Subject: Our News Release on Our Subpoena of Connick and Garrison Records
 BEGIN FORWARDED MESSAGE. TOM: THANKS FOR YOUR REPLY, WHICH MAKES GOOD SENSE TO ME. HAS CONNICK REACTED at all? It's too bad it had to come to this, and I hope this matter can soon be laid to rest! Ice yesterday, and now 4" of snow! This winter in indeed interminable... Perhaps by the time of our next meeting, things will be easier... Looking forward to seeing you then, --BillTo: "William L. That did not happen. With the filing made yesterday by the Justice Department on our behalf, andthe prospect of a hearing date being set soon, we wanted toget out ahead of Connick and anything he might say againstus. Plus, since all of the filings are public and with eachfiling it was more likely that a court reporter would spotthe case, we wanted to get our story out for that reason. We waited a month before saying anything, but felt now wasthe time to speak. I hope all is well, you are not snowed in, and we'll see you in 10 days.Tom To: Tom_Samoluk @ jfk-arrr.gov (Tom Samoluk) @ Internetcc: (bcc: Tom Samoluk/ARRB)From: wljoyce @ firestone.Princeton.EDU ("William L.
