Relevant Portions of Robert Groden, JFK: The Case for Conspiracy Videotape (1993)

Zapruder Film Narrator Statement

> The version on the video is a "rare and unreleased intact copy of the Zapruder film" made before two frames, numbers 155 and 156, were removed by Time-Life, Inc.

From the Videotape Jacket

> "Presented here for the first time are the films of the murder, mastered from Mr. Groden's original material."

Relevant Portions of Robert Groden, JFK: The Case for Conspiracy, Vol. II -- The Assassination Films Videotape (1995)

Zapruder Film Narrator Statements

> "It is made directly from the original film."

> "When Life Magazine bought the Zapruder film, they damaged it and spliced it in two places. This copy was made prior to the film being damaged and is intact. There are no splices in this version."

> "The missing splice sequences have been reinserted from the first generation copy of the film."

Nix Film Narrator Statements

> "This is the only known copy of the Nix film made directly from the original."

From the Videotape Jacket

> "The famous Zapruder home movie of the assassination, available here for the first time in its original, unspliced condition."