry of the United States in the war and the cooperation of that industry with governmental agencies for propaganda purposes, and others, communist penetration has been astoundingly effective.]

[There were two lines of attack. One was to seek control over the workers in the studios, using the trade unions as the base; the other was to seek control over the so-called cultural and creative fields and thus determine the type of propaganda to be injected into the motion picture.] At the present time it must be said that considerable success has accompanied these efforts.

HOLLYWOOD LABOR UNIONS:

With the change in the communist party line, brought about by the attack on Stalin by Hitler on June 22, 1941, the attitude of the communist party toward the trade unions in the United States has also changed. From a program of agitation for higher wages, better conditions and an antagonism between the worker and the employer, the communists in the trade unions were instructed to play down all such activities and influence the unions to accept the status quo in the interest of all-out prosecution of the war. [Source A, of the Los Angeles Bureau Office, has informed that prior to 1933 the Communist International (Comintern), with headquarters in Moscow, Russia, had not realized the possibilities of the motion picture as a propaganda medium, but about this time the talking picture was perfected and the Soviet union, with its world wide staff of propagandists, seized the lead in adapting the motion picture to propaganda purposes throughout the world.] Delegations of Russians came to Hollywood to study the American cinema.] They also employed some of the best directors, cameramen and technicians in the United States and took them to Russia to train their native talent, and within a period of three or four years Russia and the Russians had become the leaders in all forms of motion picture and theatrical entertainment.

[In 1935 a "Directive" was issued by the top structure of the Communist Party in the United States, (to all intents and purposes of the party in the Los Angeles Section,) that there must be an intense concentration on Hollywood and the motion picture industry. The directive stated that the Communists must try to capture the labor unions for, if this could be done, they could exert much influence in the nature and type of pictures produced, and thus save the Soviet cause. This directive also emphasized that at the same time work must be done among the cultural groups, writers, artists, actors, actresses and others to enlist their assistance toward the Communist cause.]

There is being set forth here the activities of the Communist Party in labor unions since the Communist Party decided to enter the motion picture field in Hollywood in 1934, and its attitude toward the war efforts.

[The direct and indirect influence of the Communist Party of the United States on the motion picture industry of Hollywood and on all those subsidiary interests connected with that industry, has been one of steady development over a period of the past ten years.] This growth of influence has been particularly accelerated since June 22, 1941, when the Soviet Union was forced into the position of an ally with the democratic nations by the attack on that country by Hitler. This change in the position of Soviet Russia necessitated a change in the party line of the Communist Party of the United States from one of isolation and opposition to the democratic nations to all-out support of those nations. This change took place immediately after the attack on Russia in June, 1941, and the Communists in the United States did not wait for Pearl Harbor to profess an unbounded loyalty to the United States and love for democratic processes. (that is the Communist brand of democratic processes).

This change in the Communist Party line and the attendant directives from the heads of the Communist International (Comintern) in Moscow, permitted the Communists in the United States to become ardent SYNOPSIS OF FACTS: The Communist International, about 1933, realized the value of the motion picture as a propaganda medium, and in 1935 a directive was issued by the CP to make an intensive drive in the cultural groups, writers, artists, actors, actresses and others to enlist their assistance toward the Communist cause. The Communists, at the same time, made an intensive drive in the labor union field in the motion picture industry. The Communists made use of many Communist fronts to recruit members and extend their control in those fields and in the political field. The directors and producers have followed, and in some respects, have catered to the Communist pressure. Lists of writers at various studios obtained and set out. MIKHAIL KALATOZOV, Soviet Film Director, is visiting in Los Angeles at the present time. Propaganda films and Russian films are distributed in Los Angeles by BEN GOLDSTEIN, West Coast representative of Artkino. The film "Russia" believed to be a propaganda picture, being produced by MGM. Membership of the Cinema Post of the American Legion obtained.

CHILEAN HITS FILMS ON SOUTH AMERICA

Writers Told Screen Portrayals of Hemisphere neighbors Untrue.

Hollywood's film industry was criticized for its portrayal of South America, yesterday, by a speaker at the Writers' Congress on the Los Angeles campus of the University of California at Los Angeles. He was Jorge Delano, Sr. representative of the Chilean Motion picture industry and editor of the magazine Topaz. He said the films made in Hollywood depicted South Americans in a highly unfavorable light. "When you include us in one of your productions, it is to ridicule us," he said. "It seems to me the mass of North American citizens, influenced by these films, believe that when we are not sleeping we are tearing around as swashbuckling bandits," declared Delano who was speaking in a seminar on "The Feature Film".

Philip Scheuer, film critic for the Times, gave a critics opinion on feature films before the same group. Speaking on war pictures he commended the studios for their efforts but declared they had not yet reached the heights of some older war pictures, such as "All Quiet on the Western Front". He also questioned whether the producers had been able to use their pictures as propoganda to the best advantage of America.

The three foremost news services, The Associated Press, The United Press and the International News Service were charged with the task of making and keeping friends in other nations, in an address by HOBART MONTES, San Francisco Regional Co-ordinator of Inter-American Affairs.

An address on "CENSORSHIP IN THE SOUTHWEST PACIFIC" was withdrawn yesterday from the speaking schedule with the comment: "In view of the war situation the seminar considers the subject of ROBERT C. MILLER, UNITED PRESS CORRESPONDENT, dealing with military censorship, as out of its province and not germane to the general discussion. Miller declined comment on the seminar's action or upon the text of his address.

Capt. Paul Perigord, Free French writer and lecturer declared that the exiled writers from Europe had been of great value to America in its struggle against Nazism and Fascism.

Note: Nothing in this article or the preceeding one with reference to Communism.

Will follow with anything of interest along this line, which may be observed, following this Congress.

"SPROUL GIVES WELCOME TO WRITERS' CONGRESS.

U.C.President Declares There's Need To Revise and Revaluate Thinking of Mankind

"Never has there been such need for a comprehensive and concerted effort to restudy, revaluate and revise the thinking of mankind," said Dr. Robert G. Sproul, president of the University of California, as he gave the address of welcome to the opening session of the Writers' Congress on the Los Angeles campus last night.
Sproul addressed the congress in Royce Hall, attended by professional writers from various parts of the country and some from foreign lands. In addition to Sproul's address of welcome, there were greetings from President Roosevelt, Wendell L. Wilkie and from internationally known writers from Great Britain, China and other parts of the world. There were other speakers, also.

Press Condemned.

"Out of the tumult and the shouting of the papers and the politicians," Sproul said, "we welcome the congress. It was the second meeting of its kind to be held on the campus, he said. The first one in 1941, having proved so beneficial to those who participated, writers and professors alike, that the university was encouraged to invite the congress to enjoy its hospitality again. The congress is being held under the joint auspices of the university and the Hollywood Writers' Mobilization. The program, Sproul noted, was organized along distinctly technical and professional lines.

BANS PARTY LABELS

"A conscientious effort has been made from the beginning of the planning months ago, and for the achievment of the purpose to which the congress is dedicated to free the congress from party labels of any kind, subversive or otherwise, and to eliminate from the program any partisan, political or ideologically controversial issues, " Sproul said He then repeated the purpose of the congress as set forth in the printed program:

"To analyze propoganda techniques as weapons of victory; to sharpen the creative skill of writers by pooling their creative experience and knowledge; to investigate the most effective use of new media of expression; to strengthen firm and continuous cultural understanding among the writing profession of the United Nations and to mobilize this profession in a program of action for the free world of tomorrow."

RESTUDY NEEDED

Such service is need today, said Sproul, because neither the present conditionnor the past pattern of the world are fixed and final. As for the need to restudy and re-evaluate Sproul said it was not presumptuous to assert that "this effort can be uniquely well made by the universities and by the writers. "A vast new area of responsibility is opening up to these two groups of intellectual men as they look forward to the period of reconstruction after the war," said Sproul. "At home there will be domestic issues, social, political, economic and governmental that will require much wisdom for their solution. Abroad the United States will have obligations and opportunities not yet realized in its relatio to the rest of the world. To attain this wisdom, to meet these obligations and opportunities will require a new type of education for the mass of our citizens and especially fo our leaders" .....President Roosevelt sent the following message: "I send these greeting to the Writers Congress, with a deep sense of the significance of a gathering of writers in these times. It is a symbol, it seems to me, of our faith in the freedom of expressio --of our reliance upon the talents of our writers to present and clarify the issues of o times. Already the men and women gathered there have rendered great service in elucidati for the nation the issues of this war and the nature of our enemies. I am confident that institution in American life which period began about 1910 or 1911 up to the present time, will show that it has undergone a definite change in its relations with the national life of the United States. In order to show this change clearly it is necessary to treat the subject by dividing it into two distinct periods of development, the first and the second.

"The first period extended from the beginning of the industry to the advent of the so-called 'talking picture' in about 1930. The second extending from that time up to the present.

"During the first period when the motion picture depended on the pantinimic method, commonly known as the 'silent picture', the motion picture industry was strictly a commercial one and completely free of political implications of an ideological nature. Pictures produced during this period were for entertainment purposes only. Propaganda of any serious type had no place in picture production; in fact, had there been occasion for such propaganda of a subtle political nature it would have been ineffective in the silent picture, a fact which is obvious.

"As a consequence the motion picture industry and those individuals prominent therein were not involved, or even concerned, with political matters or with any attempt to influence the public mind along those lines. Neither was there any attempt, organized or instinctive, during this period to undermine by ridicule or direct attack upon the ideals and traditions upon which the government of the United States was based.

"It can be said that the motion picture industry of this first period was strictly an American institution, reflecting American ways of life; that it was free from any form of propaganda inimical to the American way of life.

"But with the perfection of sound recording instruments and the adaptation of sound to the motion picture, the 'talking picture' came into existence. This innovation changed the entire course of the motion picture industry and made it possible for that industry to be used for purposes other than pure entertainment. This revolutionary innovation paved the way for the use of the motion picture as a propaganda instrument.

"The development along those lines has been so rapid and the expansion so great that today the motion picture industry is beginning to be recognized as one the greatest, if not the very greatest, influence upon the minds and culture, not only of the people of the United States, but of the entire world. It has been said by A. P. GIANINI the well-known banker and a representative of those banking interests which finance the making of motion pictures that, 'The nation which controls the cinema can control the thought of the world.'

"This idea did not escape notice of certain political groups, international in scope which, with the development of the talking picture, began laying plans to utilize this field for their purposes.

"At the same time, about 1930, a change in the personnel of control and management of the industry took place. Slowly at first but with an increasing tempo, a different type of individual filtered into the industry and began taking it over. This type of individual can be described as one either of foreign birth or extraction. By this is meant persons who were either born abroad or the immediate descendants of such, for the most part native or naturalized citizens, whose ideas and culture were much closer to the land of their birth or extraction than they were to the ideals and traditions of America. This is no implication that they were actually disloyal to the United States. Rather it is a recognition of a natural state of mind of a person who has early in life been influenced by alien environment and ways different from those of the land of his adoption, and an additional factor of instinctive racial affinity inherited from European social life.

"With the phenomenal growth of the motion picture industry which can be attributed to the introduction of the talking picture it was only natural that this industry should be concerned with political matters in the United States; that it should be concerned with what laws were passed and how those laws would affect the industry; that as an extremely important industry it should be concerned with the election of individuals to public office who would be fair to the industry, or even favorable. Such position is not one of disparagement as this custom has long been recognized in the United States as, in a sense, legitimate.

"But the political influence of the motion picture industry has not developed solely along these lines, that is, it has not confined itself to American politics on the home field. In fact, it seems to be taking an entirely different course one which can be described as international in a political sense. And there can be no doubt that the national origins and inherited 'ideologies' of those now in control of the motion picture industry are determining these developments and bending them in a direction unfavorable to American ideals and customs---and it can be said, in the long run, democracy.

"The predominating political influence in the motion picture industry at this time is one which has its origin in a combination fostered by a foreign 'ideology' which in turn stems from Soviet Russia and its growing influence on the affairs of the world.

"In about 1934, Soviet Russia began to show an intense interest in the American motion picture industry. Operating through the Communist International (Comintern) and the Communist Party of the United States, it began an intensive campaign to penetrate the industry by placing communists and fellow travellers in responsible positions and at the same time conducting a propaganda campaign within the industry to convert employees in all departments to the cause of communism and draw them into the Communist Party or subject them to its influence.

"There were two lines of attack, one to influence the cultural and creative arts and their exponents and another to capture and control the trade unions. Both lines of attack apparently operated separately, but in reality they were parallel efforts secretly cooperating with one another and directed at all times by functionaries of the Communist Party.

"Progress was slow at first, but by the year 1938 it had developed to such a degree and its importance to the communist cause had been so thoroughly demonstrated that it was necessary to make the Hollywood communist groups a distinct section of the Communist Party apparatus, responsible directly to the Central Committee of that Party in New York. Thus the Communist Party recognized this importance of the motion picture as a weapon in its cause and that it could not risk exposure of its activities by permitting them to be associated with the local communist groups. The individual responsible for setting up this plan was VICTOR J. JEROME, a member of the Central Committee and a leading communist of national importance who was sent to Hollywood for the purpose.

"Up to the signing of the HITLER-STALIN pact in August 1939, the communist influence in the Hollywood motion picture industry was such that, taking the lead by reason of prestige and financial resources derived from highly-paid actors, writers, etc., it had not only grown to alarming proportions within the industry, but had penetrated the political apparatus of the Democratic Party in the state of California to such extent that it was able to elect to state, county and city offices persons who were either direct communists, fellow travellers or just plain politicians who were willing to cooperate and follow the party line. The Hollywood communists groups, acting as the spearhead of activity at that time, dominated indirectly the state of California. These facts were brought out clearly in investigations by the YORTY Committee and later the Tenney Committee, both legislative committees investigating subversive activities in California. The records and findings of those committees attest these facts

"During the period of the HITLER - STALIN pact, from August 23, 1939 to June 22, 1941, there was a lull in the more open activities of theCommunist Party in Hollywood. This was due, of course, to the position of the Communist Party as one of isolation, opposition to the war, conscription, national defense, etc. However, although the position of the Hollywood communists was apparently an untenable one, they did not lose their influence to any serious extent. They merely worked 'underground.'

"But with the attack on the Soviet Union by HITLER and the attendant change in the Communist Party line from one of isolation and opposition to aid to England and France to one of violent patriotism, for Russia's sake, the influence of the Hollywood communists on the production of motion pictures and the industry itself immediately became alarmingly apparent. It could now be plainly seen what the effects of the long years of agitation in Hollywood had brought about.

"It is now being possible to amalgamate their efforts with the honest efforts by the loyal American people to win the war, they took advantage of this situation and, using their highly disciplined members and followers, they succeeded to such an extent that at the present time, posing as good loyal Americans, they have practically assumed control of all Hollywood pro-war activities. They have set up front organizations to operate in the political field; they have penetrated government agencies; they have set up propaganda agencies; they have utilized their controlled trade unions, creating coordinating bodies, presumably to aid the war effort; and what is most important is their success in influencing the production of a type of motion picture which can be used as a medium for carrying out the Communist Party line and glorifying the Soviet Union as a democratic, progressive state and economy which could well be adopted elsewhere and, by implication, right here in the United States.

"Communist activities in the Hollywood area at the present time are confined roughly to the following efforts:

"1. Production of a type of motion picture favorable to Communism and the Soviet Union.

"2. Creation of propaganda agencies and groups to work within the industry and with outside governmental agencies such as the OWI.

100-138754-DD

"3. Direct the political influence of the motion picture industry toward support for candidates for public office who are secretly known to be sympathetic to the communist cause.

"4. Utilize the trade unions under the guise of all-out war effort to cooperate with organizations controlled by the Communist Party.

"5. Set up front organizations to overlap into all groups on a basis of anti-Fascism, Russian Relief, Spanish Relief, Refugee Relief, etc., utilizing the effort to spread propaganda for the Soviet Union and communism.

"6. Call mass meetings and demonstrations in the interest of the war program, using these gatherings to raise funds for communist purposes.

"7. Work secretly to have known communists and fellow travellers placed in responsible positions in the motion picture industry, using the man-power shortage as a golden opportunity.

"8. And last, but not least, take advantage of the fact that the Soviet Union is still an ally of the democracies and therefore enjoys prestige and use this factor to recruit members for the Communist Party, and develop a new crop of Fellow travellers and sympathizers."

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

Labor unions under Communist control in Hollywood motion picture industry are A.F. of L. and independent unions. (There are no CIO unions in motion picture industry.) A majority of such unions have been taken over or infiltrated by Communists until they constitute a most important and vital factor in the move of the Communist Party in the U.S. to utilize the tremendous influence of the motion picture industry for purposes of propaganda and political prestige. The influence of the CP in the motion picture industry for propaganda purposes has been utilized in its fullest extent to promulgate the CP line regardless of its changing positions. The motion picture directors, writers, musicians, artists, and producers have been utilized to produce propaganda pictures favorable to Russia and Communism. The cultural groups have cooperated with the labor unions to form political pressure groups to influence legislation. A short digest of the pictures, "The North Star," "Hostages," "Watch on the Rhine," "Hangmen Also Die," "Edge of Darkness," "This Land Is Mine," "City That Stopped Hitler," "Black Sea Fighters," "Sahara," "Battle of Russia," "Song of Russia," set out. It was opened Dec. 9, 1943, under the supervision of the "Army Special Service, Ninth Service Command," with a selected group of 500 enlisted men from eight other states to instruct these men in the various types of entertainment presented to the armed forces. The "Actors' Lab," a Communist front organization, according to a "callboard" announcement, is furnishing the instructors and teaching force for this school. Report of Special Agent James G. Findlay, Los Angeles, 10/11/43.

DETAILS: AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA.

Source A has observed the activities of the labor unions in the motion picture industry during the past ninety days and has reported that the Communists are very active within these unions. Following is a short summary of the Communist activities in the motion picture field:

LABOR UNIONS IN COMMUNIST CONTROL OF HOLLYWOOD MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY

Source A has stated that as a part of an over-all plan laid down by the Communist Party some ten years ago to take over and control the labor unions in the motion picture industry, with the purpose in view of influencing the production and content of motion pictures favoring Communism and the foreign policy of the Soviet Union, that Party has now been so successful that it dominates and controls the majority of such labor groups in Hollywood. Progress toward this end has been particularly accelerated within the last six months. Taking advantage of the present social and political line of the Communist Party, which is one of an extreme patriotism and all-out prosecution of the war, the Communists in the labor unions, with the assistance of many highly paid writers, actors, and some producers, have been able to take over a sufficient number of key crafts so that they are in virtual control of the labor union groups in the Hollywood studios, and as a consequence of this control are able to dominate matters of employment. This control of employment in those crafts where the Communists have taken over the unions is such that they are able to say who works and who does not work. In addition, this Communist influence is bringing into the studios many known Communists and fellow travelers from other sections of the country and refugees from foreign countries, placing them in the trade unions and thus strengthening constantly their hold on working crafts of the industry.

At the present time the Communist Party, working through its known members and fellow travelers, has control of the following trade unions in the motion picture industry in Hollywood. It will be noted that the greater number are A.F. of L. unions, some are independent, that is, not affiliated with the A.F. of L., while the others are affiliated with the A.F. of L. (There are no CIO unions in the Hollywood studios.)

SCREEN WRITERS GUILD - an independent union not affiliated with the A.F. of L.
SCREEN DIRECTORS GUILD - an independent union.
SCREEN ACTORS GUILD - affiliated with A.F. of L.
SCREEN READERS GUILD - an independent union.
SOCIETY OF MOTION PICTURE FILM EDITORS - an independent union.
SCREEN PUBLICISTS GUILD - an independent union.

Those unions listed as independent have now become part of a campaign inspired by Communists in the studios to enter the American Federation of Labor for the purpose of throwing their weight and influence toward attaining Communist control of the entire American Federation of Labor structure in Southern California.

After several years of effort the Communists in November 1943 took over that council. As a result of this success in Hollywood, independent unions are now endeavoring to secure charters and seeking affiliation with the American Federation of Labor. This program, when carried out, will enable Communist influences to dominate the entire Southern California sector of the labor movement. (Many of the CIO unions not already under the control of the Communist Party in this section.) The unions in the motion picture industry mentioned above all operate under Communist influence. However, there are other unions in the industry which are not so controlled. Those unions not under Communist influence are the following:

STUDIO TRANSPORTATION DRIVERS LOCAL #399 - International Brotherhood of Teamsters - A.F. of L.
STUDIO PLASTERERS LOCAL #755 - International Brotherhood of Plasterers - AFL.
MOTION PICTURE STUDIO GRIPS LOCAL #80 - IATSE, A.F. of L.
MOTION PICTURE STUDIO PROPERTY MEN, LOCAL #44 - IATSE, A.F. of L.
STUDIO UTILITY EMPLOYEES, LOCAL #724 - International Brotherhood of Hod Carriers, A.F. of L.

While the foregoing unions are not influenced in any manner by the Communist Party, none of the officials being connected with that movement and in fact being openly anti-Communist, there are many Communists among the membership and they are working constantly to undermine the present leaders and take over the organizations.

The following unions, while not completely dominated by the Communist Party, do, however, lean toward that position and in some instances go along with the other Communist-led unions:

INTERNATIONAL PHOTOGRAPHERS (CAMER. MEN), LOCAL #659, IATSE - A.F. of L.
STUDIO ELECTRICIANS LOCAL #728 - IATSE, A.F. of L.
STUDIO CARPENTERS LOCAL #946 - International Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, A.F. of L.
INTERNATIONAL SOUND TECHNICIANS LOCAL #695 - IATSE, A.F. of L.
MAKE-UP ARTISTS AND HAIR STYLISTS LOCAL #706 - IATSE, A.F. of L.
HOLLYWOOD STUDIO TECHNICIANS LOCAL B-11 - International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, A.F. of L.
MOTION PICTURE STUDIO LABORERS AND UTILITY WORKERS LOCAL #727 - IATSE, A.F. of L.
STUDIO PROJECTIONISTS LOCAL #165 - IATSE, A.F. of L.

The influence of Communists within the above group is growing rapidly and it is only a matter of time when those unions will be dominated by their influence. Thus it may be seen that the Hollywood unions can be placed in three classifications: (1) those completely under Communist control; (2) those free from such control and officially anti-Communist; (3) those which are doubtful but will at times cooperate with the Communists.

The known Communists and fellow travelers trusted by the Communist Party, who are the leaders and directors of the first group mentioned, are:

JOHN HOWARD LAWSON, writer, member of the CP.
ROBERT ROSSEN, writer, follower of the CP line. ? Who does this on GEORGE BRADLEY, President, Building Service Employees, follower of the CP line, recently came to Los Angeles from Seattle.

The foregoing are those most prominent in Communist activity in the Hollywood studio unions.

Source A stated that while the above persons named are members of and active in their various unions in carrying out the policies of the Communist Party within that group of unions and persons, there is a distinct organization which acts as the spearhead of Communist union activity in the Hollywood motion picture industry. This organization is the CONFERENCE OF STUDIO UNIONS. Making up this bloc are the following studio unions:

MOTION PICTURE PAINTERS LOCAL #644.
LABORATORY TECHNICIANS LOCAL #683, IATSE.
SCREEN CARTOONISTS
SCREEN OFFICE EMPLOYEES GUILD
STUDIO MACHINISTS LOCAL #1185.
SCREEN SET DESIGNERS.
SCREEN PUBLICISTS GUILD.

This last organization, SCREEN PUBLICISTS GUILD, has only recently affiliated with the Conference of Studio Unions.

BUILDING SERVICE EMPLOYEES UNION, LOCAL #99, has made application to join and has been accepted, but has not yet formally become affiliated.

While this CONFERENCE OF STUDIO UNIONS originally was intended to take in only A.F. of L. unions, it has now begun to include the independent groups. This Conference is completely dominated by the Communist Party and leads all other Hollywood unions in Communist activity.

The CONFERENCE OF STUDIO UNIONS publishes a monthly bulletin called "CSU Bulletin," devoted wholly to Communist propaganda. On the staff of this paper are the following:

JACK REYNOLDS, Editor, member of the CP.
HARRY CARLISLE, Associate Editor. CARLISLE is a member of the CP and has been for many years. He was one of the original founders of the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS and the National Organizer of that group. He also was the editor of the "Western Worker," official organ of the CP on the Pacific Coast, before 1938.
LILLIAN HURWITZ, local representative, member of the CP.
JOHN JENSEN, local representative, member of the CP.
FRANK DREDLIK, local representative, active in Communist affairs for many years.
BONNIE CLAIRE, Executive Secretary, member of the CP.

The President of the CONFERENCE OF STUDIO UNIONS is HERBERT K. SORRELL, the leader of the Communist-controlled Hollywood labor unions. He is a member of the Communist Party.

The officers of the CONFERENCE OF STUDIO UNIONS are:

HERBERT K. SORRELL, President, member of the CP.
D. T. WAYNE, Vice President, follower of the CP line.
NORVAL D. CRUTCHER, Chairman, member of the CP.
RUSSELL B. McKNIGHT, Treasurer, follower of the CP line.
BONNIE CLAIRE, Executive Secretary, Communist.

Source A has further stated that the activities of the Communist-controlled Hollywood labor unions are not confined to labor union affairs; in fact these activities extend outward in all forms of political activity separate from the motion picture industry. These unions are affiliated with and cooperate in the activities of various Communist front organizations set up for political and propaganda purposes.

MOTION PICTURE LABOR COMMITTEE FOR POLITICAL ACTION

This organization was set up on September 16, 1943, at a meeting held at 1627 Cahuenga Boulevard, Hollywood, California. The purpose of the organization is ostensibly to take part in forthcoming elections, national and local, and work for the election of candidates favorable to the cause of labor.

The formation of this group was the result of a previous meeting in Los Angeles of the UNITED A.F. OF L. COMMITTEE FOR POLITICAL ACTION, this group being a unit of that parent body representing Hollywood. At this organizational meeting the following persons attended, representing the organizations mentioned:

HERBERT K. SORRELL, Studio Painters Local #644.
NORVAL D. CRUTCHER, Laboratory Technicians Local #683.
JOHN R. MARTIN, Laboratory Technicians Local #683.
WILLIAM POMERANCE, Screen Cartoonists Guild, Local #852.
D. T. WAYNE, Studio Machinists Local #1185.
BERNARD LUSHER, Screen Office Employees Guild.
EDWARD MUSSA, Screen Set Designers Guild.

All the foregoing persons and groups are of the CONFERENCE OF STUDIO UNIONS. All named are active leaders in the Hollywood Communist movement.

Source a has further stated that the persons present and the organizations represented at this meeting were:

FRANCES MILLINGTON, Screen Readers Guild. Nothing is known of her, but the Screen Readers Guild is completely Communist-controlled.
C. W. OFFER, Studio Projectionists Local #165. He is known to be a fellow traveler and sympathetic to Communist causes, although his union has not officially shown such action.
GEORGE CAMPBELL, Musicians #47. He is one of the Communist leaders in this union, which is completely under Communist control.
AL SPEEDE, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Local #40. He has shown some tendencies to fall with the Communists but as yet not enough to place him in that class. His union has taken no stand.
DAVID V. ROBINSON, Screen Readers Guild. Nothing is known of his Communist activity, if any, but his union is completely controlled by the Communists.
TED ELLSWORTH, Motion Picture Costumers Local #705, IATSE. He has lately been taken over into the Communist camp. His union officially has remained independent.

J. N. SKELTON, Studio Carpenters Local #946. He has not been involved in any Communist activities; neither has his union.

HERBERT ALLER, International Photographers (Camera Men), Local #659, IATSE. He mildly sympathizes with Communist efforts, but so far has remained neutral.

BEN A. MARTINEZ, Studio Plasterers Local #755. He is definitely anti-Communist and is one of the few labor leaders in Hollywood who oppose all Communist activity.

While this organization operates in the name of the American Federation of Labor, in reality the Hollywood unit is under the control of the Communist forces. This form of political activity is one of the major aims of the Communist Party in the United States at this time. The program is nationwide, and Communists everywhere are ordered to take part in such political organizations in order to put into office persons who are favorable or in line with the Communist position.

In addition to taking part in such direct political activity as that mentioned, the MOTION PICTURE LABOR COMMITTEE FOR POLITICAL ACTION in Hollywood labor unions, mentioned heretofore as being under Communist control, also officially supports and takes part in the activities of other Communist front groups, such as the following:

HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.

PEOPLE'S EDUCATIONAL CENTER, a newly formed organization in the Los Angeles sector. This effort is strictly a Communist propaganda school under control of known Communists and fellow travelers. It is located in the Broadway Arcade Building, 542 South Broadway, Los Angeles.

Fifteen 15th CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL. All Hollywood Communist-controlled unions are associated with this organization, which is a Communist pressure group in the Hollywood section. Its purpose is to bring out better public officials into favoring Communist aims.

LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS, a Communist cultural front.

HOLLYWOOD WRITERS SCHOOL, a school operated by the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS to indoctrinate other writers and ambitious young people.

Source A has stated that the Hollywood labor unions are not labor unions in the common acceptance of that term; in fact, they are political organizations which have been taken over by the Communist Party for the purpose of using them to follow the political aims of that Party in its duties in carrying out the foreign policy of the Soviet Union, which at the present time calls for full prosecution of the war and pretension of support for democracy. At the same time Communists everywhere are to use this cloak of patriotism to intrench themselves in all organizations to capture key persons and particularly to secure control of labor unions, and by doing so to prepare themselves successfully for what may come in the future. All Communists realize that present conditions afford them their golden opportunity both for action and for propaganda, and they work feverishly day and night to attain their objects.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE OVER THE HOLLYWOOD MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY

Source A has revealed that since about the year 1934, when the Communist International (Comintern) took into account the value of the motion picture as an instrument of worldwide propaganda to be converted to the service of the Soviet Union and worldwide communism, the progress of the Communist Party of the United States in a program of penetration into and influence over that industry has been steady and consistent until June 22, 1941. That date marked the switching over of the Soviet Union from a position of friendliness and aid to Nazi Germany to an alliance with the democratic nations against Nazi Germany and Adolf Hitler. This switch was, of course, brought about by the sudden attack on the Soviet Union by the German army. The progress of Communist influence in the motion picture industry was steady up to that date. Since that time, this influence has gained such momentum that at the present time it practically controls certain departments, particularly those which determine the type of picture produced and the content of it. These are the departments of directing and writing.

As these two departments determine the so-called "cultural" aspects of the motion picture, they are the fountainhead of all propaganda emanating from the industry. Communist influence is so great over these two departments that it virtually controls the type and content of those pictures dealing with the war and the political aspects of world affairs.

Since June 22, 1941, when the foreign policy of the Soviet Union required that the Communist Party of the United States reverse itself from a position of isolation and opposition to the entry of the United States into the war, to one of all-out support of the war and ultra-patriotism, it has been possible for the Communists, using the war effort as a screen, to make tremendous progress in penetrating the cultural, technical, manual, and even production departments of the Hollywood motion picture industry. Such efforts are not confined strictly to the making of motion pictures, but are also utilized in the outside political field. Using the prestige of the motion picture industry and the wide attention it attracts, the Communists in the industry are exploiting this to the fullest extent by working within outside political groups, setting up new organizations to influence legislation in line with the present program of the Communist Party, and by spreading their activities into every phase of American life, all presumably with the fullest cooperation of the Hollywood motion picture industry as an institution. At the same time they use this same influence to capture the organized labor movements within the industry and lend valuable assistance, particularly financial, to those labor unions outside the industry which are under control of the Communist Party or which are suffering from an organized campaign by that Party to take them over.

As part of the over-all program of the Communist Party to penetrate and influence the production of motion pictures for propaganda purposes, the importation of known Communists and fellow travelers as employees is of very great significance. A large percentage of those persons recently brought into Hollywood and given employment are refugees who came from European countries since the beginning of the war. They have been put in responsible positions, mostly in the fields of writing and directing, and the majority of them have, since arriving, shown sympathy with the Communist cause and move in Communist and fellow traveling circles.

The activities of the Communists in the Hollywood motion picture industry can be classified in the following categories:

1. Known Communists, fellow travelers, and sympathizers employed in responsible positions in the cultural or creative fields:
   Directors Writers Musicians
   Artists Producers

2. Motion pictures produced which contain propaganda for Communism or the way of life in Soviet Russia:
   Mission to Moscow
   The North Star
   Hostages
   Sahara
   Action in the North Atlantic

3. Known Communists, fellow travelers, and refugees with Communist sympathies brought into the industry.

4. Communist control of A.F. of L. labor unions and independent guilds in the Hollywood studios.

5. Political groups set up by Hollywood Communists.

All of the above activities, while being carried on in different levels and in different directions, are coordinated in such a manner as t form and carry out a broad program to pressure the entire industry and its output to conform to the objectives of the Communist Party as an instrument of the foreign policy of the Soviet Union. All of these activities are interlocked in such a manner that the cultural fields of activity cooperate with the labor unions. The labor unions support the propaganda of writers and directors. All groups meet on the political field and support the political pressure organizations in their campaign to influence legislation.

The combined and coordinated efforts of all these sectors have a tremendous influence on the motion picture industry and have been so successful that Hollywood is being Europeanized to a startling extent.

MOTION PICTURES PRODUCED UNDER COMMUNIST INFLUENCE APPARENTLY FOR PROPAGANDA PURPOSES

"The North Star."

Source A has informed that this picture is a Samuel Goldwyn production. WILLIAM CAMERON MENZIES, associate producer, produced the picture. He is a fellow traveler of the Communist Party. He works in cooperation with the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS and is an instructor and lecturer in the HOLLYWOOD WRITERS SCHOOL. Both the League and this school, which is its offspring, are completely dominated by the influence of the Communist Party.

LEWIS MILESTONE directed the picture. He has been active in Communist affairs over a period of ten to twelve years. He was born in Russia. He has been sponsor of and active in a great number of Communist front organizations. He is considered by the Communist Party to be one of its foremost supporters in Hollywood. He made a trip to Russia with LAWRENCE STALLINGS, author of "Red Square." He contributes liberally to the Communist cause and is a constant follower of the Communist Party line. He supported the New Theater League, which was affiliated with the International Union of Revolutionary Theaters, the headquarters of which were in Moscow, Russia. He wrote for the New Theater Magazine in 1937. He was a member of the Executive Board of the MOTION PICTURE SPANISH AID COMMITTEE, a Communist front. He signed the letter of "150" which was in protest against the Moscow purge trials. He is a sponsor of the HOLLYWOOD THEATER ALLIANCE, a Communist organization. He has engaged in many other Communist activities. He is a director of motion pictures and a fellow traveler, and may be a member of the Communist Party. He is a member of the Executive Board of the MOTION PICTURE ARTISTS COMMITTEE and a member of the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS.

Source B advised on December 27 that an official of the LOS ANGELES WORKERS SCHOOL, which is operated by the Communist Party, was told by ROBERT (BOB) S. ROBINSON, Executive Secretary of the LOS ANGELES WORKERS SCHOOL, that "The North Star" is the most wonderful picture he had ever seen, and that it was the best motion picture the Communist Party had ever sponsored.

ROBINSON, Executive Secretary of the LOS ANGELES WORKERS SCHOOL, that "The North Star" is the most wonderful picture he had ever seen, and that it was the best motion picture the Communist Party had ever sponsored.

that JOHN McMANUS has stated: "No matter what Mr. Hearst says, 'The North Star' is a superfine film about Russia. It has unforgettable performances by Walter Huston... and it brims over with rousing music mostly written by the American composer, Aaron Copland, but also including the international air and children's anthem known to fanciers of Soviet folk music as the Russian 'God Bless America.' It has a moving script by Lillian Hellman, all of whose films have been notably Hollywood's most literate and purposeful, a multi-million dollar production by Samuel Goldwyn, perceptive, exciting, direction by Lewis Milestone. In other words, 'North Star' is one hell of a wonderful movie; and the thing to start figuring out now is why the Hearsts, the Sokolskys, and others of America's blue legion have launched against it the most vicious and unprincipled smear campaign ever launched against a film in America, even more hateful than that against 'Mission to Moscow.'

"New York critic David Lardner noted: 'The picture is a honey, and Mr. Goldwyn and Mr. Milestone ought to be complimented for having had anything to do with it at all. An award for meritorious script writing in this war had better be wrapped up right away and sent to Lillian Hellman.'"

The "Hollywood Reporter" for November 8, 1943, repeated an article which appeared in "PM", which stated that JOHN McMANUS of PM had exposed an alleged order by W. R. HEARST commanding that SAMUEL GOLDWYN's "North Star" be smeared as red propaganda. It stated: "The new Samuel Goldwyn film, 'The North Star,' is by far the outstanding cinema effort dealing with any phase of the global conflict" or its "insidious, unadulterated Soviet propaganda." It stated that the review written by LAIT after orders from "the chief" (HEARST) is an out and out smear describing the picture as evil Red propaganda "which could not be worse if Stalin had paid for it."

"Variety" for November 8, 1943, under the heading, "North Star Draws Cold Press," stated, "Hearst Brands Film as Red Propaganda," and under a New York date line stated: "'North Star' ran into topnotch criticism following opening in New York last Thursday, with biggest storm brewing in Hearst newspapers, as publishers reportedly issued orders to all editors that he wanted film referred to as 'Bolshevik propaganda' and that it could not be worse if it had been paid for by Stalin. The order went on to say that editors were to pay no attention to requests from Goldwyn or his representatives for favorable criticism of the film."

The "Los Angeles Examiner" for December 9, 1943, under the heading, "Editor's Mail Box," quoted a "soldier" as saying, "Many thanks to your stage and screen reviewer, who branded 'The North Star' for exactly what it is--Bolshevik propaganda." With the swallowing of this, 'Mission to Moscow,' and other pro-Russian sentiment, we can believe that the men who rule Russia today are a group of kindly old men whose only thought is for the betterment of humanity. We are told to please overlook the bloody purges, enslaved regiments,

ROBERT further said that the pictures, "Mission to Moscow," "The City That Stopped Hitler," and "Battle of Russia," were exactly as they wanted them and portrayed the Communist Party line as it is presently revealed.

The "Los Angeles Examiner," for December 27, 1943, under the heading, "North Star Insidious Propaganda," carried an article by NEIL RAU in substance as follows:

"Samuel Goldwyn has a reputation for making fine pictures. He is famous for sparing no expense and for his meticulous attention to the smallest production detail. It is therefore hard for this reviewer to understand why he has squandered a cold $2,000,000 in the making of 'North Star.' It is a picture that should never have been made--especially by an American presumably as patriotic as Samuel Goldwyn.

"Written by Lillian Hellman, whose interest in sovietism is well known, it should get more Communist converts among unthinking sophomoric minds than the late Emma (Goldman) tried to snare before her deportation. It is not that 'North Star' comes out boldly labeled as Soviet propaganda. It is too insidious for that. The danger is that someone may take the picture's musical comedy version of life in the Nazi invasion as the real thing.

"The Hellman screen play pictures a peaceful Russian village with cattle grazing, peasants living in a constant swing of delirious joy, and young people practically bewildered with ecstasy. The admirable fact that Russia is of necessity helping to win our war does not excuse the lack of verity in these scenes.

"Then come the early days of the German putsch and a grim, harrowing tale of the ravishment of the village, the mistreatment of the women and children, and the need for the men to take to the hills. A scene of particular bad taste in a vehicle that is supposed to entertain is the one showing the bleeding of little children until they die from loss of blood.

"In these days when so many homes are desolate through war losses, the witnessing of such a clinical and studied bestiality does not help our American men and women to bear their losses any better.

"Lewis Milestone, of Russian birth and ancestry, was a logical choice for making 'North Star.' It required a natural bias for the exploitation of life in the Soviet Union as conceived by Miss Hellman. Unfortunate that Mr. Milestone's talent and Mr. Goldwyn's money were used in making a picture of this type. Why not American propaganda?"

The "Hollywood Reporter" for November 8, 1943, carried an article by IRVING HOFFMAN relative to "The North Star," which stated in substance throttling of the press--all after the most shameful murder since the French Revolution, that of Czar Nicholas II--by the very men that are Russian leaders today. We can be forever grateful that Russia is on our side instead of with Hitler, but I don't think it necessary to kiss him on both cheeks and call him 'brother.' What a difference it is from the last days of 1939, when people were debating which was the worst, Stalin or Hitler. We can be thankful for our Allies, but we need not be asked to ignore the truth."

Source A advised that LILLIAN HELLMAN was the writer of the script. Miss HELLMAN is the wife of ARTHUR KOBER, a writer and Communist who has long been active in Communist affairs. She is a member of the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS and a multitude of other front organizations. She was one of the leading figures in the AMERICAN PEACE MOBILIZATION and frantically opposed the entry of the United States into the war until Russia was attacked by Hitler. She is a Communist Party member.

JAY LEYDA was the technical director of this picture. He is a Communist of long standing. From 1932 to 1936 he was director of cultural propaganda in Moscow, Russia. In 1939 he was employed by the Rockefeller Foundation at New York City, Museum of Modern Art. He was discharged from that institution for Communist activity in 1940. He has a long record of Communist activity. He is a member of Branch A, Northwest Section, Communist Party of Los Angeles County. He transferred to Los Angeles from New York City on July 16, 1943.

JAMES WONG HOWE was the photographer on this picture. He has a long record of activity in Communist affairs. He is a Chinaman and is considered a trustworthy member by the Communist Party.

WALTER HUSTON was the leading actor in this picture. He played the part of Ambassador Davies in "Mission to Moscow" and is fanatically devoted to the Communist cause. He was a member of the MOTION PICTURE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE and its successor, the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE. He is also a member of other Communist front organizations.

ANN HARDING played the part of Mrs. Davies in "Mission to Moscow."

DEAN JAGGER and ANNE BAXTER, actor and actress, played in "The North Star."

Source A further advised that this picture is loaded with Communist propaganda, and is so considered by Communists, who are instructed to boost it at all times, and particularly to solicit patronage.

"The picture was previewed under the auspices of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences and the fifth in the series of Army orientation films shown through the courtesy of the United States War Department and the Special Service Division of the United States Army.

"While the picture tells how the physical combat has been and is being carried on to drive the Germans back into their own boundaries, the whole effect of the narrative is to hearten the people massed behind the increasing desire of the United Nations.

"The sum total of the assembled footage has a terrific impact, and the battle tasks of the fighting Russian cameramen is almost beyond credibility. Some of it was shown before the release of 'The Battle of Stalingrad,' but there is a vast volume of new material. The account runs up to and through the summer of 1942, after the Russian armies had begun to move westward from Stalingrad.

"The producer is Lt. Col. Anatole Litvak, working in association with Lt. Col. Frank Capra. The narrative was written and spoken by Capt. Anthony Veiller, and the editors are, Major William Hornbeck, Lt. William Lyon and Marcel Cohen. Walt Disney studios did all the animation.

COMMITTEE FOR POLITICAL ACTION (A.F. OF L.)

Source A reveals that a committee known as the "UNITED A.F. OF L. COMMITTEE FOR POLITICAL ACTION" made its first report, and in doing so took official form at a meeting attended by some 400 business agents, Secretaries, and Executive Committees of all A.F. of L. councils and local unions in the Los Angeles area. This meeting was held in the Los Angeles Labor Temple, Los Angeles, California, on September 9, 1943.

Those comprising the Committee are the following, made its first report and i

C. J. HAGGERTY of the California Federation of Labor
J. W. BUZZELL, Secretary of the Central Labor Council
W. J. BASSETT, Secretary of the Allied Printing Trades Council
L. A. PARKER, Secretary of the Metal Trades Council
RAY LEHENEY of the Joint Council of Teamsters
GEORGE CAMPBELL, Musicians Local 47
NORVAL D. CRUTCHER, Conference of Studio Unions, Hollywood

The general objective of this Committee and the purpose for which it was organized was stated by C. J. HAGGERTY, the Chairman, at the meeting to be:

> "In the past we have too often waited until candidates were in the field and then thrown our support to whichever seemed to us the lesser of two evils. At this time, however, we must see to it that men are nominated for office who are favorable to the cause of organized labor, and we must drive out of office those who are not and whose records show that they have consistently voted against the interests of labor."

The setting up of this Committee is part of a nation-wide movement on the part of the American Federation of Labor to influence legislation in its favor. This has always been the position of this Federation, whose political philosophy was laid down by the late Samuel Gompers as "reward our friends and punish our enemies." This form of political action by the A.F. of L. was called "pure and simple trade unionism" and has been the subject of attack and ridicule by the more radical groups in the labor movement, and particularly by the Communist Party and Communist-controlled groups.

The program of the Communist Party which always calls for penetration of the American Federation of Labor in the hope of capturing that organization for its own political purposes, is now directed toward penetrating these various "political committees" wherever set up. The Communists are now making a most intensive effort in this direction in the Los Angeles area, utilizing the Hollywood groups of the A.F. of L. for the purpose, the Communist Party having made effective progress in that sector.

Of the above-named officers of this Committee, the following are definitely followers of the Communist Party line, taking orders from that source: NORVAL GRUTCHER, GEORGE CAMPBELL, W. J. BASSETT.- In the case of BASSETT, there is a slight difference from the position of the two just named. BASSETT, while not identified with Communist activity to the extent of CRUTCHER and CAMPBELL, does follow to some extent the Communist Party line and has the support of the Communist groups fully.

Since this original Committee was set up, there has been a change in the control of the LOS ANGELES CENTRAL LABOR COUNCIL. J. W. BUZZELL has been forced out as Secretary, and W. J. BASSETT, with the backing of the united Communist-controlled groups, has been elected to the position of Secretary of that body.

MOTION PICTURE LABOR COMMITTEE FOR POLITICAL ACTION

Source A has submitted the following report relative to the organization of a Hollywood group affiliated with the UNITED A.F. OF L. COMMITTEE FOR POLITICAL ACTION:

This UNITED A.F. OF L. COMMITTEE FOR POLITICAL ACTION is a nation-wide movement inaugurated by the AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR for the purpose of taking part in forthcoming elections to elect to office persons favorable to labor's cause and to support, oppose and inaugurate legislation, national, state and local, favorable to the same cause.

While the American Federation of Labor as a national organization has always opposed infiltration of Communists and has consistently refused to collaborate with any cause of a Communist inspiration or origin, nevertheless there are certain sections in which the Communist Party has succeeded in taking over a large measure of control of A.F. of L. local unions. This is the case in Southern California, and particularly the Hollywood studio union section.

Seizing this opportunity to penetrate this A.F. of L. political group for the purpose of putting forth the Communist program in general, a meeting was held on September 16, 1943, at the Make-Up Artists Hall, 1627 Cahuenga Boulevard, Hollywood, California, to set up the MOTION PICTURE LABOR COMMITTEE FOR POLITICAL ACTION. This meeting is what is called an organizational meeting; officers are elected, tentative program laid down and machinery set up to carry out the same.

The chairman, in opening the meeting, stated that this meeting was called to report and act on a larger meeting held by the UNITED A.F. OF L. COMMITTEE FOR POLITICAL ACTION on September 9, 1943, at the Los Angeles Labor Temple, at which over 400 A.F. of L. delegates were present. (See report above.)

At this larger original meeting it was recommended and adopted that a fund of $100,000 be raised for the forthcoming political campaign and that this money be secured by an assessment of $1.00 on each union member, or by contribution. This plan was unanimously adopted. At this meeting, certain rules were laid down to be followed by various local unions, councils, and committees in the Southern California area regarding endorsements of candidates, handling of funds, etc.

