Subject: Western New England College Sprague Photo Collection

According to Dave, it is up to us to pursue the Collection with Western New England. The archivist expressed a desire to "get rid" of the photo collection, but was not sure that the College administration would go along with that. I suggest that I extend one of my Boston trips to go to the college and look at the collection. That would allow us to determine whether we really want it for the Archives. The face-to-face visit might also allow to make the case why the college should want to donate it (historical record, more people get to see, college gets credit, better preservation, etc.) Please advise me of what you would like to do on this matter.
