Action Required: FYI

References: A. UFGT-17034, 8 August 1966 B. DIRECTOR 27199, 11 August 1966

- 1. AMCLATTER/1 was terminated effective 31 July 1966 on 12 August 1966 at which time he signed a termination Secrecy Oath and a Quitclaim, copies of which are being forwarded under separate cover enclosure. He was, as authorized by Headquarters in Reference B, paid a termination bonus amounting to three months net salary as well as the cost of a single round-trip air fare between Miami and Chicago. The net amount paid AMCLATTER/1 in cash was $1453.17, although the total cost to JMWAVE of the termination was $1656.87, including Federal Income Tax and FICA deduction. He also was issued a "W-2" statement showing his total cover company earnings for 1966 including the bonus of three months salary, but not the cost of the air fare which amounted to $156.87.
- 2. The termination of AMCLATTER/1 was carried out in an amicable manner. He seemed pleased with our efforts in helping him ger the job in Chicago am well as the bonus payment. He requested, however, that it be made a matter of record that he would drop everything in Chicago and rejoin WOFACT at a moment's notice in any capacity or salary level, if his services should ever be required again. He also raised the question of his citizenship, criticizing both LNERGO and LNGOLD for their failure to help him. He was told, as he has been told on previous occasions in the past, that we could do nothing to help him on this matter, and that any complaints between himself and other agencies had to be handled by him alone. He accepted this position gracefully, stating that we had treated him fairly and he had no complaint against WOFACT.

- 3. AMCLATTER/1 departed the Miami area for Chicago on 13 August where he will undergo a four week training period with the Rauland Corporation, a subsidiary of the Zeni h Radio Corporation. The Rauland Corporation, which manufactures color TV tubes, employs a large number of Cubans, and is in the process of hiring additional employees from among the Cuban refugees in Miami. AMCLATTER/1, with our guidance and assistance, ent a letter of application to the Personnel Director of the Zenith Radio Corporation providing background data on himself. A copy of the letter is being forwarded under separate cover enclosure for Headquarters' files. He subsevisited Miami in late July, and was hired in a supervisory position which will involve his working in a liaison capacity between management and the Cuban work force. He was promised a salary of approximately $180 a week per 60-hour work week, plus reimbursement for the expenses of moving his family and household effects from Miami to Chicago. He has expressed his indebtedness to us for helping him obtain the position, and is eager to make good since he believes that we were instrumental in his getting the job.
- 4. As explained in Reference A, AMCLATTER/1's contract was not renewed in April 1966 because plans were underway at that time to terminate him. His performance for the past soveral months has been practically nil, not because he has not been eager for work, but mainly due to the fact that he is not suited for what has to be done. He started working for JMWAVE in April 1960 as a Principal Agent, and during the period preceding the Bay of Pigs he handled a number of for recruitment. Since much of this activity was more overt than covert, he was thoroughly blown as a WOFACT asset, and eventually became known in the area as a sort of WOFACT spokesman, a role which concentrating on more covert activities, AMCLATTER/1 became something of a security problem, since any statements or opinions expressed by taken for "official leaks" or "policy".
- enthusiasm for his work. He has, however, been his dedication and enthusiasm for his work. He has, however, been somewhat of a problem in that he is a "heavy handed" operator who tries to impress his contacts with his importance, thereby committing a number of indiscretions. A good example of this can be found in his performance during the recent election of officers in the 2506 Brigade. AMCLATTER/1 had a number of contacts in the Brigade and was instructed to monitor, the Brigade through his contacts. Instead of monitoring the activities of the Brigade through his contacts. Instead of monitoring the activities of them of his contacts however, he began hammering away at them, instructing from the work against certain candidates. This gave the instructing from the worker was attempting to rig the elections through AMCLATTER/1. This immediately came to the Station's attention, as some of those contacts were working for JMWAVE and complained through their came officers that AMCLATTER/1 was throwing his weight around and giving the impression that he was running the election for WOFACT. As a result, AMCLATTER/1 was reprimended and told a second time that he was to report only what he heard about the elections and not to setivaty sook information. Instead of heading this advice, he again sought out his contacts and "chowed" them out for Motting his the trouble with his superiors. They squar reported his through their came officers, which made matters at the worse slice he had been instructed not to let them know what had developed.
- 6. In fatherm to AMCIATTER/1 it must be said that he is a sensetentious and tireless worker who believed in what he was doing, and who took pride in his association with WOPACT. He often stated that he was eager really to do sessiting, and indicated that he would have liked to have had the opportunity of participating in some type of PM setivity, sithough he restrand his ago was against him. Perhaps he was right since it became obvious in the past several months that he had little aptitude for debriefing refugees or handling contacts. In any event, we felt that in all fairness to AMCLATTER, that he should be terminated at the first suitable opportunity and in a manner that would be helpful and beneficial to him. It was also preferable to get him settled outside the JNWAVE area. He himself realized that he was getting older, and that there was little opportunity for him in the type of work that he was doing for JMWAVE. The job that he has obtained in Chicago represents a real break for him as well as a considerable increase in salary. We feel he deserves this break and hope he performs well.

- 7. There were no major security violations on AMCLATTER/1's part. His home address did appear on a PBRUMEN intelligence service censorship list which possibly contained the names and/or addresses of alleged PBRUMEN intelligence agents in WOLADY, but the validity of the list was never fully confirmed and he was SGSWIRLED on this matter in April 1964 with overall favorable results. Because of his six year association with JMWAVE, he has been exposed to a number of case officers, some of whom he knows by true name, and whose identities are listed in Paragraph 3 of his PRQ Part II. They can be obtained from there if necessary.
- 8. AMCLATTER/1 completed a six weeks basic tradecraft course in New York City in September 1964. He has had no other formal WOFACT training. He had no logistical material assigned to him at the time of his termination.
