Memorandum

TO : Files

FROM : CI Specialist/OS

SUBJECT: ROSNEK, George M.

DATE: 25 September 1973

Brown

1. In regard to the several lump sums of money given to Subject since 1969, the undersigned has in general avoided specific instructions or statements to Subject in regard to what he should do with the money. However, a distinct effort has been made in a somewhat indirect manner to limit the amount of money irretrievably spent by Subject.

2. The following is a general report on the present financial condition of Subject and how the major portion of the money received by Subject since 1 April 1969 (above regular salary) has been spent:

$8,000.00 circa 1 May 1969 - spent for purchase of furniture and household effects.

$25,000.00 circa 1 July 1970 - $5,000.00 spent in moving, purchase of additional household effects, etc., and $20,000.00 down payment on residence. Total purchase price of residence circa $45,000.00. Present remaining on mortgage circa $24,000.00. On this residence, Subject has a valid sales agreement which because of the current mortgage money situation (interest ceiling) cannot be completed. Purchase price is $63,000.00 with $5,000.00 deposit and one year from 1 October 1973 for purchaser to fulfill contract. If contract is not completed in the year, purchaser loses deposit (1/2 to Subject and 1/2 to real estate company). In the meantime, there is a valid rental agreement effective 1 October 1973 at the rate of $450.00 per month which is completely separate from the contract to purchase.

From lump sum money received by Subject in the latter part of 1972 and 1973, Subject purchased three large lots located on a canal to open water in Oriental, North Carolina. Total purchase price was $15,000.00 and the current list price for similar lots is about $9,000.00 per lot. Investment in the new residence is circa $70,000.00 (not including price of lots) and there is no encumbrance on this property. There is adequate reason to believe the above property is currently worth $100,000.00 or more. The automobiles of Subject are paid for and he owes about $9,000.00 to be paid out of the approximately $35,000.00 equity in original residence when sales contract is completed.

3. In general terms, Subject, when sales contract on previous residence is completed, will have his current property fully paid for, owe nothing on personal effects and have $25,000.00 as a financial reserve which he intends to place in a Savings and Loan facility or in three or more Time Deposits.