The meeting of the MOTION PICTURE LABOR COMMITTEE FOR POLITICAL ACTION, with which this report deals, was a continuation of the September 9 meeting at the Los Angeles Labor Temple, mentioned above. This Committee is a unit of the larger group and is represented by a delegate to that group, NORVAL D. CRUTCHER.

SCREEN SET DESIGNERS

Following an Executive Board meeting of the MOTION PICTURE COMMI[illegible] FOR POLITICAL ACTION held on October 20, and another held on October 27 [illegible] next regular meeting of all delegates was held on November 10, 1943. [illegible] following persons representing their organizations attended:

JOHN R. MARTIN, Film Technicians Local #683 (CP line follower)
RALPH CLARE, Teamsters Local #399 (anti-Communist)
TED TAYLOR, Screen Publicists Guild (Communist, People's World)
BERNARD LUSHER, Screen Office Employees Guild (Communist)
EDWARD MUSSA, Screen Set Designers Guild (CP line follower)
WILLIAM POMERANCE, Screen Cartoonists Guild (Communist)
DAN McCUISTION, Costume House Employees Local #21673
BERNARD GORDON, Screen Readers Guild (CP line follower)
W. E. MORAN, Blacksmith's Local #212
ALVIN W. WENDT, Film Editors
JOHN M. BECKER, Musicians Local #47
MICHAEL DOYLE, International Photographers Local #659
AL SPEEDE, I.B.E.W. Local #40 (CP line follower)
D. T. WAYNE, Studio Machinists Local #1185 (CP line follower)
NORVAL D. CRUTCHER, Film Technicians Local #683 (Communist)
TED ELLSWORTH, Motion Picture Costumers Local #705 (CP line follower)
BONNIE CLAIRE, Conference of Studio Unions (Communist)

Of the above persons, not mentioned as attending the previous meeting, the following are part of the Hollywood Communist machine:

BERNARD GORDON (CP line follower)
ALVIN W. WENDT (CP line follower)
BONNIE CLAIRE (Communist)

At this meeting a general platform to be followed was announced, as follows:

1. Wagner-Dingle Social Security Bill (support)
2. Price rollbacks (demand)
3. Anti-Poll Tax Bill (support)
4. Austin-Wadsworth Bill (defeat)
5. Any form of sales tax (oppose)
6. Smith-Connally Bill (repeal)
7. Seating of labor at peace table (demand)
8. Governmental postwar planning (support)

In addition to routine business, finances, etc., it was decided to issue political bulletins, raise funds by assessments of union members, devise methods of contacting voters, registering voters, etc.

At this meeting a motion was made by BERNARD GORDON and seconded by TED TAYLOR, both Communists, that the organization invite the HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION to attend all meetings. The HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION is a Communist front group.

During routine matters, BERNARD LUSHER, a Communist, proposed that the organization affiliate with the 15th DISTRICT CONGRESSIONAL LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE. This latter organization is another Communist-controlled pressure group in this section. TED ELLSWORTH and AL SPEEDE were named as envoys to bring this about.

The next meeting of this organization was fixed for Wednesday, November 24, 1943, at Make-Up Artists Hall, 1627 North Cahuenga Boulevard, Hollywood, California.

Note: While this organization appears on the surface to be a legitimate effort of the American Federation of Labor operating through its various local unions to take part in political affairs as they affect labor, in reality the Hollywood Committee of this group is a cleverly conceived attempt to establish a Communist front, using the cloak of the A.F. of L. behind which to operate. The usual Communist formula is being followed to penetrate still further into the legitimate trade union groups.

MARGARET BENNETT (see above).
EUNICE MINDLIN (member of Group N-2, Northwest Section, LA County CP)
MIN SELVIN (CP name, MARIAN LARSON; member of Group N-1; membership director of LA County CP; 1943 CP membership book #36147)
HERTA UERKVITZ (CP name, JEAN PETERS; member of Groups N-1 and 2, Northwest Section, LA County CP; delegate to LA County CP Convention October 31, 1943).

MIN SELVIN (CP name, MARIAN LARSON) is the editor of "Punching In," official paper of the SCREEN OFFICE EMPLOYEES GUILD. She is SOEG organizer and Field Representative, and receives $65 per week and expenses.

FRANCES FREEDMAN, member of the Editorial Committee of "Punching In," is a member of Group N-1, Northwest Section, Los Angeles County Communist Party.

"Variety," the trade paper of the motion picture industry, for November 9, 1943, stated that [the SCREEN OFFICE EMPLOYEES GUILD is preparing a drive to organize the motion picture industry 100% prior to the establishment by the A.F. of L. of an international union for white collar workers. It is stated that a special organizer, MIN SELVIN, would work in close cooperation with GLENN PRATT, Business Representative, and will seek support of all other film unions and guilds as well as A.F. of L. organizers. It further stated that Twentieth Century-Fox, Warner Brothers, and Paramount would be the first studios to be tackled." The statement was also made that the SOEG Executive Board had voted to work closely with the Congress of Industrial Organizations in its effort to get better wages for all office workers through the establishment of a separate unit of the WLB for white collar workers. This group took the position that if 15% wage increase is a fair one to meet increased living costs for most workers, according to the Little Steel Formula, a 35% raise is necessary to bring white collar workers up to the same level.]

Source E advised on November 4, 1943, that ELIZABETH LEACH, Organizer for the Northwest Section of the Communist Party of Los Angeles County, had conferred with HERTA UERKVITZ, a member of the Executive Board and delegate to the SOEG Central Labor Council. LEACH suggested to UERKVITZ that they should move pretty fast and take a leading role, and that they should get the readers, publicists, and script clerks in as a part of the setup.

UERKVITZ told LEACH that GLENN PRATT, Business Representative of Local #644, SOEG, had talked to L. P. LINDELOF, International President of International Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paperhangers of America, with headquarters in Lafayette, Indiana, about this matter, and LINDELOF had stated that the SOEG should have a representative present in January to take part in the election of officers of the International Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paperhangers. UERKVITZ stated that PRATT was of the opinion that SOEG #644 should have control of the entertainment field and that this had been discussed at the previous Guild meeting.

LEACH suggested that a meeting should be held with some of the other A.F. of L. people, such as FRANK GREEN and GEORGE BRADLEY of the Building Service Employees Union.

UERKVITZ stated that a meeting was going to be held on Saturday, November 6, 1943, at which the following persons were expected to be present:

MARGARET BENNETT, correct name MARGARET BENNET WILLS, CP name MARCIA LENNOX, President of the SOEG, is a member of Branch N, Northwest Section, Communist Party of Los Angeles County, and was a delegate to the CP Convention of Los Angeles County, October 31, 1943.

BERNARD LUSHER, Financial Secretary, SOEG (member of Branch N, Northwest Section, CP of LA County). He was an invited guest to the CP Convention of LA County on October 31, 1943.

MIN SELVIN, member of Board of Directors of the SOEG, was a delegate from the SOEG to the Central Labor Council. She is the editor of "Punching In," SOEG official publication. She was an invited guest to the CP Convention of LA County from Branch N, Northwest Section, CP of LA County, October 31, 1943.

HERTA UERKVITZ, CP name JEAN PETERS, was the A.F. of L. delegate to the Central Labor Council. She is a member of the Executive Board of the SOEG and is the Organizer of Branch N, Northwest Section, CP of LA County, and a delegate from Branch N to the LA County CP Convention on October 31, 1943.

ELIZABETH LEACH is the Organizer for the Northwest Section of the CP of LA County.

[From the above information, it would appear that the Communist Party is endeavoring to get control of the proposed A.F. of L. union local for white collar employees.]

The trade paper, "Punching In," for February 1943, stated that ED GILBERT was elected Business Manager of the SOEG to succeed GLENN PRATT for the war's duration, subject to a regular election which took place on January 11, 1943. It stated that ED GILBERT comes to the SOEG with a fine Hollywood background gained as one of the charter members of the SCREEN SET DESIGNERS and as a past President of both the SET DESIGNERS and the HOLLYWOOD GUILD COUNCIL. He has also served as a delegate to the CONFERENCE OF STUDIO UNIONS since its formation. The SET DESIGNERS GUILD was organized in 1937 and GILBERT, as a member of the original negotiating committee which was responsible for setting the first white collar worker's contract in the industry, helped break the ice for white collar unions to come.

"Variety" for September 23 stated that ED GILBERT, who has been SOEG Business Manager since January, is now in the Navy, a member of the Seabees. It stated that GILBERT was drafted into the job of SOEG Business Manager when GLENN PRATT enlisted in the Army, leaving his job as a set designer. GILBERT took over his duties as a union officer at a financial loss to himself because he felt that union work was as great a contribution as he could make to the war effort as a civilian. "GILBERT has left SOEG because the job of Business Manager was no longer available after GLENN PRATT's return from the Army. SOEG was indeed fortunate to have had the privilege of hiring GILBERT during PRATT's absence."

SCHOOL FOR SOLDIERS IN SHOW BUSINESS

"Variety," official trade paper in the motion picture field, for November 30, 1943, stated in substance that more than 500 enlisted men of Army Special Service, selected from units and camps of the eight Western states under the Ninth Service Command, will be brought here to get intensive instruction in various phases of show business and radio, especially angles and methods of staging shows, routines, etc., with improvised talent recruited from their particular units. It stated that sessions will be held at Santa Monica Junior College for three days, December 9-11, 1943, with thirty lecture periods to be set up. It stated that meetings were authorized by Major General DAVID McCOACH, JR., Commanding General of the Ninth Service Command, and will be under the direct supervision of Lieutenant Colonel WILLIAM A. BEVERIDGE, Chief of Special Service Division of Ninth Service Command; J. T. H. O'REAR, Chief of Military Personnel; and Captain CHESTER K. DOWSE, assistant to Colonel Beveridge. The HOLLYWOOD VICTORY COMMITTEE is cooperating in the enterprise and will line up speakers on various phases of whipping together and improvising shows and entertainment for the men in the field where professional touring units are lacking.

"Variety" for December 9, 1943, stated that Lieutenant Colonel BEVERIDGE planed in from the East to open the meetings, which are being attended by 500 enlisted men. The session will be opened by General BURKE and he will be followed by J. EDWARD BROMBERG on staging dramatic shows and comedies, utilizing five newly inducted men in a scene from "Three Men on a Horse." GLORIA STEWART, ARTHUR SHEEKMAN, ROMAN BOHNEN, and PHIL BROWN will discuss and demonstrate blackouts, and DAVE HEILWEIL will show the boys how staging can be done without the aid of props. STU WILSON of the "Quiz of Two Cities" will talk on quiz shows, and LEE LASSES WHITE will discuss the performance of minstrel shows. DAVID HEILWEIL and PHIL BROWN will handle the technical problems in staging shows. Professor RALPH FREUD of UCLA Dramatic Department will discuss staging and present one of "the Army play by play" one-act plays.

"Variety" for December 2, 1943, stated that five enlisted men from Fort MacArthur, with no previous acting experience, would start rehearsals for "Three Men on a Horse," under direction of J. EDWARD BROMBERG at "Hollywood Actors Lab." It further stated that the Army is bring in 500 special service enlisted men for a course in providing entertainment with talent available in camps and posts, and recruiting instructors in various phases of the show business for the talks and demonstrations.

Source A has made inquiry of this so-called "Actors Lab" and has reported that it is not a laboratory at all, but for a time some motion picture personages had a sort of club room at [redacted], which is a private home, but the "Actors Lab" recently moved to [redacted] This club is an organization set up by known Communists and fellow travelers in the motion picture business for the purpose ostensibly of teaching motion picture acting, but in reality it was set up for the purpose of indoctrinating those who attend the meetings with Communist philosophy. Source A has stated that this club, or "Lab," has been in existence for about two years; that the "Lab" actually holds no classes and has no real teachers or courses, but is merely a meeting place where certain actors meet to "gossip" and plan for different things. Source A further stated that in addition to such indoctrination this organization uses its influence and connections with other Communist front organizations tied in with the motion picture industry to secure employment in the Hollywood studios, thus contributing to further Communist penetration of the motion picture industry. This organization operates in conjunction with the following Communist front groups in Hollywood: MOTION PICTURE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE, LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS, HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION FOR DEFENSE, HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.

TENNEY of the Legislative Fact Finding Committee exposed the Communist domination of the WRITERS CONGRESS. He is a consistent follower of the Communist Party line.

Major TRUE BOARDMAN, an instructor in the "Lab," teaching radio work, is a Hollywood writer and a follower of the CP line.

Source A has reported that the "Actors Lab", the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS, the HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION, HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE, MOTION PICTURE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE, and the HOLLYWOOD VICTORY COMMITTEE have all been created, set up, controlled, and operated exclusively by the Communist Party for the definite purpose of spreading Communist propaganda, and that this last move is for the purpose of indoctrinating the military forces with Communist philosophy.

In connection with this program, it may be stated that the "Los Angeles Examiner" on December 28, 1943, under a New York date line and under the heading, "Cornell Swaps Faculty Reds" and "Communist Fired, New One Hired in Place," carried an article which may be of interest. It is as follows:

"Authorities at Cornell University were disclosed today to have acted upon complaints that cadets in the Army's special training program there were being indoctrinated with Communist Party line propaganda.

"Correction of the situation was beautifully simple.

"Cornell dropped one Red professor and appointed another Red professor to take his place, without even bothering to notify a subcommittee of the House military affairs committee which had been investigating the complaints.

"The professor given his walking papers was VLADIMIR D. KAZAKEVICH, active Communist propagandist and director of the Russia area courses under the cadet training program.

"His successor is Dr. JOSHUA KUNITZ, former editor of the New Masses, former writer for the Daily Worker and a leading spirit in the Fourth Congress of the League of American Writers, which in 1941 denounced President Roosevelt for 'attempts to drag us into an imperialistic war.'

"Included in Dr. Kunitz' 10 years' activity in Communist and Communist front activities was his support of the Hitler-Stalin nonaggression pact in the New Masses.

"In 1931 he went to Kharkov, Russia, as a delegate to the second world plenum of the International Bureau of Revolutionary Writers."

The "Chicago Tribune" for December 30, 1943, carried an article under a New York date line dated December 29, 1943, as follows: "Cornell To Keep Red Professor Teaching Yanks." It related the story in substance as it is stated above, and then stated that Dr.EDMUND EZRA DAY, President of Cornell, had said that Cornell was going to keep Dr. JOSHUA KUNITZ on the faculty as he was good at associating with different groups which enabled him to be well informed on his subject matter. It was also stated that Dr.VLADIMIR D. KAZAKEVICH had gone to Harvard University to teach the same as he had been teaching at Columbia. Harvard University denied that KUNITZ was at Harvard. DAY insisted that he was at Harvard and was teaching the same or similar subjects as he had taught at Cornell.

On December 2, 1943, the following information concerning subject organization was obtained from Source A:

"This institution was located at [redacted] and was subsequently removed to [redacted] It is an organization set up by known Communists and Fellow Travelers for the purpose ostensibly of teaching acting for motion pictures. In reality, it is set up for the purpose of indoctrinating those who attend the classes with the Communist philosophy. In addition to such indoctrination, this organization uses its influence and connections with other Communist front organizations tied in with the motion picture industry to secure employment in the Hollywood studios, thus contributing to further Communist penetration of the motion picture industry. This organization operates in conjunction with the following alleged Communist front groups in Hollywood: LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS, HOLLYWOOD WRITERS' MOBILIZATION FOR DEFENSE, HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE. The Directors and those in control of subject organization are the following:

ROMAN BOHNEN, a close follower of the Communist Party line, and extremely active in Communist circles since 1934.

J. EDWARD BROMBERG, actor, a member of the Communist Party.

MORRIS CARNOVSKY, an alleged Communist and a long follower of the Communist Party line.

JULES DASSIN, Director, follower of the Communist Party line and active in the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS and Writers' School.

IRVING PICHEL, Director and follower of the Communist Party line, and supporter of innumerable Communist fronts.

IRVING REIS, writer, member of the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS and follower of the Communist Party line over a long period.

VINCENT SHERMAN, Director, active in LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS and close follower of the Communist Party line.

FRANK TUTTLE, Director, member of the Communist Party."

ACTIVITY OF ORGANIZATION:

On March 7, 1944, a telephonic inquiry was made to the Actors' Laboratory, Inc. MARY TARCAI, who responded to this inquiry, advised that the subject organization was currently starting a new semester of classes to begin March 15, 1944. Applications were at that time being accepted from prospective students to participate in classes to be held three nights each week over a four months' period. She advised that the school work was devoted to classes in acting, drama, and almost every phase of the theater, including motion pictures. However, she described this current session as being mostly classroom work, with very little actual work in stage production. According to MARY TARCAI, at the conclusion of this session the better students would be selected for actual stage work, and production of plays and radio skits, on the part of the Actors' Laboratory, Inc. She was anxious to point out that mere attendance in the school would not guarantee participation in actual productions, but that anything done by a student which was meritorious would be rewarded with these parts. MARY TARCAI advised that the tuition for the four months' session would be $20 per month, and that fifty students would be accepted.

MARY TARCAI also disclosed that subject organization had in the past presented plays and entertainment to various Army caps. One of these productions which had met with tremendous success was the Actors' Laboratory, Inc.'s, production of "Junior Miss". Variety Magazine, dated February 10, 1944, carried the following advertisement:

| COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY | INTERNAL SECURITY - C |

SYNOPSIS: Communist activities in Hollywood motion picture industry reflect the changes in the C.P. line and create the impression that the industry is fostering the dissemination of Communist propaganda. The C. P. at the present time is using this influence in the political field to elect friendly candidates and to defeat and punish those who oppose the Communist program. The C.P. endeavors to gain control of labor unions, guilds, and other organized groups, cultural and political, for the purpose of carrying out its objectives. This is being done openly, and usually with the consent of the producers of pictures. The Communists put pressure on the heads of the industry to bring about the making of pictures favorable to Communist philosophy and to the Soviet Union, and to prevent the production of pictures which would be antagonistic to the Communist cause. They have adopted the "ardent patriot" attitude, and accuse and attack all persons who hold views different to theirs as "Hitlerites". The Communists have adopted the plan of injecting small portions of propaganda into pictures, and have almost completely abandoned the idea of putting over any picture filled with propaganda, and are just as active to see to it that propaganda pictures favorable to America are kept to a minimum. They also seek to distort and tear down American customs and history. The pictures "MEET THE PEOPLE", "NORTH STAR", "GOVERNMENT GIRL", "DESTINATION TOKYO", "THREE RUSSIAN GIRLS", "TENDER COMRADE", "THE IMPOSTER", "UNCLE TOM'S CABIN", and "LIFE OF EDDIE RICKENBACKER" have been analyzed showing Communist efforts to propagandize in favor of Russia and prohibit praise to worthy Americans. Communist political activity in Hollywood at the present time is openly following the Communist Party line. The Communists set up the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE, which is no part of the Democratic Party. They have set up Labor Committees for Political Action, and have gained control of the principal AFL labor unions and guilds in the motion picture industry. The Communists have built up a supporting structure of various front organizations which cover activities somewhat different from the above. The principal ones are the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE, JOINT ANTI-FASCIST REFUGEE COMMITTEE, HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION, and the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS; THE PEOPLE'S EDUCATIONAL CENTER, and ACTORS LAB. The HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE takes care of political matters. The JOINT ANTI-FASCIST REFUGEE COMMITTEE directs the fund raising. The HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION functions as a propaganda agency through connections with the WRITERS WAR BOARD, and the OWI, and the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS are the propaganda forces in the cultural and creative departments of the motion picture industry. The MOTION PICTURE ALLIANCE FOR THE PRESERVATION OF AMERICAN IDEALS, composed of persons who are aware of the extent of this Communist infiltration, is making a feeble attempt to combat this Communist influence and propaganda.

Report of Special Agent JAMES G. FINDLAY, dated 2-12-44 at Los Angeles, California.

DETAILS: AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

Source A has been closely associated and connected with the Labor Union and Guild situation and activity in the motion picture industry in Hollywood for the past ten years. He has witnessed the tortuous course of the Communist Party line. He has observed it when it appeared as if the Communists were nearing the coveted goal of taking over the motion picture business and directing it for the benefit of the Communists and for the ultimate spread of Communism throughout the world.

Source A has related the situation as he sees it today, and has explained the devious ways that the Communists go about getting control, retaining control, and with but one ultimate objective, how the Communists utilize the motion picture to spread Russian propaganda for the benefit of the Soviet Union.

Source A has stated that all Communist activities in the Hollywood motion picture industry reflect all changes in the line of the Communist Party and in the tactics pursued by that Party, as laid down and directed by the Central Committee of that Party from time to time. As a consequence, it will be found, by comparison with Communist activities elsewhere throughout the United States, that by virtue of the ever-increasing infiltration of Communists and Communist influence in the industry, the impression is being created and accepted by many people that the industry itself, as an institution, is lending itself to the dissemination of Communist propaganda. The Communist Party, aware of this and also aware of the prestige of this industry and its subtle influence on the minds of the American people, seeks to strengthen this impression, and has, to some extent, been successful.

Source has stated that in addition to this attempt to use the motion picture industry and its product for the purpose of spreading subtle propaganda for Communism, the Communists at the same time use this prestige and influence on the political field for the purpose of electing to public office individuals who will carry out the line of the Party, should they be elected. At the present time, this work in the political field comes first on the program.

At the same time that the Communist Party carries on its activities in the foregoing manner, according to Source A, it carries on a campaign to capture and secure control over all labor unions, Guilds, and all organized groups, and, where successful, ties them in with all other groups, both cultural and political, thus creating an organized "apparatus" for the purpose of carrying out the objectives of the Communist Party at any given time. All such groups or organizations so tied in to this apparatus are not necessarily completely identified with the motion picture industry. They may be, and many times are, outside organizations, such as educational societies, workers schools, political clubs, refuge committees, forums, radio programs, etc., all of which identify themselves more or less with the motion picture industry because of the fact that prominent personages in the motion picture industry function as delegates and sponsor or appear as principal speakers for such groups. In this way, the prestige and power of the industry is used to promote the Communist program. All this is done with, at least, the tacit consent of the producers of motion pictures themselves.

Source informs that at the same time that these activities are carried on in the field of politics, local and national, this Communist apparatus utilizes all its strength, working through certain writers, directors, actors and some in executive positions, to influence the producers to make pictures along subject lines which easily permit the injection of Communist propaganda therein. In these activities the Communist elements utilize all organizations of labor, political and cultural groups and outside organized influences over which they have control for the purpose of putting pressure on the heads of the industry to the making of pictures favorable to the Communist philosophy and the Soviet Union, and also to prevent the production of any pictures which would be antagonistic to the Communist cause or which would even be in conflict with the Communist Party line.

In pursuing this course, Source states the Communists have taken advantage very cleverly of the present war situation by identifying themselves and their cause with the success of the war effort, coming forth as most ardent patriots devoted to the welfare of this country and labelling anyone who objects as fascists and agents of Hitler, although during the period of the Stalin-Hitler Pact they played that role themselves.

As the present Party line and tactics of the Communist Party now appear on the surface to support democracy, unity in the war effort, and even endorsement of the system of private enterprise and capitalism, all of which were laid down by EARL BROWDER on January 10, 1944, the Communists, now being fairly well entrenched in the Hollywood motion picture industry, follow that pattern. This program, when viewed in the light of the Marxist-Leninist-Stalinist philosophy and tactics, is nothing more or less than deception and trickery on a national and international scale. To put it simply, it is merely a temporary tactic directed from Moscow to be used in the interest of the Soviet Union because that country still needs the aid of the others of the United Nations in the present war against Hitler's Germany, a war which could only have been possible upon the signing of the pact between Stalin and Hitler on August 23, 1939.

Hence, according to Source A, the activities of the Communists in the Hollywood motion picture industry may be separated for the purposes of this report into the following classifications, not forgetting, however, that all are tied together behind the scenes and controlled and directed by the Communist Party:

I. PROPAGANDA IN MOTION PICTURES

II. OPEN POLITICAL ACTIVITY

III. ACTIVITY IN THE LABOR UNIONS

IV. FRONT ORGANIZATIONS SUPPORTED BY PERSONS IN THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY

I. PROPAGANDA IN MOTION PICTURES

For the purpose of injecting propaganda into motion pictures, Source A has revealed that the Communist Party for many years has been concentrating on two groups in the industry particularly. These are writers and directors, they being in a position in the creative field to determine the content of the picture. The writer who creates the dialogue and action, and the director who interprets the same are thus in a position to influence the political philosophy contained in any given picture. For this reason, the political views and background of the writer and director are utilized to the fullest extent by the Communist Party, and the infiltration of known Communists and followers of the Communist Party line in these groups is very marked. The present war situation permits those writers and directors who follow the Communist leadership to insert sequences and episodes into a picture in a most clever manner. For this reason, the Communist apparatus in the motion picture industry has been most successful in having placed in the majority of war pictures those writers and directors who are in sympathy with the cause of Communism.

Source states that their crowning achievement in this respect was the picture "MISSION TO MOSCOW." However, that picture raised such a controversy throughout the United States that since it was made the technique has been changed somewhat so that at the present time the Communist writers and directors have become more subtle. They are now content to insert a line, a scene or situation carrying the Communist Party line into an otherwise non-political picture, having found that this method is more effective by reason of the fact that it does not appear to be purposeful, but just incidental. However, this subtle method of getting propaganda into a picture is not restricted to straight war pictures or serious dramas. It is used to convey the Communist message in what are called "Musicals". An example is a picture now completed and about to be released, called "MEET THE PEOPLE."

R.M. "MEET THE PEOPLE", a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production, is a straight musical comedy, and could not ordinarily be expected to carry a serious political message. Yet, it does this very thing, and in a very effective manner. At a "trade showing" of this picture on April 3, 1944, when the picture was previewed by persons connected with the motion picture industry only, the critic on DAILY VARIETY, the Hollywood trade publication, reviewed the picture and said in part:

> "The book skirts one danger as pure entertainment of light tone. It flirts at times with a social message and confuses its wartime sociology considerably in the attempt to interplay a serious theme about the identity of the 'people' with its lilting and laugh sallies."

While this picture would ordinarily be classed as light entertainment, a close examination of the origin of the picture, the background and activities of those who made the picture, and the obvious Communist inspiration in the rear will reveal the method and tactics used by the Hollywood Communist elements to utilize the motion picture for propaganda purposes. Using this picture as an example, tracing it from its origin to ultimate presentation before the American people, and identifying those responsible for its production, the formula and general tactics used by the Communist Party to penetrate the motion picture industry can be clearly shown. From this "case history" the camouflaged Communist influence can be traced from origin to completion, and using the tactics adopted by the Communists in this instance as a pattern developed for the purpose, it is not difficult to understand how Communist influence in the motion picture industry has grown to such staggering proportions.

Source A has related that on April 4, 1939, an organization was formed in Hollywood called the HOLLYWOOD THEATER ALLIANCE. The purposes of this group were to produce plays, radio presentations, etc., of a "progressive" nature, it being contended that the stage, screen and radio at the time was not "socially conscious"; that what was needed was a theater that would carry a social message, etc., etc., all of which constituted then, as it does now, the usual Communist subterfuge used to produce propaganda plays, pictures and radio programs.

Source A stated that the following well known Communists were prominent in the group that formed the organization. Where the records of the Los Angeles Bureau Office show a party to be a Communist, the word Communist is shown thus, (Communist).

Source A informed that the first production of this Alliance was a show called "MEET THE PEOPLE". It was first produced at the Assistance League Playhouse on Kingsley Drive in Hollywood, later moving to the Music Box Theater on Hollywood Boulevard. The initial showing of the play was in October, 1939, after the pact between Stalin and Hitler was signed on August 23, 1939. (It is most important that this date be kept in mind as it had much to do with this play.)

The play was in the nature of a musical revue, and in content was mainly a satire on the ideals and customs of American democracy. In essence, the play was what is known in Communist circles as "socially conscious". The play had a long run, almost two years. It was taken out on the road, and toured the larger cities of the United States. As time went on, sequences were injected into the play which, following the Communist Party line at the time, advocated isolationism, opposition to lend-lease, etc. All in all, it was, as intended by Communist influence, a clever vehicle for propaganda.

The play was written by HENRY MYERS, JAY GORNEY, and EDWARD ELISCU, all Communists. Others who wrote material and had a hand in determining the content of the play were:

SOL BARZMAN, a close follower of the Communist Party line and a part of the Hollywood Communist apparatus (Communist)
BEN BARZMAN, " " (Communist)
GEORGE BASSMAN, musical composer and Communist (Communist)
MORTIMER OFFNER, follower of Party line (Communist)
DANNY DARE, dance director and extremely active in Communist affairs in the picture industry
MILT GROSS, writer, Follower of Party, member of League of American Writers and many Communist front organizations.
HENRY BLANKFORT, writer and Party line follower (Communist)
MIKE QUIN, nationally known Communist, for years special writer for PEOPLE'S WORLD, West Coast Communist publication, and the DAILY WORKER, New York organ of the Communist Party (Communist).

Source A stated this show ran its course during the period of the St Hitler pact, during which time it spread propaganda for isolation, oppositi the Selective Service Act, to lend-lease, and so forth. It was strictly Party line presentation.

After the attack on the Soviet Union by Hitler, the show began to liquidate itself, and within a few months it was no more. But the name "MEET THE PEOPLE" had been well established by publicity, and had a certain drawing power. So, when the Communist Party line changed from isolation to pro-war, this same group of Communists decided to produce another show under the same title, this time to carry out the new line of the Communist Party which is now one of ardent support for democracy, patriotism and the like.

Source A stated further that the same three Communist writers, MYERS, GORNEY and ELISCU then wrote a new production, calling it the "NEW MEET THE PEOPLE". This production was staged at the same Assistance League Playhouse on North Kingsley Drive, Los Angeles, some six months ago and is still running. It has now been transferred to the Music Box Theater on Hollywood Boulevard.

The content of this production is just the opposite from that of the first production, as explained above.

Both productions of "MEET THE PEOPLE" having been successes in their way, the Metro-Goldwyn Mayer Studios purchased the right to produce a motion picture, using the title "MEET THE PEOPLE", which would follow the general lines of the production as a musical revue.

After some six months or so, the picture is now about to be released. As stated heretofore, the picture contains certain "social" interpretations, the word "social" in this instance meaning "communist", as applied to propaganda.

In order that the Communist infiltration into motion picture industry by way of this production might be shown, it is only necessary to identify certain individuals who were previously connected with the presentation, and show that they followed the play "MEET THE PEOPLE" right into the picture studios.

Source A states that the official studio pronouncements state that SOL BARZMAN and BEN BARZMAN "suggested the story"; that HENRY MYERS and JAY GORNEY were writers on the picture; and what is most significant, we find that the producer and director in fact of the picture is E. Y. HARBURG.

> E. Y. HARBURG is one of the most active in the Hollywood Communist movement in the industry. He has been identified as a sponsor and supporter of numerous front organizations, is a member of and supporter of the League of American Writers, and followed the Communist Party line during the period of the Stalin-Hitler pact.

The star of the picture is LUCILLE BALL.

> LUCILLE BALL is a Communist, having registered as such in 1936. In the same year, before she became prominent in the picture industry, she was a member of the Central Committee of the State of California of the Communist Party. JOHN WEATHERWAX, Personnel Director of the Communist Party and still a Communist, stated under oath before a State Investigating Committee in 1941 that he had appointed Miss BALL to that position. He only made this statement when shown documentary proof of the same, and did so under most violent protest.

From the foregoing "case history", the method and means whereby Communist infiltration into the motion picture industry is brought about, can be understood, more easily.

However, there are many other ways by which it can be done and is being done. But this general pattern can be seen in many other instances. It has always been the studied purpose of the Communist Party in its attempts to penetrate the motion picture industry to have placed as directors and writers those members, followers or sympathizers who can be relied upon to aid in carrying out their aims of injecting propaganda into motion pictures.

Source A stated, with this in mind the following pictures have been released within the last six months in which the directors, writers, and sometimes others have been identified with Communist activity in the motion picture industry:

"NORTH STAR" A Samuel Goldwyn production, dealing with the Russian question in a most favorable aspect. This picture has been recognized by most reviewers as strictly a propaganda picture.

The following persons were in a position to determine the content of this picture:

WILLIAM CAMERON MENZIES, associate producer. MENZIES has shown a decided sympathy with the Communist cause. He has been an instructor in the Hollywood Writers School, a project set up and controlled by the League of American Writers, a notorious Communist front organization. He is also an instructor in the PEOPLES EDUCATIONAL CENTER, a Communist-inspired group in the Los Angeles area, which was set up in September, 1943.

LILLIAN HELLMAN, writer of the story. Miss HELLMAN is a Communist with a long record. She was active in the AMERICAN PEACE MOBILIZATION and numerous other front groups. (Communist)

LEWIS MILESTONE, director. Mr. MILESTONE has long been known as a follower of the Communist Party line, and has devoted much effort to the cause.

AARON COPLAND, composer of the music for the picture. He too follows faithfully the Party line.

IRA GERSHWIN, writer of the lyrics, is also a faithful follower of the line and active in front organizations.

JAMES WONG HOWE, a Chinese, the cameraman for the picture. He has been identified as an active Communist follower for many years.

RM. "GOVERNMENT GIRL" An RKO release.

The following persons determined the content of this picture:

DUDLEY NICHOLS, producer and director. NICHOLS has been involved in Communist front activity and has shown sympathy for Communism for many years. He is an active member of the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS and many other front organizations, including the AMERICAN PEACE MOBILIZATION.

BUDD WILSON SCHULBERG wrote the picture. SCHULBERG has a long record of Communist activity. He was for years a member of the YOUNG COMMUNIST LEAGUE, and is a faithful follower of the Communist Party line. He made a trip to the Soviet Union in 1934, and has been a propagandist for Communism ever since.

OLIVIA DE HAVILAND, star of the picture, is a follower of the Party line, and at the present time is most active in such organizations as the JOINT ANTI-FASCIST REFUGEE COMMITTEE, Communist-controlled RUSSIAN RELIEF groups, and the like.

RM. "DESTINATION TOKYO" A Warner Brothers production.

JERRY WALD, producer. WALD has shown sympathy with Communists in the motion picture industry.

ALBERT MALTZ, a Communist, wrote the screen play. MALTZ' record as a Communist is well known as he has been active for many years. He is fanatically devoted to the cause. (Communist)

DELMER DAVES, director, has shown Communist sympathy.

CARY GRANT and JOHN GARFIELD, co-stars of the picture, have both been active in Communist circles. GARFIELD, particularly, has a long record of such activity. He has just returned from Italy, where he had been sent on a military forces entertainment tour.

RM "THREE RUSSIAN GIRLS" A Gregor Rabinowich production for United Artists release.

DAN JAMES (Communist) and ABEN KANDEL wrote the screen play. Both JAMES and KANDEL have been active in Communist affairs in the motion picture industry. Supported and participated in numerous front organizations.

EUGENE FRENKE, associate producer, has shown only mild sympathy with Communist efforts.

MAURICE CLARK made the adaptation from the original story. CLARK is a close follower of the Communist Party line, and is active in the JOINT ANTI-FASCIST REFUGEE COMMITTEE, a Communist controlled organization in Hollywood.

VICTOR TRIVAS assisted in the adaptation. He, too, is a follower of the Communist Party line.

The picture deals with Russian affairs behind the battle lines, and contains propaganda favorable to the way of life in the Soviet Union.

RM "TENDER COMRADE" An RKO production.

DAVID HEMPSTEAD, producer. HEMPSTEAD has shown decided sympathies for Communists and Communist causes over a period of years.

DALTON TRUMBO, the writer who wrote the story, is a known Communist and one of the most fanatical of that group in the Hollywood motion picture industry. He was extremely active in the AMERICAN PEACE MOBILIZATION; wrote pamphlets supporting that organization; wrote pamphlet in defense of HARRY BRIDGES; member of the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS and numerous other Communist front groups. (Communist).

EDWARD DMYTRYK, director, is a close follower of the Communist Party line, and engages in most front organizations.

Source A reported that the mother of GINGER ROGERS, star of the picture, said that when the picture was being made the writer inserted in the script certain propaganda lines to be spoken by her daughter. She, Mrs. LELA ROGERS, refused to let her daughter deliver the lines because of this propaganda. The writer, TRUMBO, then changed the script and had the lines spoken by another girl in the cast. Mrs. ROGERS stated to this writer, according to Source A, that she was much worried about this propaganda tendency in motion pictures, and said that Communist influence in the Hollywood motion picture industry is becoming really alarming. Mrs. ROGERS further stated that there did not seem to be any way to stop this practice because the heads of studios do not seem to recognize the danger to the American people.

RM "THE IMPOSTER". A Universal production.

JULIEN DUVIVIER, producer and director, is a refugee from occupied France. He has been identified with Communist activities while in Hollywood, and shows a distinct sympathy with Communism. He wrote the original play while in France.

STEPHEN LONGSTREET wrote the adaptation from the French. LONGSTREET is a close follower of the Communist Party line.

MARC CONNELLY wrote the dialogue for this country. CONNELLY is one of the most active Party line followers in Hollywood. Member of the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS, HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION, and supporter of a multitude of Communist front organizations.

DMITRI TIOMKIN wrote the musical score. He also is a close follower of the Party line and has been identified as belonging and supporting numerous Communist front organizations.

This picture deals with the Free French movement in North Africa.

Source A asserts that the efforts of the Communist Party machine to dominate or at least to greatly influence the type of picture produced, are not confined solely to injecting its propaganda into pictures, but are also directed toward preventing anything the Party would consider objectionable to its Party line. In several cases, the Communist Party has actually prevented the making of a certain type of picture which it decided was not to its liking politically.

Several months ago, the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studios decided it would make a picture based on "UNCLE TOM'S CABIN" from the book by HARRIET BEECHER STOWE, an American classic. The Communist Party immediately decided this would not be to its liking because the character of UNCLE TOM, as portrayed in the book was too much of a servant and was too loyal to his "master", and therefore, the picture would be contrary to the present line and efforts of the Communist Party to stir up the Negroes to assert themselves on a basis of equality. What the Party really had in mind was that it might stand in the way, to a certain extent, of its efforts to win the Negroes over to the Communist cause.

Immediately following the announcement that the studio would make this picture, the Communist Party went into action. Working through its front organizations, its Committees of Correspondence and certain Negro newspapers, particularly the CALIFORNIA EAGLE, a Los Angeles publication edited and managed by CHARLOTTA BASS, an active Communist follower, a campaign of intimidation was launched. Thousands of letters of protest went into the studios, and every form of Communist influence was used, and as a result of all this the studio announced that it would not make the picture. All this in spite of the fact that "UNCLE TOM'S CABIN" is an American classic and was a tremendous force in bringing about the freeing of the Negro slave.

Another case in point, according to Source A, is the picture "LIFE OF EDDIE RICKENBACKER", now in preparation by Twentieth Century Fox Studios. This is the most open attempt made thus far to intimidate the makers of motion pictures. Although RICKENBACKER is a national figure and hero of the first World War, the Communist Party objects to him for his political opinions. It has labelled him a Fascist, a Nazi sympathizer, a reactionary, an isolationist, and has tagged him with every label in its long list of slanderous terms.

From the time when the picture was first announced the Communist element has used every form of pressure it can muster to prevent the making of the picture. It has put pressure on stars causing certain ones to refuse the role: It has intimidated writers causing some to refuse to do the script; It has caused certain labor unions which it dominates to pass resolutions of protest to be sent to the studio: It has done everything in its power to inspire whispering campaigns and opposition to the picture.

At the present time the making of the picture is being hampered at every step and undoubtedly it will be delayed, if not abandoned altogether eventually.

In summary, it can be said that the influence of the Communist Party and its subservient apparatus in the motion picture industry is exceedingly strong and growing all the time. This is because the war situation permits the Communists a latitude never before granted. Further, the present trend toward "internationalism" makes it possible for exponents of the Marxian faith to incorporate in a picture the beneficient effects of certain foreign ideologies which, by contrast, overshadow the general effects of American democracy which, in a most subtle manner, is subject to much criticism.

II. OPEN POLITICAL ACTIVITY

Source A has revealed that the political activity of the Communist Party of the United States, as laid down by EARL BROWDER on January 10, 1944, calls for the support of certain democratic "anti-fascist" candidates for public office, and as the role of the Communist Party is now apparently to support all democratic processes, laying aside any and all attempts to "socialize" the United States, the Communist apparatus in the Hollywood motion picture industry must necessarily follow this pattern, and is following it at the present time in Hollywood.

Obedient to, and in line with this edict from the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the United States, the Communist elements in the motion picture industry have set up a political organization called the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.

Source A has informed that the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE was organized on July 30, 1943. Its first declaration of principles, aims and purposes, put out by JOHN HOWARD LAWSON, was:

> "Stop inflation; stop race rioting; pass Anti-Poll Tax Bill; Repeal the Smith-Connally Bill; pass child labor legislation; tax the rich; and stamp out fifth column in America."

It proclaimed that Senators NYE, WHEELER, REYNOLDS and Congressman RANKIN were doing the work of Hitler in America, and demanded prosecution of the following newspapers: Hearst chain, CHICAGO TRIBUNE, NEW YORK DAILY NEWS, and particularly the READERS DIGEST.

This organization appointed committees which high-pressured Congressmen in two ways. One way was to interview the Congressman, who perhaps had not voted for their pet measures, then give out a scurrilous interpretation to the press. The other, was to organize "Committees of Correspondence" to flood the Congressmen with letters and telegrams, advising them how they should vote on all matters, and organize the voters to defeat them.

This committee is most active, is supported by some very prominent personages in the picture industry, and already is wielding tremendous influence on the political field in California.

Source A advises that this HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE is not, as the name might imply, officially a part of the Democratic Party. It is a separate group composed in the main of known Communists, Party line followers, and sympathizers. Its activities thus far have been devoted principally to publicity for its favored candidates, violent attacks on those candidates with whom it is not in agreement, which attacks are not motivated by loyalty to the institutions of American democracy but rather by whether or not a particular candidate is opposed to the activities of the Communist Party and its followers, or the proposals sponsored by that Party.

The HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE also conducts door-to-door campaigns in the interest of its activities. It also works in conjunction with labor unions, outside front organizations such as the JOINT ANTI-FASCIST REFUGEE COMMITTEE, LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS, LEAGUE OF WOMEN SHOPPERS, all CIO union groups, and the like.

It can properly be said to be the political spearhead of the Communist Party in Hollywood, from which radiates in all directions the political influence and prestige of the Hollywood motion picture industry which has been proven in the past to be of utmost power and significance.

While the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE acts as a "mass" organization appealing to all persons in the Hollywood sector, the labor unions in the motion picture industry, and particularly those under Communist domination, engage in political activity corresponding to that of the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE. In this case, however, the activity is confined to the labor unions as such.

MOTION PICTURE LABOR COMMITTEE FOR POLITICAL ACTION

In line with the policy of the Communist Party and its activities on the open political field, there has been set up in Hollywood an organization called MOTION PICTURE LABOR COMMITTEE FOR POLITICAL ACTION.

Source A advised that this committee was formed for the purpose of directing the political strength of the Hollywood labor unions toward the election of candidates for public office who were favorable to labor's interests. On that basic program, the Committee is presumed to function, and on that basic program some fifteen locals of the labor movement in the motion picture industry have already reached a working agreement.

While the inspiration for the formation of this committee came from the political policy of the American Federation of Labor, as a national organization, to take part in the present political campaigns, the Communist elements in control of a certain block of labor unions in the motion picture industry promptly took advantage of this and formed this Labor Committee for Political Action.

According to Source A, not all locals of labor unions affiliated with and represented on this committee are Communist-controlled. However, the majority of them are, and thus practically dominate the actions and endorsements of the Committee. Because of this dominance by the Communist elements, the committee in a broad sense follows the line of the Communist Party.

The committee is composed only of local unions of the American Federation of Labor. However, as it is a unit in the broad program of the AFL's national political effort, it is affiliated with the UNITED AFL POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE, which, in turn, functions in conjunction with the CIO POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE, a thoroughly Communist-dominated organization, all of which, taken together, presents a formidable front, now being utilized by the Communist Party to further its program on the open political field.

Source A has informed that the following unions are affiliated with the MOTION PICTURE LABOR COMMITTEE FOR POLITICAL ACTION:

Laboratory Technicians, Local 683, IATSE. This union is dominated completely by Communists. (Communist)

Screen Cartoonists Guild, Local 852, AFL. Communist-controlled.

Screen Office Employees Guild, Local 1391, AFL. Communist-controlled.

Screen Set Designers Guild, Local 1421, AFL. Communist-controlled.

American Federation of Musicians, Local 47, AFL. Communist-controlled.

Studio Machinists, AFL, Local 1185. Communist-controlled.

Motion Picture Painters, Local 644, AFL. Communist-controlled.

International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Local 40, AFL. Strongly influenced by Communists. Generally follows the line.

Sound Technicians, Local 695, IATSE, AFL. Strongly influenced by Communists and generally follows the line.

International Photographers, Local 659, IATSE, AFL. Influenced by Communists. Generally follows the line.

Screen Publicists Guild. This is an independent union permitted to affiliate with the Committee on the grounds that it has applied for an AFL Charter. It is completely under Communist control.

Screen Story Analysts Guild (formerly Screen Readers Guild). This union also is independent but is permitted to affiliate with the Committee because it has applied for an AFL charter. This union also is completely dominated by Communists.

Motion Picture Costumers, Local 705, IATSE, AFL. This union has just recently come under Communist influence to a marked extent.

Studio Teamsters, Local 399, AFL. This union is strongly anti-Communist.

Studio Plasterers, Local 755, AFL. This union is strongly anti-Communist.

Studio Laborers, Local 727, IATSE, AFL. This union is mildly anti-Communist through its officials.

From the foregoing list of unions and Communist influence or lack of same in each one, it can be seen that the Committee for Political Action in Hollywood is under Communist influence.

Source A has stated that in almost every instance where this committee has taken action or made endorsements, such action and endorsement has been identical with those of the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE, and both, in turn, have corresponded with the proposals and endorsements of the PEOPLE'S WORLD, the Communist daily publication of the West Coast.

Source A states that the representatives of the various unions making up the MOTION PICTURE LABOR COMMITTEE FOR POLITICAL ACTION, and who speak for their union on the committee, are the following:

NORVAL CRUTCHER, Laboratory Technicians, Local 683. (Communist)

WILLIAM POMERANCE, Screen Cartoonists Guild, Local 852. (Communist)

BERNARD LUSHER, Screen Office Employees Guild, Local 1391. (Communist) 5 cp.

ED MUSSA, Screen Set Designers Guild, Local 1421. A follower of the Communist Party line.

J. K. WALLACE, Musicians Local 47. (Communist)

D. T. WAYNE, Studio Machinists, Local 1185. A follower of the Party line.

HERBERT K. SORRELL, Motion Picture Painters, Local 644. (Communist)

AL SPEEDE, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Local 40. Follows the lead of the Communists.

HAROLD SMITH, Sound Technicians, Local 695. A member of the Executive Board of HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE, and generally follows the lead of the Communist groups.

HERBERT ALLER, International Photographers, Local 659. Not a Communist, but will generally follow their lead.

TED TAYLOR, Screen Publicists Guild. Active in all Communist affairs and special writer for the PEOPLE'S WORLD, Communist official publication.

BERNARD GORDON, Screen Story Analysts Guild. Active in all Communist affairs and causes.

TED ELLSWORTH, Motion Picture Costumers, Local 705. Follower of the Communists on the Committee.

