5. (Internal Use Only - MMP) EMPLOYMENT Called Forrest Frank, House International Relations Committee staff, to thank him for his thank you note for the SALT briefing that he and Representative Anthony C. Beilenson (D., Calif.) received on 28 December 1977. I also thanked Frank for the curriculum vitae that he sent me on Alex Gliksman. Frank told me that subsequent to sending me the letter, he met Gliksman and was very favorably impressed by him. He added that while Gliksman was somewhat dubious about employment with the CIA (due to fear that this employment might prejudice his future employment possibilities), he would be willing to discuss employment possibilities with the CIA. I told Frank that I would pass the curriculum vitae on to the appropriate office and thanked him for his interest.

6. (Unclassified - KJS) LIAISON Sent via courier to Carl Sahre, in the office of Representative Donald J. Mitchell (R., N. Y.), background information on Kenya per the earlier request of Larry Epstein, of the Congressman's staff, to OLC.

7. (Unclassified - RSG) LIAISON Took a call from Jackie Hess, House Select Committee on Assassinations staff, who requested the date of birth of Daniel Carswell who was the individual cited in their letter of 22 December 1977. In addition, Jackie indicated she would formally request access to FOIA documents 1194 through 1363 both sanitized and unexpurgated. Finally, she alerted me to a forthcoming request from the Committee for delivery of the two Cuban counterrevolutionary handbooks. Comment: this will be the first instance in which the Committee has requested delivery of classified material.

8. (Confidential - THW) BRIEFING In response to a telephone call to George Cary from Representative William Moorhead (D., Pa.), I accompanied Brent Chambers and Pat Maher, ORPA, to a meeting with the Congressman to debrief him on the results of his trip to Cuba. Mr. Moorhead was very cooperative and contributed some interesting information on the Cuban situation. We also briefed him on the current situation in Nicaragua.

9. (Confidential - THW) LIAISON Received a call from Pete Bonner, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, who requested information on contact with Senator Ted Stevens (R., Alaska) during his recent trip. I gave him a brief rundown of the events that had taken place and told him I would get additional information for him as soon as I had received a key cable.
