To whom it may concern:

I am writing in support of David R. Montague, who was our Senior Investigator for two years. I worked with him on a number of projects.

It was a pleasure to work with him during those two years. I found him to be unfailingly cooperative, helpful, and of good cheer. He has the rare ability always to exhibit good humor in pressure-filled situations. I frequently had the pleasure of boasting to others about our man at the Review Board who could find anyone anywhere in the country. I was amazed at his speed and diligence in responding to queries and coming up with solutions.

I would be very happy to provide further information if it would be of use and you should not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

T. Jeremy Gunn

General Counsel
