SOURCE, OPERATIONAL DATA AND COMMENTS:

SOURCE: Wallace C. Rikon from Manuel Francisco ARTECHE Buesa

SUBJECT: Activities of the Movimiento Recuperacion Revolucionaria (MRR), Anti-CASTRO Organization

COMMENTS:

1. Source does not remember names easily, and some of the names mentioned in this report may be incomplete. While Source was extremely open and co-operative in describing most details of the MRR, he refused to identify the MRR member within Cuban Army. Intelligence on the grounds that the information was too sensitive.
2. Regarding information requested in DIR-14969, Source reported that two radio stations are being established, one in Mexico and one in Cuba. The MRR manifesto is still pending and must be read by Source before it circulates in Cuba. The MRR has circulated the following anti-CASTRO materials:
  - (a) The resignation letter of Manuel Francisco ARTECHE Buesa;
  - (b) A chapter of ARTECHE's book (the chapter is entitled "Unforgettable Meeting")
  - (c) A second letter from ARTECHE in reply to accusations made on television by Fidel CASTRO;
  - (d) Two pamphlets, entitled, PATRIOT, Father of Communism, by Oscar EXCEVAPRIA, and ANTI-Communist.
3. Regarding Para. 6, Source reported that Frank BENTON met, on the plane from Habana to Mexico, a member of the British Embassy in Mexico City who invited him, and through him, Source to talk with him at the British Embassy.

3. In addition to the integrated groups of the MGR, both inside and outside of Cuba, the MGR has relations and is endeavoring to obtain closer alliances, co-operation, or co-partition with the following: Manuel Antonio VASQUEZ and his followers within the Partido Autentico Abstencionista; leaders of the "MART" group; and the "27th of March" group of Camaguey province. The organization is also in touch with some former BATISTA officers, such as Major AGUERA and Manuel VILLARIA Martinez, and with Justo CALIXTO Hernandez. ] 06
4. The MGR needs: 1) a base where it can give military training to young people who lack military experience; 2) instructors to give the military training; and 3) equipment, including armaments and planes. Many Cubans, both in Cuba and abroad, have offered financial assistance to the MGR; however, the money will not be forthcoming until a base is established in Cuba from which the MGR can start working.
5. José CARRAL, Cuban now in Mexico, has been reported to the MGR as an informer for Field CUSTODIO unit. 5-6440
6. Frank MENDOZA, one of the ADU members who participated in the Bahia flotilla laying episode directed against Anastasio Somoza, is now in Mexico City. He said that many of those who participated in the event are in hiding and will have to leave Cuba. MENDOZA was discharged from his job in a bank for his part in the incident.
1. Field Comment: The names of groups and persons affiliated with the MGR were previously reported in [redacted] C5 3/12/60

2. VASQUEZ has great possibilities of becoming the candidate for president of the U.S.
3. This group is called either the "MGR" or "MGR".
4. The MGR excludes all well-known leftist elements, both civilian and military men; however, it has distant relatives in the anti-militarists associated with the ADU. It seems to have efforts to place them in minor roles within the ADU.
