SUBJECT: Clearance Through Customs on Leaving and Entering the United States of Official Couriers, Military Personnel, and Civilian Personnel Under Jurisdiction of the War Department Who are Carrying Classified Material.

TO : Commanding Generals:
SOS, ETOUSA,
Eighth Air Force,
V Corps,
Iceland Base Command.
Commanding Officer, European Wing, Air Transport Command.
Commanding Officer, U. S. Assault Training Center, ETOUSA.
Commandant, American School Center.

1. Letters, this headquarters, dated 24 February 1943, 18 May 1943 and 9 July 1943, file as above, subject: "Clearance of Army Officer Couriers and Civilian Personnel under Jurisdiction of the War Department through Customs on Leaving and Entering the United States" are rescinded.

2. In order to eliminate delay in the clearance through Customs of official couriers, military personnel, civilian employees of the War Department, and civilian employees of contractors for the War Department on leaving and entering the United States, and to provide a method by which matters of official military nature can be licensed and passed by Customs without examination, the following procedure has been established and is now in effect:

a. Official Couriers.

(1) Military personnel acting in the capacity of a special courier will bear a letter signed by or by authority of the Secretary of War, the Under Secretary of War, an Assistant Secretary of War, the Chief of Staff, the Commanding General of the Army Ground Forces, the Commanding General of the Army Air Forces, the Commanding General of the Army Service Forces, an Assistant Chief of Staff of the War Department General Staff, the Chiefs of the supply and administrative services, a general officer, the commanding officer of a depot, post, camp, station, or independent command, the commandant of a general or special service school, the chief of a military mission, a military attaché, or a military observer, a Courier Transfer Officer, a Military Intelligence (Certifying) Officer, or their respective executive officers certifying to the official capacity of the courier. This letter will also describe by package or letter numbers the exterior covers of any official documents that are desired to be exempted from examination by Customs. (See paragraph (3) below)

311.4

August 24, 1943

Subject: To Identify (Captain John Smith) as an Official Army Courier.

TO: Collector, U. S. Bureau of Customs, (Port of Departure or Entry).

1. The above named person is acting in an official capacity as courier for this headquarters and is carrying two packages and one letter. The packages are addressed as follows: No. 1, To the Commanding General, Alaska Defense Command, from The Adjutant General, War Department, Washington, D. C.; No. 2, To the Commanding General, Alaska Defense Command, from the Commanding General, Army Ground Forces, War Department, Washington, D.C. The letter is addressed to the Commanding General, Alaska Defense Command, from the Commanding General, Army Service Forces, War Department, Washington, D.C.

2. Each of the above items is further identified by the inscription on the cover "Official United States Communication to be Exempted from Censorship", followed by the signature and title of the respective commanding officers or executive officers.

For the Commanding General:

JOHN ADAMS,
Major, Infantry,
Executive Officer.

(4) All other communications carried by official couriers will be surrendered to the Customs officers at the port of departure or entry into the United States. When any other documents which are official in character and necessary in the interest of our war effort, including confidential and secret orders are found, Customs will immediately request the nearest Military Intelligence Service Branch Office, or District Office, or representative thereof, for certification as to their official nature and exemption from censorship examination.

g. Military Personnel.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

(AG 311.4 X, Hq ETGUS, 16 September 1943, cont'd)

(1) If military personnel arrive at ports of departure or entry without complying with the provisions of sub-paragraph a (1) and (2) above, all personal documents will be surrendered to Customs for censorship examination. When classified official documents or documents claimed by the traveler to be official in character and necessary in the interest of our war effort are found, Customs will immediately request the nearest Military Intelligence Service Branch Office, or District Office, or representative thereof, for certification and exemption from censorship examination.

c. Civilian Personnel.

(1) Civilian personnel, employed by the War Department or by contractors for the War Department, will upon arriving at ports of departure or entry, surrender all personal documents to Customs for censorship examination. When classified official documents or documents claimed to be official in character and necessary in the interest of our war effort are found, Customs will immediately request the nearest Military Intelligence Service Branch Office, or District Office, or representative thereof, for certification and exemption from censorship examination.

3. The attention of all personnel concerned is invited to the following:

a. Customs regulations provide that an exemption from Customs duty for $100 worth of merchandise is granted returning residents of the United States. Such exemption may, however, be claimed only once in any 30 day period. All items of merchandise acquired abroad must be declared to Customs officers at the Port of entry into the United States.

b. Communications being sent by one individual to another individual, by an office to an individual, or by an individual to an office are not official and must be turned over to Customs officers for examination. No mail of this nature should be in packages of official communications which are desired to be exempted from examination by Customs.

c. The carrying of personal communications for other individuals is specifically prohibited by paragraph 8b, W.D., TC 15, 1943, which is quoted below:

"Private communications originating in, or destined for, a theater of operations will be transmitted only by means of authorized systems of communication, such as the Army Postal Service, approved telephone, telegraph, express, cable, or radio systems. They will not under any circumstances be dispatched from a theater of operations by any means other than those authorized. Persons guilty of using unauthorized means of communications to evade censorship will be disciplined as will those who act as unauthorized messengers conveying such communications to another."

d. All personal documents taken by Customs from military personnel or civilian personnel employed by the War Department or by contractors for the War Department will be referred by Customs to the nearest District Postal Censorship Station or Traveler Censorship Station for examination and recommendation as to disposition, or will be acted upon by Customs.

AG 311.4 1

16 September 1943

SUBJECT: Clearance Through Customs on Leaving and Entering the United States of Official Couriers, Military Personnel, and Civilian Personnel Under Jurisdiction of the War Department Who are Carrying Classified Material.