RALPH CLARE, Teamsters Local 399. Strongly anti-Communist, and therefore a disturbing element on the Committee.

BEN MARTINEZ, Studio Plasterers, Local 755. Strongly anti-Communist and violently outspoken in attacks on their actions.

A. K. ERICKSON, Studio Laborers, Local 727. Anti-Communist.

Source A stated that those independent unions calling themselves "Guilds", such as the Screen Writers Guild, Screen Directors Guild, and the Screen Actors Guild (the Screen Actors Guild being affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, but not yet a part of the Motion Picture Labor Committee) carry on their political activities directly through the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE with which many of their members are affiliated.

"The officers of the MOTION PICTURE LABOR COMMITTEE FOR POLITICAL ACTION are the following:

AL SPEEDE, Chairman. Mentioned heretofore.
D. T. WAYNE, V-Chairman. " "
TED ELLSWORTH, Secretary " "

"Although this MOTION PICTURE LABOR COMMITTEE is composed of local unions of the American Federation of Labor, the overwhelming membership of the officers, the directors of the Committee, and membership representation is decidedly Communist. Those several persons and unions represented are a small impotent minority and thus cannot prevent action by the Committee which follows the Communist Party line."

III. COMMUNIST ACTIVITY IN THE LABOR UNIONS

Source A has informed that the campaign carried on by the Communist Party to take over the labor unions in the Hollywood motion picture industry has, within the last six months, been intensified greatly and has met with a considerable degree of success. The strategy used by the Communist elements was to set up a separate group which would act as a hard, disciplined "core" among the different organized groups of workers.

This group or block of labor unions, according to Source A, came into existence after several previous abortive attempts to capture the key unions in the Hollywood motion picture industry and take them over into the CIO. After the last failure in 1939, the Communist Party changed its tactics and began a campaign within the American Federation of Labor, which has jurisdiction over most labor unions in the studios. The strategy this time was to remain within the A.F. of L. and seek to take them over from the inside.

Source A advised that the first union completely taken over by the Communists was Moving Picture Painters, Local 644, under the leadership of HERBERT K. SORRELL, a known Communist. This took place in 1936. After a period of time extending up to the summer of 1941, several other unions were taken over. They were[1] Laboratory Technicians, Local 683, IATSE, and[2] Studio Machinists, Local 1185, International Association of Machinists. By the fall of 1942, there were attached to this group the[3] Screen Cartoonists Guild, Local 852,[4] the Screen Office Employees Guild, Local 1391, and the[5] Screen Set Designers Guild, Local 1421, affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

The next step in the process was to weld these six unions into a tight working group. An organization was set up called the CONFERENCE OF STUDIO UNIONS.

CONFERENCE OF STUDIO UNIONS

Source A advised that this Conference constituted a top structural mechanism which determined the policies and activities of the member unions. It is completely under Communist control. The leading figures who set up the organization are the following:

HERBERT K. SORRELL, President, a known Communist.
NORVAL D. CRUTCHER, Chairman, a known Communist.
D. T. WAYNE, Vice-President, a close follower of the Communist Party line.
RUSSELL B. McKNIGHT, a close follower of the Communist Party line.
BERNARD LUSHER, a Communist.
WILLIAM POMERANCE, a Communist.

ED MUSSA, a follower of the Communist Party line.
JOHN MARTIN, a close follower of the Party line.

"The formation of this Conference of Studio Unions became the opening wedge for taking over absolute control of these unions and centralizing this control within a small disciplined group of Communists. The original group of local unions forming this Conference of Studio Unions were the above mentioned.

"Within the last six months, four more unions have joined the organization. They are the following:

Building Service Employees, Local 99. The head of this union and its spokesman, is GEORGE BRADLEY. BRADLEY is, and has been, a follower of the Communist Party line for many years. He is a member of and sponsor of many Communist front groups.

Special Officers and Guards, Local 193. The spokesman and representative for this union is TED CAMP. CAMP is a newcomer in this field and has not shown up heretofore as engaged in Communist activity.

Screen Publicists Guild. This union has heretofore been independent, but inasmuch as some time ago it made application for an A.F. of L. charter, it has been admitted to this Conference. Within the last four weeks, that charter has been granted, and now this guild is a local union of the A.F. of L. The charter was not a direct one, but was issued by way of Moving Picture Painters, Local 644, and it now becomes an affiliate of that local union. This Screen Publicists Guild is, and has long been, completely under the control of the Communist Party. Its representative on the Conference group is TED TAYLOR. TAYLOR is one of the most ardent Communists in Hollywood. He is a special writer for the PEOPLE'S WORLD, the Pacific Coast Communist publication, and takes part in every venture of the Communist apparatus.

It is most important to note that this Screen Publicists Guild is one of the most powerful propaganda instruments for the Communist cause in the motion picture industry. Composed of publicists (Press Agents formerly), it is in a position to pour through the daily press and other publications devoted to the motion picture industry, a constant stream of subtle propaganda to all parts of the United States, and the entire world, in fact. The possibilities are obvious.

Screen Analysts Guild (formerly Screen Readers Guild). Source A advises this union also had been independent. Ever since its formation some three years ago, it has been completely under control of the Communist Party. Recently it made application for an A.F. of L. charter through the Moving Picture Painters, Local 644, and on the basis of that application it was admitted to the Conference of Studio Unions. Within the last two weeks this union, too, has been granted a charter by the A.F. of L. through the Painters Union. Here again, we find a most important key group under Communist control. The importance of the Screen Story Analyst (formerly called a "reader") is because he or she must read everything sent in to the studios, books, short stories, magazines, newspapers, scripts, and, in fact, everything available. When read, this "analyst" recommends that certain material either be accepted or rejected for presentation in a picture. It can be easily seen that this person is in a position to recommend ideas, sequences or scenes which, if he or she were Communistically inclined, would be of help to the Communist cause and its propaganda.

The head and spokesman for this group is BERNARD GORDON, who is one of the most enthusiastic Communists in Hollywood.

"Thus, the Conference of Studio Unions, a completely Communist-controlled organization, is now composed of ten key unions of the utmost importance to the motion picture industry. The influence of this block is growing day by day. And what is most significant is that for the first time the motion picture producers have recognized this Conference of Studio Unions as a separate bargaining agency. This recognition came about at the annual negotiations conferences between the producers and labor representatives held in New York City, during the monthsof March and April of this year.

The ten unions constituting the Conference of Studio Unions are the following:

Moving Picture Painters, Local 644
Laboratory Technicians, Local 683
Screen Cartoonists Guild, Local 852
Screen Office Employees Guild, Local 1391
Set Designers Guild, Local 1421
Studio Machinists, Local 1185
Building Service Employees, Local 99
Special Officers and Guards, Local 193
Screen Analysts Guild
Screen Publicists Guild

Source A states that the over-all spokesman for this Conference of Studio Unions is HERBERT K. SORRELL, its President. SORRELL is also the Business Representative of Moving Picture Painters, Local 644. SORRELL is a known Communist of many years standing.

"This Conference of Studio Unions, being a part of the Communist apparatus in the motion picture industry, cooperates with and supports all Communist front activities, such as the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE, the JOINT ANTI-FASCIST REFUGEE COMMITTEE, the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS, the HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION, the PEOPLES EDUCATIONAL CENTER, and the like.

"While this Conference of Studio Unions constitutes the nucleus of Communist activity among the Hollywood labor unions, such activity is being carried on in many other unions with the object of incorporating them into this block. Decided progress is being made to this end, and it is more than likely that several more unions will shortly succumb and be taken over by the Conference of Studio Unions."

Source A states it is not known whether the Hollywood Motion Picture Producers are fully aware of the political coloring of the Conference of Studio Unions and what its ultimate objectives are. It is not known whether they are aware of the serious infiltration of Communist elements in the industry. But whether they are or are not, it is a fact that they, acting through their Labor Contact Man, PAT CASEY, who is in charge of labor relations for the industry, consistently favor this Communist group over those unions not influenced by Communists. Mr. CASEY is not a Communist, and has no sympathy with Communists or their cause. Yet, he is a close personal friend and associates freely in many ways with HERBERT K. SORRELL, the Communist leader, in the Hollywood labor union affairs.

"In a broad sense it can be said that the progress of the Communist elements in their attempts to take over all Hollywood labor unions, both A.F. of L. and independent (there being no CIO unions in the motion picture industry), is increasing day by day, and it is possible that eventually they will be in complete control of all motion picture unions in Hollywood.

IV. FRONT ORGANIZATIONS SUPPORTED BY PERSONS IN THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY

As has been stated elsewhere in this report by Source A, the Communists utilize the influence and prestige of the motion picture industry to support activities not directly connected with the industry. By the use of big names and personalities in connection with many Communist front organizations, they are able to attract support and raise funds not otherwise possible. [While these prominent Communist personalities employed in the industry act as individuals in these cases, the impression created in the minds of the public is that the industry as a whole is sponsoring and supporting these many organizations.]

"Strangely enough, the producers of motion pictures have never made an attempt to correct this impression. It is inconceivable that they do not know of this. Communist front organizations in which Hollywood personalities are the moving force, and who use their motion picture prestige and influence in behalf of the Communist cause, are the following:

HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE
JOINT ANTI-FASCIST REFUGEE COMMITTEE
HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION FOR DEFENSE
LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS

Source A states that these four organizations are the most powerful Communist front groups in Hollywood at the present time. They are completely under the control of the Communist Party, and are probably the best known as they are the most active in public and political affairs.

The JOINT ANTI-FASCIST REFUGEE COMMITTEE and the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS have international connections. The JOINT ANTI-FASCIST REFUGEE COMMITTEE operates openly on an international scale, and the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS operates internationally through its affiliation with the INTERNATIONAL UNION OF REVOLUTIONARY WRITERS.

Each of these four front organizations has been the subject of extensive investigation in the Los Angeles area, and for that reason will not be more fully reported here.

PEOPLES EDUCATIONAL CENTER
Hollywood Extension
RM 1717 North Vine Street
Hollywood, California

Source A has reported that the Hollywood Extension of [the PEOPLES EDUCATIONAL CENTER was formerly known as the Hollywood Writers School, conducted by the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS,] a thoroughly dominated Communist front organization.

["The Hollywood Writers School became the Hollywood Extension of the PEOPLES EDUCATIONAL CENTER when EARL BROWDER announced on January 10, 1944, that the Communist Party would, in the near future, cease to be a political party placing candidates in the field for public office as before, but would become an 'educational' organization for the purpose of enlightening the American people] and directing them toward those goals which they, the Communists, consider 'progressive.'

"Immediately the Hollywood Writers School became an extension of the PEOPLES EDUCATIONAL CENTER, an organization along the same lines which had already been formed, it evidently having had advance information of the change in Communist Party tactics.

["As [this school is conducted almost wholly by persons identified with the motion picture industry, and as all instructors are from the same source, the influence and prestige of that institution is bestowed on this school. Most courses taught have to do with screen, writing, acting, screen directing, radio writing, and kindred subjects, all tied in closely to the motion picture industry.]

The character of the school and its objectives can be easily understood by a check on individuals and their backgrounds who constitute the "faculty". Some of the members of the teaching staff, as shown by the school prospectus, are the following:

ALVAH BESSIE, screen writer. A Communist with a long record of activity. He will teach "Literature and the World". (Communist)

A. I. BEZZERIDES, a screen writer. Follower of the Communist Party line, LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS, and other fronts.

EDWARD BIBERMAN, artist. A Communist with long record. "The Social History of Art." (Communist)

REVELS CAYTON, a Negro CIO functionary. A Communist who will teach "Peoples Unity". (Communist)

DR. FRANK C. DAVIS, Professor, University of California at Los Angeles. DAVIS has a long record of Communist front activity. "Psychological Bases of Democracy and Fascism."

HELEN DEUTSCH, screen writer. A close follower of the Communist Party line. She will teach "Screen Writing".

EDWARD DMYTRYK, motion picture director. Long record of Communist activity. Will teach "Motion Picture Directing."

GUY ENDORE, screen writer. ENDORE has been a most active Communist for many years. He will teach "The Novel". (Communist)

MORTON GRANT, screen writer. A Communist. Will teach "Screen writing". (Communist)

DOROTHY HARRIS. She is listed as having been born in the Soviet Union, and graduated from the School of Higher Learning there in 1924. She will teach "Elementary Russian".

CHARLES J. KATZ, attorney. A most vociferous Communist with a long record. Acts as attorney for all Communist causes and persons. Will teach "Labor Relations and The War". (Communist)

JORIS IVENS, a director of documentary films. IVENS is a Communist, long active in Holland and European countries; at one time connected with motion picture production in Moscow; recently made a citizen of the United States. Will teach "Motion Picture Directing". (Communist)

BEN MARGOLIS, attorney. Associated with KATZ (above). A Communist with a long record. Will teach "Labor Relations and the War". (Communist)

JOHN SANFORD, writer. Long record of Communist activity. A close follower of the Party line. Will teach "The Novel".

A. LAL SINGH, a Hindu, Editor of "India News", a publication devoted to freedom for India according to the Communist Party line. A Communist with a long record. (Communist)

DOROTHY TREE, screen actress. A Communist. Will teach "The History of Acting". (Communist)

FRANK TUTTLE, director. A Communist of long standing and most active. Will teach "Motion Picture Directing". (Communist)

MICHAEL URIS, screen writer. Follower of the Communist Party line. Will teach "Screen writing".

"The purpose of this school is the dissemination of Communist propaganda among the pupils who attend. Using the lure of the motion picture industry and its fabulous salaries and prestige and the possibility of influential personages connected with the school securing them positions in the industry, the Communist Party here has a very valuable 'transmission belt'."

ACTORS LAB

b6

RM

Source A states that this so-called "Actors Lab" is another Communist project in Hollywood which uses the motion picture industry's prestige to attract young people for the purpose of indoctrinating them with Communist ideology while pretending to instruct them in the art of acting. In carrying out this program, this organization produces short plays and skits in which it gives them the opportunity to appear. When such play or skit is ready for presentation, it is sent around to the various Army camps under the auspices of the USO and an organization called the Hollywood Victory Committee.

"This Actors Lab has been very successful in placing some of its graduates into the picture studios. Due to the fact that some very important personages in the Communist apparatus in Hollywood are connected with the organization as instructors, sponsors or supporters, it has been able to place those who are sympathetic to the cause of Communism with various studios.

"The organization was formed in 1940, but it was not until 1943 that it developed into a position of importance to the Communist cause. It works in close cooperation with the Hollywood Writers Mobilization, a front for the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS, the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE, and all other Communist fronts in the locality, furnishing entertainment when needed.

"The venture operates on what it calls a 'cooperative basis', each member paying $12.50 per month to take care of expenses. Instructors and directors of the organization operate on a voluntary basis.

"Enrollment in the school for instruction is not restricted to newcomers to the industry. In statements released to the press, it is stated that many distinguished theater personalities are enrolled in the classes. However, these 'distinguished personalities' are not looking for instruction in their art, neither are they looking for entry into the studios; they are individuals sympathetic to Communism who are lending their names and prestige to the venture.

Those most active at the present time in this Actors Lab are the following:

FRANK TUTTLE, motion picture director. An active Communist. (Communist)

ROMAN BOHNEN, actor. A Communist. (Communist).

J. EDWARD BROMBERG, actor. A Communist. (Communist)

MORRIS CARNOVSKY, actor. A Communist. (Communist)

PHIL BROWN, actor. A Communist. (Communist)

JULES DASSIN, motion picture director. A Communist (Communist)

VINCENT SHERMAN, writer and director. Close follower of the Communist Party line.

ABNER BIBERMAN, actor. A follower of the Communist Party line.

IRVING PICHEL, director. Fanatical follower of the Communist Party line.

IRVING REIS, director. A Communist. (Communist)

ORSON WELLES, actor and director. Important cog in the Hollywood Communist apparatus. Follows the line faithfully.

DAVID HEILWELL, actor. A Communist. HEILWELL very recently came from Cornell University, New York. (Communist)

SOPHIE ROSENSTEIN, dramatic instructor. A follower of the Communist Party line.

ELLIOTT SULLIVAN, actor. A close follower of the Communist Party line.

Source A states that by reason of the fact that this organization is in a position to furnish entertainment of a propaganda nature, it is in contact with all Communist front organizations, CIO unions and gatherings of all sorts. At the present time, however, it is concentrating most of its efforts on camp shows for the Army. Needless to mention, these shows disseminate subtle propaganda among the armed forces wherever they are contacted.

Source A has advised that in addition to the foregoing organizations, these same personages take part in organized Communist activities somewhat further removed from the motion picture industry itself. However, the fact that Hollywood has representation in these efforts lends the name of the industry to them to some degree. Some of them are:

COMMITTEES FOR DEFENSE OF SO-CALLED POLITICAL PRISONERS
INTERNATIONAL LABOR DEFENSE
INTERNATIONAL WORKERS ORDER (IWO)
SLEEPY LAGOON DEFENSE COMMITTEE (Committee for defense of some young Mexican youths convicted of murder)
LEAGUE OF WOMEN SHOPPERS
COMMITTEES FOR CARE OF CHILDREN IN WARTIME
COMMITTEES OF CORRESPONDENCE (Devices for pressure by mail to support or oppose measures or other matters favorable or unfavorable to the Communist cause)

"And many other organizations of like Communist inspiration which come and go from time to time. All these groups manage to get a tie-in with the motion picture industry to a greater or lesser degree.

"No one of these Communist groups is all powerful in itself, but all taken together as integral parts of the whole Communist apparatus, present a powerful political and pressure machine.

OPPOSITION TO COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN HOLLYWOOD

Source A has reported that while the great majority engaged in or connected with the motion picture industry have no sympathy with Communism or with Communists, nevertheless, there has not been, until a very recent date, any organized opposition to this alarming encroachment by the Communist Party. Heretofore, any opposition shown has been by individuals, particularly certain labor leaders who see clearly the results of the Communist campaign to take over and control all labor in the industry.

"There has been some opposition within such groups as the Screen Writers Guild, Directors Guild, and others, but the Communist apparatus is so well organized and disciplined that it has been able by using such means as whispering campaigns, personal villification, and slander, to create a virtual intellectual reign of terror which has been so effective as to destroy any real opposition.

"Here again, the producers of motion pictures, if they are aware of it, have done nothing whatever to prevent the Communist Party from intimidating those who oppose its aims. In fact, certain responsible figures in the industry have lent support to this campaign.

"However, within the last three months, an organization has been formed, called the MOTION PICTURE ALLIANCE FOR THE PRESERVATION OF AMERICAN IDEALS, which is now attempting to oppose the Communization of the motion picture industry.

"This Alliance is composed of certain writers, directors, several producers, and others employed in the industry. Its purposes are clearly stated; they are distinctly American and devoted to American ideals and principles. The persons who compose the group are Americans, who for the most part have been long identified with the industry. The organization has brought down upon itself a most violent campaign of abuse and slander. It has been called a fascist organization: It has been called anti-Semitic: It has been accused of pro-Nazi sympathies: It has been subjected to every form of abuse of which the Communist Party and its followers are such adepts.

"It has been called a subversive organization, although those who lead the campaign to destroy this organization are those who supported the AMERICAN PEACE MOBILIZATION, who opposed aid to the democracies, who picketed the White House, who did everything in their power to obstruct national defense when the line of the Communist Party was to give aid to Hitler because of the alliance between Russia and Germany prior to June 22, 1941.

"And here again, we find the motion picture producers supporting the Communist elements. They, for the most part, are doing the best they can to force the dissolution of the MOTION PICTURE ALLIANCE.

However, the MOTION PICTURE ALLIANCE seems to be determined to go ahead. It has the support of those labor unions in the studios which are not under the control of the Communists. They, too, are determined that something be done about the growing influence of the Communist Party in the industry. The situation is highly explosive, and can very easily take on proportions of national significance.

RE: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Dear Sir:

As you know, I am personally interested in this investigation and in this connection, I desire that the Bureau be kept currently and fully advised of all developments. It is therefore directed that your office advise the Bureau by letter or report at least once every thirty days of all developments indicating Communist infiltration in the motion picture field.

The instructions regarding the investigation set out in my letter of June 21, 1943, should be adhered to. In addition, it is suggested that investigative attention be directed to the origin of the stories from which films favorable to Communist ideology are made and the identity of the persons responsible for the use of these stories by the various studios. You should make every effort to establish any Communist affiliations of the persons responsible for the production of such films, particularly those in the directing and producing fields. A special endeavor should be made to establish definite proof of Communist Party membership of those individuals having greatest influence in the so-called intellectual groups and in the labor field. Separate investigations should be conducted concerning such persons if in your judgment the circumstances warrant.

A report should be submitted by your office no later than fifteen days from the receipt of this letter. Subsequent thereto, the monthly report or letter should be submitted in sufficient time to be received at the Bureau no later than the fifteenth of each month thereafter.

Very truly yours,

RE: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY; INTERNAL SECURITY - C

ATTENTION: MR. BUCKLEY

Dear Sir:

In connection with the investigation of the above case and in view of the wide ramifications of the Communist Party in the Hollywood area, I wish to call your attention to the following cases which are more or less related to instant case:

The identifying paragraph should be as brief as consistent with the known facts. If the individual is the subject of a separate file in your office, the file number should appear immediately following the name.

As of possible assistance to your office in this matter there are enclosed alphabetical indices to the reports of Special Agent James G. Findlay dated July 10, 1943, August 25, 1943, and February 12, 1944, respectively. It is noted that the report of Agent Findlay dated February 18, 1943, contains such an index prepared at Los Angeles as part of the report. You should, of course, include such other pertinent data as may appear in your files. In this connection your attention is directed to your letter to the Bureau dated August 9, 1943, captioned "Communist Party, U.S.A., District 13, Los Angeles Field Division; Internal Security - C." This letter and its enclosures set out names of known members of the North West (Movie Industry) Section of the Los Angeles County Communist Party.

Please give this matter your immediate attention. The list requested should be submitted to the Bureau within thirty days of receipt of this letter. A supplementary list should be submitted from time to time as additional names are developed by investigation. Since this matter concerns a file review only, the material submitted should not be considered as in lieu of the monthly report or letter requested of your office in Bureau letter of April 29, 1944.

RE: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE
MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA

Dear Sir:

In order that the Bureau may have concise information concerning those individuals in the motion picture industry who are members of the Communist Party or of Communist Party front organizations, it is directed that the file in this case be reviewed and a list of such persons be compiled. The purpose of this list is to obtain a ready reference to the definitely known Communist affiliations of those persons whose names occur frequently in the various fields of activity in the motion picture industry. It is believed that such a list will not only be of value to the Bureau but also to your office for reference purposes in future investigation to be conducted in this case.

It is desired that the list be broken down as to producers, directors, writers, actors, labor union figures and miscellaneous. If you feel that additional categories should be added, this may be done. However, it is believed desirable to keep the break-down fairly simple at this time and an individual should be classified according to his primary activity in the motion picture field. The category of director should include not only film directors but also technical, musical, dialog and other directors who influence the policy of the film produced. In the miscellaneous category you should include individuals who do not fit into any of the other groups but who are active in furthering the Communist influence in the motion picture field.

A brief identifying paragraph regarding each person should be included. It should set out the name, activities in the motion picture industry, and the fact of Communist Party membership with section and branch if known. If this is not known, a short sentence stating how the person is known to be a Communist Party member should be added. The paragraph should include the names of recognized Communist Party front groups of which the individual is or has been a member or sponsor. Such terms as "fellow traveler", "Communist sympathizer" or "follower of the Communist Party line" should be avoided. If an individual is not a Communist Party member or affiliated with a recognized Communist Party front group, but is nevertheless believed to be furthering the Communist interest, the specific facts forming the basis for such conclusion should be set forth. Facts might be contributions to Communist causes, association with known Communists, instances in which the individual has followed the Communist Party line or otherwise indicated sympathy for the Communist Party or its policies.

DETAILS:

AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA:

The Communist activities in the Hollywood motion picture industry are very largely confined to propaganda in motion pictures, favorable to the Soviet Union and the Communist cause; political action to bring about the defeat of officers, national, state, and local, who are opposed to the Communist program and sponsor and aid these candidates who favor the Communist program; the control and direction of labor's role in the approaching primary and general election, and a strong effort to consolidate all labor organizations to present a united front and the consolidation of the activities of all Communist front organizations to work for the common purpose of consolidating and extending the influence of Communism.

PROPAGANDA IN THE MOTION PICTURE

[Source A] has informed that the following motion pictures with which either the director, writer, or producer, or all three, have been connected with Communist activity, are now in the process of being made or have been mentioned as being under consideration by the producers: b3-4

"CITIZEN TOM PAINE"

[Source A] states that "Citizen Tom Paine" is the title of a book written by HOWARD FAST. The book was published in April of 1943 and deals romantically with the life of THOMAS PAINE and his efforts and activities during the American Revolution. Mr. FAST is a novelist and well-known writer. He is well known as a sympathizer with the cause of Communism and all his writings show a sympathy with that cause. His books and writings are advertised in Communist publications and highly recommended in those publications. He is a member of the League of American Writers and signed the petition of that organization in September of 1942 calling for the opening of a "Second Front" at that time. b3-4

"Early in October of 1943 FRANK TUTTLE, a motion picture director employed by Paramount Pictures, and FRANCHOT TONE, a screen actor, also employed at the same studio, sent a telegram to HOWARD FAST who was then in New York asking for an option on the book for the purpose of making a picture therefrom.

"FRANK TUTTLE is a known Communist of long standing in Hollywood and one of its most active agents.

CONFIDENTIAL

L.A. # 100-15732

129784

"FRANCHOT TONE has consistently followed the Communist Party line for some eight years or more and is known throughout the industry for such activity.

"In addition to sending a telegram to FAST, TUTTLE made a long distance call to JOHN BRIGHT, a Hollywood screen writer who was then in New York, asking him to see FAST and 'give the novelist a little personal information which would assure the writer that TUTTLE would present the story on the screen as he would like to have it.'

"JOHN BRIGHT is a known Communist and has been most active in Hollywood Communist circles and activities for many years.

[Source A] states that this bid by TUTTLE was accepted by FAST. As part of the bargain, it was agreed that JOHN BRIGHT was to write the screen play. Both FAST and BRIGHT then came to Hollywood and preparations were made for making the picture. HOWARD FAST and JOHN BRIGHT completed the screen story, and press releases in Hollywood stated that it was presented to the British Ministry of Information, which approved the story.

"It was agreed by all concerned that FRANK TUTTLE was to direct the picture and FRANCHOT TONE was to play the character of PAINE. With FAST and JOHN BRIGHT writing the screen story, here was an all-Communist control of the contents of the picture.

"A story of the life of THOMAS PAINE would be ideal for purposes of Communist propaganda, not because PAINE was a Communist, but because he was basically a rebel and as such his life could be easily twisted to conform to the present Communist position. Preparations for making the picture proceeded right up to May 4, 1944. Suddenly a press release made public through a Hollywood columnist, DAVID HANNA (also a follower of the Communist Party line) stated that 'FRANCHOT TONE and director FRANK TUTTLE have abandoned their joint plan to produce a film based on the life of THOMAS PAINE. . . .' It was also stated that 'TUTTLE and TONE were unable to obtain a release for their project because studios feared the PAINE topic might be offensive to England.'

R.M

"The article further states that TUTTLE and TONE were apparently incorrect in this viewpoint because the picture would be made in England 'next year' by GABRIEL PASCAL, British motion picture producer.

[Source A] reports that the opinion has been expressed by several persons connected with the motion picture industry that the reason for abandoning the picture was not as given by the columnist DAVID HANNA but was due to the formation in Hollywood of the MOTION PICTURE ALLIANCE FOR THE PRESERVATION OF AMERICAN IDEALS, an organization which has for its purpose the prevention of communist propaganda in motion pictures. This organization came into existence in February, 1944, and as a consequence there has been much publicity about propaganda pictures and the activities of Communists in the industry. The controversy raised by this Alliance has shaken the industry to such an extent and brought the question of Communist propaganda in motion pictures to public notice that to produce this picture at this time might bring about embarrassing results.

The New York Telegram for February 24, 1944, under the heading, "FRANCHOT TONE Planning to do 'Citizen Tom Paine'" stated, "TONE is full of conversation about his plan to make a movie out of HOWARD FAST'S good novel 'Citizen Tom Paine.' FRANCHOT would play the title role."

It stated that TONE is fully aware of the hazards that might await such a picture and recalled that THEODORE ROOSEVELT once referred to TONE as a "dirty little atheist." TONE further remarked, "We could run into a lot of trouble from other people who misunderstand PAINE and his ideas on religion. Actually, PAINE was a very religious man, wrongly condemned for atheism which he did not feel."

It stated that TONE was more interested for picture purposes in the stirring side of PAINE'S life and his work in the American and French Revolutions. It further stated that FRANK TUTTLE and FRANCHOT TONE have an option on the book and are in the middle of a deal to make the picture.

Source B, on March 26, 1944, informed that JOHN HOWARD LAWSON, a writer, was talking to FRANK TUTTLE about his picture, "Citizen Tom Paine," and asked TUTTLE how the picture was coming along. TUTTLE replied, "It looks pretty bad. We've been turned down by every major Studio and United Artist, but there is a possibility that HOWARD (FAST) in New York has some kind of a deal, in which case our option is up tomorrow, anyway, we are just out of luck." TUTTLE further stated, "HOWARD FAST promised FRANCHOT TONE that he would not close it," and stated, "We can't spend any more money" and then stated, "FRANCHOT and I are out something like $8,000.00 (u)

"NONE BUT THE LONELY HEART"

Source A has reported that "None But the Lonely Heart" is the title of a book written by RICHARD LLEWELLYN, an English novelist. The scene is laid in the slums of London and broadly speaking certain social problems are raised. The picture will soon be completed.

"DAVID HEMPSTEAD is the producer of the picture. HEMPSTEAD has been sympathetic to Communist activities in Hollywood and moves socially with that element.

"CLIFFORD ODETS, a known Communist of many years activity is the director of the picture: ODETS also wrote the screen play from the book.

"ETHEL BARRYMORE is the star of the picture. Miss BARRYMORE is not known to have Communist sympathies, although she has supported and sponsored several Communist front projects.

"CARY GRANT is the male star. He is a follower of the Communist Party line and moves socially in Communist circles.

[Source A] further stated that the following of the cast are known to be either followers of the Communist Party line or sympathetic to the Hollywood Communist activities: U

"GEORGE COULOURIS, refugee fromGreece.

"ROMAN BOHNEN, a Communist who played in"Mission to Moscow."

"KONSTANTIN SHAYNE, who played in "Mission to Moscow."

"JANE WYATT, follower of the Communist Party line.

"MORDECAI GORELIK, art director. Close follower of the Communist Party line.

"As this picture has not yet been released, it is impossible to state whether or not it contains Communist propaganda. However, it is being made subject to Communist influences. The picture is being made by RKO studios.

"THE MASTER RACE"

[Source A] has reported that "The Master Race" is an RKO production about to be made into a picture. U

"ROBERT GOLDEN will be the producer of the picture. Nothing is known of the political activities of Mr. GOLDEN.

CONFIDENTIAL

L.A. # 100-15732

"HERBERT BIBERMAN has been signed to direct the picture. BIBERMAN is one of the most active Communists in the Hollywood section. He is fanatically devoted to the cause. He was a national officer of the American Peace Mobilization and personally picketed the White House right up to the day Hitler invaded Russia. His record as a Communist is outstanding both locally and nationally.

12978

"BIBERMAN, in addition to being signed as the director of the picture, also wrote the original story and the screen play. In preparing the screen play, he had the assistance of ANNE FROELICK and ROWLAND LEIGH. Nothing of consequence as to Communist activity is known of ANNE FROELICK and ROWLAND LEIGH. However, it is significant that this picture has been written and will be directed by one of the most fanatical Communists in the United States.

"The content of the picture will not be known, of course, before the picture is released.

OPEN POLITICAL ACTIVITY

[Source A] has informed that the entire organizational strength of the Communist Party is now being thrown into the coming local and national election campaigns, and the HollywoodCommunists, party line followers, and sympathizers are now engaged in like activity.

"THE HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE"

R.M.

"The Hollywood Democratic Committee, which has no official connection with the Democratic Party, but is the Communist front organization which attempts to speak for the industry politically and also for the Hollywood section generally, is raising the sum of $50,000.00 to be used to elect certain candidates for public office in the coming California primaries to be held on May 16, 1944.

"This Committee, which now claims a membership of over 1000 and a mailing list of 2500 holds meetings at irregular intervals, generally in the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel, Hollywood, California. These meetings deal with political endorsements, programs, and policies. In every instance, proposals made and conclusions arrived at, endorsements made and policy laid down, correspond in all respects to those made by the Communist Party and announced in that party's press.

CONFIDENTIAL

"In addition to the above activity at meetings, this Committee forms groups of its members to go from door to door in Hollywood endeavoring to influence voters toward its political position.

"FRANCHOT TONE, screen actor, follower of the Communist Party line, mentioned heretofore in connection with 'Citizen Tom Paine.'

"FRANK TUTTLE, screen director, Communist of many years.

"LEWIS MILESTONE, director, long a follower of the Communist Party line.

"OLIVIA de HAVILLAND, screen actress, follower of the Communist Party line.

"ROSALIND RUSSELL, screen actress, follower of the Communist Party line.

"JOHN GARFIELD, screen actor, follower of the Communist Party line.

"WALTER HUSTON, actor, follower of the Communist Party line and player of the lead in 'Mission to Moscow.'

"The Hollywood Demcoratic Committee, as stated heretofore, is the organization set up through which persons employed in the motion picture industry, and others outside the industry in the Hollywood area, can act politically. This Committee represents in the main those people who are susceptible to Communist influence. The prominence and prestige of those of this Committee are most valuable to the Communist cause because of their ability to draw people and get a hearing.

RM "HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION"

[Source A] revealed that while the political activity of the members and supporters of this organization is expressed by membership in the Hollywood Democratic Committee or support of the activities of that Committee, nevertheless this Mobilization attempted to hold one political meeting that met with disaster. [Source A] further advised as follows: 29789

"The Continuations Committee of the Writers Congress held at the University of California at Los Angeles on October 1, 2 and 3, 1943, in cooperation with the Hollywood Writers Mobilization, called a meeting for April 21, 1944, 8:15 P.M., at the Women's Club of Hollywood. This meeting was to be open to the public, admission $1.00.

"The purpose of the meeting was to present Dr. GAETANO SALVEMINI, a noted Italian professor who fled from Italy soon after MUSSOLINI came to power to save his life because he had been opposed to the Fascist regime of that country. SALVEMINI is now a citizen of the United States.

"Dr. SALVEMINI was billed as the 'Noted Italian Anti-Fascist' and he was supposed to lecture on the Italian situation and Fascism in general.

"The chairman of the meeting was to be JOHN HOWARD LAWSON, a known Communist and most active in the Hollywood area; a member of the League of American Writers and many other Communist controlled organizations.

VLADIMIR POZNER

[Source A] has informed that VLADIMIR POZNER, a Russian screen writer, a follower of the Communist Party line, a member of the League of American Writers and many other Communist fronts, was to be another speaker at the meeting. The meeting had been well advertised and many tickets had been sold. Several days before the meeting was to take place, Dr. SALVEMINI, over a radio program, in a public forum and to the press, criticized the Communist Party and the actions of the Communists in the Italian situation. In a statement to the press he made the following assertion:

"TOGLIATTI, who is an Italian Communist leader, fell from heaven into Naples the other day and from now on may have a lot to say about things.

"Yes, Communists can fall from heaven these days.... Doesn't everybody know that a Communist is not left or not right, but always a Communist? He receives his orders and obeys them. STALIN is using lots of men with rifles and bayonets, not political ideas these days."

129790

[Source A] advised that much more was said by Dr. SALVEMINI along the same line.

Source stated that when the foregoing statements appeared in the press, the Hollywood Writers Mobilization hastily called off the meeting saying that Dr. SALVEMINI was a disrupter of the war effort, was sabotaging the United Nations, and hinted that he might have ulterior motives. ROBERT ROSSEN, chairman of the Hollywood Writers Mobilization, explained that they had "booked a professor in a poke." Dr. SALVEMINI stated that the meeting was called off because "he was not a fellow-traveler."

Source has further revealed that in addition to political activity of the Hollywood Democratic Committee, this organization is also instituting a series of radio programs to put the present Communist Party line before the public through that channel. The first of these programs will be broadcast over station KNX on May 11, 1944, 10:30 P.M. The producer of the program is SAM MOORE, a radio writer, follower of the Communist Party line, and supporter of the League of American Writers. Those who are to appear on the program as artists are the following:

"OLIVIA de HAVILLAND, actress, follower of the Communist Party line.

"VIRGINIA BRUCE, screen actress, follower of the Communist Party line.

"RITA HAYWORTH, screen actress, wife of ORSON WELLES and close follower of the Communist Party line.

"REX INGRAM, screen actor, also a follower of the Communist Party line.

"MARTHA SCOTT, no definite record.

"ONA MUNSON, no definite record.

[Source A] informed that the Hollywood Democratic Committee, as a further bit of activity, is calling a mass meeting under the auspices of the "Radio Division" of the Committee, to be held on May 10, 1944, in Studio 3, Station KFWB (Warner Brothers Station) at 8:00 P.M. This is billed as a "Radio Mass Meeting." The purpose is stated to be a discussion of political issues by some of the "industry's outstanding artists." The speakers will be:

BEST COPY AVAILABLE

"HELEN GAHAGAN (DOUGLAS), national democratic committeewoman who is now receiving the unqualified support of all Communist forces in her campaign for Congress in the 14th Congressional District. 29791

"JOHN B. HUGHES, radio announcer, a close follower of the Communist Party line.

"E. Y. HARBURG, motion picture producer, and one of the most active party-line followers in the motion picture industry.

"ALBERT DEKKER, member Executive Board of the Hollywood Democratic Committee, candidate for the California Assembly at the coming primary election, and long a follower of the Communist Party line and supporter and sponsor of many fronts.

[Source A] informed that paralleling all the foregoing political activity of the Communist Party in the Hollywood area, there has now appeared a publication called the "Hollywood Press-Times," a weekly publication.

"HOLLYWOOD PRESS-TIMES"

RM.

"This paper is what is called a 'throw-away,' that is a paper given free to all business houses and residences in the section. Presumably it depends on advertising for income. It consists of sixteen pages in tabloid form, approximately three pages being devoted to classified and display advertising, and the balance being devoted to propaganda in the form of news items and editorials. The entire content of the publication follows the Communist Party line in every detail. In fact, this publication is so close to the Communist Party that in the issue dated May 5, 1944, the editorials were written by:

"HARRISON GEORGE, the editor of the official Communist organ on the West Coast, the 'People's World,' published in San Francisco, and

"JOHN PITTMAN, managing editor of the same publication.

CONFIDENTIAL

L.A. # 100-15732

"While this publication is presumed to be just an impartial newspaper, in fact it is tied in with the Hollywood Democratic Committee and all other Communist controlled groups in the Hollywood motion picture industry.

129792

"Summarizing the foregoing political activity in the Hollywood area, it can be stated that it is all tied in with the motion picture industry because of the fact that personages in that industry, in responsible positions, take the lead in carrying on the work, thus identifying that industry with the activities of the Communist Party.

ACTIVITY IN LABOR UNIONS

[Source A] further informed that all Communist activity in the Hollywood Labor Unions is now devoted to the coming elections. It follows the same pattern as stated above as to the Hollywood Democratic Committee with which organization it is coordinated. This source stated as follows:

"The Communist Party line now calls for the temporary cessation of strict union activity, such as demanding higher wages, organizing on a large scale, etc., and in place of such activity the devoting of all energies to the election of persons to public office who are favorable to the Communist program, and the Hollywood Communists in the labor unions act accordingly.

"The Motion Picture Labor Committee for Political Action now works in conjunction with the United AFL Political Action which takes in all sections of the Southern California area. The endorsements of the Motion Picture Labor Committee are identical with those of the Hollywood Democratic Committee, and the former directs its member unions to support all such endorsements and political measures.

Hence, [Source A] states that it is found that the political activities of the Communist-controlled Hollywood labor unions are channeled through the Hollywood Democratic Committee and the reports on that Committee reflect the parallel activity of those labor unions. The activities of the individual Communists in those unions consist in working from door to door, through friends and acquaintances and anyone who can be reached, to influence them in the coming primary election to be held on May 16, 1944.

FRONT AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS IN HOLLYWOOD

To all such Communist activities as are mentioned herein, [Source A] states that an opposition is developing. This opposition has taken the form of an organization called the MOTION PICTURE ALLIANCE FOR THE PRESERVATION OF AMERICAN IDEALS. Those persons who originally formed the organization on February 1944, are prominent writers, directors, actors, etc., who are becoming alarmed at the tremendous progress being made by Communists in the industry in their attempts to influence and control the making of motion pictures. Supporting the organization is a group of Hollywood labor leaders who likewise are very much opposed to Communist encroachment within the studio labor unions.

[Source A] further states that opposing the Motion Picture Alliance is the entire Communist apparatus in the Hollywood area which has lined up all controlled unions, guilds, front organizations, and sympathizers and followers of the Communist Party line. Meetings are being held by this opposition to which are invited every branch of the motion picture industry for the presumed purpose of forcing the dissolution of the Alliance. The Communist elements are raising the question of Fascism, sabotage of the war effort, anti-Semitism, reaction, etc., etc., accusing the Alliance of ulterior motives in its opposition to Communist encroachment.

1. HISTORY OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY IN THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY

According to Confidential Source A, a former member of the National Committee of the Communist Party, the Communist Party began to realize and discuss the importance of a Communist organization in the motion picture industry as early as 1921 and 1922. This was in the early days of the motion picture industry, and the Communists, according to this Source, realized the potential importance of the propaganda which would emanate from the center of the motion picture industry in Hollywood. As a result of this realization, informant advised that as early as 1927 a special representative was sent to Hollywood on an exploration tour to report back the prospects of a strong organization in that center.

According to Source B, the first concrete effort of the Central Committee of the Communist Party to mobilize Hollywood for the Party occurred in early 1936 when VICTOR J. JEROME was sent to Hollywood to direct the activities of the Communist Party in the motion picture industry. After his arrival here, a decision was made that owing to the importance of Hollywood and the prominence of those personages, actors, actresses, writers, directors and others who were drifting over into the Communist Party and the various front organizations, it would be necessary to separate the Hollywood activities of the Party from all connection with District No. 13 of the Communist Party and place it directly under the jurisdiction and supervision of the Central Committee of the Communist Party in New York City. This arrangement, according to this Source, applied only to those units of the Party which were composed of prominent actors, actresses, writers, directors and executives. It did not apply to rank and file Communists who were members of labor unions.

According to Confidential Source C, prior to this time, the Party had been under the jurisdiction of the Los Angeles County Committee, which, in turn, was under the jurisdiction of District No. 13, Communist Party, USA.

According to Source B, the decision to separate the Hollywood activities from all connections with District No. 13 was carried out, and from that time on, the Hollywood cultural faction was completely independent and had no official connection with the local management of the Communist Party. To further protect the Hollywood luminaries, directives were issued that all Party membership books were to be destroyed, and all documentary evidence of other kinds was also to be destroyed. Furthermore, the cultural units were made "closed units"; that is, one which retains the same membership continually, taking in no new members, in order to prevent any leaks. V. J. JEROME returned to New York in 1938 after organizing the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League and seeing the Communist Party in the motion picture industry well organized.

JOHN HOWARD LAWSON, whose original family name was LEVY, a playwright, and HERBERT BIBERMAN, a motion picture director, then grew into leading figures of the motion picture industry Communists. LAWSON, according to an informant of the Anti-Subversive Detail, Los Angeles Sheriff's Office, was sent to Los Angeles about 1937 by the Communist Party Central Committee. It is possible that LAWSON took over the reins left vacant by the departure of JEROME in 1938, for it has been reliably reported that LAWSON and BIBERMAN were the appointed leaders of the Communists in the motion picture industry in 1941. In early 1942, directives and other records of the Communist Party furnished the Los Angeles Office by Confidential Source D reflected the existence of a Section known only as "Northwest". Subsequent investigation disclosed that this Section was composed almost exclusively of movie industry personnel. The activities of this Section have further indicated that it is again under the jurisdiction of Los Angeles County and District No. 13. Transfers, membership and organizational questions appear to be handled through the County officials of the Party, and the Northwest Section functionaries are regular attendants at County functionary and other official meetings of the Los Angeles County organization. To date it has not been definitely ascertained whether the dues collected by the Northwest Section are handled through the County or directly through New York. However, it is noted that the Section Dues and Financial Secretary, one NAOMI ROBISON, was a regularly elected delegate to the Los Angeles County Convention held October 30,31, 1943 at Los Angeles, thus indicating a direct tie-up between Northwest Section and the Los Angeles County Communist Party. (U)

2. ORGANIZATION OF THE NORTHWEST SECTION

In line with national directives of the Party, the Northwest Section as of June, 1943 had a reorganization in an effort to form along community lines instead of along industrial lines, as it had been previously formed. Despite instructions that all industrial branches were to be dissolved, the Northwest Section failed to dissolve all of its industrial branches, and as a result its membership, with the exception of one branch, is almost exclusively movie industry personnel and radio personnel. Certain branches, such as the Writers' Branch (known as Branch A), The Screen Office Employees' Guild Branch (known (U) as Branch N), the Actors' Branch (known as Branch F), and the Radio Branch, (known as Branch D) have remained entirely industrial branches, but are being called "Concentration Branches"; apparently in an attempt to circumvent the instructions of the National Committee to do away with industrial branches. The so-called "Community Branches" in this Section are generally speaking made up of housewives whose husbands have some capacity with the motion picture industry; and others in the motion picture industry who are not connected with one of the Concentration Branches. The following is a current list of the present Branches of the Northwest Section, together with a short description of the composition of each, as furnished by Source E (W) (W

129737

57 A. D. CLUB

This club is a recent addition to the Northwest Section. It is not composed of motion picture industry personnel, but is a Community Club formerly connected with the Mid-Town Section. It became a part of the Northwest Section over the protest of the Northwest Section people at the insistence of the County, because its members are geographically within the Hollywood area. It has been reported that this Branch will do the "open" work for the Northwest Section.

BRANCH Y :

This Branch, information concerning which was furnished by Source F, appears to be merely a "paper" branch, and its members are those people formerly active in the Northwest Section who are out of the city or who, though still members of this Section, are not currently active. According to Source F, it has no officers and had no delegates at the County Convention.

According to Source G, this Section, as in all Sections of the party in Los Angeles, is headed by the Section Executive Committee, which as of July, 1943, was composed of the following people:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| JOHN HOWARD LAWSON | MARGARET BENNETT WILLS | |
| ELIZABETH LEACH | MISCHA ALTMAN | |
| WALDO SALT | LOUIS HARRIS | M. W. (BILL) POMERANCE |

MADELEINE RUTHVEN and JOHN WEBER as of that date were on leave from this Committee, WEBER being in the United States Armed Forces and RUTHVEN being an employee of the Office of War Information in Hollywood (which job she resigned July 23, 1943). JOHN HOWARD LAWSON appears to be the Chairman of the Section Executive Committee. Source D has advised that he pays the salary of the Section Membership Director and has been in attendance at meetings of the County Executive Committee of the Los Angeles County Communist Party. Section Officers of the Northwest Section are as follows, according to the Source designated:

3. COMPOSITION OF THE NORTHWEST SECTION

According to Source H, (u) the Northwest Section as of December 31, 1943 had ~~a total~~ of 545 members. It is noted that the total Party membership of the County as of that date was 2634. The party reportedly has eleven Sections, and the above figures indicate that the Northwest Section has practically one-fifth of the total membership. It is the largest Section in Los Angeles County.

