THIS IS UNCLASSIFIED INFORMATION SOURCE USED FOR ALL DISSEMINATION OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

SOURCE: A member of a group of Cuban emigres trained in the techniques of information collection. The group has provided useful reports since 1961.

1. On 9 September 1965 Jorge Gutierrez Ulla, press secretary of the Movimiento Insurreccional de Recuperacion Revolucionaria (MIRR, Insurreccional Movement for Revolutionary Recovery) said that Orlando Bosch Avila, head of the MIRR, is very optimistic over the designation of Hector Garcia-Godoy Caceres as Provisional President of the Dominican Republic. According to Bosch, Roger Queralt, secretary of foreign relations of the MIRR in Puerto, is a close friend of Garcia-Godoy's. Queralt drafted a letter, which was signed by Bosch, congratulating Garcia-Godoy on his appointment. Both Bosch and Queralt expect assistance from Garcia-Godoy for the MIRR.

2. On 26 September Bosch said that the MIRR is regaining strength, and that it is buying all of the arms that are being sold by various emigre organizations. He commented that it is becoming more difficult to get arms in the United States. He said that before the end of 1965 the MIRR will carry out a "chain of actions which will make Fidel Castro Ruz tremble", and will raise the hopes of the emigres.

3. Sometime before 22 September, the MIRR bought 200 rounds of 20mm ammunition, and ordered 200 rounds of 75mm ammunition from the Service Armaments Company, 689 Bergen Boulevard, Ridgefield, New Jersey, a company from which the MIRR has bought armaments in the past.

4. On 21 September Bosch said that the Executive Committee of the MIRR had "approved the idea" of attacking a ship which trades with Cuba. He said that the attack will be soon, and may take place anywhere in the world, in a port or on the high seas. Personnel and equipment which is outside of the United States will be used for this operation. After the attack, at a press conference, the MIRR will "declare war" on all countries which trade with Cuba. At the press conference Bosch will present a "legal complaint" insisting that the MIRR has the "right of belligerence" to operate from territory of the United States. Bosch added that the MIRR delegation in Venezuela will try to gain the support of the port workers of Venezuela in the "declaration of war."
5. Bosch said on 26 September that he expected to receive a document from Cuba soon which would "give proof" that clandestine groups in Cuba have agreed to unite into a single front. The MIRR will be named to represent the new group abroad because the organization in Cuba knows that the MIRR is not a "phantom organization", that it has not "sold itself", and that it takes guidance from no one "who is not strictly Cuban." He said that when the document is received it will be announced at a press conference.
6. According to Guiterrez, the MIRR has received "considerable" money from people in Tampa, New York, California and Puerto Rico. Bosch said that he will soon solicit money from the Cuban municipal organizations (in exile) to help the MIRR carry out its plans.

Field Comment. A recent report from an independent source reported on a meeting between representatives of the MIRR and the Asociacion para la Reconstruccion Economica Cubana (AREC, Association for the Economic Reconstruction of Cuba) on 15 September 1965. The purpose of the meeting, called by the MIRR, was to ask the AREC for money to finance MIRR operations, to which the AREC agreed. At the meeting Bosch spoke of the action plans of the MIRR, in general terms, including an attack on a foreign vessel. He also spoke on the unity of the counterrevolutionary groups in Cuba.