TO : Commanding Generals:
SOS, ETOUSA,
Eighth Air Force,
V Corps,
Iceland Base Command.
Commanding Officer, European Wing, Air Transport Command.
Commanding Officer, U. S. Assault Training Center, ETOUSA.
Commandant, American School Center.

1. Letters, this headquarters, dated 24 February 1943, 18 May 1943 and 9 July 1943, file as above, subject: "Clearance of Army Officer Couriers and Civilian Personnel under Jurisdiction of the War Department through Customs on Leaving and Entering the United States" are rescinded.

2. In order to eliminate delay in the clearance through Customs of official couriers, military personnel, civilian employees of the War Department, and civilian employees of contractors for the War Department on leaving and entering the United States, and to provide a method by which matters of official military nature can be licensed and passed by Customs without examination, the following procedure has been established and is now in effect:

a. Official Couriers.

(1) Military personnel acting in the capacity of a special courier will bear a letter signed by or by authority of the Secretary of War, the Under Secretary of War, an Assistant Secretary of War, the Chief of Staff, the Commanding General of the Army Ground Forces, the Commanding General of the Army Air Forces, the Commanding General of the Army Service Forces, an Assistant Chief of Staff of the War Department General Staff, the Chiefs of the supply and administrative services, a general officer, the commanding officer of a depot, post, camp, station, or independent command, the commandant of a general or special service school, the chief of a military mission, a military attache, or a military observer, a Courier Transfer Officer, a Military Intelligence (Certifying) Officer, or their respective executive officers certifying to the official capacity of the courier. This letter will also describe by package or letter numbers the exterior covers of any official documents that are desired to be exempted from examination by Customs. (See paragraph (3) below)

(2) Each package or envelope containing official matter that is to be exempted from examination will bear on its exterior cover the inscription: "Official United States Army Communication Exempted from Censorship", followed by the signature and official title of the Commanding Officer or his executive officer dispatching the documents by special courier.

(3) In order to establish a uniform procedure to comply with the requirements of paragraphs (1) and (2) above, the following is submitted as a guide:

War Department
HEADQUARTERS ARMY GROUND FORCES
Washington 25, D. C.

311.4

August 24, 1943

Subject: To Identify (Captain John Smith) as an Official Army Courier.

TO: Collector, U. S. Bureau of Customs, (Port of Departure or Entry).

1. The above named person is acting in an official capacity as courier for this headquarters and is carrying two packages and one letter. The packages are addressed as follows: No. 1, To the Commanding General, Alaska Defense Command, from The Adjutant General, War Department, Washington, D. C.; No. 2, To the Commanding General, Alaska Defense Command, from the Commanding General, Army Ground Forces, War Department, Washington, D.C. The letter is addressed to the Commanding General, Alaska Defense Command, from the Commanding General, Army Service Forces, War Department, Washington, D.C.

2. Each of the above items is further identified by the inscription on the cover "Official United States Communication to be Exempted from Censorship", followed by the signature and title of the respective commanding officers or executive officers.

For the Commanding General:

JOHN ADAMS,
Major, Infantry,
Executive Officer.

(4) All other communications carried by official couriers will be surrendered to the Customs officers at the port of departure or entry into the United States. When any other documents which are official in character and necessary in the interest of our war effort, including confidential and secret orders are found, Customs will immediately request the nearest Military Intelligence Service Branch Office, or District Office, or representative thereof, for certification as to their official nature and exemption from censorship examination.

3. Military Personnel.

CONFIDENTIAL

(AG 311.4 I, Hq ETCHS, 16 September 1943, cont'd)

(1) If military personnel arrive at ports of departure or entry without complying with the provisions of sub-paragraph a (1) and (2) above, all personal documents will be surrendered to Customs for censorship examination. When classified official documents or documents claimed by the traveler to be official in character and necessary in the interest of our war effort are found, Customs will immediately request the nearest Military Intelligence Service Branch Office, or District Office, or representative thereof, for certification and exemption from censorship examination.

c. Civilian Personnel.

(1) Civilian personnel, employed by the War Department or by contractors for the War Department, will upon arriving at ports of departure or entry, surrender all personal documents to Customs for censorship examination. When classified official documents or documents claimed to be official in character and necessary in the interest of our war effort are found, Customs will immediately request the nearest Military Intelligence Service Branch Office, or District Office, or representative thereof, for certification and exemption from censorship examination.

3. The attention of all personnel concerned is invited to the following:

a. Customs regulations provide that an exemption from Customs duty for $100 worth of merchandise is granted returning residents of the United States. Such exemption may, however, be claimed only once in any 30 day period. All items of merchandise acquired abroad must be declared to Customs officers at the Port of entry into the United States.

b. Communications being sent by one individual to another individual, by an office to an individual, or by an individual to an office are not official and must be turned over to Customs officers for examination. No mail of this nature should be in packages of official communications which are desired to be exempted from examination by Customs.

c. The carrying of personal communications for other individuals is specifically prohibited by paragraph 8b, W.D., TC 15, 1943, which is quoted below:

"Private communications originating in, or destined for, a theater of operations will be transmitted only by means of authorized systems of communication, such as the Army Postal Service, approved telephone, telegraph, express, cable, or radio systems. They will not under any circumstances be dispatched from a theater of operations by any means other than those authorized. Persons guilty of using unauthorized means of communications to evade censorship will be disciplined as will those who act as unauthorized messengers conveying such communications to another".

d. All personal documents taken by Customs from military personnel or civilian personnel employed by the War Department or by contractors for the War Department will be referred by Customs to the nearest District Postal Censorship Station or Traveler Censorship Station for examination and recommendation as to disposition, or will be acted upon by Customs.
