MEMO FOR THE RECORD:

SUBJECT: AELADLE

1. On the morning of 22 August, Mr. Stein asked that a brief be prepared for Mr. Helms use in briefing Attorney General Kennedy, who had just received a call from AELADLE.

2. Attached is a thermofax of a copy of the brief prepared for Mr. Helms by Mr. Stein. It was based primarily on two memos from the [redacted] dated 8 Aug 63, the other dated 13 Aug 63 (both are in the 201). We also attached a copy of WE/DC's Memo dated 17 July 63 (cc in 201) which was a "progress report" on AELADLE's activities in the UK up to that point.

3. In the course of assembling materials needed, I learned the following:

a) Steve Kuhn, Office of Security (red line 1250) is familiar with the case (he calls AELADLE "The Prince of Wales"), and has instructions to be on the alert for calls coming in from "Mr. Stone." He has also determined thru his LANS sources that AELADLE and family are now in the United States.

b) AELADLE has given the address of his Virginia house (now occupied by other tenants) as a reference. His present address is not known. (I'm not sure who told me this, possibly Steve Kuhn).

c) No attempt has been made to contact AELADLE by

d) Ray Rocca of CI Staff seemed to be the person in from Jim Hunt who was on leave today) who knows any substantive about the AELADLE case.
