AMSubject: WMAL Talk ShowLonna Saunders, a talk-show host with WMAL in Washington, would like to schedule you tonight. He would like you to participate from 10:08 p.m., CST to 11:00 p.m., CST. There will be questions phoned in by the listening audience, but this program is more intellectual than most radio talk shows. Ms. Saunders says that President Clinton is a listener. Last night she interviews Mrs. Rabin. She is the former chair of the Law and Media Committee of the American Bar Association. Ms. Saunders has a law degree from Northwestern and a BS from Vassar. Her phone number is (202) 686-3020, but she doesn't get in until after 6 p.m. EST. Her voice mail is (202) 333-2258. And the line to call to appear on the show is (202) 686-3010. I would recommend that you participate in the program. Please let me know if you are available. If you agree to participate, I suggest that WMAL call you, at a number you provide, so they can pay the long-distance charges. Respectfully, Thom Wilborn
