Subject: New Orleans hotels

I spoke yesterday with a former colleague of mine who is a New Orleans afficianado ( and who has just spent six months there investigating public corruption matters.) He recommended two small hotels in the French Quarter as excellent values and great properties. Hotel La Pavilion is on Poydras Street with a government rate of $66.00. Hotel LaFayette is on St. Charles Street with a government rate of $69.00. Both are a couple of blocks from the Federal Courthouse. My friend told me LaFayette has an outstanding restaurant on the premises, Michael's. (He warned that Michael's is NOT on government per diem rates.) Both hotels are sending me brochures and I'll pass them along if there is any interest, just let me know.
