RE: "MINUTEMEN"

Detective LOYD MATHEWS, Paris, Texas Police Department, advised on December 11, 1964, that a LUTHER SOUTH, commonly referred to as "Pop", had been employed by the National Guard Armory, Greenville, Texas until about March, 1964. Due to the re-organization in the Guard by the State of Texas, SOUTH had been transferred to North Fort Hood, Texas and could be located at the first building on the left after you enter the North Fort Hood entrance on the highway coming from Gatesville, Texas to North Fort Hood. MATHEWS advised that SOUTH was a permanent employee of the State of Texas and was a non-commissioned officer in charge of maintenance of the armory when he was in Greenville and he assumes that SOUTH is carrying on the same duties at North Fort Hood. MATHEWS stated that he was able to learn that SOUTH had a brother who had been, or still is, with the 949th Division of the National Guard at Dallas, Texas. On December 16, 1964 DL T-1 advised that the "SOUTH" he referred to previously as the contact of the "Minutemen" in a possible attempt in a raid on a Northeast Texas Armory was NOLAN SOUTH. SOUTH, whose original home is near Cooper, Texas presently works for a National Guard Armory in Dallas and is the brother-in-law of GRADY R. TURPIN of approximately 1129 Alston Avenue, Fort Worth, Texas. DL T-1 advised TURPIN is a member of the "Minutemen" Group in the Fort Worth area but is not one of the more active members. DL T-1 advised that some of the members have recently obtained Smith and Wesson Victory Model Thirty-eight special revolvers and these revolvers appear to be new. DL T-1 did not know the source of these revolvers.

On December 17, 1964 a check of current Dallas Telephone Directory reflected that a NOLAN F. SOUTH resided at 7223 Lake June Road. On December 17, 1964 a check of the current Fort Worth City Directory reflected that GRADY R. TURPIN, whose wife's name is EUNICE E., resides at 1131 Alston Avenue, Fort Worth, and is a machine operator for the Container Corporation. On December 17, 1964 operator 3, Fort Worth Retail Merchants Credit Association, 508 Commerce Street, Fort Worth, advised that GRADY R. TURPIN has been in the credit bureau files since December 11, 1943.