The figures from a Summary Control Sheet of 1943, Communist Party Registration of the Northwest Section as of November 21, 1943, reflects that membership on the rolls as of that date was 443 (apparently excluding the membership of the 57 A.D. Club.). Registered members as of that date were 319. The following statistics procured by Source H (u) from the Summary Control Sheet of the 319 members registered as of that date indicates a fairly good picture of the Composition of the Northwest Section. It is as follows:

It is noted that the blank left for writers is not filled in. However, from the records of Source F, the writers Branch is composed of approximately seventy members. (w)

A glance at the above chart on Composition reflects that this Section is composed chiefly of professional workers---white collar and cultural people.

Source D furnished the following information concerning the composition of the 57 A.D. Club as of November 21, 1943. It is noted that it includes only 89 of the total of 108 members of this branch. It is being set out separately, since this is the only branch in the Section which is based on geographical location exclusively and its membership (with few exceptions) is not connected with the motion picture industry. 4. ACTIVITIES OF NORTHWEST SECTION

The program of the Northwest Section, in accordance with that of the Communist Party, USA, has been essentially a so-called "Win the War" program. In a Bulletin entitled: "The Motion Picture Industry and the War" a discussion of the objectives of the Party in the motion picture industry is set out. These objectives, which are set out as the main tasks of the Party are:

1. Speeding the development of Management and Labor Production Committees.

2. Basic and intensive education among all groups within the industry on the fundamental questions developed in this Bulletin. (i.e. on labor-management cooperation, responsibilities of Unions and Guilds, propaganda role of motion pictures, and control of the content of motion pictures.)

3. Stimulating the expression from the motion picture public of their desires and needs through the Peoples World, The Worker and the union press. Special attention should be paid to planning the contribution of your Branch to the special motion picture issue of the Peoples World, mastery of the problems of production both creative and technical through the organized work of the unions and Guilds and through our own independent work wherever possible. Concerning the propaganda role of motion pictures, the bulletin has the following to say: "All we can expect of pictures is that they reflect accurately the changes in American life and thinking dictated by war necessity and pave the way for future changes which will be brought about by the war."

CONFIDENTIAL

Another paragraph stated: "Just as we do not ask for radical changes in the form of the industry itself, we should not look for radical changes in the familiar forms and patterns of the motion pictures" . . . . We must avoid the extremist tendencies which say that only documentaries are of value today, that all accepted forms must be discarded and new forms found to reflect American life. We are achieving an all-out war economy through existing social forms and relationships, modified and adjusted to meet the demands of the war. Through reflecting these changes and explaining them, motion pictures can speed the process."

On the subject " Who Will Control the Content of Motion Pictures", the bulletin states: "The HAYS Office is at present playing an extremely reactionary role in relation to content of motion pictures, and the mere substitution of WENDELL WILKIE for WILL HAYS will not change this." It explains that the producers at present have control of the content of pictures, and that of various proposals made to change this set-up "the dangerous element" is "that they stimulate fear and suspicion on the part of producers towards both the Government and the workers in the industry, thus tending to drive the producers into the defeatist camp, which the Party does not want." However, the Bulletin states that it is the duty of the Comrades to see that the producers are influenced and shown that the present war is a "people's war for survival", and those producers who are in the defeatist camp already should be exposed and isolated, and a correct constructive approach to the majority of producers who are behind the war effort as Americans. Concerning the role of the Government in motion pictures, the bulletin states that the Government should play a very important advisory role in acquainting the motion picture industry with the needs of the war and assist industry to plan its yearly production schedules. "This, however, is very distinct from Government Censorship", according to the bulletin.

The bulletin decries the fact that 32 separate Government agencies are producing motion pictures which should be returned to the studios in order to relieve the serious drain on man power, raw materials and equipment. This bulletin, furnished by Source F (Ku) was for use in the Branches of the Northwest Section. The Northwest Section has been a tremendous influence in the motion picture industry through its control of the unions and guilds.

CONFIDENTIAL

The records of Confidential Source F reflected that the Screen Writers' Guild, the Screen Office Employees Guild and the Technicians Local No. 683 have Communists in key positions in these unions. The same is true of the Screen Readers Guild and the Radio Writers Guild and many others. By control of the key people in these unions and a number of the rank and file in the union, the Party has maintained a tremendous influence on the whole motion picture industry, according to Source B. Throughout the existence of the Party organization, it has not had influence as such. Rather, it speaks through the various unions.

Another mouthpiece of the Party has been the various front organizations in Hollywood organized and controlled by the Party through its nucleus of Party members, such as the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, the American Peace Mobilization, Russian War Relief, and currently the Hollywood Democratic Committee, The various Writers Congresses of the League of American Writers, the latest of which was held October 1, 2 and 3, 1943 in Los Angeles, the Hollywood Writers Mobilization and the forthcoming Musicians Congress all have attracted the so-called liberal elements and have served the Communist Party well in lending "window dressing" and prestige to the Communist Party doctrines, which the organizations back. Under the new reorganization of the Northwest Section which became effective about June 1, 1943, the Hollywood Branch and the 57 A. D. Club were supposed to become the spokesmen for the Party in the Hollywood area. However, there has been little evidence that these people have actually come forth openly as Communists as was the plan. Certainly the other branches of the Northwest Section remain as cloistered as ever, holding meetings in private homes, using Party names generally and concealing their Party membership as they have in the past.

Through surveillances it has been ascertained that the following homes are frequently used as meeting places by the various branches:

The Lincoln Book Shop, 1851 N. Highland Avenue, Hollywood, located near the center of the Hollywood Shopping District is the book store operated by the Party in the Hollywood area. It was opened approximately three or four months ago and is operated by JACK REED, Northwest Section Party member, assisted by RUTH NEISI, Prior to its opening, members of the Party frequented the LARRY EDMUNDS book shop, 1603 N. Cahuenga Boulevard, which is run by JANET LUBOVISKI and JACOBINA CARO MELTZER, both members of the Northwest Section, but who operate the book store reportedly on their own for profit. It was reportedly their unwillingness to give up their source of income that caused the Party to open the Lincoln Book Shop.

REFER 5 IS

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to the report of Special Agent PATRICK D. HORGAN, Los Angeles, May 20, 1944, in the captioned matter, at page 48, following wherein it is noted that MIKHAIL KALATOZOV, Soviet motion picture representative on the West Coast was instrumental in promoting the Charlie Chaplin Festival in Moscow recently.

It is particularly noted that although KALATOZOV has approached Hollywood motion picture people with the idea that there should be a cultural exchange between Russia and the United States, and that we should obtain films from Russia to be shown here, in return for which Soviet Russia should obtain our films for exhibition in Russia, nevertheless among the few pictures which KALATOZOV has selected to be shown in Russia are "The Little Foxes" and "The Earl of Chicago". The first of these pictures exhibits a degenerate Southern family and the latter is the story of a Chicago gangster in England. It is particularly unusual that KALATOZOV should have selected the "Earl of Chicago", since this picture was not particularly successful in this country and is several years old.

It may well be part of KALATOZOV's plan or propaganda technique to obtain such pictures in order to exhibit American life at its worst to the Soviet people, much in the manner that ADOLPH HITLER through his propaganda ministry tried to convince the German people for several years before the war that the United States was nothing more than a nation of Chicago gangsters.

Communist propaganda, at the present time conforms to the CP line as laid down by EARL BROWDER on January 9, 1944, when he announced that the Communists in the U.S. would cease all attempts to change the existing social order and would support democratic capitalism to defeat Fascism. The Hollywood Writers Mobilization has contracted with the Office of War Information Overseas Film Bureau to produce all documentary films for overseas distribution. The HWM is a Communist-dominated group and is a paper-stooge for the League of American Writers, which is Communist-dominated. The leaders of this new movement, JOHN HOWARD LAWSON, ROBERT ROSSEN, JOHN F. COHEE, HOWARD ESTABROOK, and PHILIP DUNNE are known to be Communists, and the others who are to execute the work are sympathizers and are closely affiliated with the Communist Party. The Political Action Committee and the Hollywood Democratic Committee were successful in nominating candidates for office at the May 16, 1944, primary who favor the cause of Communism. The labor unions and guilds and the People's Educational Center have joined forces to elect officers favorable to their cause. The Motion Picture Alliance for the Preservation of American Ideals in the motion picture industry has been active, but their opponents, who are powerful factors in Communism, have united to bring about its liquidation.

DETAILS:

AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA:

The Communist activities in the Los Angeles area and especially in the Motion Picture Industry are very largely confined to propaganda in motion pictures favorable to the Communist cause; political action to bring about the defeat of candidates for office, national, state, and local, who are opposed to the Communist program, and aid in every way those candidates who favor the Communist program. The Communists have succeeded to a very great extent in controlling and directing labor's role in the primary election, and strong effort is being made to consolidate all labor organizations with the object of presenting a united front and consolidate the activities of all Communist Front organizations to work for the common purpose of consolidating and extending the influence of Communism.

PROPAGANDA IN MOTION PICTURES

Source A, a former Communist Party member, has advised that all Communist propaganda now conforms to the change in the Communist Party line laid down by EARL BROWDER on January 9, 1944, when he announced that hereafter the Communists in the United States would cease all attempts to change the existing social order and instead would support private enterprise and democratic capitalism because of the necessity of defeating fascism. The Communists in Hollywood have already adjusted their activities within the motion picture industry to this new line. This change has already been noted in all publications where Communist influence exists and in public meetings of Communist-dominated organizations.

Source stated that this does not mean that the motion picture will be free of Communist propaganda. In fact, wherever Communist influence can be exerted, this form of propaganda will be intensified; but it will be of a different nature and not easily detected. In the main, it will be a subtle glorification of the virtues of the Soviet Union and the ways of its people, the placing of emphasis on the part the Soviet Union is playing in the war and particularly emphasizing the successful results of collectivism, at the same time damning democracy by faint praise. In short, it will follow the pattern of the picture, "Mission to Moscow," but in a much more subtle manner.

Since the report dated May 13, 1944, there have been no pictures released which would come under the above formula. The picture "None But The Lonely Heart" has now been completed. The date of release has not been announced. "The Master Race" is now before the camera.

Source A advises that the motion picture industry has been made sensitive to Communist propaganda in pictures by the formation of the MOTION PICTURE ALLIANCE FOR THE PRESERVATION OF AMERICAN IDEALS. This organization, which exists for the purpose of combatting Communist and all subversive propaganda in motion pictures, will undoubtedly cause the producers of pictures to be more careful than they have been in the past in this respect, and this applies to those pictures which will be shown to the public generally.

However, there is another type of picture being made by the Hollywood motion picture industry, the "documentary" picture, which is not shown to the American public. This type of picture is made for the Armed Forces abroad and the liberated countries. The spoken commentary is translated into 23 different languages. This type is sometimes referred to as "post-liberation" pictures, as now made in Hollywood.

Source A advises that the documentary type of picture is always made for propaganda purposes only, whether it be political or economic in content. These pictures are not made in Hollywood exclusively; some are made in New York. All are made under supervision, or in connection with, the Office of War Information (OWI), andCommunist penetration into this field of picture production is now very pronounced.

On June 9, 1944, the "People's World," Communist newspaper published at San Francisco, and the "Labor Herald," official organ of the CIO, carried official announcements to the effect that negotiations have been completed wherein ROBERT RISKIN, chief of the OWI Overseas Film Bureau, has completed the arrangements whereby "The Hollywood Writers Mobilization, composed of AFL, CIO, and independent unions of writers and creative artists, associated to do the jobs that victory demands." A committee of the Hollywood Writers Mobilization has been given the responsibility for writing and producing all documentary films for overseas distribution.

The articles listed the personnel which will perform this service. These articles stated that the films called for include a "Projection of America" series and a group of invasion films slanted for showing in what is now "Naziland and the Axis satellite nations"; that "the spoken commentary of these films will be done in twenty-three different languages . . . . Already twelve subjects are being prepared in Hollywood for the 'Projection of America' series. The invasion . . . . or post-liberation films will be decided on later by the Mobilization." They stated that the Hollywood contracts with the Mobilization are being handled by SIDNEY HARMON, representing the documentary film branch of OWI. The Production Chief at the New York end is screenwriter PHILIP DUNNE, working under ROBERT RISKIN. DUNNE will confer shortly with ROBERT ROSSEN, chairman of the Mobilization, and make final arrangements for the year's program.

It was stated that "organizations cooperating in the Mobilization include the following independent guilds: Screenwriters; Radio Writers; Songwriters; Protective; and Independent Publicists; also several unions affiliated with the AFL, including the Screen Cartoonists, Screen Story Analysts, and Screen Publicists, and the CIO Newspaper Guild, Los Angeles Local #69. Most of the overseas documentaries will be made in Hollywood, the remainder in the New York office."

The "People's World" named the personnel which has been selected to perform this task. These individuals are being named here, and a short statement of the connections of each is being given. The information was obtained from Source A, except where otherwise indicated.

THE HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION:

Source A states that the Hollywood Writers Mobilization, as has been fully reported heretofore, is a completely Communist-dominated organization and, in effect, is a front for the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS.

ROBERT RISKIN

RISKIN, before being appointed chief of the Overseas Bureau of Films, was a motion picture producer in Hollywood, was a member of the League of American Writers, and a close associate of JOHN HOWARD LAWSON and ROBERT ROSSEN, both of whom are Communist Party functionaries.

JOHN F. COHEE

Source B advised that JOHN F. COHEE is a known Communist and a member of the Tom Paine Branch, Southeast Section, of the Communist Party of Los Angeles County; past president of the Los Angeles Newspaper Guild; and at present radio news commentator and columnist writing "War Analysis" for the Los Angeles Daily News. COHEE is a member of the League of AmericanWriters; the Hollywood Writers Mobilization; the Writers Congress; the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee; and numerous other front organizations. He is one of the foremost Communist propagandists in the Los Angeles area. All of his broadcasts follow the Communist Party line. His wife is also a member of the Communist Party.

L.A. # 100-15732

PROF. FRANKLIN FEARING

Professor of Psychology at University of California at Los Angeles and member of the League of American Writers; teacher in the Writers School. He is a member of the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee and other fronts.

PHILIP DUNNE

DUNNE formerly was a screen writer in Hollywood. He is a member of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, the League of American Writers, and the Motion Picture Democratic Committee. DUNNE broke with the Hollywood Communists in the Motion Picture Democratic Committee when he criticized the actions of Soviet Russia in attacking Finland in December, 1939, whereupon he was denounced in the Communist "People's World" as a "renegade." He is now back in the Communist fold.

ROBERT ROSSEN

ROSSEN is chairman of the Hollywood Writers Mobilization and member of the League of American Writers. He signed the call for the Fourth Congress of the League of American Writers when that organization officially affiliated with the American Peace Mobilization; supported the North American Aviation strike; and denounced the war as being an imperialistic one up until the Soviet Union was attacked by Hitler; teacher in the League of American Writers School and has supported numerous Communist front organizations. He is a member of Group A-2, Branch A, Communist Party of Los Angeles County.

Source A has informed that the Hollywood labor unions cooperating with the Hollywood Writers Mobilization in the production of these documentary films are the following, and source has indicated that each of these guilds or unions is Communist controlled:

SCREEN WRITERS GUILD, an independent union and is Communist controlled.

RADIO WRITERS GUILD, an independent union and is Communist controlled.

INDEPENDENT PUBLICISTS GUILD, an independent union and is Communist controlled.

SCREEN CARTOONISTS GUILD, AFL, and Communist controlled.

SCREEN STORY ANALYSTS GUILD, AFL, and Communist controlled.

SCREEN PUBLICISTS GUILD, AFL, and is Communist controlled.

LOS ANGELES NEWSPAPER GUILD, CIO, and is Communist controlled.

L.A. # 100-15732

"THE PEOPLE'S WORLD"

A Communist publication on the Pacific Coast which also carried the announcement of the foregoing and added the names of the "working committee" of the Hollywood Writers Mobilization. They are the following, and Source A has given a short statement of the activities of each:

JAMES HILTON, member Screen Writers Guild; one of the main speakers at Writers Congress; member Steering Committee of that Congress; supports all activities of the League of American Writers; sponsor American-Russian Society for Medical Aid to Russia; Sponsor Russian War Relief, Inc. and other Communist front organizations.

CHARLES BRACKETT, a writer-producer; member of Screen Writers Guild; League of American Writers; Writers Congress; Hollywood Writers Mobilization; HollywoodDemocratic Committee.

MARC CONNELLY; member of the Screen Writers Guild; League of American Writers; chairman Hollywood Writers Mobilization; Hollywood Democratic Committee; member Steering Committee, HWM; Writers Congress; and many other front organizations.

HOWARD ESTABROOK, member of the Screen Writers Guild and attended the Writers Congress at University of California at Los Angeles in October, 1943. He is a member of the Steering Committee of the Hollywood Writers Mobilization, of the League of American Writers, and of the Continuations Committee of the Writers Congress. He was a sponsor of the American Youth for Democracy.

FRANCES GOODRICH, member of the League of American Writers and attended the Writers Congress, which was held at University of California at Los Angeles in October, 1943.

ALBERT HACKETT, member of the Screen Writers Guild; member of the League of American Writers; and attended the Writers Congress which was held at UCLA in October, 1943.

JOHN HOUSEMAN, member of the League of American Writers. He attended the Writers Congress at UCLA in October, 1943.

TALBOT JENNINGS, member of the Screen Writers Guild and is a member of the League of American Writers; also member of Hollywood Writers Mobilization and is a member of Steering Committee of that organization. He is the secretary of the Screen Writers Guild.

L.A. # 100-15732

HOWARD KOCH, member of the Screen Writers Guild and attended the Writers Congress at the University of California at Los Angeles in October, 1943. He is a member of the League of American Writers and is a teacher in the Writers School, which is a subsidiary of the League of American Writers. He is a member of the Steering Committee of the Hollywood Writers Mobilization. He received credit for having written the picture "Mission to Moscow." He sponsored the reception for MIKHAIL KALATAZOV, Russian film director, and sponsored the celebration in KALATAZOV'S honor, which was held at the Mocambo Cafe August 14, 1943. He is a member of the Continuations Committee of the Writers Congress.

EMMETT LAVERY, member of the Screen Writers Guild and is also a member of the Board of Directors of the Screen Writers Guild. He attended the Writers Congress, which was held at the University of California at Los Angeles in October, 1943.

JOHN HOWARD LAWSON, member of the Screen Writers Guild, of the American Peace Mobilization, and of the League of American Writers. He is aCommunist with a long record and is at present the leader of the Communist cultural field in the Hollywood Motion Picture Industry. He is a functionary of the Communist Party in Hollywood. He is at the present time a member of Group A-3, Branch A, Communist Party of Los Angeles County.

MARY McCALL, JR., President, Screen Actors Guild; League of American Writers; Writers School; member of Executive Board, Hollywood Democratic Committee; Writers Congress; Steering Committee, Hollywood Writers Mobilization; and member of Continuations Committee of the Writers Congress. RIVKIN attended a reception given for Dr. MAX YERGAN, President of the National Negro Congress, and PAUL ROBESON, Negro actor and singer, which was given at the home of SHERIDAN GIBNEY, President of the Screen Writers Guild, on March 2, 1943.

ALLAN SCOTT, member of Screen Writers Guild; League of American Writers; Writers School; sub-chairman, Hollywood Writers Mobilization; director of Screen Writers Guild; teacher in Writers School; writer for Communique. SCOTT is a sponsor for the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee and other front organizations.

HARRY TUGEND, member of the Screen Writers Guild; sponsor Russian War Relief, Inc. He is a writer-producer at Paramount at the present time. His wife is a member of the Executive Board of the Hollywood Democratic Committee.

Source A has stated that it is interesting to note that the above information was published in the "People's World" and the "CIO Labor Herald," both of which are completely under the control of the Communist Party. None of the regular daily papers carried the above, at least not to this date.

OPEN POLITICAL ACTIVITY

Source A has related that the strength of the Communist political apparatus in the Hollywood area was clearly demonstrated at the California primary election held on May 16, 1944.

As the present line of the Communist Party (now called Communist Political Association) calls for intensive activity by all its followers within the Democratic Party to elect to office those candidates who are not averse to the increasing influence of Communists in the political field and who have followed the deviating line of that Party for years, the reaction of the Hollywood Communists to this command was most marked. The main objective locally was the defeat of JOHN M. COSTELLO, Congressman from the 15th Congressional District. Mr. COSTELLO was a member of the Dies Committee and for this reason the greatest concentration was upon his candidacy. The Hollywood Democratic Committee was the spearhead of the attack. That Committee being composed of persons connected with the motion picture industry, it was possible to use the prestige of the industry for its purposes and in addition secure financial backing not otherwise available.

Source A advised the Hollywood Democratic Committee announced publicly that it had raised the sum of $50,000 to be used in this local campaign. The efforts of this Committee were coordinated with all other Communist-controlled organizations directly and indirectly connected with the motion picture industry. The Committee being composed for the most part of producers, writers, directors, actors, and labor representatives in the industry, it was able to furnish, in addition to funds, propaganda material and secure the services of such prominent personages as it could attract which could not be reached otherwise. Although the main attack in the immediate Hollywood sector was upon Mr. COSTELLO, the Communist forces supported the following candidates in adjacent districts, and in this were generally successful:

HELEN GAHAGAN DOUGLAS (wife of actor MELVIN DOUGLAS) in the 14th Congressional District. She secured the Democratic nomination, although she is not a legal resident of that Congressional District.

NED HEALY, Democratic candidate in the 13th Congressional District who secured the nomination.

ELLIS E. PATTERSON, Democratic candidate in the 16th Congressional District, who secured the nomination.

Source A states that all three of the foregoing had the unqualified support of the Communist Party and have had for many years in the past. All three sought the support of the Communist Party and freely and openly fraternized with that element.

In the 15th Congressional District the opponent of Mr. COSTELLO for the Democratic nomination was HAL STYLES, a radio commentator who had never previously taken an interest in the political situation. He was unknown as a public figure except through his radio program. He, too, appeared at known Communist meetings and for the purposes of his election, at least, he followed the line of the Communist Party in all its phases, foreign and domestic.

For the State Assembly, the HollywoodCommunists succeeded in securing the Democratic nomination for two members of its Executive Board. They are as follows:

ALBERT DEKKAR, an actor and a member of the Screen Actors Guild; a member of the Hollywood Democratic Committee and other fronts.

LUCILLE GLEASON, an actress and a member of the Screen Actors Guild and active in the Hollywood Democratic Committee.

Source A informed that the organizations which played a prominent part in the campaign, all of them Communist-dominated, were:

MOTION PICTURE LABOR COMMITTEE FOR POLITICAL ACTION - This organization is composed of various AF of L, labor unions in the motion picture industry. While all of them are not Communist controlled, the majority are. This political action committee is patterned after the CIO Political Action Committee, and in this section cooperated with the latter organization for the same ends.

L.A. # 100-15732

HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION, a Communist-controlled group.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS (Hollywood chapter). This league is rapidly succumbing to Communist influence.

HOLLYWOOD WOMEN'S COUNCIL, a recognized Communist front.

The foregoing Communist-dominated activities do not cease with the primary election but will continue on as a permanent effort, as the Hollywood Democratic Committee has announced, a "more intensive effort."

The "Hollywood Citizen-News," a local daily paper of high standing, on May 18, 1944, two days after the election, stated:

> "Congressman COSTELLO was defeated because he would not accept the dictation of Hollywood Communists . . . . Of course, the people who voted against him, with few exceptions, did not realize that they were aiding the Communists cause or accepting the Communist propaganda . . . . He was defeated with a campaign of misrepresentation that makes one wonder if the upholding of the highest standards of public service is a worthy activity. He was defeated with such falsehoods as: that he was opposed to Roosevelt; that he was anti-Semitic; that the Japanese were putting money into his campaign."

ACTIVITY IN HOLLYWOOD LABOR UNIONS

Source A states that activity in this field and particularly in those unions which come under Communist influence has been devoted entirely to political action for the last thirty days. Cooperation with other Hollywood Communist front organizations has been mentioned heretofore.

The CONFERENCE OF STUDIO UNIONS, a block of Communist-controlled trade unions in the industry, has now consolidated ten unions under its direction. All of these unions are affiliated with the AF of L. However, this Conference of Studio Unions cooperates in political activity with all independent unions which are under the same Communist influence, notably the Screen Writers Guild and Screen Directors Guild.

In addition to taking part in political activities, that section of the Hollywood labor union movement under Communist influence is now engaged in an intensive campaign to force the dissolution of another organization set up to oppose Communist infiltration, the MOTION PICTURE ALLIANCE FOR THE PRESERVATION OF AMERICAN IDEALS, mentioned above.

PEOPLE'S EDUCATIONAL CENTER (Hollywood Branch)

Source A states that to conform to the general tactics of the Communist Party, which has now changed its name to the Communist Political Association, and better to conceal its real activities, the People's Educational Center was formed. It is not particularly new, but can be said to be a broadening of the old style Communist Workers' Schools in order to reach the intellectuals, professional workers, small business men, and others.

According to Source A, the Hollywood branch of this organization uses the bait of holding before its pupils and students the possibility of securing positions of employment within the motion picture industry. In some cases they succeed. The main purpose of this "educational center", however, is the indoctrination of young persons with Communist ideology and practices. For the purpose, they have secured the services of certain well-known persons connected with the motion picture industry who are known Communists or followers of the Communist Party line. For the reason that this so-called "school" utilizes the prestige of the motion picture industry, it is highly successful in securing attendance, particularly in the Hollywood section.

HOLLYWOOD PRESS-TIMES

Source A has informed that this newspaper, a weekly throw-away, is strictly a Communist-controlled propaganda publication which reaches into every home and business establishment in the Hollywood area. Plans are now being laid to make this paper a daily publication devoted to the Communist cause. Details of the financial arrangement are not yet available. If this should be done, this publication will be to Hollywood what the Daily Worker is to the Eastern seaboard.

MOTION PICTURE ALLIANCE FOR THE PRESERVATION OF AMERICAN IDEALS

Source A has advised that an organization called the Motion Picture Alliance For the Preservation of American Ideals, organized on February 4, 1944, has created quite a disturbance in the Hollywood section. Set up for the purpose of combatting Communist activities, it has become subject to a most intensive attack by all organizations of Communist coloring and even by the motion picture producers themselves. The possibility of this alliance exposing the serious infiltration of Communists into the industry, should it continue its activity, has caused some producers to demand its dissolution.

L.A. # 100-15732

Source A stated the Communist elements have become highly wrought up over this situation and in order to combat it have planned an industry-wide demonstration in the form of a mass meeting to be held on June 25, 1944, at the Hollywood American Legion Stadium for the purpose of putting the Alliance out of existence. The Communist elements claim they have thirty-eight organizations, unions, both independent and AFL, managers associations, and front organizations which will take part in this demonstration.

VIRGINIA WRIGHT, in her column in the Los Angeles Daily News for June 6, 1944, sums up the Motion Picture Alliance situation in the following manner:

> "The Hollywood producers must be groggy from the blows of the Motion Picture Alliance. That's about the only way to explain their lack of action against an organization which aimed some smelly red herrings at the Screen Writers Guild and hit the producers square in the face. DAVID SELZNICK was quick to repudiate the Motion Picture Alliance's slurs against the industry, but the Producers Association as a unit still seems strangely indifferent to the Screen Writers' call to arms, which was answered immediately by 38 other motion picture unions and guilds.
> "Accordingly, the Motion Picture Alliance spokesmen stated that the film industry is being perverted by the infiltration of Communist propaganda. They cite no examples and name no names, but the dastardly villains in the case, they say, are the Motion Picture Writers.
>
> ". . . . This not only maligns the writers but is an indirect attack on the producers for the reason that the responsibility for every word of dialogue, every inference, and every bit of action in a motion picture rests on the individual producer and finally on the executive head of the studio.
> "The chronic complaint of all screen writers is their lack of control over their work. Legally, they are not even the authors of their scripts. The producer buys that right from the writer. . . . . The writer can get nothing on the screen which does not meet with the approval of the front office. . . . The expressions of the writers are limited by the policies of the studios, and writers don't make the policies. Even in the few cases of writer-producer, the last word on every script still comes from the executive head of the studio.

"So what the Motion Picture Alliance actually says is that Communist propaganda is coming from the men who run the Studios--Zanuck, the Warners, Goldwyn, Mayer, Cohn, de Sylva, Koerner, and the rest. Mrs. LELA ROGERS, a member of the Alliance, speaking before the Americanism Defense League, said: 'The men who head the motion picture industry are politically and socially blind.' Because of their blindness 'it has been possible for the Communist propagandists to insert their subtle form of propaganda into motion pictures.'

"At a secret meeting of the Screen Writers Guild, FRANCIS WALLACE, speaking for the Motion Picture Alliance, said he felt the leadership of the motion picture industry today is in the hands of un-American, socialist-minded interests, but he refused to go into detail, and JAMES K. McGUINNESS, head of the Motion Picture Alliance Executive Committee, declined the repeated invitation of ROBERT ROSSEN, Chairman of the Hollywood Writers Mobilization, to discuss the offending pictures by names.

". . . . Whatever the Motion Picture Alliance's reason for silence as to particulars, the Screen Writers Guild is determined to face the issue. The patriotism of the writers has been attacked, and they intend to fight. Thirty-eight organizations volunteered immediately to fight with them. Whether the producers take their logical positions at the head of this line and defend the patriotism of the industry and its great service to our nation at war, or whether they retreat, intimidated by this attempted Hollywood 'putch', the nation is going to see a militant repudiation of the attacks made by the Motion Picture Alliance.

"The first industry-wide mass meeting in the history of Hollywood has been called for Sunday, June 25th, at the American Legion Stadium in Hollywood. Representatives of the Screen Writers Guild and the thirty-eight supporting guilds and unions voted to call this meeting to preserve the basic unity of the industry, to protect its good name against campaigns of abuse, and to demonstrate to the nation that the hysterical voice of the Motion Picture Alliance is not representative of patriotic Hollywood, which has a unique record in industry for placing its facilities and talents at the disposal of the war effort, without profit."

It was announced by the Conference Committee. SAM WALLACH, Committee Chairman, hailed Warner Brothers "for their pioneering work over a period of years in educating people in an understanding of the nature of the struggle against Fascism. Years back, they produced 'Juarez' and 'Blockade' and more recently the stirring anti-Fascist 'Watch on the Rhine.' Further, they have helped promote an understanding of an important Ally in 'Mission to Moscow' and have educated the public to a realization of the tremendous war service of the Maritime Service and the Maritime Union in 'Action in the North Atlantic.'"

The award also is in recognition of the establishment of an Education Department by Warner Brothers which will work closely with the schools in making full use of the educational possibilities of the movies directly in the class rooms.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR:

Re: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION IN THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY

There are set out below some current aspects of Communist activity in the motion picture industry:

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED DATE 3-30-90 BY SP18 BJ/Gm

HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE

The Communists and sympathizers in the motion picture industry formed the Hollywood Democratic Committee early in 1943 for the purpose of engaging in political action. It was composed of executives, producers, writers, actors, and A.F. of L. trade unionists, and it is confidentially and reliably reported that they made available $34,000 to the joint AFL-CIO Political Action Committee, which was used in the primary elections held here May 16 last, resulting in the defeat of Congressman JOHN M. COSTELLO, a member of the Dies Committee. HAL STYLES, former radio announcer, was nominated in his place. They also nominated Lieutenant Governor ELLIS E. PATTERSON, who has been a consistent follower of the Party line, as well as HELEN GAHAGAN DOUGLAS, actress and wife of MELVIN DOUGLAS. They were also responsible for nominating NED HEALY for Congress.

Early in October, 1943, SYDNEY HILLMAN, national head of the Political Action Committee program, came to Los Angeles and formed a Pacific Coast Division of the CIO Political Action Committee and installed GEORGE B. ROBERTS as district director. ROBERTS is a member of the Communist Party, according to records of this office. Other members of the committee here were: OSCAR FUSS, PHILIP M. CONNELLY, JAMES G. THIMMES, and WALTER POLLARD. FUSS and CONNELLY are both known to be Communists.

The A.F.L. United Political Action Committee, composed of all AFL unions in Los Angeles County, including the motion picture AFL unions, was set up by certain union leaders in the motion picture industry, prominent among whom were RAY LEHENNY and LEW PARRISH, of the Teamsters' Union, and GEORGE PEPPER and GEORGE CAMPBELL, of the Musicians' Union. GEORGE PEPPER is a known member of the Communist Party. While this committee was not Communist dominated, it was strong in its fight for labor's rights.

The Motion Picture Labor Committee for Political Action was set up by leaders of certain Communist-dominated AFL trade unions of the motion picture industry. The leaders were: HERBERT K. SORRELL, NORVAL D. CRUTCHER, TED ELLSWORTH, WILLIAM POMERANCE, and EDWARD RUSSA, all of whom are known members of the Communist Party. There were several other representatives of the unions who were not affiliated with the Party. In September, 1943, a vote was taken to affiliate this group with the AFL United Political Action Committee and form the joint AFL-CIO Political Action Committee. It was through this joint organization that the groups hoped to work for a common end, which was the election of candidates favorable to the labor program, which at the present time is part of the Communist Party line in this area. There are no CIO unions in the motion picture industry, and the CIO Political Action Committee could not function there, but it endeavored to utilize the Hollywood Democratic Committee, which was under the control of the Communist Party, to accomplish the desired ends.

At a meeting of the United AFL Political Action Committee about May 6 last, E. Y. HARBURG, a motion picture producer and member of the executive board of the Hollywood Democratic Committee, appeared and proposed that the Hollywood Democratic Committee would turn over $50,000 to this United AFL Political Action Committee, which sum had been raised to defeat Congressman COSTELLO and other objectionable candidates, if the United AFL Political Action Committee would permit several delegates from the Hollywood Democratic Committee to become a part of its executive board. In return, the Hollywood Democratic Committee would permit several delegates of the United A.F. of L. Political Action Committee to sit on its executive board. Due to the violent objection of RAY LEHENNY, the offer was not accepted, although GEORGE CAMPBELL and other members of the joint AFL Political Action Committee favored the proposition. LEHENNY stated he was aware of the Communist domination of the Hollywood Democratic Committee and for that reason would have nothing to do with the deal, and that feature of the deal fell through and no further cooperation took place between the Hollywood Democratic Committee and the United AFL Political Action Committee, but each carried on a separate political action program prior to the election. There no doubt was secret cooperation, as the political action program ran along smoothly and accomplished the goal which they separately sought to accomplish.

The persons who controlled and directed the Hollywood Democratic Committee were: JOHN HOWARD LAWSON, DALTON TRUMBO, DON KING, FRANK TUTTLE, HERBERT BIBERMAN, NORVAL D. CRUTCHER, GLORIA STUART, and ELIZABETH LEACH, all of whom are Communist Party members. Other individuals who were prominent were not Party members.

On May 17 last, Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted] advised that GEORGE PEPPER and ELIZABETH LEACH, both Communist Party members, were discussing the result of the primary election, and LEACH desired to know what the Republicans were going to do in the 15th District (COSTELLO'S), and remarked, "Well, the thing's over because COSTELLO is out and there is no one the Republicans can put up who can beat HAL STYLES." PEPPER remarked that the show of strength in the last few weeks for the Democratic cause means that now they can "go to some of these guys (Hollywood Democratic Committee) and say, 'This is what you gave us - thirty-four thousand bucks - and this is what we produced.'" LEACH remarked that the national effect of this on the Congress we now have is going to be terrific and, further, it is now the duty of every comrade to move in and take over every one of the Democratic Clubs so as to be in full control of them before the general election in November. b7D

SOVIET GOVERNMENT PENETRATION INTO THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY

The principal official representative of the Soviet motion picture industry in the United States is MIKHAIL KONSTANTIN KALATOZOV, who arrived in America in August, 1943. He was a successful director in Russia and immediately set out to establish himself socially and professionally in the local industry, and he has worked closely with NICHOLAS NAPOLI and BEN GOLDSTEIN, president and West Coast representative of Artkino Films, which concern distributes Russian films in this country.

His position apparently has a dual purpose, first to encourage the cultural exchange between the United States and Russia of motion picture films, and, secondly, to act as advisor on the purchase of American films for Russia. He reportedly has a contract with SAMUEL GOLDWYN for $120,000 for the purchase of three films. Further details on this are being gathered at the present time. It is reported that he has presented to the State Department a proposal whereby the Soviet Union will confer decorations on the following prominent Hollywood personages: JACK WARNER, SAM GOLDWYN, EDWARD G. ROBINSON, WALTER HUSTON, OSCAR HOMOLKA, VICTOR FRANCEN, JAY LEYDA, MANNART KIPPERT, and JORIS IVENS. These awards are apparently being made to the listed individuals for their participation in the films "Mission to Moscow" and "North Star."

Memorandum for the Director June 8, 1944

Re: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION IN
THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY

KALATOZOV in February of this year had two assistants arrive. One of them has gone to Mexico City where he is stationed in the Russian Embassy, and the other has gone to New York and is handling the Russian film interests on the East Coast. In the latter part of May, GREGORY IRSKY arrived from Russia with several technicians, apparently to study United States film techniques on behalf of the Soviet Government. He is still in this city and has been the subject of intensive investigation.

KALATOZOV and his associates have contacted known Communist elements in Hollywood, and he has contacted nearly all the major studios here to review films and allegedly to seek desirable ones for purchase for the Soviet Government. There has been some publicity in the local trade journals and other newspapers about the general activities of these persons, and recently FRANK C. WALDROP had an article in the Washington 'Times-Herald' devoted to the exposure of the propaganda campaign being started in the United States by the Soviet Government, and he made special reference to the activities of KALATOZOV. In substantiation of the fact that the last-named individual is not here for the sole purpose he alleges is the fact that he has had numerous meetings with GREGORI KHEIFETS, principal suspect in the COMRAP investigation, when the latter has been in Los Angeles.

TO : Director, FBI

DATE: June 22, 1944

SUBJECT: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY

Attention is called to the report of Special Agent JAMES G. FINDLAY, relative to this matter, dated June 13, 1944, and, especially, to that portion of said report relating to "Propaganda in Motion Pictures", pages 2-8, wherein it is stated that, "A committee of Hollywood Writers Mobilization has been given the responsibility for writing and producing all documentary films for over seas distribution", and wherein is given a short history of the personnel which has been selected to do this assignment.

Please be advised that Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted] on June 20, 1944, informed the Los Angeles Field Division that ROBERT ROSSEN and JOHN HOWARD LAWSON conferred relative to this matter, and ROSSEN stated that he thought it inadvisable for him to remain in the office (Chairman of the Hollywood Writers Mobilization), as he has held the office for three years and has done a good job, but some people are opposed to him, which is an unhealthy condition. It was suggested that the office be offered to ROSSEN and that ROSSEN decline. b7D

It was suggested that PAUL TRIVERS would like to see ROSSEN continued in the office. It was also suggested that EMMETT LAVERY would be a good party to take over the job. It was stated that ROSSEN must make a decision very soon, as the nominating committee has picked ROSSEN as first choice, and it is known that EMMETT LAVERY and HOWARD ESTABROOK will be opposed to ROSSEN. It was the opinion of LAWSON that ROSSEN's prestige would increase if he stepped out and declined another term as chairman.

It was further stated that LAWSON and PAULINE LAUBER believed that it would be a good political move for ROSSEN to decline, if he is to do a job on the overseas business. It was also stated that PHILLIP DUNNE of the New York office will be in Hollywood in the near future to confer and make final arrangements for the year's program.

This matter will be observed closely, and the Bureau will be promptly advised of developments.

Reference is made to your letter of June 3, 1944, forwarding to the Bureau copies of a list of persons in the Motion Picture Industry who are members of the Communist Party or of Communist Party Front Organizations.

It is noted that section D of the list devoted to actors and actresses, does not include the names of a number of persons who have been named in past reports of Special Agent James G. Findlay, in this case as Communists or members of Communist Front Organizations. Among these are Lucille Ball, Lionel Stander, Lucille Gleason, Ida Lupino, Franchot Tone, Frederic March, Olivia de Havilland, Virginia Bruce, Rita Hayworth, Rex Ingram, Rosiland Russel, Irving Pichel, Phillip Merivale, Luise Reiner.

Please advise whether the names of any of these persons should be added to section D of the list and if so submit a brief identifying paragraph concerning each one as requested by Bureau letter of May 8, 1944.

The name of Dudley Nichols, a director identified in past reports as a member of Communist Party Front groups does not appear on the list nor does the name of Lillian Hellman, a writer identified in past reports as a Communist according to the files of the Los Angeles Office. Please advise whether these names should be included and if so submit the requested data concerning them.

The Bureau is, of course, aware that Lillian Hellman does not actually reside in Hollywood, but in view of her prominence as a writer in the motion picture industry it is suggested that her name be included on your list.

For your information there is forwarded herewith one copy of the report of Special Agent Gene P. Fopp, dated February 4, 1944, at New York City, captioned Lillian Hellman, alias Mrs. Arthur Kober, Internal Security - C.

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

Opportunity for Communist propaganda in motion pictures has been greatly extended by reason of an agreement entered into by the Hollywood Writers Mobilization, a Communist dominated group of writers, and the Office of War Information whereby the Hollywood Writers Mobilization will produce short stories and pictures of a documentary nature to be shown to liberated countries. Open political activity is being held in abeyance until after the two national conventions have acted and the line of activity has been agreed upon. Communist activity in Hollywood A.F.L. Labor Unions has paralleled the activity of the CIO Political Action Committee and in some instances has cooperated with the Political Action Committee. It has also joined forces to combat and force the dissolution of the Motion Picture Alliance. The Communists formed an Emergency Council of Hollywood Guilds and Unions June 23, 1944, to combat the M.P.A. A mass meeting was called to assemble at the American Legion Stadium under the sponsorship of the Screen Writers Guild but when the American Legion Post learned of the true Communist nature of the meeting, cancelled the contract for the use of the stadium and the meeting was held at the Hollywood Women's Club on June 28, 1944. The Emergency Council denounced the M.P.A. as a Fascist organization; that it was anti-labor, anti-Semitic, etc. The name was changed to "Council of Hollywood Guilds and Unions". Establishment of Cinema Post #561, American Legion, is revealed as being a part of a nation wide attempt by the Communist to penetrate the American Legion nationally. Bureau letter dated 4/29/44;
Report of Special Agent JAMES G. FINDLAY, Los Angeles, California, dated 6/13/44.

DETAILS: AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

As stated in report of reference dated June 13, 1944, the Office of War Information, OWI, during the week of June 3, 1944, entered into an agreement with the Hollywood Writers Mobilization, a Communist dominated group of writers in the motion picture industry in Hollywood, whereby that organization was authorized to produce a series of short pictures of a documentary nature to be shown in the occupied countries of Europe when they have been liberated. This agreement was brought about by Robert Riskin, whose official position is Chief of the Overseas Film Bureau of the OWI at New York City. Mr. Riskin was formerly an associate producer of motion pictures with the Columbia Studios in Hollywood.

Source "A" has reported that PHILLIP DUNNE, former Hollywood screen writer, is next in authority under Mr. Riskin and his title is Production Chief of this department of the OWI. At the present time Mr. DUNNE is in Hollywood completing the arrangements for the production of these pictures and conferring with the Hollywood Writers Mobilization. On July 7, 1944, Mr. DUNNE spoke before a meeting of the Hollywood Writers Mobilization held at the Beverly Hills Hotel, outlining the program and stating the objectives of the same. Other speakers were Sergeant BEN MADDOW of the First Motion Picture Unit. Nothing is known of Mr. MADDOW's background, he being a newcomer to Hollywood in this line of activity. The other two speakers were:

* ALBERT MALTZ
* ROBERT ROSSEN

It was stated at this meeting that an Editorial Board has been set up which would direct the writing of the scripts for the Overseas Branch of this activity of the OWI. This Editorial Board which will determine the content of the pictures is composed of the following:

* JOHN HOWARD LAWSON
* ROBERT ROSSEN
MARC CONNELLY
HOWARD ESTABROOK
* SIDNEY BUCHMAN
DR. FRANKLIN FEARING
HOWARD KOCH
* META REIS
CHARLES BRACKETT
HARRY TUGEND
ALLEN RIVKIN
JOHN HOUSEMAN
TALBOT JENNINGS

All of the foregoing are connected with and are a part of the Communist apparatus in the Hollywood motion picture industry.

HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION

Source "A" informed that this organization on July 5, 1944, held an election and officers selected for the ensuing year are the following:

EMMETT LAVERY, Chairman, replacing ROBERT ROSSEN.

DR. FRANKLIN FEARING, Professor of Psychology at the University of California at Los Angeles, First Vice-Chairman.

* W. F. (BILL) BLOWITZ, Hollywood Publicist, Second Vice-Chairman.

JOHN HOUSEMAN, Screen Writer, Third Vice-Chairman.

* ABRAM S. BURROWS, Screen Writer, Treasurer.

HOWARD ESTABROOK, Writer, now an Associate Producer, Secretary.

OPEN POLITICAL ACTIVITY

Source "A" revealed that the Communist political activity, as expressed through the Hollywood Democratic Committee, the Beechwood Democratic Committee and the Beverly-Westwood Democratic Committee, the Motion Picture Labor Committee for Political Action and other sympathetic organizations, is now being held in abeyance, pending the Democratic National Convention. With the exception of scattered propaganda efforts in local publications and such like, open activity by way of mass meetings, etc. is being held up for the present. This has been the situation since the California State Primary Election on May 16, 1944. The above-named "Democratic Committees" are not a part of the Democratic Party of California as such, but are in reality fronts for the Communist Political Association (formerly the Communist Party) set up for the purpose of penetrating and influencing the voters of the real Democratic Party.

COMMUNIST ACTIVITY IN HOLLYWOOD LABOR UNIONS

Source "A" stated that Communist activity within the Hollywood Labor Unions has been confined mainly to political activity in conjunction with Political Action Committees, the Hollywood Democratic Committee, etc., for the last six months.

However, with the formation of an anti-Communist organization, the Motion Picture Alliance for the Preservation of American Ideals, the Communist-controlled labor unions joined with all other Communist elements in Hollywood in an attempt to discredit and force the dissolution of this M.P.A. And, inasmuch as those labor unions free from Communist influence have become a part of the M.P.A. there has now emerged, within the last few days (July 10, 1944), evidences of a coming labor war in the motion picture studios. On one side are the Communist-controlled unions, some A. F. of L. and some Independent, and on the other, those unions which oppose the Communists. This situation has been brought about by the long-standing attempt of Communist to control the studio labor unions. With the formation of the M.P.A., the Communists created a counter-organization called the Emergency Council of Hollywood Guilds and Unions.

EMERGENCY COMMITTEE OF HOLLYWOOD GUILDS AND UNIONS

COUNCIL OF HOLLYWOOD GUILDS AND UNIONS

Source "A" has informed that the Emergency Committee of Hollywood Guilds and Unions was created on June 23, 1944. He stated that the "Hollywood Reporter" on June 23, 1944, stated that the aims and purposes of this organization were to combat the activities of another organization, the Motion Picture Alliance for the Preservation of American Ideals, that had been formed in February, 1944.

