Subject: Evelyn Lincoln Diary, Part II
I spoke with Gus Russo. He said that he had heard about the diary. In addition, Gus said it was mentioned in The Washington Post obituary (May 13, 1995, p. C5). Lincoln was apparently quoted in 1982 as saying that it would be made public after her death. Russo reiterated what Zaid had said that Robert White is the man who would know. Zaid was going to be talking to White, and will let us know anything he learns. Let me know if you want Ann to make a direct approach to White. We have phone numbers.
