Body: I'll keep tabs on the progress of the HSCA report. I learned from Steve Tilley yesterday that Marina Oswald, with the help of the assassination community, has finally agreed to release the tax forms. Steve said that he has them at Archives and that he is expecting a letter from Marina this week. I told David about it and he said he was aware of the progress, but not the timetable. He suggested I alert Laura, which I'm doing with this note. Tim is checking with NSA today and continues to work on the military intercepts. Phil says he's continuing to look for the letter concerning the FBI/DOS appeals/objections. Dave is continuing to pursue the Garrison tapes. In the meantime, I've been sounding out Public Radio, CBS, The New York Times and other media regarding their interest in pending releases. Ms. August, the Time reporter, continues to be interested in our releases. Ms. Eden of the Cleveland Plain-Dealer is still out caring for her ill father. Mike Dorman of Newsday is working on a story. I learned late yesterday that he interviewed Mr. Hosty.
