8. (Confidential - DFM) LIAISON Called Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, to clarify a report we had received from our [redacted] that a group of five Select Committee members were planning to visit Tokyo, but not before 15 November. Miller knew nothing about this visit and I so informed Phil Fendig's, SA/DO/O, office.

9. (Internal Use Only - DFM) LIAISON Called Elliot Maxwell, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding Senator Walter Huddleston's (D., Ky.) proposed trip to Israel which Maxwell had mentioned to me at the CI briefing on 3 November. Maxwell said it now appeared the trip was off and he would let me know if there was any change in that status.

10. (Unclassified - DFM) LIAISON Called Sherry Towell, Senate Select Committee on Committees staff. I told Ms. Towell I was very interested in the work of the Committee and would appreciate any information she could give me about the Committee's recommendations for restructuring of the Senate committee system. She put my name on the mailing list and offered to send me some material immediately. She also said that the Select Committee would have their recommendations considered as the first order of business in the new Congress so that no committee assignments would be made until the Senate had considered the recommendations.

11. (Unclassified - LLM) LIAISON Jacqueline Hess, House Select Committee on Assassinations staff, called concerning the request regarding the number of CIA people involved in the Warren Commission. After checking with Scott Breckinridge, Deputy Inspector General, I told her that the number was approximately 50 professionals, 12 of them on a relatively full-time basis, somewhat up from the figures of 30 and 10 which I had provided Patricia Orr, also on the Committee staff, on Wednesday.

12. (Unclassified - NDL) LIAISON Received a call from Debby Machemehl, on the staff of Representative Edwin D. Eshleman (R., Pa.), who said that the Congressman was retiring and that his Administrative Assistant, Robert S. Walker, would be taking his place and wanted to continue receiving the same FBIS reports that Representative Eshleman is now receiving. After checking with FBIS Liaison, I called Ms. Machemehl back and told her there would be no problem.
