18. On 10/10/68, the New York Times, under the headline "Soviet officials claim one satellite of the United States has broken off relations with Moscow," reported that the Soviet Union had broken off relations with Cuba. The article stated that the Soviet government had announced that it had decided to sever ties with the island nation. The article also mentioned that the Soviet government had accused Cuba of being a satellite of the United States. The article further stated that the Soviet government had decided to sever ties with Cuba because of the latter's alleged support of the United States. The article also mentioned
