COMMENTS:

Dear Jack:

I asked Deb Reichmann to provide a list of topics she would like to cover when speaking with you. I have attached her e-mail message.

Re: the depositions of the Dallas doctors. As you know, Jeremy conducted the depositions yesterday. We have not officially gone public with this. We have had discussions with David Lifton about his providing background information in the event that we conduct these depositions. After reading his latest correspondence, regardless of what he was told by anyone here, he seems to think that we definitely were going ahead with this. So word might slowly be getting out based solely on what David Lifton thinks he heard. Please let me know how you respond to that question, and that will become our official response here if/when I get asked that question.

Please let me know if you need any additional information or if there is anything else that I can do.

Eileen
