DISPATCH

CAMP C. STATION [redacted]

Chief, Western Hemisphere Division

62

Operator of Module 4, MACETONE-1

1. In accordance with a policy decision to keep EKHERALD contact with U. S. business representatives discreet, a small luncheon was held in lieu of the customary formal briefings in the Headquarters building. [MACETONE-1] IDENTITY 1, David C. HIGBY and Floyd N. ALMONET attended the luncheon which was characterized by cordiality and candor.
- ② [MACETONE-1] waited until the conclusion of the meeting to raise his current favorite subject, that of countering the leftist propaganda contained in SHEMPERA. Fortunately, HIGBY was forewarned and effectively turned around the thrust of the effort upon [MACETONE-1]'s shoulders, without offending him. IDENTITY impressed HIGBY with his interest, intelligence and sincerity. He offered the services of IDENTITY 2 to "Mr. Chairman" on our behalf but was convinced by HIGBY that the best way to approach the problem was through the individual use of individual members, rather than through IDENTITY 2 as an organization.
2. Discussions were held concerning Mexican affairs as well as Hemispheric trends. In the former category, our guests were most disturbed about the nationalization process in Mexico and enumerated the latest cases with some alarm. [REDACTED] reported his prediction that President ECHEVERRIA would effectively nationalize most private investment in Mexico before the end of his term.

3. The meeting was judged effective and afforded EICSY the opportunity to lay the ground work for his future relations with IDENTITY 2 members, while satisfying the guests' need for reassurance that our goals were parallel. They appeared happy with the conversations despite the informality.
