Subject: (DP/fwd) DECLASSIFY MORE FILES (fwd)

I just thought I'd pass this along - we aren't the only ones crying out for the releases. Lisa Pease----- If you can't get the truth about the past, how can you expect to get the truth about the present?" - Jerry Brown, We The People talk show 1/11/96-----Check out the Real History Archives <http://www.webcom.com/~lpease>----- Forwarded message -----Date: Sat, 10 Feb 1996 18:47:55 -0800 (PST)From: Lisa Pease <lpease@netcom.com>To: jfk-conspiracy <jfk-conspiracy@netcom.com>Subject: (DP/fwd) DECLASSIFY MORE FILESThis is an action alert relating to the CIA's cover-up of their role in a political assassination. I hope people will take action on this - it couldn't be more relevant to what we are doing here./* ----- "URGENT ACTION: US INCIDENTS" ----- */ The Campaign for Peace and Life in Guatemala *** Action Alert ***11 February 1995 ACTION SUGGESTIONS REGARDING THE WASHINGTON FIREBOMBING Push Now for Full Investigations, the Cancellation of Visas& the Declassification of CIA Files In the early morning of Friday, January 5, 1996, the automobile of Jose Pertierra, a US lawyer who has been representing human rights campaigner Jennifer Harbury, was firebombed in Washington, DC. The vehicle was destroyed and burned in the driveway of Mr. Pertierra's home. Ms. Harbury is the widow of Guatemalan insurgency leader Efraim Bamaca, who was tortured and killed in 1992 by a paid CIA informant, Colonel Julio Alpirez. Alpirez has also been implicated in the 1990 murder of U.S. citizen Michael DeVine. Ms. Harbury's tireless quest for justice in her husband's case has brought attention to the need for thorough reforms that would end the CIA's relationships with repressive militaries. Her efforts have also brought renewed attention to the suffering of tens of thousands of Guatemalans who are seeking their "disappeared" relatives' whereabouts. The firebombing appears to be an attempt to frighten or intimidate Mr. Pertierra and Ms. Harbury and may have been carried out by agents of the Guatemalan Army. The bombing is being investigated by the FBI. Shooting at Jennifer Harbury's Home: At 1:00 A.M. on January 6, less than twenty-four hours after this firebombing, a shooting took place outside the home of Jennifer Harbury in Washington, DC. Five shots were heard, and one bullet entered the house (causing no injuries). The house is a religious community where a number of human rights activists reside, including Sister Dianna Ortiz, a US nun who was abducted, raped, and tortured by security forces in Guatemala in 1989. While gunshots related to common crime are not unusual for the area, the shooting may have been intended as a direct threat against Jennifer Harbury and others. Ms. Harbury has, in the past, been approached by FBI agents regarding reports that Guatemalan military officials were planning her assassination. There have been several attempts to intimidate Harbury in Guatemala and the staff of the Guatemala Human Rights Commission/USA
