0 Organizational planning of Dissident Communist Party of Greece

Athens 22 July 1972

REF ID: A6 2234

1. As of mid-July 1972, the Dissident Communist Party of Greece (DKEG) was attempting to reorganize itself by establishing a new leadership in Greece. An effort will be made to hold a conference of party cadres within the next few months to determine if new leaders can be chosen from among cadres living in Greece legally. If so, the DKEG leaders living abroad will resign and the party will run from within Greece. At that time, DKEG cadres living in Greece illegally will leave the country. (Source Comment: Although the DKEG will thus be directed by legal residents, their activities on behalf of the DKEG will be illegal according to Greek law and the members could be subject to arrest.)

2. Leonidas Tzoufrenis, former EKE Central Committee member and leading DKEG member living illegally in Greece, described his plan for the reorganization as follows:

a. Political Committee - to consist of five or six people with responsibility for establishing the party's political goals, forming party policy regarding Greek political developments and issuing statements in the name of the DKEG.

b. Organizational Committee - to try to reactivate the former leaders of the party who now "refuse to get involved". Because of the political situation in Greece, there will be no effort made to gain mass recruitments into the party. There will be no contact between members of the Organizational and Political Committees.

c. Committee Abroad - to have its headquarters in a West European capital and to represent DKEG interests with other

1. Following, for your information only, is a summary of a recent report received from the Bureau [REDACTED]

DFB-25962

When requesting renewal of his passport in November 1952, [REDACTED] stated that it was necessary for him to return [REDACTED] because of business affairs. He said he wished to sell his printing plant [REDACTED] until September 1952, which was being operated [REDACTED] under a partnership agreement.

The Bureau's report also furnished information from another government agency (not identified) dated December 1951 indicating that [REDACTED] plant had done considerable work for the US. According to this report, [REDACTED] had received a [REDACTED] dated 17 December 1951 [REDACTED] director of his firm [REDACTED] stating that there was a possibility of a great deal of work [REDACTED] if [REDACTED] could return [REDACTED] to get the process in operation.

In addition, the Bureau reported that [REDACTED] passport [REDACTED] was renewed on 9 February 1953 validated for four months only, i.e., until 8 June 1953, and limited [REDACTED]

COMMUNICATIONS SERVICE

1st: Wrote to Searcher. See ZSFA-100

2nd: Gave a dinner party for Mr. and Mrs. van Griem (head of National Parks) and the von Heilers. In entertaining, the custom here is to mix business with classy people, and I am following custom.

3rd: Drove to Johannesburg to lunch with the Bruce Crawfords. While there, I met [REDACTED] representative of the USA-AEC. Stayed over for non-entertaining, which I provided. Scotch is practically unobtainable here for non-classy people, and the local liquor is definitely sub-standard. Anyone carrying a bottle of Scotch for entertainment is voted as the man most likely to succeed.

5th: Had Seaman and wife to dinner.

7th: Drove to Johannesburg to meet William Potts (Director of Tsetse Research in Transvaal) and A. [REDACTED] of the Kenya Administration. Took them and the ladies to the Criterion night-club (sic). Potts and [REDACTED] are on their way to French West Africa for a conference. Arranged to meet them on their way back.

8th: Mr. and Mrs. David [REDACTED] stayed with us for a day to meet a number of medical appointments which my wife had been able to arrange for them.

12th: Searcher came to Pretoria for the day. In view of all hope of using him. Too changed. See ZSFA-100.

13th: In the evening I called on a girl at her apartment but found she already had a visitor, the sub-editor of the Pretoria News. Chatted a while, then left.

14th: Gave a luncheon party at the Pretoria Club for the mining fraternity. Guests: Mr. Johnson of the B.C.A.,
Mr. J. J. ... of the S.A. Geological Dept.
Mr. ... S.A. Geological Dept.
Mr. ... Department of Mines
Mr. ... Department of Mines
Mr. ... Department of Mines
Mr. ... S.A. A.S.E.
Mr. ... Commercial Attache
Mr. ... Mineral Attache

Not being a member of the Pretoria club, I had to give the lunch through Birch, who is.

15th: Gave a cocktail-dinner party for as many as the house would hold.

