David met today a person who formerly worked as a photograph assistant to John Stringer at Bethesda and who would very much like to talk about the autopsy photos. Could you (or Doug) try and set up a time for us to talk to him on Wednesday or Thursday of this week? Tracy has his number. It might be useful for Doug to prepare some questions, particularly about the technical aspects of taking the photographs (cameras used, developing issues, standard procedures, etc.) as well as anything he has heard from Stringer.
