MEMORANDUM

RETURN TO CIA
Background Use Only
Do Not Reproduce

SUBJECT : Mike - Itkin

1. See our IN 66370 from <sup>12-10</sup> [redacted] (This is our <sup>02</sup> copy. It is RYBAT. and therefore we can't make a copy.) (DRJIBE/1 is [redacted])

2. A reliable source indicates that the District Attorney's office in New York maintains a routine contact with the INTERPOL Chief in Treasury. Mr. Hogan's officer is Cantrell. He has a direct contact with Douglas, the INTERPOL representative in Washington. In December 1967, the District Attorney's office in New York City, through Cantrell, triggered an inquiry by INTERPOL, Washington, to Scotland Yard, London, regarding Herbert Itkin's travel from London at a particular time and on a particular flight. It is assumed, therefore, that the request to [redacted] also originated with ~~Hogan's~~ office.

<sup>12-10</sup>
3. Regarding Itkin's allegations of contact with the Agency during the period 1954-1961, Mr. Sam Papich noted that the individuals in Senator Joseph McCarthy's Investigative Staff in 1954 were:

Frank CARR
Jim GIULIANO
Don SURINE

CARR, he said, was Chief of the Investigative Staff and would certainly have known of any contacts maintained by McCarthy under circumstances alleged by Itkin. Mr. Papich did not know CARR's present whereabouts. GIULIANO was an assistant. He was last reported to have been practicing law in Washington. Both GIULIANO and CARR are quite approachable, Mr. Papich thought. He recommended against querying Mr. SURINE.
