Habana. He has the title, he told me, of Jefe del Cuartel, but I do not know of what compound he is the chief. He lives on Avenida 43, between Calle 120 and 122, on the south side of the street, exactly in the middle of the block. He is living with, but not married to, Luz Maria LNU. They have two boys, names unknown. He was formerly married to and divorced from Lidya VILLORIO. They have three sons: Jorge, Carlos, and a third whose name I forgot. They are all members of the Policia Nacional. My brother and his former wife also had two girls. He is now seeing his former wife again and living part of the time with her and part of the time with Luz Maria. I do not know if he is actually a member of any political party, but he is an avid supporter of the Castro government. On my last visit to see him prior to leaving Cuba, he told me that I should not go, that living conditions in Cuba are far better than in the United States, and that the future of Cuba is bright. He was born in 1910, is five feet four inches tall, weighs 175 pounds, has dyed brown hair (naturally gray), brown eyes, and a light complexion."

3. In a report dated 20 September 1962, an untested source reported information on the DTI of the Departamento de Orden Publico (DOP). In this report he stated that one Sergeant Tomas TOIRAC Ortiz, a self-declared Communist, was attached to the Carpeta (Receiving Section).