Guests:
Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hold (Head of Road Safety Department)
Mr. and Mrs. ... (Instructor-Technical College)
Mr. and Mrs. Roberts (Lecturer - Pretoria Univ.)
Miss Woolman (singer)
Dr. and Mrs. H. ... (Consul General)
Mr. and Mrs. ... (Attorney - ...)

18th: Picked up William Fottis and A. ... at the Palmfontein Airport (fifty miles from Pretoria) at 1 A.M. Put them up for the night.

19th: Took them back to the airport. ... said he had no intention of settling in Kenya after his retirement. Too much agitation among the Kikuyu natives -- too many Indians crowding the place. More and more people are saying that they see no future in Africa for the European.

22nd: Attended a big cocktail party at the Steyns (Senior). My wife met and charmed a Mrs. [unclear] whose husband is in charge of training the police for the whole of South Africa. I've been wanting to cultivate police circles for some time, and this may prove to be the opening wedge. Met Coert Steinberg, noted sculptor; also Aubrey Poseman, painter and architect.

23rd: Had dinner with Dr. Stoker's. Met Mrs. [unclear] (?) widow of a former S.A. Minister; Mrs and Gen. [unclear] (?) from S.A. diplomatic service. Stoker monopolized the conversation with stiff Afrikaner views on apartheid. Restrictions on political arguments apparently don't apply to Afrikaner homes.

24th: (Sunday) Spent the day with:
Mr. and Mrs. Phillip (Grey) van Aas, Stock Exchange
Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Frostson, Accountant, Standard Bank,
Johannesburg

25th: Picked up Sedative and gave her a bottle of Scotch and she asked me to come to her apartment and help her drink it. I will. I must find out if she is taciturn or just naturally dumb. If a few drinks doesn't loosen her tongue, I'll cross her off my list.

Mrs. Poseman called and invited me and mine to a birthday party she is giving for her husband. There is something about this artistic circle that isn't altogether normal. I intend to get a more intimate acquaintance with it. Viola, (I mean Mrs. Poseman) wanted an extra girl for the party but she wouldn't have Sedative.

26th: Senny is back from Cape Town. He seemed surprised when I told him I was now doing mineral work. He said no word had been received from Washington regarding this matter. I said no word was needed. I was happily at home working primarily on minerals and there was no reason for asking Washington's approval. With that, he brightened and said perhaps I was right, so that's the way it is. He showed me the cable sent to him March 30, which departs somewhat from yours of about the same time. His cable read in part "no objection to X conducting in mineral work until Friebie's arrival at which time he can devote full time to primary mission with cover well established." Our liaison officer might point out to the Department that covers must be maintained as well as established.

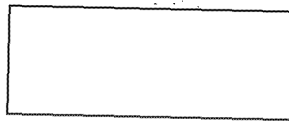

27th: Attended a cocktail party given by Major Morgan to welcome the military group just returned from Germany. Met, and talked with: Brian Hirst, British Military Liaison Officer; Captain Glass, Asst British Military Advisor; Comodoro Deán, who figured prominently in the recent S.A. military reshuffle; Douglas Cullinan, son of Sir Thomas Cullinan of diamond fame, and very wealthy in his own right. Glass and Cullinan seemed interested in furthering the acquaintanceship. Will do.

28th: Visited Cedative in her apartment from 5 P.M. until 6 P.M. A scotch and soda, even though she stirred it with surprising moderation, seemed to relax her inhibitions. It untied her tongue but not to the point of loquacity. I discerned something of her background: a Bohemian circle, apparently centering around her, broke up as the artist members married one by one. I sensed a bitterness, a disillusionment and many unspoken reproaches against herself as well as against others. She now has a 'fiance' but he does not seem to loom very large on the landscape. Before leaving I led the conversation to Johnny. She said she hadn't seen him for some time, then added that she would get in touch with him, presumably to do some political work in the buff.

29th: Attended a party at Abbey Posner's. When, at 2:30 A.M., the hardier guests prepared to make a night of it, we left. The group, artistically inclined, was settling down for a reading of quaint, erotic tales.

30th: Drove to Johannesburg to pick up Mr. and Mrs. Angus Collie, then to Germistown to attend the races with the Alex Wise's. In the evening Wise gave a party, following which we drove back to Johannesburg and spent the night with the Collie's.

I would like to describe the last two days in greater completeness but the pouch aunts.
