4. (Unclassified - DFM) LIAISON Mike Madigan, Minority Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, called to inquire about the status of the Committee's request for information on Panama. I told him I was attempting to set up an interview with the Chief of Latin America Division for Friday. Madigan said that is what he wanted to request.

5. (Confidential - PLC) LIAISON Met with R. A. (Gus) Edwards, Administrative Assistant to Representative Paul S. Trible, Jr. (R., Va.), and discussed arrangements for Mr. Trible to meet with [redacted] OTR Agency officer in charge of [redacted] to discuss the Agency's activities at the facility and to invite him down. Edwards had served on the staff of former Representative Thomas N. Downing (D., Va.), Mr. Trible's predecessor, and handled Agency matters concerning [redacted]. Mr. Trible's schedule is very tight and Edwards will call. The meeting will be a future Thursday, the day of the week that Mr. [redacted] visits Headquarters. The visit to [redacted] will probably be on a Friday since Mr. Trible returns to his District each weekend. Wes Finer, OTR, was advised.

6. (Confidential - PLC) BRIEFING Accompanied Doug George, OWI, at a briefing of Chairman Olin E. Teague (D., Texas), House Science and Technology Committee, which was conducted in his hospital room at the Bethesda Naval Medical Center. Mr. George covered the Soviet anti-satellite program and recent Soviet space developments. (See Memorandum for the Record prepared by Mr. George.) Mr. Teague was most appreciative of the efforts made for the briefing and expressed a very high regard and support for the Agency. He asked if we had any information as to an energy shortage in the Soviet Union and if they have any breeder reactors for energy use. I told him I would check and get the information to him.

7. (Unclassified - PLC) ADMINISTRATIVE DELIVERIES Delivered to Jacqueline Hess, House Select Committee on Assassinations staff, the latest package of Agency documents concerning the assassination of President Kennedy which were released under court order in the FOI case of Mr. Fensterwald.
