COMMENTS

1. Classified SECRET this document presents no problem in a technical sense. (U)

2. Released in an unclassified format, the report would identify in extremely fine detail the workings of the Mexico City Station at the time of Lee H. Oswald's visit to Mexico City. Names of staffers and contract agents, cryptonyms, safe site locations, liaison with the Mexicans and unilateral operations against the Soviet target are discussed. (The report reveals a large political action program in Mexico at that time.) (S) ²⁴

3. The report is suspicious of CIA in tone and implies that CIA even today is concealing evidence, for example, Oswald's photograph. (U)
