C. OGC Memo of 14 December 1992 on Declassification Guidelines for JFK Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992

1. In reviewing Box 9, Folder 74, of the JFK Assassination files there are documents pertaining to Privacy Act cases on the following individuals:

- Edward Ivan Arthur - 3 pages
- Edward Browder - 3 pages
- John W. Donovan - 6 pages
- William Bernard Harvey - 2 pages
- Michael J. McLaney - 4 pages
- Gordon D. Novel - 11 pages
- Harold Weisberg - 18 pages

2. Our reading of the JFK legislation, SEC. 6. (3), suggests that the argument for withholding on privacy grounds must be very strong. We would appreciate your guidance on this matter based on the attached samples. Do we deny the attached information involving Privacy Act requests or are we obligated to release the unclassified portions of these documents under the JFK Assassination Act? The material highlighted in yellow is the material we propose to delete should these documents be judged releasable. If there is additional information that should be deleted, please bracket it in red.