Source "A" stated that on May 2, 1944, the Screen Writers Guild through its Executive Board called a meeting at the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel for the purpose of taking some action to counteract the effect of the meeting of the Motion Picture Alliance.

Source stated that he had personally investigated the matter and had ascertained that the Screen Writers Guild by its Secretary, TALBOT JENNINGS, wrote a letter to the American Legion Stadium and secured the use of the stadium in which to hold a mass meeting which was to protest against the activities of the Motion Picture Alliance.

It was announced that a mass meeting would be held on June 25, 1944, at the American Legion Stadium and that it would be attended by representatives of thirty-eight guilds and unions. The meeting was to be an open one.

Source stated that when it was announced that this meeting was to be held at the American Legion Stadium, JOSEPH P. TOUGHY, of the Teamsters Union and a member of the Executive Board of the Motion Picture Alliance, and some others notified the Hollywood American Legion Post that the meeting was Communist inspired and that those in charge of the meeting were either Communists or followers of the Communist Party line, which was true. The Legion Post Officials notified the Screen Writers Guild that it could not use the stadium as the Legion did not care to become involved in a factional dispute in the motion picture industry.

The Emergency Committee of the Hollywood Guilds and Unions then announced that the meeting had been called off but that another meeting would be held at the Hollywood Women's Club Hall on June 28, 1944; that at this time the meeting would not be open to the general public but would be limited to delegates from the guilds, unions and other sympathetic organizations.

Source further informed that approximately 900 persons were present at this meeting made up of the usual type of persons seen at Communist front meetings in Hollywood. Those most active in this meeting were the following persons:

* NORVAL D. CRUTCHER
* GEORGE CAMPBELL
GEORGE BRADLEY
* HARRY CARLISLE
* FREDERICK RINALDO
MARC CONNELLY
* ALBERT MALTZ
* JAY GORNEY
LIONEL STANDER
* SAM GOLDBLATT
* BORIS GOLDBLATT
LUCIEN PRIVAL
FREDERIC MARCH

Telegrams of sympathy and support were received and read from the following parties:

ORSON WELLES
RITA HAYWORTH
DORIS SCHARY
* JOHN F. COHEE

Source "A" informed that EMMETT LAVERY, who was recently elected President of the Hollywood Writers Mobilization, replacing * ROBERT ROSSEN, acted as Chairman of the meeting. The sponsors were the following:

MARY McCALL, JR., President of the Screen Writers Guild.

WALTER WANGER, Motion Picture Producer.

HERBERT ALLER, Business Representative, International Photographers Union #659.

JAMES HILTON, Member Executive Board, Screen Writers Guild.

AL SPEEDE, Business Representative, Electrical Workers No. 40.

* SIDNEY BUCHMAN, Producer at Columbia.

* HERBERT K. SORRELL, Business Representative, Studio Painters #644.

Source further stated that the remarks of all speakers were along this same line; that the Motion Picture Alliance was a Fascist organization; that it was destroying unity and interfering with the prosecution of the war; that it was anti-labor; that it was anti-Semitic; that it was a red-baiting organization; that it was a political plot against the New Deal.

A resolution was passed condemning the Motion Picture Alliance for its attack on the motion picture industry and called upon all guilds and unions to combat the menace of the M.P.A.

Source advised that at this meeting the name of this new organization was changed to "Council of Hollywood Guilds and Unions".

At this meeting * NORVAL D. CRUTCHER announced from the floor that the matter of dispute with the Hollywood American Legion Post had been taken care of and in the future the Council could use the stadium for meetings. Source personally contacted one of the officials of the Hollywood American Legion Post and was informed by him that CRUTCHER was misinformed or that CRUTCHER had misinformed the audience as he was positive that the stadium would not be let to this organization.

Source "A" further informed that as part of the warfare between these two groups, there is now a threatened strike against one of the major companies, Twentieth Century Fox Company at Westwood, California. This threat of strike is not because of any legitimate grievance but has been made on the grounds of a trivial jurisdictional matter. The reason behind it can be said to be political, inasmuch as it is aimed at one of the unions which has affiliated itself with the Motion Picture Alliance, the Studio Grips, Local 80, IATSE. It is the beginning of an attempt to raid the established jurisdiction of those unions which oppose Communist elements in the motion picture industry.

The union being used by the Communists to create a situation which can be exploited by them is Studio Carpenters, Local 946, of the International Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, A. F. of L. Hitherto this local union in Hollywood has taken a neutral position on the question of Communism in the motion picture industry. JAMES SKELTON, business representative of the union and its authorized mouthpiece, has not taken sides heretofore. Recently he has gone over to the Communist elements and is now working in close cooperation with HERBERT K. SORRELL, President of the Conference of Studio Unions, a completely Communist-dominated block of ten unions. SORRELL himself is a known Communist.

Source stated that on July 10, 1944, SKELTON notified the Fox Studios that unless he was granted jurisdiction for his carpenters for a certain type of work which has always heretofore been performed by the members of Local 80, IATSE, he would establish a picket line around the studios; that in doing this he would be supported by other unions, particularly those directed by HERBERT K. SORRELL. The strike was to be called on that date, July 10, 1944, at twelve noon. Up to the morning of July 11, 1944, it had not been called. It is the opinion of many labor leaders in the Hollywood area that this will be the beginning of a labor war in the motion picture industry in Hollywood.

PEOPLES EDUCATIONAL CENTER - HOLLYWOOD BRANCH

Source "A" informed that the address of this camouflaged Communist school is 1717 North Vine Street, Hollywood, California. This is also the headquarters of the League of American Writers, under whose auspices the school was originally established under the name of the Hollywood Writers School, sponsored by the above-named league.

When the Communist Party of the United States changed its name and became the Communist Political Association, whose purposes henceforth would be principally "educational", there was created in the Los Angeles area a Peoples Educational Center with its main offices at 524 South Spring Street in downtown Los Angeles.

The Hollywood Writers School then affiliated with that group and changed its name to the Hollywood Branch of the Peoples Educational Center. The address and aims were the same as before. Only the name was changed. At the present time the school is being conducted by the same persons as before. The advertised list of instructors are the following, according to Source "A":

ELEANOR BROOKS
JOHN BROWN
* ABRAM S. BURROWS
HORACE J. CHAMBERS
DR. FRANK C. DAVIS
HELEN DEUTSCH
* EDWARD DMYTRIK
ELEANOR FRANCIS
* CHARLES MORTON GRANT
ALEXANDRA GROTH
OTTO C. JUNGWIRTH
CAROLINE MITCHELL
EVANGELINE POWELL
BERNARD C. SCHOENFELD
* WILMA SHORE
* MICHAEL URIS

When this venture was first set up, many local labor unions affiliated with it because it was represented to them as a "labor school". However, some unions have already withdrawn because they learned that it was a Communist propaganda center.

Source "A" informed that on July 8, 1944, the California A. F. of L. State Federation of Labor "unanimously repudiated" this so-called Educational Center as not being a "bona fide labor school" and so notified all local unions belonging to that federation. It also took the same action with regard to the California Labor School (formerly the Tom Mooney School) in San Francisco.

HOLLYWOOD PRESS-TIMES

Source "A" revealed that this weekly throw-away publication which presumes to be supported by advertising, has now expanded and moved to new quarters, 1657 North Highland Avenue, Hollywood, California. The staff has been increased; likewise, its distribution. This publication is distinctly an organ serving the Communist Party and its party line and cooperates with the "People's World", the alleged Communist publication on the Pacific West Coast.

CINEMA POST #561, AMERICAN LEGION

As previously set forth Source "A" has reported that this Post of the American Legion is one of many others coming under a certain amount of Communist influence. The charter for this Post was installed on April 1, 1944, after much opposition from local organizations and individuals. This opposition was caused by the evident Communist influence over those applying for the charter. However, those registering such objections were not aware at the time that the establishment of this Post was a part of a nation-wide attempt by Communists to penetrate the American Legion in anticipation of conditions which will arise when the armed forces are disbanded at the end of the war.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF UNION LEGIONNAIRES

Source "A" has further informed that in September of 1943 an organization was formed called the National Conference of Union Legionnaires, the purpose of which was stated to be to "neutralize the legion in labor disputes". In a report on the conference which set up the organization, it was stated that "representatives of fifty-two American Legion Labor Posts, mostly A. F. of L," were present. This was reported in the alleged Communist publication, the "People's World", of September 3, 1943.

The national officers elected were:

CHARLES VENCIL, Los Angeles, President.

GEORGE C. DANFIELD, Chicago, Secretary.

EDWARD DeKEYSER, Detroit, Treasurer.

JOEL I. SMITH, Chicago, Publicity Director.

In addition to the above national officers elected there were Regional Vice-Presidents also appointed. For the Los Angeles area DR. ROBERT ZIEGLER, of Musicians Post, Los Angeles, California, was elected.

The formation of Union Labor Posts of the American Legion is nothing new; there have been Labor Posts for many years. But, this national conference is distinctly a Communist effort and stems from Communist Party activity solely.

AMERICAN COMMITTEE OF JEWISH WRITERS, ARTISTS AND SCIENTISTS - HOLLYWOOD CHAPTER.

Source "A" advised that during the week of June 17, 1944, a group met at the home of I. H. PRINZMETAL, Investigator for the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League and attorney for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studios, and set up an organization with the above title.

DR. RAPHAEL MAHLER, the main speaker of the evening, outlined the purposes of the group to be:

"Problems of Jewish unity, cultural relations with world Jewry, cooperation with the World Jewish Congress in Palestine and the Jewish Anti-Fascist Committee in Moscow."

The meeting was almost wholly composed of persons connected with the Hollywood motion picture industry, all of whom have been connected with Communist activity. Those taking the leading part were:

* ALBERT MALTZ, Screen Writer.

IRVING PICHEL, Producer.

* PAUL JARRICO, Writer.

LOUIS ADELMAN, Producer.

IRVING PINEMAN, Writer.

PHILLIP EPSTEIN, Producer.

JULIUS EPSTEIN, Producer.

SHOLEM ASCH, Writer.

PERETZ HIRSHBEIN, Writer.

* JACK MOSS, Director.

* EVA SHAFRAN, Director of Communist Workers School in downtown Los Angeles and Communist Party functionary for years in Los Angeles.

* ABRAHAM MAYMUDES, International Workers Order (IWO).

After the meeting, telegrams were sent to the American Committee of Jewish Writers, Artists and Scientists in New York, New York, and to the Jewish Anti-Fascist Committee in Moscow, Russia, notifying them of the formation of the Hollywood Chapter.

The only publications which gave space to the formation of this committee were the Communist papers and there was no mention elsewhere.

It is obvious, from the personnel of this group, that it is meant to be another Communist front to draw in the Jewish people.

OPPOSITION TO COMMUNIST ACTIVITIES

Source "A" informed that the only organized opposition to the activities of Communists in the motion picture industry is the Motion Picture Alliance, mentioned elsewhere. This organization is carrying on a consistent campaign of opposition. The Communists, having failed in their first tactic of attempting to force the producers and heads of the industry to eliminate the organization on the grounds that it would split the industry wide open, have now changed tactics and are carrying on the fight within the organized labor groups. Hence, for the present at least, there is a probability that the Communists will attempt to foment a labor war in the industry by misrepresenting to the workers in the industry that the M.P.A. is a "tool of reactionary interests" out to destroy the labor unions and their gains in the industry.

The threatened strike at the Twentieth Century Fox Studios, abovementioned, may be the beginning of that line of procedure. Up to July 12, 1944, that strike has not materialized.

AFL VOTES TO OUST REDS AND FASCISTS

"The Los Angeles Herald" on July 11, 1944, carried an article which stated that by a nearly four to one vote, delegates to the Central Labor Council, A.F.L., had approved a constitutional amendment through which Communists and Fascists will be barred from membership in the organization. It stated that WILLIAM GREEN, National Head of the A.F.L., asked for the amendment when he rejected a proposed new constitution for the Council last year on the ground it failed to prohibit membership of "radicals". The amendment provides that membership will be denied to:

> "Anyone who participates in any organization connected with or sympathetic to, or related to, or dominated by, or under the control of any organized group or government, such as Communists or Fascists, advocating the violent overthrow of the government of the United States."

Approval came only after a floor fight in which some members objected to the use of the names "Communists or Fascists" on the ground it will cause the loss of some members. The vote was 153 to 44 in favor of the amendment.

An asterisk (*) has been placed before the names of a number of persons named in this report. This asterisk is to indicate that these names have been checked through the official records of the Los Angeles Bureau Office and a record has been found that said parties have records which show that they have had Communist record or have records which show that they are active Communist Party members at the present time. Nearly all are active Communist Party members of the Northwest Section (Writers Section) of the Communist Party of Los Angeles County.

| COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY | INTERNAL SECURITY - C |

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS: For past 30 days, no pictures have been released to the public which could be classed as propaganda for the Communist cause. Apparently the industry has become somewhat sensitive to public criticism, and the pretended dissolution of the Communist Party and the formation of the Communist Political Association does not call for propaganda favorable to Communism as it has been declared that it will work in cooperation with capitalism. The Communist influence in pictures is taking the form of a glorification of the Soviet Union for its part in winning the war. The Office of War Information and Hollywood Writers Mobilization are preparing pictures to be shown in liberated countries but not to the American public. OWI and War Activities Committee now have a program to put out short subjects and newsreels to be shown in American theaters. Names of some of the proposed pictures may have Communist propaganda, as the pictures are being prepared by a well known Communist. The Actors Lab is a continuation of the program of International Union of Revolutionary Theaters. The principals in this undertaking are known Communists. Tours to England are now being planned for members of this organization. C.P.A. is devoting much time to the political campaigns now in progress. Hollywood Democratic Committee, which is Communist-dominated, is very active in this field. Motion picture labor unions (AFL) were cooperating with CIO Political Action program. Recently a definite separation has taken place, and AFL unions have endorsed opponents of two of the successful CIO-PAC endorsed primary candidates (NED HEALY and HAL STYLES), and AFL is now considering advisability of endorsing other candidates opposing PAC program. Two new newspapers have sprung up in Hollywood area for campaign purposes. Russian-American Club, Bureau letter dated April 29, 1944.

Report of Special Agent JAMES G. FINDLAY, dated 7-13-44 at Los Angeles, California.

DETAILS: AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

Report of reference reveals that the Office of War Information, on or about June 3, 1944, entered into an agreement with the Hollywood Writers Mobilization, a Communist-dominated group of writers, actors, directors, producers, and so forth, in Hollywood, to produce a series of short pictures of a documentary nature to be shown in the occupied countries in Europe when those countries have been liberated.

Recently it was announced that the Hollywood Division of the War Activities Committee and the Office of War Information had instituted a program for production of eleven short subjects and newsreels to be shown in the theaters in the United States.

In this report there is being used for identification purposes an asterisk (*) which is being placed before the names of quite a large number of persons. This asterisk signifies these names have been searched through the identification data in the files of the Los Angeles Bureau Office and reliable information has been found to show that such parties have been or are now active Communists in the motion picture field.

Source A has informed that there have been no pictures released for general public presentation within the last thirty days which could be classed as propaganda for the Communist cause indirectly, or which could be said to be pictures which follow the Communist Party line. The entire industry has become acutely sensitive to criticism in this respect because of this issue being raised publicly in several directions.

An additional, and in all probability, the main reason why such propaganda does not appear is that the present line of the Communist Party definitely does not call for it, since the pretended dissolution of the Communist Party of the United States and the formation of the Communist Political Association in its stead. The pretended line of expediency of this latter organization is to support all democratic processes, to support free enterprise, and to work in cooperation with capitalism in the interest of the post-war world. This is a tactic to be applied at this time and used in the interest of the foreign policy of the Soviet Union during the present war effort and in its expected relations of the immediate future on the international field, economic rehabilitation of and assistance to Soviet Russia immediately after the end of the war.

For these and other reasons, the Communist influence on the production of motion pictures will be used to play down any direct propaganda for Communism as such, and in its stead will appear propaganda taking the form of a glorification of the Soviet Union for its part in winning the war and generally eulogizing all things wherein the interest of the Soviet Union is involved, building up its role wherever possible. This line was laid down with the setting up of the Communist Political Association on May 20, 1944. This is the line of the Communists in the motion picture industry for pictures which are to be shown to the public generally in the United States and other democratic countries.

There is another field of motion picture production in Hollywood wherein this rule, or line, has a somewhat different application.

In the report of reference, it was disclosed that an arrangement had been completed between the Office of War Information and the Hollywood Writers Mobilization by which this Writers Mobilization would supervise, and in fact, produce a series of short documentary pictures to be shown in the occupied countries when the Allied forces take over. These pictures are not to be shown publicly in the United States. It was shown conclusively that the production of these pictures was under the control and direction of known Communists and followers of the Communist Party line. There has now been set up another department of motion picture production in Hollywood wherein the influence of Communists will be shown.

Source A informed that on August 7, 1944, it was announced through the trade papers (DAILY VARIETY, e.g.) that after a week of conferences between the Hollywood Division of the War Activities Committee and the Office of War Information, a program for production of eleven short subjects and five newsreel bulletins had been inaugurated. It was stated that the "Program will embrase post-war and international planning as well as air cadet recruiting and Red Cross campaigns."

It was further stated that:

"Subjects will be produced in studios here with players from Screen Actors Guild and writers from Hollywood Writers Mobilization. They will be exhibited in the 16,000 theaters pledged to the WAC-OWI program."

Those taking part in the sessions were:

STANTON GRIFFIS, Chief of the OWI Film Bureau, New York City
FRANCIS HARMON, Executive Vice-Chairman of the War Activities Committee, New York City
JOHN C. FLINN, Hollywood War Activities Committee Coordinator, Hollywood, California
TAYLOR M. MILLS, Assistant to Mr. GRIFFIS, New York City

L.A. 100-15732

TOM BAILEY, assistant to Mr. FLINN, Hollywood
HERMAN GLUCKMAN, Treasurer of War Activities Committee

Source A has further informed that a partial list of pictures to be produced, with their titles and implied content, would indicate that all will be of a political nature, more or less, and deal with matters in which the Communist viewpoint could easily be injected.

This partial list is as follows:

THE STORY WITH TWO ENDINGS, based on prevention of post-war inflation. Picture to be written by *HAROLD BUCHMAN and *LOU SOLOMON. BUCHMAN is a Communist and has been active in that movement for many years.

IT'S MURDER, deals with the security branch of the U. S. Army, Navy and FBI. Story to be written by *HENRY BLANKFORT. BLANKFORT has been active in Communist doings for many years.

WHEN HE COMES HOME, deals with problems of returning soldiers. To be written by *PAUL TRIVERS. TRIVERS has been identified as part of the Hollywood Communist apparatus. He has followed the Communist Party line for years.

SO FAR SO GOOD, deals with this nation's progress in international relations. To be written by *HENRY BLANKFORT (above) with technical assistance of WALTER M. KOTSCHNIG, of the State Department.

WORLD PEACE THROUGH WORLD TRADE, to be written by *EDWARD ELISCU, a Communist.

Delete asterisk - See L.A. letter 8/17/44. Ret

UNRRA, deals with post-war relief and rehabilitation. To be written by *JOHN LARKIN. LARKIN is most active in the Hollywood Writers Mobilization.

Other pictures, the details of which have not yet been announced, will deal with such subjects as:

The New World
Explanation of Lend-Lease
Military Transport Forces
Post-War Employment

It is of great significance that in this program the Communist elements composing the Hollywood Writers Mobilization will be in a position to determine the content and messages of these pictures. In this instance, these pictures will be shown to the public through the regular commercial channels.

ACTORS LABORATORY

Source A has further informed that this organization, commonly known as "Actors Lab", was set up in 1941, presumably for the purpose of producing plays, experimenting with different forms of the drama and developing and training actors for the stage and screen. In reality, this project was a continuation of what was known in 1934, 1935 and 1936 as the "revolutionary theater" idea under the auspices of the New Theater League, a branch of the International Union of Revolutionary Theaters, set up in Moscow, Russia in 1932. The purpose of this International Union was to use the theater as a propaganda instrument for the eventual bringing about of the Communist revolution. The New Theater League was composed of various theatrical groups in various parts of the United States. But the Group Theater, in New York, was the mainstay of the League. In Hollywood, the name of the group affiliated with the New Theater League was Contemporary Theater.

All those who formed the Actors Lab in Hollywood in 1941 were members of the original Group Theater in New York, and are listed as follows:

ROMAN BOHNEN, Director
* JOHN GARFIELD (then called JULIUS GARFINKLE)
Actor, Y.C.L. organizer
* MORRIS CARNOVSKY, Actor
CLIFFORD ODETS, Writer
* ART SMITH, Actor
LUTHER ADLER, Actor
LEIF ERICKSON, Actor, now in Navy
FRANCES FARMER, Actor

All the preceding have long Communist records. ERICKSON and FRANCES FARMER are not now in Hollywood and not active in the project. Source A stated that other known Communists and sympathizers and followers of the Communist Party line now active in this project are:

* FRANK TUTTLE, Director
* JULES DASSIN, Director
SAM LEVENE, Actor
* ARNOLD MANOFF, Writer
FRANCHOT TONE, Actor
* ROBERT ROSSEN, Writer
GLORIA STUART, Actress
PHILLIP BROWN, Actor
* EDWARD DMYTRIK, Director
* J. EDWARD BROMBERG, Actor
HAROLD CLURMAN, Director
ALEXANDER GRANACH, Actor

This organization has recently announced that it works in cooperation with the Hollywood Writers Mobilization in the production of shows and performances for the armed services. As the Hollywood Writers Mobilization has charge of the production of short and documentary pictures for the Office of War Information, and also for the War Activities Committee hereinbefore mentioned, and as all the persons listed above are members of the Screen Actors Guild, the Actors Lab, as an organization, will play a part in the production of those pictures mentioned.

The organization is completely Communist-controlled, and constitutes now an important factor in the Communist apparatus in the Hollywood motion picture industry.

The Los Angeles Times for August 10, 1944, under the headline "Actors Leave for Tour of Europe War Front", stated:

> "A troupe of seven players, the first of four such groups to be provided by the Actors' Laboratory, left yesterday for England to begin a six-month tour for the entertainment of American service personnel."

Those in the party included the following:

SAM LEVENE
* ART (ARTHUR) SMITH
* NED GLASS, Reader
SIDNEY MELTON
KITTY McHUGH
* MARY JO ELLIS (MARIJO ELLIS)
HARRY BERMAN

The Los Angeles Bureau Office has no record of LEVENE, MELTON, McHUGH or BERMAN. It is possible that they do not reside in the Los Angeles area.

OPEN POLITICAL ACTIVITY

Source A states that the main activity of the Communist Political Association (formerly Communist Party) is devoted to the coming political campaigns, national and local, the Hollywood Communist elements, exploiting their connections with the motion picture industry and using the same to attract a following, are now putting forth a tremendous effort in this direction.

The Hollywood Democratic Committee has built up to where its influence is being strongly felt. This Committee is preparing to put forth a strong propaganda campaign through the press and radio.

COMMUNIST ACTIVITY IN HOLLYWOOD LABOR UNIONS

Source A reports that in line with the program of the Communist Political Association, the Communists in the Hollywood Labor Unions are now devoting energy toward influencing the unions for the support of all candidates endorsed by them, nationally and locally.

The organization created by Communist influence for the purpose is the Motion Picture Labor Committee for Political Action. This body is confined to unions operating in the motion picture field only. However, this organization is a unit in a larger organization called the United A.F. of L. Committee for Political Action, which takes in all AFL unions in the Los Angeles area.

This latter organization, up to the present time, had a working agreement for mutual support with the CIO Political Action Committee. This agreement, carried out by means of a liaison committee (reported heretofore), called for support of candidates for office when those candidates were acceptable to both the AFL and CIO.

Within the last ten days there has developed a split between the AFL and CIO Committees over certain candidates. The AFL Committee, over the strenuous objection of certain Communist members within it, has withdrawn endorsement of two candidates, NED HEALY, candidate for Congress in the 13th Congressional District, and HAL STYLES, who defeated JOHN M. COSTELLO for the Democratic nomination in the 15th Congressional District. (This defeat of Mr. COSTELLO, who was a member of the Dies Committee, had national repercussions.)

At the same time as the United AFL Committee withdrew endorsement of HEALY and STYLES, it also voted to sever all relations with the CIO Political Action Committee. The reasons for these actions were that the AFL had been the victim of internal Communist sabotage, and the further instructions of WILLIAM GREEN, President of the American Federation of Labor, to all local AFL unions to cease cooperation with the CIO Political Action Committee.

These actions of the AFL Committee caused a violent internal conflict within the AFL ranks. The local Teamsters Unions, through the Los Angeles Joint Council of Teamsters, led the fight against the Communists. The Hollywood leaders of the studio AFL unions, with several exceptions, led the Communist forces. These Communist leaders in the studios are listed as follows:

* HERBERT K. SORRELL, Studio Painters, Local 644, Business Agent
* NORVAL D. CRUTCHER, Laboratory Technicians, Local 683, IATSE, Secretary
* WILLIAM POMERANCE, Screen Cartoonists Guild, Executive Secretary
JACK WILLIAMS, Building Service Employees, Local 723, Secretary, Conference of Studio Unions
TED ELLSWORTH, Studio Costumers, Local 705, IATSE, Business Agent
C. W. (PAT) OFFER, Studio Projectionists, Local 165, IATSE.
JOHN MARTIN, Laboratory Technicians, Local 683, IATSE
GLENN PRATT, Screen Office Employees Guild

All the foregoing are key figures in the Communist apparatus in the Hollywood studio unions.

The above-mentioned actions are the beginning of an anti-Communist movement now developing in the Los Angeles area. There are already threats of physical violence, Communists calling up the leaders of the opposition in the middle of the night, threatening them, and so forth.

The leaders of the opposition to the Communists in the Hollywood studios are:

RALPH CLARE, Teamsters, Local 399, Secretary
JOSEPH TOUHY, Teamsters, Local 399, President and Business Agent

Source A informs that in addition to the foregoing, the Communist elements in Hollywood have set up another organization, mentioned in a previous report, called the Hollywood Council of Guilds and Unions. This organization now consists of 19 guilds and unions. Since last report, two more of the most powerful unions have joined this Communist front, namely the Screen Actors Guild, AFL, and the American Federation of Musicians, Local 47, AFL.

The purpose of this Council of Guilds and Unions is to furnish a front for the Communists within the Hollywood labor unions. It also works in the political field by supporting Communist endorsed candidates for public office, and follows the Communist Party line in detail.

All this inter-union strife is the result of the attempts of the Communist Political Association to dominate and control the labor unions in the motion picture industry.

HOLLYWOOD PRESS-TIMES

Source A has informed that the HOLLYWOOD PRESS-TIMES is a weekly throw-away publication which will, within the next several weeks, become a regular weekly publication to be distributed by subscription and street sales. It will cease to be given away. This is strictly a Communist propaganda paper and has developed a large circulation in the Hollywood area.

ANOTHER HOLLYWOOD DAILY PAPER

The Hollywood Democratic Committee has announced that on September 15, 1944, there will enter the newspaper field in Hollywood a daily paper sponsored by that Committee. It can safely be assumed that this publication will also be a Communist propaganda organ, the Hollywood Democratic Committee itself being a Communist front group.

RUSSIAN-AMERICAN CLUB

Within the last few weeks there has come into existence the Russian-American Club, located at 7810 Beverly Boulevard, Los Angeles (Hollywood district). This club claims to have 300 members. The president of the club is Professor ALEXANDER KALL, who claims to have been a professor in a university in Leningrad, Russia. He has been working in Russian War Relief for the past two years.

There is nothing of significance in the actions of this group, as yet, but it should be noted that known Communists and sympathizers are in the ascendancy in the affairs of the club. They are:

* FRANK TUTTLE, Director
  OLIVIA DE HAVILAND, Actress
  BLANCHE YURKA, Actress
  GEORGE M. DAY, Professor at Occidental College, very active in pro-Russian affairs
  ANN BAXTER, Actress
  LEWIS MILESTONE, Director
* MICHAEL WALDEN, connected with Russian Consul
* TATIANA TUTTLE (wife of FRANK TUTTLE), Dancer
* DR. MURRAY ABOWITZ, C. P. Branch Secretary
  LEONID KINSKY, Associate of Russian Consul

The Russian Vice-Consul, V. V. PASTOEV, attended the opening of the club as one of the principal speakers.

The purpose of the club, in addition to cultural and recreational activities, is to raise money for the people of the Soviet Union through the Russian-American Society for Medical Aid to Russia.

However, in the broadest sense, all Communist activity and propaganda stemming from the prestige of the motion picture industry is directed mainly at efforts in the coming national and local elections. The program of the Communist Political Association, as expressed by EARL BROWDER in all his pronouncements since the Communist Party was transformed into the Communist Political Association, calls for activity first on the political field to elect candidates favored by that party.

Consequently, the activity of the Hollywood Communists, working through their Democratic Committees, trade union committees, cultural groups, Hollywood Writers Mobilization, Screen Writers Guild, and all other front organizations, will be most noticeable in its support of certain candidates for office at the coming Fall elections.

The Los Angeles "Examiner" in its edition of July 11, 1944, under the headline "Labor Group Fires Reds and Fascists", stated that Communists and Fascists were barred from membership in the American Federation of Labor Central Labor Council in a constitutional amendment adopted by the Council at a tumultuous meeting at the Labor Temple last night. This article further stated that the fight was over whether to mention Communists and Fascists by name, and that the Executive Board which submitted the amendment, at the request of WILLIAM GREEN, National A.F. of L. President, that the Council bar radicals, had decided to omit the direct reference, but the fight was carried to the floor and won by a vote of 153 to 54.

HERBERT K. SORRELL of the Motion Picture Painters Union was quoted as saying: "It will only cause us to lose members". It was stated that other speakers opposing the naming of Communists and Fascists were: WILLIAM POMERANCE of the Screen Cartoonist Guild and FRANK GREEN of the Building Service Union. In order to identify these individuals, it will be noted that HERBERT SORRELL is the subject of an Internal Security - C Case in the Los Angeles Field Division. This individual, according to information obtained from CNDI [redacted] had the Communist Party Name of HERBERT STEWART in 1937 and held Communist Party Membership Book 80506 in that year. He was a member of the American Peace Crusade in July 1940 and in June 1940 his name appeared on the letterhead as a sponsor of the SNYDERMAN-DARCY Defense Committee. b7D

WILLIAM POMERANCE is the subject of an Internal Security - C investigation in the Los Angeles Field Division. According to information received from CNDI [redacted] during the year 1943 he was a member of Branch "E", Northwest Section, which is in the Hollywood Area of Los Angeles. At that time he was Membership and Financial Director for this Branch and held 1943 Communist Party Book Number 48151. CNDI [redacted] has furnished information reflecting that the records of the Communist Party at their Headquarters Office in Los Angeles reflect that he is on the mailing list of this organization, with the notation that mail to him should not bear the return address of Communist Party Headquarters. b7D

It has not been definitely ascertained that FRANK GREEN is a member of the Communist Party in the Los Angeles Field Area. However,

July 6, 1944

My dear Mrs. Seghers:

First of all I must ask you to forgive me for not writing for so long to report to you about the filming of your book. I have neglected it until now on the very trivial grounds that I have been absolutely unable to get any perspective on the film - and that compared to you and to the book I have felt extremely insignificant.

In the meantime, however, I have worked the numerous details into one whole and am now in a position to give you a halfway coherent picture of the facts. Before I do that though, I must tell you that the feeling of inferiority is still present, because the film is nothing but a greatly diluted and weakened expression of your book which is for me one of the greatest and most important works of our generation.

In spite of this weakening, I don't think we have violated the spirit of the book. The chief emphasis is really placed on the pure suspense - the "escape story"; many of the most wonderful characters - Kress, Mottenheimer, Schulz, Elly, Mrs. Fiedler, Bachmann - had to be left out simply because there wasn't room for them. For the same reason many of the very best scenes have been omitted - especially those which take place without Georg Heisler --

After the first cut we had to sacrifice still more elements - Hellwig (a few of the best scenes in the entire film), the night in the Mainz cathedral, the priest - - But even so the basic idea still shines through somehow, even though in a diminished form - especially in Paul and Liesl Roeder who for the most part have been lifted from the book into the film without any change of expression or dialogue (although Liesl has a somewhat different appearance from the Liesl whom you described). Also Fiedler and several others represent this basic idea: that in the final analysis human kindness is indestructible.

Another remark or two about the scenario: in many cases the progress of the scenes has been changed despite my protests - for example, Heisler's scene with Leni, the scene with Fuellgrabe in the park, the Sauer family (which doesn't present a too skilful synthesis with Kress). I fought against this and many other things but in the end I had to give in.

ENCLOSURE

SRT

It could have been very much worse, however; luckly Berman, the producer, is immeasurably superior to most of his competitors - above all he doesn't countenance those frightful breaches of good taste which are traditional here, but he does have his little weaknesses and cowardly traits of which he simply can't rid himself.

I was in accord with one idea of treatment: after immense consideration, Westhofen and all its scenes and characters were reduced to a minimum. The reasons for that were on the one hand, the length of the picture, and in addition, the fact that we wanted the main emphasis of the picture outside of the concentration camp. Also the American public is very tired of these things, because concentration camps have been presented in pictures in every conceivable form in dozens of films and now it is naturally very desirable to keep them away from the public.

The only trashy part in the film - about which I am really unhappy - is a love scene which was dragged in by the hair at the very end. But I stood alone against all the big shots in the studio - they are otherwise completely enthusiastic about the picture and think it's a masterpiece. (!) Even Tracy who ordinarily is a very severe critic, finds it one of his best pictures.

The critics haven't seen "Seventh Cross" yet; however, we've had two "previews" and the reaction of the public both times was very gratifying which was the more significant since the people here for the most part would rather see romantic comedies and "musicals".

A compromise is evident in the casting of the roles. Since Spencer Tracy plays the star part, we had to fill most of the other large parts with American actors in order to achieve a homogeneous effect. The performances of the actors are very good for the most part, but the "Rhineland" has naturally assumed quite an American atmosphere, broken only here and there by a few Germans.

Since however, the film is directed mainly toward America, it is perhaps better that way. The music, for which I should like to have had Aaron Copeland or Eisler (or Paul Dessau), was composed by an "excellent" Hollywood musician: his name is Roy Webb. The music is good but it could very well have been stronger.

Well, that's the report. I hope I haven't depressed you too much - I probably regard the whole thing with too great seriousness and want it to be one hundred per cent right; but when one has a book like the "Seventh Cross" to be filmed, one must regard it like that because it's a great responsibility.

I should be tremendously pleased to hear from you, my dear Mrs. Seghers, if your time permits. And above all, please write me your frank opinion after you have seen the picture (which probably will hardly be before September or October or Fall).

One more request: could you perhaps tell me where I can get a copy of the unabridged, German edition of the "Seventh Cross"?

With warmest regards and most profound respect, I remain,

Yours,

/s/ Fred Zinnemann

Re: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

I thought you would be interested in knowing that in the 'Daily Variety' dated August 7, 1944, an article entitled "16 Films Scheduled by WAC for Hollywood Production," reflects that following a week of conferences between the War Activities Committee and the officials of the Office of War Information, a program of eleven short subjects and five newsreel bulletins has been set out. This program, according to the article, will embrace post-war and international planning as well as air-cadet recruiting and Red Cross campaigns. This program will be produced in Hollywood studios with players from the Screen Actors' Guild and writers from Hollywood Writers' Mobilization. The films will be exhibited in the 16,000 theatres pledged to the WAC-OWI program.

The pictures planned for production, according to the article, include the following:

1. 'It's Murder,' which HUGH McCALLOM will make at Columbia Studios from a script by HENRY BLANKFORT for the Security Branch of the United States Army, Navy, and FBI. BLANKFORT, according to CNDI [redacted] is the executive secretary of Branch D (radio actors), Northwest Section, Los Angeles County Communist Political Association. He has also been the script writer for Communist Party radio programs. CONF. INFT b7D

2. 'The Story with Two Endings,' which the article states is for the prevention of post-war inflation and which is to be written by HAROLD BUCHMAN and LOU SOLOMON with SAM DALSIMER as technical advisor. BUCHMAN, according to CNDI [redacted] is the literature director of Branch A-1 (writers), Northwest Section, Los Angeles County Communist Political Association, and holds C.P.A. card number 46,802. He was a member of Branch number A-1 under the Communist Party, U.S.A., set-up and held 1943 C.P. book number 25,100. SOLOMON is also a member of Branch A-1, Northwest Section, Los Angeles County Communist Political Association, and holds C.P.A. card number 46,827 and was formerly a member of the same branch under the C.P., U.S.A., set-up. b7D

3. 'When He Comes Home,' which, according to the article, is to be made by DARRYL F. ZANUCK, with Colonel JASON JOY and TAYLOR MILLS working with Writer PAUL TRIVERS. TRIVERS, according to CNDI [redacted], was a member of Branch A-3, Northwest Section, Los Angeles County Communist Party, U.S.A., and held 1943 C.P. book number 36,264. This film will treat the problems of returning wounded soldiers. b7D

4. 'So Far So Good,' which, according to the article, will describe the nation's progress to date on international relations, is also being written by HENRY BLANKFORT, with technical assistance from WALTER M. KOTSCHNIG, of the State Department.

5. 'Air Transport Command,' which, according to the article, deals with military transport forces and will be written by OSCAR SAUL. SAUL, according to CNDI [redacted] is a member of Branch A-1, Los Angeles County C.P.A., and holds C.P.A. card number 46,817. He was previously a member of Branch A-2, Northwest Section, Los Angeles County Communist Party, U.S.A., and held 1943 C.P. book number 48,018. b7D

6. 'World Peace Through World Trade,' which is being written by EDWARD ELISCU. ELISCU, according to CNDI [redacted] was a member of Branch A-1, Los Angeles County Communist Party, U.S.A., and held 1943 C.P. book number 25,115.

In addition to the above short subjects, the following newsreel bulletins will be produced, according to the article. The writers of these bulletins were not listed:

1. 'A Back-to-School Tip from BING CROSBY'

2. 'Share Your Car.'

The article also states that subjects on Red Cross home nursing and nurses' aides and one on food surpluses will also be produced, in addition to a two-reel subject on the Marine-Army conquest of the Marianas titled 'Saipan,' which is being worked on by JACK L. WARNER and GORDON HOLLINSHEAD with Marine Corps officers.

The article further states that a week of conferences was held between WAC heads and officials of OWI, and among those attending these sessions were: STANTON GRIFFIS, Chief of the OWI Film Bureau; FRANCIS HARMON,

Memorandum for the Director August 15, 1944

Re: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE
MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY

executive vice-chairman of the WAC; JOHN C. FLINN, Hollywood WAC coordinator, and his associate TOM BAILY; TAYLOR M. MILLS, GRIFFIS' assistant; and, HERMAN GLUCKMAN, WAC treasurer.

The 'Hollywood Reporter' for August 2, 1944, stated that plans are being formulated for cultural interchange of motion pictures between the United States and the Soviet Union and between Britain and the Soviet Union; that the U.S.S.R. Film Committee has approved certain plans and recommended them for acceptance of United States Ambassador HARRIMAN and the British Ambassador in Moscow. The original plan was to have one theater in Moscow show only American and British films. This plan did not materialize, as no suitable theater was available in Moscow.

The present Soviet proposal is that two American and two British films each month be presented for closed showings to cinema clubs, actors, composers, writers, and scientist organizations. Showings would be for one day only in screening rooms accomodating between three hundred and five hundred persons. The Russians would expect similar arrangements to be made in the United States and England for showings of their films.

The State Department and the OWI will recommend acceptance of the plans by the Hollywood industry, pointing out that while the film industry cannot look forward to immediate financial profits, nothing can be lost, and the industry will be making a "contribution of great importance" in fortifying the ties between America and the U.S.S.R. The proposal would make American and British films available to all ranking Soviet intellectuals.

Respectfully submitted,

AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA:

Daily Variety, trade paper in the motion picture industry, on August 4, 1944, stated that MARY C. McCALL, JR. resigned as President of the Screen Writers Guild as she is expecting a baby in November. LESTER COLE alias LESTER COHN was Vice-President and will serve as President until November when the annual election will be held. COLE is a "free lance" writer employed at Columbia Studios at present.

The records of the Los Angeles Bureau Office reflect that he is presently assigned to Club A-1 (Writers), Northwest Section, Communist Political Association, and holds Communist Political Association card number 46805, 1944. He has a long record of Communist and Communist front activity. He is very active at the present time in the League of American Writers, Hollywood Writers Mobilization, Council of Hollywood Guilds and Unions and the Hollywood Democratic Committee.

The Hollywood Reporter, trade paper, on August 2, 1944, stated that plans are being formulated for cultural exchange of motion pictures between the United States and the Soviet Union and Britain and the Soviet Union, that the USSR Film Committee has approved certain plans and recommended them for acceptance of United States Ambassador Harriman and the British Ambassador at Moscow. The original plan was to have one theatre in Moscow to show only American and British films, but this did not materialize as there was no suitable theatre available in Moscow for that purpose. The Russians would expect similar arrangements to be made in the United States and Britain for the showing of their films. The State Department and OWI will recommend the acceptance of the plan by the Hollywood industry.

COMMUNIST ACTIVITY IN THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY

Source A has stated that the Communist activity in the motion picture industry is at this time devoted almost exclusively to "Political Action" leading up to the November elections. As this expresses the immediate effect of the Communist Political Association, the Communists in the motion picture industry have fallen into line. There is also much activity in the labor union field and an increasing control over studio labor unions by the Communist element.

HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE

"Source A has advised that this Communist front organization has now become the most important political organization in Southern California. Due to its connections with the motion picture industry and the prestige derived therefrom, and due to the further fact that it has enrolled within its membership very prominent personages, particularly well known writers, it has announced that it will now launch a campaign of publicity for its program, utilizing to the fullest the talents of those persons as writers, speakers and workers for the next sixty days.

"On September 6th, 1944, the Hollywood Democratic Committee held a meeting at Studio 3, Warner Bros. radio station, KFWB, Hollywood. This meeting was confined to writers mostly and the purpose was stated to be 'to mobilize writing talent for the election campaign.'

"In a full page advertisement in Daily Variety, Hollywood trade paper, of September 5, 1944, it stated the 'meeting will feature':

"DONALD OGDEN STEWART, known Communist.

"DALTON TRUMBO, known Communist.

"OLIVIA DE HAVILAND, now a fanatical follower of the Communist party line.

"In addition to the above one hundred and forty three writers, all employed in the motion picture industry, endorsed the meeting. Of this number seventy-six have records of either Communist Party membership or membership or activity in various Communist dominated front organizations.

"The above group of writers now volunteer their services as writers to all groups or organizations who are affiliated with the CIO Political Action Committee, the United AF of L. Political Action Committee, or to any other group agreeing to follow their program.

HOLLYWOOD FREE PRESS

"Source A has also stated that the Hollywood Democratic Committee will, on September 15, 1944, start publication of a daily newspaper which, it is stated, will have a circulation of 500,000 in Southern California. This paper will be under the supervision of the Committee and will carry its program. This Committee states that it is prepared to furnish entertainers for all organizations in order to attract people to their meetings. This entertainment will be in the form of political playlets and skits produced by the ACTORS LABORATORY, a Communist controlled school of acting and motion picture directing with which it has a working arrangement.

"This Committee has allied itself with the newly formed HOLLYWOOD COUNCIL OF GUILDS AND UNIONS and will act in the capacity of political counsel and director for that powerful group of unions.

"The Committee has announced that it has raised the sum of $100,000 dollars to be used for the above purposes, all devoted to the coming elections and the placing in office of candidates who will act to carry out the line of the Communist party in the national and local legislative bodies.

COUNCIL OF HOLLYWOOD GUILDS AND UNIONS

"Source A has reported that this organization has now grown to such size that it has enrolled in its membership twenty-one of the most important key unions in the motion picture industry. Although it is composed mainly of unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, it does contain several independent cultural unions, such as the Screen Writers Guild, etc.

"Within the last thirty days it has taken into its membership the Screen Actors Guild and the Studio Utility Employees, Local 724. These two unions represent some twelve thousand (12,000) members. This council is now well on the way to achieving the success of the Communist Party has long worked for, domination of the Hollywood motion picture labor unions.

"This Council came into existence because of the formation of the Motion Picture Alliance for the Preservation of American Ideals, an organization set up to combat Communist activities and penetration of the motion picture industry.

"The connection of the Hollywood Council of Guilds and Unions with the Communist apparatus nationally is shown by an article published in the Communist propaganda publication NEW MASSES of August 15, 1944, entitled 'Blackmailing Hollywood' by BRUCE MINTON, a Communist of long standing and now West Coast representative of this magazine. This article identifies the program of the Council with the Communist Party line.

"This Council is preparing to expand activities along another line. It is proposed that the organization set up a central headquarters housing all unions to 'enable the groups to cooperate more quickly as a unit in meeting any problem that might arise.

"It is also planning the formation of a Bureau representing all the unions and guilds and that this bureau 'would act as a clearing house in placing artists, executives, technicians, etc., with picture industries throughout the world'. The functions of such a project controlled by Communists would be ideal for their purposes internationally, making it possible for them to develop tremendous influence on the making of motion pictures at the same time maintaining working contact with Communist efforts everywhere.

MOTION PICTURE LABOR COMMITTEE FOR POLITICAL ACTION

"Source A states that this organization is composed of AF of L. unions in the motion picture industry in Hollywood. As such it is a unit of the larger United AF of L. Political Action Committee which takes in all Southern California.

"A split has developed within the larger group over the endorsement of certain candidates for Congress, HAL STYLES in the 15th Congressional District, and NED HEALY in the 13th Congressional District. All Communist organizations have endorsed STYLES and HEALY. The United AF of L. Committee withdrew endorsement of these candidates. All this over-all Committee has only the power of recommendation, and its action must be endorsed by two thirds of all local bodies affiliated with it, the Communists using their influence with these affiliated bodies, prevented the top Committee's recommendation being adopted. The principal arena of the fight was the Central Labor Council of Los Angeles. The Communists having secured control of this body, prevented the adoption of the United Committee's recommendation. The Communists in control of the Motion Picture Labor Committee for Political Action led the fight and finally won it for the Communist Party, this group being the strongest and holding the balance of power in the labor circles of the Los Angeles area.

"The leaders of this Hollywood group are Herbert K. SORRELL, NORVAL D. CRUTCHER, WILLIAM POMERANCE and others, known Communists. This Motion Picture Labor Committee operates in close collaboration with the Hollywood Democratic Committee and all other Communist Front Organizations in Hollywood.

PROPAGANDA PICTURES

Source A advises that no pictures with propaganda content have been released within the last thirty days.

"SEVENTH CROSS, written by ANNA SEGHERS, a Communist propagandist now in Mexico, has been finished but has not yet been released for public showing.

"CITIZEN TOM PAINE. This book based on the life of Thomas Paine was written by HOWARD FAST, a Communist sympathizer. The rights were optioned by FRANK TUTTLE, Hollywood motion picture director, some time ago. The option was allowed to lapse. It was then taken up by ERNEST PASCAL, an English motion picture producer who planned to make the picture in England. PASCAL, likewise, never went ahead with the picture. WALTER WANGER, Hollywood producer, has now purchased the story and intends to make the picture. Due to its 'revolutionary' content, the Communists are already hailing Mr. WANGER's courage in making this type of picture. Mr. WANGER has shown considerable sympathy for the work of the Hollywood Communists and has supported several of their fronts in the locality.

