Subject:

David and Judy, Tracy mentioned that you had a laptop with you, so I thought I'd give an e-mail a try. I was deeply saddened to hear about the death of Judy's father. Although I never met him, David had told me enough stories to make me feel like I had met him. His long and interesting career as a professional and college basket ball referee was fodder for a lot of good stories, as well as his affinity for carefully and religiously watching the stock market on the business channel. Please accept my sincere condolences upon his death. The thoughts and prayers of those of us who did not know him, but enjoyed hearing stories about his interesting career and many successes in life, are with you. Sincerely, Tom Samoluk
