Summary of Contents

1. José Antonio BALBUENA PICO¹ and Juan WERRY Sánchez,² leaders of the Directorio Revolucionario Estudiantil (Revolutionary Student Directory) formed at the University of Havana, met in October 1955 in Miami, Florida, with two delegates of FICORCASTRO and with Carlos PRIO Socarrás to plan the uprising against the GARCIA regime. The delegates of the three groups agreed on a plan which called for CASINO's group to land in Oriente and the other two groups to go into action at the same time in support of CASINO's landing and subsequent activities. Faustino VILLALBA, a revolutionary, and Juan Manuel GONZÁLEZ, who was killed in the Sierra Maestra fighting, were CASINO's delegates. Carlos MAESTRINI, former Minister of Labor, accompanied Carlos PRIO.

After the assassination of José Antonio BALBUENA PICO in late October 1955, WERRY, and other members of the Directorio Revolucionario [sic] did not go into hiding because they were accused by President Fulgencio BATAZOLA of being the authors of BALBUENA PICO's death. Since then they have been working clandestinely to organize, arm, and prepare their group to go into action. There are approximately 100 men hidden in the Habana area awaiting the signal to strike, and other groups are ready throughout the island. Considerable support is expected from Cuban Navy personnel, once the action starts, as well as from many persons who have asked to join the group but have not been incorporated into the group for lack of proper arms. The Directorio has also been in contact with Army personnel and hopes that many of the troops will desert or go over to the Directorio's side when the fighting begins.

