Subject: BRILAB Tapes

I have attached the call sheet on Morley's call regarding Goldfarb's op/ed and the BRILAB tapes. I suggest that we meet and talk about picking up the trail of the tapes where it left off with the review of BRILAB trial files in New Orleans. (Also, maybe use the opportunity to touch upon status of other matters such as Veciana.) CALL REPORTDocument's Author: Tom Samoluk/ARRB Date Created: 12/06/95 The Players Description of the Call Date: 12/06/95Subject: Author Goldfarb's Op/Ed on RFK's Fight Against Organized Crime and Possible Links to the JFK AssassinationSummary of the Call:11:25 p.m. - Morley called to say that Goldfarb (author of newly-released book on RFK's fight against organized crime, with reference to possible links to organized crime) will have an op/ed piece in the Sunday Washington Post Outlook Section. There will be reference to the ARRB (suggestion that the Board hold a hearing on possible organized crime link to the JFK and pursuit of BRILAB tapes). Morley asked about the BRILAB tapes. I told him that we had been actively pursuing the tapes, but did not have them yet. The fact that we have moved on getting the tapes will be reflected in the op/ed.
