[Redacted], mailed two letters from Washington, D. C., on 29 June 1955, one to his father, and another to [Redacted] however, in so doing, [Redacted] placed the letter to his father in the envelope addressed to [Redacted] and the letter to [Redacted] in the envelope addressed to his father. When the letters were received by [Redacted] and [Redacted] both noting the error, they exchanged letters. However, [Redacted] considered the contents of the letter he had at first received important enough to turn over to his brother [Redacted], who in turn referred it to the Boston Office of the FBI.

The letter, in substance, indicated that while [Redacted] was serving in South America, [Redacted] for this Agency, he had revealed his true status to his wife's father, [Redacted], on a visit to South America, and who later had revealed this information to [Redacted] father. In correspondence following [Redacted] father having become knowledgeable of [Redacted] true status, he indicates that therein he might have intimated that his work was not so hush-hush, and that on that basis [Redacted] father "had dropped his guard" in effect, and had told others of [Redacted] true status. This letter was a warning to [Redacted] father that he should attempt to correct the indiscretion of revealing [Redacted] status while he was in South America. The letter refers to other letters which [Redacted] indicates contained information revealed through indiscretion on his part, and which he asks his father to destroy.

According to our records, [Redacted] was granted an Operational Clearance on 22 May 1953, for use as a witting informant or as a contract agent on anti-Communist student activities. He was used as a contract agent from September 1953 to February 1955 in [Redacted] under [Redacted]

He is of Portuguese extraction, and he or his father had changed the family name from [Redacted] to [Redacted] his wife's maiden name was [Redacted] She was a [Redacted] name when he married prior to attendance at Northwestern University.

He attended Northeastern University from 1947 to 1951 and received an AB Degree; Boston University from 1951 to 1952 where he received an MA Degree in Latin American Regional Studies; and at Vanderbilt University from 1952 to 1953 working toward a Ph.D. Degree.

His activities at Northeastern University were supervised by Professor Maurice WITMAN. His relationship with WITMAN was described by most informants as no more than professor-student relationship; however, covering [Redacted] and [Redacted] the letter intended for [redacted] father, advised the FBI that he, ONSI, had attended Boston University during the period [redacted] was studying under HALPERIN. [redacted] was of the opinion that the HALPERIN-[redacted] relationship was more than just the professor-student type because [redacted] saw HALPERIN during the evenings, but never told [redacted] what he discussed with HALPERIN.

[redacted] also advised that about June 1953, just before [redacted] departure for Rio de Janeiro, [redacted] called HALPERIN on the telephone and at that time HALPERIN was under investigation. [redacted] told [redacted] that HALPERIN was in a predicament, and that he, [redacted] felt sorry for him. Earlier [redacted] had told [redacted] that HALPERIN had a lot of influence in Washington, and was going to get a job for [redacted].

According to the FBI, the HALPERIN mentioned above, appears to be identical with Maurice Ryan HALPERIN, former employee of OSS, who was identified in November 1945 by Elizabeth BENTLEY as having furnished information for transmittal to the Soviets.

[redacted] recently contacted this Agency requesting permission to state that he had worked for the agency in his application for employment with [redacted] WH Division, to whom this request was forwarded, was advised that [redacted] was not to disclose his past employment with this Agency. [redacted] Division, in turn, informed Security of their desires that [redacted] be informed of [redacted] past connections with this Agency.

Security, on the basis of the above request by WH Division, contacted the appropriate person in [redacted] and advised them on a controlled basis of [redacted] former affiliation with this Agency.
