[R] - ITEM IS RESTRICTED 104-10112-10078

21 October 1953

DONALD R. HOPKINS, Harold Noemayr
PL-21, Millicentral, 4141-13th block, 3:30 PM

1. [Noemayr] was contacted according to prearranged phone conversation details at the same block where he and the [agent] several weeks ago. Most of the contact was devoted to general discussion of current ops and future plans.
2. [Noemayr] is very optimistic about the developments of [LITTEL], this man has been following a pattern, unknown to me, that leads to sitting recruitment. The agent [LITTEL] has expressed the desire to conduct exchanges of information in a clandestine manner, thus indicating that he recognizes that he is doing something that he would not want to get caught at. There is no need for us to be concerned about [Noemayr] posing the question since the time will arise with him when he will suddenly realize that he is and has been working against his own organization and that he has become a penetration agent. At that time, his motivation toward playing the game will increase as it does with most reliable agents. [LITTEL] represents placement in the past three or four persons in the [CCOM], [PP] and [LAL] and can be a most valuable asset once fully recruited. It was therefore judged advisable to wait for a better contact with [LITTEL] to show up before really trying to train the agent, rather than substituting [LITTEL] with [LITTEL] whom [LITTEL] says would be very harmful since he would get along with people - it was decided to retain [LITTEL], who has at least good rapport even though he doesn't catch on to the intelligence racket.
3. [Noemayr] has been going through the extensive files maintained by Postary and has digested [LITTEL] into numerous target analyses on key [COM] [COM] [PP] figures. He suggested that he both might run over them together some afternoon at his home so that I might see what he has and then see where I can add details from the office. His wife works and the maid is accustomed to seeing visiting gringos. [LITTEL] [Noemayr] on [LITTEL] files, but he seemed confident that all is [LITTEL] in his home. I shall pursue this topic later with him.
4. He made arrangements for the next meeting: Parque de las Americas, 5:00 P.M., Friday 7 Nov. I will be on foot, he by car. If no danger, I will definitely [LITTEL] toward him as he approaches counterclockwise to my walking. Otherwise, he will drive away and return in ten minutes.
5. He ended by his driving me through the area in which he lives so as to let me judge for myself as to the environment around his place in case I decide to stage target analyses at his home.
6. [Noemayr] passed several reports and ops data, received in turn [LITTEL] for self and [LITTEL].

OF SPECIAL IMPORTANCE:

During our conversation regarding the [LITTEL] [LITTEL] program, [LITTEL] mentioned that his wife had suggested an operational possibility. What is of interest is that she is apparently intimately aware of his [LITTEL] activity. He himself said that in Costa Rica when he first started [LITTEL] [LITTEL] she used to meet the agent when he ([Noemayr]) could not make a contact. [LITTEL] recorded that during my recent debriefing of [LITTEL] (3), the agent asked about [LITTEL] I made a noncommittal answer and asked why did he ask? The agent replied that his greatest fears is that [Noemayr] and his wife might part ways and she might be an agent. [LITTEL] explained that she had two [LITTEL] [LITTEL] [LITTEL] [LITTEL] [LITTEL] is a SHOEMAKER WHO USED TO BE A PVP MILITANT AND WHO LIVES IN SAN JOSE. (Agent is also a shoemaker) He fears that if Noemayr and wife separated, she might reveal her knowledge of HEMANOID-3 to her brother or to someone who would also get word back to the Party. The implications in Mexico appear to be equally great, if she should be aware of LIONEL LIPTEK and our other penetrations.
