Subject: two media advisory questions
1. Should I send (electronically and to a select few by fax) the very brief Oprah advisory I wrote?2. Should I send yesterday's Powers advisory to the mailing list/electronic list? I am planning on sending out tomorrow's press release to the public (by mail and e-mail) by the end of the week, but was thinking that sending yesterday's advisory out electronically today may just generate more calls from people we can't even give the film to.thanks for your input.