OPPOSITION TO COMMUNIST ACTIVITY

"The anti-Communist organization, MOTION PICTURE ALLIANCE FOR THE PRESERVATION OF AMERICAN IDEALS, has been inactive within the last thirty days, according to Source A; however, it is still subject to attack by every Communist influence, both nationally and locally.

"The Council of Hollywood Guilds and Unions issued a 34 page booklet attacking the MPA and mailed the same to every union and political organization throughout the United States. The number of copies printed was stated to be 10,000. The content of the booklet is a most violent attack on the organization, accusing it of having been sympathetic to the German-American Bund, implying connections with Father Coughlin's Christian Front, the Ku Klux Klan, Gerald K SMITH, JOE McWILLIAMS and those individuals now on trial in Washington, D.C. for sedition. It states that it, the Hollywood Council of Guilds and unions, represents 22,000 of the 30,000 workers in the Hollywood motion picture industry. The address from which the booklet was issued is 1655 North Cherokee Avenue, Hollywood. This is the address of the Screen Writers Guild, an independent union, completely dominated by Communists. The president of this Guild is LESTER COLE, a Communist, who lately succeeded MARY McCALL, JR., who resigned."

HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE - NEWSPAPER

The Hollywood Democratic Committee has announced that beginning September 15, 1944, there will be a paper issued which will be sponsored by the committee. It is now reported that the first edition will be out on or about September 15, 1944.

A meeting was held at the home of EDDIE BLUM at [redacted] on August 28, 1944, evidently to consider the material that they have for the first issue of the paper. b6 b7C

LA 100-15732

C. D. CLARK, MAURICE CLARK, EDDIE BLUM, HERBERT KLEIN, LLOYD SAUNDERS, GEORGE PEPPER, DALTON TRUMBO, and some others were present. The question of how they should approach the STYLES-COSTELLO matter was discussed. The Ned Healy campaign was also discussed and it was agreed that they would have a big special edition of the newspaper about November 1, 1944, so that there would not be any time for STYLES and HEALY'S opponents to reply to the material which appears in that issue of the paper.

CINEMA POST NO. 561, AMERICAN LEGION

HOLLYWOOD, CALIFORNIA

The following is a short digest of information relative to the personnel of Cinema Post No. 561 of the American Legion, Hollywood, California.

The Cinema Post was formed on June 27, 1943, with an initial membership of 42. The first roster of officers was elected on that date and application for a charter was made. A temporary charter was issued by the Los Angeles County Council of the American Legion. Some charges were filed against the granting of a charter, some investigation of the charges was made, and some pressure was brought to bear against the granting of a charter. However, an installation ceremony was had on the temporary charter on or about April 1, 1944. A permanent charter was issued by the national office at Indianapolis, Indiana, about August 1, 1944, and new officers for the current year were elected and installed.

The following parties were elected to office for Cinema Post No. 561 on June 27, 1943:

ROBERT LESTER, also known as Robert W. Leicester, Robert Watson Leichester - Post Commander
JACK E. BARBEE - First Vice Commander
JOE M. TIMOTHY - Second Vice Commander
NORVAL D. CRUTCHER - Adjutant
WILLIAM JOSEPH SMART - Post Chaplain
JOE MARKS - Post Historian
ELVIN BERT WILLIAMS - Sergeant at Arms

Officers for 1944

On July 24, 1944, a new roster of officers was elected and on August 1, 1944, after the permanent charter was issued, they were installed in office:

I though you would be interested in knowing that Cinema Post No. 561 of the American Legion was established on June 27, 1943. Informants have advised that the membership of this post is to be confined exclusively to individuals engaged in the motion picture industry.

Mr. Walter Sullivan, Commander of the Los Angeles County Council of the American Legion, advised that a temporary charter was issued by this council for forty-two members of a Legion Post to be called the Cinema Post. Sullivan stated that he considered this action to be an attempt on the part of the Communist Party to set up an American Legion Post of its own for the members of the motion picture industry.

Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted] who you will recall as Harvey Gilbert Wolf, formerly employed in the Hollywood Motion Picture Coloney, former member of the Communist Political Association and the organizer and director of the Motion Picture Industrial Union, advised that Mr. Sullivan endeavored to block the issuance of a permanent charter to American Legion Cinema Post No. 561. However J. K. Wallace, Norval D. Crutcher, and other Communists, who were interested in forming the new post, learned of Sullivan's actions and appealed to State District Attorney Fred Hauser, who interceded in their behalf and succeeded in having the permanent charter granted. b7D

The following persons were elected officers of the Cinema Post No. 561:

Robert Lester, with alias Robert Watson Leicester, who is active in labor troubles in the motion picture industry in 1937 when the Communist were reported to have attempted to take over the motion picture business from the IATSE-AFL in Hollywood. Evidence of his Communist Party membership is not available, however, he is a close friend of Don King, who is a member of the Valley Branch of the N. W. Section, Communist Party, Los Angeles. He is also a friend of Norval Crutcher, who is a member of the Communist Party, having joined September 20, 1937, and is one of the most active Communist Party workers in the motion picture industry. Crutcher was elected Adjutant of this new post.

There is attached hereto a letter from the Los Angeles Field Division, [illegible] ving background data concerning this post and its members and it is suggested that this [illegible] routed to Mr. Pennington for his information.

Dear Sir:

Replying to Bureau letter dated July 29, 1944, (100-138754) relative to the above entitled matter, and especially with respect to the Cinema Post No. 561 of the American Legion, please be advised that this is the same Cinema Post which was referred to in the following reports and letter.

Report of Special Agent JAMES G. FINDLAY, Los Angeles, re "Communist Infiltration of the Motion Picture Industry, Internal Security C" dated July 10, 1943;

Report of Special Agent JAMES G. FINDLAY, Los Angeles, re "Communist Infiltration of the Motion Picture Industry, Internal Security C", dated August 25, 1943;

Letter to the Bureau dated February 11, 1944, re "League of American Writers, Internal Security -C", advising that a charter had been granted to Cinema Post No. 561 shortly prior to that date, the exact date not being known.

Report of Special Agent JAMES G. FINDLAY dated April 12, 1944, re "League of American Writers, Internal Security -C", at Los Angeles.

A short history of Cinema Post No. 561 is that it was formed on June 27, 1943, with an initial membership of forty-two members. Informants stated that the membership of the post was to be confined exclusively to individuals engaged in the motion picture industry. It was also stated that one of the principal reasons for organizing this post of the American Legion was to have a bureau of the Legion which was under the control of the Communists.

NORVAL D. CRUTCHER was the original sponsor, organizer, and promoter of this Legion Post. The "L. A. Citizen", date unknown, official organ of the Central Labor Council of Los Angeles, stated that a charter was granted to "another union labor post, Cinema Post of Hollywood, composed entirely of craftsmen employed in the motion picture studios".

WALTER SULLIVAN, Commander of the Los Angeles County Council of the American Legion, stated that a temporary charter was issued by the Los Angeles County Council of the American Legion for forty-two members for an American Legion Post to be called the Cinema Post and advised that final action on the application would come up for disposition in August, 1943, at which time a permanent charter would be granted unless good reasons were shown for withholding same.

SULLIVAN stated that he considered that this action was an attempt on the part of the Communist Party to set up an American Legion Post of its own and confine its membership to employees in the motion picture industry.

Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted] ascertained that Mr. SULLIVAN endeavored to block the issuance of the charter to Local 561, but when J. K. WALLACE, NORVAL D. CRUTCHER, and other Communists, who were interested in forming the new post learned of SULLIVAN'S actions, appealed en masse to his superior, State District Attorney Fred Hauser, who interceded in their behalf and succeeded in having the permanent charter granted. b7D

JAMES K. FISK, District Adjutant, Veterans' Memorial Building, San Francisco, California, was contacted at Los Angeles. He informed that a temporary charter was issued to Cinema Post 561 in Hollywood in December, 1943. He stated that charges were made to the effect that this post was to be Communist controlled and an investigation was conducted; that GEORGE CONTRERAS, a Deputy Sheriff and a legionnaire at Los Angeles, was designated to make the investigation; that he did so and reported favorably on the persons who made application for the charter. Mr. FISK stated that because of this fact, an installation ceremony was had on or about April 1, 1944, on the temporary charter. He further stated that a permanent charter was issued by the National Office at Indianapolis, Indiana, about August 1, 1944, and new officers for the current year were elected.

Re: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE
MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY

The following persons were elected officers of the Cinema Post No. 561 on June 27, 1943, showing their Communist or possible Communist connections.

ROBERT LESTER, alias ROBERT WATSON LEICESTER, whose correct name is believed to be ROBERT WATSON LEICHESTER, was elected the first Post Commander of Cinema Post No. 561 on June 27, 1943.

LESTER lived at [redacted] b6 b7C
He is described as being fifty-three years of age and was born in Rochester, New York. He is a member of the Studio Painters Local 644, AFL and is employed at Warner Brothers Studios as a scenic artist where he has been employed since 1937. LESTER had formerly been employed by MGM and Paramount Studios in a similar capacity. He has also been employed by various theatres in Boston and San Francisco prior to coming to Los Angeles.

He was active in the labor troubles in the motion picture industry in 1937, when the Communists are reported to have attempted to take over the motion picture business from the IATSE-AFL in Hollywood. Evidence of his membership in the Communist Party is not available but it is reported that he is a close friend and associate of DON KING and NORVAL CRUTCHER. KING is a member of the Valley Branch (Branch K), Northwest Section, Communist Party, Los Angeles County, and is employed by Warner Brothers. His 1943 Communist Party membership book was 36018-NM and his CommunistParty name was ARTHUR CARVER.

NORVAL CRUTCHER is an employee of Warner Brothers as a laboratory technician and is a member of Local 683. He joined the Communist Party September 20, 1937, and used the Communist Party name NORMAN NEWMAN and was assigned to the Industrial Section, Studio Unit No. 1, and is one of the most active Communist Party workers in the motion picture industry.

LESTER held a meeting of the Valley Democratic Committee at his home October 28, 1943, at which meeting about twenty-five people were present. He also attended a joint meeting of the Woodland Hills and Reseda Branches of the Valley Democratic Committee at the home of HUGO BUTLER in Tarzana. The Hollywood Democratic Committee and its branches are considered Communist fronts in the Los Angeles area.

JACK E. BARBEE, First Vice-Commander, Cinema Post No. 561.

BARBEE lives at [redacted] No other information about him is available at this time. b6 b7C

JOE M. TIMOTHY, Second Vice-Commander, Cinema Post No. 561.

TIMOTHY lives at [redacted] No other information is available at this time.

NORVAL D. CRUTCHER, Adjutant, Cinema Post No. 561.

CRUTCHER lives at [redacted] b6 b7C He joined the Communist Party at Los Angeles on September 20, 1937, and assumed the Communist Party name NORMAN NEWMAN. He was assigned to the Industrial Section, Studio Unio No. 1, of the Communist Party of Los Angeles County. In 1937, his Communist Party membership book was number 85228; 1938 Communist Party book 58687.

CRUTCHER has been and is now very active in Communist and Communist front activities. He was a member of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League and also a member of the American Peace Mobilization. He is now very active in the Hollywood Democratic Committee, a Communist Front, and is now the secretary of that organization. He is also a member of the Executive Board of that organization. He is active in the Fifteenth Congressional Legislative Council, a Communist controlled pressure group. He is active in the motion picture labor committee. He led the drive for funds for the Political Action Committee. He is the secretary of Film Laboratory Technicians 683 and has been an employee of Warner Brothers Studios for approximately ten years. His wife, MIRIAM CRUTCHER, joined the Communist Party in 1939 and assumed the Communist Party name MICHELE O'HARA and was assigned to "Studio Special".

CRUTCHER and ROBERT DESTER, above mentioned, were the original organizers of Cinema Post 561. CRUTCHER was a member of the "High Pressure Committee" to attack the records of certain congressmen during the summer recess of Congress in 1943. CRUTCHER'S name does not appear on the official list of "current officers" of Post 561 although a letter dated August 1, 1944, on the official stationery of "Cinema Post, American Legion, 6461 Sunset Boulevard, Hollywood, California", signed NORVAL CRUTCHER was in CRUTCHER'S handwriting.

Re: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE

INTERNAL SECURITY - C

This letter stated in part the following:

"The Cinema Post was originally organized as a veterans' organization to take care of all union members returning from service in World War 2 as well as to those who served in World War 1. . . .

"For these reasons, we feel that the Cinema Post is of the utmost importance to every union and guild in the industry. In spite of the lack of active union support, the Cinema Post already has a membership of more than 200 veterans. We believe we have a potential membership between 4,000 and 5,000. A post of this size would wield enormous influence within the American Legion and thus benefit every union.

"The Cinema Post would like a contribution from your local toward the purchase of our post colors. We would like to feel that our colors will symbolize the unity of purpose between the unions and guilds in Hollywood and the only labor post in the industry.

"We would also like permission to send a speaker to your executive board or membership meeting to explain in more detail what the Cinema Post means to you".

WILLIAM JOSEPH SMART, Post Chaplain.

SMART was one of the original forty-two members forming the Cinema Post. No other information is available about him at this time.

JOE MARKS, Post Historian.

There are several JOE MARKS recorded in the indices of the Los Angeles Bureau Office but the record of no one by that name appears to fit into the motion picture industry. No other information about this party is available at present.

ELVIN BERT WILLIAMS, Sergeant at Arms, Cinema Post No. 561.

WILLIAMS lives at [redacted] b6 at the initial meeting on June 27, 1943. The files of the Los Angeles Bureau Office reflect nothing about this party except the fact mentioned.

On July 24, 1944, a new roster of officers was elected and on August 1, 1944, these new officers were installed for Cinema Post No. 561. They are the following:

PAUL SUTTON, Commander, [redacted] b6 b7C

ABE A. SCHWARTZ, First Vice-Commander, [redacted]

ROBERT ROTHSTEIN, Second Vice-Commander, [redacted]

LORAINE WHITE (RN), Adjutant, [redacted] b6 b7C

PHIL B. ENGELBERG, Finance Officer, [redacted]

JEAN ARMAND, Historian, [redacted]

ROBERT WATSON LESTER (LEICESTER) (LEICHESTER), Chaplain, [redacted] b6 b7C

JACK F. BARBEE, Sergeant at Arms, [redacted]

The following is a short digest of the information in the files of the Los Angeles Bureau Office relative to the above named officers.

PAUL SUTTON, Commander, [redacted] is reported as being about twenty-two years of age and is an American born citizen. In October, 1942, he was air raid warden and his telephone was Superior 82796. At that time he reported J. A. BLICKENDERFER as being seditious. Investigation revealed that the complaint was groundless.

Director, FBI September 9, 1944

Re: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE
MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

About July 1, 1944, he was employed as secretary by Mrs. GILDA DAHLBERG. At that time, Mrs. DAHLBERG, who is a wealthy New York woman, was living at the Beverly Hills Hotel and had reported the theft of a diamond ring valued at $15,000, which disappeared somewhere between New York City and Los Angeles.

An investigation of this matter was begun and is now pending. Mrs. DAHLBERG returned to the East the latter part of July, 1944. It was reported that while Mrs. DAHLBERG was here and during the time SUTTON was her secretary, she was entertaining "effeminate appearing young men" as many as five or six at a time. Mrs. DAHLBERG has an address of [redacted], and also [redacted] Nothing further is known of the activities of SUTTON. b6 b7C

ABE A. SCHWARTZ, First Vice-Commander:- The files of the Los Angeles Bureau Office reflect the names of several individuals by the name of ABE SCHWARTZ. It has not been possible to definitely determine which SCHWARTZ is the one mentioned here, as none of those mentioned appear to have any connection with the motion picture industry.

ROBERT (BOB) ROTHSTEIN, Second Vice-Commander:- No record of this party other than his election of Second Vice-Commander of the Cinema Post on July 24, 1944, appeared in the files of the Los Angeles Office.

LORAINE WHITE, Adjutant:- The files of the Los Angeles Bureau Office reflect that LORAINE WHITE is a registered nurse; however, she is at present working at Columbia Studio Laboratory. On May 31, 1944, she reported to the Los Angeles Bureau Office that BYRON MURRAY, an employee of Columbia Studio Laboratory, was endeavoring to evade the draft.

On July 24, 1944, she was elected Adjutant of the American Legion Post 561. It is not known whether she is acting in that capacity as it appears that NORVAL D. CRUTCHER was sending out letters on the stationery of Post 561 as Adjutant of that post as late as August 11, 1944.

PHILIP ENGELBERG, Finance Officer, Cinema Post 561, was one of the original forty-two members who formed Cinema Post 561. His business is listed as "kodaks", 3530½ Sunset Boulevard, Los Angeles, California.

Director, FBI September 9, 1944

A Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted] informed that a Peoples World Fund Drive meeting was held at [redacted] [redacted]. Agents of the Los Angeles Bureau Office observed the automobile registered to ENGELBERG parked in front of this address on this occasion. b7D b6 b7C

JEAN ARMAND, Historian, Cinema Post 561:- The records of the Los Angeles Bureau Office show that ARMAND was an investigator for the OPA and made a complaint to the Los Angeles Bureau Office an an alleged violation of the OPA by some Koreans. No investigation was conducted. At some months past, ARMAND has been the campaign manager for HAL STYLES, candidate for Congress in the Fifteenth Congressional District in Los Angeles.

ROBERT WATSON LESTER (LEICESTER) (LEICHESTER), Chaplain, Cinema Post 561:- LESTER was elected Chaplain of the Cinema Post in July, 1944. He was the First Commander of this post. See above for further information.

JACK F. BARBEE, Sergeant at Arms, Cinema Post 561:- BARBEE lives at [redacted] He was elected First Vice-Commander of the Cinema Post 561 in June, 1943. He was elected Sergeant at Arms of the Cinema Post July 24, 1944. The Los Angeles Bureau Office has no further information relative to the activities of BARBEE. b6 b7C

He was assigned to the Industrial Section, Studio Unit No. 1, Communist Party of Los Angeles County. His 1937 Communist Party book number was 85228; and his 1938 book number was 58687. CRUTCHER has been and is now very active in Communist and Communist front activities.

He was a member of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League and the American Peace Mobilization. CRUTCHER'S name does not appear on the official list of "current officers" of Post 561, although a letter dated August 10, 1944, on the official stationery of "Cinema Post, American Legion, 6461 Sunset Boulevard, Hollywood, California" was signed "Norval D. Crutcher, Adjutant" in CRUTCHER'S handwriting.

This letter stated in part the following: "The Cinema Post was originally formed as a veterans' organization to take care of all union members returning from service in World War II as well as those who served in World War I. . . . . For these reasons we feel that the Cinema Post is of the utmost importance to every union and guild in the industry. In spite of the lack of active union support the Cinema Post already has a membership of more than 200 veterans. We believe we have a potential membership of between 4000 and 5000. A post of this size would wield an enormous influence within the American Legion and thus benefit everyone. . . . . The Cinema Post would like a contribution from your local toward the purchase of our post colors. We would like to feel that our colors will symbolize the unity of purpose between the unions and guilds in Hollywood and the only labor post in the industry.

"We would also like permission to send a speaker to your executive board ormembership meeting to explain in more detail what the Cinema Post means to you."

She also admitted attending meetings at the home of ORLA LAIR, who is the organizer for the Van Nuys Branch, 20th CD Section, Los Angeles County Communist Party.

507564 - PAUL LE PERE [redacted]

The Los Angeles Bureau Office files reflect that this party appears to be identical with FRANCISCO LE PORE, with aliases Paul Le Por, Paul Le Pere, Francisco Paolo Imaculato Le Pore, who, according to the information in the file, was born in Italy December 8, 1912, and arrived in the United States in 1913; that he filed his declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States on June 5, 1941, and registered under the Selective Service Act on March 9, 1942, and holds alien registration card No. [redacted] b6 b7C

Complaint was made that he had flares in his room at the Aloha Hotel, 6731 Leland Way, Hollywood. A search of his premises was made in July, 1942, with negative results.

He registered for the Selective Training and Service Act on March 9, 1942, with Local Draft Board 26A, Fairfield County, Franklin State School, South Norwalk, Connecticut, and has 4-C classification with order number 2621. He was unemployed in September, 1942, but had been an actor on the stage, the radio, and in the movies at the RKO Studios.

His father, CHARLES LE PERE, his mother, his brother, JOHN, and sisters, CORA and MARY, reside on [redacted] b6 b7C
He has stated that he has no relatives in the armed forces of any country.

The records further reflect that Le Pere has stated that he had applied for enlistment as a camera expert in the United States Army on January 30, 1942, in Washington, D. C., but was turned down because of "not having proper qualifications"; that he tried again to enlist in the United States Army at Fort Douglas, Utah, in April, 1942; and that he was waiting to hear from that application on September 1, 1942. No more recent information is on record relative to those matters. He was also investigated for violation of the curfew regulations, but the United States Attorney declined to take action.

507565 - JOHN ALBERT LOCKERT

[redacted] b6 b7C

The files of the Los Angeles Bureau Office reflect that LOCKERT joined the Communist Party on November 21, 1933; that he was American born and was 30 years of age in [redacted] that he was a teacher of mathematics and zoology and research; that he was recruited by H. PARKER and was on the SERA in 1934; that he was a member of the San Francisco Section L in August, 1937; that he was a member of the Townsend Club; that he was unitorganizer and member of the Section Buro; and that he registered to vote as a Communist in 1940 in Burbank, California. He also registered to vote in 1936 as a Communist. He sponsored Communist candidates for office in 1936 and 1940 and supported ORLA E. LAIR for Congress in 1940 and WILLIAM E. SHERWOOD for the Assembly in 1936.

The record further reflects that he sent a letter and a telegram urging the release of EARL BROWDER from the Atlanta Penitentiary on May 20, 1941.

He was also the educational director of the 20th Congressional District and he was the organizer of the Tujunga Branch of the Communist Party in 1939, 11th Congressional District Section, now the 20th Congressional District.

LOCKERT'S Communist Party membership book in 1934 was 37857; in 1935 was 16549; in 1936 was 13615; in 1937 was 75515. He is now in the United States Army.

507573 - ALBERT MYERS

[redacted] b6 b7C

The records of the Los Angeles Office reflect that ALBERT MYERS also known as ALBERT MEYERS, [redacted] was a member of the Northwest Section, Los Angeles County Communist Party. The source of this information further stated that this individual was included in Branch K of the Northwest Section.

Information is also available to indicate that FLORENCE MYERS of the same address, Burbank, California, is a member of the same branch and section of the Communist Party. The relationship between FLORENCE and ALBERT MYERS is not definitely known, but is believed to be that of husband and wife.

507576 - JOHN L. O'NEIL

[redacted] b6 b7C

The records of the Los Angeles Bureau Office reflect that O'NEIL was one of the original signers of the application for a charter for Cinema Post 561.

Further information in the Los Angeles Office is that JOHN O'NEIL wrote a letter to Senora, California, which was published in the "People's World" in October, 1942. The subject matter of this communication was the desirability of public aid in the form of pensions. The "People's World" is the reputed West Coast organ of the Communist Party.

507579 - HARRY C. PHILLIPS

[redacted] b6 b7C

The records of the Los Angeles Bureau Office reflects that PHILLIPS filed a suit on a war risk insurance claim in the United States District Court in Los Angeles, California, to secure benefit under a $10,000 war risk insurance policy, claiming disability from April 20, 1919. The result of this litigation was that the case was dismissed with prejudice and without costs on September 10, 1934.

507583 - GLENN A. PRATT

[redacted] b6 b7C

The records in the Los Angeles Bureau Office reflect that PRATT is a member of the Screen Office Employees Guild and that he is the business manager of that guild. As such business manager he has functions to perform "too numerous to mention". His wife also attends a continuous round of meetings. He attends the conference of studio unions bi-monthly, sits in with labor management and the War Manpower Wage Stabilization and related groups. He migrated to Hollywood after graduating from the University of Arizona and has been successful as Fox West Coast Theatre manager in Arizona. He fully intended to go back to Arizona but got married and remained in Hollywood. He worked as cashier at Columbia before he was elected SOEG's first president. He resigned to become business manager, then came the war, and he went to officers' candidate training. He is out again due to the elimination of that branch of the service, but only the Army and his draft board know for how long. This information was revealed in the SOEG bulletin. Informants of the Los Angeles Bureau Office state that PRATT has consistently followed the Communist Party line, although no record is available that he is a member of the Communist Party.

PRATT has also been reported to have talked matters over with two organizers of the Northwest Section of the Los Angeles County Communist Party, who held a conference during the early part of November, 1943, for the purpose of having a representative of the SOEG present at a meeting in January, 1944, of the International Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators, and Paper Hangers - AFL, which which union the Screen Office Employees Guild is affiliated. At this time PRATT, the business manager of SOEG, reportedly stated he thought the International Brotherhood should control the entertainment field. The source of the above information related that a meeting was to be held on November 6, 1943, at which time several known Communist officers of the SOEG would be present to discuss the possible control of the entertainment field by the International Brotherhood.

The "Daily Worker", alleged Communist Party newspaper, for November 26, 1943, in an article by DAVIS PLATT stated, "The SOEG of Hollywood, California, was strengthened considerably by the return from the army of GLENN PRATT, its able andpopular business representative." It further stated that the SOEG had increased its strength in the industry and was then bargaining for higher wages for all office workers.

507589 - HOWARD S. ROBERTSON

[redacted]

b6
b7C

The files of the Los Angeles Bureau Office reflect that the California Joint Fact Finding Committee on un-American activities conducted hearings in Los Angeles in July, 1941. An individual member of the Sound Local of IATSE testified during these hearings concerning his association with the USTG in 1939. He testified concerning the names of individuals who were running the USTG including HOWARD ROBERTSON, its president. According to this witness bundles of the "People's World", alleged Communist Party organ on the West Coast, were frequently left in the USTG's office for general distribution.

Informants of the Los Angeles Bureau Office report that ROBERTSON was the right hand man of JEFF KIBRE in 1939 when KIBRE tried to take over the SOEG and at that time KIBRE was trying to convert the SOEG - AFL Union to Communism.

Informant stated that ROBERTSON became involved with WILLIAM BIOFF when BIOFF operated his extortion game in the motion picture business and was ousted as president of the SOEG and was compelled to make an affidavit favorable to BIOFF before he could get work. Informant stated that ROBERTSON was reinstated in the union but has not held office and is now very quiet and takes no part in Communist or subversive activities.

It will be remembered that WILLIE BIOFF has been convicted for violating the income tax law and is now serving a long term in the Federal penitentiary.

507591 - SEYMOUR ROSENBERG

[redacted]

b6
b7C

The files of the Los Angeles Bureau Office reflect that SEYMOUR ROSENBERG on October 25, 1943, was at the Tropics Cafe, 1525 North Vine

Street, Hollywood, California, and was reported by SAM HAYS, an employee of the National Broadcasting Company, as representing himself as being "an investigator for the FBI". ROSENBERG at the time was in army uniform. Investigation was made by Special Agents R. E. BUSH and F. HUTCHINSON of the Los Angeles Bureau Office and it was ascertained that he was attached to the Military Police unit stationed at the Hollywood Police Station. Under the circumstances his connection with the army and the Hollywood Police was taken into consideration and no further investigation of the matter was conducted.

The remaining persons on the list of approximately 165 members had no records in the files of the Los Angeles Bureau Office except that their names appeared on the list of 42 members who made application for the original charter for Cinema Post 561 or on the list of members of that Post as of August 1, 1944.

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

Practically all Communist activity in the Hollywood motion picture industry is devoted to the present political campaign. The Hollywood Democratic Committee has become the leading spirit in Communist political activities, although not officially a part of the Democratic Party. The League of American Writers has been dormant and the Hollywood Writers Mobilization has assumed the role of carrying on the writers' activities. The Hollywood Democratic Committee is planning a big rally for Senator HARRY S. TRUMAN for Oct. 16, 1944. It has also put out the "Free Press," 500,000 copies and it is to put out two other editions before the general election. HAL STYLES, Democratic nominee in the 19th Congressional District on the Democratic ticket, has been exposed as a former Ku Klux Klan kleagle and grand cyclops. The Conference of Studio Unions has called a strike over a jurisdictional dispute. HERBERT K. SOREL is in charge of the Communist bloc. The Motion Picture Labor Committee for Political Action is affiliated with the United AFL Political Action Committee.

DETAILS: AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA.

Source A has informed that practically all Communist activity in the Hollywood sector, including the motion picture industry, is being devoted to the present political campaign. The Communist Political Association is devoting much of its attention to the Hollywood movement because of the prestige of the motion picture industry and the ability of prominent persons who "front" for the Communist program to gain public attention.

Source A also advises that the Communist activity in the Hollywood trade unions is being accelerated, and there is now an attempt to utilize a jurisdictional dispute between several of the unions to increase Communist influence in those unions which are still free from Communist control. This situation is not separated from the political campaign mentioned above. The two are tied in and both move together to accomplish the same objective, that is, political control.

HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE (not officially a part of the Democratic Party)

Source A also advised that this Communist front organization has now become the leading spirit in Communist political activities in Southern California. Although not affiliated with the Democratic Party, it has for all practical purposes become the moving influence in that party in Southern California. All candidates running for office, both for Congress and the California State Assembly, on the Democratic ticket are either actual members of the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE or cooperate with it for campaign purposes.

Cooperating with the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE is the HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION. This latter group has now absorbed the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS, Hollywood Chapter, according to recent reports. This HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION has now become, in effect, the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS under another name.

In a paid announcement published in the Hollywood trade papers, VARIETY and HOLLYWOOD REPORTER, of October 2, 1944, the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE announced a political meeting would be held under its sponsorship on October 16 at the Shrine Auditorium in Los Angeles, at which nationally known speakers would appear, the principal one being Senator HARRY S. TRUMAN. A list of approximately six hundred names appeared as sponsors for the meeting, all listed as "men and women of the film colony." Source A stated that among this list appear many known Communists and followers of the Communist Party line mentioned in previous reports of this nature. All are persons prominent in the motion picture industry as executives, actors, writers, directors, technicians, and labor leaders.

Source A further advised that in addition to this and like activity, members of the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE representing that Committee are going from door to door working for its program.

The Committee now has issued a newspaper publication called FREE PRESS. This organ is issued in newspaper style, has a claimed circulation of 500,000 copies, and the content is written by known Communists under their signatures. All matter contained in this sheet follows the Communist Party line.

Source A stated that the Hollywood PRESS-TIMES, another publication along the same line, is issued weekly and contains matter almost identical with the FREE PRESS. This publication also cooperates with the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.

According to Source A, the Committee also furnishes speakers and entertainment in the form of playlets and skits for all gatherings where Communists are active, in the CIO, the AFL, labor unions which will accept the program, and all political meetings likewise. Arrangements with an organization called the ACTORS' LAB, a Communist controlled school for the development of actors for the motion picture industry, has been made, and this organization furnishes this entertainment.

HAL STYLES, a radio broadcaster, was selected and endorsed by the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE as a candidate for Congress in the 15th Congressional District on the Democratic ticket to run against the incumbent, JOHN M. COSTELLO. STYLES received the nomination in the primaries; however, an examination of his background revealed that at one time he had been the Kleagle and Exalted Cyclops in the Ku Klux Klan in 1927 and 1928 at Jamaica, New York, which was exposed in the Los Angeles Examiner beginning September 21, 1944. His name in Jamaica was HARRY J. STYLES, according to the Examiner, and he changed it to HAL STYLES after coming to Los Angeles. The expose further stated that STYLES had been indicted, tried and convicted of the crime of perjury at Jamaica, New York, and sentenced to from two to four years in prison. It may be stated that this conviction was reversed on appeal and the case was not tried again, but was dismissed without further trial on motion of defendant's counsel.

This discovery and expose caused commotion within the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE, and after due consideration it withdrew its endorsement of STYLES, and some AFL labor unions which had endorsed his candidacy also withdrew their endorsements. However, the Communist element in control of the Committee wanted to continue the endorsement of STYLES, but in deference to the objections of certain motion picture producers who have supported the Committee, they allowed their withdrawal to stand.

The Los Angeles Daily News, the only daily newspaper which had supported STYLES in the primaries, on October 6, 1944, announced editorially that it would support GORDON L. McDONOUGH, the Republican nominee against STYLES.

HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION

Source A has informed that this organization has now absorbed the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS and become a front for the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS, which has completely ceased operation under its own name. He further advised that all those formerly connected with the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS now operate through two organizations, the HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION FOR DEFENSE on the political and propaganda fields, and the SCREEN WRITERS GUILD, an independent labor union representing writers in the motion picture industry.

COUNCIL OF HOLLYWOOD GUILDS AND UNIONS

Source A has informed that this organization is composed of twenty-three unions and guilds in the motion picture industry. It is Communist controlled and has become the most powerful group in Hollywood. It was formed originally to combat another anti-Communist group. It has now branched out into other fields; it is cooperating with the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE, the HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION, and all other Communist controlled groups. It has under its jurisdiction more than two-thirds of all studio workers. The same process is being carried out here as was followed by the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS when it first set up, and then buried itself in the HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION.

Source A advised that the CONFERENCE OF STUDIO UNIONS, long known as a Communist dominated bloc of unions, is now being absorbed by the larger COUNCIL OF HOLLYWOOD GUILDS AND UNIONS. Source A stated that this is the regularly established process of face-changing which has long been used. The Conference will disappear and later emerge within the Council, not as a group but as individual unions, but those who controlled the Conference will control the larger bloc of twenty-three unions.

CONFERENCE OF STUDIO UNIONS

Source A advised that this bloc of ten unions is now engaged in a strike situation in the industry. A jurisdictional dispute has arisen between ASSOCIATED PROPERTYMEN, Local 44, IATSE, and SCREEN SET DESIGNERS, Local 1421, AFL. At this writing the Set Designers, supported by other unions of the Conference, principally the MOVING PICTURE PAINTERS, Local 644, and STUDIO MACHINISTS, Local 1185.

Lined up on one side in the dispute is the Communist group, CONFERENCE OF STUDIO UNIONS, and on the other the anti-Communist unions. This dispute will be used by the Communist forces in an attempt to take over some of the membership of the opposition. The matter is now in conflict. HERBERT K. SORRELL, a known Communist, is in charge of the affairs of the Communist bloc, and RICHARD WALSH, International President of the IATSE, of New York City, now in Hollywood, represents the opposition.

Source A has further advised that the LABORATORY TECHNICIANS, Local 683, IATSE, has been forced by WALSH to withdraw from the CONFERENCE OF STUDIO UNIONS. This local union is thoroughly controlled by Communists, but in order to save its charter it agreed to withdraw from the Conference, and has done so. However, this has not changed in any way the Communist control of the union.

MOTION PICTURE LABOR COMMITTEE FOR POLITICAL ACTION

Source A advises that the Labor Political Action Committee, composed of Hollywood studio AFL local unions, is now completely in Communist hands. At the start there were several non-Communist unions which belonged to the Committee. But these unions, seeing the predominance of Communists and their influence, dropped out and now this Political Action Committee is completely in Communist hands.

This Political Action Committee is affiliated with the UNITED AFL POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE. This latter is not affiliated with the CIO POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE. However, the Hollywood group, MOTION PICTURE LABOR COMMITTEE FOR POLITICAL ACTION, cooperates wholeheartedly with the CIO apparatus. It also is affiliated with the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.

OPPOSITION TO COMMUNIST ACTIVITY

Source A has stated that all opposition has disappeared practically. An organization called MOTION PICTURE ALLIANCE is inactive, practically. The present political elections have absorbed all activity with the exception of the usual propaganda agencies, such as the PEOPLE'S EDUCATIONAL CENTER, and several other such groups.

Source A has stated that it can be said at the present time that the entire Hollywood motion picture industry and its surrounding and affiliated influences have been subordinated, with the exception of the actual making of pictures, to the present political campaign.

Origin

The Hollywood Writers' Mobilization came into existence late in 1941 or early in 1942, shortly after the outbreak of war. It is an offshoot of the League of American Writers which is a Communist front group. The reasons for creation of the Hollywood Writers' Mobilization lie in the fact that the League of American Writers became publicly known as a Communist controlled organization. The League of American Writers was established at the First Congress of American Revolutionary Writers at New York City in 1935, the call for which was signed by such well-known Communists as Earl Browder, Clarence Hathaway and Alexander Trachtenberg. The National Council of the newly formed League of American Writers affiliated the League with the International Union of Revolutionary Writers which had its origin in Kharkov, Russia, in 1930.

The Hollywood chapter of the League of American Writers was established in 1937, and from its inception included a number of well-known Communists among its officers and members and consistently followed the Communist Party line. Prior to the Nazi invasion of Russia it was stridently isolationist and was one of the most active backers of the American Peace Mobilization. Following the Nazi invasion of Russia on June 22, 1941, the League of American Writers attempted to do a complete "about-face"; however, it had become so openly allied with the Communist Party line that its usefulness as a propaganda agency was in a large measure destroyed. It, therefore, became necessary to create a new organization. Immediately after the outbreak of war in December, 1941, a series of conferences resulted in the creation of the Hollywood Writers' Mobilization. Its personnel included writers in the motion picture industry who had theretofore been affiliated with the League of American Writers. The Chairman was Robert Rossen, a screen writer who was a member of Branch A, Northwest Section of the Communist Party in Los Angeles. Rossen remained in office until a recent election in July, 1944. In 1943, he held Communist Party Book #2511. Rossen had formerly been Executive Secretary of the Screen Writers' Guild, a Communist controlled labor union composed of motion picture screen writers.

Organization and Early Activities

According to Los Angeles Confidential Informant [redacted] b7D
[redacted] who is thoroughly familiar with Communist activities in the motion picture field, the Hollywood Writers' Mobilization was sponsored by the following eight Guilds all of which are Communist controlled:

|---|---|
| Screen Writers' Guild | Screen Cartoonists' Guild |
| Radio Writers' Guild | American Newspaper Guild |
| Screen Publicists' Guild | Independent Publicists |
| Screen Readers' Guild | Song Writers' Protective Association |

This informant advised that while the total membership of these Guilds is approximately 7,500 the conclusion must not be drawn that the membership of the Hollywood Writers' Mobilization is 7,500, as the latter is operated by representatives or delegates from these Guilds and probably does not number more than twenty-five persons. It is described as more or less a "steering committee" for activities of writers in the motion picture industry. This informant advised that actually a small group of persons control, operate and direct the Hollywood Writers' Mobilization, including such individuals as John Howard Lawson, Robert Rossen, Francis Faragoh and Herbert Biberman all of whom are known members of the Communist Party. The informant has described the Hollywood Writers' Mobilization as a "paper organization stooge" for the League of American Writers through which the latter continues to operate as a propaganda agency.

The announced purpose of the organization was to mobilize the writers in the screen industry to assist in the war effort, and particularly to assist the various governmental and military agencies in the preparation of propaganda material for use either against the enemy or for general morale purposes at home. According to the Los Angeles informant, its primary purpose was to provide material for camp shows, slanted according to the Communist Party line.

The Hollywood Writers' Mobilization became active about February, 1942, and according to informants it lost no opportunity to inject phases of Communist propaganda into all its programs. For example, it is reported that wherever possible it demanded a second front, freedom for India, independence for Puerto Rico, racial equality and similar material parallel to the Communist Party line. It developed an official connection with OEM through contact with the Information Division of that agency. The contacts through whom this arrangement was effected had formerly been engaged in the writing field in Hollywood. As a result two or three issues of the "Communique," official publication of the Hollywood Writers' Mobilization, were sent through the mails under the official White House - OEM frank. According to the masthead of the publication it was produced "in cooperation with OEM."

The group also soon established connections with the Office of War Information and in November, 1942, several of its members were engaged in writing a series of short subjects requested by OWI. In March, 1943, an article in "Variety" reported that the Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs would make transcripts of the OWI - HWM air show for broadcasts in foreign languages. The air show referred to was a radio program entitled "Free World Theater Air Show" which was instituted and produced jointly by OWI and the Hollywood Writers' Mobilization. "Variety" articles indicated that the HWM held a meeting of forty writers to supply ideas for this program under the chairmanship of John Wexley, who is known to be a member of the Communist Party. The Free World Theater audience was estimated at five million. Persons connected with the preparation of Free World Theater programs included such known Communist Party writers as Jay Gorney, Edward Eliscu, Henry Myers, writers of the propaganda musical comedy "Meet The People" and such well-known Communist Party front members as Paul Robeson, Lillian Hellman and John Garfield.

The HWM also wrote and produced a series of short propaganda plays for OWI for use in Army camps and industrial plants. A list of those assisting in this phase of activity included well-known members of the League of American Writers whose services apparently were secured through cooperation between the League of American Writers and the HWM. In addition to these activities, the HWM worked closely with Nelson Poynter, who until July, 1943, was Coordinator of Government Films for OWI. Poynter allegedly passed on all Government films before acceptance and is said to have demanded a definite pro-Russian slant as a prerequisite to acceptance. He associated himself with the Hollywood Writers' Mobilization and worked closely with such known Communist Party writers as Robert Rossen, Waldo Salt, Frank Tuttle and Fred Rinaldo. Poynter's office was discontinued in July, 1943, due to a cut in OWI appropriations.

Sponsorship of the Fifth Writers' Congress

In conjunction with the University of California at Los Angeles, the Hollywood Writers' Mobilization jointly sponsored the Fifth Writers' Congress held at Los Angeles in October, 1943. Los Angeles informants reported that this was in reality the Fifth Congress of the League of American Writers, but was not termed such due to the fact that the League of American Writers had become publicly known as a Communist dominated group. The California Legislative Fact Finding Committee immediately branded the Fifth Writers' Congress as subject to Communist instigation and control. A brochure announcing the Congress listed the different committees responsible for the various phases of the program of the Congress. A study of the personnel so listed disclosed that it was composed almost exclusively of known Communist Party members or members of Communist Party front groups, most of whom were members of the League of American Writers. It was also determined that just prior to the opening of the Congress, a meeting was held of prominent screen writers who would be active at the Congress.

The Director

This meeting was held at the home of Waldo Salt, member of the Executive Committee of the Northwest Section of the Communist Party in Hollywood, and was attended by Robert Rossen, Chairman of the HWM, as well as the Chairmen of a number of the committees for the coming Writers' Congress. Also in attendance were Carl Winter, Executive Secretary of the Communist Party for Los Angeles County and Elizabeth Leach, organizer of the Northwest Section of the Communist Party, as well as a number of other Communist Party functionaries. It was reported that the entire Northwest Section of the Communist Party, which includes the majority of Communist members in the motion picture industry, considered the coming Writers' Congress of primary importance.

The Congress was held as scheduled and was attended by approximately 1,500 writers from all over the country. According to Los Angeles Confidential Informant [redacted] the HWM was the medium whereby the Communist control of the entire proceedings was established and maintained. Leading Communist writers in Hollywood allegedly attended and dominated every session. b7D

Production of Documentary Films For OWI

In June, 1944, it was reported that the Hollywood Writers' Mobilization would produce a number of documentary films for the Overseas Branch of OWI. This arrangement reportedly was made through Robert Riskin, Chief of the Overseas Bureau of Films for OWI, a former motion picture producer in Hollywood who was a member of the League of American Writers and a close associate of John Howard Lawson and Robert Rossen.

An article in the "People's World," West Coast Communist news organ, dated June 9, 1944, indicated that a committee of the Hollywood Writers' Mobilization would have responsibility for writing and producing all documentary films for overseas distribution. Among those named as participating in this program are:

|---|---|
| John F. Cohee | Professor Franklin Fearing |
| Philip Dunne | Robert Rossen |
| James Hilton | Charles Brackett |
| Marc Connelly | Howard Estabrook |
| Frances Goodrich | Albert Hackett |
| John Houseman | Talbert Jennings |
| Howard Koch | Emmett Lavery |
| John Howard Lawson | Murray McCall, Jr. |
| Allan Rivkin | Allan Scott |
| Harry Tugend | |

Of the individuals named Cohee, Rossen and Lawson are known to be members of the Communist Party and extremely active. All of the other individuals have been associated with one or more Communist Party front groups and most of them were members of the League of American Writers.

The Director

In July, 1944, it was reported that Philip Dunne, former Hollywood screen writer and next in authority to Robert Riskin of OWI, appeared in Hollywood to complete arrangements for the production of these pictures by the HWM. On July 7, 1944, Dunne spoke before a meeting of the HWM at the Beverly Hills Hotel outlining the program and stating its objectives. Also speaking at this time were Albert Maltz and Robert Rossen, both of whom are Communist Party members. An editorial board was set up to direct the writing of the script for the Overseas Branch of OWI. The following known Communist Party members are on this board:

|---|---|
| John Howard Lawson | Robert Rossen |
| Sidney Buchman | Meta Reis |

All of the remaining members of this board have been identified with one or more Communist front groups.

The August 7, 1944 issue of the "Daily Variety" reported that a program of eleven short subjects and five newsreel bulletins has been arranged for production by the HWM. The article states that the films will be produced in various Hollywood studios with players from the Screen Actors' Guild and writers from the Hollywood Writers' Mobilization. The pictures planned for production, according to the article, include the following:

1. "It's Murder". This film will be produced at Columbia Studios from a script by Henry Blankfort. Blankfort is Executive Secretary of Branch D, Northwest Section of the Los Angeles County Communist Political Association. He has also been script writer for Communist Party radio programs.

2. "The Story With Two Endings". This film is said to be planned to prevent postwar inflation. It is reportedly to be written by Harold Buchman and Lou Solomon. Both Buchman and Solomon are members of Branch A, Northwest Section, Los Angeles County Communist Political Association.

3. "When He Comes Home". This film is said to treat the problems of returning soldiers. It is to be made by Darryl F. Zanuck and written by Paul Trivers. Trivers held 1943 Communist Party Book #36264 and was a member of Branch A, Northwest Section, Los Angeles County Communist Party.

4. "So Far So Good". This film allegedly will describe the nation's progress to date on international relations. It is also reportedly to be written by Henry Blankfort, described above as a member of the CPA.

5. "Air Transport Command". This film allegedly deals with military transport forces and reportedly was written by Oscar Saul, presently a member of Branch A. Northwest Section, Los Angeles County Communist Political Association.

6. "World Peace Through World Trade". This film reportedly is being written by Edward Eliscu, who held 1943 Communist Party Book #25115 and was a member of Branch A, Los Angeles County Communist Party in 1943. He is one of the writers of the propaganda musical comedy "Meet The People".

The foregoing films are the only ones actually named in the "Variety" article, although the articles states that the program will embrace generally postwar and international planning as well as Air Cadet recruiting and Red Cross campaigns.

Current Officers

On July 5, 1944, an election of officers of the HWM was held with the following results:

Emmett Lavery - Chairman replacing Robert Rossen
Dr. Franklin Fearing - Professor of Psychology at UCLA, First Vice Chairman
W. F. (Bill) Blowitz - Hollywood Publicist, Second Vice Chairman
John Harmon - Screen writer, Third Vice Chairman
Abram S. Burrows - Screen writer, Treasurer
Howard Estabrook - Writer and associate producer, Secretary

Of the above-listed individuals Blowitz and Burrows have been identified as Communist Party members and all of the others have been affiliated with one or more Communist Party front groups. Of interest in connection with Lavery's election as Chairman is the fact that John Howard Lawson, leading Communist writer in Hollywood and member of the Executive Board of the Northwest Section of the Communist Political Association, conferred with Robert Rossen, former Chairman of the HWM and known Communist Party member, prior to the election. At this time Rossen stated that he had held office for three years but that there was some objection to him and upon the suggestion of Lawson it was agreed that he would decline to run. Lawson is reported to have believed this to be a good idea in order that Rossen might devote himself to the overseas film work of OWI.

