My dear Mr. Narens:

This is to express the President's thanks for your very generous thought in wanting him to have Amelia Earhart's aviation license which you forwarded with your letter of May eleventh. He is delighted to have this item to add to his collection.

Dear President Truman:-

In an article in a national weekly magazine it stated you were a collector of prints dealing with aviation. I am sending you Amelia Earhart's license which is signed by her and Orville Wright. It is a collectors item. I hope you will like it.

Sincerely yours,

May Narens.
