25. (Confidential - LLM) LIAISON Brian Atwood, Congressional Relations, Department of State, called to explain that a task force had been established at State on the Middle East airplane package and asked if he could lay on a briefing for this group by us on the arms balance in the Middle East. Bob Hepworth's, NFAC/CSS, office was advised.

26. (Confidential - LLM) LIAISON Called Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, and concluded arrangements in connection with the Director's providing Senator Lowell Weicker (R., Conn.) certain KCIA material and outlined the terms and conditions of the covering letter from the Director to Senator Weicker. Miller was in complete agreement with our proposed handling and agreed also that we should close the loop with Senator Adlai Stevenson (D., Ill.) in his capacity as Chairman of the Senate Select Committee on Ethics.

27. (Unclassified - LLM) LIAISON Frank Sullivan, Staff Director, Senate Armed Services Committee, called and we discussed current practice with respect to the granting of compartmented clearances.

28. (Confidential - LLM) LIAISON Called Mike Hershman, Deputy Staff Director, House International Relations Subcommittee on International Organizations (Fraser Subcommittee), and told him that as soon as he can have Chairman Donald Fraser (D., Minn.) execute the Addendum to the Memorandum of Understanding between the Agency and the Subcommittee, we were prepared at his convenience to show him the additional material which I had discussed with him. Hershman is pleased with the progress we are making and all indications are that Chairman Fraser will find it acceptable to rely upon Hershman's testimony exclusively on the FBI/CIA issue and there will be no necessity for a statement from the CIA or a CIA witness on KCIA.

✓ 29. (Unclassified - LLM) LIAISON Spoke with Bob Blakey, Staff Director, House Select Committee on Assassinations, concerning our general warrant letter and we did reach suitable language.