RE: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY

Motion Pictures Industry

INTRODUCTION

The information incorporated hereinafter has been made available by a number of confidential informants and reliable sources who are not only familiar with the motion picture industry in Hollywood, California, but who are also well acquainted with activities of the Communist Political Association in the Los Angeles and Hollywood, California areas. One informant who has made available considerable of the background information for this memorandum has been associated with the motion picture industry for a number of years, and in this position, as well as being familiar with Communist activities in the Hollywood area, he has provided information of a reliable nature in the past.

In view of the character and position of the informants supplying the information in this matter, their identities cannot be revealed. It can be stated, however, that all of these informants furnishing information in this regard have been reliable in the past.

BACKGROUND

It has been related that prior to 1933 the Communist International did not realize the possibilities of the motion picture as a propaganda medium. At about this time, however, the "talking" picture was perfected and it is said that the Soviet Union, with its world wide staff of propagandists, assumed the lead in adapting the motion picture for propaganda purposes throughout the world. It is further related that delegations of Russians came to Hollywood to study the American cinema.

RECORDED & INDEXED 100-138754-59

According to a report of an informant, a directive was issued in 1935 by the top structure of the Communist Party in the United States to the effect that there must be an intensive concentration by the Party on Hollywood and the motion picture industry. The directive pointed to the various labor unions connected with the industry and stated that Communists must endeavor to capture the labor unions. The directive also emphasized, according to the informant, that work must be done among the cultural groups in Hollywood, particularly the writers, artists, actors and actresses and others to enlist their assistance in the Communist movement. According to the source, since the issuance of the directive, the influence of the Communist Party (now the Communist Political Association), both direct and indirect, has been one of steady development over a period of ten years. During this time, according to the source, the motion picture industry has been considered by Communists as the principal medium of propaganda for Communist ideas, and consequently a concentrated program of penetration has been centered on the motion picture industry.

EXTENT OF INFILTRATION

As a result of information made available by reliable informants and sources concerning the activities of the Communists in Hollywood, a correlation of this material indicates the following concerning members of the Communist Political Association or Communist front groups in the industry:

Directors and Producers — Among this group there are reported to be nine known Communists and fifteen members of one or more organizations which, according to reliable information, are Communist controlled or influenced. Herbert Biberman, a director, is said to be probably the most outstanding Communist in this field. (100-138754-4 p.66; -24 p.26)

Writers — There are, according to information received, fifty-six known Communists among the writers employed in the various motion picture studios, and the outstanding figure of the writers' group is John Howard Lawson, who is said to have great influence in the Hollywood area. (100-138754-20,35)

Actors and Actresses — Five in this field are said to be known members of the Communist Party (now Communist Political Association) in Hollywood. Twenty-four others are described as being members of Communist front groups. Among the known Communists are said to be Gale Sondergaard, wife of Herbert Biberman; Lucille Ball; Lionel Stander; Rex Ingram. It is said that those taking part in the activities of Communist front groups include James Cagney, Ida Lupino, Franchot Tone, Walter Huston, John Garfield, Frederick March, Philip Merivale, Olivia De Havilland, Orson Welles, Rita Hayworth, Virginia Bruce and Rosiland Russell. (100-138754-4 p.78; -35; -50)

Labor — It is reported that twelve prominent labor leaders in various unions connected with the motion picture industry have been identified as members of the Communist Party. It is further reported that a number of the "rank and file" members of the various unions are also Communists. Herbert K. Correll, who is described as the leading labor figure in the motion picture industry, is stated to be a Communist. As head of the Conference of Studio Unions he is the chief liaison man between labor and the Motion Picture Producers Association. (100-138754-4 p.45 -35)

Miscellaneous — In a group of persons employed in miscellaneous capacities identified with the motion picture industry, there are reportedly twenty-one known Communists. This group includes lawyers, technicians, readers and people in the publicity field. In this group it should be noted that Donald Key King, Publicity Director for Warner Brothers Studio, according to a reliable informant, has been identified as a member of the Communist Party. (100-138754-)

COMMUNIST POLITICAL ASSOCIATION STRUCTURE IN HOLLYWOOD

From information which has been received concerning the organizational structure of the Communist Political Association in the Los Angeles area, it is indicated that a special section, namely the Northwest Section, has been set up for the convenience of Communist work in the motion picture industry. In August, 1944, it was reported that the Northwest Section of the Communist Political Association, was divided into twelve branches with a membership of nearly 600. A number of the branches, according to a reliable informant, were broken down as to the professions of the members, including writers, radio artists, cartoonists, actors and musicians. The remaining branches, according to this informant, were so-called "community" branches. The membership of these branches was indicated to have been limited to people in the motion picture industry and allied cultural groups. Among the people who are identified with the motion picture industry and who hold official capacities in the various branches of the Northwest Section are reported to be Paul Jarrico, screen writer; Ring Lardner, Jr., screen writer; Arnold Manoff, screen writer; Henry Blankfort, screen writer; Sam Moore, screen and radio writer; and Edward Biberman, writer. (100-3-25-906)

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF LABOR GROUPS

As a matter of background, it is related that the Communist Party, in the early 1930's attempted to wrest control from the A.F. of L. through the establishment of the Motion Picture Workers Industrial Union, and between the time of its creation and April, 1935, it had taken in a large number of members and was on the way to becoming the leading union in Hollywood. However, in April, 1935, according to reliable informants, instructions were sent out by the then Central Committee of the Communist Party, that all independent unions were to be liquidated and their members sent into the American Federation of Labor or affiliates with the object of capturing them. In February, 1936, the union was dissolved.

At the present time there are approximately thirty-nine labor organizations of various sorts in the motion picture industry. Some are affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, while the balance are independent unions. (100-138754-4)

Conference of Studio Unions

This group is said to be a small compact unit of delegates and representatives of a bloc of labor unions in the motion picture industry, which is reported to have been taken over and to be under the control of Communists operating through its members in the affiliated unions of the Conference, which have been captured. The Conference of Studio Unions is described as an organization set up to act as the control and steering committee to coordinate and direct Communist activities looking toward taking over all studio workers and their unions. The Conference has ten affiliated locals, including painters, laboratory technicians, office employees, cartoonists, screen set designers, studio machinists, building service employees, special officers and guards, screen publicists and screen analysts, comprising a membership of approximately 8,000. Herbert K. Sorrell is president. He has been identified previously. Norville D. Crutcher, described as a Communist, is the chairman, while D. T. Hayne, Vice Chairman and Russell L. McKnight, Secretary-Treasurer, are reported to be connected with a number of Communist front groups. (100-138754-4)

Hollywood Guild Council

This group is said to have been formed through Communist instigation as a result of the failure of Communists to function within the old International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees which was an autonomous group of local labor unions identified with the American Federation of Labor. The Council is composed of the Screen Writers Guild, the Screen Directors Guild, the Screen Publicists Guild, the Screen Readers Guild, and the Screen Actors Guild. The reported purpose of the Hollywood Guild Council is also said to be to afford a base of operations for Communists to penetrate other labor groups.

The leading group in the Council is the Screen Writers Guild, according to reports received, which Guild was organized by a group of writers who were then members of the John Reed Club of Hollywood, which later became the Hollywood Chapter of the League of American Writers. At its last election in November, 1943, according to information received, the Vice President, the Treasurer and eight members of the Executive Board were stated to be Communist Party members. (100-138754-4)

Another Guild in the Council, namely the Screen Directors Guild, was reportedly organized in February, 1936. It is said that the present officers of this Guild are not known to be Communists, although it does include in its membership a number of persons closely identified with the Communist Movement. (100-138754-4)

The Screen Publicists Guild is reported to have affiliated itself in the past with Communist inspired or influenced groups such as the League of American Writers and the Hollywood Writers Mobilization. (100-138754-4 p.73)

The Screen Readers Guild is alleged to be influenced to a large extent by the Screen Writers Guild. (Ibid. p.74)

The Screen Actors Guild, whose current President is James Cagney, includes a number of prominent actors in the Hollywood area. (Ibid. p.76)

Miscellaneous A. F. of L. Local Unions

Information has been received that there are a number of other local A. F. of L. unions and unions formerly connected with the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees, engaged in the labor field in Hollywood. However, it is reported that there is no great Communist infiltration of these groups. It is said that they may be divided roughly into two categories, namely, in which there are a number of Communist Party members and in which the locals are to a certain extent subject to Communist influence and second, that in which there are a number of anti-Communists and in which the Communist influence is at a minimum. [In February, 1944, it was alleged that a number of independent unions had embarked on a Communist inspired campaign to enter the A. F. of L. for the purpose of exerting influence and ultimately attaining Communist control of the American Federation of Labor structure in Southern California. (100-138754-4, 24,21)

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF INTELLECTUAL GROUPS

A source has pointed out that the Communist Party directive of 1935 referred to hereinbefore, specifically included instructions to concentrate on the so-called intellectual group in the movie industry, including directors, writers, artists, actors, actresses, and highly paid technicians. Reportedly, the purpose of this control is to utilize the motion picture industry as an instrument of propaganda and to cause the production of movies which will serve the interests of the foreign policy of the Soviet Union. It has been pointed out that while there has been an immense program of infiltration into the labor unions, it is nevertheless among the "intellectuals" where the most progress has been made and where Communist sympathy and influence is strongest and most far reaching. It has been indicated that the Communist strategy in handling such groups as the directors, writers, artists, actors, etc., has been to work through the use of front organizations, not openly identified with the Communist Party or Communist Political Association, but which are, nevertheless, controlled by the Communists through official membership.

In 1930, as it is reported, the International Union of Revolutionary Writers, held a convention in Kharkov, Russia, under the instructions of the Communist International. It has been said that the International Union of Revolutionary Writers was responsible for the ultimate formation of the League of American Writers in the United States, now operating almost entirely through the Hollywood Writers Mobilization. At about the same time, as it is reported, another organization was set up in the Soviet Union known as the International Union of Revolutionary Theater. This group has been pointed to as the parent of a number of sub-organizations in the United States including the Workers Theaters, Theater Groups, Little Theaters, and others. The League of Workers Theaters, created in New York City in about 1932 was changed in name to the "New Theater League." A number of persons closely identified with the Communist Movement have, in the past, served in executive positions in this organization. (100-138754-4)

Other similar groups referred to by sources of information as being in this category, have been the Contemporary Theater, Inc., and the Hollywood Theater Alliance.

In Hollywood during the time of the existence of the American Peace Mobilization and its predecessor groups, it is reported that there were a number of local groups affiliated with this movement which, according to informants, involved a number of movie industry personalities from the "intellectual" field. Informants have pointed out that this group, local to Hollywood, in the order of their existence, includes the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, the Hollywood League for Democratic Action, the American Peace Mobilization (Hollywood) and the Hollywood Democratic Committee, the last of which organization was set up in January, 1943, for the purpose of forming an association of voters in the motion picture community to support "victory legislation" and "victory candidates."

Another of the outstanding groups now in existence in Hollywood is the Hollywood Writers Mobilization which, according to information received, was created by the League of American Writers in 1941. Since its organization it has gradually replaced the League of American Writers. It has been pointed out that this organization did not bear the stigma of having guessed wrong at the time of the Nazi invasion of Russia in 1941. It is said that practically all of the leading figures of the League of American Writers are now affiliated with the Hollywood Writers Mobilization. In June, 1944, ~~it was reported that~~ the Hollywood Writers Mobilization [illegible] to produce a number of documentary films for the Overseas Branch of the Office of War Information. It is said that this arrangement was reportedly made through Robert Riskin, Chief of the Overseas Bureau of Films, Office of War Information and a former motion picture producer, who is a member of the League of American Writers and reportedly a close associate of John Howard Lawson, who is reliably reported to be a Communist.

It might be pointed out that information has been received that two of the officials of the Hollywood Writers Mobilization at the present time are Communists, while all other officials have been affiliated with one or more Communist front groups. The organization's predecessor, the Hollywood Chapter of the League of American Writers, has been described as an organization which followed the Communist Party line from its establishment. The League and its predecessor are alleged to have reached such a position of power and influence in the movie industry that they practically have dominated the cultural section of the motion picture industry. (100-138754-4-9-24)

Among other organizations which have received the support of prominent persons in the industry and which organizations are reliably reported to be Communist fronts, are the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee, The Peoples Educational Center and the Los Angeles Council of American Soviet Friendship. The Peoples Educational Center was formerly the Hollywood Writers School, an off-shoot of the League of American Writers, according to information reported. The Center is said to be conducted and almost solely identified with the motion picture industry, and as all of the instructors are from that source, it is said that the influence and prestige of the industry are bestowed upon the school. (100-138754-34)

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN CURRENT MOTION PICTURES

As stated previously, the Communist Party (now the Communist Political Association) is reported to have indicated as its opinion that to control the final motion picture would be to control a splendid propaganda outlet. It is said that with the change of the Communist Party line at the time of the invasion of Russia by the Nazis in June, 1941, there commenced an unprecedented period of Communist influence in the motion pictures themselves. It is claimed that this may be accounted for in part by the fact that the aims of the Communists through circumstance are coincidental with the aims of the United Nations. Therefore, under the guise of patriotism the Communists are able, according to informants, to inject their views into the motion picture field.

There follow examples of motion pictures which are reported to have been subject to Communist influence or to reflect in some degree Communist or Soviet propaganda.

"Mission to Moscow"

This picture was released by Warner Brothers in May, 1941, the producer being Robert H. Buckner who during 1934 and 1935 was located in Moscow as a correspondent for the London Daily Mail. He is said to have been brought to Hollywood by Warner Brothers as a screen writer in 1933. Buckner is reported to have personally selected Jay Leyda to act as the technical director of this picture. Leyda is said to have been in Moscow at the time of Buckner where Leyda had allegedly been connected with the Bureau of Revolutionary Literature and the Soviet Motion Picture Industry. Leyda, it might be noted further, is reliably reported to be a member of the Communist Party, USA (now the Communist Political Association). He is also said to have been active in the League of American Writers and to have lectured at the Hollywood Writers School referred to hereinabove.

The actual writer of the screen play "Mission to Moscow" was Erskine Caldwell. Caldwell, it might be noted, has been a member of the League of American Writers and has acted as associate editor of "Soviet Russia Today," a reported Communist organ propagandizing the Soviet Union. It is related that prior to August 23, 1939, Caldwell was in favor of international collective security but during the period of the Hitler-Stalin Nonaggression Pact he is said to have supported the American Peace Mobilization and opposed openly the Lend-Lease Act and the Selective Service Act. After June 22, 1941, Caldwell is said to have called for all out aid to Great Britain, the Soviet Union, and China.

The picture is based on the book "Mission to Moscow" written by Mr. Joseph Davis, former ambassador to Russia. It is claimed that the picture contains pro-Soviet propaganda and the picture has been publicly criticized in numerous newspapers on those grounds and on the basis that the incidents related therein are so highly colored as not to represent a true picture of facts.

100-138754-20 page 8

"Action in the North Atlantic"

This picture was also released by Warner Brothers and deals with the activities of the Merchant Marine on the Murmansk run. It is alleged that the picture is very favorable to the National Maritime Union of America, CIO, a reliably reported Communist-controlled union. According to David Platt, Communist motion picture critic for the Daily Worker, the picture was being used (in July, 1943) as a training film in the Merchant Marine training schools. The screen play was written by John Howard Lawson, reliably reported to be a member of the Communist Party. Lawson is said to have received technical assistance and advice from James Drake, port agent of the National Maritime Union, San Pedro, California, who is also reliably reported to be a member of the Communist Party. 100-138754-20 pages 9 and 35

"Keeper of the Flame"

This picture is an MGM production adapted from a popular novel by I. A. R. Wylie. The novel was adapted to the screen by Donald Ogden Stewart, another screen writer who is reliably reported to be a member of the Communist Party. He is the husband of Ella Winter, a Communist of long-standing. The picture is said to have varied from the book in that the book was written as a mystery story whereas Stewart in the screen version emphasized the content of the picture as "anti-Fascist." 100-138754-9 page 37

"Hangmen also Die"

This is a United Artists production released in April, 1943. It is a war melodrama dealing with Gestapo cruelty. It was directed by Fritz Lang who is reported to be active in a number of Communist front groups. Included in the cast were Lionel Stander, reported Communist, and Virginia Farmer, also said to be closely affiliated with Communist groups. The screen play was written by John Wexley described as a member of the Communist Party. 100-138754-9 pages 39 and 40

"Our Russian Front"

This picture was originally made in Russia as a documentary film. It was reassembled in Hollywood under the auspices of Russian War Relief, Incorporated and adapted to American audiences by the use of a commentary delivered by Walter Huston. The commentary was written by Elliot Paul, a former member of the League of American Writers and a reported contributor to numerous Communist publications. Lewis Milestone, director, and Joris Ivens assisted in the production. Both of these persons have been identified with numerous Communist front groups. 100-138754-9 page 40

"Edge of Darkness"

This is a Warner Brothers production dealing with Norway under Nazi oppression. The screen play was written by Robert Rossen, past president of the League of American Writers and reliably reported to have been a member of the Communist Party. The director was Lewis Milestone. The cast included Walter Huston, Helmut Dantine, Roman Bohnen, and Morris Carnovsky, all of whom are reportedly closely associated with Communists in the Hollywood area.

"This Land Is Mine"

This is an RKO production released in June, 1943, and is a war drama dealing with conditions in occupied territories under Nazi rule. The screen play was written by Dudley Nichols who was acting as a coproducer. Nichols has been a member of the League of American Writers since its inception and was reportedly a member of the John Reed Club in Hollywood. He endorsed the American Peace Mobilization, a Communist front. Ibid. page 42

"The City that Stopped Hitler"

"Black Sea Fighters"

This picture is composed of Russian newsreel shots reportedly assembled in the United States and released in North and South America by Artkino Films, Incorporated (Artkino Films is a registered agent of the Soviet Union Official Film Agency). The commentary in the United States was written in Hollywood by Clifford Odets, also reliably reported to be a member of the Communist Party. Narration was given by Fredric March, Hollywood screen actor and reportedly a close contact of Communists.

Ibid.

"North Star"

This picture was produced by Samuel Goldwyn Productions. Its director was Lewis Milestone who was born in Russia and who has been the sponsor of and active in a number of Communist fronts. The writer of the script was Lillian Hellman who was also said to be a Communist. The technical director of this picture was Jay Leyda, described above. It is reported that the picture was severely criticized by some newspapers as propaganda in that it represents a picture of life in a small town in the Soviet Union, which is inconsistent with the facts.

"Watch on the Rhine"

This is a Warner Brothers production released in the fall of 1943. It was produced by Herman Shumlin who is said to be a member of a number of Communist fronts. Dashiell Hammett, writer of the screen play, has been a president of the League of American Writers and has been described as a Communist by sources of information. The original play from which the screen play was taken was by Lillian Hellman.

I am attaching hereto a memorandum entitled "Communist Infiltration of the Motion Picture Industry," dated October 25, 1944. This summary is submitted to you for informational purposes. It has been prepared as a result of the correlation of information furnished by reliable informants and other sources. Some of these data have been supplied by informants of a most confidential and reliable character. Other information appearing in the attached memorandum has been developed through the Bureau's investigation of both the National and International activities of the Communist movement in this country, as activated by the Communist Political Association, formerly the Communist Party, U.S.A.

While no direct investigation has been conducted with reference to the Motion Picture Industry, I thought you would be interested in the attached data relating to the growing Communist influence in that industry, which industry is recognized not only as a great medium for propaganda but also as one of the most influential agencies of education.

"Hostages"

This picture was produced by Paramount Studios and is a war melodrama. The director was Frank Tuttle, reliably reported to have been a member of the Communist Party. One of the writers of the screen play was Lester Cole also a reported Communist. The production has been described as a propaganda picture in every sense of the word. Ibid. page 15

"Sahara"

This picture was produced by Columbia and was directed by Zoltan Korda who is reported to show strong favoritism for persons of Communist sympathies. John Howard Lawson, described above as a reliably reported Communist Party member, was the writer of the screen play. The picture is said to have been adapted from the Soviet photoplay "The Thirteen." Among the actors were Humphrey Bogart, Rex Ingram, a Negro, and J. Carol Naish, all of whom are reported to have been affiliated in the past with phases of the Communist movement. Ibid. page 22

"Song of Russia"

This picture was produced by MGM, the producer being Joseph [illegible]aternak who is Russian born and who is said to be sympathetic with reported [illegible]ommunist members in the motion picture industry. The director was Gregory [illegible]toff, also Russian born and a reported associate of Communists. The [illegible]iginal story was written by three persons: Guy Endore, a reported Communist; [illegible] Mitler; and Victor Trivas, a Balkan refugee. Mitler and Trivas have been [illegible]ers of the League of American Writers. The screen play was written by [illegible]rd Collins, a member of the League of American Writers, in collaboration [illegible] Paul Jarrico, reported member of the Communist Party. Ibid. page 25

[illegible] Other motion pictures which have been produced in the recent past [illegible] have had affiliated with them either writers, directors, advisers, [illegible]s or actresses who are reported Communists or sympathizers have been [illegible]ing: "Meet the People," "Government Girl," "Destination Tokyo," [illegible]ian Girls," "Tender Comrade," "The Impostor," "None but the Lonely [illegible]e Master Race," "When He Comes Home," "So Far So Good," "Air Transport [illegible]orld Peace Through World Trade," and "The Seventh Cross."

100-138754-26,31,42,46

[illegible] been reported that following the nation-wide controversy [illegible] Moscow" the technique of producing propaganda material for [illegible] changed somewhat. It has been alleged that as of May, 1944, [illegible]rs and directors became more subtle and began using the [illegible]rting a line, a scene, or even a sequence carrying the [illegible]to an otherwise nonpolitical picture. It was further alleged [illegible] has been found effective inasmuch as it does not appear [illegible]rely incidental. Ibid.-26 page 5

It has also been related that Communist influence in pictures is not limited solely to the injection of propaganda into them but is also directed toward preventing all that might be objectionable to the Communist movement. Opposition has been expressed to a proposed picture "Uncle Tom's Cabin" which was bitterly attacked by Communist elements through front groups on the basis that the picture does not reflect the proper attitude on the part of Negroes. It is alleged that as a result of the pressure, the picture was withdrawn from production.

As of May, 1944, another picture, "The Life of Eddie Rickenbacker," is said to have met similar pressure. In this regard it is noted that the Communist Political Association objects to Rickenbacker because of his alleged expression of political opinions regarding labor. He has been labeled as a Fascist, a Nazi sympathizer, a reactionary, and an isolationist and it has been said that pressure has been put on a number of film stars to refuse leading roles in the picture. It is further alleged that a number of writers have been intimidated causing some to refuse to do the script and reported Communist-dominated labor unions have passed resolutions of protest against the proposed picture. 100-138754-26 pages 13 and 14

REPORTED RUSSIAN INFLUENCE IN HOLLYWOOD

It has been pointed out that in August, 1943, Mikhial Kolotozov, Soviet Film Industry representative, arrived in Hollywood. According to the press, his duties were to be comparable to that of an ambassador in diplomatic circles with the additional function of advising on the purchase of American films. It has been alleged that Kolotozov has been in contact with Communist elements in Hollywood and, in this regard, shortly after his arrival in Hollywood a reception was held in his honor sponsored by the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship. This group was reported to have considerable Communist influence in it. His announced aims were to the effect that he desired to "strengthen the artistic and commercial ties between the cinema people of the United States and those of the Soviet Union." 100-138754-21 page 23

Among the films which are alleged to have been purchased by Kolotozov and which are claimed to be exhibited in Russia as representative of United States films are "The Little Foxes" and "The Earl of Chicago." The first of these pictures depicts a degenerate Southern family and the latter is a story of a Chicago gangster in England. Informants have reported that it is particularly unusual that Kolotozov should have selected "The Earl of Chicago" since this picture was never particularly successful in the United States and is several years old. It has been speculated on that it may be a part of Kolotozov's plan or propaganda technique to obtain such pictures in order to exhibit life in the United States at its worst to the Soviet people. 100-138754-33

It was publicly announced on August 2, 1944, that plans were being formulated for the cultural exchange of motion pictures between the United States and the Soviet Union. It was reported that the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics' Film Committee approved certain plans and recommended them for the acceptance of the United States Ambassador. It was related that the original plan was to have one theater in Moscow show only American and British films. It is said that this plan did not materialize as no suitable theater was available. At present, according to the public announcement, the proposal is that two American and two British films be presented each month for closed showing to cinema clubs, actors, composers, writers, and scientific organizations, the showing to be for one day only in screening rooms accommodating between 300 to 500 persons. The Soviet Government reportedly expects similar arrangements to be made in the United States and Great Britain for the showing of their films. Ibid.-46

CURRENT HOLLYWOOD CONTROVERSY OVER COMMUNIST INFILTRATION

In February, 1944, a number of prominent writers, directors, and actors described as opposing Communist influence in the motion picture industry formed the Motion Picture Alliance for the Preservation of American Ideals. The officers of the organization included: Sam Wood, President; Walt Disney, Vice President; George Bruce, Executive Secretary; and James I. McGuinness, Chairman of the Executive Board.

Prominent motion picture figures who have spoken before this group and indicated sympathy for its anti-Communist aims included Clark Gable and Gary Cooper.

Upon its organization, as it is reported, the organization was subject to vigorous attacks by the Communist apparatus in Hollywood which reportedly has lined up Communist-controlled unions, guilds, and front groups to combat it. The attack on the organization, according to informants, has been a smear campaign by Communist elements accusing the group of being anti-Semitic, anti-administration, and opposed to the progress of the war. 100-271036-1 and 4

The attack on the Motion Picture Alliance for the Preservation of American Ideals resulted in the formation of the Council of Hollywood Guilds and Unions. This Council, according to the report, was primarily instigated by the Hollywood Writers Mobilization, the leading Communist front group in Hollywood, and was organized for a two-year period. The Council issued a 51-page booklet attacking the Motion Picture Alliance for the Preservation of American Ideals and it is claimed that the booklet was mailed to every union and political organization throughout the United States. The content is said to be a most violent attack accusing the Motion Picture Alliance for the Preservation of American Ideals of having been sympathetic to the German-American Vocational League and implying connections with the Christian Front, the Ku-Klux Klan, Gerald L. K. Smith, and the 30 additionists. The address shown in the booklet as the headquarters of the Council is 1655 North Cherokee Avenue, Hollywood, California, the address of the Screen Writers Guild which is reliably reported to be completely Communist dominated.

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

The activity of the Communist elements in the motion picture industry has been devoted almost exclusively to the political campaigns. The result of the election has been that nearly all candidates endorsed by them have been elected. One exception was HAL STYLES, candidate for Congress in the 15th District, who was overwhelmingly defeated. It is believed that his defeat was largely due to an expose by the "LOS ANGELES EXAMINER", that he was once the Kleagle and Exhaulted Cyclops of the Ku Klux Klan at Jamaica, New York. The HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE boasted that it collected and spent $150,000.00 in the campaign. It issued three issues of "FREE PRESS" of 500,000 copies each. The screen writers and the Hollywood Writers Mobilization furnished the "copy". The MOTION PICTURE LABOR COMMITTEE plans to become a permanent organization. The COUNCIL OF HOLLYWOOD GUILDS AND UNIONS and CONFERENCE OF STUDIO UNIONS seek to control the motion picture business. The MOTION PICTURE ALLIANCE FOR THE PRESERVATION OF AMERICAN IDEALS has been dormant but since the election is over it plans to become active again. The LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS has been reported as going out of existence and that the HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION has succeeded it and is devoting much time to the political field.

DETAILS:

AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA:

COMMUNIST ACTIVITY IN MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY

Source A has informed that the entire strength of the Communist Political Association and its influence in the motion picture industry in the Hollywood area has been thrown into the election campaign for the last thirty days. The purpose of this was, of course, to work for the election of those candidates who were backed by the CIO Political Action Committee, and with two exceptions, those candidates were also supported by the United A. F. of L. Political Action Committee. Those exceptions were the candidacy of HAL STYLES for Congress in the 15th District and NED R. HEALY for Congress in the 13th District, both mentioned hereinafter.

This source also advised that practically all Communist-front organizations and sympathetic groups dropped all other activity and concentrated on the election campaign. Such organizations as the JOINT ANTI-FASCIST REFUGEE COMMITTEE, HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION, PEOPLES EDUCATIONAL CENTER, HOLLYWOOD WOMEN'S COUNCIL, etc., all have been seemingly inactive in other matters and have centered all their forces in the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE, the organization through which the Communist Political Association operates in the Hollywood section.

As the returns from the election are now being announced, the Communists won an almost one hundred percent victory, all their favored candidates having won, with two exceptions, HAL STYLES for Congress and LUCILLE GLEASON for the State Assembly.

HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE

Source A advises that this Communist-front organization was the dominant influence in the democratic party of Southern California in this campaign. The governing body of the Committee being composed of prominent figures in the motion picture industry, it carried with it the implied endorsement and prestige of that industry and thus exercised a powerful influence on the voters of this section. It had the support of all other Communist-dominated groups and labor unions and in addition the large amount of money, $150,000.00, which it announced at different times it had raised, all of which was devoted to the election of its endorsed candidates.

This committee issued a publication which it called the "FREE PRESS", claiming a circulation of 500,000 and varying its contents to fit each of the different Congressional districts in the locality.

Source A advises that the staff and contributors to this publication were drawn from the Screen Writers Guild, the Hollywood Writers Mobilization and the Hollywood Democratic Committee, all of which are described as being Communist-dominated organizations. All returns are not yet in, but at this time the following candidates sponsored and supported by the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE are practically sure of election:

NED R. HEALY, Congress, 13th District. Source A advises that HEALY is a follower of the Communist Party line; has been such since 1938.

HELEN GAHAGAN DOUGLAS, Congress, 14th District. Source A advised that Mrs. DOUGLAS, (wife of screen actor MELVYN DOUGLAS) was supported by all Communist forces and when active in Hollywood film circles was connected with and supported various Communist-front organizations.

ELLIS E. PATTERSON, Congress, 16th District. Source A has advised that PATTERSON has been very active in Communist activities for many years. Member of, or supporter of a great number of Communist-front organizations, including the AMERICAN PEACE MOBILIZATION, HOLLYWOOD ANTI-NAZI LEAGUE, MOTION PICTURE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE, all of which followed the Communist Party line from isolation to pro-war when Soviet Russia was attacked by HITLER.

ALBERT DEKKER, California State Assembly, 57th District. Source A advises that DEKKER has long followed the Communist Party line. As an actor he was active in the New Theatre League and the International Union of Revolutionary Theatres in the New York area in 1935-36-37, before coming to Hollywood. He is a member of the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE and one of the Executive Council of that group.

In the 15th Congressional District which represents Hollywood proper, the Communist-supported Democratic candidate HAL STYLES was defeated. This was largely due to an exposure of his former Ku Klux Klan connections and other activities of a personal nature.

The above candidates represent those in the immediate territory surrounding Hollywood. The HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE supported all candidates in all districts who were also supported by the COMMUNIST POLITICAL ASSOCIATION.

MOTION PICTURE LABOR COMMITTEE FOR POLITICAL ACTION

Source A has informed that this committee, set up for campaign purposes, worked in complete cooperation with the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE and all other Communist-controlled groups. It was most active in the unions and gave much assistance to the campaign. While ostensibly it was set up to carry on campaign work, there is an attempt to keep the organization going as a separate group. As it is almost completely under Communist control, it would take on work of a different character if it decided to hold the committee intact. This matter is now under consideration and no decision on this proposal to continue the committee will be made for several weeks.

COUNCIL OF HOLLYWOOD GUILDS AND UNIONS

Source A also advised that this council, likewise, devoted a great deal of its energy in the political campaign. Organized to combat another group, the MOTION PICTURE ALLIANCE, an anti-Communist organization, it is stated that it will now proceed with its original program. In addition it is proposing to set up a "labor center" in Hollywood where all unions can meet and have offices. No progress of note has been made as yet. This Council is definitely a Communist-dominated group of unions which cooperates with all Communist fronts in the motion picture industry. The activities in which it will engage will be determined very shortly, now that the election is over.

CONFERENCE OF STUDIO UNIONS

Source A advises that this block of unions under the leadership of HERBERT K. SORRELL, a known Communist, has been responsible for several strikes or threat of strikes. Composed of a block of nine key unions and affiliated with and part of the COUNCIL OF HOLLYWOOD GUILDS AND UNIONS, it is attempting to use these jurisdictional disputes to raid or take over the rest of the anti-Communist unions in the studios. The following six unions are involved:

1. Studio Grips #80, I.A.T.S.E., A.F. of L.
2. Associated Property Men #44, I.A.T.S.E., A. F. of L.
3. Studio Laborers #727, I.A.T.S.E., A. F. of L.
4. Studio Electricians #728, I.A.T.S.E., A.F. of L.
5. Studio Utility Workers #724, A. F. of L.
6. Studio Plasterers #759, A. F. of L.

In this action it has the support of all Communist forces within the motion picture industry and also those Communist front organizations not technically a part of the industry.

To counteract this attempt of the Conference, a meeting was held on Friday, October 27, 1944, by some seven unions in the motion picture industry, at which time it was decided to form a counter organization to combat the inroads of the Communist elements and their attempt through the Conference of Studio Unions to take over the remainder of those unions not yet controlled by Communist influences.

The President of the new group is CARL COOPER, West Coast representative of the I.A.T.S.E.; the Secretary is JOSEPH P. TOUHY, President and Business Representative of Studio Drivers (Teamsters) Local 399, Hollywood. This organization has not yet been given a name, or title, although several meetings have been held since the initial one. Its activity here also has been delayed by the election campaign. The formation of this organization was the result of a recent visit of RICHARD

WALSH, International President of the I.A.T.S.E. He warned some of the local unions in the motion picture industry that "HERBERT K. SORRELL was going to gobble them all up if they didn't get busy". SORRELL, in combination with the COUNCIL OF HOLLYWOOD GUILDS AND UNIONS, now is in control of 22,000 of the 30,000 studio workers. This CONFERENCE OF STUDIO UNIONS is leading the attempt to take over the rest of the studio workers by the use of the jursidictional dispute.

MOTION PICTURE ALLIANCE FOR THE PRESERVATION OF AMERICAN IDEALS

Source advises that this Alliance was formed to combat Communist infiltration in the motion picture industry but it has been inactive for some eight weeks. A statement of one member of the Executive Board was to the effect that this alliance did not desire to be looked upon as a partisan political organization and, therefore, was waiting until after the election before becoming active.

LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS

Source A advises that this league has become completely inactive; in fact it has been reported that it is now practically out of existence, the members all having been absorbed by the HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION, which likewise had transferred all its efforts to the political campaign, working through the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.

Source A advises that the Communists will consider that they have achieved a victory on the political front, and will become more openly active in the motion picture industry.

SAC Hood of the Los Angeles Office called at this time and advised that he received a call last evening from Cecil DeMille, a Bureau special service contact, who advised that he is a member of the American Federation of Radio Artists in view of his program every Monday night. DeMille advised that he has a listening audience on this program from 35 to 40 million people.

DeMille advised that he was assessed the nominal sum of $1 by the American Federation of Radio Artists which was for the election held there on Proposition Number 12 which dealt with the matter of returning soldiers having to join the union before they could secure any employment. DeMille stated that this Proposition Number 12 was passed and as it now stands, the returning soldiers will have to join the union before securing employment.

DeMille advised that he objected to the dollar assessment and in fact, did not pay it; that he called their attention to the by-laws and so forth and they then called all those letters back in and brought out another letter. He stated the whole idea of the thing is that if you didn't pay, you didn't work.

Hood stated that it will be recalled that Mrs. Lela Rogers called the Director on November 9th with reference to Communist Infiltration in the Picture Industry, especially at RKO. Hood further advised that during the course of his conversation with DeMille, DeMille stated that he received a telephone call yesterday from Mrs. Rogers who told him that she had heard from Washington. (DeMille stated that he didn't press her, but he gathered the call was from the Director.) Mrs. Rogers told him that she had been relieved from her job by RKO and put into another spot. DeMille stated that the Director is supposed to have stated that the whole idea and plan of the Communists is to get the big people of that industry put out, such as Mrs. Rogers, DeMille and so forth and get other persons in those positions who are friendly towards the Communists. Hood stated that DeMille is very much concerned about the whole idea because of what happened to Mrs. Rogers and also because Upton Close was put off the air several days ago.

DeMille advised that he was calling Hood to inquire whether or not the Director did make the statement that the Communists are trying to get the big people out and put the people friendly to their movement in.

Hood stated that he told DeMille that he was not aware of the Director's conversation with Mrs. Rogers and did not know what statement, if any, the Director made.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

In connection with the attached inquiry from SAC Hood, the Bureau has no information indicating that the Communist element in the unions in the movie industry are specifically gunning for industry officials with the idea of removing any particular ones; but, of course, if such could be effected, it would be to their advantage to have persons friendly to them in those spots. We do, of course, know that they have been and are vigorously trying to get Communist inclined actors, directors and cameramen in the most favorable spots.

It is suggested that Mr. Hood be informed along the above lines.

Respectfully,

At 4:45 p.m. today Mr. Ellsworth called from Los Angeles advising Mr. McGuire that Lela Rogers, mother of Ginger Rogers, has mentioned that she wanted to speak to the Director personally and might phone him tonight concerning the infiltration of alleged Communists and fellow travelers in the motion picture industry in Hollywood, Calif.

Mrs. Rogers has been promoting the "Motion Picture Alliance for the Preservation of American Ideals," which has the basic purpose of combatting Communism, and she claims that as a result of her own activities, as well as those of Ginger, in denouncing Communist infiltration in the industry that RKO Studios have not been able to buy a picture for Ginger within the last year. Mrs. Rogers claims that the RKO people who handle the reviewing of stories and the selecting of vehicles for their stars are either Communist or fellow travelers and are allied in a common group against Ginger, so much so that Mrs. Rogers has had to go out and personally buy a story for her daughter.

Mrs. Rogers claims she told Charles Koerner about this situation inasmuch as he is the Executive Director of RKO, but he refuses to take her seriously. He denies that there is any tie-up with the Communists in the studio, and Mrs. Rogers feels that he is genuinely not aware of the menace but nonetheless his policy is dominated by the Communists and their adherents. Mrs. Rogers asked Koerner if he would believe the Director should Mr. Hoover tell Koenner exactly what the situation was relative to Communists in Hollywood, but Koerner stated he would not want to talk to the Director about this at all. Mrs. Rogers said that within the last few days she has led with her chin and went to Koerner again demanding that something just must be done. Koerner stated, in more or less brushing her off, that he was not interested in hearsay and that if she has anything he would expect Mrs. Rogers to give him specific information. Mrs. Rogers claims she told Koerner she would be able to present specific documentation based upon records of the California State Investigative Committee (Tenney Committee) since she has contacts in the Committee who would make the data available to her. On hearing this Mrs. Rogers claims that Koerner was more receptive, and on again mentioning the Director's name Mrs. Rogers got a response from Koerner to the effect that he would like to talk to Mr. Hoover about this the next time the Director is in the vicinity of Hollywood.

ORIG: FILE IN 62-77122-1

Mrs. Rogers claims that while she led with her chin she has the moral support, as well as the actual support, of Walt Disney and Sam Woods of the Motion Picture Alliance. She claims further that she has a transcript of a Communist Party meeting in Mexico which she can use as documentation, and she also has in mind contacting newspapers in Los Angeles in order to start a campaign which will enable the average reader to understand just what the Communists are doing. She has in mind setting out the details of the Communists' manifesto in plain, ordinary, everyday language of the screen so that the people might know just what is transpiring. She hopes the Director will be able to give her at least some moral support, and it is this angle that she has in mind in calling the Director personally some time tonight or tomorrow.

Mr. Ellsworth states that Mrs. Rogers knows that we do have data on the Communists and that we have investigated certain angles of Communism as a result of our investigation in the case of Mary Bess Stokes, Espionage, in which copies of the Bureau's reports sent to the Office of Naval Intelligence were given by ONI to the Motion Picture Alliance, and, accordingly, Mrs. Rogers has read these reports. This latter instance, of course, is an old one, and the difficulties between the Bureau's office and ONI have long since been patched up over dissemination of Bureau reports. Nonetheless, Mrs. Rogers is aware of our activities in this field.

This data is being furnished in order that the Director may be apprised of the nature of Mrs. Rogers' impending call.

"Mrs Rogers called the Director on 11-9-49 P.M."

"L.A. suspect made this statement concerning Mrs. R's proposed call. H."

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON

43807

With reference to your inquiry as to why the Los Angeles Office did not advise the Bureau of Mrs. Lela Rogers' intention to call the Director until late on the afternoon of November 10th, this matter has been checked with SAC Hood. The facts are that Agent Leslie Warren, who handles the contacts at the RKO Studios, talked with Mrs. Rogers at 3 p. m. on November 9th, at which time Mrs. Rogers told Agent Warren that she would call the Director "tomorrow night," meaning November 10th. Warren submitted his memorandum to the SAC on the afternoon of November 10th, and Elsworth immediately upon receiving it called the Bureau, which was of course 4:45 p.m. Washington time. The fact of the matter is that Mrs. Rogers did not wait until the following day but called the Director on the evening of Nov. 9th.

As a further item of interest, Carlo Ciliberti, ex-chauffer of Joe Davies, told Special Agent Warren on November 10th that Mrs. Rogers had mentioned that she was going to call the Diredtor, and that Mr. Hoover was going to come out on the Coast within the next week and check up on the whole situation. It definitely appears that Mrs. Rogers has been talking too much and that the Los Angeles Office was not in error in calling when they did.

Respectfully,

L. B. Nichols

"I never made any such statement to Mrs. Rogers. She talked and I listened. H."

In line with your request there is attached hereto a memorandum summarizing information which has been obtained from the Bureau's files relative to the captioned matter. The attached information appears in and has been digested from the file entitled "Communist Infiltration of the Motion Picture Industry, Internal Security - C." This information has also been incorporated in various portions of the running memorandum kept in connection with this case.

Most of the information pertaining to the individuals referred to in the attached memorandum, as well as to the motion pictures produced by RKO has been furnished by Los Angeles Confidential Informant [redacted] who is [redacted] This informant has been associated with the motion picture industry for many years. He is a [redacted] and he has been a member of the Communist Party for the two year period [redacted] He is quite familiar with the Communist key figures in the Hollywood area and is able to obtain information concerning Communist activities in the industry. Information pertinent to the various organizations has been obtained through the Bureau's following of Communist activities in the Los Angeles area. This includes information pertaining to the various connections of the people mentioned in the memorandum, as well as identifying information concerning organizations with which they are variously affiliated. Records of Communist Party memberships have been made available by a highly confidential informant having access to Communist headquarters in Los Angeles. In this regard it will be noted in various of the attached descriptions of persons that membership in the Communist Party is referred to while membership in the Communist Political Association is not indicated. This results from the fact that many of the Communist Party's members in Los Angeles had not re-registered at the time the name of the Party was changed to the Communist Political Association, and accordingly the records available only reflect Communist Party membership in many instances. Undoubtedly those who have been active in some degree in the Communist movement in the past have since re-registered as members of the Communist Political Association.

The attached memorandum is divided into three sections, namely, I. "Personages", II. "Motion Pictures Produced by RKO In the Recent Past", and III. "General".

Part I. of the attached memorandum, as it will be noted, is made up of two sections, namely "Directors and Producers" and "Writers". The third section entitled "General" deals with recent newspaper comment relative to the type of movies produced in the past by RKO and those contemplated for the future. As it will be noted in this section, the Daily Worker takes to task

GENERAL

Recently two articles have appeared in the press, one in PM and the other in the Daily Worker, which have indicated feelings that RKO cooperates with "Fascists." In the July 28, 1944, issue of PM, in the column by McManus, entitled "Speaking of Movies", RKO is referred to in the following manner:

> "Most recently, however, it has accepted the unique and unenviable stigma, being the only American film company willing and anxious to distribute Fascist-made films in the USA. It is distributing (or trying to distribute) the Franco-made Spanish film, Goyescas, in the USA as a tribute for the privilege of distributing its Hollywood product in Fascist Spain. Goyescas is the film Winchell attacked on the radio Sunday night."

It was further stated in this article:

> "Apart from a mounting indignation and disgust with this sort of trading with the enemy's agents, there has also been a growing concern over how such a reciprocal trade agreement with a Fascist country might affect a Hollywood studio's own production quality. Obviously anti-Fascist films would not be permitted on the market in a Fascist land. Obviously too, no business-like Hollywood studio can afford to produce films for export only. The inescapable conclusion therefore is that all its productions must be acceptable to all its markets which, logically means an end to anti-Fascist film-making by studios aiming to trade with Fascists."

The article then refers, however, to the fact that RKO has, in the duced anti-Fascist films, such as "This Land is Mine" and "Tender

With regard to its future releases, the article states that RKO fifty or more feature-length "Escapist and comedy themes" predominately, exception of one or two "prestige pictures." The article states,

IV. WRITERS AT RKO

There are two types of writers in the studios, the original sto[illegible] writer and the scenario writer. The scenario writer writes the dialog[illegible] an original story; therefore propaganda might be injected either into original story or by the scenario writer. One thing is certain; it is the writer who actually injects Communist propaganda into a picture because he writes the script upon which the production of the picture is based. It is to be noted that in the motion picture industry in the Los Angeles area, the Communists are the strongest nucleus of the writers' group. There are approximately eighty-five screen writers in the two writers' clubs of the Communist Party in the Northwest Section of the Los Angeles County Communist Party, now known as the Communist Political Association. It also appears that the Communists have recognized the basic value of the writer in the production of the picture, as will be seen from the large number of Communist writers appearing on the list of RKO writers. From January 1, 1942, to the present time, approximately 120 writers were employed on the ninety-odd full length pictures produced or released through RKO Studios. As of November 1, 1944, there were fifty-three writers at RKO, sixteen of which are contract writers and the remainder are hired only for individual pictures.

Following is a list of those writers who have Communist records or affiliations as noted. Those writers on whom no Communist record or activity was found in the Los Angeles files are not being set out.

BARZMAN, according to informant, was one of the writers of the original "Meet the People" play. V. ACTORS AND ACTRESSES AT RKO.

It should be stated here that RKO has no contract "star players," but the studio employs what are known as stock players generally hired for a period of six months, and as a result the players' roster is continually changing.

