1. For your information, we no longer carry [redacted]

[redacted] We assume he has departed PCS.

3. The following are comments made on 8 July 1970: [redacted]

He is very security conscious, especially in dealing with "official people" or superiors. He mentions his name to his friends freely, but refuses to say his name when he knows that one of the superiors is calling, "this is the duty officer" [redacted] would say several times. He often lectures people when they violate security regulations when talking on the telephone. [redacted] has to be persuaded several times or even

2. Subject is not identical to [redacted] (201-121531). When Subject first arrived [redacted] in August 1962, he was reported as [redacted] and this error was not corrected until May 1965; therefore, two Checklists carried the wrong man PCS [redacted]. When the records were corrected, the Subject's birthdate was not, and the same date was listed for both parties. Headquarters records do not list a wife or other dependents for [redacted] and, as far as is known, he has not been assigned abroad PCS prior to the date of this dispatch.

1. Headquarters agrees that Subject is probably not identical with [redacted] (201-121531) as was earlier believed, and has accordingly assigned [redacted] 201-779495. A full Headquarters trace under that name turned up no information other than that originating from [redacted] Station, which has now been re-classified into the new file. We are puzzled by the fact that [redacted] 1850, dated 1 September 1962, the first piece of correspondence from [redacted] Station on Subject, reported him [redacted]

2. A photo comparison of the two individuals in this case is not satisfactory proof that they are in fact two people because of the difference in years and exposure in the photographs. The [redacted] traces on [redacted] reflect only a date and place of birth as identifying data. It is hoped that [redacted] Station can obtain soon identifying biographic data [redacted] in order to firmly resolve the matter.
