I. OPERATIONAL
1. As reflected in the attached (separate cover) report submitted by the AMSCROLL Secretary General, there were two personnel changes made during the month. The first was to replace the commentator on the early morning farm workers radio program who died in May. The second was to bring into full-time status a former part-time employee of the propaganda department. 2. The AMSCROLL report also details the contacts made during the month with other groups and individuals of significance, and contains an enclosure by AMBLEAK/1, on correspondence maintained with officials of governments and organizations of political significance throughout the hemisphere. Although these activities are not of direct operational value, they are important to the AMSCROLL image, which must be improved constantly if the organization hopes to have a good standing in exile and, more importantly, a future in Cuba. Other enclosures in the AMSCROLL Secretary General's report, such as the summaries of the activities of the Women's and Labor Department, etc., are in the same vein. One item which should be noted is the Cuban stamp commemorating the third anniversary of the "Victory of Giron," which shows the U.S. eagle in a gun sight as it falls to its death. Perhaps K UWOLF might conjure up an appropriate reply to be used at the correct psychological moment sometime in the future.

II. PRODUCTION

1. Printed Propaganda

New material published in July included issues #36 and #37 of the AMSCROLL house organ (full summaries of their content are in the attachment), another miniature issue of the AMSCROLL monthly news bulletin for Cuban distribution, a small edition of last month's brochure on AMSCROLL publications (this one did not give prices, but only described the material available for Cubans who might request any they had not received), and the revision of a previous AMSCROLL booklet on Castro-Communist subversion in Latin America. This last was brought up-to-date and supplemented with a large number of photos, mostly clipped from Latin American newspapers, vividly illustrating the violence which has resulted from Cuba's attempts to export the revolution. Along with previous publications, these were distributed as follows (see AMSCROLL report for details and exemplars):

- a. To Cuba - 87,000 items in 29,000 envelopes.
- b. To Latin America - 26,187 items.
- c. To U.S. addressees - 22,557 items.
- d. To Europe - 593 items.
- e. Total - 78,337 items.

4. Press Releases

During the past month AMSCROLL issued 7 press releases among which were the text of a letter sent to Chiefs ODACID and ODMARK on "underground reports" (actually furnished by SYMPATHIZERS) of a trade deal by which a free world country was to supply technical equipment of military value to Cuba. Other matters noted in press releases were free-world sea trade with Cuba, the refusal of the British Aircraft Corporation to sell jets to Cuba, announcements of new propaganda initiatives, etc. A total of 2,150 copies of these press releases were distributed.

5. Radio Propaganda

Brief summaries of the content of each broadcast of both AMSCROLL programs are in the attached report. Among the more important themes covered were the OAS meeting in Washington and the 26 July celebrations in Havana.

III. FINANCIAL

Salaries	$ 3,825.00
Operational expenditures	9,695.36
Total		$13,520.36

IV. FUTURE PLANS