The "star players," when used in an RKO release, are signed only for the picture and are not regular contract players of RKO. A review of the RKO feature pictures released from January 1, 1942, to date reveals approximately 160 different actors and actresses in leading roles. VI. FEATURE PICTURES PRODUCED BY OR RELEASED THROUGH RKO RADIO PICTURES

A review of the motion pictures of RKO Radio Pictures from January 1, 1942, to the present time reveals that a total of approximately ninety full length or so-called feature pictures have been produced by or released through RKO. A number of these pictures as will be noted from a perusal of the list of pictures appearing below are "Western" films and "Mystery" films which, according to Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted] are not suitable vehicles for Communist propaganda. This informant also advised that the Communists do not expect that every picture or even a majority of pictures produced by a studio be a Communist vehicle and he advised that from his experience in the Communist movement the Communists consider themselves successful if even one of twenty-five pictures contains important Communist propaganda. He stated that this propaganda may be in the spoken word, the actions or even in implications in the film. b7D

It is believed appropriate to state here that Communist propaganda does not remain static. In explanation of what is meant by this statement it will be remembered that prior to June 22, 1941, the Communists declared that the present war was an imperialist war and therefore they were 100% against Lend Lease, Selective Service, Rearmament and the whole preparedness program of the United States Government. Since June 22, 1941, and continuing to the present date the Communists have completely reversed themselves and have through varying stages fallen in line with the United States Government's program of "win the war and the peace" until today they consider themselves the leaders in the war program and proclaim themselves to be "super patriots". This pretended position, according to Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted] is a sham pretext with which the Communists have cloaked themselves in order to deceive the general public, gain prestige and leadership, and by this pretext having gained strength in government and industry will endeavor to direct the policies of the country in every way possible to the benefit of the Soviet Union, so that the propaganda today is wholly different from what it was three years ago. b7D motion picture as a means of propaganda for the Communist Party line is to refrain from any direct advocacy of Communism but on the contrary to create sympathy for the Soviet Union and picture the Communist as a patriotic and loyal supporter of democracy and democratic processes and free enterprise. This position is deemed necessary to carry out the foreign policy of the Soviet Union in its relation to the rest of the world.

Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted] has stated that the present tactics of the Communist movement in respect to using the b7D

For these reasons Communist propaganda in motion pictures may be extremely difficult to detect and brand with its appropriate label; however, this situation, that of the appearance of support by Communists for patriotic causes, is being utilized to the fullest extent in penetrating the industry by Communists and followers of the Communist Party line. The purpose of this intensive penetration into key positions in the industry, particularly executives, directors, writers and actors, is to prepare for the future because the powerful influence of the motion picture must be used in the interests of Internationalism according to the basic Marxist-Leninist philosophy of Internationalism.

Informant further stated that the Communist forces of the United States are anticipating that at some time in the future there may be another change in the Communist Party line and if and when this does occur they want to be so well entrenched not only in the motion picture industry but in all sections of American life that they can assume their duties called for by the Soviet Union, at that time, whatever they may be.

For these reasons the Communists now profess, in effect, not to be Communists but good American patriots even to the extent of supporting free enterprise and even capitalism itself.

The pictures listed below are those produced by or released through RKO Radio Pictures since January 1, 1942; the only possible way to determine the extent of the Communist propaganda in these pictures would be to review the scripts which are not available or to view them on the screen after release; therefore, all the pictures released by RKO since January 1, 1942, are being listed below with the names of those active in the production underscored where they have Communist affiliation.

VII. RKO PICTURES WHICH ARE KNOWN TO CONTAIN COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA

1. THE NORTH STAR War Drama
SAMUEL GOLDWYN PRODUCTION released through RKO

The theme of this picture is the glorification of the Soviet Union and its effect on the Russian people who live under that government, in other words a patriotic boost for the Communists and incidentally the wonders which the Soviet Government has brought to its people.

This is a SAMUEL GOLDWYN production dealing with the Russian question in a most favorable aspect. This picture has been recognized by most reviewers as strictly a propaganda picture. (The Communist connections of the cast of this picture are set out supra.)

Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted] has informed that this picture is a SAMUEL GOLDWYN production. WILLIAM CAMERON MENZIES, Associate Producer, produced the picture. He is a fellow traveller of the Communist Party. He works in cooperation with the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS and is an instructor and lecturer in the HOLLYWOOD WRITERS SCHOOL. Both the League and this school, which is its offspring, are completely dominated by the influence of the Communist Party. b7D

LEWIS MILESTONE directed the picture. He has been active in Communist affairs over a period of ten to twelve years. He was born in Russia. He has been sponsor of and active in a great number of Communist front organizations. He is considered by the Communist Party to be one of its foremost supporters in Hollywood. He made a trip to Russia with LAWRENCE STALLINGS, author of "Red Square". He contributes liberally to the Communist cause and is a constant follower of the Communist Party line. He supported the New Theater League, which was affiliated with the International Union of Revolutionary Theaters, the headquarters of which were in Moscow, Russia. He wrote for the New Theater Magazine in 1937. He was a member of the Executive Board of the MOTION PICTURE SPANISH AID COMMITTEE, a Communist front. He signed the letter of "150" which was in protest against the Moscow purge trials. He is a sponsor of the HOLLYWOOD THEATER ALLIANCE, a Communist organization. He has engaged in many other Communist activities. He is a director of motion pictures and a fellow traveler and may be a member of the Communist Party. He is a member of the Executive Board of the MOTION PICTURE ARTISTS COMMITTEE and a member of the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS.

RE: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF
THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted] advised on December 27, 1943, that an official of the LOS ANGELES WORKERS SCHOOL, which is operated by the Communist Party, was told by ROBERT (BOB) S. ROBINSON, Executive Secretary of the LOS ANGELES WORKERS SCHOOL, that "THE NORTH STAR" is the most wonderful picture he had ever seen, and that it was the best motion picture the Communist Party had ever sponsored.

b7D

ROBINSON further said that the pictures, "MISSION TO MOSCOW", "THE CITY THAT STOPPED HITLER" and "BATTLE OF RUSSIA" were exactly as they wanted them and portrayed the Communist Party line as it is presently revealed.

The "LOS ANGELES EXAMINER" for December 27, 1943, under the heading, "NORTH STAR INSIDIOUS PROPAGANDA", carried an article by NEIL RAU in substance as follows:

"SAMUEL GOLDWYN has a reputation for making fine pictures. He is famous for sparing no expense and for his meticulous attention to the smallest production detail. It is therefore hard for this reviewer to understand why he has squandered a cold $2,000,000 in the making of 'NORTH STAR'. It is a picture that should never have been made--especially by an American presumably as patriotic as SAMUEL GOLDWYN.

"Written by LILLIAN HELLMAN, whose interest in sovietism is well known, it should get more Communist converts among unthinking sophomoric minds than the late EMMA (GOLDMAN) tried to snare before her deportation. It is not that 'NORTH STAR' comes out boldly labeled as Soviet propaganda. It is too insidious for that. The danger is that someone may take the picture's musical comedy version of life in the Nazi invasion as the real thing.

"The HELLMAN screen play pictures a peaceful Russian village with cattle grazing, peasants living in a constant swing of delirious joy, and young people practically bewildered with ecstasy. The admirable fact that Russia is of necessity helping to win our war does not excuse the lack of verity in these scenes.

RE: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF
THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

"Then come the early days of the German putsch and a grim, harrowing tale of the ravishment of the village, the mistreatment of the women and children, and the need for the men to take to the hills. A scene of particular bad taste in a vehicle that is supposed to entertain is the one showing the bleeding of little children until they die from loss of blood.

"In these days when so many homes are desolate through war losses, the witnessing of such a clinical and studied bestiality does not help our American men and women to bear their losses any better.

"LEWIS MILESTONE, of Russian birth and ancestry, was a logical choice for making 'NORTH STAR'. It required a natural bias for the exploitation of life in the Soviet Union as conceived by Miss HELLMAN. Unfortunate that Mr. MILESTONE'S talent and Mr. GOLDWYN'S money were used in making a picture of this type. Why not American propaganda?"

The "HOLLYWOOD REPORTER" for November 8, 1943, carried an article by IRVING HOFFMAN relative to "THE NORTH STAR", which stated in substance that JOHN McMANUS has stated: "No matter what Mr. HEARST says, 'THE NORTH STAR' is a superfine film about Russia. It has unforgettable performances by WALTER HUSTON....and it brims over with rousing music mostly written by the American composer, AARON COPLAND, but also including the international air and children's anthem known to fanciers of Soviet folk music as the Russian 'GOD BLESS AMERICA'. It has a moving script by LILLIAN HELLMAN, all of whose films have been notably Hollywood's most literate and purposeful, a multi-million dollar production by SAMUEL GOLDWYN, perceptive, exciting, direction by LEWIS MILESTONE. In other words, 'NORTH STAR' is one hell of a wonderful movie; and the thing to start figuring out now is why the HEARSTS, the SOKOLSKYS, and others of America's blue legion have launched against it the most vicious and unprincipled smear campaign ever launched against a film in America, even more hateful than that against 'MISSION TO MOSCOW'.

"New York critic DAVID LARDNER noted: 'The picture is a honey, and Mr. GOLDWYN and Mr. MILESTONE ought to be complimented for having had anything to do with it at all. An award for meritorious script writing in this war had better be wrapped up right away and sent to LILLIAN HELLMAN'."

The "HOLLYWOOD REPORTER" for November 8, 1943, repeated an article which appeared in "PM", which stated that JOHN McMANUS of PM had exposed an alleged order by W. R. HEARST commanding that SAMUEL GOLDWYN's "NORTH STAR" be smeared as red propaganda. It stated: "The new SAMUEL GOLDWYN film, 'THE NORTH STAR', is by far the outstanding cinema effort dealing with any phase of the global conflict" or its "insidious, unadulterated Soviet propaganda." It stated that the review written by LAIT after orders from "the chief" (HEARST) is an out and out smear describing the picture as evil Red propaganda "which could not be worse if STALIN had paid for it."

"VARIETY" for November 8, 1943, under the heading, "NORTH STAR DRAWS COLD PRESS," stated, "HEARST BRANDS FILM AS RED PROPAGANDA", and under a New York dateline stated: "'NORTH STAR' ran into topnotch criticism following opening in New York last Thursday, with biggest storm brewing in HEARST newspapers, as publishers reportedly issued orders to all editors that he wanted film referred to as 'bolshevik propaganda' and that it could not be worse if it had been paid for by STALIN. The order went on to say that editors were to pay no attention to requests from GOLDWYN or his representatives for favorable criticism of the film."

The "LOS ANGELES EXAMINER" for December 9, 1943, under the heading, "EDITOR'S MAIL BOX", quoted a "soldier" as saying, "Many thanks to your stage and screen reviewer, who branded 'THE NORTH STAR' for exactly what it is--Bolshevik propaganda. With the swallowing of this, 'MISSION TO MOSCOW', and other pro-Russian sentiment, we can believe that the men who rule Russia today are a group of kindly old men whose only thought is for the betterment of humanity. We are told to please overlook the bloody purges, enslaved regiments, throttling of the press--all after the most shameful murder since the French Revolution, that of Czar NICHOLAS II--by the very men that are Russian leaders today. We can be forever grateful that Russia ison our side instead of with HITLER, but I don't think it necessary to kiss him on both cheeks and call him 'brother'. What a difference it is from the last days of 1939, when people were debating which was the worst, STALIN or HITLER.

We can be thankful for our Allies, but we need not be asked to ignore the truth."

Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted] advised that LILLIAN HELLMAN was the writer of the script. Miss HELLMAN is the wife of ARTHUR KOBER, a writer and Communist who has long been active in Communist affairs. She is a member of the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS and a multitude of other front organizations. She was one of the leading figures in the AMERICAN PEACE MOBILIZATION and frantically opposed the entry of the United States into the war until Russia was attacked by HITLER. She is a Communist Party member. b7D

JAY LEYDA was the technical director of this picture. He is a Communist of long standing. From 1932 to 1936 he was director of cultural propaganda in Moscow, Russia. In 1939 he was employed by the Rockefeller Foundation at New York City, Museum of Modern Art. He was discharged from that institution for Communist activity in 1940. He has a long record of Communist activity. He is a member of Branch A, Northwest Section, Communist Party of Los Angeles County. He transferred to Los Angeles from New York City on July 16, 1943.

JAMES WONG HOWE was the photographer on thispicture. He has a long record of activity in Communist affairs. He is a Chinaman and is considered a trustworthy member by the Communist Party.

WALTER HUSTON was the leading actor in this picture. He played the part of Ambassador DAVIES in "MISSION TO MOSCOW" and is fanatically devoted to the Communist cause. He was a member of the MOTION PICTURE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE and its successor, the HOLLYWOOD DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE. He is also a member of other Communist-front organizations.

ANN HARDING played the part of Mrs. DAVIES in "MISSION TO MOSCOW".

2. TENDER COMRADE — Drama
An RKO Production released December 29, 1943

Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted] has informed that LELA ROGERS, Associate Producer, RKO, and mother of GINGER ROGERS, star of the picture, had complained to CHARLES W. KOERNER, Executive Vice-President in Charge of Production, at the time that the picture was being made that the script writer, DALTON TRUMBO, had inserted in the script certain propaganda lines to be spoken by her daughter, GINGER ROGERS. Informant stated that LELA ROGERS had refused to allow her daughter to deliver the lines because of their propaganda nature; that TRUMBO then changed the script so that another actress in the cast spoke the objectionable propaganda lines. b7D

Informant stated that LELA ROGERS had stated that she was very much worried about this propaganda tendency in motion pictures and said that Communist influence in the motion picture industry in Hollywood is becoming really alarming. He further stated that LELA ROGERS stated that there had not seemed to be any way to stop this practice because the heads of the studios did not recognize the danger to the American people.

(See above for Communist connections and associations of producer DAVID HEMPSTEAD, director EDWARD DMYTRYK and screen play writer DALTON TRUMBO.)

both members of Group A-3, Northwest Section, Los Angeles County Communist Party, USA, and presently active in the Communist Political Association, who are described previously. (For details on BIBERMAN and FROELICH see under titles III and IV respectively.)

The story of this film begins with the collapse of the German army and presents the plans of the German military caste to go underground even before the last shot is fired and plant the seeds for World War III. According to "HOLLYWOOD REPORTER", issue of September 21, 1944, the picture "has almost too many 'messages', but they are messages worth listening to".

According to LELA ROGERS and ROBERT FELLOWS, producers at RKO Studios, who were interviewed by Special Agent H. FRANK ANGELL recently, this picture contains many Communist messages, the exact nature of which to date have not been ascertained in view of the fact that it has not yet shown in Los Angeles and FELLOWS and LELA ROGERS had not seen the picture.

The scene of the story is laid in Belgium as it attempts to rise from its ashes under the guidance of an American officer of the AMG. After the German general staff decides that the Nazis have been a bad bargain specially selected officers are assigned to all parts of liberated Europe to blend unobtrusively into the background while they sow discontent and disunity to weaken the people for the next blitz. Actual Communist Party members and Communist Political Association members in the production include HERBERT BIBERMAN, MORRIS CARNOVSKY and LLOYD BRIDGES.

The picture was premiered in Dallas, Texas, and producer GOLDEN sent three women lecturers around the country praising this picture in order to insure its success. The picture is called a sequel to "HITLER'S CHILDREN", also produced by the GOLDENS.

RE: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF
THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

The Bureau by letter dated September 11, 1944, advised that JOHN WHITAKER, one of the Vice-Presidents of RKO Studios, had discussed with the Foreign Agents Registration Section of the War Division of the Department of Justice, the matter of setting up a corporation composed of stockholders from RKO and SOYUZINTORGKINO, the Soviet motion picture combine, and investigation was begun to determine what the activities of this corporation are to be.

Mr. WHITAKER desired to ascertain whether such a corporation would be required to register under the Foreign Agents Act of 1938 as amended. WHITAKER informed that RKO and SOYUZINTORGKINO were contemplating the formation of a domestic corporation to engage in the business of distributing Russian films in the United States and elsewhere. The stocks of the company and the profits were to be divided equally between RKO and SOYUZINTORGKINO. Each of the two stockholders would elect an equal number of directors and the directors would elect one additional director. Mr. WHITAKER had never heard of ARTKINO PICTURES, INC. and had no idea whether each contract with SOYUZINTORGKINO was to be terminated or whether SOYUZINTORGKINO was to have in effect two distribution outlets in this country. WHITAKER later informed that no further progress had been made with respect to the formation of the proposed corporation. It was ascertained, however, at that time that the corporation would export RKO Films to Soviet Russia.

The October 9, 1944, issue of the "NEWSWEEK MAGAZINE" carried an article to the effect that RKO and SOYUZINTORGKINO (Soviet Movie Trust) had entered into an arrangement whereby RKO will distribute five films each year which cost $50,000.00 each to produce, and that in turn the Soviet Movie Trust would release a like number for RKO in Russia. It was stated that the Soviet Movie Trust would not make RKO the sole global distributor of Russian films.

LESLIE F. WARREN of the Los Angeles Field Division the influence of Communism in the motion picture industry. She stated that she had taken the position of Associate Producer at RKO of approving all scripts produced by RKO and the position of advisor to CHARLES W. KOERNER, Vice-President in Charge of Production at the Hollywood studio, with the understanding that Mr. KOERNER would give her a free hand in censoring anything which she did not believe best for the studio as well as for the country in general. She stated that she pointed out to Mr. KOERNER that the majority of the writers in Hollywood, California, were very closely allied with the Communist Party and many of them were thought to be members of the Communist Party. She stated that as a result these writers continually attempted to inject Communist propaganda in a very subtle form in the scripts they wrote.

Mrs. ROGERS stated that an agreement was made and placed on record providing that she had the right to reject any script submitted to RKO for production which contained any Communist propaganda and she stated that she had already rejected several scripts.

Mrs. ROGERS stated that she felt that she could identify most of the big Communists among the writers and directors at RKO but she stated that she did not feel that she was in a position to determine who were Communist Party members among the other employees at the studio. At that time Mrs. ROGERS offered to aid the Bureau in every manner possible.

Mrs. LELA ROGERS, Producer at RKO, mother of GINGER ROGERS, has been very active in the Motion Picture Alliance for the Preservation of American Ideals andhas stated that "by its very existence it was serving a good purpose". She further stated that the Communists in the Screen Writers Guild thought they could get away with anything they wanted but when the Motion Picture Alliance set itself up, by merely being in existence, it would combat the Communists.

Mrs. ROGERS referred to the picture "TENDER COMRADE", in which her daughter, GINGER ROGERS, starred and cited several parts which she, LELA ROGERS, had fought out with CHARLES W. KOERNER, Vice-President in Charge of Production at RKO. She stated that KOERNER is politically blind and that several "messages" which had been written into the script by DALTON TRUMBO she succeeded in killing but she stated not all of them were disposed of before the picture came out. She stated that she made many speeches critical of the picture. She further stated that Mr. KOERNER asked her if she thought it fair to campaign against the picture when her daughter was the star in it. She stated that she informed him that that made no difference if Communist propaganda was being spread.

Mrs. ROGERS stated that EDWARD DMYTRYK directed the picture "TENDER COMRADE" and she referred to DMYTRYK along with TRUMBO as being a Communist. She stated that she called DMYTRYK right in the presence of KOERNER and RATHVON, another RKO executive.

[Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted] has advised] that Mrs. ROGERS on this occasion accused DMYTRYK of being a Communist and that he did not deny it. Mrs. ROGERS further stated that it appeared to her that KOERNER was not at all concerned about Communism in RKO pictures. b7D

PEARL KAMM

[Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted] has advised] that PEARL KAMM has been an employee at RKO since April, 1936, and formerly was secretary to HOWARD BENEDICT, who was at that time Publicity Director for RKO and was later a Producer at RKO and is a Producer at Universal at the present time. b7D

FLEETA PRESTON

FLEETA PRESTON, who is in charge of the stenographic pool at RKO Studios, informed that she had known Miss KAMM for several years and had "looked upon her as a possible Communist". Miss PRESTON further informed that Miss KAMM at one time was Secretary to ADRIAN SCOTT, a producer at RKO, whose brother is ALLEN SCOTT, a member of the Screen Writers Guild and the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS and the HOLLYWOOD WRITERS MOBILIZATION, who was an organizer in the industry. She also advised that Miss KAMM used to be very active in the SCREEN OFFICE EMPLOYEES GUILD.

Miss PRESTON also informed that Miss KAMM is the wife of JEFF KIBRE, a well-known West Coast labor leader. (The files of the Los Angeles Field Division office reflect that JEFF KIBRE is International Representative of the Fishermen and Allied Industries--CIO and has been a leading Communist on the Pacific Coast for the past seven or eight years and is a key figure in the Los Angeles area.)

Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted] has informed that PEARL KAMM is the maiden name of Mrs. JEFF KIBRE and that she is living at [redacted] and that she is a member of the Communist Party. The files of the Los Angeles Field Division office reflect that PEARL KAMM was the Group Membership Director of Branch N-1, Northwest Section, Communist Party, Los Angeles County, as of November 16, 1943. In 1944 she was Labor Chairman of Group I, Northwest Section, Communist Party, Los Angeles County, and her 1943 Membership Book was #25127. Her 1944 Membership Book was #48855. Miss PRESTON further advised that PEARL KAMM is a very close friend of KATHRYN TROSPER, who in 1940 and 1941 was secretary to ORSON WELLES, who at that time was on the RKO lot in connection with his activities in his personally-owned Mercury Productions. She stated that KATHRYN is in New York at the present time. Miss PRESTON further stated that TROSPER had openly acknowledged that she was a member of the Communist Party.

Miss PRESTON also stated that KATHRYN TROSPER got ORSON WELLES to sign a petition which she was circulating "Not to Deport HARRY BRIDGES" and she also put on a testimonial dinner for HARRY BRIDGES in the spring of 1941 while he was on trial for deportation at San Francisco, California.

I. EXECUTIVE ORGANIZATION OF RKO

RKO Radio Pictures has an executive office in New York City, which is responsible for the financing and managing of the national and international features of the business. This report deals only with the production end of the business.

Communist Affiliation

BAKALEINIKOFF, C., Musical Director. According to [Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted]] & u BAKALEINIKOFF is Russian born and is affiliated with the Russian American Club, which was reportedly organized by MICHAEL and CLARA WALDEN, who are presently members of the Northwest Section, Los Angeles County Communist Political Association, and were formerly Communist Party, U.S.A., members in the Northwest Section. Informant described BAKALEINIKOFF as a "careful sympathizer," one who was not particularly active in political affairs but who had provided music for such affairs as the rally held by the Council on American Soviet Friendship and the Russian American Club. b7D

KOERNER, CHARLES W. According to [CNDI [redacted]] & u KOERNER must be aware of the Communist situation at RKO Pictures. Informant stated that KOERNER was a member of the Motion Picture Producers Association, which had discussed the Communist situation in the motion picture industry on many occasions, and he recalled that Congressman MARTIN DIES had discussed this situation with the Executive Board of the Motion Picture Producers Association some time ago. Informant said he did not believe that KOERNER is in sympathy with the Communist Party or the Communist Political Association, but that he could not be provoked to take action against them. Informant believes that the chief interest of KOERNER as head of production at RKO Studios is to release motion pictures with box office appeal in order that RKO may be financially successful, and he is not interested in fighting the Communists. b7D

CROW, JAMES, assistant to WILLIAM DOZIER. According to [CNDI [redacted]] & u CROW was formerly President of the Los Angeles Newspaper Guild. Prior to the Hollywood Citizen-News strike in 1938, CROW went along with the Communist fraction in the American Newspaper Guild, but during this strike he was critical of the Party program; however, he still socializes with the Communists. Informant stated that he would say that CROW went along with the Communist Party in some of its line, but did not follow the Communist line completely. b7D

DOZIER, WILLIAM, General Production Aide to CHARLES W. KOERNER. b7D
CNDI [redacted] advised that WILLIAM DOZIER was formerly the head of the Story Department at Paramount Studio. In this capacity he hired such known Communists as META REIS, BERNARD GORDON, and DON GORDON. Informant advised that there has been an affair between META REIS and DOZIER of many years' standing. META REIS, by way of identification, is presently a member of Club A-3, Northwest Section, Los Angeles County Communist Political Association, and held 1943 Communist Party, U.S.A. book #26227, and 1944 Communist Party, U.S.A. book #40941. "Variety" dated July 21, 1944, states that DOZIER had been made aide to CHARLES W. KOERNER, production head at RKO, and that he would act as general production supervisor to KOERNER to supervise all story purchases and be in charge of writers and writers' assignments, in addition to producing a number of important pictures. According to CNDI [redacted] DOZIER, b7D though not a known Communist Party member, has been active in Communist affairs during the past year and a half. Informant advised that DOZIER was active in the 1943 Writers' Congress as a member of the Advisory Committee, and was a member of the Feature Film Panel at this Congress, which was chaired by RICHARD COLLINS, member of Club A-1, Northwest Section, Los Angeles County CP-USA. It has further been reported that WILLIAM DOZIER, while at Paramount Studios, elevated ADRIAN SCOTT, member of Club A-1, Northwest Section, Los Angeles County Communist Party, U.S.A., from the rank of writer to the rank of associate producer. When DOZIER left Paramount and came to RKO, SCOTT followed him and is now at RKO. In his capacity as aide to KOERNER, DOZIER is the highest executive in the Hollywood RKO studio, next to KOERNER. In his capacity as supervisor of the Writing and Story Departments, he is in a position to pass on all Communist propaganda injected into any film made by RKO, subject to revision only by CHARLES KOERNER.

PIAZZA, BEN, Casting Director. According to CNDI [redacted] PIAZZA b7D is the uncle of BERN BERNARD, who was executive secretary of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League in 1939. However, informant knew of no Communist affiliation or activities by PIAZZA.

II. PRODUCERS AT RKO

The producer in a studio is the official responsible for and in charge of the actual production of the picture. In many cases the producers are the heads of production companies, or units, which are practically independent of the studio management, although the completed pictures bear the label of the studio releasing them. This is true in the RKO Radio Pictures.

RE: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE

The producers are principally interested in completing a picture for profit, and might be neither aware of nor interested in any Communist messages which might be injected into the picture by the writers or directors so long as the picture as a whole has box office appeal.

The producer is the final arbiter of what the picture is to contain when it is completed. Therefore he is in a position to cut out all Communist propaganda if he recognizes it or cares to do so. Similarly, if the producer desires to inject Communist propaganda into a picture, he being in charge can do so; then the only person who could override the producer would be the executive head in charge of production.

A review of the pictures released by RKO since January 1, 1942, to date reveals that there were thirty-five different producers on the approximately ninety pictures released. Some of these producers were the heads of independent production companies, which released their pictures through RKO, and others were regular RKO contract producers. As of November 1, 1944, RKO had fifteen producers, fourteen associate producers, and one short subject producer.

Following are listed the RKO producers who have the Communist affiliation indicated. Those producers on whom the Los Angeles Office has no Communist record are not being listed.

BUSCH, NIVEN. [CNDI [redacted] advised that BUSCH, who is also a writer, appears to be sympathetic to the Communist Party, and they support him because of his writings. He knew of no organizations of a Communist nature to which BUSCH has belonged, nor did he recall any specific pictures which the Communists liked that BUSCH had produced. He described BUSCH as a liberal writer. b7D

HARTMAN, DON, Associate Producer. According to [CNDI [redacted] HARTMAN is a member of the League of American Writers, taught in the League of American Writers School for Writers, was active in the 1943 Writers' Congress, and is presently active in the Hollywood Democratic Committee and the Hollywood Writers' Mobilization. All of these organizations are reportedly controlled by the Communist Party or the Communist Political Association. HARTMAN has also written for Russian War Relief, which in Los Angeles was formed under the leadership of HERBERT BIBERMAN, Hollywood Communist and West Coast Director of the American Peace Mobilization. b7D

HEMPSTEAD, DAVID. According to [CNDI [redacted]] &U HEMPSTEAD is a former screen director who he stated followed the line of the Communist fraction in the Screen Directors' Guild. He stated that HEMPSTEAD was a sympathizer of the Communist Party, but he had no evidence that he was an actual member of either the Communist Party, U.S.A. or the Communist Political Association, nor could he advise of any organization controlled by the Communists in which HEMPSTEAD has been active. b7D

JOHNSON, NUNNALLY. According to [CNDI [redacted]] &U JOHNSON was active in the Contemporary Theater in 1936 and 1937, which informant stated was organized and controlled by the Communist Party. He believed that JOHNSON was active in the New Theater League, which was also under the domination of the Communists. He called JOHNSON one who, by his activities, had shown a sympathy for the Communist Party, but described him as having a "spotty" record, that is, active only occasionally. b7D

LESSER, SOL. [CNDI [redacted] advised] &U that LESSER is one of ninety members of the Executive Council of the Hollywood Democratic Committee, which he said is Communist instigated and controlled. However, the informant stated that he did not believe LESSER was even a Communist sympathizer. b7D

MENZIES, WILLIAM CAMERON. [CNDI [redacted] advised] &U that MENZIES was a former instructor at the League of American Writers School for Writers in Hollywood, and is presently teaching at the People's Educational Center, Hollywood Extension, which is the successor to the League of American Writers School. He described MENZIES as one who follows the Communist Party line only "mildly" and who is not particularly active. He did not know that MENZIES was a Communist Party, U.S.A. or Communist Political Association member. b7D

NICHOLS, DUDLEY. [CNDI [redacted]] &U has informed that NICHOLS was born in Ohio, educated at Oxford University, England, and came to Hollywood in 1933, and soon became a member of the John Reed Club, and that in 1934 he was associated with JOHN HOWARD LAWSON, JOHN WEXLEY, ROBERT TASKER, and others in organizing the Hollywood Motion Picture Writers' Union, now the Screen Writers' Guild. He stated that in 1936 the Communists gained control of this guild and that NICHOLS has been very active in a large number of Communist front organizations, among which are the League of American Writers, the Hollywood Writers' School, in which he was a teacher and now is a teacher, and the People's Educational Center, which is a Communist operated institution. b7D

NICHOLS was a member of the American Peace Mobilization and opposed aid to England and France, and was opposed to the Selective Service Act. He

He was also a member of the Advisory Board of the Writers' Congress in 1943 and was made a member of the Continuations Committee of that Writers' Congress, and is carrying on the work of the Continuations Committee at the present time, although the writers claim that the League of American Writers has gone out of existence. He was also active in the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League and was a member of the Executive Board of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League after the Stalin-Hitler pact. He was also active in the International Union of Revolutionary Writers in 1932. He was a speaker at the International Union of Revolutionary Theaters. He signed the protest against the investigation of the Moscow trials which were demanded by JOHN DEWEY in 1937. He was a sponsor for the Hollywood Citizens Committee and for the Federal Theater in 1938. He supported the Loyalists' cause in Spain in 1937 and was on the Reception Committee for the reception of ANDRE MALRAUX, French Communist, who visited Hollywood on August 6, 1937. He was a member of the Sleepy Lagoon Defense Committee, the noted Los Angeles mass murder case. He sponsored the Los Angeles Council of American Soviet Friendship. He was also a member of the Citizens' Committee for Harry Bridges. He is Chairman of the Free World Association in Hollywood. He is also a member of the Screen Writers' Guild and the Hollywood Writers' Mobilization. He is also a member of the Hollywood Council of Guilds and Unions to fight the Motion Picture Alliance for the Preservation of American Ideals. He was one of the editors of "Hollywood Now," official publication of the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League. Positive proof of membership in the Communist Party is not available, but according to CNDI [redacted] he has been one of the most active supporters of the Communist movement in Hollywood for the past seven or eight years. b7D

ROBINSON, CASEY. According to [CNDI [redacted]] ROBINSON is the husband of TAMARA TOUMANOVA, who is a product of the New Theater League, a Communist controlled organization. She is Russian born and a dancer. Informant advised that he knew nothing of the activities of CASEY ROBINSON himself. b7D

A review of the motion pictures produced or released by RKO Pictures since January 1, 1942, reveals that there were forty-two different directors used. As of November 1, 1944, there were eighteen directors on the pay roll at RKO. Following is a list of those who have Communist affiliations. Those on whom the Los Angeles Office has no Communist record or activity are not being included in the list.

BIBERMAN, HERBERT. (For details, see under title IV, Writers.)

BORZAGE, FRANK. According to CNDI [redacted] BORZAGE is mildly sympathetic to the Communist cause, but the informant did not know of any Communist organizations to which he belonged. He described BORZAGE as one who "goes along" with the Communist fraction in the Screen Directors' League. b7D

CLURMAN, HAROLD EDGAR. CLURMAN is a native-born citizen. He is a director-producer and writer at RKO Studios. His father and mother were born in Russia. CNDI [redacted] has informed that CLURMAN claims to have directed twenty-five Broadway successes, some of which were the following: "Men in White," "Awake and Sing," "Gentle People," "Golden Boy," "Deadline at Dawn." Informant further stated that CLURMAN is a friend and associate of FRANCHOT TONE, JOHN GARFIELD, and CLIFFORD ODETS. His wife, STELLA ADLER, is an actress. IV. WRITERS AT RKO

There are two types of writers in the studios, the original story writer and the scenario writer. The scenario writer writes the dialog from an original story; therefore propaganda might be injected either into the original story or by the scenario writer. One thing is certain; it is the writer who actually injects Communist propaganda into a picture because he writes the script upon which the production of the picture is based. It is to be noted that in the motion picture industry in the Los Angeles area, the Communists are the strongest nucleus of the writers' group. There are approximately eighty-five screen writers in the two writers' clubs of the Communist Party in the Northwest Section of the Los Angeles County Communist Party, now known as the Communist Political Association. It also appears that the Communists have recognized the basic value of the writer in the production of the picture, as will be seen from the large number of Communist writers appearing on the list of RKO writers. From January 1, 1942, to the present time, approximately 120 writers were employed on the ninety-odd full length pictures produced or released through RKO Studios. As of November 1, 1944, there were fifty-three writers at RKO, sixteen of which are contract writers and the remainder are hired only for individual pictures.

BARZMAN, according to informant, was one of the writers of the original "Meet the People" play. V. ACTORS AND ACTRESSES AT RKO

It should be stated here that RKO has no contract "star players," but the studio employs what are known as stock players generally hired for a period of six months, and as a result the players' roster is continually changing.

The "star players," when used in an RKO release, are signed only for the picture and are not regular contract players of RKO. A review of the RKO feature pictures released from January 1, 1942, to date reveals approximately 160 different actors and actresses in leading roles. As of November 1, 1944, RKO had 55 stock players on its roster. VI. FEATURE PICTURES PRODUCED BY OR RELEASED THROUGH RKO RADIO PICTURES

A review of the motion pictures of RKO Radio Pictures from January 1, 1942, to the present time reveals that a total of approximately ninety full length or so-called feature pictures have been produced by or released through RKO. A number of these pictures as will be noted from a perusal of the list of pictures appearing below are "Western" films and "Mystery" films which, according to Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted] are not suitable vehicles for Communist propaganda. This informant also advised that the Communists do not expect that every picture or even a majority of pictures produced by a studio be a Communist vehicle and he advised that from his experience in the Communist movement the Communists consider themselves successful if even one of twenty-five pictures contains important Communist propaganda. He stated that this propaganda may be in the spoken word, the actions or even in implications in the film. b7D

It is believed appropriate to state here that Communist propaganda does not remain static. In explanation of what is meant by this statement it will be remembered that prior to June 22, 1941, the Communists declared that the present war was an imperialist war and therefore they were 100% against Lend Lease, Selective Service, Rearmament and the whole preparedness program of the United States Government. Since June 22, 1941, and continuing to the present date the Communists have completely reversed themselves and have through varying stages fallen in line with the United States Government's program of "win the war and the peace" until today they consider themselves the leaders in the war program and proclaim themselves to be "super patriots". This pretended position, according to Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted] is a sham pretext with which the Communists have cloaked themselves in order to deceive the general public, gain prestige and leadership, and by this pretext having gained strength in government and industry will endeavor to direct the policies of the country in every way possible to the benefit of the Soviet Union, so that the propaganda today is wholly different from what it was three years ago. b7D

Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted] has stated that the present tactics of the Communist movement in respect to using the b7D motion picture as a means of propaganda for the Communist Party line is to refrain from any direct advocacy of Communism but on the contrary to create sympathy for the Soviet Union and picture the Communist as a patriotic and loyal supporter of democracy and democratic processes and free enterprise. This position is deemed necessary to carry out the foreign policy of the Soviet Union in its relation to the rest of the world.

For these reasons Communist propaganda in motion pictures may be extremely difficult to detect and brand with its appropriate label; however, this situation, that of the appearance of support by Communists for patriotic causes, is being utilized to the fullest extent in penetrating the industry by Communists and followers of the Communist Party line. The purpose of this intensive penetration into key positions in the industry, particularly executives, directors, writers and actors, is to prepare for the future because the powerful influence of the motion picture must be used in the interests of Internationalism according to the basic Marxist-Leninist philosophy of Internationalism.

Informant further stated that the Communist forces of the United States are anticipating that at some time in the future there may be another change in the Communist Party line and if and when this does occur they want to be so well entrenched not only in the motion picture industry but in all sections of American life that they can assume their duties called for by the Soviet Union, at that time, whatever they may be.

For these reasons the Communists now profess, in effect, not to be Communists but good American patriots even to the extent of supporting free enterprise and even capitalism itself.

The pictures listed below are those produced by or released through RKO Radio Pictures since January 1, 1942; the only possible way to determine the extent of the Communist propaganda in these pictures would be to review the scripts which are not available or to view them on the screen after release; therefore, all the pictures released by RKO since January 1, 1942, are being listed below with the names of those active in the production underscored where they have Communist affiliation.

VII. RKO PICTURES WHICH ARE KNOWN TO CONTAIN COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA

1. THE NORTH STAR — War Drama
SAMUEL GOLDWYN PRODUCTION released through RKO

The theme of this picture is the glorification of the Soviet Union and its effect on the Russian people who live under that government, in other words a patriotic boost for the Communists and incidentally the wonders which the Soviet Government has brought to its people.

This is a SAMUEL GOLDWYN production dealing with the Russian question in a most favorable aspect. This picture has been recognized by most reviewers as strictly a propaganda picture. (The Communist connections of the cast of this picture are set out supra.)

Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted] has informed that this picture is a SAMUEL GOLDWYN production. WILLIAM CAMERON MENZIES, Associate Producer, produced the picture. He is a fellow traveller of the Communist Party. He works in cooperation with the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS and is an instructor and lecturer in the HOLLYWOOD WRITERS SCHOOL. Both the League and this school, which is its offspring, are completely dominated by the influence of the Communist Party. b7D

LEWIS MILESTONE directed the picture. He has been active in Communist affairs over a period of ten to twelve years. He was born in Russia. He has been sponsor of and active in a great number of Communist front organizations. He is considered by the Communist Party to be one of its foremost supporters in Hollywood. He made a trip to Russia with LAWRENCE STALLINGS, author of "Red Square". He contributes liberally to the Communist cause and is a constant follower of the Communist Party line. He supported the New Theater League, which was affiliated with the International Union of Revolutionary Theaters, the headquarters of which were in Moscow, Russia. He wrote for the New Theater Magazine in 1937. He was a member of the Executive Board of the MOTION PICTURE SPANISH AID COMMITTEE, a Communist front. He signed the letter of "150" which was in protest against the Moscow purge trials. He is a sponsor of the HOLLYWOOD THEATER ALLIANCE, a Communist organization. He has engaged in many other Communist activities. He is a director of motion pictures and a fellow traveler and may be a member of the Communist Party. He is a member of the Executive Board of the MOTION PICTURE ARTISTS COMMITTEE and a member of the LEAGUE OF AMERICAN WRITERS.

RE: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF
THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Confidential National Defense Informant LA [redacted] advised on December 27, 1943, that an official of the LOS ANGELES WORKERS SCHOOL, which is operated by the Communist Party, was told by ROBERT (BOB) S. ROBINSON, Executive Secretary of the LOS ANGELES WORKERS SCHOOL, that "THE NORTH STAR" is the most wonderful picture he had ever seen, and that it was the best motion picture the Communist Party had ever sponsored. b7D

ROBINSON further said that the pictures, "MISSION TO MOSCOW", "THE CITY THAT STOPPED HITLER" and "BATTLE OF RUSSIA" were exactly as they wanted them and portrayed the Communist Party line as it is presently revealed.

The "LOS ANGELES EXAMINER" for December 27, 1943, under the heading, "NORTH STAR INSIDIOUS PROPAGANDA", carried an article by NEIL RAU in substance as follows:

"SAMUEL GOLDWYN has a reputation for making fine pictures. He is famous for sparing no expense and for his meticulous attention to the smallest production detail. It is therefore hard for this reviewer to understand why he has squandered a cold $2,000,000 in the making of 'NORTH STAR'. It is a picture that should never have been made--especially by an American presumably as patriotic as SAMUEL GOLDWYN.

"Written by LILLIAN HELLMAN, whose interest in sovietism is well known, it should get more Communist converts among unthinking sophomoric minds than the late EMMA (GOLDMAN) tried to snare before her deportation. It is not that 'NORTH STAR' comes out boldly labeled as Soviet propaganda. It is too insidious for that. The danger is that someone may take the picture's musical comedy version of life in the Nazi invasion as the real thing.

"The HELLMAN screen play pictures a peaceful Russian village with cattle grazing, peasants living in a constant swing of delirious joy and young people practically bewildered with ecstasy. The admirable fact that Russia is of necessity helping to win our war does not excuse the lack of verity in these scenes.

RE: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF
THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

"Then come the early days of the German putsch and a grim, harrowing tale of the ravishment of the village, the mistreatment of the women and children, and the need for the men to take to the hills. A scene of particular bad taste in a vehicle that is supposed to entertain is the one showing the bleeding of little children until they die from loss of blood.

"In these days when so many homes are desolate through war losses, the witnessing of such a clinical and studied bestiality does not help our American men and women to bear their losses any better.

"LEWIS MILESTONE, of Russian birth and ancestry, was a logical choice for making 'NORTH STAR'. It required a natural bias for the exploitation of life in the Soviet Union as conceived by Miss HELLMAN. Unfortunate that Mr. MILESTONE'S talent and Mr. GOLDWYN'S money were used in making a picture of this type. Why not American propaganda?"

The "HOLLYWOOD REPORTER" for November 8, 1943, carried an article by IRVING HOFFMAN relative to "THE NORTH STAR", which stated in substance that JOHN McMANUS has stated: "No matter what Mr. HEARST says, 'THE NORTH STAR' is a superfine film about Russia. It has unforgettable performances by WALTER HUSTON....and it brims over with rousing music mostly written by the American composer, AARON COPLAND, but also including the international air and children's anthem known to fanciers of Soviet folk music as the Russian 'GOD BLESS AMERICA'. It has a moving script by LILLIAN HELLMAN, all of whose films have been notably Hollywood's most literate and purposeful, a multi-million dollar production by SAMUEL GOLDWYN, perceptive, exciting, direction by LEWIS MILESTONE. In other words, 'NORTH STAR' is one hell of a wonderful movie; and the thing to start figuring out now is why the HEARSTS, the SOKOLSKYS, and others of America's blue legion have launched against it the most vicious and unprincipled smear campaign ever launched against a film in America, even more hateful than that against 'MISSION TO MOSCOW'.

"New York critic DAVID LARDNER noted: 'The picture is a honey, and Mr. GOLDWYN and Mr. MILESTONE ought to be complimented for having had anything to do with it at all. An award for meritorious script writing in this war had better be wrapped up right away and sent to LILLIAN HELLMAN!."

The "HOLLYWOOD REPORTER" for November 8, 1943, repeated an article which appeared in "PM", which stated that JOHN McMANUS of PM had exposed an alleged order by W. R. HEARST commanding that SAMUEL GOLDWYN's "NORTH STAR" be smeared as red propaganda. It stated: "The new SAMUEL GOLDWYN film, 'THE NORTH STAR', is by far the outstanding cinema effort dealing with any phase of the global conflict" or its "insidious, unadulterated Soviet propaganda." It stated that the review written by LAIT after orders from "the chief" (HEARST) is an out and out smear describing the picture as evil Red propaganda "which could not be worse if STALIN had paid for it."

"VARIETY" for November 8, 1943, under the heading, "NORTH STAR DRAWS COLD PRESS," stated, "HEARST BRANDS FILM AS RED PROPAGANDA", and under a New York dateline stated: "'NORTH STAR' ran into topnotch criticism following opening in New York last Thursday, with biggest storm brewing in HEARST newspapers, as publishers reportedly issued orders to all editors that he wanted film referred to as 'bolshevik propaganda' and that it could not be worse if it had been paid for by STALIN. The order went on to say that editors were to pay no attention to requests from GOLDWYN or his representatives for favorable criticism of the film."

The "LOS ANGELES EXAMINER" for December 9, 1943, under the heading, "EDITOR'S MAIL BOX", quoted a "soldier" as saying, "Many thanks to your stage and screen reviewer, who branded 'THE NORTH STAR' for exactly what it is--Bolshevik propaganda. With the swallowing of this, 'MISSION TO MOSCOW', and other pro-Russian sentiment, we can believe that the men who rule Russia today are a group of kindly old men whose only thought is for the betterment of humanity. We are told to please overlook the bloody purges, enslaved regiments, throttling of the press--all after the most shameful murder since the French Revolution, that of Czar NICHOLAS II--by the very men that are Russian leaders today. We can be forever grateful that Russia ison our side instead of with HITLER, but I don't think it necessary to kiss him on both cheeks and call him 'brother'. What a difference it is from the last days of 1939, when people were debating which was the worst, STALIN or HITLER.

2. TENDER COMRADE Drama
An RKO Production released December 29, 1943

[Confidential National Defense Informant [redacted] has informed that LELA ROGERS, Associate Producer, RKO, and mother of GINGER ROGERS, star of the picture, had complained to CHARLES W. KOERNER, Executive Vice-President in Charge of Production, at the time that the picture was being made that the script writer, DALTON TRUMBO, had inserted in the script certain propaganda lines to be spoken by her daughter, GINGER ROGERS. Informant stated that LELA ROGERS had refused to allow her daughter to deliver the lines because of their propaganda nature; that TRUMBO then changed the script so that another actress in the cast spoke the objectionable propaganda lines.] b7D

Informant stated that LELA ROGERS had stated that she was very much worried about this propaganda tendency in motion pictures and said that Communist influence in the motion picture industry in Hollywood is becoming really alarming. He further stated that LELA ROGERS stated that there had not seemed to be any way to stop this practice because the heads of the studios did not recognize the danger to the American people.

(See above for Communist connections and associations of producer DAVID HEMPSTEAD, director EDWARD DMYTRYK and screen play writer DALTON TRUMBO.)

both members of Group A-3, Northwest Section, Los Angeles County Communist Party, USA, and presently active in the Communist Political Association, who are described previously. (For details on BIBERMAN and FROELICH see under titles III and IV respectively.)

The story of this film begins with the collapse of the German army and presents the plans of the German military caste to go underground even before the last shot is fired and plant the seeds for World War III. According to "HOLLYWOOD REPORTER", issue of September 21, 1944, the picture "has almost too many 'messages', but they are messages worth listening to".

According to LELA ROGERS and ROBERT FELLOWS, producers at RKO Studios, who were interviewed by Special Agent H. FRANK ANGELL recently, this picture contains many Communist messages, the exact nature of which to date have not been ascertained in view of the fact that it has not yet shown in Los Angeles and FELLOWS and LELA ROGERS had not seen the picture.

The scene of the story is laid in Belgium as it attempts to rise from its ashes under the guidance of an American officer of the AMG. After the German general staff decides that the Nazis have been a bad bargain specially selected officers are assigned to all parts of liberated Europe to blend unobtrusively into the background while they sow discontent and disunity to weaken the people for the next blitz. Actual Communist Party members and Communist Political Association members in the production include HERBERT BIBERMAN, MORRIS CARNOVSKY and LLOYD BRIDGES.

The picture was premiered in Dallas, Texas, and producer GOLDEN sent three women lecturers around the country praising this picture in order to insure its success. The picture is called a sequel to "HITLER'S CHILDREN", also produced by the GOLDENS.
