MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD.

SUBJECT: Telephone Conversation with AMBIDDY-1, 16 Dec 63, 1230-1300 hours

1. AMBIDDY-1 called the SAS/SO/HH sterile phone to report the following:

a. He is in Miami.

b. Interarmco accepted the $80,000 down payment and the balance of the payment will be made when the shipment is delivered.

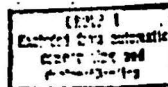

c. AMWORLD has found a new location in Nicaragua for the communications vessel where there is a bay deep enough for the vessel. The location is 90 miles south of Puerto Nuevo, and AMWORLD can use the airfield at Puerto Nuevo. AMJAVA-4 wants to have a meeting with Dick on Saturday, 21 December, in order to explain all details to him. (Later in the conversation arrangements were made by Dick to meet AMJAVA-4 on 21 Dec, at 2000 in the Lord Baltimore Hotel.)

d. AMBIDDY-1 and AMJAVA-4 are leaving for Nicaragua on 18 December to deliver Christmas gifts.

2. AMBIDDY-1 inquired about the messages on the San Jose link. He was told we had sent four messages, one of which was for him only. Since he had not received the message, I relayed to him as a personal message from Mr. Archer the following: He is not to do anything regarding the wooden boats. Mr. Archer investigated the target and found it is not worth the risk involved.

3. Dick inquired regarding the whereabouts of the ADELAIDA. AMBIDDY-1 reported that the ADELAIDA is presently on the high seas. She unloaded her cargo, went to Bluefields and left Bluefields on 14 Dec. The ADELAIDA had an accident before she arrived in Costa Rica. A tree trunk ran into her propeller; resultant damage caused a short-circuit and the electrical system was completely damaged so that the radar, radio, etc., do not work. Manolin Gutierrez, as delegate of Maritima Bam, will prepare a list of the necessary repairs and sent it to Scarlette. AMBIDY-1 estimates that the ADELAIDA will arrive in Baltimore the 22-23 of December and that it will take until 5-7 January to complete repairs.

4. Dick suggested to AMBIDY-1 that he notify Interarmco of the delay in the arrival of the ADELAIDA, but AMBIDY-1 did not see any need for doing this at this time, since he believes the ADELAIDA will be ready to meet the boat from Europe. He said, however, if he foresees that the ADELAIDA will not be able to meet the boat from Europe, he will notify Interarmco.

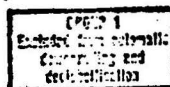

5. Regarding the airplane in Costa Rica, AMBIDY-1 expects to transfer it to Panama. He plans to give instructions today to Manuel Hernandez to have him visit the friend whose name Dick gave to AMBIDY-1. Then AMBIDY-1 will talk to Carrillo about cancelling the charter with Talaria, since Carrillo will do whatever AMBIDY-1 wants.

6. When asked about his physical examination, AMBIDY-1 said he had not yet been to the doctor. He was reminded that he had promised Mr. Archer to see a doctor for a physical examination.

7. ^{by} AMBIDY-1 will call again at 1600 hours to talk to Mr. Boysen.
