- j. A Spanish Communist named Juan REJANO (201-109435) told Teresa PROENZA that he could get 100 signatures on any paper demanding justice for her. She politely asked him not to do so.
- k. APARICIO says that he understands that Teresa is trying to get a position in Cuba and that former Ambassador FORTUONDO is somehow involved in this.
- l. A man named (fnm) POFOCA, Communist from Mericali, B.C., probably mixed up with Branlio MALDONADO, was at the Embassy on 16 Jan. L-9 does not know who he dealt with.
- m. Dra. MACHADO is "going crazy" now that LITAMIL-7 is away on vacation. She recently pointed to a pile of papers on her desk and said, "If L-7 doesn't come back soon I'll die." L-9 says that this shows how important L-7 is to the smooth functioning of the office. As an aside to B, he remarked, "You know, L-7 is on our side." She is in Caracas on vacation.
- n. On Saturday 11 Jan many of the Embassy staff were invited to a social afternoon at the Soviet Embassy -- all the other Socialist Embassies received similar invitations. The Yugoslavs were conspicuously absent. L-9 noted that the Soviet Ambassador was especially interested in greeting APARICIO. Those present played volleyball and chess or just sat around and visited.
- o. Silvia DURAN was visiting the consulate on the morning of 15 Jan -- talking with Buenaventura REYES. L-9 said, "Are you back with us, Silvita?" to which she replied, "No, you folks don't love me anymore."
- p. The Embassy had a short ceremony in commemoration of the death of Mella -- the Ambassador, APARICIO, and MIRABAL spoke.
- q. There will be an affair at the Cultural Institute on the 26th celebrating Marti's birthday. Photographs will be exhibited and a few speeches will be made. Among the speakers will be (fnm) MELO, Emilio (lmu), APARICIO, and Emmanuel CARBALLO.
- r. On Wednesday morning (15 Jan) L-9 and APARICIO visited the Sociedad Mexicana de Planificacion. This was merely a courtesy visit -- no real business was transacted. (LIENVOY shows this visit).

and other activities in 1964

5. In connection with the Literary Contest of the Casa de Las Americas in Havana, L-9 reported as follows:

- a. A number of people from Mexico are expected to travel to Havana to act as judges in this contest. Among these are:
 - Alejandro JEWITSKY (phon) who will be ready to go in January. He is recommended by APARICIO.
 - Gabriel FERNANDEZ Ledesma will go in April to be there when Soviet material is judged.

Alberca: Did you call the name from the publications?
Aparicio: Let's take each thing one at a time. First, this Employee: No, I told him he did not want it in this manner.

Aparicio: Don't move it so much....it's all right there.

Employee: Then, they say that their charges are high... that you're probably thinking of economizing.
I told him: It's not that but that we want something that will come out all right, and as usual, but the thing is that I cannot do it.
I don't have the means to facilitate the means.

Aparicio: What means? He don't have any means.

Employee: No, it's that at the Institute the recording could be made at night.

Aparicio: But where was the machine to do the recording at night?

Employee: Well, that's why he explains that Emanuel Carballo has one.

Aparicio: A recording machine?

Employee: A recording machine...and he has the other one, so he can make the recording. It would only be a matter of your getting together with Sr. Carballo.

Aparicio: Please call Gabriel. The telephone is....

(Note: Conversations heard on this reel did not come through very clearly, so only fragments here and there could be understood.)

Aparicio: (to Alberca) Listen, Alberca, so the Ambassador for people to and creative gatherings at the Institute....that what she is now in Cuba....
I say that the Ambassador is now satisfied with the gathering he organized on the 20th.

who perhaps may think that your aunt is not so needed.

Alberu: What aunt?

Aparicio: Your aunt Teresa... (followed by a curse word)

(Teresa's aunt)

Time now is 16:55 hrs. on the 30th of Jan. '64.

Alberu: Wait, wait -- because there is another one which is like it and which is the 30th of January, number 40, and that one we have it here.

Employee: Suggestions invitations important doctors...

Aparicio: No, take note... 40... what's the matter with Alberu... that's the matter with the Sovietico (Soviet man)?

Alberu: There's nothing here.

Aparicio: Wait, let me finish... 40, 40... (sound of papers, like he's looking for something).

30th of January... then, the way you can help me rapidly is to localize the number of this note.

Employee: This note?

Aparicio: No, the one which has 18th of January, and bring me the number name because I have to prepare a cablegram with the Ambassador... Lima, Peru.

Alberu: Is there in transit -- the Venezuelan expert who came yesterday... that tomorrow at 4 p.m., near the Embassy here, at Gral. Leonardo (or Lecl) No. 22 -- three blocks from here -- they are going to exhibit a film.

Aparicio: Tomorrow at 4 p.m.

Alberu: Calle Gral. Leonardo (or Lecl) No. 22.

Aparicio: If I can make it I'll go, I don't know if I'll be able to... or if you want, you can go yourself, but you don't want to go, do you?
