OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Friday - 9 December 1977

1. (Unclassified - ME) LIAISON I responded to a call received last evening and discussed with Ms. Ryan Conroy, in the office of Senator Alan Cranston (D., Calif.), the FOIA request from constituent, Donald J. Hume. The Senator's office has received another letter from Mr. Hume asking for his help in persuading CIA to waive fees. Ms. Conroy asked for a copy of our letter to Mr. Hume concerning this subject and she will reply directly to Mr. Hume.

2. (Confidential - PG) LIAISON Together with Lyle Miller, Deputy Legislative Counsel, and Ray Hart, OS, visited Leon Jaworski, Special Counsel, House Committee on Standards of Official Conduct, in his law offices. The purpose of our call was to give Mr. Jaworski a compartmented briefing for access to SI material. Mr. Jaworski proved to be a cooperative briefee and an excellent raconteur.

3. (Unclassified - RSG) LIAISON Pat Orr, Betsy Palmer, Edwin Lopez, Gaeton Fonzi, Gary Cornwall, G. Robert Blakey, all members of the House Select Committee on Assassinations staff, visited the Agency to review several documents: Cuban Counter-Revolutionary Handbook, Bayo-Pawley Affair, William Pawley, Frank Sturgis, sanitized IG Report on Book-V. Notes were taken on the Cuban Revolutionary Handbook, classified, sanitized, and couriered to the Committee offices. Other notes for Pat Orr were retained until Monday.

4. (Unclassified - RSG) LIAISON Took a call from Danny Coulson, FBI General Counsel Office, who informed me that he had a "Cuban Counter-Revolutionary Handbook" in his possession which appeared to be CIA-originated. He couriered the Book to me for disposition and will follow with a cover memorandum.

5. (Internal Use Only - PG) LIAISON Dan Swellinger, Deputy Special Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, and three staff researchers made their first visit to Headquarters to review files. Mr. [redacted] formerly Chief EA/JK Branch and Deputy Chief of Station in [redacted] provided a briefing on the KCIA and orientation into CIA files. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in file review.
