SECRET NO FOREIGN DISSEM

- 2. Australly reliable source with good contacts in the reported that one (fau) ARMONAS was a Cuban 6-2 agent office at the Cuban Embassy in San Jose. ARMONAS reportedly was the senior official who went to Costa Rica with instructions to reorganize all existing Cuban fronts. This information was received in a report dated 21 August 1961.
- 3. This same source, in a report dated 1 September 1961, stated that (fnu) ARMONAS, the Cuban G-2 agent in Costa Rica, delivered a lecture at a meeting on 21 August 1961, sponsored by the Cubans. He spoke particularly to a group of Communist sympathizers and militants who were chosen to go to Cuba derive the week starting 27 Alignat 1961, to recoive all tools of instruction in guerrilla activities in the Province of Las Villas.
- 4. On 6 September 1961, a usually reliable source reported that Andres Nicolas ARMONA Ramos, diplomatic passport number D/61/175, arrived in Lexico on 15 May 1951, departed Mexico for Habana on 5 June 1961, returned to Kexico on 28 July 1961, and departed Mexico for San Jose on 30 July 1961. ARMONA was described as having been born in 1919, a mulatto; and married.
- 5. In the 7 August 1961, issue of the San Jose daily newspaper, La Hora, it was reported that Andres Nicolas ARUNA Ramos, the Culan Charge d'Affaires, was replacing Cuban Ambassador Juan Jose FUXA Szenz.
- 6. A report dated 29 August 1962, from a usually reliable source, stated that Andres ARMONA Ramos, the new Cuban Commercial Counselor of the Cuban Embassy in Mexico, arrived in Mexico on 24 August 1962, and would replace Ramon CUENCA Montoto.
- 7. A Mentican businessman with close contacts in commercial and shipping circles stated, in a report dated 29 October 1962, that there had been no evidence that Andres ARMONA Ramos had replaced CUENCA as chief of G-2 in Mexico. According to the source, ARMONA is highly intellectual and has no understanding of commercial activities. CUENCA suggested that ARMONA be transferred to the Cultural Section and source believes that this will be the case.
- 8. Documentary information received in a report dated 25 June 1963, from a representative of this Agency in Mexico revealed the following information:

andres ARECNA Ramos, a Negro who was born in Habana, Cuba, on 30 November 1918, is the Commercial Attache at the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City. He holds passport number D/62/490. His wife, Irma MILAN Olivera de Armona, holds passport number E/62/637. ARMONA has two children, Fidel ARMONA Eilan and Margarita ARMONA Eilan. In Mexico City, ARMONA and his family reside at Pachuca 127.

9. A report dated 23 April 1964, from a fairly reliable source, stated that Andres ARMONA, formorly of the Commercial Office of the Jubin Embassy in Mention, is in trouble in Gubin for having kept such poor records of expenditures; he came close to being thrown into jail. He has now been relegated to clipping newspapers, clearly demoted. He left things in such an awful mess at the office in Mexico City, people there are still trying to straighten out his accounts.
