Subject: Conversation with Kurtz about Preliminary Hearing Transcript

I spoke with Kurtz. He says that they do have the preliminary hearing transcript. It is about 1,000-1,500 pages, bound in 5 or six volumes and publicly available in the Special Collection Room of the SLU Library. Kurtz thinks that they go it directly from the District Court in New Orleans where the trial was held. He will check on that. We will probably have two choices: 1. Arrange with the SLU Library to have it copied or 2. If it is easier, get a copy from wherever SLU got it (District Court?). I'll let you know what Kurtz says.
