Subject: Information on Luis Angel Castillio
The attached information was provided to us by John Judge. He stated to me that former NSA employee Robert Lipka raised the name of Luis Angel Castillio, a somewhat obscure individual sometimes mentioned in connection with the assassination during a recent bail hearing (as reported in the attached article from the Philadelphia Inquirer). Judge wanted to alert us to this interesting part of the Lipka bail hearing. He has provided background information from a couple of different sources. Judge is suggesting that, at a minimum, there may be relevant NSA records and foreign government records. He would be glad to discuss this matter with you.
