Subject: Davy Letter

As I filed the Davy materials in the correspondence file, I realized that beyond responding to Davy, I didn't know what else you did with the materials he sent to us. I would like to make an appropriate note in the file. The correspondence system has worked this way: if useful information is sent to us, related to an individual or a state/local government, a copy of the material goes to David for review. If it useful information which relates to a federal agency, a copy goes goes to Jeremy for review. I send a cover memo to David or Jeremy with the copy of the materials. The original materials which were sent to us go into the correspondence file, along with a copy of the cover memo to David or Jeremy. That's the correspondence trail. Please advise me on the route of the Davy letter. Thanks.
