Subject: Re: It's David Snyder at it again

I see the CIA's longtime friend at the Times Picayune is still earning a living from outside sources. :)David Snyder's tenure there predates the assassination. But he was covering the same CIA interests - at that time the Cuban exile community in New Orleans and their anti-Castro activities.This is hilarious, were it not for the ignorance of far too many about the validity of Garrison's case, which Jack Anderson, among others, admitted to the FBI. And even the FBI themselves admitted Clay Shaw WAS Clay Bertrand - the reason Garrison found him in the first place was because Clay Bertrand was calling Dean Andrews asking him to represent Oswald after the assassination (and before Oswald's murder of course.)Snyder should have been laughed out of journalism long ago. And this diary sounds suspiciously late. Why didn't it surface right after his acquittal? :) Does he admit to his real activities in it? :) And which handwriting "expert" verified it was in his hand? "Experts" are a dime a dozen - especially those willing to lie for an official cause.
