1. On 28 October 1963 identities A and B were entertained at the home of Dauril ALDEN, a Latin American history professor at the University of Washington. Dr. ALDEN and his teaching assistant Bradley BEDERNICK (SIC) discussed a Jim WILKIE, a friend of both of theirs, who had gone to Mexico to interview Lazaro CARDENAS and to gain access to his memoirs in order to write his Ph.D. thesis on CARDENAS. Dr. ALDEN said that WILKIE, the recipient of a Mills Foundation Grant of about U.S. $3,000, had already had several interviews with CARDENAS and was going to tape more interviews.

2. Identity A, who thinks that WILKIE is a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley, stated that Subject did his Masters Thesis on CARDENAS and the Catholic Church in the 1930's. Subject's wife, Edie (Edith?) is a Guatemalan. His brother, Richard WILKIE, is doing his Ph.D. at the University of Washington in Seattle in Geography. His brother's address is 3126 Fuhrman Avenue East, Seattle 2, Washington.
