MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Dave Phillips

At 1430 hours on this date I was telephoned by Dave Phillips from New York who informed me that he had several sessions with Joshua Powers, who was enthusiastic about the film. Partly through the assistance of Mr. Powers he was able to show the film to several dozen prospective clients, and it is Phillips' estimate that it may be possible to sell the film strictly on a commercial basis.

Phillips feels that it will take about 10 days for the prospective clients to make up their minds and, therefore, he was authorized (by Colonel King) to return to Havana and then come back to New York when needed, which will be about the 20th of April. Phillips will remain in New York until Friday, 17 April. His phone number and address are known to the undersigned.