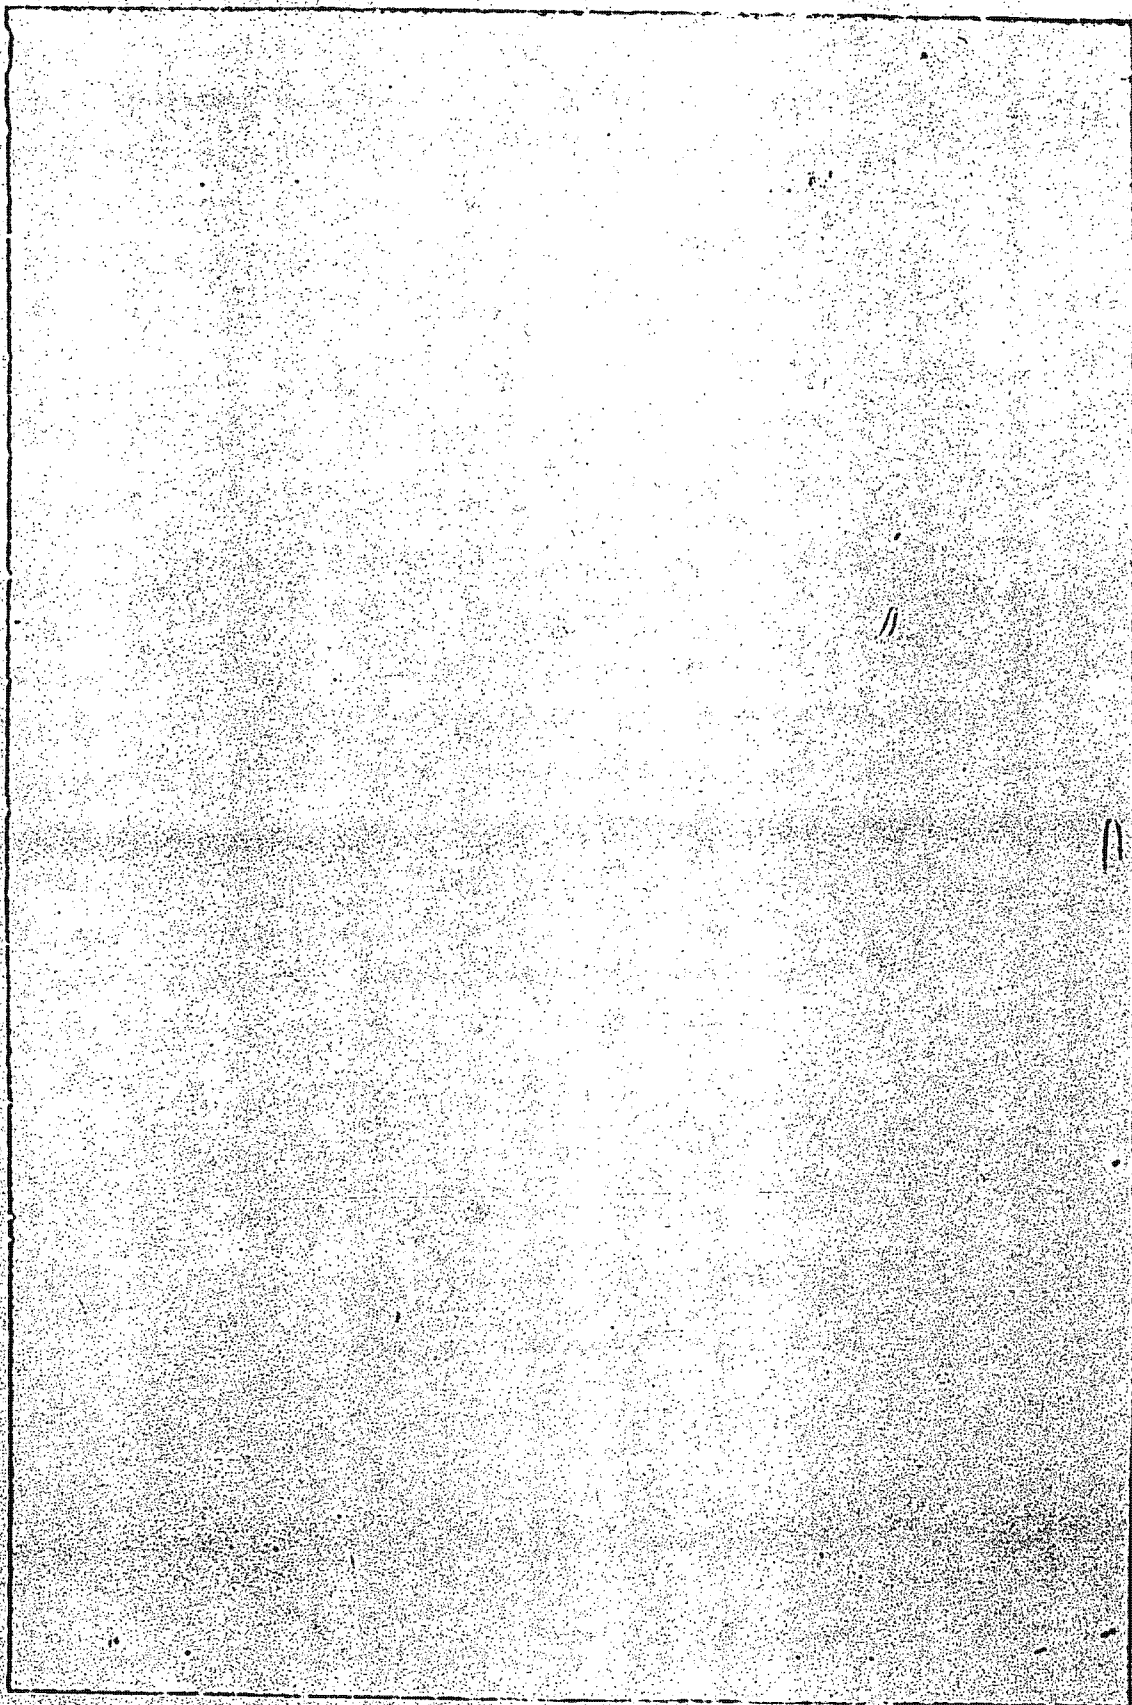

The Directorio does not know or understand why the FIED group, which is believed to be well-armed, has not gone into action as yet. The Directorio knows that FIED has given instructions to his group leaders to remain quiet, but the reasons behind these instructions have not been determined.
