Subject: Temp's Computer

We are having some problems with the temp's computer today. He does not have the capability to send E-Mail messages, so he has been advised to send all messages to Voice Mail whenever possible. He also has a message pad at the front desk, so if everyone can check in with him though out the day to see if you have any messages. Chet will be in later today and hopefully this will be fixed for tomorrow. Sorry for the Body: inconvenience.
